(1) Represents the estimated maximum number of shares of the Registrant's common stock, par value $0.001 per share, to be issued upon completion of the merger described herein. This number is based on 12,478,553 shares of Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (CTWS) common stock, without par value, the estimated maximum number of shares of CTWS common stock outstanding or reserved for issuance under various equity plans or otherwise, immediately prior to the merger, and the exchange of each such share of CTWS common stock for 1.1375 shares of SJW Group (SJW) common stock, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of March 14, 2018, among SJW, Hydro Sub, Inc. and CTWS, which is attached to the joint proxy statement/prospectus included in this Registration Statement on Form S-4 as Annex A.

(2) The proposed maximum aggregate offering price of the registrant's common stock was calculated based upon the market value of shares of CTWS common stock in accordance with Rules 457(c) and 457(f) under the Securities Act as follows: the product of (A) $64.39, the average of the high and low prices per share of CTWS common stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on April 20, 2018 and (B) 12,478,553, the estimated maximum number of shares of CTWS common shares that may be canceled and exchanged in the offer, including shares reserved for issuance under various equity plans or otherwise.

(3) Estimated solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee required by Section 6(b) of the Securities Act and calculated pursuant to Rules 457(c) and 457(f) under the Securities Act, based on a rate of $124.50 per $1,000,000 of the proposed maximum aggregate offering price.

The registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this registration statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act, or until the registration statement shall become effective on such date as the Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED APRIL 25, 2018

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholders:

The boards of directors of SJW Group (SJW) and Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (CTWS) have unanimously approved, and SJW and CTWS have entered into, an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 14, 2018 (the merger agreement), with respect to a merger of equals strategic business combination (the merger) between SJW and CTWS. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Hydro Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW and a party to the merger agreement (Merger Sub), will merge with and into CTWS, with CTWS surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW. Upon completion of the merger, SJW and CTWS, and their respective subsidiaries, will operate as a combined company initially under the name SJW Group , which name will be changed within two years following the merger to a new name representing the combined company.

Upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of CTWS common stock (other than those owned directly or indirectly by CTWS, SJW or any of their respective subsidiaries that are not held on behalf of third parties) will be converted into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock (the exchange ratio). This exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock between the date of signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

Based on the estimated number of shares of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock that will be outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger, upon such closing, SJW stockholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will own approximately 60% of the combined company and CTWS shareholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will own approximately 40% of the combined company. The combined company will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) initially under SJW 's current symbol, SJW.

SJW and CTWS will each hold a special meeting of its respective shareholders to consider the proposed merger. At the special meeting of SJW stockholders, SJW stockholders will be asked to vote on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, the proposal to adopt the amendment to the SJW certificate of incorporation (the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment) and the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. At the special meeting of CTWS shareholders, CTWS shareholders will be asked to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders and approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders. Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. Whether or not you expect to attend either special meeting in person, please submit a proxy to vote your shares as promptly as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at the SJW or CTWS special meeting, as applicable.

The SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders. The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

The CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

The obligations of SJW and CTWS to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several conditions set forth in the merger agreement. The accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus contains detailed information about SJW, CTWS, the special meetings, the merger agreement and the merger. SJW and CTWS encourage you to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

We look forward to the successful combination of SJW and CTWS.

Sincerely,
Eric W. Thornburg
Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President
SJW Group

Sincerely,
David C. Benoit
President and Chief Executive Officer

Connecticut Water Service, Inc.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To Be Held On [], 2018

To the Shareholders of Connecticut Water Service, Inc.:

We are pleased to invite you to attend the special meeting of shareholders of Connecticut Water Service, Inc., a Connecticut corporation (CTWS), which will be held at [] on [], 2018 at [], local time, for the following purposes:

to consider and vote on the proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 14, 2018, among SJW Group, a Delaware corporation (SJW), Hydro Sub, Inc., a Connecticut corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of SJW (Merger Sub), and CTWS (the merger agreement), a copy of which is included as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part;

to consider and vote on the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger, as described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part; and to consider and vote upon the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

CTWS will transact no other business at the special meeting except such business as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. Please refer to the joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part for further information with respect to the business to be transacted at the CTWS special meeting.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders.

The CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

The CTWS board of directors has fixed the close of business on [], 2018 as the record date (the CTWS record date) for determination of holders of CTWS common stock entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the CTWS special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. As of the CTWS record date, CTWS issued and outstanding capital stock consists solely of outstanding shares of CTWS common stock. Accordingly, only holders of record of CTWS common stock at the close of business on the CTWS record date are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the CTWS special meeting or at any adjournments or postponements thereof. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds (66 2/3 %) of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock entitled to vote thereon. Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, although such vote will not be binding on CTWS or the CTWS board of directors or any of its committees. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. A list of the names of CTWS shareholders of record will be available for 10 days prior to the CTWS special meeting for any purpose germane to the special meeting between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., local time, at CTWS's headquarters, 93 West Main Street, Clinton, Connecticut 06413. The CTWS shareholder list will also be available at the CTWS special meeting for examination by any shareholder present at such meeting.

Your vote is very important. Whether or not you expect to attend the CTWS special meeting in person, we urge you to submit a proxy to vote your shares as promptly as possible by either:

- (1) logging onto www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions on your proxy card;
- (2) dialing (800) 454-8683 and listening for further directions; or
- (3) signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided, so that your shares may be represented and voted at the CTWS special meeting.

If your shares are held in a CTWS plan or in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, please follow the instructions on the voting instruction card furnished by the record holder, as appropriate. If you do not follow these instructions, your shares cannot be voted.

The enclosed joint proxy statement/prospectus provides a detailed description of the merger and the merger agreement. We urge you to read this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including any documents incorporated by reference, and the Annexes carefully and in their entirety. If you have any questions concerning the merger or this joint proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies or need help voting your shares of CTWS common stock, please contact CTWS's proxy solicitor:

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To the Stockholders of SJW Group:

We are pleased to invite you to attend the special meeting of stockholders of SJW Group (SJW), a Delaware corporation, which will be held at 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110, on [], 2018, at [], local time, for the following purposes:

to consider and vote on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (CTWS) shareholders pursuant to the merger as contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 14, 2018 (the merger agreement), by and among SJW, CTWS and Hydro Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW (Merger Sub), a copy of which is included as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part;

to consider and vote on the proposal to adopt the amendment to the SJW certificate of incorporation (the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment) in connection with the closing of the merger, a copy of the form of which is included as Annex D to the joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part; and to consider and vote upon the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

SJW will transact no other business at the special meeting except such business as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. Please refer to the joint proxy statement/prospectus of which this notice forms a part for further information with respect to the business to be transacted at the SJW special meeting.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders.

The SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders. The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

The SJW board of directors has fixed the close of business on [] as the record date for determination of SJW stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the SJW special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. SJW issued and outstanding capital stock consists solely of outstanding shares of SJW common stock. Accordingly, only holders of record of SJW common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the SJW special meeting or at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The issuance of shares of SJW common stock requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the SJW

ABOUT THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus, which forms part of a registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the SEC by SJW, constitutes a prospectus of SJW under Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), with respect to the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger. This joint proxy statement/prospectus also constitutes a joint proxy statement for both SJW and CTWS under Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). It also constitutes a notice of meeting with respect to the special meeting of SJW stockholders and a notice of meeting with respect to the special meeting of CTWS shareholders.

You should rely only on the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. No one has been authorized to provide you with information that is different from that contained in, or incorporated by reference into, this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This joint proxy statement/prospectus is dated [], 2018. You should not assume that the information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is accurate as of any date other than that date. You should not assume that the information incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus is accurate as of any date other than the date of the incorporated document. Neither our mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to SJW stockholders or CTWS shareholders nor the issuance by SJW of shares of common stock pursuant to the merger will create any implication to the contrary.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities, or the solicitation of a proxy or offer to sell or buy securities in any jurisdiction to or from any person to whom it is unlawful to make any such offer or solicitation. Information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding SJW has been provided by SJW and information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding CTWS has been provided by CTWS.

All references in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to SJW refer to SJW Group, a Delaware corporation; all references in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to CTWS refer to Connecticut Water Service, Inc., a Connecticut corporation; and all references to Merger Sub refer to Hydro Sub, Inc., a Connecticut corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of SJW formed for the sole purpose of effecting the merger. Unless otherwise indicated or as the context requires, all references in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to we, our and us refer to SJW and CTWS collectively and, unless otherwise indicated or as the context requires, all references to the merger agreement refer to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 14, 2018, by and among SJW, CTWS and Merger Sub, a copy of which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. SJW, following completion of the merger, is sometimes referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the combined company or Combined SJW. CTWS, following completion of the merger, is sometimes referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the New England Region.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following are some questions that you, as a stockholder of SJW Group (SJW) or a shareholder of Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (CTWS), may have regarding the merger and the other matters being considered at the special meetings and the answers to those questions. SJW and CTWS urge you to carefully read the remainder of this joint proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the other matters being considered at the special meetings. Additional important information is also contained in the Annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: SJW and CTWS have agreed to a merger of equals strategic business combination pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement that is described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

In order to complete the merger, among other things:

SJW stockholders must approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger;

SJW stockholders must approve the adoption of the amendment to the SJW certificate of incorporation (the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment); and CTWS shareholders must approve the merger agreement.

SJW and CTWS will hold separate special meetings of their respective shareholders to obtain these approvals. This joint proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annexes, contains and incorporates by reference important information about SJW, CTWS, the special meetings, the merger agreement and the merger. You should read all the available information carefully and in its entirety.

Q: What will stockholders receive in the merger?

A: SJW Stockholders: If the merger is completed, SJW stockholders will not receive any merger consideration and will continue to hold their existing shares of SJW common stock.

CTWS Shareholders: If the merger is completed, holders of CTWS common stock will receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for each share of CTWS common stock they hold immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. CTWS shareholders will not receive any fractional shares of SJW common stock in the merger. Instead, CTWS shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of SJW common stock that CTWS shareholders would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

Q: What is the value of the merger consideration?

A: Because SJW will issue 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock in exchange for each share of CTWS common stock, the market value of the merger consideration that CTWS shareholders will receive will depend on the price per share of SJW common stock at the effective time of the merger. That price will not be known at the time of the CTWS special meeting or the SJW special meeting and may be less or more than the current market price or the market price at the time of the special meetings. We urge you to obtain current market quotations of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock. See also Comparative Stock Price Data and Dividends beginning on page 156 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What percentage of the combined company will SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders, respectively, own following the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, SJW stockholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will own approximately 60% of the combined company and CTWS shareholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will own approximately 40% of the combined company, in each case, calculated on a fully diluted basis.

Q: When and where will the special meetings be held?

A: SJW Stockholders: The special meeting of SJW stockholders will be held at 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110, on [], 2018, at [], local time.

CTWS Shareholders: The special meeting of CTWS shareholders will be held at [], on [], 2018, at [], local time.

If you wish to attend your respective company's special meeting, you must bring photo identification. If you hold your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee, including an employee benefit plan trustee, you must also bring proof of ownership such as the voting instruction form from your broker or other nominee or an account statement.

Q: Who is entitled to vote on the proposals?

A: SJW Stockholders: The record date for the SJW special meeting is [], 2018. Only holders of record of outstanding shares of SJW common stock as of the close of business on the SJW record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the SJW special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the SJW special meeting.

CTWS Shareholders: The record date for the CTWS special meeting is [], 2018. Only holders of record of outstanding shares of CTWS common stock as of the close of business on the CTWS record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the CTWS special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the CTWS special meeting.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on and why is this approval necessary?

A: SJW stockholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

(1) to approve the issuance of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger;

(2) to approve the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment in connection with the merger, which increases the number of authorized shares of SJW stock to 73 million, including 72 million shares of common stock; and

(3) to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Edgar Filing: SJW GROUP - Form S-4

Approval by SJW stockholders of the share issuance proposal and the proposal concerning adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment is required to complete the merger.

CTWS shareholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

- (1) to approve the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus;
- (2) to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger; and

(3) to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Approval by CTWS shareholders of the proposal to approve the merger agreement is required to complete the merger. The SEC has adopted rules that require CTWS to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote on compensation that is tied to or based on completion of the merger and that will or may be paid or provided by CTWS to its named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal at the SJW special meeting?

A: The issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the SJW special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote and broker non-votes, which are described below, will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Abstentions are treated the same as votes against this proposal.

Adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this proposal.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the SJW special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this proposal.

Q: Have any SJW stockholders agreed to vote their shares in favor of any of the proposals to be considered at the SJW special meeting?

A: Yes. In connection with the merger agreement, on March 14, 2018, SJW entered into voting and support agreements (collectively, the SJW voting and support agreements) with certain of its stockholders, pursuant to which, subject to certain conditions, such SJW stockholders have agreed to vote shares controlled by them in favor of the matters to be submitted to SJW stockholders at the SJW special meeting. As of the record date for the SJW special meeting, such parties collectively owned approximately []% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock. For more information on the merger agreement, see the section entitled The Merger SJW Voting and Support Agreements beginning on page 117 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal at the CTWS special meeting?

A:

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds (66 2/3 %) of the issued and outstanding shares of CTWS common stock entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present. Because the vote regarding these specific merger-related compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers is advisory only, it will not be binding on CTWS or, following completion of the merger, the combined company. Accordingly, if the merger is approved and completed, the CTWS named executive officers will be eligible to receive the various merger-related compensation that may become payable in connection with the completion of the merger, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the non-binding, advisory vote of CTWS shareholders.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Q: What constitutes a quorum at the special meetings?

A: SJW Stockholders: Stockholders who hold shares representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the SJW special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the SJW special meeting. Any adjournment of the special meeting may be made from time to time, if a quorum does not exist, by approval holders of SJW stock representing a majority of the voting power of all shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, or by the chairman of the special meeting, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the special meeting. In addition, the chairman of the special meeting may adjourn such meeting after the special meeting has been duly organized. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original meeting. No notice of an adjourned meeting need be given unless the adjournment is for more than 30 days or, if after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, in which case a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Abstentions will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of SJW common stock represented at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved. However, broker non-votes, which are described below, will not be included.

CTWS Shareholders: Shareholders who hold shares representing at least a majority of the shares of CTWS common stock issued and outstanding as of the close of business on the CTWS record date and entitled to vote at the CTWS special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the CTWS special meeting. If a quorum is not present at such meeting, the shareholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as shall be agreed upon by them, and notice of such adjournment shall be given to the shareholders not present or represented at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of CTWS common stock represented at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved.

Q: How does the SJW board of directors recommend that SJW stockholders vote?

A: The SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders. The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote:

- (1) FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger;
- (2) FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment; and
- (3) FOR the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Q: How does the CTWS board of directors recommend that CTWS shareholders vote?

A: The CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote:

- (1) FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement;
- (2) FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger; and
- (3) FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: SJW Stockholders: Holders of SJW common stock are entitled to one vote for each share owned as of the close of business on the SJW record date. As of the close of business on the SJW record date, there were [] shares of SJW common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the SJW special meeting.

CTWS Shareholders: Holders of CTWS common stock are entitled to three votes for each share owned as of the close of business on the CTWS record date. As of the close of business on the CTWS record date, there were [] shares of CTWS common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the CTWS special meeting.

Q: How do I vote if I am a stockholder of record?

A: If you are a stockholder of record of SJW as of [], 2018, which is referred to as the SJW record date, or a stockholder of record of CTWS as of [], 2018, which is referred to as the CTWS record date, you may submit your proxy before your respective company's special meeting in one of the following ways:

use the toll-free number shown on your proxy card;

visit the website shown on your proxy card to vote via the Internet; or complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

If you are a stockholder of record, you may also cast your vote in person at your respective company's special meeting.

If your shares are held in street name, through a broker, trustee or other nominee, that institution will send you separate instructions describing the procedure for voting your shares. Street name stockholders who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a legal proxy form from their broker, trustee or other nominee.

Q: My shares are held in street name by my broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee. How do I vote? Will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial holder of the shares held for you in what is known as street name. You are not the record holder of such shares. If this is the case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee. As the beneficial holder, unless your broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee has discretionary authority over your shares, you generally have the right to direct your broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee as to how to vote your shares. If you do not provide voting instructions, your shares will not be voted on any proposal, as your broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee will not have discretionary voting authority with respect to any of the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This is often called a broker non-vote.

In connection with the SJW special meeting:

Broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger (assuming a quorum is present);

Broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment (assuming a quorum is present); and

Broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies (assuming a quorum is present).

In connection with the CTWS special meeting:

Broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement (assuming a quorum is present); and

Broker non-votes, if any, will have no effect on the non-binding, advisory, CTWS merger-related compensation proposal or the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies (in each case assuming a quorum is present).

You should therefore provide your broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee with instructions as to how to vote your shares of SJW common stock or CTWS common stock.

Please follow the voting instructions provided by your broker, bank or other nominee so that it may vote your shares on your behalf. Please note that you may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to SJW or CTWS or by voting in person at your special meeting unless you first obtain a proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee.

Q: What will happen if I abstain from voting or I fail to vote?

A: For purposes of each of the SJW special meeting and the CTWS special meeting, an abstention occurs when a respective shareholder attends the applicable special meeting in person and does not vote or returns a proxy with an abstain vote and a failure to vote occurs when a holder of SJW common stock or CTWS common stock fails to vote in person or by proxy and fails to instruct his or her bank, broker, trust or other nominee to vote shares beneficially owned by such holder.

SJW

SJW share issuance proposal: If an SJW stockholder present in person at the SJW special meeting abstains from voting, or responds by proxy with an abstain vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger. If an SJW stockholder is not present in person at the SJW special meeting and does not respond by proxy, it will have no effect on the vote count for this proposal (assuming a quorum is present).

SJW certificate of incorporation amendment proposal: An abstention or failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment (assuming a quorum is present).

SJW adjournment of special meeting proposal: If an SJW stockholder present in person at the SJW special meeting abstains from voting, or responds by proxy with an abstain vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. If an SJW stockholder is not present in person at the SJW special meeting and does not respond by proxy, it will have no effect on the vote count for such proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting (assuming a quorum is present).

CTWS

Merger agreement proposal: If a CTWS shareholder present in person at the CTWS special meeting abstains from voting, or responds by proxy with an abstain vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement, assuming a quorum is present. If a CTWS shareholder is not present in person at the CTWS special meeting and does not respond by proxy, it will also have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement (assuming a quorum is present).

Non-binding, advisory, CTWS merger-related compensation proposal: If a CTWS shareholder present in person at the CTWS special meeting abstains from voting, or responds by proxy with an abstain vote, it will have no effect on the non-binding, advisory, CTWS merger-related compensation proposal, assuming a quorum is present. If a CTWS shareholder is not present in person at the CTWS special meeting and does not respond by proxy, it will also have no effect on the vote count for this proposal (assuming a quorum is present).

CTWS adjournment of special meeting proposal: If a CTWS shareholder present in person at the CTWS special meeting abstains from voting, or responds by proxy with an abstain vote, it will have no effect on the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, assuming a quorum is present. If a CTWS shareholder is not present in person at the CTWS special meeting and does not respond by proxy, it will also have no effect on the vote count for such proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting (assuming a quorum is present).

Q: What will happen if I return my proxy card without indicating how to vote?

A: SJW Stockholders: If you properly complete and sign your proxy card but do not indicate how your shares of SJW common stock should be voted on a matter, the shares of SJW common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as the SJW board of directors recommends and, therefore, FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment (assuming a quorum is present).

CTWS Shareholders: If you properly complete and sign your proxy card but do not indicate how your shares of CTWS common stock should be voted on a matter, the shares of CTWS common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as the CTWS board of directors recommends and, therefore, FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement, assuming a quorum is present.

Q: Can I change my vote or revoke my proxy after I have returned a proxy or voting instruction card?

A: Yes.

If you are a holder of record of either SJW or CTWS shares: If you are a holder of record of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock, as applicable, you can change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before your proxy is voted at your respective special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways:

timely delivering a signed written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of SJW or the Secretary of CTWS, as applicable;

timely delivering a new, valid proxy for SJW or CTWS, as applicable, bearing a later date by submitting instructions through the Internet, by telephone or by mail as described on the applicable proxy card; or attending your special meeting and voting in person, which will automatically cancel any proxy previously given, or you can revoke your proxy in person. Simply attending the SJW special meeting or the CTWS special meeting without voting will not revoke any proxy that you have previously given or change your vote.

If you choose either of the first two methods, your notice of revocation or your new proxy must be received by SJW or CTWS, as applicable, no later than the beginning of the applicable special meeting. If you have submitted a proxy for your shares by telephone or via the Internet, you may revoke your prior telephone or Internet proxy by any manner described above.

If you hold shares of either SJW or CTWS in street name : If your shares are held in street name , you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of CTWS common stock?

A: Assuming that the merger is completed as currently contemplated, SJW and CTWS intend for the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). It is a condition to the obligation of SJW to complete the merger that SJW receive the written opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to CTWS), dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to the obligation of CTWS to complete the merger that CTWS receive the written opinion of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to SJW), dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Provided that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, a U.S. holder (as defined under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences) of CTWS common stock will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of CTWS common stock for shares of SJW common stock in the merger (other than gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of SJW common stock).

The particular consequences of the merger to each CTWS shareholder depend on such shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. CTWS shareholders should consult their tax advisors to understand fully the consequences to them of the merger given their specific circumstances. For more information, see the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 142 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: SJW and CTWS are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable and expect the closing of the merger to occur during the fourth quarter of 2018. However, the merger is subject to various regulatory clearances and the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions, and it is possible that factors outside the control of SJW and CTWS could result in the merger being completed at an earlier time, at a later time or not at all. There may be a substantial amount of time between the SJW and CTWS special meetings and the completion of the merger.

Q: Do I need to do anything with my shares of common stock other than voting for the proposals at the special meeting?

A: SJW Stockholders: If you are an SJW stockholder, after the merger is completed, you are not required to take any action with respect to your shares of SJW common stock.

CTWS Shareholders: If you are a CTWS shareholder, after the merger is completed, each share of CTWS common stock you hold will be converted automatically into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares, as applicable. You will receive instructions at that time regarding exchanging your shares of CTWS common stock for shares of SJW common stock. You do not need to take any action at this time. Please do not send your CTWS share certificates with your proxy card.

Q: Are stockholders entitled to appraisal rights?

A: No. Under Delaware and Connecticut laws, neither SJW stockholders nor CTWS shareholders will be entitled to exercise any appraisal rights in connection with the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of CTWS common stock before the CTWS special meeting?

A: The CTWS record date is earlier than the date of the CTWS special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your CTWS shares after the CTWS record date but before the CTWS special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the CTWS special meeting, but will have transferred the right to receive the merger consideration in the merger. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your shares through the effective date of the merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of SJW common stock before the SJW special meeting?

A: The record date for the SJW special meeting is earlier than the date of the SJW special meeting. If you transfer your SJW shares after the SJW record date but before the SJW special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the SJW special meeting.

Q: What if I hold shares in both SJW and CTWS?

A: If you are a stockholder of both SJW and CTWS, you will receive two separate packages of proxy materials. A vote cast as an SJW stockholder will not count as a vote cast as a CTWS shareholder, and a vote cast as a CTWS shareholder will not count as a vote cast as an SJW stockholder. Therefore, please submit separate proxies for each of your SJW and CTWS shares.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: SJW stockholders or CTWS shareholders who have questions about the merger, the other matters to be voted on at the special meetings, or how to submit a proxy or desire additional copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or additional proxy cards should contact:

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and does not contain all the information that may be important to you with respect to the merger and the other matters being considered at the SJW special meeting and CTWS special meeting. SJW and CTWS urge you to read carefully this joint proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including the attached Annexes, and the other documents to which we have referred you. See also the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 181 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We have included page references in this summary to direct you to a more complete description of the topics presented below.

The Companies

SJW was incorporated in California as SJW Corp on February 8, 1985. On November 15, 2016, SJW Corp. changed its state of incorporation to the state of Delaware and changed its name to SJW Group. SJW is a holding company that conducts its business in the United States through three wholly owned subsidiaries, namely, San Jose Water Company, SJWTX, Inc., doing business as Canyon Lake Water Service Company, and SJW Land Company. San Jose Water Company and Canyon Lake Water Service Company are public utilities regulated by the California Public Utilities Commission (the CPUC) and Public Utilities Commission of Texas, respectively, and operate within a service area approved by the regulators.

San Jose Water Company is a public utility that provides water service to approximately 230,000 connections serving a population of approximately one million people in an area comprising approximately 139 square miles in the metropolitan San Jose, California area. SJWTX, Inc. is another public utility that provides water service to approximately 14,000 connections serving approximately 42,000 people in an area comprising more than 244 square miles in western Comal County and southern Blanco County in the growing region between San Antonio and Austin, Texas. In addition, SJWTX, Inc. has a 25% interest in Acequia Water Supply Corporation, which has been consolidated with SJWTX, Inc. within the scope of Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standard Codification (ASC) Topic 810, Consolidation. The principal business of these water utility services consists of the production, purchase, storage, purification, distribution, wholesale, and retail sale of water. San Jose Water Company also provides non-tariffed services under agreements with municipalities and other utilities. These non-tariffed services include water system operations, maintenance agreements and antenna site leases.

SJW Land Company owns an undeveloped real estate property, commercial and warehouse properties in Tennessee. SJW Land Company also has a 70% limited partnership interest in 444 West Santa Clara Street, L.P., which sold all of its interests in the commercial building and land the partnership owned and operated on April 6, 2017.

SJW's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) under the symbol SJW. The principal executive offices of SJW are located on 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110. Its telephone number is (408) 279-7800, and its Internet address is www.sjwgroup.com.

Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (see page 43)

CTWS was incorporated in 1974, with The Connecticut Water Company as its largest subsidiary, which was organized in 1956. CTWS is a non-operating holding company, whose income is derived from the earnings of its six wholly owned subsidiary companies. In 2017, approximately 95% of the company's net income was attributable to water operations carried out within its four regulated water companies, The Connecticut Water Company, The Heritage Village Water Company, The Avon Water Company and The Maine Water Company. The Connecticut Water Company, The Heritage Village Water Company and The Avon Water Company are regulated by the Connecticut Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (the PURA) and The Maine Water Company is regulated by the Maine Public Utilities Commission (the MPUC). These regulated companies supplied water to 135,000 connections serving approximately 450,000 people in 80 municipalities in Connecticut and Maine and wastewater to more than 3,000 connections serving approximately 10,000 people in Southbury, Connecticut. They are subject to state regulation regarding financial issues, rates, service and operating issues, and to various other state and federal regulatory agencies concerning water quality and environmental standards.

In addition to its regulated companies, CTWS owns two active unregulated companies. In 2017, these unregulated companies, together with real estate transactions within The Connecticut Water Company, contributed the remaining 5% of CTWS's net income through real estate transactions as well as services and rentals. The two active unregulated companies are Chester Realty, Inc., a real estate company in Connecticut, and New England Water Utility Services, Inc., which provides contract water and sewer operations and other water related services.

CTWS's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (the NASDAQ) under the symbol CTWS. The principal executive offices of CTWS are located on 93 West Main Street, Clinton, Connecticut 06413. Its telephone number is (860) 669-8636, and its Internet address is www.ctwater.com.

Hydro Sub, Inc. (see page 44)

Hydro Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW (Merger Sub), is a Connecticut corporation that was formed on March 9, 2018 for the sole purpose of effecting the merger. In the merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into CTWS, with CTWS surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW.

The Merger

A copy of the merger agreement is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. SJW and CTWS encourage you to read the entire merger agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the merger. For more information on the merger agreement, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement beginning on page 120 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Terms of the Merger (see page 120)

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into CTWS. CTWS will survive the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW. Upon completion of the merger, SJW and CTWS, and their respective subsidiaries, will operate as a combined company initially under the name SJW Group , which name will be changed within two years following the merger to a new name representing the combined company.

Merger Consideration (see page 120)

CTWS shareholders will have the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for each share of CTWS common stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (the exchange ratio). This exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock between the date of signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger. As a result, the implied value of the consideration to CTWS shareholders will fluctuate between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the effective date of the merger. No fractional shares of SJW common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Each CTWS shareholder that otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of SJW common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu of the fractional share. SJW stockholders will continue to own their existing shares, which ownership will not be affected by the merger.

Assumption of CTWS Stock Plans

At the effective time of the merger, SJW will assume the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program, the CTWS 2004 Performance Stock Program and the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program, as amended and restated in 2002 (the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program), as well as outstanding equity awards as described on page 158. Following the effective time of the merger, SJW may grant equity awards to certain employees covering SJW common stock to the extent permitted by applicable NYSE rules, using the share reserve available under the assumed CTWS 2014 performance stock program immediately prior to the effective time of the merger as converted into SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable NYSE rules, dividend equivalents credited to assumed CTWS awards may be issued from the reserve available under the assumed stock plan from which the awards were granted. As of April 13, 2018, 370,293, 259,712 and 218,105 shares of CTWS common stock were available for issuance under the 2014 Performance Stock Program, the CTWS 2004 Stock Program and the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program, respectively.

After careful consideration, the SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders. For more information regarding the factors considered by the SJW board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, to authorize the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and to approve the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, see the section entitled The Merger SJW s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the SJW Board of Directors.

The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

After careful consideration, the CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. For more information regarding the factors considered by the CTWS board of directors in reaching its decision to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, see the section entitled The Merger CTWS s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CTWS Board of Directors.

The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor (see page 73)

In connection with its consideration of the merger, the SJW board of directors received an oral opinion on March 14, 2018 from SJW's financial advisor, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (J.P. Morgan), subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion on the same day, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to SJW. The full text of J.P. Morgan's written opinion, dated March 14, 2018, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by J.P. Morgan in connection with rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. SJW stockholders are urged to read J.P. Morgan's written opinion and the description beginning on page 73 carefully and in their entirety. J.P. Morgan's opinion was addressed to the SJW board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the merger, was directed only to the fairness to SJW, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio in the merger and does not address any other matter. J.P. Morgan's opinion expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the exchange ratio to any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of SJW or CTWS or SJW's or CTWS's underlying decision to effect the merger. J.P. Morgan's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of SJW or CTWS as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter.

For a description of the opinion that the SJW board of directors received from J.P. Morgan, see the section entitled Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC beginning on page 73 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor (see page 88)

CTWS retained Wells Fargo Securities, LLC (Wells Fargo Securities) as the financial advisor to the CTWS board of directors in connection with a review of potential strategic alternatives, including a potential transaction with SJW. At the meeting of the CTWS board of directors on March 14, 2018, Wells Fargo Securities rendered its oral opinion to the CTWS board of directors that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing its opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares. Wells Fargo Securities subsequently confirmed this oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the CTWS board of directors, dated March 14, 2018. For purposes of Wells Fargo Securities' opinion, the term excluded shares means any shares of CTWS common stock owned by CTWS, SJW, Merger Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries (in each case, other than shares of CTWS common stock held on behalf of third parties).

The full text of the written opinion of Wells Fargo Securities dated March 14, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. CTWS shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Wells Fargo Securities' written opinion was addressed to the CTWS board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed merger, was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares, of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger and did not address any other aspect of the

any CTWS shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter. For a description of the opinion that the CTWS board of directors received from Wells Fargo Securities, see the section entitled Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor - Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC beginning on page 88 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 100)

Executive officers of SJW and members of the SJW board of directors have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of SJW stockholders generally. These interests are described, and certain of them are quantified, in the section entitled Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 100 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Moreover, as detailed below under Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger beginning on page 112 and Governance Matters After the Merger beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, certain of SJW's executive officers and members of the SJW board of directors will continue to serve as officers and/or directors of the combined company upon completion of the merger. Specifically, Eric W. Thornburg will serve as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of the combined company, as described in further detail below under Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger beginning on page 112 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Mr. Thornburg, who was the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS until September 28, 2017 and an employee of CTWS until October 15, 2017, continues to hold 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (as defined below in the summary of the section entitled Treatment of CTWS Restricted Share Units, Deferred Share Units, Performance Share Units and Performance Cash Units beginning on page 16 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program) as of April 13, 2018.

The SJW board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and in recommending that you vote FOR the proposal to issue shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Executive officers of CTWS and members of the CTWS board of directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of CTWS shareholders generally. These interests include, for example, the continued employment of certain executive officers of CTWS by the combined company or its subsidiaries, the continued service of certain members of the CTWS board of directors on the board of directors of the combined company and its subsidiaries, severance benefits of executive officers under employment agreements and other arrangements payable upon certain qualifying terminations of employment, benefits pursuant to equity awards held by executive officers and directors and the fact that Mr. Thornburg, who was the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS until September 28, 2017 and an employee of CTWS until October 15, 2017, continues to hold 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13, 2018. These interests are described and quantified in further detail below in the sections entitled Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger beginning on page 112, The Merger Agreement - Governance Matters After the Merger beginning on page 130, Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 101, and certain of them are described and quantified in the narrative and table disclosure included under CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation for CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal, beginning on page 108.

The CTWS board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and in recommending that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger (see page 112)

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Combined SJW will consist of twelve members, comprised of: (i) seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the SJW board of directors (together with their replacement directors as provided in the Combined SJW bylaws, the SJW continuing directors) and (ii) five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the CTWS board of directors (together with their replacement directors as provided in the Combined SJW bylaws, the CTWS continuing directors). Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020.

One of the SJW continuing directors will be Eric W. Thornburg, who will serve as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of Combined SJW; in the event that Eric W. Thornburg is not the chairman, chief executive officer and president of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, the SJW board of directors shall determine his replacement after consulting in good faith with the CTWS board of directors. From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, the CTWS continuing directors will be authorized to select a CTWS continuing director (who qualifies as independent under the applicable standards of the NYSE and the policies of Combined SJW) to serve as the lead independent director of Combined SJW, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, other than Mr. Thornburg, in the case of SJW, neither SJW nor CTWS has made a determination as to which directors will be appointed to the board of directors of the combined company.

All of SJW's and its subsidiaries' current officers are expected to continue to serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, the following CTWS officers will be appointed to serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries, as applicable: (i) David C. Benoit will serve as president of Combined SJW's New England Region (CTWS following completion of the merger) and The Connecticut Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (ii) Richard L. Knowlton will serve as president of The Maine Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (iii) Kristen A. Johnson will serve as chief human resource officer of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (iv) Maureen P. Westbrook will serve as senior vice president of external affairs of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (v) Craig J. Patla will serve as vice president, operations of Combined SJW's New England Region; and (vi) Robert J. Doffek will serve as vice president, controller of Combined SJW's New England Region.

From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, David C. Benoit (or such other chief executive officer of CTWS as of the effective time of the merger) shall continue as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and of The Connecticut Water Company, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. Other officers of CTWS and its subsidiaries, effective as of the effective time of the merger, will include the existing officers of CTWS and its respective subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

For additional information regarding the board directors and officers of the combined company following the effectiveness of the merger, see the section entitled Governance Matters After the Merger beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Amendment to Bylaws of SJW (see page 100)

The merger agreement provides that SJW and CTWS will take all actions necessary to effect the governance matters described in the section entitled "Governance Matters After the Merger" beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Among other things, SJW will amend and restate its bylaws as of the effective time of the merger to include the amendment that is attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger will not result in a change in control for purposes of any SJW equity incentive awards and accordingly no accelerated vesting of any such awards will be triggered by the merger. All such awards will remain subject to the same terms and conditions that are applicable to the awards prior to the merger.

CTWS Restricted Share Units and CTWS Deferred Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS restricted share unit awards (CTWS RSUs) and (ii) all outstanding CTWS deferred share unit awards (CTWS DSUs) will be automatically converted pursuant to the merger agreement into, respectively, restricted stock units of SJW and deferred stock units of SJW based on the exchange ratio with any fractional units rounded down to the nearest whole unit and will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions (including any deferral elections) as were in effect for such awards immediately prior to the completion of the merger. CTWS RSUs are awards that are subject to service-based vesting and are not or are no longer subject to performance-based vesting and entitle the holder to receive shares of CTWS upon vesting, and include awards granted as CTWS PSUs for which performance has been determined prior to the effective date of the merger and which are still subject to service vesting. CTWS DSUs are awards previously granted as CTWS PSUs that are fully vested (based on performance and completion of service vesting) with the underlying shares of CTWS common stock to be issued on a specified date or event, as elected by the participant.

CTWS Performance Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS performance-based restricted stock unit awards (CTWS PSUs) that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested as to a number of shares of CTWS common stock determined by calculating the actual level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service-based vesting for each such performance vested CTWS PSU shall be accelerated and each such vested share of CTWS common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a number of shares of SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio, and will continue to be subject to the same dividend equivalents and deferral elections as in effect for such award prior to the completion of the merger, if any, and (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PSUs that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting awards covering a number of restricted stock units of SJW equal to the product of (x) the target number of outstanding and unvested share units that was subject to each applicable CTWS PSU immediately prior to closing of the merger and (y) the exchange ratio, with any fractional share units rounded down to the nearest whole share unit. CTWS PSUs are equity awards that are subject to attainment of performance goals and service vesting.

CTWS Performance Cash Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS performance-based cash unit awards (CTWS PCUs) that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the amount payable based on the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger but are subject to service vesting, will be accelerated and will be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time, (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested for an amount based on the actual performance of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service vesting will be accelerated and the award shall be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time, and (iii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting cash awards based on target. CTWS PCUs are awards that are denominated in dollars and subject to attainment of performance goals and service vesting.

Under certain employment agreements with certain named executive officers as discussed under Employment Agreements , if the named executive officer s employment is terminated without cause or if the executive voluntarily terminates employment for good reason following the completion of the merger, then all of such executive s outstanding equity awards will vest in full, except that, pursuant to the merger agreement, any CTWS PSUs or CTWS PCUs granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will not be subjected to any such accelerated vesting.

SJW and CTWS have each agreed to take certain actions in order to obtain the regulatory clearances required to complete the merger. Required regulatory clearances include expiration or termination of the required waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act of 1976, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the HSR Act), following required notifications to and review by either the Federal Trade Commission or the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. On April 18, 2018, each of SJW and CTWS filed its notification under the HSR Act. The waiting period under the HSR Act will expire as of 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on May 18, 2018, unless terminated earlier.

Required regulatory clearances also include clearance under applicable laws of the Federal Communications Commission (the FCC), the PURA and the MPUC. CTWS and SJW will file the required submissions, filings or applications, as applicable, with the FCC, the PURA and the MPUC.

While SJW and CTWS expect to obtain all required regulatory clearances, we cannot assure you that these regulatory clearances will be obtained or that the granting of these regulatory clearances will not involve the imposition of additional conditions on the completion of the merger, including the requirement to divest assets, or require changes to the terms of the merger agreement. These conditions or changes could result in the conditions to the merger not being satisfied.

The SJW board of directors has approved, subject to stockholder approval, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment increasing the number of authorized shares of SJW common stock, par value $0.001 per share, from 36 million to 72 million and increasing the total authorized SJW capital stock from 37 million shares to 73 million shares. A form of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. The adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders is a condition to the completion of the merger. The SJW certificate of incorporation amendment will become effective immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. In the event this proposal is approved by SJW stockholders, but the merger is not expected to be completed, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment may not be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and may not become effective.

Expected Timing of the Merger

SJW and CTWS are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable and expect the closing of the merger to occur during the fourth quarter of 2018. However, the merger is subject to various regulatory clearances and the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions, and it is possible that factors outside the control of SJW and CTWS could result in the merger being completed at an earlier time, at a later time or not at all. There may be a substantial amount of time between the SJW and CTWS special meetings and the completion of the merger.

Each party's obligation to consummate the merger is conditioned upon the satisfaction (or waiver by such party) at or prior to the closing of the merger of each of the following:

approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders;

approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger by SJW stockholders;

approval of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders;

filing with and acceptance by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment;

approval of the listing on the NYSE of the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;

any required approvals (as listed below) having been obtained and having become final orders (as to which all conditions, not within the control of SJW or CTWS, to the consummation of such transactions prescribed by applicable law or order have been satisfied) and any waiting period having expired or been terminated, and that do not impose terms or conditions that are materially adverse to CTWS, SJW, or Combined SJW, in each case, taken as a whole (and in the case of SJW and Combined SJW, the materiality assessed for an equivalent entity of the size and scale of CTWS);

the expiration or earlier termination of the waiting period applicable to the completion of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement under the HSR Act;

any pre-approvals of license transfers by the FCC;

consents required by the PURA; and

absence of any statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation, binding legal requirement, judgment, order or decree by any court, tribunal or other governmental entity of appropriate jurisdiction that seeks to make illegal or prohibit the consummation of the merger, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and the absence of a stop order or proceedings initiated and not subsequently withdrawn by the SEC for that purpose.

In addition, the obligations of each of SJW and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and CTWS, on the other hand, to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of the other party (other than the representations and warranties related to (i) the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding or reserved for issuance, (ii) the absence of any outstanding voting debt interests, (iii) the authority with respect to the execution, delivery, and performance of the merger agreement and the due and valid authorization and enforceability of the merger agreement, (iv) the fees payable to a financial advisor, broker or finder in connection with the transactions under the merger agreement and (v) solely in the case of SJW and Merger Sub, the sole purpose of and lack of business engagement by Merger Sub) will be true and correct (without giving effect to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications contained in such representations and warranties) as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties are expressly made as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date), except to the extent that any failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;

the representations and warranties of the other party relating to (i) the absence of any outstanding voting debt interests, (ii) the authority with respect to the execution, delivery, and performance of the merger agreement and the due and valid authorization and enforceability of the merger agreement and (iii) the fees payable to a financial advisor, broker or finder in connection with the transactions under the merger agreement will be true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties address matters only as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date);

the representations and warranties of the other party relating to (i) the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding or reserved for issuance and (ii) solely in the case of SJW and Merger Sub, the sole purpose of and lack of business engagement by Merger Sub, will be true and correct in all respects (except de minimis errors) as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties are expressly made as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date);

the other party having performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger;

receipt of a certificate executed by an executive officer of the other party certifying as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding four bullet points;

no fact, circumstance, effect, change, event or development will have occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the other party that has not been ameliorated or cured; and

receipt of a legal opinion of such party's counsel (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel), dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals (see page 127)

The merger agreement prohibits SJW and CTWS from soliciting or engaging in discussions or negotiations with a third party with respect to a proposal for a competing transaction, including the acquisition of a significant interest in SJW or CTWS common stock or assets. However, if, prior to obtaining approval from its stockholders, SJW or CTWS, as the case may be, receives an unsolicited bona fide written takeover proposal for a competing transaction that the SJW board of directors or the CTWS board of directors, as applicable, among other things, determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a proposal that is superior to the merger, SJW or CTWS may, as applicable, subject to procedures included in the merger agreement, furnish non-public information to and participate in discussions with, and only with, that third party (and its representatives) regarding such competing transaction.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 136)

SJW and CTWS may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time. Either company may also terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not completed by March 14, 2019 (regardless of whether such date is before or after the stockholders of the party approve the transactions), subject to automatic extension to June 14, 2019 in certain circumstances in order to obtain certain regulatory clearances have not yet been obtained. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement – Termination of the Merger Agreement for a discussion of these and other rights of each of SJW and CTWS to terminate the merger agreement.

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring those expenses, subject to the specific exceptions discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus where (i) SJW may be required to pay a termination fee of $42.5 million to CTWS and CTWS may be required to pay a termination fee of $28.1 million to SJW and (ii) either company may be required to reimburse the other company for merger-related expenses of up to $5 million under certain circumstances. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement – Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach for a discussion of the circumstances under which such termination fee will be required to be paid.

Assuming that the merger is completed as currently contemplated, SJW and CTWS intend for the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the obligation of SJW to complete the merger that SJW receive the written opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to CTWS), dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to the obligation of CTWS to complete the merger that CTWS receive the written opinion of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to SJW), dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Provided that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, a U.S. holder (as defined under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences) of CTWS common stock will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of CTWS common stock for shares of SJW common stock in the merger (other than gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of SJW common stock).

You should read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 142 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a more complete discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. The discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is intended to provide only a general discussion and is not a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that may vary with, or are dependent on, individual circumstances. In addition, it does not address the effects of any foreign, state or local tax laws. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Accounting Treatment (see page 145)

SJW prepares its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, which is referred to as U.S. GAAP. The merger of SJW and CTWS will be accounted for as an acquisition of CTWS common stock by SJW and will follow the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations.

No Appraisal Rights (see page 117)

Under Delaware and Connecticut law, as applicable, neither the holders of shares of SJW common stock nor the holders of shares of CTWS common stock are entitled to exercise any appraisal rights in connection with the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Comparison of Rights of CTWS Shareholders and Combined SJW Stockholders (see page 164)

CTWS shareholders who receive shares of SJW common stock in the merger will become stockholders of the combined company and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Delaware law, the combined company's certificate of incorporation and the combined company's bylaws, rather than Connecticut law, CTWS's amended and restated certificate of incorporation (CTWS's certificate of incorporation) and CTWS's amended and restated bylaws (CTWS's bylaws). Therefore, CTWS shareholders receiving merger consideration will have different rights once they become stockholders of Combined SJW due to differences between the governing corporate documents of CTWS, the proposed governing corporate documents of Combined SJW and the provisions of applicable law governing CTWS and Combined SJW. See the section entitled "Comparison of Rights of CTWS Shareholders and Combined SJW Stockholders" for a discussion of these differences.

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger be authorized for listing, and SJW and CTWS have agreed to cooperate to cause such shares to be listed, on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance. Upon completion of the merger, shares of CTWS common stock currently listed on the NASDAQ will cease to be listed on the NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

The Meetings

The SJW Special Meeting (see page 45)

The special meeting of SJW stockholders is scheduled to be held at 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110, on [], 2018, at [], local time, subject to any adjournments or postponements thereof. The special meeting of SJW stockholders is being held to consider and vote on:

the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger;

the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, in connection with the merger; and the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders.

Only holders of record of SJW common stock at the close of business on [], 2018, the record date for the SJW special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the SJW special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. At the close of business on the record date, [] shares of SJW common stock were outstanding, approximately []% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by SJW directors and executive officers and their affiliates. We currently expect that SJW's directors (including those who are party to the SJW voting and support agreements) and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of each proposal being submitted to a vote of SJW stockholders at the SJW special meeting.

You may cast one vote for each share of SJW common stock you own. The proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the proposal. The proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. If necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the proposal for the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the proposal and present in person or represented by proxy may adjourn the meeting to another time or place without further notice unless the adjournment is for more than 30 days or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, in which case a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

The CTWS Special Meeting (see page 50)

The special meeting of CTWS shareholders is scheduled to be held at [], on [], 2018, at [], local time, subject to any adjournments or postponements thereof. The special meeting of CTWS shareholders is being held to consider and vote on:

the proposal to approve the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and which is further described in the sections entitled "The Merger" and "The Merger Agreement" beginning on pages 55 and 120, respectively;

the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger; and

the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Only holders of record of CTWS common stock at the close of business on [], 2018, the CTWS record date, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the CTWS special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. At the close of business on the CTWS record date, [] shares of CTWS common stock were issued and outstanding, approximately []% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by CTWS directors and executive officers and their affiliates. We currently expect that CTWS's directors and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of each proposal being submitted to a vote of CTWS shareholders at the CTWS special meeting, although no director or executive officer has entered into any agreement obligating him or her to do so.

You may cast three votes for each share of CTWS common stock you own. The proposal to approve the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds (66 2/3 %) of the outstanding shares of

CTWS common stock entitled to vote thereon; abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against this proposal, assuming a quorum is present. The proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon; abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on this proposal, assuming a quorum is present. The proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon; abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on this proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

If a quorum is not present at the CTWS special meeting, the shareholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as shall be agreed upon by them, and notice of such adjournment shall be given to the shareholders not present or represented at the meeting. If a quorum is present at the special meeting but there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the proposal to approve the merger agreement, then CTWS shareholders may be asked to vote on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting so as to permit the further solicitation of proxies. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of CTWS common stock represented at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved.

Recent Developments

Unsolicited Offer from Company X

On April 4, 2018, SJW received an unsolicited non-binding indication of interest from a third-party strategic acquiror (Company X) with respect to a potential proposal to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of SJW in an all-cash transaction for $68.25 per share. On April 13, 2018, the SJW board of directors, following a careful and thorough review consistent with its fiduciary duties, in consultation with SJW's management and legal and financial advisors, voted unanimously to reject Company X's non-binding indication of interest. The SJW board of directors determined that Company X's non-binding indication of interest neither constituted nor was reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement with CTWS.

In reaching this determination, the SJW board of directors concluded that Company X's all-cash transaction described in the non-binding indication of interest would not permit SJW stockholders the opportunity to share in the benefits expected from being shareholders of the combined company with CTWS. The SJW board of directors believes that the merger of equals with CTWS will result in SJW stockholders having the ability to realize greater long-term value than in Company X's proposed transaction. The opportunity presented by the merger of equals with CTWS includes the long-term benefits of increased scale, enhanced financial strength and geographic diversity; expected continued payment of dividends over time; anticipated higher future growth profile and associated share price appreciation; the tax-free nature of the merger of equals with CTWS; and significant earnings accretion—all of which the SJW board of directors believes are unique to the proposed merger of equals with CTWS. Moreover, the SJW board of directors determined that there is a significant risk that Company X's proposed transaction would not close in a reasonable period of time, if at all, due to the potentially protracted regulatory review, which could be as long as 18 months, the risks presented by the substantial amount of financing that the proposed all-cash transaction would require and the uncommitted nature of Company X's sources of financing. In addition, the SJW board of directors determined that the non-binding nature of Company X's indication of interest means it is subject to significant contingencies, including, among other things, performance of due diligence by Company X and negotiation of binding documentation. The SJW board of directors' unanimous decision to reject Company X's non-binding indication of interest was made after careful consideration thereof in consultation with SJW's management, legal advisors and financial advisors.

Table of Contents

The SJW board of directors also unanimously reaffirmed its recommendation that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, for the reasons that it initially approved such recommendation, including, among others, that: the transaction with CTWS is expected to result in mid- to-high single-digit percentage accretion on an earnings per share basis to both companies by the second full year following completion of the transaction; SJW stockholders are expected to continue to own approximately 60% of the combined company; the transaction is expected to offer greater financial flexibility to grow the business through increased investments and to compete more effectively across a national footprint and in a fragmented industry; the belief that the combined company will be able to continue and further SJW's historic practice of paying robust and stable quarterly dividends to stockholders; the expectation that the combined company would maintain SJW's strong credit profile, which would enable a share repurchase program of up to $100 million; and the belief that all required regulatory approvals are capable of being obtained during the fourth quarter of 2018. See the section entitled SJW's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the SJW Board of Directors beginning on page 70 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsSPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus contain, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements (as defined in the Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) regarding, among other things, future events or the future financial performance of SJW and CTWS. Words such as anticipate, expect, project, intend, believe, and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions or events identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements relating to the proposed transaction include, but are not limited to: statements about the benefits of the proposed transaction between SJW and CTWS, including future financial and operating results; SJW's and CTWS's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions; the expected timing of completion of the proposed transaction; and other statements relating to the merger that are not historical facts. Forward-looking statements are based on information currently available to SJW and CTWS and involve estimates, expectations and projections. Investors are cautioned that all such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and important factors could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements. With respect to the proposed transaction between SJW and CTWS, these factors, in addition to those set forth under Risk Factors, beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, could include, but are not limited to: the risk that SJW or CTWS may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the transaction, or that required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the transaction or result in the imposition of conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; the risk that a condition to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied; the length of time necessary to consummate the proposed transaction, which may be longer than anticipated for various reasons; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that some or all of the benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues; the effect of future regulatory or legislative actions on the companies or the industries in which they operate; the risk that the credit ratings of SJW and CTWS may be different from SJW's expectations; general economic conditions; changes in the general economic environment or social or political conditions that could affect the businesses; the effect of current or future water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations on SJW and CTWS or the industries in which they operate; SJW's ability to achieve forecasted sales; changes in actual or projected cash flows; competitive pressures; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; the outcomes of any litigation; changes in tax laws; the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the transaction is not obtained; unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the transaction; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; the ability to attract new customers and retain existing customers in the manner anticipated; the ability to hire and retain key personnel; the risks associated with assumptions the parties make in connection with the parties' critical accounting estimates and legal proceedings; and the potential of international unrest, economic downturn or effects of currencies, tax assessments, tax adjustments, anticipated tax rates, raw material costs or availability, benefit or retirement plan costs, or other regulatory compliance costs.

Additional information concerning these and other risk factors is also contained in SJW's and CTWS's most recently filed Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other SEC filings.

Many of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions are beyond SJW's or CTWS's ability to control or predict. Because of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Furthermore, forward-looking statements speak only as of the information currently available to the parties on the date they are made, and neither SJW nor CTWS undertakes any obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this communication. Nothing in this communication is intended, or is to be construed, as a profit forecast or to be interpreted to mean that earnings per SJW share or CTWS share for the current or any future financial years or those of the combined company, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per SJW share or CTWS share, as applicable. Neither SJW nor CTWS gives any assurance (1) that either SJW or CTWS will achieve its expectations, or (2) concerning any result or the timing thereof, in each case, with respect to any regulatory action, administrative proceedings, government investigations, litigation, warning letters, consent decree, cost reductions, business strategies, earnings or revenue trends or future financial results. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning SJW, CTWS, the proposed transaction, the combined company or other matters and attributable to SJW or CTWS or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section entitled Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risks before deciding how to vote. In addition, you should read and consider the risks associated with each of the businesses of SJW and CTWS because these risks will also affect the combined company. These risks can be found in SJW's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and CTWS's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, as such risks may be updated or supplemented in each company's subsequently filed Current Reports on Form 8-K, which are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should also read and consider the other information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 181 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted in the event of any change in either SJW's or CTWS's stock price, which can affect the market value of the merger consideration at the date of the completion of the merger.

Upon closing of the merger, each share of CTWS common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock. This exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock between the date of signing the merger agreement and completion of the merger. Changes in the price of SJW common stock prior to the merger will affect the value of SJW common stock that CTWS shareholders will receive on the date of the merger. The exchange ratio will be adjusted appropriately to fully reflect the effect of any stock dividend, recapitalization, split, reverse split, combination, consolidation, subdivision, reclassification or exchange of shares or other similar transaction with respect to the shares of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock prior to the closing of the merger.

The prices of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock at the closing of the merger may vary from their prices on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of each stockholders meeting. As a result, the value represented by the exchange ratio will also vary. For example, based on the range of closing prices of SJW common stock during the period from March 14, 2018, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, through April 23, 2018, the latest practicable trading date before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the exchange ratio represented a value ranging from a high of $64.62 to a low of $58.79 for each share of CTWS common stock.

These variations could result from market assessment of the likelihood that the merger will be completed, changes in the business, operations or prospects of SJW or CTWS prior to or following the merger, litigation or regulatory considerations, general business, market, industry or economic conditions and other factors both within and beyond the control of SJW and CTWS. We may complete the merger a considerable period after the dates of both the SJW special meeting and the CTWS special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the CTWS special meeting, CTWS shareholders will not know with certainty the value of the shares of SJW common stock that they will receive upon completion of the merger. Similarly, at the time of the SJW special meeting, SJW stockholders will not know with certainty the value of the shares of SJW common stock that will be issued to holders of shares of CTWS common stock upon completion of the merger.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and clearances from regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on SJW, CTWS or the combined company or, if not obtained, could prevent completion of the merger.

Completion of the merger is contingent upon, among other things, the receipt of all required regulatory approvals, which consist of filings with the SEC, compliance with and filings under the HSR Act, filing and acceptance of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of the State of Connecticut and appropriate documents with the states having jurisdictions over SJW and CTWS, filings and approvals under the securities or blue sky laws of various states, filing and acceptance of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, authorization from the NYSE for the listing of the shares of SJW common stock to be issued as merger consideration, pre-approvals of license transfers by the FCC, compliance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) and the Connecticut Business Corporation Act (the CBCA), and consents required by the PURA and the MPUC.

The terms and conditions of the approvals that are granted by such governmental entities and regulatory authorities may impose requirements, limitations or costs or place restrictions on the conduct of the combined company's business. The merger agreement may require SJW and/or CTWS to comply with conditions imposed by regulatory entities and, in certain circumstances, either company may refuse to close the merger on the basis of regulatory conditions imposed. There can be no assurance that regulators will not impose conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions or that such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions will not have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional material costs on or materially limiting the revenues of the combined company following the merger. Additionally, neither SJW nor CTWS can provide assurance that any such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions will not result in the delay or abandonment of the merger, or the consummation of the merger on terms different than those contemplated by the merger agreement.

Before the merger may be completed, applicable waiting periods must expire or terminate under antitrust and competition laws. The special meetings of SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders at which the merger-related proposals will be considered may take place before all of the required regulatory approvals have been obtained and before all conditions to such approvals, if any, are known. In this event, if the merger-related proposals are approved, SJW and CTWS may subsequently agree to conditions without further seeking stockholder approval and/or shareholder approval, as the case may be, even if such conditions could have an adverse effect on SJW, CTWS or the combined company. For a more detailed description of the regulatory review process, see the section entitled The Merger Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger beginning on page 115 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Any delay in completing the merger may reduce or eliminate the benefits expected to be achieved thereunder.

In addition to the required regulatory clearances, the merger is subject to a number of other conditions beyond SJW's and CTWS's control that may prevent, delay or otherwise materially adversely affect its completion. We cannot predict whether and when these other conditions will be satisfied. Furthermore, the requirements for obtaining the required clearances and approvals could delay the completion of the merger for a significant period of time or prevent it from occurring. Any delay in completing the merger could cause the combined company not to realize, or to be delayed in realizing, some or all of the benefits expected to result from elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs that we expect to achieve if the merger is successfully completed within its expected time frame. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 134 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

If the merger is not consummated by the end date, SJW or CTWS may terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances.

Either SJW or CTWS may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances, including, if the merger has not been consummated by March 14, 2019 (unless such date is extended automatically to June 14, 2019 pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement). However, this termination right will not be available to a party if such failure of the merger to occur on or before such date is the result of a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the merger agreement by such party.

Uncertainties associated with the merger may cause a loss of management personnel and other key employees which could adversely affect the future business and operations of the combined company.

SJW and CTWS are dependent on the experience and industry knowledge of their respective officers and other key employees to execute their business plans. The combined company's success after the merger will depend in part upon the ability of SJW and CTWS to retain key management personnel and other key employees. Current and prospective employees of SJW and CTWS may experience uncertainty about their roles within the combined company following the merger, which may have an adverse effect on the ability of each of SJW and CTWS to attract or retain key management and other key personnel. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the combined company will be able to attract or retain key management personnel and other key employees of SJW and CTWS to the same extent that SJW and CTWS have previously been able to attract or retain their own employees. A failure by SJW, CTWS or, following the completion of the merger, the combined company to attract, retain and motivate executives and other key employees during the period prior to or after the completion of the merger could have a negative impact on their respective businesses.

An adverse judgment in any litigation challenging the merger may prevent the merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

It is possible that SJW stockholders or CTWS shareholders may file lawsuits challenging the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which may name SJW, the SJW board of directors, CTWS and/or the CTWS board of directors as defendants. The outcome of such lawsuits cannot be assured, including the amount of costs associated with defending these claims or any other liabilities that may be incurred in connection with the litigation of these claims. Whether or not any plaintiff's claim is successful, this type of litigation may result in significant costs and divert management's attention and resources, which could adversely affect the operation of SJW's and CTWS's business.

One of the conditions to the closing of the merger is the absence of any law or order, decree, or judgment by a court, arbitrator or other governmental entity that makes illegal or prohibits the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Consequently, if a settlement or other resolution is not reached in the lawsuits referenced above and the plaintiffs secure injunctive or other relief prohibiting, delaying or otherwise adversely affecting the parties' ability to complete the merger, then such injunctive or other relief may prevent the merger from becoming effective within the expected time frame or at all.

Failure to complete the merger as currently contemplated or at all could negatively impact the stock prices and the future business and financial results of SJW and CTWS.

Completion of the merger is not assured and is subject to risks, including the risks that approval of the transactions by shareholders of SJW and CTWS or by governmental entities will not be obtained or that certain other closing conditions will not be satisfied. If the merger is not completed, or is completed on different terms than as contemplated by the merger agreement, the ongoing businesses and financial results of SJW and/or CTWS may be adversely affected and SJW and/or CTWS will be subject to several risks, including the following:

having to pay certain significant costs relating to the merger without receiving the benefits of the merger, including, in certain circumstances, a termination fee of $42.5 million, in the case of SJW, a termination fee of $28.1 million, in the case of CTWS, or an expense reimbursement of up to $5 million, in the case of each of SJW and CTWS;

the potential loss of key personnel during the pendency of the merger as employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company;

reputational harm due to the adverse public perception of any failure to successfully complete the merger;

having been subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of their businesses, in the case of each of the companies, which may have prevented them from making certain acquisitions or dispositions or pursuing certain business opportunities while the merger was pending; and each company's management having focused on the merger instead of on conducting their day-to-day business and operational matters and pursuing other opportunities that could have been beneficial to the companies.

Any delay in the completion of the merger, any uncertainty about the completion of the merger on terms other than those contemplated by the merger agreement and any failure to complete the merger could adversely affect the business, financial results and stock price of SJW and/or CTWS.

The merger agreement contains provisions that could discourage a potential competing acquiror of either SJW or CTWS, or could result in any competing proposal being at a lower price than it might otherwise be. However, potential competing acquirors could negatively impact the completion and timing of the proposed transaction and result in disruption and expense for both SJW and CTWS.

The merger agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, restrict each of SJW's and CTWS's ability to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any takeover proposal (which includes among other things any proposal or offer made by a third party relating to any merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, other business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving SJW or CTWS, or any of their respective subsidiaries, or any sale, lease, contribution or other disposition, directly or indirectly, of any business or assets of SJW or CTWS, or any of their respective subsidiaries, representing 15% or more of the consolidated revenues, net income or assets of SJW or CTWS, or any of their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole). In addition, the other party has an opportunity to offer to modify the terms of the merger in response to any competing acquisition proposals before the board of directors of the company that has received a third-party proposal may withdraw or qualify its recommendation with respect to the merger. See the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals", "The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement" and "The Merger Agreement - Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on pages 127, 136 and 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, respectively.

These provisions could discourage a potential third-party acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant portion of SJW or CTWS from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share cash or market value than the market value proposed to be received or realized in the merger or might result in a potential third-party acquiror proposing to pay a lower price to the stockholders than it might otherwise have proposed to pay because of the added expense of the $42.5 million or $28.1 million termination fee, as applicable, that may become payable in certain circumstances.

On April 4, 2018, SJW received an unsolicited proposal from a third party strategic acquiror regarding the acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock for $68.25 per share. See "Summary Recent Developments." On April 5, 2018, CTWS received an unsolicited proposal from Eversource Energy regarding the acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock for $63.50 per share in cash and/or stock at the election of holders of CTWS common stock. See "The Merger - Background of the Merger." While each of SJW and CTWS has determined that the unsolicited proposal that it had received was neither a superior proposal nor reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, it is unclear what additional actions these third parties may take to further their proposals. Even if ultimately unsuccessful, actions taken by these or other third parties could disrupt the business of each of SJW and CTWS, could cause SJW and CTWS to incur substantial expense, and could negatively impact the expected timing of the consummation of the merger. In addition, there is a risk that, as a result of actions taken by these or other third parties, shareholders of SJW or CTWS may vote against the proposals at their respective special meetings and that, consequently, the required shareholder approvals may not be obtained.

If the merger agreement is terminated and either SJW or CTWS determines to seek another business combination, it may not be able to negotiate a transaction with another party on terms comparable to, or better than, the terms of the merger.

The SJW voting and support agreements contains provisions that could discourage a potential competing acquiror of SJW, or could result in any competing proposal being at a lower price than it might otherwise be.

In connection with the merger agreement, on March 14, 2018, SJW entered into SJW voting and support agreements with certain holders of shares of SJW common stock (collectively, the SJW supporting parties). As of the record date for the SJW stockholders meeting, the SJW supporting parties collectively beneficially owned approximately []% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock.

Pursuant to and during the terms of the SJW voting and support agreements, each of the SJW supporting parties agreed, subject to certain conditions and exceptions, at any meeting of SJW stockholders and each action by written consent in lieu of a meeting, or at any postponement or adjournment thereof, to vote its respective SJW supporting party shares (i) in favor of the approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger; (ii) in favor of the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment; (iii) in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting to a later date, if there are not sufficient votes to approve of the matters described in the immediately preceding two bullets; (iv) in favor of any other matter considered at any such meeting of SJW stockholders recommended by the SJW board of directors as required thereunder; (v) against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of SJW in the merger agreement; (vi) against any takeover proposal in respect of SJW; and (vii) against any agreement, amendment of the SJW certificate of incorporation (other than the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) or SJW bylaws (other than as included as Exhibit C of the merger agreement) or other action that would delay, postpone or discourage the consummation of the merger.

The SJW voting and support agreements also provide, among other things and subject to certain conditions and exceptions, the SJW supporting parties (i) will not, and will not to agree to, (A) sell, transfer, give, pledge, encumber, assign or otherwise dispose of any of its respective SJW supporting party shares; (B) deposit such shares into a voting trust or grant any proxies or enter into a voting agreement, power of attorney or voting trust with respect to them; (C) permit such shares to become subject to liens; or (D) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of such SJW supporting party set forth in the respective SJW voting and support agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect or have the effect of preventing, disabling or delaying such SJW supporting party from performing any of his obligations thereunder; and (ii) will not, directly or indirectly, (A) solicit, initiate, cause, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information) any inquiries or proposals that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any takeover proposal in respect of SJW; (B) participate in any discussions or negotiations with any third party regarding any takeover proposal in respect of SJW (other than to inform any person of such prohibition); or (C) enter into any agreement related to any takeover proposal in respect of SJW, unless SJW notifies such SJW supporting party that SJW is permitted to take similar actions in response to a takeover proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

For more information on the SJW voting and support agreements, see the section entitled "The Merger - SJW Voting and Support Agreements" beginning on page 117 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The existence of the SJW voting and support agreements could discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of SJW.

SJW's and CTWS's executive officers and directors have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders generally.

SJW's and CTWS's executive officers and directors have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders generally. SJW's executive officers and CTWS's executive officers negotiated the terms of the merger agreement. SJW's and CTWS's executive officers and directors also have rights to indemnification and directors' and officers' liability insurance that will survive completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will be comprised of twelve members, consisting of seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of combined company are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020. For more information on the combined company's board of directors, see the section entitled "Governance Matters After the Merger" beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Mr. Thornburg, the current chief executive officer and president of SJW, will serve as chairman, chief executive officer and president of the combined company. Mr. Thornburg, who was the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS until September 28, 2017 and an employee of CTWS until October 15, 2017, continues to hold 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13, 2018. Mr. Benoit, currently the president and chief executive officer of CTWS, will serve as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and of The Connecticut Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of the combined company, from and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company. All of SJW's and its subsidiaries' current officers are expected to continue to serve as officers of the combined company or its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. In addition, the combined company's and certain of its subsidiaries' management teams will include officers from CTWS, including as follows: (i) Richard L. Knowlton will serve as president of The Maine Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of the combined company; (ii) Kristen A. Johnson will serve as chief human resource officer of the combined company and its subsidiaries; (iii) Maureen P. Westbrook will serve as senior vice president of external affairs of the combined company and its subsidiaries; (iv) Craig J. Patla will serve as vice president, operations of the Combined SJW's New England Region; and (v) Robert J. Doffek will serve as vice president, controller of the Combined SJW's New England Region.

Messrs. Benoit and Patla and Mesdames Johnson and Westbrook are parties to employment agreements that will become effective upon the closing of the merger. Under these employment agreements, each of Messrs. Benoit and Patla and Mesdames Johnson and Westbrook is entitled to severance benefits that are more fully described under "Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" Employment Agreements and are triggered if his or her employment is terminated, at any time during the term of the employment agreement, for any reason other than cause, death, or attainment of age 65, or if the executive's employment is terminated by reason of the executive's disability, or if the executive voluntarily terminates employment for good reason. Notably, with respect to Mr. Benoit and Ms. Westbrook, "good reason" to terminate their employment includes any reason or no reason during the first 13 months following the closing of the merger. Accordingly, under these agreements, key executives potentially could resign from employment following the merger. In addition, the CTWS equity awards held by the CTWS executive officers will be entitled to special treatment pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, as is more fully described under "The Merger Agreement" Treatment of CTWS Equity Awards. The payouts under these equity awards could make retention of these key executives more challenging.

The SJW and CTWS boards of directors were aware of these interests at the time each approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These interests, including the continued employment of certain executive officers of SJW and CTWS by the combined company, Mr. Thornburg's ownership of 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs, the continued positions of certain directors of SJW and CTWS as directors of the combined company and the indemnification of former directors and officers by the combined company, may cause SJW's and CTWS's directors and executive officers to view the merger proposal differently and more favorably than you may view it. See the section entitled "The Merger - Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 100 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and "The Merger - Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 101 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for more information.

Risk Factors Relating to the Combined Company Following the Merger

The combined company may be unable to integrate successfully the businesses of SJW and CTWS and realize the anticipated benefits of the merger on the anticipated timeframe or at all.

The merger involves the combination of two companies that currently operate as independent public companies. The success of the merger will depend, in large part, on the ability of the combined company to realize the anticipated benefits from combining the businesses of SJW and CTWS. To realize these anticipated benefits, the businesses of SJW and CTWS must be successfully integrated. This integration will be complex and time consuming. The failure to integrate successfully and to manage successfully the challenges presented by the integration process may result in the combined company not fully achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger. Potential difficulties the combined company may encounter as part of the integration process include the following:

the inability to successfully combine the businesses of SJW and CTWS in a manner that permits the combined company to achieve the full benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected as a result of the merger;

complexities associated with managing the combined businesses, including the challenge of integrating complex systems, technology, networks and other assets of each of the companies in a seamless manner that minimizes any adverse impact on customers, suppliers, employees and other constituencies; coordinating geographically separated organizations, systems and facilities;

addressing possible differences in business backgrounds, corporate cultures and management philosophies; integrating the workforces of the two companies while maintaining focus on providing consistent, high quality customer service; potential unknown liabilities and unforeseen increased or new expenses, delays or regulatory conditions associated with the merger;

diversion of the attention of each company's management;

failure to perform by third-party service providers who provide key services for the combined company; and the disruption of, or the loss of momentum in, each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in operations, services, standards, controls, procedures and policies, any of which could adversely affect each company's ability to maintain relationships with customers, vendors, employees and other constituencies or SJW's and CTWS's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger, or which could reduce each company's earnings or otherwise adversely affect the business and financial results of the combined company.

The future results of the combined company will suffer if the combined company does not effectively manage its expanded operations following the merger.

Following the merger, the size of the business of the combined company will increase significantly beyond the current size of either SJW's or CTWS's business. The combined company's future success depends, in part, upon its ability to manage this expanded business, which will pose substantial challenges for management, including challenges related to the management and monitoring of new operations and associated increased costs and complexity. There can be no assurances that the combined company will be successful or that it will realize the expected operating efficiencies, revenue enhancements and other benefits currently anticipated from the merger.

The merger may not be accretive and may cause dilution to the combined company's earnings per share, which may negatively affect the market price of the combined company's common stock.

SJW and CTWS currently anticipate that the merger will result in mid-to-high single-digit accretion on an earnings per share basis to CTWS shareholders immediately and to shareholders of both companies by the second full year. This expectation is based on preliminary estimates, which may materially change. The combined company could also encounter additional transaction and integration-related costs or other factors such as the failure to realize all of the benefits anticipated in the merger. All of these factors could cause dilution to the combined company's adjusted earnings per share or decrease or delay the expected accretive effect of the merger and cause a decrease in the market value of the combined company's common stock.

The combined company is expected to incur substantial expenses related to the merger and the integration of SJW and CTWS.

The combined company is expected to incur substantial expenses in connection with the merger and the integration of SJW and CTWS. There are a large number of processes, policies, procedures, operations, technologies and systems at each company that must be integrated, including accounting and finance, payroll, revenue management, commercial operations, risk management, and employee benefits. While SJW and CTWS have assumed that a certain level of expenses would be incurred, there are many factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of the integration expenses. Moreover, many of the expenses that will be incurred are, by their nature, difficult to estimate accurately. These expenses could, particularly in the near term, exceed the benefits that the combined company expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction. These integration expenses likely will result in the combined company taking significant charges against earnings following the completion of the merger, and the amount and timing of such charges are uncertain at present. Substantial expenses related to the transaction, including fees payable to the companies' advisors, will also be borne by SJW and CTWS even if the merger is not completed.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are not intended to be representative of the combined company's results after the merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is presented solely for informational purposes and is not intended to be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that actually would have occurred had the merger been completed as of the dates indicated, nor is it indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company following the merger. This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information reflects adjustments that were developed using preliminary estimates based on available information and various assumptions and may be revised as additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Current holders of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Current holders of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors and on other matters affecting SJW and CTWS, respectively. Upon the completion of the merger, each CTWS shareholder who receives shares of SJW common stock will become a stockholder of the combined company with a percentage ownership of the combined company that is smaller than such stockholder's percentage ownership of CTWS. Similarly, after completion of the merger, the shares of combined company common stock retained by each SJW stockholder will represent a smaller percentage ownership of the combined company. It is currently expected that the shareholders of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting approximately 40% of the shares of combined company common stock on a fully diluted basis immediately after the merger. As a result, stockholders of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger as a group will own approximately 60% of the shares of combined company common stock on a fully diluted basis immediately after the merger. Because of this, current holders of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock will have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of SJW and CTWS, respectively.

The merger will result in changes to the board of directors that may affect the strategy and operations of the combined company.

In connection with the consummation of the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will be expanded to consist of twelve members, which will be comprised of seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, as more fully described in the section entitled "Governance Matters After the Merger" beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of combined company are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020. This new composition of the board of directors may affect the combined company's business strategy and operating decisions following the completion of the merger.

The merger will combine two companies that are currently affected by developments in the water utility industry, including changes in regulation. A failure to adapt to the changing regulatory environment after the merger could adversely affect the stability of the combined company's earnings.

Because SJW, CTWS and their respective subsidiaries are regulated in the U.S. at the federal level and, in the case of SJW, in California and Texas, and, in the case of CTWS, Connecticut and Maine, the two companies have been and will continue to be affected by legislative and regulatory developments. After the merger, the combined company and/or its subsidiaries will be subject in the U.S. to extensive federal regulation as well as to state regulation in the states in which the combined company will operate. The costs and burdens associated with complying with these regulatory jurisdictions may have an adverse effect on the combined company. Moreover, potential legislative changes, regulatory changes or otherwise may create greater risks to the stability of the combined company's earnings generally.

The rights of CTWS shareholders who become stockholders of the combined company in the merger will be governed by Delaware law, the combined company's certificate of incorporation and the combined company's bylaws.

CTWS shareholders who receive shares of SJW common stock in the merger will become stockholders of the combined company and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Delaware law, the combined company's certificate of incorporation and the combined company's bylaws, rather than Connecticut law, CTWS's certificate of incorporation and CTWS's bylaws. There may be material differences between the current rights of CTWS shareholders, as compared to the rights they will have as stockholders of the combined company. For more information, see the section entitled Comparison of Rights of CTWS Shareholders and Combined SJW Stockholders beginning on page 164 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The combined company's dividend policy is subject to the discretion of its board of directors and may be limited by the combined company's credit agreements and limitations under Delaware law.

Although it is currently anticipated that the combined company will pay a regular quarterly dividend following the completion of the merger, any such determination to pay dividends will be at the discretion of the board of directors of the combined company and will be dependent on then-existing conditions, including the company's financial condition, earnings, legal requirements, including limitations under Delaware law, restrictions in the combined company's credit agreements that limit its ability to pay dividends to stockholders and other factors the board of directors of the combined company deems relevant. The board of directors of the combined company may, in its sole discretion, change the amount or frequency of dividends or discontinue the payment of dividends entirely. For these reasons, you will not be able to rely on dividends to receive a return on your investment. Accordingly, realization of a gain on your shares of the combined company common stock received in the merger may depend on the appreciation of the price of the combined company common stock, which may never occur.

The market price of shares of SJW common stock may be affected by factors different from those that historically have affected shares of CTWS common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of CTWS common stock will become holders of SJW common stock. The businesses of SJW differ from those of CTWS in certain respects, and, accordingly, the financial position or results of operations and/or cash flows of the combined company after the merger, as well as the market price of shares of SJW common stock, may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the financial position or results of operations and/or cash flows of CTWS. Following the completion of the merger, CTWS will be part of a larger company with other lines of business and a broader geographic footprint, so decisions affecting CTWS may be made in respect of the larger combined business as a whole rather than the CTWS businesses individually. For a discussion of the businesses of SJW and CTWS and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the section entitled "The Companies" beginning on page 43, and the documents incorporated by reference in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 181, including, in particular, in the sections entitled "Risk Factors" in each of SJW's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and CTWS's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017.

The market price of shares of SJW common stock may decline in the future as a result of the sale of shares of SJW common stock held by former CTWS shareholders or current SJW stockholders.

Based on the number of shares of CTWS common stock outstanding as of April 13, 2018 and the number of shares of CTWS common stock that are reserved for issuance pursuant to outstanding CTWS equity awards or otherwise, SJW expects to issue up to approximately 14,194,354 shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders in connection with the merger. Following their receipt of shares of SJW common stock as merger consideration in the merger, former CTWS shareholders may seek to sell the shares of SJW common stock delivered to them. Other SJW stockholders may also seek to sell shares of SJW common stock held by them following, or in anticipation of, completion of the merger. These sales (or the perception that these sales may occur), coupled with the increase in the outstanding number of shares of SJW common stock, may affect the market for, and the market price of, SJW common stock in an adverse manner.

The market price of shares of SJW common stock will continue to fluctuate after the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of CTWS common stock will become holders of shares of SJW common stock. The market price of shares of SJW common stock may fluctuate significantly following completion of the merger and holders of CTWS common stock could lose some or all of the value of their investment in SJW common stock. In addition, the stock market has experienced significant price and volume fluctuations in recent times which, if they continue to occur, could have an adverse effect on the market for, or liquidity of, the SJW common stock, regardless of the combined company's actual operating performance.

Other Risk Factors of SJW and CTWS

SJW's and CTWS's businesses are and will be subject to the risks described above. In addition, SJW's and CTWS's businesses are, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in Part I, Item 1A in SJW's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and Part I, Item 1A in CTWS's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, each as updated by subsequent Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are or will be filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Table of ContentsSELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED*FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF SJW AND CTWS

The following table shows selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information regarding the financial condition and results of operations of SJW after giving effect to the merger with CTWS. The selected unaudited pro forma combined financial statements have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations pursuant to the provisions of ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations and otherwise in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) under which the assets and liabilities of CTWS will be recorded by SJW at their respective fair values as of the date the merger is completed. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of December 31, 2017 assumes that the merger took place on December 31, 2017. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 assumes that the merger took place on January 1, 2017, the beginning of the earliest period presented.

The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the more detailed unaudited pro forma combined financial statements of the combined company appearing elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements. See the section entitled Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information beginning on page 146 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, the selected unaudited pro forma combined financial statements should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes of both SJW and CTWS for the applicable periods, which have been incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. See the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 181 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been presented for informational purposes only. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the merger been completed as of the dates indicated. In addition, the selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

Presented below are SJW's and CTWS's historical and pro forma per share data for the year ended December 31, 2017. Except for the historical information for the year ended December 31, 2017, the information provided in the table below is unaudited. This information should be read together with the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes of SJW and CTWS that are filed by SJW and CTWS with the SEC, and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and with the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 146.

The pro forma information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the beginning of the periods presented, nor is it necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits or opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

The historical book value per share is computed by dividing stockholders' equity by the number of shares of common stock outstanding at the end of the period. The pro forma earnings per share of the combined company is computed by dividing the pro forma earnings by the pro forma weighted average number of shares outstanding. The pro forma book value per share of the combined company is computed by dividing total pro forma stockholders' equity by the pro forma number of shares of common stock outstanding at the end of the period. The pro forma book value per share of the combined company is computed as if the merger had been completed on December 31, 2017. The CTWS unaudited pro forma equivalent per share financial information is determined using the pro forma combined per share data multiplied by 1.1375 (the exchange ratio of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock).

SJW Group

SJW was incorporated in California as SJW Corp. on February 8, 1985. On November 15, 2016, SJW Corp. changed its state of incorporation to the state of Delaware and changed its name to SJW Group. SJW is a holding company that conducts its business in the United States through three wholly owned subsidiaries, namely, San Jose Water Company, SJWTX, Inc., doing business as Canyon Lake Water Service Company, and SJW Land Company. San Jose Water Company and Canyon Lake Water Service Company are public utilities regulated by the California Public Utilities Commission and Public Utilities Commission of Texas, respectively, and operate within a service area approved by the regulators.

San Jose Water Company is a public utility that provides water service to approximately 230,000 connections serving a population of approximately one million people in an area comprising approximately 139 square miles in the metropolitan San Jose, California area. SJWTX, Inc. is another public utility that provides water service to approximately 14,000 connections serving approximately 42,000 people in an area comprising more than 244 square miles in western Comal County and southern Blanco County in the growing region between San Antonio and Austin, Texas. In addition, SJWTX, Inc. has a 25% interest in Acequia Water Supply Corporation, which has been consolidated with SJWTX, Inc. within the scope of Financial Accounting Standards Board ASC Topic 810, Consolidation. The principal business of these water utility services consists of the production, purchase, storage, purification, distribution, wholesale, and retail sale of water. San Jose Water Company also provides non-tariffed services under agreements with municipalities and other utilities. These non-tariffed services include water system operations, maintenance agreements and antenna site leases.

SJW Land Company owns an undeveloped real estate property, commercial and warehouse properties in Tennessee. SJW Land Company also has a 70% limited partnership interest in 444 West Santa Clara Street, L.P., which sold all of its interests in the commercial building and land the partnership owned and operated on April 6, 2017.

SJW's common stock is traded on the NYSE under the symbol SJW. The principal executive offices of SJW are located on 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110. Its telephone number is (408) 279-7800, and its Internet address is www.sjwgroup.com.

Connecticut Water Service, Inc.

CTWS was incorporated in 1974, with The Connecticut Water Company as its largest subsidiary, which was organized in 1956. CTWS is a non-operating holding company, whose income is derived from the earnings of its six wholly owned subsidiary companies. In 2017, approximately 95% of the company's net income was attributable to water operations carried out within its four regulated water companies, The Connecticut Water Company, The Heritage Village Water Company, The Avon Water Company and The Maine Water Company. The Connecticut Water Company, The Heritage Village Water Company and The Avon Water Company are regulated by the PURA and The Maine Water Company is regulated by the MPUC. These regulated companies supplied water to 135,000 connections serving approximately 450,000 people in 80 municipalities in Connecticut and Maine and wastewater to more than 3,000 connections serving approximately 10,000 people in Southbury, Connecticut. They are subject to state regulation regarding financial issues, rates, service and operating issues, and to various other state and federal regulatory agencies concerning water quality and environmental standards.

In addition to its regulated companies, CTWS owns two active unregulated companies. In 2017, these unregulated companies, together with real estate transactions within The Connecticut Water Company, contributed the remaining

5% of CTWS's net income through real estate transactions as well as services and rentals. The two active unregulated companies are Chester Realty, Inc., a real estate company in Connecticut, and New England Water Utility Services, Inc., which provides contract water and sewer operations and other water related services.

THE SJW SPECIAL MEETING

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to the stockholders of SJW as part of a solicitation of proxies by the SJW board of directors for use at SJW's special meeting to be held at the time and place specified below and at any properly convened meeting following any adjournments or postponements thereof. This joint proxy statement/prospectus provides stockholders of SJW with the information they need to know to be able to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at SJW's special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting of SJW stockholders is scheduled to be held at 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110, on [], 2018, at [], local time, subject to any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Purpose of the SJW Special Meeting

At the SJW special meeting, SJW stockholders will be asked to consider and vote on:

the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger as contemplated by the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, a copy of the form of which is included as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, as contemplated by the merger agreement; and the proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders.

Recommendation of the SJW Board of Directors

The SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders.

The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

SJW Record Date; Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Only SJW stockholders of record at the close of business on [], 2018, the SJW record date for the SJW special meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the SJW special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Table of Contents

At the close of business on the SJW record date, there were [] shares of SJW common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the SJW special meeting. SJW issued and outstanding capital stock consists solely of outstanding shares of SJW common stock. SJW stockholders will have one vote for each share of SJW common stock they owned on the SJW record date, in person or through the Internet or by telephone or by a properly executed and delivered proxy with respect to the SJW special meeting. A list of stockholders of SJW will be available for review for any purpose germane to the special meeting at SJW's executive offices and principal place of business at the 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, California 95110, during regular business hours for a period of 10 days before the special meeting. The list will also be available at the special meeting for examination by any stockholder of record present at the special meeting.

Voting by SJW's Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the SJW record date, directors and executive officers of SJW and their affiliates were entitled to vote [] shares of SJW common stock, or approximately []% of the shares of SJW common stock outstanding on that date. We currently expect that SJW's directors (including those who are party to the SJW voting and support agreements) and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Quorum

No business may be transacted at the SJW special meeting unless a quorum is present. Stockholders who hold shares representing at least a majority of the voting power of all shares of SJW stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the SJW special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the SJW special meeting. If a quorum is not present, the special meeting may be adjourned by the approval of holders of SJW stock representing a majority of the voting power of all shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, or by the chairman of the special meeting, to allow additional time for obtaining additional proxies. In addition, the chairman of the special meeting may adjourn such meeting after the special meeting has been duly organized. At any subsequent reconvening of the special meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as they would have been voted at the original convening of the special meeting, except for any proxies that have been effectively revoked or withdrawn prior to the subsequent meeting.

For purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved, abstentions (shares of SJW common stock for which proxies have been received but for which the holders have abstained from voting or as to which the holder attends the special meeting in person but does not vote) will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of SJW common stock represented at the special meeting, but broker non-votes will not be included.

Required Vote

The issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the SJW special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote and broker non-votes, which are described below, will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present. Abstentions are treated the same as votes against this proposal.

The adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this proposal.

The adjournment of the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the SJW special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this proposal.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders.

Failure to Vote, Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions

Failure to Vote. A failure to vote occurs when a holder of SJW common stock fails to vote in person or by proxy and fails to instruct his or her bank, broker, trust or other nominee to vote shares beneficially owned by such holder. Accordingly, if an SJW stockholder fails to vote with respect to:

the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, it will have no effect on the vote count for this proposal (assuming a quorum is present);

the proposal to approve adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal (assuming a quorum is present); and a proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, it will have no effect on the vote count for a proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting (assuming a quorum is present).

Broker Non-Votes. If you hold your SJW shares in a stock brokerage account or if your shares are held by a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee (that is, in street name), you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by your bank, broker, trustee or other nominee. Please note that you may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to SJW or by voting in person at your stockholders meeting unless you have a legal proxy, which you must obtain from your bank or broker. Further, brokers who hold shares of SJW common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to SJW to vote those shares without specific instructions from their customers. If you are an SJW stockholder and you do not instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, pursuant to the rules of the NYSE, your broker may not vote your shares on:

the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, which will have no effect on the vote on this proposal (assuming a quorum is present);

the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, which will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal (assuming a quorum is present); and any proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting, which will have no effect on the vote on this proposal (assuming a quorum is present).

Abstentions. An abstention occurs when an SJW stockholder attends the SJW special meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting. An abstention of any SJW stockholder with respect to each of the proposals to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, the proposal to approve adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and a proposal to adjourn the SJW special meeting will have the same effect as a vote against such proposal.

Whether or not you plan to attend the SJW special meeting, please vote your shares in advance of the meeting by proxy by following the instructions set forth in the section below.

If you plan to attend the SJW special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting.

If you are a registered or record holder, which means your shares are registered in your name with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, SJW's transfer agent, you may vote in person at the special meeting. In addition, if you are a registered stockholder, please be prepared to provide proper identification, such as a driver's license.

If your shares are held in street name and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must bring to the special meeting a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder (your broker, bank or other nominee) of the shares authorizing you to vote at the special meeting. You will need to provide proof of ownership, such as a recent account statement or letter from your bank, broker or other nominee, along with proper identification.

If you are a holder of record, a proxy card is enclosed for your use. SJW requests that you submit a proxy via the Internet by logging onto www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions on your proxy card or by telephone by dialing (866) 357-4029 and listening for further directions or by signing and dating the enclosed proxy and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the enclosed proxy is returned properly executed and dated, the shares of SJW common stock represented by it will be voted at the SJW special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy.

If a proxy is returned without an indication as to how the shares of SJW common stock represented are to be voted with regard to a particular proposal, the SJW common stock represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the SJW board of directors and, therefore, FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. At the date hereof, management has no knowledge of any business that will be presented for consideration at the special meeting and which would be required to be set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the related proxy card other than the matters set forth in SJW's Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders. If any other matter is properly presented at the special meeting for consideration, it is intended that the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy and acting thereunder will vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matter.

If you hold your shares of SJW common stock in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to vote your shares. If you vote by Internet or telephone, you need not return a proxy card by mail, but your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on [], 2018.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, please sign and return the enclosed proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the SJW special meeting in person. Proxies submitted through the specified Internet website or by phone must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on [], 2018.

Revocation of Proxies

If you are the record holder of SJW stock, you can change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this by:

timely delivering a signed written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of SJW;

timely delivering a new, valid proxy bearing a later date by submitting instructions through the Internet, by telephone or by mail as described on the proxy card; or attending the SJW special meeting and voting in person, which will automatically cancel any proxy previously given, or you can revoke your proxy in person. Simply attending the SJW special meeting without voting will not revoke any proxy that you have previously given or change your vote.

A registered stockholder may revoke a proxy by any of these methods, regardless of the method used to deliver the stockholder's previous proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of proxies should be addressed as follows:

110 West Taylor Street

San Jose, California 95110

Attention: General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Please note that if your shares are held in street name through a broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee in accordance with its established procedures. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank, employee benefit plan trustee or other nominee and you decide to change your vote by attending the special meeting and voting in person, your vote in person at the special meeting will not be effective unless you have obtained and present an executed proxy issued in your name from the record holder (your broker, bank or other nominee).

Tabulation of Votes

SJW expects to appoint one or more independent contractors retained by Georgeson LLC (Georgeson) to serve as the Inspector of Election for the SJW special meeting. Georgeson will independently tabulate affirmative and negative votes and abstentions.

Solicitation of Proxies

SJW is soliciting proxies for the SJW special meeting and, in accordance with the merger agreement, the cost of SJW proxy solicitation will be borne by SJW. In addition to solicitation by use of mails, proxies may be solicited by SJW directors, officers and employees in person or by telephone or other means of communication. These individuals will not be additionally compensated but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses associated with solicitation. Arrangements will also be made with brokers, banks, trustees and other nominees for forwarding of proxy solicitation material to beneficial owners of common stock held of record and we may reimburse these individuals for their reasonable expenses.

To help assure the presence in person or by proxy of the largest number of stockholders possible, SJW has engaged Georgeson, a proxy solicitation firm, to solicit proxies on SJW's behalf. SJW has agreed to pay Georgeson a proxy solicitation fee of $50,000, plus reasonable expenses for its services. SJW will also reimburse Georgeson for its reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses.

Adjournments

Any adjournment of the special meeting may be made from time to time, if a quorum does not exist, by approval holders of SJW stock representing a majority of the voting power of all shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, or by the chairman of the special meeting, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the special meeting. In addition, the chairman of the special meeting may adjourn such meeting after the special meeting has been duly organized. If a quorum is not present at the special meeting, or if a quorum is present at the special meeting but there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the proposal to issue shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders or the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, then SJW stockholders may be asked to vote on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting so as to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

THE CTWS SPECIAL MEETING

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to CTWS shareholders as part of a solicitation of proxies by the CTWS board of directors for use at the CTWS special meeting to be held at the time and place specified below and at any properly convened meeting following any adjournments or postponements thereof. This joint proxy statement/prospectus provides CTWS shareholders with the information they need to know to be able to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at the CTWS special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

Purpose of the CTWS Special Meeting

At the CTWS special meeting, CTWS shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on:

the proposal to approve the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and which is further described in the sections titled "The Merger" and "The Merger Agreement," beginning on pages 55 and 120, respectively;

the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger; and

the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders.

Recommendation of the CTWS Board of Directors

The CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

CTWS Record Date; Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Edgar Filing: SJW GROUP - Form S-4

Only holders of record of CTWS common stock at the close of business on [], 2018, the CTWS record date, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the CTWS special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

At the close of business on the CTWS record date, [] shares of CTWS common stock were issued and outstanding and held by [] holders of record. As of the CTWS record date, CTWS issued and outstanding capital stock consists solely of outstanding shares of CTWS common stock. Holders of record of CTWS common stock on the CTWS record date are entitled to three votes per share at the CTWS special meeting on each proposal. A list of CTWS shareholders will be available for review for any purpose germane to the CTWS special meeting at CTWS's executive offices and principal place of business at 93 West Main Street, Clinton, Connecticut 06413, during regular business hours for a period of 10 days before the CTWS special meeting. The list will also be available at the CTWS special meeting for examination by any shareholder of record present at the CTWS special meeting.

Voting by CTWS's Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the CTWS record date, directors and executive officers of CTWS and their affiliates were entitled to vote [] shares of CTWS common stock, or approximately [] of the shares of CTWS common stock outstanding on that date. We currently expect that CTWS's directors and executive officers will vote their shares in favor of each proposal being submitted to a vote of CTWS shareholders at the CTWS special meeting, although no director or officer has entered into any agreement obligating him or her to do so.

Quorum

No business may be transacted at the CTWS special meeting unless a quorum is present. Shareholders who hold shares representing at least a majority of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding as of the close of business on the CTWS record date and entitled to vote at the CTWS special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the CTWS special meeting, the shareholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as shall be agreed upon by them, and notice of such adjournment shall be given to the shareholders not present or represented at the meeting.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of CTWS common stock represented at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved.

Required Vote

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds (66 2/3 %) of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against this proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, although such vote will not be binding on CTWS or its board of directors or any of its committees. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on this proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by such shareholders. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on this proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders.

Failure to Vote; Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions

Failure to Vote. A failure to vote occurs when a holder of CTWS common stock fails to vote in person or by proxy and fails to instruct his or her bank, broker, trust or other nominee to vote shares beneficially owned by such holder. Accordingly, if a CTWS shareholder fails to vote with respect to:

the proposal to approve the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal (assuming a quorum is present);

the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger, it will have no effect on the proposal (assuming a quorum is present); and

the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement, it will have no effect on the proposal (assuming a quorum is present).

Broker Non-Votes. Under the rules of the NYSE (which effectively govern the voting by any brokerage firm holding shares registered in its name or in the name of its nominee on behalf of a beneficial owner), banks, brokers, trusts or other nominees holding shares of record may vote those shares in their discretion on certain routine proposals when they do not receive timely voting instructions from the beneficial holders. A broker non-vote occurs under these NYSE rules when a bank, broker, trust or other nominee holding shares of record is not permitted to vote on a non-routine matter without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and no instruction is given.

In accordance with these NYSE rules, banks, brokers and other nominees who hold shares of CTWS common stock in street name for their customers, but do not have discretionary authority to vote the shares, may not exercise their voting discretion with respect to the proposals to be voted on at the CTWS special meeting. Accordingly, if banks, brokers or other nominees do not receive specific voting instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares, they may not vote such shares with respect to the proposals. For shares of CTWS common stock held in street name, only shares of CTWS common stock affirmatively voted FOR the proposals will be counted as a favorable vote for such proposals.

Abstentions. An abstention occurs when a CTWS shareholder attends the CTWS special meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting. Abstentions will have the same effect on each proposal as a failure to vote (as described above).

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the CTWS special meeting, please vote your shares in advance of the meeting by proxy by following the instructions set forth in the section below.

If you plan to attend the CTWS special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting.

Edgar Filing: SJW GROUP - Form S-4

If you are a registered or record holder, which means your shares are registered in your name with Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions, Inc. (Broadridge), CTWS's transfer agent, you may vote in person at the special meeting. In addition, if you are a registered shareholder, please be prepared to provide proper identification, such as a driver's license.

If your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record in an account with a broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must bring to the special meeting a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder (your broker, bank or other nominee) of the shares authorizing you to vote at the special meeting. You will need to provide proof of ownership, such as a recent account statement or letter from your bank, broker or other nominee, along with proper identification.

If you are a holder of record, a proxy card is enclosed for your use. CTWS requests that you submit a proxy via the Internet by logging onto www.proxyvote.com and following the instructions on your proxy card or by telephone by dialing (800) 454-8683 and listening for further directions. Shareholders of record of CTWS may also submit their proxies through the mail by completing the enclosed proxy card, and signing, dating and returning it in the enclosed, pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope. To be valid, a returned proxy card must be signed and dated. You should submit your proxy in advance of the meeting even if you plan to attend the CTWS special meeting. You can always change your vote at the special meeting.

If you hold your shares of CTWS common stock in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to vote your shares. If you vote by Internet or telephone, you need not return a proxy card by mail, but your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on [], 2018.

How Proxies are Counted

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the CTWS special meeting will be voted at the meeting in the manner specified by the shareholders giving those proxies.

If you properly execute your proxy card but do not indicate how your shares of CTWS common stock should be voted on a matter, the shares of CTWS common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as the CTWS board of directors recommends and, therefore, FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement, assuming a quorum is present.

Only shares affirmatively voted for the proposal, and properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as favorable votes for the proposal to approve the merger agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against the proposal to approve the merger agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposals to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the specific compensatory arrangements or to adjourn the CTWS special meeting.

Revocation of Proxies

If you are the record holder of CTWS common stock, you can change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this by:

timely delivering a signed written notice of revocation to the secretary of CTWS;

attending the CTWS special meeting and voting in person, which will automatically cancel any proxy previously given, or you can revoke your proxy in person. Simply attending the CTWS special meeting without voting will not revoke any proxy that you have previously given or change your vote.

A registered shareholder may revoke a proxy by any of these methods, regardless of the method used to deliver the shareholder's previous proxy.

Table of Contents

Written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of proxies should be addressed as follows:

Connecticut Water Service, Inc.

Clinton, Connecticut 06413

Attention: Corporate Secretary

Please note that if your shares are held in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or nominee in accordance with its established procedures. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee and you decide to change your vote by attending the special meeting and voting in person, your vote in person at the special meeting will not be effective unless you have obtained and present an executed proxy issued in your name from the record holder (your broker, bank or nominee).

Tabulation of Votes

CTWS expects to appoint one or more representatives of Broadridge to serve as the Inspector of Election for the CTWS special meeting. Broadridge will independently tabulate affirmative and negative votes and abstentions.

Solicitation of Proxies

CTWS is soliciting proxies for its special meeting from its shareholders. CTWS will pay its own cost of soliciting proxies, including the cost of mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus, from its shareholders. In addition to solicitation by use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by CTWS's directors, officers and employees in person or by telephone or other means of communication. These persons will not receive additional compensation, but may be reimbursed for actual and reasonable fees and expenses in connection with this solicitation.

CTWS has retained the services of Morrow Sodali LLC to assist in the solicitation of proxies for an estimated fee of $45,000, plus reimbursement of disbursements for actual and reasonable fees and expenses. CTWS will make arrangements with brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation materials to beneficial owners of shares held of record by them. CTWS will also reimburse these brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding the proxy materials.

Adjournments

If a quorum is not present at the CTWS special meeting, the shareholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as shall be agreed upon by them, and notice of such adjournment shall be given to the shareholders not present or represented at the meeting. If a quorum is present at the special meeting but there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the proposal to approve the merger agreement, then CTWS shareholders may be asked to vote on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting so as to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

THE MERGER

The following is a description of the material aspects of the merger, including the merger agreement. While we believe that the following description covers the material terms of the merger, the description may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We encourage you to read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the merger agreement which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Connecticut law, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW and a party to the merger agreement, will merge with and into CTWS. CTWS will survive the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW and, following completion of the merger, is sometimes referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the combined company s New England Region. The merger will become effective at such time as a certificate of merger has been duly filed with the Secretary of the State of Connecticut or at any later date or time mutually agreed to by SJW and CTWS in writing and specified in the certificate of merger in accordance with Connecticut law.

At the effective time of the merger, each share of CTWS common stock (other than shares of CTWS common stock owned by SJW, Merger Sub, CTWS or any of their respective subsidiaries and not held on behalf of third parties, which will be canceled and retired and cease to exist) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, will be converted into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock (the exchange ratio), with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares. This exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock between the date of signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

SJW stockholders will not receive any merger consideration and will continue to hold their shares of SJW common stock after the merger.

SJW and CTWS are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable and expect the closing of the merger to occur during the fourth quarter of 2018. However, the merger is subject to various regulatory clearances and the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions, and it is possible that factors outside the control of SJW and CTWS could result in the merger being completed at an earlier time, at a later time or not at all. There may be a substantial amount of time between the SJW and CTWS special meetings and the completion of the merger.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, the CTWS board of directors and CTWS senior management have reviewed and evaluated various strategic alternatives available to CTWS. Among the strategic alternatives evaluated were (i) maintaining CTWS as an independent public company, including making strategic acquisitions, (ii) a business combination with a strategic partner or (iii) a whole-company sale of CTWS. Except as otherwise described below, in recent years none of the matters evaluated in connection with any of the strategic alternatives that involved a transaction with a third party (other than strategic acquisitions by CTWS) has progressed beyond the initial stages.

On June 10, 2016, Mr. Andrew Walters, chief administrative officer of San Jose Water Company, a subsidiary of SJW, approached Mr. Eric W. Thornburg, then chairman, president and chief executive officer of CTWS, to explore the concept of a merger of equals transaction between SJW and CTWS. Messrs. Walters and Thornburg concluded that they would approach their respective boards of directors regarding further exploration of the merger of equals concept.

On August 10, 2016, SJW (after consulting with and obtaining authorization from the SJW board of directors) and CTWS (after consulting with and obtaining authorization from the CTWS board of directors) entered into a mutual confidentiality agreement (the confidentiality agreement) to share certain non-public information about their respective businesses. The confidentiality agreement included, among other things, covenants prohibiting SJW and CTWS from soliciting for employment any employee of the other party, or inducing any employee of the other party to terminate such employee s employment, subject to certain exceptions.

From August 2016 through January 2017, members of the CTWS board of directors and CTWS management, in consultation with and pursuant to authorization from the CTWS board of directors, engaged in in-person and telephonic discussions with members of the SJW board of directors and SJW management, in consultation with and pursuant to authorization from the SJW board of directors, from time to time about various matters relating to a potential transaction, including each company s culture, the industrial logic of a merger of equals transaction, governance matters for the combined company that would result from such a transaction and financial projections for each company. Throughout this time period, the CTWS board of directors and members of CTWS management evaluated the potential benefits and risks of a merger of equals transaction with SJW and consulted with representatives of Wells Fargo Securities, which was engaged to advise CTWS in connection with its review of strategic alternatives, and Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (Sullivan & Cromwell), CTWS s outside legal counsel. Also throughout this time period, the SJW board of directors and members of SJW management evaluated the potential benefits and risks of a merger of equals transaction with CTWS and consulted with representatives of J.P. Morgan, which was engaged to advise SJW in connection with its review of a possible transaction, and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (Skadden), SJW s outside legal counsel.

By January 2017, SJW and CTWS had not agreed to terms upon which they would be willing to conduct a merger of equals transaction, and discussions between SJW and CTWS discontinued.

From November 2016 through May 2017, the CTWS board of directors and members of CTWS management explored another transaction involving the possible acquisition of a large water utility company, which transaction did not occur.

In connection with the retirement of Mr. W. Richard Roth as president and chief executive officer of SJW, SJW engaged in an executive search process. As a part of such search process, which included multiple candidates, Mr. Thornburg met with the nominating and governance committee of the SJW board of directors in June 2017 and the full SJW board of directors in July 2017. In August 2017, the executive compensation committee of the SJW board of directors informed Mr. Thornburg of its interest in discussing the terms upon which SJW might hire Mr. Thornburg to serve as its president and chief executive officer provided that CTWS agrees to waive the non-solicitation provision of the confidentiality agreement for the purpose of SJW s hiring of Mr. Thornburg.

On August 31, 2017, SJW and CTWS entered into a release and waiver whereby CTWS agreed to waive, solely with respect to SJW s solicitation and possible or actual employment of Mr. Thornburg, the covenants of the confidentiality agreement which prohibited SJW from soliciting for employment any employee of CTWS. As part of the release and waiver, in the event SJW did employ Mr. Thornburg, SJW agreed to reimburse CTWS for its fees and expenses related to engaging an executive search firm to perform a search for Mr. Thornburg s replacement and other fees and expenses incident to his replacement, up to $500,000.

On September 28, 2017, SJW announced that the SJW board of directors had appointed Mr. Thornburg to serve as president and chief executive officer of SJW, effective as of November 6, 2017.

Also on September 28, 2017, CTWS announced the resignation of Mr. Thornburg and that the CTWS board of directors had appointed Mr. David C. Benoit, who was then the senior vice president – finance, chief financial officer and treasurer of CTWS, to serve as the interim president and chief executive officer of CTWS, effective as of September 28, 2017.

In October 2017, the executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource Energy (Eversource) contacted Ms. Carol P. Wallace, chairman of the CTWS board of directors, by phone. During the course of their discussion, Ms. Wallace indicated that the CTWS board of directors was pleased with the company’s strategy and results and intended to continue maintaining CTWS as an independent public company.

On November 14, 2017, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management in attendance. During the meeting, the SJW board of directors discussed the possibility of exploring a merger of equals transaction between SJW and CTWS and directed Mr. Thornburg to contact Mr. Benoit in order to assess whether the CTWS board of directors would be interested in discussing such a merger of equals transaction with SJW.

The following day, on November 15, 2017, Mr. Thornburg telephoned Mr. Benoit to inquire as to whether Mr. Benoit and the CTWS board of directors would be interested in receiving a proposal regarding a potential merger of equals transaction with SJW. Following their phone call, Mr. Benoit informed Ms. Wallace and members of CTWS management of his phone call with Mr. Thornburg.

On November 16, 2017, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management in attendance. During the meeting, Mr. Benoit informed the CTWS board of directors of the phone call from Mr. Thornburg inquiring if the CTWS board of directors would be interested in receiving a proposal for a merger of equals transaction with SJW. Following a discussion about the merits and potential risks and benefits of a return communication to Mr. Thornburg, it was agreed that the CTWS board of directors would continue its discussion at a telephonic meeting to occur the next day on November 17, 2017. Following the CTWS board of directors meeting, Mr. Benoit informed Sullivan & Cromwell of the phone call with Mr. Thornburg and the CTWS board meeting.

On November 17, 2017, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management in attendance. Following additional discussion regarding the merits and potential risks and benefits of a return communication to Mr. Thornburg, the CTWS board of directors agreed that Mr. Benoit should communicate to Mr. Thornburg that the CTWS board of directors would be open to reviewing a proposal from SJW regarding a merger of equals transaction and would give such a proposal careful consideration, with specific attention to the premium that would be offered in the merger of equals, the governance terms and SJW’s plans and pathway to achieve regulatory approval for the transaction.

Between November 17, 2017 and early December 2017, Messrs. Benoit and Thornburg communicated periodically regarding ongoing internal discussions at CTWS and SJW, respectively, and of potential key issues, including regulatory approval, board composition and merger premium, in connection with submitting a proposal for a potential transaction.

On December 6, 2017, the finance committee of the SJW board of directors (the SJW finance committee) held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, members of SJW management presented to the SJW finance committee a potential merger of equals transaction with CTWS, which included the possibility of a potential share repurchase to be effective following consummation of the potential transaction. Review of the background, rationale and terms of the potential transaction included its anticipated impact on SJW's liquidity position, capital cost, ability to scale and attractiveness to investors, as well as likely benefits from increased regulatory, geographic and weather diversification. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then presented a financial analysis of the proposed financial terms of the potential transaction and also discussed with the SJW finance committee a potential share repurchase to be effective following consummation of the potential transaction. Members of the SJW finance committee proceeded to engage in a discussion of the potential transaction, following which the SJW finance committee recommended that the full SJW board of directors consider delivering to CTWS an indication of interest letter outlining the potential transaction.

On December 8, 2017, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, Mr. Daniel B. More, chairman of the SJW finance committee, provided the SJW board of directors with an update of matters discussed by the SJW finance committee during its December 6 meeting and the SJW finance committee's recommendation that the SJW board of directors consider delivery to CTWS of an indication of interest letter relating to the potential transaction. Members of SJW management then reviewed the background, rationale and proposed terms of the potential transaction, including a possible accelerated repurchase of shares of SJW common stock to be announced in connection with such potential transaction to take advantage of the combined company's improved credit profile and optimize the balance sheet, while increasing earnings per share accretion and maintaining a strong investment grade rating. During this discussion, Mr. Thornburg disclosed his ownership of CTWS securities. Representatives of J.P. Morgan presented a financial analysis of the proposed financial terms of the potential transaction and also discussed with the SJW board of directors a potential share repurchase to be effective following consummation of the proposed transaction. In addition, at the meeting, a representative of Skadden reviewed with the members of the SJW board of directors their fiduciary duties in the context of consideration of a strategic transaction. The SJW board of directors unanimously determined that it was in the best interests of the SJW stockholders for Mr. Thornburg, in consultation with SJW's lead independent director and the chairman of the SJW finance committee, to deliver a letter to, and to enter into non-binding negotiations with, CTWS with respect to the terms of the potential transaction.

Later on December 8, 2017, following the direction of the SJW board of directors, Mr. Thornburg sent Mr. Benoit a non-binding indicative offer (the proposal) to acquire all of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock in a merger of equals transaction at an exchange ratio of 1.0 share of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock. At market close on December 7, 2017, this exchange ratio represented a premium for CTWS shareholders of 11.2% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 63% and 37%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company. The proposal outlined SJW's belief that the combination of SJW and CTWS would create a leading, diversified North American water utility company with strong positions on the West Coast, in Texas, and in the New England Region. The proposal included SJW's expectation that the combined company's board of directors would be comprised of directors from both companies, in numbers commensurate with the pro forma ownership of the current SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders in the combined company, and that CTWS would designate the lead independent director of the combined company. SJW also proposed that Mr. Thornburg serve as chairman and chief executive officer of the combined company, with current members of CTWS management and CTWS employees playing vital lead roles within the combined company and continuing to lead CTWS's existing businesses. In addition, the proposal specified that SJW's current headquarters would remain as corporate headquarters for the combined company and that CTWS's current headquarters would be retained as the New England headquarters for the combined company.

Following receipt of the proposal, Mr. Benoit informed the CTWS board of directors and CTWS management of the proposal. CTWS management consulted with Sullivan & Cromwell and Wells Fargo Securities regarding appropriate next steps and process, including scheduling a special meeting of the CTWS board of directors on December 15, 2017 and instructing Wells Fargo Securities to assemble preliminary financial analyses regarding the potential transaction.

On December 13, 2017, Mr. Benoit emailed Mr. Thornburg to update him that a meeting of the CTWS board of directors had been scheduled to discuss and consider the potential transaction and that members of the CTWS management were consulting with Sullivan & Cromwell and Wells Fargo Securities regarding the proposal.

On December 15, 2017, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Wells Fargo Securities reviewed with the CTWS board of directors its preliminary financial analyses regarding the proposal, considerations specific to merger of equals transactions and potential next steps (including required due diligence). The CTWS board of directors then discussed with the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities a wide range of considerations regarding the potential risks and benefits associated with the proposal, including the value to CTWS shareholders of the proposed exchange ratio (including the implied premium and pro forma ownership for CTWS shareholders in the combined company), strategic considerations, cultural fit, governance matters and credit rating impact. Following these discussions, the CTWS board of directors authorized members of CTWS management to engage in preliminary discussions with SJW, provide CTWS's five-year financial projections to SJW, and to report any updates regarding the discussions with SJW to the corporate finance and investments committee of the CTWS board of directors (the "CTWS CF&I committee"). The CTWS CF&I committee is authorized pursuant to its committee charter to assist the CTWS board of directors in the evaluation of proposed merger and acquisition transactions and other significant activities of CTWS.

Following the December 15, 2017 meeting and over the course of December 2017 and early January 2018, SJW and CTWS exchanged five-year financial projections, held calls to review each other's financial forecasts and assumptions, and maintained communication to facilitate due diligence and otherwise explore the potential transaction. Representatives of J.P. Morgan and Wells Fargo Securities also participated in the due diligence review of SJW and CTWS.

On January 10, 2018, Mr. Thornburg sent Mr. Benoit a letter reiterating SJW's interest in a transaction with CTWS on the terms outlined in the proposal and detailing SJW's perspective of the significant benefits that would result from the potential transaction, including: the creation of a leading, national water utility; greater geographic diversity and new growth regions for both organizations; increased scale enabling the combined company to take advantage of more and larger growth opportunities; a combined leadership team closely aligned in their commitment to a culture of serving customers, communities, employees, shareholders and the environment; greater earnings growth potential than either SJW or CTWS could attain individually, with significant and immediate earnings accretion for the two companies combined shareholders; a stronger balance sheet with a lower cost of capital over the long term; and customer benefits through the reduction of public company costs, enhancing information technology services systems and procurement benefits. Mr. Thornburg's letter also specified that Mr. Benoit would be named president of the New England Region and The Connecticut Water Company, and that certain other CTWS officers may be named as officers of the combined company or its subsidiaries. Mr. Thornburg's letter to Mr. Benoit was accompanied by discussion materials prepared by J.P. Morgan at the direction of SJW management regarding the strategic and financial benefits of the potential transaction. The discussion materials included a proposal from SJW to conduct share repurchases in conjunction with the closing of the potential transaction in order to optimize the pro forma balance sheet of the combined company and increase earnings accretion.

On January 12, 2018, the CTWS CF&I committee held a special meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Wells Fargo Securities provided an update on developments since the December 15, 2017 meeting of the CTWS board of directors, reviewed the strategic considerations and potential risks associated with the potential transaction and provided preliminary financial analyses to assist the CTWS CF&I committee in its evaluation of the potential transaction. After discussion, the CTWS CF&I committee unanimously determined to recommend that the CTWS board of directors authorize the conduct additional due diligence on the potential transaction with SJW and to develop information for the CTWS board of directors and the CTWS CF&I committee to consider in structuring a counterproposal, if appropriate. On the same day, Mr. Benoit updated Mr. Thornburg on the recommendation of the CTWS CF&I committee and outlined next steps.

On January 18, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a regular meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities in attendance. During the meeting, the CTWS board of directors discussed with the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities the strategic considerations and potential risks associated with the potential transaction. Following this discussion, the CTWS board of directors agreed with the CTWS CF&I committee's recommendation authorizing the members of CTWS management and CTWS's advisors to conduct additional due diligence on the potential transaction with SJW and to develop information for the CTWS board of directors and the CTWS CF&I committee to consider in structuring a counterproposal, if appropriate. Following the meeting, Mr. Benoit contacted Mr. Thornburg to communicate the CTWS board of directors' authorization to proceed with management meetings and due diligence.

On January 19, 2018, Mr. Benoit and Mr. Thornburg discussed next steps regarding the potential transaction, including a meeting between certain members of management of CTWS and SJW.

On January 25 and 26, 2018, members of SJW management and CTWS management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Wells Fargo Securities met at the offices of Wells Fargo Securities in Houston, Texas. Over the course of these two days, the companies reviewed and discussed their businesses and operations, shared commitments to customer service, approach to regulatory affairs, required approvals for the potential transaction, the potential benefits of the potential transaction on various stakeholders, SJW's proposal to conduct share repurchases in conjunction with the closing of the potential transaction, and the potential organizational structure and operations of the combined company, as well as outstanding diligence items, transaction timing and next steps in their evaluation of the potential transaction. During the meetings, the companies also discussed SJW's and CTWS's plan to share updated five-year financial projections that reflected the expected financial impact on SJW and CTWS of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

On January 30, 2018, the SJW finance committee held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, members of SJW management reviewed recent communications with CTWS, including the management meetings that took place in Houston, Texas on January 25 and 26, 2018, and developments regarding the potential transaction, including a summary of key resolved and outstanding items. The SJW finance committee discussed market, process and timing considerations, and regulatory and shareholder approval matters with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden. Following discussion, the SJW finance committee came to a consensus to continue to review the financial, regulatory and other aspects of the potential transaction with CTWS.

On January 31, 2018, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management in attendance. The SJW finance committee reviewed and discussed with the SJW board of directors a report regarding the matters discussed at the January 30 meeting of the SJW finance committee, including the status of discussions with CTWS regarding the potential transaction.

On February 7, 2018, CTWS issued a press release and filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing that The Connecticut Water Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CTWS, had entered into a rate settlement agreement with the Connecticut Office of Consumer Counsel on February 6, 2018. The rate settlement agreement contemplates a change in The Connecticut Water Company's customer rates effective for bills rendered on and after April 1, 2018 made up of the following components: (i) the revenue requirements associated with a $36.3 million addition to rate base to reflect necessary upgrades to The Connecticut Water Company's Rockville Water Treatment Facility; and

(ii) folding the amount of the Water Infrastructure Conservation Adjustment charge on customers bills into base rates. If approved by the Connecticut Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (PURA), the settlement will permit The Connecticut Water Company to recover additional investments through its rates, which is expected to have a positive impact on CTWS's earnings per share.

Also on February 7, 2018, the CTWS CF&I committee held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Wells Fargo Securities reviewed with the CTWS board of directors a preliminary analysis of the strategic alternatives available to CTWS, including continuing to operate on a standalone basis, the merger of equals transaction with SJW and a comparison of a merger of equals transaction with a hypothetical transaction involving the acquisition of CTWS for cash. The CTWS CF&I committee engaged in further discussion regarding the strategic alternatives available to CTWS and concluded that a merger of equals transaction would best position CTWS to continue delivering value to its shareholders and fulfilling its commitment to its customers, employees and communities, provided acceptable terms could be negotiated. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the CTWS CF&I committee its updated preliminary financial analyses in connection with the potential transaction, including the implied premium to CTWS shareholders of approximately 10.6% based on the 1.0 exchange ratio in the proposal and current market prices and pro forma ownership for SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders of approximately 62.5% and 37.5%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities also discussed the proposal from SJW to conduct share repurchases in conjunction with the closing of the potential transaction in order to optimize the pro forma balance sheet of the combined company and increase earnings accretion. The members of CTWS management also briefed the CTWS CF&I committee on the key areas of discussion during the management meetings that took place in Houston, Texas on January 25 and 26, 2018. The CTWS CF&I committee engaged in discussion with the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities regarding whether or not to recommend that the CTWS board of directors proceed with making a counterproposal to SJW and the appropriate terms of any such counterproposal, including the exchange ratio, governance rights and the board composition of the combined company. With respect to the exchange ratio, the CTWS CF&I committee discussed the recent volatility in the equity markets and the impact of the CPUC's proposed decision (as defined below) and The Connecticut Water Company's rate settlement agreement on SJW's and CTWS's respective stock prices. Following such discussion, the CTWS CF&I committee authorized members of CTWS management and CTWS's advisors to continue to evaluate the potential transaction and develop a counterproposal to share with the CTWS CF&I committee at a meeting to be scheduled in the near future.

On February 9, 2018, SJW filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing that the California Public Utilities Commission (the CPUC) had issued a proposed decision (the CPUC's proposed decision) on February 6, 2018 in connection with SJW's April 3, 2017 application requesting authority to increase its authorized cost of capital for the period from January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2020. The CPUC's proposed decision provided for a reduction to SJW's authorized return on equity from 9.43% to 8.30% and its overall return on rate base from 8.09% to 7.19%. While the CPUC's proposed decision was subject to change, SJW's authorized revenue was expected to reduce by approximately $10 million for 2018 if the proposal remained unchanged (on March 22, 2018, the CPUC issued a final decision providing a reduction to SJW's authorized return on equity from 9.43% to 8.90% and its overall return on rate base from 8.09% to 7.64%, with an anticipated reduction in SJW's authorized revenue for 2018 of approximately $6 million). Following the issuance of the CPUC's proposed decision, members of SJW management discussed with members of CTWS management the impact of the CPUC's proposed decision on SJW's business and SJW's plan to address the proposed decision.

On February 9, 2018, Mr. Thornburg called Mr. Benoit to provide an update on SJW's plan of action in response to the CPUC's proposed decision. Mr. Thornburg reaffirmed SJW's interest in the potential transaction and expressed SJW's intention to revise its proposed exchange ratio in light of the relative movement in the companies' stock prices and the potential impact of the CPUC's proposed decision. Mr. Thornburg and Mr. Benoit agreed that SJW and CTWS would

expected financial impact on SJW and CTWS of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, the CPUC's proposed decision on SJW and The Connecticut Water Company's rate settlement agreement on CTWS.

Later that day, Mr. Benoit sent a letter to the CTWS board of directors informing them of his conversation with Mr. Thornburg. The CTWS CF&I committee, members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities discussed that it was preferable not to make a counterproposal at this time, but that SJW and CTWS should continue sharing information.

Also on February 9, 2018, representatives of SJW sent to CTWS and Wells Fargo Securities an initial draft of the merger agreement. SJW also sent to CTWS and Wells Fargo Securities its updated five-year financial projections.

On February 12, 2018, the SJW finance committee held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, members of SJW management reviewed recent developments regarding the potential transaction, including SJW's delivery of an initial draft of the merger agreement to CTWS, as well as the CPUC's proposed decision and its potential detrimental impact on SJW's cost of capital. Representatives of J.P. Morgan presented to the SJW finance committee a revised financial presentation based on revised projections provided by SJW. Members of the SJW finance committee then engaged in a discussion regarding the potential impact of the CPUC's proposed decision and recent improved market performance of CTWS on SJW's value and the potential financial terms of the potential transaction. Thereafter, the SJW finance committee instructed Mr. Thornburg to reiterate to CTWS management SJW's continued interest in the potential transaction and to deliver, subject to the approval of the SJW board of directors, a revised exchange ratio proposal of 1.125 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock (the 1.125 exchange ratio) (which, at market close on February 12, 2018, represented a premium of approximately 8.3% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 60.3% and 39.7%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company).

On February 13, 2018, Messrs. Thornburg and Benoit had a phone discussion during which Mr. Thornburg proposed the 1.125 exchange ratio, subject to approval of the SJW board of directors. Following the phone discussion, Mr. Thornburg sent Mr. Benoit discussion materials prepared by J.P. Morgan at the direction of SJW management containing a contribution analysis and an accretion analysis based on SJW's proposed revised exchange ratio. Mr. Benoit informed the CTWS board of directors and members of CTWS management of his discussion with Mr. Thornburg regarding the 1.125 exchange ratio.

On February 14, 2018, representatives of Wells Fargo Securities sent to SJW and J.P. Morgan the updated CTWS five-year financial projections on behalf of CTWS.

Also on February 14, 2018, the executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource contacted Ms. Wallace to set up a meeting between Ms. Wallace, Mr. Benoit and the chief executive officer and executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource.

On February 16, 2018, the CTWS CF&I committee held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities in attendance. During the meeting, the CTWS CF&I committee discussed with the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities the latest developments with respect to the potential transaction with SJW, including Wells Fargo Securities' preliminary analysis of the 1.125 exchange ratio. At market close on February 15, 2018, the 1.125 exchange ratio represented a premium of approximately 13% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 59.7% and 40.3%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company. Following additional discussion, the CTWS CF&I committee unanimously proposed to recommend that the CTWS board of directors make a counterproposal to SJW that provided for, among other matters, equal board representation for directors designated by each of SJW and CTWS on the combined company's board of directors (with CTWS designating the lead independent director, consistent with SJW's initial proposal) and an exchange ratio of 1.150 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock (which, at market close on February 15, 2018, represented a premium of approximately 15.5% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 59.3% and 40.7%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company). The CTWS CF&I committee authorized members of CTWS management and CTWS's advisors to draft a response to SJW's proposal to be shared with the CTWS board of directors at a meeting to be held in the near future.

Later on February 16, 2018, Mr. Benoit informed Mr. Thornburg that, at a meeting earlier that day, the CTWS CF&I committee determined to recommend to the full CTWS board of directors that CTWS submit a counterproposal to SJW.

On February 19, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance. During the meeting, the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities provided an update on the recent developments in the potential transaction with SJW and the matters discussed by the CTWS CF&I committee during its February 16 meeting. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell then reviewed and discussed with the members of the CTWS board of directors their fiduciary duties in connection with considering strategic alternatives, including the potential transaction with SJW. The CTWS board of directors then engaged in further discussion regarding the strategic alternatives available to CTWS and determined that a merger of equals transaction on appropriate terms would best position CTWS to continue delivering value to its shareholders and fulfilling its commitment to its customers, employees and communities. After additional discussions, the CTWS board of directors agreed with the recommendations of the CTWS CF&I committee and authorized members of CTWS management to respond to SJW's current proposal with a counterproposal that provided for, among other matters, equal board representation for directors designated by each of SJW and CTWS on the combined company's board of directors and an exchange ratio of 1.150 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock (which, at market close on February 16, 2018, represented a premium of approximately 18.9% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 59.3% and 40.7%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company).

The CTWS board of directors also discussed the meeting invitation that Ms. Wallace received from Eversource and concluded that Ms. Wallace should respond to the executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource to accept the meeting request. Following the board meeting, Ms. Wallace contacted the executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource. During the course of their phone conversation, Ms. Wallace indicated that while she was willing to meet, it was unlikely that the CTWS board would be receptive to pursuing a sale of CTWS, and Ms. Wallace and the executive vice president and general counsel of Eversource determined not to move forward with scheduling a meeting.

On February 20, 2018, Mr. Benoit sent a letter to Mr. Thornburg that reflected the CTWS counterproposal approved by the CTWS board of directors. On the same day, Mr. Benoit and Mr. Thornburg also had a brief phone discussion about CTWS's counterproposal.

On February 21, 2018, the SJW finance committee held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, the members of SJW management provided an update on recent developments in the potential transaction with CTWS and the CTWS counterproposal included in Mr. Benoit's February 20 letter, which contemplated an exchange ratio of 1.150 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock and equal representation on the combined company's board of directors. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then reviewed and discussed with the SJW finance committee the terms of the CTWS counterproposal. The SJW finance committee then engaged in further discussion regarding financial, governance, dividend, regulatory and shareholder support matters, as well as potential counterproposals to CTWS. Following additional discussion, the SJW finance committee recommended that SJW management review with the full SJW board of directors potential alternative exchange ratios that may be appropriate for the potential transaction.

On February 22, 2018, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, the members of SJW management provided an update on the recent developments in the potential transaction with CTWS. Mr. More provided the SJW board of directors with an update of matters discussed by the SJW finance committee during its February 21 meeting. The SJW board of directors engaged in a discussion regarding the February 20 letter received from CTWS. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then reviewed and discussed with the SJW board of directors the financial terms of the CTWS counterproposal and the financial terms of potential counterproposals to CTWS. After additional discussions with representatives of Skadden and J.P. Morgan, the members of the SJW board of directors present at the meeting unanimously determined to authorize Mr. Thornburg to respond to CTWS's current proposal with a counterproposal that, among other matters, provided that the combined company's board of directors be composed of a number of representatives from each of the SJW and CTWS board of directors proportionate to SJW's and CTWS's relative post-merger ownership of the combined company and provided for a revised exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock (which, at market close on February 22, 2018, represented a premium of approximately 22.5% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 59.5% and 40.5%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company).

Later on February 22, 2018, following the meeting of the SJW board of directors, Mr. Thornburg contacted Mr. Benoit and informed him that the SJW board of directors had authorized him to respond to CTWS with a counterproposal of a revised exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock and that the combined company's board of directors be composed of a number of representatives from each of the SJW and CTWS board of directors proportionate to SJW's and CTWS's relative post-merger ownership of the combined company, consistent with the initial proposal.

On February 23, 2018, Mr. Benoit updated the CTWS board of directors regarding the latest terms proposed by SJW. Following a review by the CTWS board of directors of such terms and updated preliminary financial analyses provided by representatives of Wells Fargo Securities, all members of the CTWS board of directors expressed their support and authorization for the members of CTWS management and CTWS's advisors to conduct further due diligence and negotiate a definitive merger agreement on the basis of such terms. Later that day, Mr. Benoit communicated to Mr. Thornburg the decision of the CTWS board of directors to proceed with conducting further due diligence and negotiating a definitive merger agreement on the basis of such terms.

Also on February 23, 2018, SJW and CTWS opened virtual data rooms. Reciprocal due diligence commenced and continued through March 14, 2018 and included review of financial and legal information and due diligence calls with representatives of SJW and CTWS and their respective advisors.

On February 26, 2018, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management in attendance. Messrs. Thornburg and More provided to the SJW board of directors a report regarding the status of communications with CTWS respecting the potential transaction. The SJW board of directors reviewed and discussed such report.

On March 2, 2018, with authorization from members of SJW management, representatives of Skadden sent to representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell a draft SJW voting and support agreement proposed to be entered into by certain stockholders of SJW beneficially owning, in the aggregate, approximately 16% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock.

On March 5, 2018, the CTWS CF&I committee held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Wells Fargo Securities provided the CTWS CF&I committee with an overview of the latest developments in the various due diligence work streams. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell then summarized the key terms of, and the issues raised by, the draft merger agreement proposed by SJW. The CTWS CF&I committee discussed with the members of CTWS management and representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell their proposed responses to the draft merger agreement, including, among other matters, (i) reducing the proposed termination fee to be paid by CTWS in certain circumstances from approximately 3.9% of CTWS equity value to approximately 3.0% of CTWS equity value, (ii) revising the proposed termination fee to be paid by SJW in certain circumstances from approximately 3.9% of CTWS equity value to approximately 3.0% of SJW equity value and (iii) rejecting the reciprocal force the vote provision proposed by SJW that would prohibit CTWS or SJW from terminating the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal and would instead require SJW and CTWS to hold their respective shareholder meetings even if the relevant party has changed its recommendation that its shareholders vote in favor of the merger. Following discussion, the CTWS CF&I committee authorized members of CTWS management and Sullivan & Cromwell to send a revised draft of the merger agreement to SJW and Skadden.

Later on March 5, 2018, representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell sent a revised draft of the merger agreement to representatives of Skadden.

On March 6, 2018, members of SJW management reviewed the draft merger agreement with representatives of Skadden and J.P. Morgan, following which representatives of Skadden discussed certain issues with representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell.

On March 6, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management in attendance. During the meeting, Mr. Richard Forde, chairman of the CTWS CF&I committee, and the members of CTWS management updated the CTWS board of directors on the key terms of, issues raised by and CTWS's response to the draft merger agreement proposed by SJW.

Between March 6, 2018 and March 14, 2018, SJW and CTWS, with assistance from their respective financial advisors and legal counsel, continued to negotiate the commercial and legal terms of the potential transaction and related documentation, including the merger agreement, the confidential disclosure letters to the merger agreement and the SJW voting and support agreements (with the assistance of the stockholders' legal counsel). Among other terms, over the course of the negotiations SJW and CTWS agreed that (i) the termination fee to be paid by CTWS in certain circumstances would be equal to approximately 3.75% of CTWS's equity value, (ii) the termination fee to be paid by SJW in certain circumstances would be equal to approximately 3.75% of SJW's equity value, (iii) each of SJW and CTWS would be required to reimburse the expenses of the other party up to $5 million (a reduction of $2 million from the $7 million proposed by SJW) in the event that such party did not obtain the approvals of its shareholders required in connection with the merger, and (iv) the merger agreement would not include a force the vote provision.

On March 8, 2018, representatives of SJW met with representatives of Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC (S&P) in New York, New York to discuss the potential transaction, a potential share repurchase to be effective following consummation of the potential transaction and the impact of such transaction and share repurchase on SJW's credit rating. Mr. Benoit also participated in the meeting by telephone.

On March 9, 2018, the SJW finance committee held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Skadden reviewed and discussed with the SJW finance committee a summary of negotiations with CTWS regarding the merger agreement, and the members of SJW management provided an update of recent developments in the potential transaction with CTWS and reported to the SJW finance committee on the status of ongoing mutual due diligence with CTWS and meetings with credit ratings agencies in connection with the potential transaction. The SJW finance committee also engaged in discussion regarding a potential share repurchase to be effective following consummation of the potential transaction, ongoing negotiations with certain SJW stockholders to enter into the SJW voting and support agreements in support of the potential transaction, tentative communications rollout plans and change-in-control provisions relating to employment agreements with certain members of CTWS management.

On March 13, 2018, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, Mr. More provided the SJW board of directors with an update of the SJW finance committee's meetings and activities in connection with the potential transaction. Representatives of Skadden reviewed with the SJW board of directors its fiduciary duties in connection with considering the potential transaction with CTWS, the key terms of the merger agreement, including the remaining open points, and the SJW voting and support agreements. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then reviewed with the SJW board of directors J.P. Morgan's financial analysis of the financial terms of the potential transaction. Following discussion with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden, the SJW board of directors provided guidance to management regarding the remaining open points with respect to the potential transaction.

On the morning of March 14, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a regular meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities, Sullivan & Cromwell and Murtha Cullina LLP (Murtha Cullina), outside Connecticut legal counsel to CTWS, in attendance. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed with the CTWS board of directors its fiduciary duties in connection with considering whether to approve the potential transaction with SJW as well as the key terms of the merger agreement, including the remaining open points. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the CTWS board of directors the financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities in connection with its evaluation of the potential transaction, highlighting key valuation methods and financial metrics, as described further in the section entitled The Merger Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC beginning on page 88 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The CTWS board of directors engaged in discussions with and asked questions of the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell. A representative of Murtha Cullina then reviewed with the CTWS board of directors a proposed amendment to the Amended and Restated Bylaws of CTWS to adopt a forum selection clause (the forum selection bylaw amendment) to designate certain courts located in the State of Connecticut as the exclusive forum for certain actions brought against CTWS or any director, officer or shareholder of CTWS. The CTWS board of directors authorized members of CTWS management and representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell to resolve the open points in the transaction documents and decided to reconvene in the afternoon.

Also on the morning of March 14, 2018, the SJW board of directors held a meeting with members of SJW management and representatives of J.P. Morgan and Skadden in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Skadden reviewed with the SJW board of directors its fiduciary duties in connection with considering the potential transaction with CTWS, the key terms of the merger agreement, including the remaining open points, and the SJW voting and support agreements. Representatives of J.P. Morgan reviewed with the SJW board of directors J.P. Morgan's financial analysis of the financial terms of the potential transaction. Representatives of J.P. Morgan then delivered to the SJW board of directors J.P. Morgan's oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 14, 2018, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to SJW, as more fully described below in the section entitled The Merger Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC beginning on page 73 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Following further discussion, the SJW board of directors thereafter unanimously declared advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders and determined to approve each of (i) the merger agreement, (ii) the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to holders of CTWS common stock pursuant to the merger, (iii) the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, (iv) the SJW voting and support agreements and (v) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. The SJW board of directors also unanimously resolved to submit for consideration and approval by the SJW stockholders entitled to vote at a special meeting of the SJW

stockholders, and to recommend that the SJW stockholders approve, the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to holders of CTWS common stock pursuant to the merger and the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Later in the day on March 14, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance. During the meeting, representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell updated the CTWS board of directors regarding the outcome of the points in the transaction documents that had remained open earlier in the day, and reviewed with the CTWS board of directors the resolutions that it would be adopting if it determined to enter into the potential transaction with SJW. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the CTWS board of directors its final financial analysis of the exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement based on the stock prices of SJW and CTWS. At market close on March 14, 2018, the exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock represented a premium of approximately 18% based on the closing share prices of SJW and CTWS and would result in SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders owning approximately 60% and 40%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the combined company. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then delivered to the CTWS board of directors its oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 14, 2018, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares, as more fully described below in the section entitled "The Merger Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor - Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC" beginning on page 88 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Following further discussion, the CTWS board of directors thereafter unanimously determined that (i) the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The CTWS board of directors also unanimously resolved that the merger agreement be submitted for consideration and approval by the CTWS shareholders entitled to vote at a special meeting of the CTWS shareholders and recommended that the CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement at the CTWS special meeting. The CTWS board of directors also authorized, approved and adopted the forum selection bylaw amendment.

On the evening of March 14, 2018, SJW, CTWS and Merger Sub executed the merger agreement, and certain stockholders of SJW beneficially owning, in the aggregate, approximately 16% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock executed the SJW voting and support agreements.

On the morning of March 15, 2018, SJW and CTWS issued a joint press release announcing the potential transaction and the execution of the merger agreement. In the joint press release, SJW also announced that, upon closing of the potential transaction and subject to market conditions and approval of the combined company's board of directors at the time, the combined company is expected to establish a dividend at least equivalent to SJW's announced 2018 annual dividend of $1.12 per share, which represents an immediate dividend increase of approximately 7% for the CTWS shareholders, when adjusted for the agreed exchange ratio, based on the annualized quarterly cash dividend of $0.2975 per share. SJW also announced that, given the incremental debt capacity resulting from the potential transaction, the combined company expects to pursue a share repurchase program of up to $100 million, subject to the closing of the potential transaction, market conditions and approval of the combined company's board of directors at the time.

On April 5, 2018, Mr. Benoit received an unsolicited written proposal from Eversource regarding the acquisition by Eversource of all of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock for $63.50 per share in cash and/or Eversource common stock at the election of CTWS shareholders (the "Eversource proposal"). Mr. Benoit promptly informed the receipt of the Eversource proposal and that the CTWS board of directors planned to review and consider the Eversource proposal in consultation with its legal counsel and financial advisor, all in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

CTWS board of directors, members of CTWS management, Sullivan & Cromwell and Wells Fargo Securities of the receipt of the Eversource proposal. CTWS also promptly notified SJW of the

On April 8, 2018, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities, Sullivan & Cromwell and Murtha Cullina in attendance. During the meeting, the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities provided the CTWS board of directors with an update on recent developments surrounding the receipt by CTWS of the Eversource proposal and the receipt by SJW of the unsolicited proposal from Company X. See Recent Developments on page 23 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell then reviewed and discussed with the members of the CTWS board of directors their fiduciary duties in connection with considering the Eversource proposal, the provisions of the merger agreement setting forth CTWS's obligations with respect to the receipt of an unsolicited written takeover proposal and the process and considerations for the CTWS board of directors to assess whether or not the Eversource proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the CTWS board of directors its preliminary financial analyses regarding the Eversource proposal as compared to the proposed merger with SJW. The representatives of Wells Fargo Securities informed the CTWS board of directors that Wells Fargo Securities had requested and expected to receive updated five-year projected financial plans for SJW reflecting the CPUC's March 22, 2018 decision regarding SJW's authorized cost of capital, and that Wells Fargo Securities planned to update its preliminary financial analyses following receipt of the updated SJW financial plans. The CTWS board of directors then engaged in further discussion regarding the Eversource proposal and the timeline and next steps for evaluating the Eversource proposal. The CTWS board of directors determined that the CF&I committee should meet in the near future to further consider the Eversource proposal once Wells Fargo Securities had updated its financial analyses.

On April 11, 2018, SJW shared its updated five-year projected financial plans with CTWS and Wells Fargo Securities through SJW's virtual data room.

On April 16, 2018, the CF&I committee held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance. During the meeting, the members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities provided the CF&I committee with an update on the most recent developments, including the outcome of the SJW board of directors meeting held on April 13, 2018 with respect to the unsolicited proposal from Company X. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the CF&I committee its preliminary financial analyses regarding the Eversource proposal as compared to the proposed merger with SJW, which analyses had been updated to reflect the latest SJW five-year projected financial plans. The CF&I committee asked questions throughout Wells Fargo Securities' presentation and requested additional financial analyses of the stock consideration component included in the Eversource proposal. The CF&I committee then engaged in further discussion regarding the Eversource proposal with Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell. The CF&I committee determined to meet again in the near future to further discuss the Eversource proposal after receiving the additional financial analysis that the CF&I committee requested from Wells Fargo Securities.

On April 17, 2018, the chairman, chief executive officer and president of Eversource sent a follow up email to Mr. Benoit regarding the Eversource proposal, in which Eversource requested a substantive response to the Eversource proposal by the close of business on Thursday, April 19, 2018. Mr. Benoit responded that CTWS expects to be in a position to respond to the Eversource proposal by the end of the week or early the following week, but emphasized that the timing of a decision remains with the CTWS board of directors, which is carefully considering the Eversource proposal with CTWS management and its advisors.

attendance. During the meeting, the representatives of Wells Fargo Securities reviewed with the CF&I committee its financial analyses regarding the Eversource proposal as compared to the proposed merger with SJW, which analyses had been updated to include the stock consideration component included in the Eversource proposal that was requested by the CF&I committee during the April 16 committee meeting. The CF&I committee asked questions throughout Wells Fargo Securities' presentation and engaged in further discussion regarding the Eversource proposal with representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell. The CF&I committee discussed the reasons that it continues to believe that the proposed merger with SJW, as compared to the transaction contemplated by the Eversource proposal, is in the best interests of CTWS shareholders and has significant long-term benefits for CTWS's customers, employees and communities, which reasons are further described in the section entitled "CTWS's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CTWS Board of Directors." After discussion, the CF&I committee unanimously recommended to the CTWS board of directors that (i) the CTWS board of directors determine that the Eversource proposal does not constitute and is not reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal and (ii) CTWS inform Eversource that CTWS is not permitted to participate in any discussions with, or furnish any information regarding CTWS to, Eversource in connection with the Eversource proposal pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

On April 19, 2018 at 1:30 p.m., Eastern time, the CTWS board of directors held a special telephonic meeting with members of CTWS management and representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance. During the meeting, the representatives of Wells Fargo Securities reviewed with the CTWS board of directors its financial analyses regarding the Eversource proposal as compared to the proposed merger with SJW. The CTWS board of directors asked questions throughout Wells Fargo Securities' presentation and engaged in further discussion regarding the Eversource proposal with representatives of Wells Fargo Securities and Sullivan & Cromwell. The CTWS board of directors discussed the reasons that it continues to believe that the proposed merger with SJW, as compared to the transaction contemplated by the Eversource proposal, is in the best interests of CTWS shareholders and has significant long-term benefits for CTWS's customers, employees and communities, which reasons are further described in the section entitled "CTWS's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the CTWS Board of Directors." After further discussion in executive session with the non-employee directors and Sullivan & Cromwell in attendance, the non-employee directors of the CTWS board of directors unanimously accepted the CF&I committee's recommendation and (i) determined that the Eversource proposal does not constitute and is not reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, (ii) authorized Mr. Benoit and CTWS's advisors to inform Eversource that CTWS is not permitted to participate in any discussions with, or furnish any information regarding CTWS to, Eversource in connection with the Eversource proposal pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and (iii) reaffirmed its recommendation that the CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement and such other matters that are submitted for their approval in connection with the merger agreement at the special meeting.

On April 19, 2018 at approximately 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, Eversource issued a press release to disclose the Eversource proposal.

On April 19, 2018 at approximately 6:00 p.m., Eastern time, Mr. Benoit telephoned the chairman, chief executive officer and president of Eversource to inform him that the CTWS board of directors had unanimously determined that the Eversource proposal does not constitute and is not reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal. Mr. Benoit noted that, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, CTWS is not permitted to participate in any discussions with, or furnish any information regarding CTWS to, Eversource in connection with the Eversource proposal.

On April 19, 2018 at approximately 6:15 p.m., Eastern time, CTWS issued a press release reaffirming the CTWS board of directors' intention to recommend that all CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement. The press release also confirmed receipt of the Eversource proposal and disclosed that the CTWS board of directors had unanimously determined that the Eversource proposal is not a superior proposal and is not reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal.

On April 19, 2018 at approximately 10:30 p.m., Eastern time, SJW issued a press release reaffirming its commitment to the existing merger agreement with CTWS and reiterating that the SJW board of directors continues to believe that the proposed merger of equals provides the shareholders of both CTWS and SJW with the best opportunity for value creation over the long term.

SJW's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the SJW Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, the SJW board of directors consulted with SJW's management, as well as with SJW's legal and financial advisors, and also considered a number of factors that the SJW board of directors viewed as supporting its decisions, including, but not limited to, the following:

the combination of SJW's portfolio of regulated utilities in California and Texas with CTWS's portfolio of regulated utilities in Connecticut and Maine is expected to create the third largest investor-owned water and wastewater utility in the U.S., based on pro forma enterprise value (such pro forma enterprise value being based on SJW enterprise value at market close on March 14, 2018 and CTWS enterprise value at the exchange ratio) and combined rate base;

the SJW and CTWS combination should result in the combined company's earnings being derived from more diversified operations both from a geographic and regulatory perspective;

SJW expects the combined company to have an increased market capitalization, an improved and diversified investor base, enhanced access to capital, improved cash flow stability, increased investment opportunities and a strengthened balance sheet with total assets of approximately $2.4 billion, providing incremental benefits to stockholders;

SJW expects that the combined company will be able to achieve meaningful earnings growth based on the five-year projected financial plans prepared by SJW management for SJW as a standalone company, the five-year projected financial plans prepared by CTWS management for CTWS as a standalone company, and the pro forma financial projections for the combined company, in each case as summarized under "Unaudited Financial Forecasts" beginning on page 95 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

SJW expects the combined company to maintain a strong "A" credit profile, which in conjunction with the incremental debt capacity resulting from the merger, will enable the combined company to pursue a share repurchase program of up to $100 million;

the transaction is expected to result in mid-to-high single-digit accretion on an earnings per share basis to both companies by the second full year;

the financial terms of the merger, including the tax-free nature of the all-stock transaction, the value of the merger consideration based on the fixed exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for each share of CTWS common stock, and the fact that legacy stockholders of SJW will own approximately 60% of the common stock of the combined company upon completion of the merger;

its knowledge of SJW's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, as well as its assessment, of CTWS's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of SJW's due diligence review of CTWS;

the belief that combination of the companies' management teams, both with successful and proven operational track records, should provide benefits from a broader set of skills in the combined company's workforce, and benefits to be obtained in the standardization of key processes by leveraging existing best practices at SJW and CTWS;

the belief that the corporate cultures and goals of SJW and CTWS are compatible, in that both companies are committed to reliability, customer satisfaction, safety and diligent stewardship of economic, human and environmental resources;

the belief that the combined company will be able to better serve the customers and communities in which it will operate through sharing of best practices, operational expertise and more extensive resources within the combined company and continued local support;

the belief that there should be more opportunities for career development and geographic mobility for all employees of the combined company, which should be a larger, more competitive company, and anticipation of no significant changes in employee compensation or benefits packages;

the belief that the combined company can cost-effectively implement updated customer service tools across CTWS's Connecticut and Maine utility operations;

the commitment by SJW to cause the combined company to maintain SJW's and CTWS's historic levels of charitable contributions and community support, including continued focus on supporting economic development with investments in growth, safety and reliability;

the transaction is expected to offer greater flexibility to grow the business through investments across a national footprint and to compete more effectively in a fragmented industry;

the belief that the combined company will be able to continue and further SJW's historic practice of paying stable and growing quarterly dividends;

the general terms of the merger agreement, including the representations, warranties, obligations and rights of the parties under the merger agreement, the conditions to each party's obligations to complete the merger, and the circumstances under which each party is permitted to terminate the merger agreement, as described in more detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 120 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

SJW would be entitled to a break-up fee or reimbursement of certain of its expenses under certain circumstances if the transaction is not consummated;

the fact that SJW is not required to take any action that would result in a Regulatory Material Adverse Effect in order to obtain the regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger;

the corporate governance terms of the merger agreement, including that, upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will include seven directors from the SJW board of directors and five directors from the CTWS board of directors, the chairman, chief executive officer and president of the combined company will be Mr. Thornburg, the lead independent director will be selected by CTWS, and the key leadership positions of the combined company will be filled by current executives of each of CTWS and SJW, which are specified with respect to CTWS in an exhibit to the merger agreement, as described in the terms of the merger agreement permitting the SJW board of directors to fulfill its fiduciary duties with respect to a bona fide proposal to acquire SJW, including the ability to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances in order to accept a superior proposal, subject to certain terms and conditions, including the payment of a termination fee, as described in more detail in the sections entitled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals The Merger Agreement Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach beginning on pages 127 and 138, respectively, of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that SJW stockholders will have an opportunity to vote on approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment;

the fact that SJW and certain of its stockholders beneficially owning, in the aggregate, approximately 16% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock entered into agreements pursuant to which, subject to certain conditions, such SJW stockholders have agreed to vote shares controlled by them in favor of the matters to be submitted to SJW stockholders at the SJW special meeting, as described in more detail in the section entitled "SJW Voting and Support Agreements" beginning on page 117 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the belief that all required regulatory approvals are capable of being obtained, as described in more detail in the section entitled "Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger" beginning on page 115 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and the opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, dated March 14, 2018, addressed to the SJW board of directors to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to SJW, as described in more detail in the section entitled "Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 73 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The SJW board of directors weighed the foregoing against a number of risks and potentially negative factors, including:

the risks inherent to CTWS's business and operations;

the fixed exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for each share of CTWS common stock, which will not change even if the value of CTWS's businesses decline relative to the value of SJW's businesses prior to completion of the merger;

the restrictions on the conduct of SJW's business during the period between execution of the merger agreement and the consummation of the merger;

the potential effect of the merger on SJW's overall business, including its relationships with customers, employees, suppliers and regulators;

the challenges inherent in combining the businesses, operations and workforces of two businesses of the size, geographic diversity and complexity of SJW and CTWS, including the potential for (i) unforeseen difficulties in integrating operations and systems, (ii) the possible distraction of management's attention for an extended period of time and (iii) difficulties in assimilating employees;

the risk that the transaction and subsequent integration of the two businesses may preclude other business development opportunities;

the risk of losing key CTWS or SJW employees during the pendency of the merger and thereafter;

the substantial costs to be incurred in connection with the merger, including the costs of integrating the businesses of SJW and CTWS and the refinancing costs, transaction fees, expenses and other payments that will or may arise from the merger;

the risk that governmental entities may oppose or refuse to approve the merger or impose undesirable conditions on SJW and/or CTWS prior to approving the merger that may adversely impact the combined company;

the potential of negative regulatory outcomes in Connecticut, Maine, California and Texas following the merger;

the risk that the merger may not be completed despite the combined efforts of SJW and CTWS or that completion may be unduly delayed, even if the requisite approval is obtained from SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders;

the fact that SJW is obligated to pay CTWS a termination fee of $42.5 million in certain circumstances as described in more detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that SJW is obligated to reimburse CTWS for certain fees and expenses up to $5 million under certain circumstances as described in more detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the risk that the terms of the merger agreement, including provisions relating to the payment of a termination fee under specified circumstances, may have the effect of discouraging other parties that would otherwise be interested in a transaction with SJW from proposing such a transaction;

the fact that certain executive officers and directors of SJW may have interests with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of SJW, as described in more detail in the sections entitled "Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 100 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and the risks of the type and nature described under the heading "Risk Factors," and the matters described under the heading "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the SJW board of directors did not find it useful and did not attempt to assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination to approve the merger and the merger agreement and to recommend that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. In addition, although the SJW board of directors did not find it useful and did not attempt to assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors, individual members of the SJW board of directors may have assigned different weights to different factors.

The SJW board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of SJW and its stockholders. The SJW board of directors unanimously recommends that SJW stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, FOR the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and FOR the proposal to approve any motion to adjourn the SJW special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment.

Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor - Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated October 27, 2016, as amended by an extension letter dated October 20, 2017, SJW retained J.P. Morgan as its financial advisor in connection with a review of potential strategic alternatives, including a potential transaction with CTWS.

At the meeting of the SJW board of directors on March 14, 2018, J.P. Morgan rendered its oral opinion to the SJW board of directors that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to SJW. J.P. Morgan has confirmed its oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the SJW board of directors, dated March 14, 2018, that, as of such date, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to SJW.

The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan dated as of March 14, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken, is attached as

Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. SJW stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion was addressed to the SJW board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed merger, was directed only to the exchange ratio in the merger and did not address any other aspect of the merger. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the exchange ratio to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of SJW or CTWS or as to SJW's or CTWS's underlying decision to engage in the proposed merger. The issuance of J.P. Morgan's opinion was approved by a fairness committee of J.P. Morgan. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of SJW or CTWS as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter.

In arriving at its opinions, J.P. Morgan, among other things:

reviewed a draft dated March 13, 2018 of the merger agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning SJW and CTWS and the industries in which they operate;

compared the financial and operating performance of SJW and CTWS with publicly available information concerning certain other companies J.P. Morgan deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the SJW common stock and the CTWS common stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by or at the direction of the managements of SJW and CTWS relating to their respective businesses, as well as the estimated amount and timing of the financial benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction; and performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as J.P. Morgan deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

In addition, J.P. Morgan held discussions with certain members of the management of SJW and CTWS with respect to certain aspects of the merger, and the past and current business operations of SJW and CTWS, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of SJW and CTWS, the effects of the merger on the financial condition and future prospects of SJW and CTWS, and certain other matters J.P. Morgan believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

In giving its opinion, J.P. Morgan relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with J.P. Morgan by SJW and CTWS or otherwise reviewed by or for J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan did not independently verify (and did not assume responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. J.P. Morgan did not conduct or was not provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor did J.P. Morgan evaluate the solvency of SJW or CTWS under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to J.P. Morgan or derived therefrom (including the financial benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction), J.P. Morgan assumed that they were reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of SJW and CTWS to which such analyses or forecasts relate. J.P. Morgan expressed no view as to such analyses or forecasts (including the financial benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction) or the assumptions on which they were based. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, that the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated as described in the merger agreement and this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and that the definitive merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft thereof furnished to J.P. Morgan. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the representations and warranties made by SJW and CTWS in the merger agreement and the related agreements were and will be true and correct in all respects material to its analysis. J.P. Morgan is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and relied on the assessments made by advisors to SJW with respect to such issues. J.P. Morgan further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on SJW or CTWS or on the contemplated benefits of the merger.

J.P. Morgan's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to J.P. Morgan as of, the date of such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion noted that subsequent developments may affect J.P. Morgan's opinion, and that J.P. Morgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to SJW of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger. Furthermore, J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the proposed merger, or any class of such persons relative to the exchange ratio in the proposed merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the price at which the SJW common stock or the CTWS common stock will trade at any future time.

The terms of the merger agreement, including the exchange ratio, were determined through arm's length negotiations between SJW and CTWS, and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the SJW board of directors and the CTWS board of directors. J.P. Morgan's opinion and financial analyses were only one of the many factors considered by the SJW board of directors in its evaluation of the proposed merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the SJW board of directors or management with respect to the proposed merger or the exchange ratio.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, J.P. Morgan employed generally accepted valuation methodology in rendering its opinion to the SJW board of directors on March 14, 2018 and contained in the presentation delivered to the SJW board of directors on such date in connection with the rendering of such opinion and this summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and in order to more fully understand the financial analyses used by J.P. Morgan, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of J.P. Morgan's analyses.

Analysis of CTWS

Public Trading Multiples Analysis

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan compared selected financial data of CTWS with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which J.P. Morgan judged to be sufficiently analogous to CTWS. The companies selected by J.P. Morgan were as follows:

American Water Works Company, Inc.

Aqua America, Inc.

California Water Service Group

SJW

These companies were selected, among other reasons, because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar in certain respects to those of CTWS based on business sector participation, financial metrics and form of operations. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies differently than would affect CTWS.

For each company listed above, J.P. Morgan calculated and compared the multiple of market price per share of its common equity based on research analysts' consensus estimates for earnings per share (EPS) for the calendar years 2018 (2018E P/E Multiple) and 2019 (2019E P/E Multiple) based on FactSet market prices, Institutional Brokers Estimate System consensus estimates, equity analyst research reports and other publicly available information as of March 9, 2018. In addition, with respect to CTWS, J.P. Morgan also calculated and compared the 2018E P/E Multiple and 2019E P/E Multiple based on the CTWS projections (as defined under Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC).

American Water Works Company, Inc.	24.9x	23.1x
Aqua America, Inc.	24.0x	22.8x

CTWS (consensus)	22.0x	21.0x
CTWS (management)	22.0x	21.3x

Based on the results of this analysis and J.P. Morgan's professional judgment, J.P. Morgan selected a multiple reference range of 21.5x – 31.0x for P/E for calendar year 2018 and a multiple reference range of 20.5x – 29.5x for P/E for calendar year 2019.

After applying such ranges to the respective estimated 2018 EPS and estimated 2019 EPS for CTWS based on the CTWS projections, the analysis indicated the following ranges of implied equity value per share for the CTWS common stock (rounded to the nearest $0.25):

Public Trading Multiples Analysis	2018E	2019E
	$ 50.00 – $72.25	$ 49.25 – $71.00

The ranges of implied equity value per share for CTWS were compared to (1) the closing price per share of CTWS common stock of $51.18 on March 9, 2018 and (2) the implied offer price of $61.36 per share based on the exchange ratio of 1.1375 per share and the closing price per share of SJW common stock of $53.94 on March 9, 2018.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

J.P. Morgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining an implied fully diluted equity value per share for the CTWS common stock. A discounted cash flow analysis is a method of evaluating an asset using estimates of the future unlevered free cash flows generated by the asset, and taking into consideration the time value of money with respect to those future cash flows by calculating their present value. The unlevered free cash flows refers to a calculation of the future cash flows generated by an asset without including in such calculation any debt servicing costs. Present value refers to the current value of the future cash flows generated by the asset, and is obtained by discounting those cash flows back to the present using a discount rate that takes into account macro-economic assumptions and estimates of risk, the cost of capital and other appropriate factors. Terminal value refers to the present value of all future cash flows generated by the asset for periods beyond the projections period.

J.P. Morgan calculated the present value of unlevered free cash flows for CTWS (1) for the calendar years 2018 through 2022 using unlevered free cash flows that were based upon the CTWS projections and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW for use by J.P. Morgan in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion and (2) for the calendar years 2023 through 2027 using unlevered free cash flows that were derived from a rate base model and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW for use by J.P. Morgan in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion. J.P. Morgan also calculated a range of terminal values for CTWS at December 31, 2027 by applying a terminal growth rate ranging from 1.25% to 1.75% to the unlevered free cash flows of CTWS for calendar year 2027, which were adjusted by the management of SJW for valuation purposes. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 5.25% to 5.75%. The present values were then adjusted for CTWS's 2017 fiscal year end total debt and cash to derive implied equity values for CTWS. The discount rate range was based upon J.P. Morgan's analysis of the weighted average cost of capital for CTWS determined by applying the Capital Asset Pricing Model and based on considerations J.P. Morgan deemed relevant in its professional judgment and experience, including target capital structures, yields for U.S. Treasury notes, levered and unlevered betas for CTWS and the selected publicly traded companies identified above, market risk premium and tax rates.

This analysis indicated the following range of implied equity value per share for the CTWS common stock, rounded to the nearest $0.25.

CTWS Implied Equity Value Per Share

$46.25	$70.00

The range of implied equity values per share for the CTWS common stock was compared to (1) the closing price per share of CTWS common stock of $51.18 on March 9, 2018 and (2) the implied value of the merger consideration of $61.36 per share based on the exchange ratio of 1.1375 per share and the closing price per share of SJW common stock of $53.94 on March 9, 2018.

*Other InformationHistorical Trading Range

For reference only and not as a component of its fairness analysis, J.P. Morgan reviewed the trading range for the CTWS common stock for the 52-week period ending March 9, 2018, which was $48.86 per share to $65.04 per share, and compared that to (1) the closing price per share of CTWS common stock of $51.18 on March 9, 2018 and (2) the implied value of the merger consideration of $61.36 per share based on the exchange ratio of 1.1375 per share and the closing price per share of SJW common stock of $53.94 on March 9, 2018.

Analyst Price Targets

For reference only and not as a component of its fairness analysis, J.P. Morgan also reviewed certain publicly available equity research analyst share price targets for the CTWS common stock and noted that the range of such price targets was $53.00 per share to $64.00 per share, and compared that to (1) the closing price per share of CTWS common stock of $51.18 on March 9, 2018 and (2) the implied value of the merger consideration of $61.36 per share based on the exchange ratio of 1.1375 per share and the closing price per share of SJW common stock of $53.94 on March 9, 2018.

Analysis of SJW

Public Trading Multiples Analysis

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan compared selected financial data of SJW with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which J.P. Morgan judged to be sufficiently analogous to SJW. The companies selected by J.P. Morgan were as follows:

American Water Works Company, Inc.

Aqua America, Inc.

California Water Service Group

CTWS

These companies were selected, among other reasons, because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar in certain respects to those of SJW based on business sector participation, financial metrics and form of operations. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies differently than would affect SJW.

For each company listed above, J.P. Morgan calculated and compared the 2018E P/E Multiple and 2019E P/E Multiple based on FactSet market prices, Institutional Brokers' Estimate System consensus estimates, equity analyst research reports and other publicly available information as of March 9, 2018. In addition, with respect to SJW, J.P. Morgan also calculated and compared the 2018E P/E Multiple and 2019E P/E Multiple based on the SJW projections (as defined below under the section entitled "Miscellaneous Financial Forecasts Regarding SJW and CTWS").

	2018E P/E Multiple	2019E P/E Multiple
American Water Works Company, Inc.	24.9x	23.1x
Aqua America, Inc.	24.0x	22.8x
California Water Service Group	26.6x	24.9x
American States Water Company	28.9x	27.4x
CTWS	22.0x	21.0x
Middlesex Water Company	21.4x	20.6x
The York Water Company	31.0x	29.5x
Artesian Resources Corporation	22.3x	21.7x

SJW (consensus)	21.4x	19.8x
SJW (management)	26.7x	24.7x

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

J.P. Morgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining an implied fully diluted equity value per share for the SJW common stock.

J.P. Morgan calculated the present value of unlevered free cash flows for SJW (i) for the calendar years 2018 through 2022 using unlevered free cash flows that were based upon the SJW projections and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW for use by J.P. Morgan in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion and (ii) for the calendar years 2023 through 2027 using unlevered free cash flows that were derived from a rate base model and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW in connection with J.P. Morgan's financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion. J.P. Morgan also calculated a range of terminal values for SJW at December 31, 2027 by applying a terminal growth rate ranging from 1.25% to 1.75% to the unlevered free cash flows of SJW for calendar year 2027, which were adjusted by the management of SJW for valuation purposes. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 5.25% to 5.75%. The present values were then adjusted for SJW's 2017 fiscal year end total debt and cash to derive implied equity values for SJW. The discount rate range was based upon J.P. Morgan's analysis of the weighted average cost of capital for SJW determined by applying the Capital Asset Pricing Model and based on considerations J.P. Morgan deemed relevant in its professional judgment and experience, including target capital structures, yields for U.S. Treasury notes, levered and unlevered betas for SJW and the selected publicly traded companies identified above, market risk premium and tax rates.

This analysis indicated the following range of implied equity value per share for the SJW common stock, rounded to the nearest $0.25.

SJW Implied Equity Value Per Share

For reference only and not as a component of its fairness analysis, J.P. Morgan also reviewed certain publicly available equity research analyst share price targets for the SJW common stock and noted that such price target was $63.00 per share, and compared that to the closing price per share of SJW common stock of $53.94 on March 9, 2018.

Relative Value Analysis

Range of Implied Exchange Ratios
Public Trading Multiples Analysis
2018E	0.800x	1.661x
Discounted Cash Flow Analysis	0.746x	1.718x

The implied exchange ratios for CTWS and SJW were compared to (1) the exchange ratio of .9488 of a share of SJW common stock for a share of CTWS common stock, based on the respective closing prices per share on March 9, 2018 and (2) the proposed exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for a share of CTWS common stock in the merger.

Miscellaneous

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. J.P. Morgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above were merely utilized to create points of reference for analytical purposes and should not be taken to be the view of J.P. Morgan with respect to the actual value of SJW or CTWS. The order of analyses described does not represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by J.P. Morgan. In arriving at its opinion, J.P. Morgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, J.P. Morgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion.

Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by J.P. Morgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, J.P. Morgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be acquired or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to SJW or CTWS. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of SJW and CTWS. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to SJW and CTWS.

As a part of its investment banking business, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for corporate and other purposes. J.P. Morgan was selected to advise SJW with respect to the merger on the basis of, among other things, such experience and its qualifications and reputation in connection with such matters and its familiarity with SJW, CTWS and the industries in which they operate.

For services rendered in connection with the merger (including the delivery of its opinion), SJW agreed to pay J.P. Morgan certain fees, which are payable in installments as follows: (i) $1.5 million, upon the delivery of a fairness opinion by J.P. Morgan, (ii) a fee equal to $2.5 million upon receipt of the approval by the stockholders of SJW of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock in the merger and the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment and (iii) a fee equal to $3.5 million upon the consummation of the merger. Also, at its sole discretion, SJW may pay J.P. Morgan a discretionary fee of $2.5 million based on its evaluation of J.P. Morgan's performance under the engagement letter, upon the consummation of the merger. In addition, SJW has agreed to reimburse J.P. Morgan for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify J.P. Morgan against certain liabilities arising out of J.P. Morgan's engagement.

During the two years preceding the date of J.P. Morgan's opinion, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates have not had any other material financial advisory or other material commercial or investment banking relationships with SJW or CTWS. In the ordinary course of their businesses, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of SJW or CTWS for their own accounts or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, they may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities or other financial instruments.

Financial Forecasts Regarding SJW and CTWS

The management forecasts furnished to J.P. Morgan by SJW regarding SJW for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022 were prepared by the management of SJW (the "SJW projections") and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW for use by J.P. Morgan in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion (see the section entitled "Unaudited Financial Forecasts - Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the SJW Board of Directors and SJW's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 97 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for more information). The management forecasts furnished to J.P. Morgan by SJW regarding CTWS were prepared by the management of CTWS and were reviewed and approved by the management of SJW for use by J.P. Morgan in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its fairness opinion (see the section entitled "Unaudited Financial Forecasts - Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the CTWS Board of Directors and CTWS's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 97 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for more information). Neither SJW nor CTWS publicly discloses long-term projections as to future revenues, earnings or other results of the type provided to J.P. Morgan in connection with J.P. Morgan's analysis of the merger, and such forecasts were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or soliciting proxies. These forecasts were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of SJW and CTWS, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. As a result, actual results may differ materially from those contained in the financial projections. For more information regarding the use of forecasts, please refer to the sections entitled "Unaudited Financial Forecasts - Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the SJW Board of Directors and SJW's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 97 in this joint proxy

The CTWS board of directors and CF&I committee held multiple meetings after receiving SJW's proposal on December 8, 2017 during which SJW's proposal and other strategic alternatives available to CTWS were evaluated and considered. CTWS's outside legal counsel, Sullivan & Cromwell, and financial advisor, Wells Fargo Securities, participated in portions of many of such meetings. At certain of these meetings, the CTWS board of directors met in executive session without management or any advisors present.

After careful consideration, at a meeting held on March 14, 2018, the CTWS board of directors unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders, (ii) declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (iii) approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The CTWS board of directors also unanimously recommended that CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement at the CTWS special meeting.

In the course of evaluating the merger and reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend that its shareholders approve the merger agreement, the CTWS board of directors consulted with CTWS management and legal and financial advisors and considered a number of factors, both positive and negative, and a substantial amount of information.

The CTWS board of directors considered the following principal factors that weighed positively in favor of its decision to approve and recommend the merger:

Economic Terms of the Transaction

the value to be received by CTWS shareholders in the merger, including the fact that the per share value implied by the exchange ratio represented a premium over the trading price of CTWS common stock of approximately 18% on March 14, 2018;

the material improvement in the exchange ratio, premium offered by SJW and resulting pro forma ownership stake in the combined company for CTWS shareholders as compared to the exchange ratio in SJW's initial December 8, 2017 proposal of 1.0 share of SJW common stock per share of CTWS common stock, which had represented a premium over the trading price of CTWS common stock of approximately 11.2%;

CTWS shareholders will own approximately 40% of the combined company immediately following completion of the merger and with the opportunity to continue to participate in the future earnings and expected growth of the combined company and any future appreciation in the equity value of the combined company's common stock;

the oral opinion of Wells Fargo Securities delivered to the CTWS board of directors, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated March 14, 2018, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares, as more fully described below under the section entitled "Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor - Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC" beginning on page 88 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The full text of the written opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, dated March 14, 2018, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that the merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, with the result that a U.S. holder of CTWS common stock generally would not recognize any gain or loss upon receipt of SJW common stock in exchange for CTWS common stock in the merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of SJW common stock;

Financial Characteristics of the Combined Company

the merger is expected to result in mid-to-high single-digit accretion to CTWS shareholders on an earnings per share basis on average in the first few years following the completion of the merger;

upon completion of the merger and subject to market conditions and board approval at the time, the combined company is expected to establish a dividend at least equivalent to SJW's announced 2018 annual dividend of $1.12 per share, which represents an immediate dividend increase of approximately 7% for CTWS shareholders, when adjusted for the exchange ratio, based on an annualized quarterly cash dividend of $0.2975 per share of CTWS common stock;

the combined company is expected to have total assets of approximately $2.4 billion and benefit from a robust balance sheet, improved cash flow stability and diversity and enhanced financial flexibility, which is expected to result in increased capital markets access yielding a lower cost of capital and a strong credit profile, better enabling the combined company to compete for attractive growth opportunities on a national level;

the merger will result in the combined company's earnings being derived from more diversified operations from both a geographic and regulatory perspective;

the belief that the combined company will be able to achieve meaningful earnings growth based on the five-year projected financial plans prepared by CTWS management for CTWS as a standalone company, the five-year projected financial plans prepared by SJW management for SJW as a standalone company, and the pro forma financial projections for the combined company, in each case as summarized under "Unaudited Financial Forecasts" beginning on page 95 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the merger preserves optionality for CTWS and SJW to sell the combined company at a later date from a stronger position, if and when the board of directors of the combined company determines that it is in the best interests of the combined company and its stockholders to do so;

the CTWS board of directors' knowledge of CTWS's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, as well as SJW's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, taking into account the results of CTWS's due diligence review of SJW;

Operational Considerations for CTWS

the combination of CTWS's portfolio of regulated utilities in Connecticut and Maine and SJW's portfolio of regulated utilities in California and Texas is expected to create the third largest investor-owned water and wastewater utility in the United States, based on pro forma enterprise value (such pro forma enterprise value being based on the closing share prices of CTWS and SJW at market close on March 14, 2018 and the exchange ratio) and combined rate base;

the combined company will have an increased market capitalization, an expanded market presence, a diversified investor base, increased scale and a greater geographic footprint, providing opportunities for the combined company to grow the business, compete more effectively in its industry and make investments in service and reliability that can enhance value for shareholders, customers and communities;

the expected benefits to CTWS shareholders from gaining access to attractive and high growth water utility markets in California and Texas;

customer and shareholder benefits are expected to be achieved through the reduction of public company costs, enhanced information technology services systems and procurement benefits, including the fact that the combined company is expected to be able to cost effectively implement updated customer service tools across Connecticut and Maine utility operations by leveraging the more sophisticated information services and technology systems that have been established at SJW;

the commitment of the combined company to maintain CTWS's and SJW's historic levels of charitable contributions and strong community ties, including participating in community events and organizations, with continued focus on supporting economic development with investments in growth, safety and reliability;

the belief that the combined company will benefit from the broader set of skills and proven operational track records of CTWS's and SJW's respective leadership teams and employees;

the fact that the CTWS board of directors had considered certain alternatives to the merger, including continuing to operate as an independent public company, including making strategic acquisitions, pursuing business combination transactions with a strategic partner or a whole-company sale of CTWS;

the challenges that the CTWS board of directors believes CTWS would face in the future as an independent public water utility company of its size based on its knowledge of economic and industry conditions;

Governance Terms of the Transaction

the structure of the transaction as a merger of equals, including the following governance provisions more fully described under the section entitled "Governance Matters After the Merger" beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus:

the combined company's headquarters will be located in San Jose, California, with the New England headquarters located in Clinton, Connecticut;

the combined company's board of directors will have five directors designated by CTWS and seven directors designated by SJW;

the lead independent director of the combined company's board of directors will be a CTWS designee;

the directors designated by CTWS will have the exclusive authority of the combined company's board of directors to nominate directors for election to fill the board seats designated to the CTWS continuing directors in connection with each stockholders meeting to elect directors through December 31, 2020;

the directors designated by CTWS will have the exclusive authority of the combined company's board of directors to fill vacancies in the board seats designated to the CTWS continuing directors until the termination of the term of office that commences following the annual meeting to elect directors during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020;

Mr. Benoit will serve as the president of the New England Region, overseeing Combined SJW's New England operations, and The Connecticut Water Company, through December 31, 2020;

the aforementioned governance rights related to the combined company's board of directors and Mr. Benoit's position in the combined company can only be amended by a supermajority vote of 75% of the combined company's board of directors;

Mr. Thornburg, the former chief executive officer of CTWS whom CTWS views favorably, will serve as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of the combined company; and additional officers of CTWS will serve in significant roles at the combined company;

the belief that the proposed leadership team of the combined company, and the corporate cultures and goals of CTWS and SJW, are closely aligned in their commitment to serving customers, communities, employees, shareholders and the environment;

CTWS employees will have additional opportunities for career development and geographic mobility following the completion of the merger as part of a larger and more diverse organization, and SJW does not anticipate any significant changes in employee compensation or benefits packages as a result of the transaction;

Other Transaction Terms

the general terms of the merger agreement, including the representations, warranties, obligations and rights of the parties under the merger agreement, the conditions to each party's obligations to complete the merger, and the circumstances under which each party is permitted to terminate the merger agreement, as described in more detail under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 120 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the belief that all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger are capable of being obtained on the terms set forth in the merger agreement, as described in more detail under the section entitled "Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger" beginning on page 115 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that CTWS is not required to take any action that would result in a "Regulatory Material Adverse Effect," as defined in the merger agreement, in order to obtain the regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger;

the fact that CTWS shareholders will have an opportunity to vote on the approval of the merger agreement;

the fact that SJW is obligated to pay CTWS a termination fee of $42.5 million in certain circumstances as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that SJW is obligated to reimburse CTWS for certain fees and expenses up to $5 million if SJW fails to obtain the approvals of its stockholders required in connection with the merger as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that, in certain circumstances, the CTWS board of directors has the right under the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions (including certain rights of SJW to match a superior proposal and payment by CTWS of a termination fee), to terminate the merger agreement or withdraw its recommendation to CTWS shareholders that they adopt the merger agreement as summarized under the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Changes in Board Recommendations and The Merger Agreement Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach beginning on pages 128 and 138, respectively, of this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and

the fact that SJW and certain of its stockholders beneficially owning, in the aggregate, approximately 16% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock entered into agreements pursuant to which, subject to certain conditions, such SJW stockholders have agreed to vote shares controlled by them in favor of the matters to be submitted for approval of SJW stockholders at the SJW special meeting, as described in more detail under the section entitled SJW Voting and Support Agreements beginning on page 117 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The CTWS board of directors also weighed the factors described above against a number of risks and other factors identified in its deliberations as weighing negatively against the merger, including:

the exchange ratio of 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock per outstanding share of CTWS common stock is fixed and will not adjust upwards to compensate for declines, or downwards to compensate for increases, in SJW's stock price prior to completion of the merger, which could impact the value of the SJW common stock that CTWS shareholders will receive in the merger;

the fact that the designees from the CTWS board of directors will represent less than half of the members of the combined company's board of directors;

the risks inherent to SJW's business and operations;

the challenges inherent in combining the businesses, operations and workforces of CTWS and SJW based on their size, geographic diversity and complexity, including: (i) the possible diversion of management focus and resources from operational matters and other strategic opportunities for an extended period of time and (ii) unforeseen difficulties in integrating and retaining management and employees;

the fact that forecasts of future results of operations are necessarily estimates based on assumptions, and the risk that the anticipated benefits of the merger might not be realized;

the substantial costs to be incurred in connection with the merger, including the transaction expenses arising from the merger and any costs of integrating the businesses and operations of CTWS and SJW;

the potential effect of the announcement and pendency of the merger, or the failure to complete the merger, on CTWS's business and its relationships with shareholders, customers, employees, regulators and the communities it serves;

the risk of losing key CTWS or SJW employees during the pendency of the merger and following consummation of the merger;

the risk that governmental entities may not approve the merger or may impose conditions on CTWS or SJW in order to gain approval for the merger that adversely impact the combined company or its ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger;

the possibility that the merger might not be completed, or that completion might be unduly delayed, for reasons beyond CTWS's or SJW's control, whether or not the requisite approvals are obtained from CTWS shareholders and SJW stockholders;

the potential for negative regulatory outcomes for the combined company in Connecticut, Maine, California and/or Texas following the merger;

the covenants in the merger agreement placing restrictions on the conduct of CTWS's business during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger, which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent CTWS from undertaking capital expenditures and business opportunities it would otherwise undertake absent the pending merger as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conduct of Business Pending the Effective Time" beginning on page 124 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the risk that the terms of the merger agreement, including certain reciprocal provisions relating to the payment of termination fees under certain circumstances, may have the effect of discouraging alternative acquisition proposals from parties that would otherwise be interested in a transaction with CTWS;

the fact that, in certain circumstances, the SJW board of directors has the right under the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions (including certain rights of CTWS to match a superior proposal and payment by SJW of a termination fee), to terminate the merger agreement or withdraw its recommendation to SJW stockholders that they approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and adopt the amendment to SJW's certificate of incorporation as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Changes in Board Recommendations" beginning on page 128 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that CTWS is obligated to pay SJW a termination fee of $28.1 million in certain circumstances as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement – Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the fact that CTWS is obligated to reimburse SJW for certain fees and expenses up to $5 million if CTWS fails to obtain the approval by its shareholders of the merger agreement as summarized under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement – Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach" beginning on page 138 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the absence of appraisal rights for CTWS shareholders; and the risks of the type and nature described under the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The CTWS board of directors was also apprised of certain interests in the merger of CTWS's directors and executive officers that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of CTWS shareholders generally as discussed in "Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

After careful consideration of the Eversource proposal as compared to the proposed merger with SJW, at a meeting held on April 19, 2018, the non-employee directors of the CTWS board of directors unanimously reaffirmed its recommendation that CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement at the CTWS special meeting. In the course of reaching its decision to reaffirm its recommendation, the CTWS board of directors consulted with CTWS management and legal and financial advisors and considered a number of factors and a substantial amount of information.

The reasons that the CTWS board of directors continues to believe that the proposed merger with SJW is in the best interests of CTWS shareholders and has significant long-term benefits for CTWS's customers, employees and communities, include, among other things, that:

the 1.1375 exchange ratio and stock consideration provide CTWS shareholders with a significant premium based on CTWS's unaffected stock price on March 14, 2018 with the opportunity for continued substantial value creation;

the proposed merger is expected to be immediately accretive to CTWS's standalone earnings per share, achieving high-single digit accretion in the first fiscal year post-closing and maintaining mid- to high-single digit accretion over the next few years;

the combination of CTWS and SJW will create the third largest investor-owned water and wastewater utility in the United States with an enhanced growth platform and expanded rate base as a result of increased scale, geographic diversity and a strong financial foundation;

SJW has, and the combined company is expected to have, a robust stable dividend that represents an immediate dividend uplift of approximately 7% for CTWS shareholders, when adjusted for the agreed exchange ratio;

the combined company will be led by an experienced board of directors and leadership team with a record of strategic execution, superior value creation and regional focus; and the merger with SJW will maintain CTWS's longstanding commitments to outstanding customer service, which will be enhanced by sharing of best practices, operational expertise and more extensive resources. Further, in considering the Eversource proposal, the CF&I committee discussed the financial and strategic benefits of the proposed merger with SJW as compared to the Eversource proposal, including, among other things, that:

the proposed merger with SJW is expected to create greater value for CTWS and its shareholders than pursuing the Eversource proposal, noting that over the past five years, CTWS has delivered a 154

percent total return to CTWS shareholders compared to only 57 percent for Eversource over the same period;

the proposed merger with SJW presents CTWS shareholders with the opportunity to benefit from enhanced future growth prospects, financial strength and a compelling total return profile for the pro forma combined company, while allowing CTWS shareholders to maintain their investment in a pure-play water utility company; and

CTWS shareholders will maintain a meaningful ownership position (approximately 40%) in the combined pure-play water company and continue to benefit from a proven management team who has a record of delivering superior value creation and world-class customer service that supports strong operations and regulatory relationships.

This discussion of the information and factors considered by the CTWS board of directors in reaching its conclusions and recommendation summarizes the material factors considered by the board, but is not intended to be exhaustive or presented in any relative order of importance. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the proposed merger and the complexity of these matters, the CTWS board of directors did not find it practicable, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that CTWS shareholders vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement. In addition, individual members of the CTWS board of directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The CTWS board of directors conducted an overall review of the factors described above and based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented.

Portions of this explanation of the reasons for the merger and other information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the matters described in the section entitled "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 25 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The CTWS board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders. The CTWS board of directors unanimously recommends that CTWS shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, specific compensatory arrangements between CTWS and its named executive officers relating to the merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the CTWS special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement.

Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor - Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated January 27, 2017, CTWS retained Wells Fargo Securities as the financial advisor to the CTWS board of directors in connection with a review of potential strategic alternatives, which would include a potential transaction with SJW.

On March 14, 2018, Wells Fargo Securities rendered its oral opinion to the CTWS board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Wells Fargo Securities' written opinion dated the same date, that, as of March 14, 2018, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion was for the information and use of the CTWS board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the proposed merger. Wells Fargo Securities' opinion only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares, of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger pursuant to the merger agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication of the proposed merger. The summary of Wells Fargo Securities' opinion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its written opinion, which is included as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in connection with the preparation of its opinion. However, neither Wells Fargo Securities' written opinion nor the summary of its opinion and the related analyses set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is intended to be, and they do not constitute, advice or a recommendation to the CTWS board of directors or any holder of CTWS common stock as to how such holder should vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed merger.

reviewed a draft, dated March 13, 2018, of the merger agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to CTWS and SJW;

reviewed certain other information relating to CTWS and SJW, including financial forecasts for CTWS for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022 prepared by CTWS management (the "CTWS projections"), which were provided to Wells Fargo Securities and approved by CTWS management, the SJW projections, which were provided to Wells Fargo Securities and approved by CTWS management for use in Wells Fargo Securities' opinion;

discussed with the managements of CTWS and SJW the respective businesses and prospects of CTWS and SJW; compared certain financial and stock market data of CTWS and certain financial data of SJW with similar data for other companies with publicly traded equity securities in businesses that Wells Fargo Securities deemed relevant; and considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria that Wells Fargo Securities deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Wells Fargo Securities did not independently verify any of the foregoing information, and Wells Fargo Securities assumed and relied upon such information being complete and accurate in all respects. Wells Fargo Securities was advised, and at CTWS's direction, assumed, that the CTWS projections and the SJW projections were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of CTWS and SJW as to the respective future financial performance of CTWS and SJW. At CTWS's direction, Wells Fargo Securities further assumed that the CTWS projections and SJW projections were a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate CTWS, SJW and the proposed merger and used and relied upon such forecasts for purposes of its analyses and opinion. Wells Fargo Securities expressed no view or opinion with respect to the CTWS projections and the SJW projections or the assumptions upon which they were based.

Neither CTWS nor SJW publicly discloses internal management projections of the type provided to Wells Fargo Securities in connection with Wells Fargo Securities' analysis of the proposed merger, and the CTWS projections and SJW projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. The CTWS projections and SJW projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of management, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the CTWS projections and SJW projections. For more information regarding the use of the CTWS projections and SJW projections, please refer to the section entitled "Unaudited Financial Forecasts - Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the CTWS Board of Directors and CTWS's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 97 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

For purposes of its analyses and opinion, Wells Fargo Securities, at CTWS's direction, assumed that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the proposed merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on CTWS, SJW or the contemplated benefits of the proposed merger that was material to Wells Fargo Securities' analyses or opinion. Wells Fargo Securities also assumed that the proposed merger would be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement thereof that was material to its analyses or opinion and that the final form of the merger agreement would not differ from the draft reviewed by Wells Fargo Securities in any respect material to its analyses or opinion. In addition, Wells Fargo Securities was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of CTWS or SJW, nor was Wells Fargo Securities furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Wells Fargo Securities did not undertake any independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation or claims, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent assets or liabilities, to which CTWS or SJW was or may have been a party or was or may have been subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which CTWS or SJW was or may have been a party or was or may have been subject.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of CTWS common stock, other than the excluded shares, of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger pursuant to the merger agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication (financial or otherwise) of the proposed merger, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the proposed merger or otherwise, including, without limitation, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation or consideration to be received by or otherwise payable to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the proposed merger, or class of such persons, relative to the exchange ratio or otherwise. Furthermore, Wells Fargo Securities did not express any advice or opinion regarding matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax, environmental, executive compensation or other similar professional advice. Wells Fargo Securities assumed that CTWS had or would obtain such advice or opinions from appropriate professional sources.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion was necessarily based upon information made available to Wells Fargo Securities as of the date of its opinion and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of its opinion. Wells Fargo Securities did not undertake, and is under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring or coming to its attention after the date of its opinion. Wells Fargo Securities' opinion did not address the relative merits of the proposed merger as compared to any alternative transactions or strategies that might have been available to CTWS, nor did it address the underlying business decision of the CTWS board of directors or CTWS to proceed with or effect the proposed merger. Wells Fargo Securities also did not express any opinion as to the price at which the CTWS common stock or the SJW common stock may be traded at any time.

Financial Analyses

In preparing its opinion to the CTWS board of directors, Wells Fargo Securities performed a variety of analyses, including those described below. The summary of Wells Fargo Securities' analyses is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Wells Fargo Securities' opinion. The preparation of such an opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytical methods employed and the adaptation and application of these methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Wells Fargo Securities' opinion nor its underlying analyses is readily susceptible to summary description. Wells Fargo Securities arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, methodology or factor. Accordingly, Wells Fargo Securities believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, methodologies and factors, without considering all analyses, methodologies and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Wells Fargo Securities analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, Wells Fargo Securities considered general business, economic, industry and market conditions, financial and otherwise, and other matters as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. None of the selected companies used in Wells Fargo Securities' analyses is identical to CTWS or SJW and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. The financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities were performed for analytical purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, any analyses relating to the value of assets, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of CTWS or SJW.

While the results of each analysis were taken into account in reaching its overall conclusion with respect to fairness, Wells Fargo Securities did not make separate or quantifiable judgments regarding individual analyses. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Wells Fargo Securities' analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion was only one of many factors considered by the CTWS board of directors in evaluating the proposed merger. Neither Wells Fargo Securities' opinion nor its analyses were determinative of the exchange ratio or of the views of the CTWS board of directors or management with respect to the proposed merger or the exchange ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the proposed merger were determined through negotiations between CTWS and SJW, and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the CTWS board of directors.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities in connection with the preparation of its opinion rendered to, and reviewed with, the CTWS board of directors on March 14, 2018. The order of the analyses summarized below does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Wells Fargo Securities. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the analyses, as well as the methodologies underlying, and the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications affecting, each analysis, could create an incomplete view of Wells Fargo Securities' analyses.

The estimates of the future financial performance of the selected companies listed below were based on certain publicly available research analyst estimates for those companies and the estimates of the future financial performance of CTWS and SJW relied upon for the financial analyses described below were based on the CTWS projections and the SJW projections, respectively.

Selected Companies Analysis

Wells Fargo Securities reviewed certain data for selected companies with publicly traded equity securities that Wells Fargo Securities deemed relevant. None of the selected companies used in Wells Fargo Securities' analyses is identical to CTWS or SJW. The selected companies were selected by Wells Fargo Securities because they are comparably-sized, U.S. investor-owned public regulated water utilities and were deemed by Wells Fargo Securities similar to CTWS and SJW in one or more respects, including, among other things, services offered, customers, end-markets and financial performance.

The financial data reviewed for CTWS and SJW included:

the price as a multiple of the estimated earnings per share for the calendar year ending December 31, 2018, or 2018E EPS ; and

the price as a multiple of the estimated earnings per share for the calendar year ending December 31, 2019, or 2019E EPS.

	Minimum	Mean	Median	Maximum
2018E EPS	22.5x	26.5x	26.5x	30.5x
2019E EPS	20.6x	24.8x	24.8x	28.4x

Taking into account the results of the selected companies analysis, Wells Fargo Securities applied multiple ranges of 22.5x to 27.0x to CTWS's 2018E EPS and 20.5x to 25.0x to CTWS's 2019E EPS. The selected companies analysis indicated the following implied price per share reference ranges for CTWS common stock:

	Implied Price per Share
	Low	High
2018E EPS	$ 52.39	$ 62.87
2019E EPS	$ 49.32	$ 60.15

The implied price per share reference ranges were then compared to CTWS's closing price per share of $52.19 as of March 13, 2018 and the implied offer price per share of $61.62, based on the proposed exchange ratio of 1.1375x.

SJW

For SJW, the selected companies and median, mean, high and low of such financial data for the selected companies were:

California Water Service Group

Connecticut Water Service, Inc.

	Minimum	Mean	Median	Maximum

Taking into account the results of the selected companies analysis, Wells Fargo Securities applied multiple ranges of 22.5x to 28.0x to SJW's 2018E EPS and 20.5x to 26.0x to SJW's 2019E EPS. The selected companies analysis indicated the following implied price per share reference ranges for SJW common stock:

	Implied Price per Share
	Low	High
2018E EPS	$ 45.44	$ 56.54
2019P EPS	$ 44.82	$ 56.85

The implied price per share reference ranges were then compared to SJW's closing price per share of $54.17 as of March 13, 2018.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Wells Fargo Securities performed a discounted cash flow analysis for each of CTWS and SJW by calculating the estimated net present value (as of January 1, 2018) of the projected unlevered free cash flows of each of CTWS and SJW for the calendar years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, based on the CTWS projections and the SJW projections, respectively. Unlevered free cash flows were calculated as EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) less cash taxes, capital expenditures and increases in net working capital.

CTWS

For CTWS's discounted cash flow analysis, Wells Fargo Securities applied a perpetuity growth rate of 1.50% and discount rates ranging from 5.65% to 6.70%, which were chosen by Wells Fargo Securities based on its experience and professional judgment taking into account an analysis of CTWS's weighted average cost of capital. The discounted cash flow analysis indicated the following implied price per share reference range for CTWS common stock:

	Implied Price per Share
Discounted Cash Flow Analysis	$ 40.42	$ 61.38

The implied price per share reference range was then compared to CTWS's closing price per share of $52.19 as of March 13, 2018 and the implied offer price per share of $61.62, based on the proposed exchange ratio of 1.1375x.

SJW

For SJW's discounted cash flow analysis, Wells Fargo Securities applied a perpetuity growth rate of 2.00% and discount rates ranging from 6.21% to 6.93%, which were chosen by Wells Fargo Securities based on its experience and professional judgment taking into account an analysis of SJW's weighted average cost of capital. The discounted cash flow analysis indicated the following implied price per share reference range for SJW common stock:

Implied Price per Share

-------------------------------	----------	----------

The implied price per share reference range was then compared to SJW's closing price per share of $54.17 as of March 13, 2018.

Table of ContentsExchange Ratio Analysis

Based upon the implied price per share for each of CTWS and SJW as described above under Selected Companies Analysis and Discounted Cash Flow Analysis and the fully diluted shares of CTWS common stock and SJW common stock, as provided by the managements of CTWS and SJW, respectively, Wells Fargo Securities calculated the implied exchange ratio reference ranges per share of CTWS common stock to a share of SJW common stock.

Wells Fargo Securities calculated the implied exchange ratios for CTWS by dividing the low end of each range of the implied price per share of CTWS common stock by the high end of each range of the implied price per share of SJW common stock and by dividing the high end of each range of the implied price per share of CTWS common stock by the low end of each range of the implied price per share of SJW common stock. The exchange ratio analysis indicated the following implied exchange ratio reference ranges for CTWS:

	Implied Exchange Ratios
	Low/High	High/Low
Discounted Cash Flow Analysis	0.804x	1.633x
Selected Public Companies Analysis
2018E EPS	0.927x	1.384x
2019E EPS	0.868x	1.342x

The implied exchange ratio reference ranges were then compared to the proposed exchange ratio of 1.1375x.

Other Matters

Wells Fargo Securities is a trade name of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, an investment banking subsidiary and affiliate of Wells Fargo & Company. CTWS retained Wells Fargo Securities as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger based on Wells Fargo Securities' experience and reputation. Wells Fargo Securities is regularly engaged to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in connection with mergers and acquisitions, financings, and financial restructurings. CTWS has agreed to pay Wells Fargo Securities an aggregate fee currently estimated to be approximately $10.5 million, $2.0 million of which became payable to Wells Fargo Securities at the time Wells Fargo Securities delivered its opinion and the remainder of which is contingent and payable upon the consummation of the proposed merger. In addition, CTWS has agreed to reimburse Wells Fargo Securities for certain expenses and to indemnify Wells Fargo Securities and certain related parties against certain liabilities and other items that may arise out of or relate to Wells Fargo Securities' engagement. The issuance of Wells Fargo Securities' opinion was approved by an authorized committee of Wells Fargo Securities.

Wells Fargo Securities and its affiliates provide a wide range of investment and commercial banking advice and services, including financial advisory services, securities underwritings and placements, securities sales and trading, brokerage advice and services, and commercial loans. During the two years preceding the date of Wells Fargo Securities' written opinion, neither Wells Fargo Securities nor its affiliates have had any other material investment, commercial banking or financial advisory relationships with CTWS or SJW. In the ordinary course of business, Wells Fargo Securities and its affiliates may trade or otherwise effect transactions in the securities or other financial instruments (including bank loans or other obligations) of CTWS, SJW and/or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or financial instruments. Wells Fargo Securities and its affiliates have adopted policies and procedures designed to preserve the independence of their research and credit analysts whose views may differ from those of the members of the team of investment banking professionals involved in preparing Wells Fargo Securities' opinion.

Table of ContentsUnaudited Financial Forecasts*Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the SJW Board of Directors and SJW's Financial Advisor

SJW does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose long-term projections as to future revenues, earnings or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty and subjectivity of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the SJW board of directors' consideration of the proposed merger, the SJW projections were prepared by SJW management for the fiscal years 2018 through 2022. In the case of CTWS, CTWS management prepared the CTWS projections for the fiscal years 2018 through 2022 for its board of directors (see section entitled Unaudited Financial Forecasts – Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the CTWS Board of Directors and CTWS's Financial Advisor), which were then provided to SJW. The SJW projections and the CTWS projections were independently prepared by SJW management and CTWS management, respectively, based on assumptions that SJW management or CTWS management, as applicable, believed to be reasonable at the time. The SJW projections and the CTWS projections were provided to the SJW board of directors and to SJW's financial advisor for its use in connection with its financial analyses and rendering its opinion (see section – Opinion of SJW's Financial Advisor – Opinion of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC – beginning on page 73 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus).

The SJW projections and the CTWS projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or soliciting proxies, nor were they prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of the SEC regarding forecasts, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of financial projections, or compliance with U.S. GAAP. In addition, neither the SJW projections nor the CTWS projections were prepared with the assistance of, or reviewed, compiled or examined by, an independent auditor. Neither SJW's independent auditors, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined, or performed any procedures with respect to the SJW projections or the CTWS projections contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability. The KPMG LLP (KPMG) report incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates to SJW's historical financial information. It does not extend to the prospective financial information and should not be read to do so.

Although the SJW projections and the CTWS projections are presented with numerical specificity, they reflect numerous assumptions and estimates as to future events made by SJW management and/or CTWS management, as applicable, that they believed were reasonable at the time the SJW projections and the CTWS projections were prepared, taking into account the relevant information available to SJW's management or CTWS management, as applicable, at the time. However, this information is not fact and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of actual future results. Important factors that may affect actual results and cause the SJW projections and/or the CTWS projections not to be achieved include general economic conditions; changes in the general economic environment or social or political conditions that could affect the businesses; the effect of current or future water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations on SJW and CTWS or the industries in which they operate; SJW's ability to achieve forecasted sales; accuracy of certain accounting estimates; changes in actual or projected cash flows; competitive pressures; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; the potential of international unrest, economic downturn or effects of currencies, tax assessments, tax adjustments, anticipated tax rates, raw material costs or availability, benefit or retirement plan costs, or other regulatory compliance costs; the ability to hire and retain key personnel; the risk that the credit ratings of SJW and CTWS may be different from SJW's expectations; the outcomes of any litigation; changes in tax laws; the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the transaction is not obtained; litigation relating to the transaction; unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the transaction; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; and the combined company's ability to achieve some or all of the benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction, as well as delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the combined company's existing businesses.

Neither the SJW projections nor the CTWS projections take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared. As a result, none of SJW, CTWS or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives can provide any assurance that actual results will not differ materially from the financial projections set forth below, and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the financial projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date the financial projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the financial projections are shown to be in error. The financial projections set forth below cover multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. None of SJW, CTWS or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives has made or makes any representation to any stockholder or other person regarding SJW's or CTWS's ultimate performance compared to the information contained in the financial projections or that the projected results will be achieved.

The financial projections set forth below were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and are beyond the control of SJW and CTWS. The SJW projections and the CTWS projections are subject to many risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, relating to SJW's and CTWS's businesses, regulatory decisions and the regulatory environment generally, industry performance and market conditions, interest rates and corporate financing activities, competition, general business and financial conditions, the effective tax rate and other factors described under "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 25 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change. The financial projections set forth below also did not give effect to the merger. In addition, financial forecasts also reflect assumptions that are subject to change and do not reflect revised prospects for SJW's or CTWS's business, changes in general business or economic conditions or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the financial forecasts were prepared, including assumptions with respect to the future prices of water. SJW's forecasts depend, in large part, upon sales volume, customer growth, major weather disturbances and the ability to manage expenses, uncollectibles, capital expenditures and recovery of costs through customer rates as permitted by applicable regulators. CTWS's forecasts depend, in large part, upon the ability to manage expenses, uncollectibles, capital expenditures and recovery of costs through customer rates as permitted by applicable regulators. As a result, actual results may differ materially from those contained in the financial projections.

SJW has made no representations to CTWS, and CTWS has made no representations to SJW, in the merger agreement or otherwise, concerning the financial projections or the estimates or budgets on which they are based. SJW and CTWS urge all stockholders to review SJW's and CTWS's most recent SEC filings for a description of SJW's and CTWS's reported financial results.

SJW and CTWS calculate certain non-U.S. GAAP financial metrics using different methodologies. For more information regarding non-U.S. GAAP calculations, refer to the respective SEC filings for SJW and CTWS. Consequently, the financial metrics presented in each company's prospective financial projections and in sections of this document with respect to the opinions of the financial advisors of SJW and CTWS may not be directly comparable to one another.

Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the CTWS Board of Directors and CTWS's Financial Advisor

CTWS does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose long-term projections as to future revenues, earnings or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty and subjectivity of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the CTWS board of directors' consideration of the proposed merger, CTWS management prepared the CTWS projections, which are non-public financial projections regarding CTWS's anticipated future operations. The CTWS projections and the SJW projections were independently prepared by CTWS management and SJW management, respectively, based on assumptions that CTWS management or SJW management, as applicable, believed to be reasonable at the time. The CTWS projections and the SJW projections were provided to the CTWS board of directors in connection with its review and evaluation of the proposed merger and to CTWS's financial advisor for its use in connection with its financial analyses and opinion (see section "Opinion of CTWS's Financial Advisor" "Opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, LLC" beginning on page 88 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus).

The CTWS projections and the SJW projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or soliciting proxies, nor were they prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of the SEC regarding forecasts, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of financial projections, or compliance with U.S. GAAP. In addition, neither the CTWS projections nor the SJW projections were prepared with the assistance of, or reviewed, compiled or examined by, an independent auditor. Neither CTWS's nor SJW's independent auditors, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined, or performed any procedures with respect to the CTWS projections or the SJW projections contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability. The Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP ("Baker Tilly") report incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus relates to CTWS's historical financial information. It does not extend to the prospective financial information and should not be read to do so.

Although the CTWS projections and the SJW projections are presented with numerical specificity, they reflect numerous assumptions and estimates as to future events made by CTWS management or SJW management, as applicable, that they believed were reasonable at the time the CTWS projections and the SJW projections were prepared, taking into account the relevant information available to CTWS management or SJW management, as applicable, at the time. However, this information is not fact and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of actual future results. Important factors that may affect actual results and cause the CTWS projections and/or the SJW projections not to be achieved include general economic conditions; changes in the general economic environment or social or political conditions that could affect the businesses; the effect of current or future water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations on CTWS and SJW or the industries in which they operate; CTWS's ability to achieve forecasted sales; accuracy of certain accounting estimates; changes in actual or projected cash flows; competitive pressures; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; the potential of international unrest, economic downturn or effects of currencies, tax assessments, tax adjustments, anticipated tax rates, raw material costs or availability, benefit or retirement plan costs, or other regulatory compliance costs; the ability to hire and retain key personnel; the risk that the credit ratings of CTWS and SJW may be different from CTWS's expectations; the outcomes of any litigation; changes in tax laws; the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the transaction is not obtained; litigation relating to the transaction; unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the transaction; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; and the combined company's ability to achieve some or all of the benefits expected to result from the elimination of duplicative public company and other related costs expected from the transaction, as well as delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the combined company's existing businesses. Neither the CTWS projections nor the SJW projections take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared. As a result, none of CTWS, SJW or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives can provide any assurance that actual results will not differ materially from the financial projections set forth below, and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the financial projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date the financial projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the financial projections are shown to be in error. The financial projections set forth below cover multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. None of CTWS, SJW or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives has made or makes any representation to any shareholder or other person regarding CTWS's or SJW's ultimate performance compared to the information contained in the financial projections or that the projected results will be achieved.

The financial projections set forth below were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and are beyond the control of CTWS and SJW. The CTWS projections and the SJW projections are subject to many risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, relating to CTWS's and SJW's businesses, regulatory decisions and the regulatory environment generally, industry performance and market conditions, interest rates and corporate financing activities, competition, general business and financial conditions, the effective tax rate and other factors described under "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 25 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change. The financial projections set forth below also did not give effect to the merger. In addition, financial forecasts also reflect assumptions that are subject to change and do not reflect revised prospects for CTWS's business, changes in general business or economic conditions or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the financial forecasts were prepared, including assumptions with respect to the future prices of water. CTWS's forecasts depend, in large part, upon the ability to manage expenses, uncollectibles, capital expenditures and recovery of costs through customer rates as permitted by applicable regulators. SJW's forecasts depend, in large part, upon sales volume, customer growth, major weather disturbances and the ability to manage expenses, uncollectibles, capital expenditures and recovery of costs through customer rates as permitted by applicable regulators. As a result, actual results may differ materially from those contained in the financial projections.

CTWS has made no representations to SJW, and SJW has made no representations to CTWS, in the merger agreement or otherwise, concerning the financial projections or the estimates or budgets on which they are based. CTWS and SJW urge all shareholders to review CTWS's and SJW's most recent SEC filings for a description of CTWS's and SJW's reported financial results.

SJW Projections

In connection with the SJW board of directors' consideration of the proposed merger, SJW management prepared the SJW projections (see the section entitled "Unaudited Financial Forecasts - Certain Financial Projections Utilized by the SJW Board of Directors and SJW's Financial Advisor"), which projections were then provided to CTWS management. These financial projections were utilized by the CTWS board of directors in connection with its review and evaluation of the merger and by CTWS's financial advisor in connection with its financial analyses and opinion to the CTWS board of directors. These financial projections are summarized in the following table:

For Fiscal Year Ending on December 31,

Table of Contents

(1) EBITDA means earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization.

The unaudited financial projections for SJW prepared by SJW management are based on various assumptions, including the following principal assumptions:

The debt to equity ratio was assumed to be 47.42%/52.58%;

San Jose Water Company's authorized return on equity was assumed to be 8.30%, reflecting the impact of the CPUC's proposed decision, issued on February 6, 2018;

San Jose Water Company's overall return on rate base was assumed to be 7.19%, reflecting the impact of the CPUC's proposed decision, issued on February 6, 2018; and

The average effective tax rate for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022 was assumed to be 27%, reflecting the impact of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

CTWS Projections

CTWS management prepared unaudited financial projections for CTWS for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022. These financial projections were utilized by the CTWS board of directors in connection with its review and evaluation of the proposed merger and CTWS's financial advisor for its use in connection with its financial analyses and opinion to the CTWS board of directors. These financial projections are summarized in the following table:

($ in millions, except for Fully Diluted Earnings Per Share)	For Fiscal Year Ending on December 31,
	2018E	2019E	2020E	2021E	2022E

Fully Diluted Earnings Per Share	$ 2.33	$ 2.41	$ 2.53	$ 2.88	$ 3.06

(1) EBITDA means earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization.

The unaudited financial projections for CTWS prepared by CTWS management are based on various assumptions, including the following principal assumptions:

The Connecticut Water Company's authorized return on equity for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019 was based upon its current authorized return on equity, and its authorized return on equity for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020, December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2022 was assumed to be lower than its current authorized return on equity, reflecting a lower interest rate environment;

$36.3 million associated with The Connecticut Water Company's investments in the Rockville Water Treatment Facility, which amount The Connecticut Water Company is seeking to add into the rate base by a petition it filed with the PURA on February 6, 2018 to reflect its settlement agreement with the Connecticut Office of Consumer Counsel on February 6, 2018, is assumed to have been included in the rate base;

The Connecticut Water Company's Water Infrastructure Conservation Adjustment mechanism was assumed to have been reset to 0%, reflecting The Connecticut Water Company's settlement agreement with the Connecticut Office of Consumer Counsel on February 6, 2018;

It was assumed that no new base rates of The Connecticut Water Company will become effective before January 2020; and

The effective tax rate for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2018 through 2022 was assumed to be 4.5%, 3.3%, 12.5%, 6.0% and 6.3%, respectively, reflecting the impact of the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

NEITHER SJW NOR CTWS INTENDS TO PUBLICLY UPDATE OR OTHERWISE REVISE THE ABOVE UNAUDITED FINANCIAL PROJECTIONS TO REFLECT CIRCUMSTANCES EXISTING AFTER THE DATE WHEN MADE OR TO REFLECT THE OCCURRENCE OF FUTURE EVENTS, EVEN IN THE EVENT THAT ANY OR ALL OF THE ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING SUCH UNAUDITED FINANCIAL PROJECTIONS ARE NO LONGER APPROPRIATE, EXCEPT AS MAY BE REQUIRED BY LAW.

Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation of SJW

The SJW board of directors has approved, subject to stockholder approval, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment increasing the number of authorized shares of SJW common stock, par value $0.001 per share, from 36 million to 72 million and increasing the total authorized SJW capital stock from 37 million shares to 73 million shares. A form of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. The adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders is a condition to the completion of the merger. The SJW certificate of incorporation amendment will become effective immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. In the event this proposal is approved by SJW stockholders, but the merger is not completed, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment may not be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and may not become effective.

Amendment to Bylaws of SJW

The merger agreement provides that SJW and CTWS will take all actions necessary to effect the governance matters described in the section entitled Governance Matters After the Merger beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Among other things, SJW will amend and restate its bylaws as of the effective time of the merger to include the amendment that is attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the SJW board of directors that you vote to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock in connection with the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, you should be aware that SJW's directors and executive officers have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of SJW stockholders generally. The SJW board of directors was aware of and considered these potential interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger and in recommending to you that you approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock in connection with the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. These interests are further described below.

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Combined SJW will consist of twelve members, comprised of: (i) seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the SJW board of directors, of which one will be Eric W. Thornburg and (ii) five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the CTWS board of directors. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020.

All of SJW's and its subsidiaries' current officers are expected to continue to serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. Furthermore, upon completion of the merger, Mr. Thornburg will serve as chairman, chief executive officer and president of the combined company.

In addition, Mr. Thornburg, who was the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS until September 28, 2017 and an employee of CTWS until October 15, 2017, continues to hold 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13, 2018. The shares subject to the CTWS DSUs will, in accordance with their terms, be issued to Mr. Thornburg on June 15, 2018. In connection with the merger, each share of CTWS common stock will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Outstanding SJW Equity Incentive Awards

None of the non-employee directors or executive officers of SJW have any interest in the merger other than shares of SJW common stock held by them and their entitlements as directors or employees as determined without regard to the merger and except for Mr. Thornburg, who was the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS until September 28, 2017 and an employee of CTWS until October 15, 2017 and holds 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13, 2018. The following table¹⁵ presents the number of shares of SJW common stock underlying the SJW deferred stock awards, restricted stock units and performance stock units held by each of SJW's non-employee directors and executive officers as of [], 2018 and the value of those shares based on the closing trading price of SJW common stock on such date (which is the assumed closing date of the merger solely for the purposes of this disclosure). All such awards will remain subject to the same terms and conditions that are applicable to the awards prior to the merger.

Indemnification of SJW Directors and Officers

SJW directors and executive officers have rights to indemnification and directors and officers liability insurance that will survive completion of the merger.

Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the CTWS board of directors that you vote for the proposal to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that CTWS's directors and executive officers have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of CTWS shareholders generally. The CTWS board of directors was aware of and considered these potential interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby as well as in recommending to you that you vote for the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Combined SJW will consist of twelve members, comprised of: (i) seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective

time of the merger, to be selected by the SJW board of directors and (ii) five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the CTWS board of directors. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020.

Combined SJW's bylaws will provide that, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, in connection with each annual or special stockholders meeting at which directors of the combined company are elected from the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, (i) the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to nominate and fill each board seat held by the SJW continuing directors and (ii) the CTWS continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to nominate and fill each board seat held by the CTWS continuing directors. Combined SJW bylaws will also provide that, from and after the effective time of the merger until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, (i) all vacancies on the board of directors created by a cessation of service of an SJW continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the SJW continuing directors, and the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to fill all such vacancies, and (ii) all vacancies on the board created by the cessation of service of a CTWS continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the CTWS continuing directors, and the CTWS continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to fill all such vacancies. Following the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire the board of directors of the combined company, the CTWS continuing directors will have the authority to designate the lead independent director from among the CTWS continuing directors.

In addition, David C. Benoit (the current President and Chief Executive Officer of CTWS) will serve as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and The Connecticut Water Company until at least December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company; Richard L. Knowlton (the current President of The Maine Water Company) will continue to serve as the President of The Maine Water Company; Kristen A. Johnson (the current Vice President, Human Resources and Corporate Secretary of CTWS) will serve as the Chief Human Resource Officer of the combined company and its subsidiaries; Maureen P. Westbrook (the current Vice President, Customer and Regulatory Affairs of CTWS) will serve as the Senior Vice President of External Affairs of the combined company and its subsidiaries; Craig J. Patla (the current Vice President, Service Delivery of CTWS) will serve as the Vice President, Operations for Combined SJW's New England Region; and Robert J. Doffek (the current Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Controller of CTWS) will serve as the Vice President, Controller for Combined SJW's New England Region.

CTWS Restricted Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, all outstanding and unvested CTWS RSU awards granted pursuant to the CTWS stock plans will be automatically converted, pursuant to the merger agreement, into restricted stock units of SJW, and all of the terms and restrictions applicable to the CTWS RSUs (including any deferral elections) will apply to the restricted stock units of SJW. The number of shares of SJW common stock underlying each such converted CTWS RSU award will be determined by multiplying the number of unvested shares of CTWS common stock subject to such award immediately prior to the completion of the merger by the exchange ratio, and rounding down to the nearest whole share. CTWS RSUs are awards that are subject to service-based vesting and are not or are no longer subject to performance-based vesting and entitle the holder to receive shares of CTWS upon vesting, and include awards granted as CTWS PSUs for which performance has been determined prior to the effective date of the merger and which are still subject to service vesting.

CTWS Deferred Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, all outstanding CTWS DSU awards granted pursuant to the CTWS stock plans will be automatically converted, pursuant to the merger agreement, into deferred stock units of SJW, and all of the terms and restrictions applicable to the CTWS DSUs (including any deferral elections) will apply to the deferred stock units of SJW. The number of shares of SJW common stock underlying each such converted CTWS DSU award will be determined by multiplying the number of shares of CTWS common stock subject to such award immediately prior to the completion of the merger by the exchange ratio, and rounding down to the nearest whole share. CTWS DSUs are awards previously granted as CTWS PSUs that are fully vested (based on performance and completion of service vesting) with the underlying shares of CTWS common stock to be issued on a specified date or event, as elected by the participant.

CTWS Performance Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PSU awards that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested as to a number of shares of CTWS common stock determined by calculating the actual level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service-based vesting for each such performance vested CTWS PSU shall be accelerated and each such vested share of CTWS common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a number of shares of SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio, and will continue to be subject to the same dividend equivalents and deferral elections as in effect for such award prior to the completion of the merger, if any, and (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PSUs that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting awards covering a number of restricted stock units of SJW equal to the product of (x) the target number of outstanding and unvested share units that was subject to each applicable CTWS PSU award immediately prior to closing of the merger and (y) the exchange ratio, with any fractional share units rounded down to the nearest whole share unit.

CTWS Performance Cash Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCU awards that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the amount payable based on the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger but are subject to service vesting, will be accelerated and will be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time, (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested for an amount based on the actual performance of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service vesting will be accelerated and the award shall be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time, and (iii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCU awards that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting cash awards based on target.

Quantification of Payments. For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to each of CTWS's named executive officers (other than Mr. Thornburg, who does not hold any unvested CTWS equity awards) upon settlement of their unvested CTWS equity awards, see the section entitled "Golden Parachute Compensation - CTWS" below. The estimated aggregate amount that would be payable to CTWS's two executive officers who are not named executive officers upon settlement of their unvested CTWS equity awards if the effective time of the merger occurred on April 13, 2018 is $219,007. The amount specified in this paragraph has been calculated assuming that the merger was completed on April 13, 2018 (which is the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus) and a per share price of CTWS common stock of $60.79, the average per-share closing price of CTWS's common stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger agreement. Depending on when the merger occurs, certain equity awards that are now unvested and included in the amount specified may vest pursuant to their terms based upon the completion of continued service with CTWS or the prior achievement of performance goals, in either case, independent of the occurrence of the merger.

Non-Employee Directors' Interests

CTWS Restricted Stock. CTWS's non-employee directors have historically received an annual grant of restricted shares of CTWS common stock on or around the date of the annual CTWS shareholders meeting, which vest on the first anniversary of the grant date. CTWS expects to make annual equity award grants to each of its non-employee directors in the ordinary course of business in 2018 on or around the date of CTWS's annual meeting of shareholders in the form of restricted shares of CTWS common stock with an aggregate value (based on the closing price of CTWS common stock on the day prior to the grant date) equal to $22,000. Pursuant to CTWS's form of restricted stock award agreement to non-employee directors, outstanding restricted stock awards will vest in full on a change-in-control, including the closing of the merger. In accordance with the merger agreement, on the closing of the merger, issued and outstanding shares of CTWS common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of SJW common stock.

The table below sets forth the number of outstanding restricted shares held by each non-employee director as of April 13, 2018 and the value of those shares based on a per share price of CTWS common stock of $60.79 (the average per share closing price of CTWS's common stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger agreement).

Indemnification of CTWS Directors and Officers

Directors and officers of CTWS also have rights to indemnification and directors' and officers' liability insurance that will survive completion of the merger. Please see the section entitled "Comparison of Rights of CTWS Shareholders and Combined SJW Stockholders - Indemnification of Officers and Directors" beginning on page 171.

Executive Officer Interests

The interests of CTWS's executive officers are described and quantified below and, with respect to the named executive officers, in the narrative and table included under "CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation for CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal," beginning on page 108.

As described under The Merger Agreement Employee Benefit Matters, SJW and CTWS have agreed that following completion of the merger:

until December 31, 2019, (i) SJW will, or will cause its subsidiaries to, provide CTWS employees with (A) the same base compensation and no less favorable target annual cash incentive opportunities as in

effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (B) benefits (other than severance and change in control benefits) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to such benefits in effect for such employees immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (C) severance benefits that are no less favorable than the severance benefits SJW provides to similarly situated employees of SJW and its subsidiaries (except that SJW will not be required to provide such benefits to CTWS employees who are entitled to severance benefits under CTWS employment agreements or the CTWS Change in Control Severance Plan which will continue to apply to such CTWS employees in accordance with their terms), and (ii) each CTWS employee who received a long-term incentive award under the CTWS stock plans in 2018 will be granted an equity incentive award (with the target and maximum dollar values of such award equal to or greater than the target and maximum dollar values of the last award granted to such CTWS employee under the CTWS stock plans prior to the effective time of the merger) under the SJW stock plans for each calendar year following the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2019 (other than a calendar year in which such CTWS employee received an equity incentive award under a CTWS stock plan), which will be made at the same time and subject to the same terms and conditions as awards made to SJW's executive officers; and to the extent any CTWS employee is eligible to participate under any employee benefit plan of SJW or its subsidiaries following the closing, SJW will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, give credit under such SJW employee benefit plans to CTWS employees for all service with CTWS or its subsidiaries prior to the effective time of the merger for certain purposes and to the extent such service was taken into account or recognized by CTWS or an applicable subsidiary, but not to the extent crediting such service would result in duplication of benefits.

Employment Agreements

The following discussion summarizes certain terms of the existing employment agreements between CTWS, The Connecticut Water Company and certain of CTWS's executive officers (David C. Benoit, President and Chief Executive Officer, Kristen A. Johnson, Vice President Human Resources and Corporate Secretary, Craig J. Patla, Vice President Service Delivery, and Maureen P. Westbrook, Vice President Customer and Regulatory Affairs). Robert J. Doffek, who was appointed Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Controller on March 6, 2018, does not have an employment agreement with CTWS. CTWS has entered into an employment agreement with Peter J. Bancroft, Assistant Treasurer and Director Rates Forecasting, but by its terms, his employment agreement will not become effective because the term of the employment agreement ends upon the executive attaining age 65 and Mr. Bancroft is over 65 years old.

The employment agreements become effective upon the occurrence of a change-in-control of CTWS (the CIC effective date). The merger would constitute a change-in-control under each agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, The Connecticut Water Company agrees to employ the executive as of the CIC effective date, for a continuously renewing three-year period commencing on the CIC effective date. Compensation under the agreements for Messrs. Benoit and Patla, and Mesdames Johnson and Westbrook is paid by The Connecticut Water Company and consists of (i) base salary, (ii) annual bonus, (iii) participation in incentive, savings and retirement plans, and welfare plans applicable to executive employees, (iv) fringe benefits, and (v) an office and support staff.

If the executive's employment is terminated at any time during the term of the employment agreement for any reason other than cause, death, or attainment of age 65, or if the executive's employment is terminated by reason of the executive's disability, or if the executive voluntarily terminates employment for good reason, the executive will be entitled to receive the following benefits:

- (i) a lump-sum payment in consideration of the executive's covenants regarding confidential information and non-competition (the covenants), in an amount determined by an independent expert to be the reasonable value of such covenants as of the termination date (the covenant value),

but in no event greater than the aggregate value of the benefits provided in subparagraphs (ii) (v) and (vii) below (the termination benefits); such termination benefits are to be offset by the covenant value, provided, however, that the executive may elect to receive any termination benefit that would be so offset, but in such event the covenant value will be reduced by the value of such termination benefit;

- (ii) an amount equal to three times the base salary of the executive plus three times the target percentage of the midpoint of the executive's salary grade under the Officers Incentive Program for the year in which termination occurs, reduced by any amount payable under any applicable severance plan, payable over the three years following termination;
- (iii) the value of the aggregate amounts that would have been contributed on behalf of the executive, except for any elective deferrals, under any qualified defined contribution retirement plan(s) then in effect, plus estimated earnings thereon, assuming that the executive had continued to participate in such plan(s) for an additional three years and made contributions under such plans equal to the maximum amount the executive was permitted to contribute for the plan year immediately preceding the executive's termination;
- (iv) an amount equal to the difference between benefits which would have been payable to the executive under any deferred compensation agreement had the executive continued in the employ of The Connecticut Water Company for an additional three years and the benefits actually payable;
- (v) additional retirement benefits equal to the discounted present value of the difference between the annual pension benefits that would have been payable to the executive under The Connecticut Water Company's qualified defined benefit retirement plan and under any non-qualified supplemental executive retirement plan covering the executive had the executive continued to participate in such plan(s) for an additional three years (including for purposes of age, service and vesting credit) and the benefits actually payable;
- (vi) accelerated vesting in any form of compensation previously granted to the executive (other than benefits payable under a qualified retirement plan);
- (vii) a lump sum cash payment equal to three multiplied by the sum of the average of the annual contributions, payments, credits or allocations made by The Connecticut Water Company on behalf of the executive for coverage under all life, health, disability and similar welfare benefit plans and programs of The Connecticut Water Company and for other perquisites maintained by The Connecticut Water Company for a period of three years preceding the executive's termination;
- (viii) disability benefits payable in accordance with any bona fide disability plan in the event the executive is terminated by reason of disability and qualifies for benefits under the terms of such bona fide disability plan; reimbursement for reasonable legal and accounting fees and expenses incurred by the executive to obtain or enforce any right provided for in the executive's employment agreement; and
- (ix)

(x) outplacement services for one year.

Cause is defined in the employment agreement as the executive's serious, willful misconduct in respect of the executive's duties under the agreement, including conviction for a felony or perpetration by the executive of a common law fraud upon The Connecticut Water Company or CTWS which has resulted or is likely to result in material economic damage to The Connecticut Water Company or CTWS, as determined by a vote of at least 75% of all of the directors (excluding the executive) of each of The Connecticut Water Company and the CTWS board of directors.

In addition, good reason is defined as the occurrence of any action which (i) removes or changes the executive's title or reduces the executive's job responsibilities or base salary; (ii) results in a significant worsening of the executive's work conditions; or (iii) moves the executive's place of employment to a location that increases the executive's commute by more than 30 miles over the length of the executive's commute from the executive's place of principal residence at the time the move is requested. Any good faith determination by the executive that any such action has occurred shall be conclusive. The employment agreements for Mr. Benoit and Ms. Westbrook provide that, for the period commencing on the CIC effective date and ending on the 30th day after the first anniversary of the CIC effective date, "good reason" shall mean any reason or no reason.

In the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by Mr. Benoit and Ms. Westbrook under each of their respective agreements is subject to the federal excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"), then a "gross-up" payment will be made to the named executive. The gross-up payment would compensate the named executive for the initial 20% excise tax payable on the executive's excess parachute payments plus the income and excise taxes then becoming payable on such initial gross-up payment. The agreements for Ms. Johnson and Mr. Patla provide for a "best of net cutback" provision to address the calculation of their benefits in the event of a potential termination in association with a change-in-control. The "best of net cutback" instructs that the executive will receive their full change-in-control related payments, except that the payments will be reduced to an amount such that the payments would not constitute an "excess parachute payment," as defined in IRC Section 280G, if reduced amount would be more favorable to the executive on an after-tax basis.

Change in Control Severance Plan

One of CTWS's named executive officers (Robert J. Doffek, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Controller) and certain of CTWS's executive officers who are not named executive officers and other key individuals are participants in the CTWS Change in Control Severance Plan (the "CTWS CIC Severance Plan"). The CTWS CIC Severance Plan provides that, in the event the participant is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason upon or within 24 months following a change in control, he or she will be entitled to the following severance benefits from CTWS, which differ based on a participant's tier level (as designated by the plan administrator):

A cash payment in equal, monthly installments over a two-year and six-month (Tier 1), two-year (Tier 2) or one-year and six-month (Tier 3) period of:

2.5x (Tier 1), 2x (Tier 2) or 1.5x (Tier 3) the sum of (i) base salary plus (ii) target bonus in the year of termination;

A pro rata bonus for the year of termination at target; and Outplacement services for 1 year, not to exceed $25,000.

Continued health insurance coverage for a maximum of 18 months (Tier 1), 15 months (Tier 2) or 12 months (Tier 3).

The CTWS CIC Severance Plan provides for a "best of net cutback" provision to address the calculation of benefits in the event of a potential termination in association with a change in control. The "best of net cutback" instructs that the participant will receive their full change in control related payments, except that the payments will be reduced to an amount such that the payments would not constitute an excess parachute payment, as defined in IRC Section 280G, if such reduced amount would be more favorable to the participant on an after-tax basis. The merger will constitute a change in control for purposes of the CTWS CIC Severance Plan. The CTWS CIC Severance Plan also provides for a two-year post-termination confidentiality covenant. Additionally, all payments to the executive officers are contingent upon his or her execution of a release agreement containing a complete release of claims against CTWS.

As a Tier 2 participant, the estimated aggregate amount that would be payable to Mr. Doffek under the CTWS CIC Severance Plan if the effective time of the merger were to occur and he were to experience a qualifying termination on April 13, 2018 is $675,129. The estimated aggregate amount that would be payable to CTWS's executive officers who are not named executive officers under the CTWS CIC Severance Plan if the effective time of the merger were to occur and they were to experience a qualifying termination on April 13, 2018 is $744,112.

For further information regarding the compensation that may become payable to each of the CTWS named executive officers, see the section entitled "CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation For CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal" beginning on page 108.

CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation For CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal

CTWS is required, pursuant to Section 14A of the Exchange Act, to include in this joint proxy statement/prospectus a non-binding, advisory vote on certain compensation that may become payable to each of its named executive officers, as determined in accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, in connection with the proposed merger pursuant to arrangements entered into with CTWS. In accordance with the applicable rules, Mr. Thornburg is included as a named executive officer even though he resigned from his position as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS on September 28, 2017 and as an employee of CTWS on October 15, 2017 and is not entitled to any payments from CTWS in connection with the merger (other than as a holder of 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13, 2018).

Golden Parachute Compensation* CTWS

This section sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the compensation for each named executive officer of CTWS that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This compensation is referred to as "golden parachute" compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules, and in this section we use such term to describe the business combination-related compensation payable to CTWS's named executive officers. The "golden parachute" compensation payable to CTWS's named executive officers is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of CTWS shareholders, as described in this section. The arrangements pursuant to which such compensation would be paid are the employment agreements with each named executive officer discussed above and the treatment of the outstanding equity awards under the merger agreement.

The amounts set forth below have been calculated assuming (1) that the merger was completed on April 13, 2018 (which is the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus) and, where applicable, that each named executive officer experiences a qualifying termination of employment on such date and (2) a per share price of CTWS common stock of $60.79, the average per-share closing price of CTWS's common stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger agreement. Depending on when the merger occurs, certain equity awards that are now unvested and included in the table below may vest pursuant to their terms based upon the completion of continued service with CTWS or the prior achievement of performance goals, in either case, independent of the occurrence of the merger. For further information regarding the consideration to be received in settlement of equity-based awards, see the section entitled "The Merger Treatment of CTWS Restricted Share Units, Deferred Share Units, Performance Share Units and Performance Cash Units" beginning on page 113.

The amounts indicated below are estimates of amounts that might become payable to the named executive officers, and such estimates are based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and, as a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by any named executive officer may differ in material respects from the amounts set forth below. All dollar amounts set forth below have been rounded to the nearest whole number. For purposes of this discussion, single-trigger refers to benefits that arise as a result of the closing of the merger and double-trigger refers to benefits that require two conditions, which are the closing of the merger as well as a qualifying termination of employment or specified date following the effective time of the merger, as applicable.

(1) Except as described in footnotes (3) and (4) below, all amounts reflected in the table are attributable to double-trigger arrangements.

(2) Eric W. Thornburg, who was a named executive officer of CTWS in 2017, resigned from his position as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of CTWS on September 28, 2017 and as an employee of CTWS on October 15, 2017, following which he became the president and chief executive officer of SJW. Mr. Thornburg is no longer employed by CTWS and holds no unvested CTWS equity awards. Accordingly, he is not eligible to receive any payments from CTWS in connection with the merger (other than as a holder of 25,749 shares of CTWS common stock and 126,662 CTWS DSUs (which will be settled in shares of CTWS common stock on June 15, 2018, subject to the terms of the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program), as of April 13,

- 2018).
- (3) Amounts for each of the named executive officers except Mr. Doffek reflect cash severance payments equal to three times the sum of (i) the executive's annual base salary in effect on April 13, 2018, (ii) the executive's target percentage of the midpoint of the executive's salary grade under the Officers Incentive Program for fiscal year 2018, and (iii) outplacement services for one year that would be payable under the employment agreements entered into with each of the named executive officers which will become effective at the effective time of the merger, assuming an involuntary termination by CTWS without cause or such officer's resignation for good reason (see discussion above under Employment Agreements). Amounts for Mr. Doffek reflect cash severance payments equal to (i) two times the sum of (A) his annual base salary in effect on April 13, 2018 and (B) his target bonus for fiscal year 2018, and (ii) a pro rata target bonus for fiscal year 2018 that would be payable under the CTWS CIC Severance Plan, assuming an involuntary termination by CTWS without cause or Mr. Doffek's resignation for good reason (see discussion above under Change in Control Severance Plan). In addition, the amounts in this column reflect outstanding CTWS PCUs granted prior to the date of the merger agreement that will become vested as to an amount determined assuming target performance for purposes of this disclosure and converted into the right to receive the cash payments at the effective time of the merger, and are therefore single-trigger payments.

The aggregate payments included in this column are comprised of the following:

Named Executive Officer	Cash Severance ($)	Unvested CTWS PCUs ($)
David C. Benoit	$ 2,006,650	$ 252,061
Robert J. Doffek	$ 654,723	$ 112,830
Kristen A. Johnson	$ 1,032,772	$ 113,238
Craig J. Patla	$ 905,368	$ 138,662
Maureen P. Westbrook	$ 1,055,644	$ 93,770

In addition, in connection with Mr. Benoit's and Mr. Doffek's promotions in 2018 to President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, respectively, the CTWS board of directors acted to adjust their base salary and target awards under the Officers Incentive Program; the increased payout opportunity under their incentive awards as a result of such adjustment is payable in cash in the form of a true up payment at the time the performance under the incentive awards is determined. Included in the aggregate payment above is a true up payment of $129,108 for Mr. Benoit and $29,075 for Mr. Doffek, assuming the performance under the incentive awards is measured on April 13, 2018.

- (4) As described above in "The Merger Treatment of CTWS Restricted Share Units, Deferred Share Units, Performance Share Units and Performance Cash Units", outstanding equity awards will vest and become payable as follows: (i) all outstanding CTWS PSUs granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the date of the merger agreement, will become performance vested and the service-based vesting for such performance vested CTWS PSU shall be accelerated and each such vested CTWS PSU will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration at the effective time of the merger; such awards are therefore single-trigger benefits (that will continue to be subject to dividend equivalents and deferral elections, if any, applicable to the CTWS PSUs); and (ii) all outstanding CTWS RSUs will be converted into SJW restricted stock units and will vest and become payable on the earlier of (x) the original vesting date and (y) a covered termination, which makes them double-trigger payments, subject to payment in accordance with any deferral election. The number of CTWS shares subject to such awards and the values thereof (which do not include the values of dividend equivalents relating to such shares) is as follows:

Named Executive Officer	Unvested CTWS RSUs (#)	Unvested CTWS RSUs ($)	Unvested CTWS PSUs (#)	Unvested CTWS PSUs ($)
Robert J. Doffek	0	$ 0	262	$ 15,927
Kristen A. Johnson	1,484	$ 90,212	1,476	$ 89,726

- (5) The amounts reported for each of the named executive officers except Mr. Doffek include: (i) an additional retirement benefit equal to the present value (using an assumed discount rate of November 2017 417(e)(3) lump sum segment rates of 2.20%, 3.57% and 4.24%) of the difference between the annual pension benefits that would have been payable under The Connecticut Water Company Employee's Retirement Plan had the executive continued to participate in the plan for an additional three years and the vested benefits at the time of termination, pursuant to the executive's employment agreement; (ii) the difference between the benefits which would have been payable to the named executive under any deferred compensation agreement had the named executive continued in the employ of CTWS for an additional three years and the benefits actually payable; (iii) aggregate amounts that would have been contributed on behalf of the named executive under the Connecticut Water Company Employee Savings Plan (401(k)) (401(k)) for an additional three years, plus estimated earnings had the named executive continued to participate.

The table below sets forth the value of each of the benefits listed in the paragraph above, plus the present value (using an assumed discount rate of November 2017 417(e)(3) lump sum segment rates of 2.20%, 3.57% and 4.24% for the pension benefit and 3.90% for the SERP benefit) of the accumulated retirement benefit at April 13, 2018:

Named Executive Officer	Retirement	Retirement	Deferred	Defined	Total
	Benefits: Pension Plan ($)	Benefits: SERP ($)	Compensation ($)	Contribution Plans ($)
David C. Benoit	$ 1,133,148	$ 3,080,135	$ 357,671	$ 26,255	$ 4,597,209
Kristen A. Johnson	$ 353,999	$ 2,142,221	$ 67,215	$ 22,677	$ 2,586,112
Maureen P. Westbrook	$ 1,319,084	$ 1,341,635	$ 89,200	$ 24,338	$ 2,774,257

- (6) The amounts for each of the named executive officers except Mr. Doffek reflect the sum of: (i) a lump sum payment equal in value of the benefits provided to the named executives under the life, health, disability, and welfare benefit programs of CTWS for a period of three years, plus three years of additional credit for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in any such plan for retirees and (ii) three additional years of all other perquisites as the executive was receiving at the date of termination. The amounts reported for Mr. Doffek reflect the estimated value of continued health insurance coverage for 15 months.
- (7) As discussed above under Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Executive Officer Interests, the agreements for Mr. Benoit and Ms. Westbrook provide that in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the executive under the agreement would be subject to the federal excise tax imposed by IRC Section 4999, then a gross-up payment will be made to the named executive. The gross-up payment would compensate the executive for the initial 20% excise tax payable on the executive's excess parachute payments plus the income and excise taxes then becoming payable on such initial gross-up payment. For purposes of this determination, however, the value of a non-competition covenant with an executive would not be considered in determining whether a gross-up payment is required under the executive's agreement. Based on a valuation of the non-compete covenants undertaken in 2015, CTWS has determined that no such excise tax would be payable upon termination of employment for Mr. Benoit nor Ms. Westbrook in connection with the merger. However, if the applicable severance arrangements were not subject to non-compete covenants, CTWS has determined that the amount of the gross-up (assuming an April 13, 2018 termination date), would be $1,514,355 for Mr. Benoit and $1,015,822 for Ms. Westbrook. The actual amount of the gross up payment will only be determined at such time as any severance payments become payable to the executive and will be based on a number of factors, including the value of the non-compete covenants at that time.
- (8) As discussed above under Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Executive Officer Interests, the amounts for Mr. Patla and Ms. Johnson are subject to a best of net cutback provision that may reduce the value of the golden parachute compensation, depending on the value of severance and the number of equity awards payable to the executive. The amounts for Mr. Doffek are subject to the same best of net cutback provision.

CTWS Merger-Related Compensation Proposal

Pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and Rule 14a-2 1(c) of the Exchange Act, CTWS is seeking shareholder approval of a non-binding advisory proposal to approve the compensation of CTWS's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger as disclosed above in this section CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation For CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal beginning on page 108. The non-binding advisory proposal gives CTWS shareholders the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation of CTWS's named executive officers.

Accordingly, CTWS is requesting that its shareholders adopt the following resolution, on a non-binding advisory basis:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to CTWS's named executive officers, in connection with the merger, and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, in each case as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in CTWS Shareholder Advisory Vote On Merger-Related Compensation for CTWS's Named Executive Officers Proposal Golden Parachute Compensation, are hereby APPROVED.

Vote Required

The vote regarding this non-binding advisory proposal on CTWS merger-related compensation is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement. Accordingly, CTWS shareholders may vote to approve the merger agreement and vote not to approve the proposal on CTWS merger-related compensation and vice versa. Because the vote regarding the CTWS merger-related compensation is advisory only, it will not be binding on either CTWS or, following completion of the merger, the combined company. Accordingly, if the merger is approved and completed, the CTWS named executive officers will be eligible to receive the various merger-related compensation that may become payable in connection with the completion of the merger, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the non-binding, advisory vote of CTWS shareholders.

Assuming a quorum is present, approval of the CTWS merger-related compensation requires that the votes favoring the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon exceed the votes opposing the action cast by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal.

Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Combined SJW will consist of twelve members, comprised of: (i) seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the SJW board of directors and (ii) five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the CTWS board of directors. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020.

Combined SJW's bylaws will provide that, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, in connection with each annual or special stockholders meeting at which directors of the combined company are elected from the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, (i) the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to nominate and fill each board seat held by the SJW continuing directors and (ii) the CTWS continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to nominate and fill each board seat held by the CTWS continuing directors. Combined SJW bylaws will also provide that, from and after the effective time of the merger until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of the combined company, (i) all vacancies on the board of directors created by a cessation of service of an SJW continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the SJW continuing directors, and the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to fill all such vacancies, and (ii) all vacancies on the board created by the cessation of service of a CTWS continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the CTWS continuing directors, and the CTWS

continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority of the board of directors to fill all such vacancies. Following the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire the board of directors of the combined company, the CTWS continuing directors will have the authority to designate the lead independent director from among the CTWS continuing directors.

One of the SJW continuing directors will be Eric W. Thornburg, who will serve as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of Combined SJW; in the event that Eric W. Thornburg is not the chairman, chief executive officer and president of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, the SJW board of directors shall determine his replacement after consulting in good faith with the CTWS board of directors. From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, the CTWS continuing directors will be authorized to select a CTWS continuing director (who qualifies as independent under the applicable standards of the NYSE and the policies of Combined SJW) to serve as the lead independent director of Combined SJW, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, other than Mr. Thornburg, in the case of SJW, neither SJW nor CTWS has made a determination as to which directors will be appointed to the board of directors of the combined company.

All of SJW's and its subsidiaries' current officers are expected to continue to serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, the following CTWS officers will serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries, as applicable: (i) David C. Benoit will serve as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and The Connecticut Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (ii) Richard L. Knowlton will serve as president of The Maine Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (iii) Kristen A. Johnson will serve as chief human resource officer of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (iv) Maureen P. Westbrook will serve as senior vice president of external affairs of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (v) Craig J. Patla will serve as vice president, operations of Combined SJW's New England Region; and (vi) Robert J. Doffek will serve as vice president, controller of Combined SJW's New England Region.

From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, David C. Benoit (or such other chief executive officer of CTWS as of the effective time of the merger) shall continue as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and of The Connecticut Water Company, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. Other officers of CTWS and its subsidiaries, effective as of the effective time of the merger, will include the existing officers of CTWS and its respective subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

For additional information regarding the board directors and officers of the combined company following the effectiveness of the merger, see the section entitled "Governance Matters After the Merger" beginning on page 130 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Treatment of SJW Equity Incentive Awards

The merger will not result in a change in control for purposes of any SJW equity incentive awards and accordingly no accelerated vesting of any such awards will be triggered by the merger. All such awards will remain outstanding subject to the same terms and conditions that are applicable to the awards prior to the merger.

CTWS Restricted Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, all outstanding and unvested CTWS RSU awards granted pursuant to the CTWS stock plans will be automatically converted, pursuant to the merger agreement, into restricted stock units of SJW, and all of the terms and restrictions applicable to the CTWS RSUs

(including any deferral elections) will apply to the restricted stock units of SJW. The number of shares of SJW common stock underlying each such converted CTWS RSU award will be determined by multiplying the number of unvested shares of CTWS common stock subject to such award immediately prior to the completion of the merger by the exchange ratio, and rounding down to the nearest whole share. CTWS RSUs are awards that are subject to service-based vesting and are not or are no longer subject to performance-based vesting and entitle the holder to receive shares of CTWS upon vesting, and include awards granted as CTWS PSUs for which performance has been determined prior to the effective date of the merger and which are still subject to service vesting.

CTWS Deferred Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, all outstanding CTWS DSU awards granted pursuant to the CTWS stock plans will be automatically converted, pursuant to the merger agreement, into deferred stock units of SJW, and all of the terms and restrictions applicable to the CTWS DSUs (including any deferral elections) will apply to the deferred stock units of SJW. The number of shares of SJW common stock underlying each such converted CTWS DSU award will be determined by multiplying the number of shares of CTWS common stock subject to such award immediately prior to the completion of the merger by the exchange ratio, and rounding down to the nearest whole share. CTWS DSUs are awards previously granted as CTWS PSUs that are fully vested (based on performance and completion of service vesting) with the underlying shares of CTWS common stock to be issued on a specified date or event, as elected by the participant.

CTWS Performance Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PSU awards that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger will become performance vested as to a number of shares of CTWS common stock determined by calculating the actual level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service-based vesting for each such performance vested CTWS PSU shall be accelerated and each such vested share of CTWS common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a number of shares of SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio, and will continue to be subject to the same dividend equivalents and deferral elections as in effect for such award prior to the completion of the merger, if any and (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PSUs that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting awards covering a number of restricted stock units of SJW equal to the product of (x) the target number of outstanding and unvested share units that was subject to each applicable CTWS PSU immediately prior to closing of the merger and (y) the exchange ratio, with any fractional share units rounded down to the nearest whole share unit.

CTWS Performance Cash Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCU awards that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the amount payable based on the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger but are subject to service vesting, will be accelerated and will be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time (ii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested for an amount based on the actual performance of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger) and the service vesting will be accelerated and the award shall be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time, and (iii) all outstanding and unvested CTWS PCU awards that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting cash awards based on target.

Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger

To complete the merger, SJW and CTWS must obtain approvals or consents from, or make filings with, a number of United States federal and state public utility, antitrust and other regulatory authorities. The material United States federal and state approvals, consents and filings are described below. SJW and CTWS are not currently aware of any other material governmental consents, approvals or filings that are required prior to the parties' completion of the merger other than those described below. If additional approvals, consents and filings are required to complete the merger, SJW and CTWS intend to seek such consents and approvals and make such filings.

SJW and CTWS will seek to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2018. Although SJW and CTWS believe that they will receive the required consents and approvals described below to complete the merger, SJW and CTWS cannot give any assurance as to the timing of these consents and approvals or as to SJW's and CTWS's ultimate ability to obtain such consents or approvals (or any additional consents or approvals which may otherwise become necessary) or that SJW and CTWS will obtain such consents or approvals on satisfactory terms and conditions.

Under the Connecticut General Statutes, SJW and CTWS must file a joint application with and obtain the approval of the PURA regarding the merger. Within 30 business days of the applicants' filing of a completed application, the PURA is required to hold a public hearing, and within 120 days after the filing, make a ruling on the merger, unless SJW and CTWS agree to an extension of the 120 day timeframe. In evaluating the application, the PURA is required to consider whether SJW possesses the financial, technological and managerial suitability to assume ownership and management of CTWS and provide safe, adequate and reliable service to CTWS's customers. SJW and CTWS will have the burden of proving that the merger is in the public interest. Factors that the PURA will likely consider when determining if the merger is in the public interest include potential benefits from the transaction such as financial strength, access to capital for infrastructure investments, operational capability, opportunities to increase the reliability and adequacy of water service, managerial suitability, best practices, employee commitments, improved customer service, community support and environmental stewardship. Ultimately, the PURA may approve the application in whole or in part and upon such terms and conditions as it deems necessary or appropriate or disapprove the application.

Under the Maine Revised Statutes, The Maine Water Company, CTWS's regulated Maine utility, must file an application with and obtain the approval of the MPUC regarding the merger. The MPUC will review and make a ruling on the merger within 60 days of the filing unless the MPUC determines that the necessary investigation cannot be concluded within 60 days, in which case it may extend the review period for up to an additional 120 days. In evaluating the application, the MPUC is required to consider, and The Maine Water Company must demonstrate, that there will be no net harm to ratepayers, such that the benefits to ratepayers are equal to or outweigh any detriment or likely harm to ratepayers. The application may be resolved by settlement and stipulation and/or the MPUC may hold hearings to consider testimony of witnesses, and the MPUC approval may include conditions.

Under the HSR Act, SJW and CTWS must file notifications with the United States Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and observe a mandatory pre-merger waiting period before completing the merger. On April 18, 2018, each of SJW and CTWS filed its notification under the HSR Act. The waiting period under the HSR Act will expire as of 11:59 p.m., Eastern time, on May 18, 2018, unless terminated earlier.

Under FCC regulations implementing provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, an entity holding private radio licenses for internal communications purposes generally must obtain the pre-approval of the FCC before the direct or indirect transfer of control or assignment of those licenses. Subsidiaries of CTWS hold certain FCC licenses for private internal communications and, thus, must obtain prior FCC approval to assign or transfer indirect control of those licenses. The parties believe they will be able to obtain the required FCC pre-approvals.

Table of Contents

In addition, SJW and CTWS are required to obtain (i) the filing and acceptance of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of the State of the State of Connecticut and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of the other jurisdictions in which SJW and CTWS are qualified to do business, consents, registrations, declarations, notices or filings under the securities or blue sky laws of various states, (ii) the filing and acceptance of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, (iii) authorization from the NYSE for the listing of the shares of SJW common stock to be issued as merger consideration, and (iv) any filings and approvals in connection with the DGCL or the CBCA.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, SJW will have appointed an exchange agent, reasonably acceptable to CTWS, to handle the exchange of shares of CTWS common stock for shares of SJW common stock in the merger. At the effective time of the merger, shares of CTWS common stock entitled to receive the merger consideration will be converted into the right to receive shares of SJW common stock without the need for any action by the holders of CTWS common stock.

As promptly as practicable (but in no event later than two business days) after the effective time of the merger, SJW will cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of CTWS common stock (as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) specifying, among other things, that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to any certificates or book-entry shares representing CTWS common stock will pass, only upon delivery of such certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent. The letter will also include instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering shares of CTWS common stock held in book-entry form in exchange for shares of SJW common stock.

After the effective time of the merger, shares of CTWS common stock will no longer be outstanding, will be automatically canceled and will cease to exist and each certificate, if any, that previously represented shares of CTWS common stock will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration as described above, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of SJW common stock and any dividends or other distributions to which the holders of shares of SJW common stock are entitled with a record date after the effective time of the merger. With respect to such shares of SJW common stock deliverable upon the surrender of CTWS common stock, until holders of such CTWS common stock have surrendered such CTWS common stock to the exchange agent for exchange, those holders will not receive dividends or other distributions with respect to such shares of SJW common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger.

SJW will not issue fractional shares of SJW common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Instead, each CTWS shareholder who otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of SJW common stock will be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof representing that stockholder's proportionate interest in the proceeds from the sale by the exchange agent of SJW common stock equal to (i) such fractional amount, multiplied by (ii) the average of the volume weighted average price per share of SJW common stock on the NYSE on each of the five consecutive trading days ending with the last complete trading day prior to the closing date.

Dividend Policy

At the close of business on the SJW record date, [] shares of SJW common stock were outstanding. SJW currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends on shares of its common stock and is permitted to continue doing so under the merger agreement in an amount not to exceed $0.30 per share of SJW common stock in accordance with SJW's current dividend policy, which amount may be increased if the effective time of the merger does not occur on or before March 31, 2019 for any dividends payable on or after May 1, 2019 and prior to the effective time of the merger to an amount not to exceed $0.3120 per share.

At the close of business on the CTWS record date, [] shares of CTWS common stock were outstanding. CTWS currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends on shares of CTWS common stock, and is permitted to continue doing so under the merger agreement, in an amount not to exceed $0.31 per share, which amount may be increased if the effective time of the merger does not occur on or before March 31, 2019 for any dividends payable on or after May 1, 2019 and prior to the effective time of the merger to an amount not to exceed $0.3225 per share.

On January 22, 2018, the CTWS board of directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.20 per share on CTWS voting cumulative preferred stock, Series A, $20 par value (Series A preferred stock), that was paid on April 16, 2018 to shareholders of record as of April 2, 2018, and a quarterly cash dividend of $0.225 on CTWS cumulative preferred stock, Series $0.90, $16 par value (Series $0.90 preferred stock , together with Series A preferred stock, CTWS preferred stock), payable on May 4, 2018 to shareholders of record as of April 20, 2018.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, CTWS agreed to redeem all of the issued and outstanding shares of CTWS preferred stock as promptly as practicable after the date of the merger agreement. On April 3, 2018, CTWS provided notice to the holders of the CTWS preferred stock that (i) the Series A preferred stock will be redeemed on May 4, 2018 for $21.00 per share, plus that portion of the quarterly dividend accrued thereon to May 4, 2018 and all unpaid dividends thereon, if any, and (ii) the Series $0.90 preferred stock will be redeemed on May 4, 2018 for $16.00 per share, plus that portion of the quarterly dividend accrued thereon to May 4, 2018 and all unpaid dividends thereon (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the quarterly dividend of $0.225 per share of Series $0.90 preferred stock declared by the CTWS board of directors that is payable on May 4, 2018). On and after May 4, 2018, the CTWS preferred stock shall be deemed to no longer be outstanding, dividends thereon shall cease to accrue and all rights with respect to such CTWS preferred stock will cease and terminate, except for the rights of the holders thereof to receive the applicable redemption price for the shares of CTWS preferred stock so redeemed, but without interest, upon surrender of such shares.

Upon completion of the merger, any future determination regarding dividend or distribution payments will be at the discretion of the combined company's board of directors, subject to applicable limitations under Delaware law.

Listing of SJW Common Stock; De-Listing and Deregistration of CTWS Stock

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger be authorized for listing, and SJW and CTWS have agreed to cooperate to cause such shares to be listed, on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

Upon completion of the merger, the CTWS common stock currently listed on the NASDAQ will be de-listed from the NASDAQ and de-registered under the Exchange Act as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time of the merger.

No Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware and Connecticut law, as applicable, holders of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. See the section entitled "No Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 176 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

SJW Voting and Support Agreements

In connection with the merger agreement, on March 14, 2018, SJW entered into SJW voting and support agreements with certain holders of shares of SJW common stock (collectively, the "SJW supporting parties"). As of the record date for the SJW stockholders meeting, the SJW supporting parties collectively beneficially owned approximately []% of the outstanding shares of SJW common stock.

Pursuant to and during the term of the SJW voting and support agreements, each of the SJW supporting parties agreed, among other things and subject to certain conditions and exceptions:

at any meeting of SJW stockholders and each action by written consent in lieu of a meeting, or at any postponement or adjournment thereof, to vote its respective SJW supporting party shares:

in favor of the approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger;

in favor of the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment;

in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting to a later date, if there are not sufficient votes to approve of the matters described in the immediately preceding two bullets;

in favor of any other matter considered at any such meeting of SJW stockholders that the SJW board of directors has (i) determined is necessary or desirable for the consummation of the merger, (ii) disclosed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or other written materials distributed to all SJW stockholders and (iii) recommended that SJW stockholders approve or adopt;

against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of SJW in the merger agreement;

against any takeover proposal in respect of SJW; and against any agreement, amendment of the SJW certificate of incorporation (other than the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) or SJW bylaws (other than as included as Exhibit C of the merger agreement) or other action that would delay, postpone or discourage the consummation of the merger;

not to, and not to agree to, directly or indirectly, (i) sell, transfer, give, pledge, encumber, assign or otherwise dispose of any of its respective SJW supporting party shares; (ii) deposit such shares into a voting trust or grant any proxies or enter into a voting agreement, power of attorney or voting trust with respect to them; (iii) otherwise permit such shares to become subject to liens; or (iv) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of such SJW supporting party set forth in the respective SJW voting and support agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect or have the effect of preventing, disabling or delaying such SJW supporting party from performing any of his obligations thereunder, unless, in each of case (i), (ii) and (iii), in respect of the merger or in connection with bona fide state planning purposes for the benefit of such SJW supporting party's affiliates or beneficiaries; and not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, cause, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information) any inquiries or proposals that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any takeover proposal in respect of SJW; (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations with any third party regarding any takeover proposal in respect of SJW (other than to inform any person of such prohibition); or (iii) enter into any agreement related to any takeover proposal in respect of SJW, unless SJW notifies such SJW supporting party that SJW is permitted to take similar actions in response to a takeover proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

The obligations of the SJW supporting parties under the SJW voting and support agreements will remain in effect until the earlier of certain termination events set forth in each of the SJW voting and support agreements, including, (i) the written agreement of the parties thereto to terminate such SJW voting and support agreement, (ii) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, (iii) the approval of both the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, (iv) the amendment or modification of the merger agreement, without the prior written consent of such SJW supporting party, that results in an increase in the exchange ratio or merger

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following section summarizes material provisions of the merger agreement, which is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The rights and obligations of SJW and CTWS are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. SJW stockholders and CTWS shareholders are urged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety as well as this joint proxy statement/prospectus before making any decisions regarding the merger, including approving the merger agreement, the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, as applicable.

The merger agreement is included as Annex A in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to provide you with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any factual information about SJW or CTWS. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the merger agreement. These representations and warranties have been made solely for the benefit of the parties to the merger agreement and:

may not be intended as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk between the parties in the event the statements therein prove to be inaccurate; have been qualified by certain disclosures that were made between the parties in connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, which disclosures are not reflected in the merger agreement itself; and may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by you or other investors.

Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read together with the information provided elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 181 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement.

Terms of the Merger; Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, and in accordance with the CBCA, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub, a Connecticut corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of SJW, will merge with and into CTWS. CTWS will be the surviving corporation in the merger and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of SJW. At the effective time of the merger, each share of CTWS common stock (other than shares of CTWS common stock owned by SJW, Merger Sub, CTWS or any of their respective subsidiaries and not held on behalf of third parties, which will be canceled and retired and cease to exist) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, will be converted into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock (the exchange ratio), with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares (the merger consideration). This exchange ratio will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of either SJW common stock or CTWS common stock between the date of signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

However, if from the date of the merger agreement until the effective time of the merger, the number of outstanding shares of SJW common stock or CTWS common stock changes into a different number of shares or a different class, by reason of any stock dividend, recapitalization, split, reverse split, combination, consolidation, subdivision, reclassification or exchange of shares, or similar event, then the exchange ratio will be appropriately adjusted to provide SJW and the holders of CTWS common stock the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such event.

SJW will not issue fractional shares of SJW common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Instead, each CTWS shareholder who otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of SJW common stock will be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof equal to (i) such fractional amount, multiplied by (ii) the average of the volume weighted average price per share of SJW common stock on the NYSE on each of the five consecutive trading days ending with the last complete trading day prior to the closing date.

Assumption of CTWS Stock Plans

At the effective time of the merger, SJW will assume the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program, the CTWS 2004 Performance Stock Program and the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program, as well as outstanding equity awards as described on page 158. Following the effective time of the merger, SJW may grant equity awards to certain employees covering SJW common stock to the extent permitted by applicable NYSE rules, using the share reserve available under the assumed CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program immediately prior to the effective time of the merger as converted into SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable NYSE rules, dividend equivalents credited to assumed CTWS awards may be issued from the reserve available under the assumed stock plan from which the awards were granted. As of April 13, 2018, 370,293, 259,712 and 218,105 shares of CTWS common stock were available for issuance under the 2014 Performance Stock Program, the CTWS 2004 Stock Program and the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program, respectively.

SJW Certificate of Incorporation Amendment

The merger agreement provides that, subject to approval by the holders of SJW common stock, prior to the effective time of the merger, SJW will adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment increasing the number of authorized shares of SJW common stock, par value $0.001 per share, from 36 million to 72 million and increasing the total authorized SJW capital stock from 37 million shares to 73 million shares, a copy of the form of which is included as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The SJW certificate of incorporation amendment will become effective immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Completion of the Merger

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the closing of the merger will take place within three business days after all conditions to the completion of the merger have been satisfied or waived, or at such time and date as may be agreed in writing between SJW and CTWS. The merger will be effective when the parties file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of the State of the State of Connecticut in accordance with the CBCA, or at such later time as the parties agree and specify in the certificate of merger.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, SJW will appoint an exchange agent, reasonably acceptable to CTWS, to handle the exchange of shares of CTWS common stock for the merger consideration. At the effective time of the merger, shares of CTWS common stock entitled to receive the merger consideration will be converted into the right to receive shares of SJW common stock without the need for any action by the holders of CTWS common stock.

As promptly as practicable (but in no event later than two business days) after the effective time of the merger, SJW will cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of CTWS common stock (as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) specifying, among other things, that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to any certificates or book-entry shares representing CTWS common stock will pass, only upon delivery of such certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent. The letter will also include instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering shares of CTWS common stock held in book-entry form in exchange for shares of SJW common stock.

After the effective time of the merger, shares of CTWS common stock will no longer be outstanding, will be automatically canceled and will cease to exist, and each certificate, if any, that previously represented shares of CTWS common stock will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of SJW common stock as described above, as well as any dividends or other distributions declared or made with respect to shares of SJW common stock to which the holders of shares of SJW common stock are entitled and which have a record date after the effective time of the merger. With respect to such shares of SJW common stock deliverable upon the surrender of CTWS common stock, until holders of such CTWS common stock have surrendered such CTWS common stock to the exchange agent for exchange, those holders will not receive dividends or other distributions declared or made with respect to shares of SJW common stock to which the holders of shares of SJW common stock are entitled and which have a record date after the effective time of the merger.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains reciprocal representations and warranties. Each of SJW and CTWS has made representations and warranties regarding, among other things:

corporate organization, standing and corporate power;

ownership of subsidiaries;

capital structure;

authority with respect to the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, the due and valid execution and delivery of the merger agreement and enforceability of the merger agreement;

absence of conflicts with, or violations of, organizational documents, applicable law and other contracts;

required federal and state regulatory filings and consents and approvals of governmental entities;

certain SEC filings and the financial statements contained in such filings;

absence of undisclosed liabilities (other than certain specified exceptions);

controls and procedures for required disclosures of financial and non-financial information in certain reports filed with the SEC;

regulation as a utility under applicable state law;

accuracy of information supplied or to be supplied for use in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

absence of certain changes and events from January 1, 2017 to the date of execution of the merger agreement;

tax matters;

employee benefit matters and compliance regarding the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA); collective bargaining agreements and other employee and labor matters;

absence of certain legal proceedings;

compliance with applicable laws;

possession of, and compliance with, applicable permits; compliance with applicable federal and state drinking water standards and other water quality laws;

environmental matters;

material contracts and the absence of breaches of material contracts;

real property, including owned and leased property as well as easements and other forms of real property;

intellectual property;

insurance;

fees that may be payable to investment bankers, financial advisors or others in connection with the merger;

opinions from financial advisors;

inapplicability of the Investment Company Act of 1940;

affiliate transactions; and

absence of appraisal rights (solely in the case of CTWS).

The merger agreement also contains certain representations and warranties of SJW with respect to its wholly owned subsidiary, Merger Sub, including, without limitation, corporate organization, lack of prior business activities, capitalization and authority with respect to the execution and delivery of the merger agreement.

Many of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement are qualified by a materiality or material adverse effect standard (that is, they will not be deemed to be untrue or incorrect unless their failure to be true or correct, individually or in the aggregate, would, as the case may be, be material or have a material adverse effect). Under the merger agreement, a material adverse effect means, with respect to any person, any fact, circumstance, effect, change, event or development that materially adversely affects the business, properties, financial condition or results of operations of such person and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, except to the extent that it results from or arises out of the following:

changes or conditions generally affecting the industries in which such person or its subsidiaries operate;

general economic or political conditions or securities, credit, financial or other capital markets conditions;

any failure, in and of itself, by such person to meet any internal or published projections, forecasts, estimates or predictions in respect of revenues, earnings or other financial or operating metrics for any period;

entry into the merger agreement or public announcement regarding or the consummation of the merger or other transactions contemplated thereby;

any change in the market price or trading volume of such person's securities;

any change in applicable law or U.S. GAAP;

geopolitical conditions, the outbreak or escalation of hostilities, any acts of war, sabotage or terrorism, or any escalation or worsening of the same;

the occurrence of natural disasters, force majeure events or weather conditions adverse to the business of such person or its subsidiaries;

any proceeding brought or threatened by shareholders of CTWS or SJW asserting allegations of breach of fiduciary duty relating to the merger agreement, or otherwise arising out of or relating to the merger agreement, the merger and the related transactions, or violations of securities laws in connection with this joint proxy statement/prospectus or registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part;

changes in interest or currency exchange rates; or any actions required to be taken pursuant to the express terms of the merger agreement;

except, in the case of the first, second, sixth and seventh bullets above, to the extent such change or condition has a materially disproportionate effect on such person and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to others in the industries in which such person and any of its subsidiaries operate.

The representation and warranties do not survive the effective time of the merger.

Conduct of Business Pending the Effective Time

In the merger agreement, SJW and CTWS have each agreed that until the effective time of the merger, subject to certain specified exceptions or otherwise expressly permitted or required by the merger agreement, and unless the other party consents in writing (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), they and their respective subsidiaries will conduct their business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice in all material respects.

In addition, each of SJW and CTWS has agreed that until the effective time of the merger, subject to certain specified exceptions or otherwise expressly permitted or required by the merger agreement, it and its respective subsidiaries will not do any of the following without the prior written consent of the other party (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed):

declare, set aside or pay any dividends or other distributions in respect of any of its capital stock, voting securities or other equity interests, other than:

in the case of SJW, regular quarterly cash dividends in an amount not to exceed $0.30 per share of SJW common stock in accordance with SJW's current dividend policy, which amount may be increased if the effective time of the merger does not occur on or before March 31, 2019 for any dividends payable on or after May 1, 2019 and prior to the effective time of the merger to an amount not to exceed $0.3120 per share; in the case of CTWS, regular quarterly cash dividends in accordance with CTWS's current dividend policy, in respect of: (i) shares of CTWS common stock in an amount not to exceed $0.31 per share, which amount may be increased if the effective time of the merger does not occur on or before March 31, 2019 for any dividends payable on or after May 1, 2019 and prior to the effective time of the merger to an amount not to exceed $0.3225 per share; (ii) CTWS's Series $0.90 preferred stock, in an amount not to exceed $0.225 per share, until the CTWS preferred shares have been redeemed as required by the merger agreement; and (iii) CTWS's Series A preferred stock, in an amount not to exceed $0.20 per share, until the CTWS preferred shares have been redeemed as required by the merger agreement;

in the case of SJW and CTWS, dividends and distributions by a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary to its parent and as required in order to ensure that holders of SJW common stock and CTWS common stock do not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter;

split, reverse split, combine, consolidate, subdivide or reclassify any of its capital stock, voting securities or other equity interests, or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for the same (or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for its capital stock, voting securities or other equity interests), with limited exceptions;

repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, or offer to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, any of its or its subsidiaries' capital stock or voting securities, or other of its or its subsidiaries' equity interests, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any of such capital stock or voting securities, or other of its or its subsidiaries' equity interests, or any warrants, calls, options or other rights to acquire any of the same, with limited exceptions;

issue, deliver, sell, grant, pledge or otherwise encumber or subject to any lien any shares of capital stock of, or other interests in, the applicable company or any of its subsidiaries, other than:

in the case of SJW, the issuance of shares upon the settlement of SJW restricted stock units or SJW performance share units or upon the settlement of deferred share units or the distribution of deferred shares, in each case outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement in accordance with their terms on the date of the merger agreement or issued after the date of the merger agreement in accordance with the merger agreement, and the issuance of common shares pursuant to SJW's 2014 Employee Stock Purchase Plan; and in the case of CTWS, the issuance of shares upon the vesting of CTWS PSUs outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement in accordance with their terms on the date of the merger agreement and the issuance of shares pursuant to CTWS's Third Amended and Restated Dividend Reinvestment and Common Stock Purchase Plan as in effect on the date of the merger agreement (which issuance shall not occur at a discount);

amend its organizational documents, other than, in the case of SJW, the SJW's certificate of incorporation amendment included as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus or as required by law;

except for actions required by the terms of any benefit plan or collective bargaining agreement as in effect on the date of the merger agreement or as required by applicable law:

grant to any employee an increase in compensation or benefits or pay or award any bonuses or incentive compensation, with limited exceptions, including increases in annual salary or wage rate in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice that do not exceed 5% in the aggregate;

grant to any employee an increase in change in control, retention, severance or termination pay, and in the case of CTWS, grant any new change in control, retention, severance or termination pay to any existing or new personnel;

except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, grant or amend any equity or equity-based compensation awards, enter into or modify any existing employment or consulting agreement or hire any employee with annual compensation in excess of $200,000;

establish, adopt, enter into or amend in any material respect any material benefit plan;

take any action to accelerate the time of vesting or payment of any material compensation or benefits under any benefit plan, other than, in the case of CTWS, discretionary acceleration of the vesting of any equity-based award upon the retirement of the holder on or after age 60 (where such retirement occurs between the date of the merger agreement and the effective date of the merger) under the applicable stock plan in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; or except as may be required by U.S. GAAP, materially change any actuarial or other assumptions used to calculate funding obligations with respect to any benefit plan or materially change the manner in which contributions to such plans are made or the basis on which such contributions are determined; communicate with personnel regarding the compensation, benefits or other treatment they will receive following completion of the merger, unless any such communication is about the compensation, benefits or other treatment any person will receive as set forth in the merger agreement or consistent with communications previously agreed upon in writing by SJW and CTWS;

make any change in financial accounting methods, principles or practices, except as required by a change in U.S. GAAP or law following the date of the merger agreement;

sell, lease, license, mortgage, sell and leaseback or otherwise encumber or subject to any lien, or otherwise dispose of, any properties or assets or any interests therein that have a fair market value in excess of $3 million, except in relation to mortgages, liens, pledges to secure indebtedness for borrowed money otherwise permitted by the following bullet, and easements, licenses and dispositions of obsolete or worn-out equipment in the ordinary course of business;

incur any indebtedness, other than (i) incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice not to exceed $10 million in the aggregate, (ii) to replace existing indebtedness in a manner permitted by the terms of the merger agreement, (iii) guarantees of indebtedness of or by wholly owned subsidiaries and (iv) indebtedness incurred under SJW's and CTWS's revolving credit facility existing as of the date of the merger agreement in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or as reasonably required to finance any permitted capital expenditure; make any capital expenditure, other than (i) in accordance with the capital budget as disclosed to the other party, plus a 5% variance on such capital budget, (ii) capital expenditures related to operational emergencies, equipment failures or outages and (iii) capital expenditures required by applicable law or prudent industry practices;

enter into, extend, renew, replace, amend, modify or terminate any contract, or take any other action or omit to take any other action, in each case, that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impede, interfere with, hinder or delay the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

enter into, extend, renew, replace, amend or modify any material contract to the extent consummation of the merger or compliance with the provisions of the merger agreement would reasonably be expected to conflict with, result in any violation of or default under, give rise to a right of termination, cancellation, or acceleration of any obligation, any obligation to make an offer to purchase or redeem any indebtedness or capital stock, voting securities or other equity interests, or any loss of a material benefit under, result in the creation of any lien upon material properties or assets, require SJW, CTWS or any of their respective subsidiaries to license or transfer any of its material properties or assets under, give rise to any material increased, additional, accelerated, guaranteed right or entitlements of any third party under or result in any material alteration of any provision of, such contract;

enter into, extend, renew, replace, materially amend, materially modify or terminate any collective bargaining agreement applicable to employees, other than as required by law or pursuant to the terms of such collective bargaining agreements; voluntarily recognize or certify any labor union or other similar organization as the bargaining representative for any current or former director, officer, consultant or employee;

waive, release, assign, settle or compromise any claim, action or proceeding, other than waivers, releases, assignments, settlements or compromises that do not create obligations of such party or its respective subsidiaries (other than (i) in connection with rate case proceedings before applicable state regulatory agencies or commissions and (ii) the payment of monetary damages not exceeding $0.5 million individually or $1 million in the aggregate (disregarding any portion of such payment covered by applicable insurance policies));

other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, extend, renew, replace, amend, modify, terminate any material contract or enter into, extend, renew, replace, amend, modify or terminate any contract that would be a material contract if it had been entered into prior to the date of the merger agreement;

enter into any new line of business;

take any actions or omit to take any actions that would or would reasonably be expected to result in any of the merger agreement's closing conditions not being satisfied or result in new or additional required approvals from any governmental entity in connection with, or prevent or materially impede, interfere with, hinder or delay the consummation of, the merger or other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

make, change or rescind any material tax election, material method of tax accounting or any annual tax accounting period (except to the extent such action is taken in response to changes enacted by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act and such action is reasonably determined to be in its best interests), make a request for a tax ruling or enter into a closing agreement, or settle or compromise any audit, assessment, tax claim or other controversy relating to material taxes, file any material amended tax return or surrender any material right to claim a refund or offset of any taxes; or authorize, or commit or agree to take, any of the foregoing actions.

No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals

Each of SJW and CTWS has agreed that, from the time of the execution of the merger agreement until the earlier of the effective time of the merger and the termination of the merger agreement, it will not, and it will not authorize or permit any of its affiliates or any of its or their representatives to, (i) directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any takeover proposal (as defined below) or any inquiry or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal or (ii) directly or indirectly participate in any discussions or negotiations with any person (other than its representatives) regarding, or furnish to any person (other than its representatives) any non-public information with respect to, any takeover proposal or any inquiry or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal. Each of SJW and CTWS has also agreed to, and to cause its subsidiaries and direct its and their respective representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions or negotiations with any person conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with respect to any takeover proposal or any inquiry or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal, request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously furnished to, and to immediately terminate all physical and electronic dataroom access previously granted to, any such person or its representatives.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to obtaining the respective shareholder approvals required by the merger agreement, in response to a bona fide written takeover proposal that the SJW board of directors or CTWS board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as defined below) and that did not result from a material breach of the obligations described in the preceding paragraph, SJW or CTWS may, subject to procedures and notification requirements included in the merger agreement, (x) furnish information with respect to such party to the person making such takeover proposal (and its representatives), pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement, and (y) participate in discussions regarding the terms of such takeover proposal and the negotiation of such terms with, and only with, the person making such takeover proposal (and such person's representatives).

A takeover proposal means any proposal or offer (whether or not in writing) made by a third party relating to any (i) merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, other business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving SJW or CTWS, or any of their respective subsidiaries, (ii) sale, lease, contribution or other disposition, directly or indirectly (including by way of merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, other business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, partnership, joint venture, sale of capital stock or voting securities of, or other equity interests in, a subsidiary of SJW or CTWS or otherwise) of any business or assets of SJW or CTWS, or any of their respective subsidiaries representing 15% or more of the consolidated revenues, net income or assets of SJW or CTWS and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) issuance, sale or other disposition, directly or indirectly, to any person or group, of securities or derivative securities representing 15% or more of the total outstanding voting power of SJW or CTWS, (iv) transaction in which any person would acquire, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership, or the right to acquire beneficial ownership, or formation of any group which beneficially owns or has the right to acquire beneficial ownership of, 15% or more of the total outstanding voting power of SJW or CTWS or (v) combination of the foregoing (in each case, other than the merger).

A superior proposal means any bona fide written offer made by a third party or group pursuant to which such third party (or in a merger or consolidation involving such party, the stockholders of such third party) or group would acquire, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the shares of SJW common stock or CTWS common stock or all or substantially all of the assets of SJW or CTWS and its respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (i) on terms which such party's board of directors determines in its reasonable judgment (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) to be superior to the merger, taking into account all of the terms and conditions of such offer (including the legal, financial, regulatory, the availability and terms of any required financing, timing and other aspects of the proposal, the identity of the person making the proposal, any risks of non-consummation of the proposal and any other factors, including, in the case of CTWS, those specified in Article Fifth, Section (d) of CTWS's certificate of incorporation and Section 33-756(g) of the CBCA, that such party's board of directors determines are appropriate under the circumstances) and the merger agreement (including any changes proposed by the other party to the terms of the merger agreement) and (ii) that is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal, and is fully financed and for which financing (if required) is fully committed and reasonably likely to be obtained.

The merger agreement requires that SJW and CTWS, as applicable, promptly, and in any event no later than 24 hours, after such party receives any takeover proposal or any inquiry or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal, notify in writing the other party of any of the foregoing occurrences, the material terms and conditions of such takeover proposal or inquiry or proposal (including any changes thereto) and the identity of the party making such request. Each party will keep the other party informed in all material respects on a prompt basis (and in any event within 24 hours) of the status and details (including any change to the terms thereof) of such takeover proposal and will provide to the other party as soon as practicable after receipt or delivery thereof copies of any such takeover proposal or inquiry or proposal received in writing (including drafts of acquisition agreements (as defined below)).

Changes in Board Recommendations

Each of SJW and CTWS agreed that neither its board of directors nor any committee thereof would (i) withdraw or modify or qualify in any manner adverse to the other party the recommendation to its shareholders to approve of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the share issuance, charter amendment or merger agreement, as applicable), or propose publicly to do the same, or adopt, approve, recommend or declare advisable, or propose publicly to adopt, approve, recommend or declare advisable, any takeover proposal (an adverse recommendation change) or (ii) approve, recommend or declare advisable, or propose publicly to approve, recommend or declare advisable, or allow SJW or CTWS or its respective affiliates, as applicable, to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, alliance agreement, partnership agreement or other agreement or arrangement (each, an acquisition agreement) constituting or that would reasonably be expected to lead to any takeover proposal.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, at any time prior to obtaining the shareholder approval required by the merger agreement, the SJW board of directors or the CTWS board of directors, as applicable, may make an adverse recommendation change if (i) such board of directors provides the other party 96 hours prior written notice (a notice of recommendation change) of its intention to take such action and specifying the reasons therefor, including the terms and conditions of any takeover proposal or superior proposal that is the basis of the adverse recommendation change, (ii) during the 96 hours following such written notice, if requested by the other party, the board of directors effecting the adverse recommendation change has negotiated in good faith with the other party regarding any revisions to the terms of the merger agreement proposed by the other party and (iii) at the end of the 96-hour period described in clause (ii), such board of directors, as applicable, concludes in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, taking into account any changes to the terms of the merger agreement proposed by the other party in response to a notice of recommendation change or otherwise) that the failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of any takeover proposal or superior proposal giving rise to a notice of adverse recommendation change requires a new notice as described above except that the 96-hour period referred to will be reduced to 72 hours in connection with such amendment.

Efforts to Obtain Required Stockholder Votes

Under the terms of the merger agreement, SJW and CTWS agreed to each set a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable. SJW and CTWS also agreed that each will each use its reasonable best efforts to hold its respective shareholders meetings on the same date.

SJW has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to solicit stockholder approval for the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and for the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. The SJW board of directors has approved the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the amendment to SJW's certificate of incorporation and has adopted resolutions directing that such proposals be submitted to SJW stockholders for their approval.

CTWS has also agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to solicit shareholder approval for the proposal to approve the merger agreement. The CTWS board of directors has approved and adopted the merger agreement and declared the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, advisable to and in the best interests of CTWS and its shareholders and adopted resolutions directing that the merger agreement be submitted to CTWS shareholders for their approval.

In the event of a valid termination of the merger agreement, neither party will be under any obligation to hold a special meeting.

Efforts to Complete the Merger

Each party to the merger agreement has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws to consummate and make effective the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as soon as reasonably practicable, including using reasonable best efforts to accomplish the following:

ensure that no takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to the merger agreement, the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement;

file with the SEC a definitive form of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the SEC's declaration of effectiveness of such Form S-4, and filing with the SEC other reports or filings required in connection with the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

comply with, and make filings under, the HSR Act;

make all filings, submissions and registrations required to be made to the PURA and the MPUC;

make all other applications, notices, registrations, filings, reports and other documents required to be filed with any other governmental entity;

give the other party prompt notice of the commencement or threat of commencement of any legal proceeding by or before a governmental entity with respect to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and keep the other party informed as to the status of such legal proceeding or threat;

contest and resist any legal proceeding by or before any governmental entity with respect to the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order preventing or restricting consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; execute and deliver any additional documents, certificates, agreements and instruments reasonably requested by the other party to evidence or reflect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and obtain each approval, consent, ratification, permission, waiver of authorization required to be obtained from governmental entities or third parties to certain material contracts.

Each of SJW and CTWS has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to make all filings required with respect to the merger as promptly as reasonably practicable. In connection with the receipt of any necessary approvals or clearances of a governmental entity, SJW, CTWS and their respective subsidiaries may be required to sell, divest or hold separate or otherwise take actions that limit its freedom, or after the merger, the freedom of action of Combined SJW or any of its affiliates with respect to, or its ability to retain, its subsidiaries or any of their respective businesses, product lines or assets, unless and to the extent such divestiture or other action would, individually or in the aggregate, have or reasonably be expected to have a regulatory material adverse effect. The term regulatory material adverse effect means any fact, circumstance, effect, change, event or development that materially adversely affects the business, properties, financial condition or result of operations of SJW and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, CTWS and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or the Combined SJW (with each of SJW and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and the Combined SJW deemed to be the size and scale of CTWS and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole).

Governance Matters After the Merger

Board of Directors

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of Combined SJW will consist of twelve members, comprised of: (i) seven of the directors of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the SJW board of directors and (ii) five of the directors of CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, to be selected by the CTWS board of directors. Unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW, such board composition will continue until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020.

One of the SJW continuing directors will be Eric W. Thornburg, who will serve as the chairman, chief executive officer and president of Combined SJW; in the event that Eric W. Thornburg is not the chairman, chief executive officer and president of SJW immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, the SJW board of directors shall determine his replacement after consulting in good faith with the CTWS board of directors. From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, the CTWS continuing directors will be authorized to select a CTWS continuing director (who qualifies as independent under the applicable standards of the NYSE and the policies of Combined SJW) to serve as the lead independent director of Combined SJW, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW.

Under the Combined SJW bylaws, consisting of the SJW bylaws as amended and restated to include the amendment that is attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, in connection with each stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected from and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, (i) the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority to nominate, on behalf of the board of directors of Combined SJW, directors for election to fill each board seat held by the SJW continuing directors and (ii) the CTWS continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority to nominate, on behalf of the board of directors of Combined SJW, directors for election to fill each board seat held by the CTWS continuing directors, in the case of each of (i) and (ii), unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW and subject to each such nominee having the qualifications required of directors by the Combined SJW nomination of directors policies.

Similarly, from and after the effective time of the merger until the termination of the term of office that commences upon the close of the annual stockholders meeting at which directors of Combined SJW are elected during the calendar year ended December 31, 2020, (i) all vacancies on the board of directors created by a cessation of service of an SJW continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the SJW continuing directors, and the SJW continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority to fill all vacancies on the board of directors of Combined SJW created by the cessation of service of an SJW continuing director, and (ii) all vacancies on the board of directors created by the cessation of service of a CTWS continuing director will be filled by a nominee or appointee selected by the CTWS continuing directors, and the CTWS continuing directors will have the exclusive power and authority to fill all vacancies on the board of directors of Combined SJW created by the cessation of service of a CTWS continuing director, in the case of each of (i) and (ii), unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW and subject to each such nominee having the qualifications required of directors by the Combined SJW nomination of directors policies.

SJW and CTWS will take all actions necessary to effect the governance matters set forth above, among which SJW will amend and restate the SJW bylaws to include the amendment that is attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

At the effective time of the merger or as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter, Combined SJW will cause the boards of directors of each of its subsidiaries that is subject to regulation as a public utility or public service company (including CTWS), except for The Heritage Village Water Company, to have the same membership as the board of directors of Combined SJW. The Heritage Village Water Company board of directors is required to include a certain number of directors who are representatives of the towns of Southbury, Middlebury and Oxford, Connecticut.

Other Officers

All of SJW's and its subsidiaries' current officers are expected to continue to serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, the following CTWS officers will serve as officers of Combined SJW or its subsidiaries, as applicable: (i) David C. Benoit will serve as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and The Connecticut Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (ii) Richard L. Knowlton will serve as president of The Maine Water Company, an indirect subsidiary of Combined SJW; (iii) Kristen A. Johnson will serve as chief human resource officer of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (iv) Maureen P. Westbrook will serve as senior vice president of external affairs of Combined SJW and its subsidiaries; (v) Craig J. Patla will serve as vice president, operations of Combined SJW's New England Region; and (vi) Robert J. Doffek will serve as vice president, controller of Combined SJW's New England Region.

From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, David C. Benoit (or such other chief executive officer of CTWS as of the effective time of the merger) shall continue as president of Combined SJW's New England Region and of The Connecticut Water Company, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW.

If any such person is not employed by CTWS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, SJW will determine who will serve in such position after consulting in good faith with the CTWS board of directors and management regarding potential candidates. Other officers of CTWS and its subsidiaries, effective as of the effective time of the merger, will include the existing officers of CTWS and its respective subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Amendments to Governance Provisions

From and after the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2020, these governance provisions may be amended or repealed, and any bylaw provision or other resolution inconsistent with these governance provisions may be adopted, only by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. After December 31, 2020, these governance provisions in the Combined SJW bylaws will automatically terminate and without further action become void and be of no further force and effect. Combined SJW will not, directly or indirectly, support any proposal, take any action, or omit to take any action that would, in any case, be inconsistent with these governance provisions.

Employee Benefit Matters

SJW and CTWS have agreed that following completion of the merger:

until December 31, 2019, (i) SJW will, or will cause its subsidiaries to, provide CTWS employees with (A) the same base compensation and no less favorable target annual cash incentive opportunities as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (B) benefits (other than severance and change in control benefits) that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to such benefits in effect for such employees immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (C) severance benefits that are no less favorable than the severance benefits SJW provides to similarly situated employees of SJW and its subsidiaries (except that SJW will not be required to provide such benefits to CTWS employees who are entitled to severance benefits under CTWS employment agreements or the CTWS Change in Control Severance Plan which will continue to apply to such CTWS employees in accordance with their terms), and (ii) each CTWS employee who received a long-term incentive award under the CTWS stock plans in 2018 will be granted an equity incentive award (with the target and maximum dollar values of such award equal to or greater than the target and maximum dollar values of the last award granted to such CTWS employee under the CTWS stock plans prior to the effective time of the merger) under the SJW stock plans for each calendar year following the effective time of the merger until December 31, 2019 (other than a calendar year in which such CTWS employee received an equity incentive award under a CTWS stock plan), which will be made at the same time and subject to the same terms and conditions as awards made to SJW's executive officers; and to the extent any CTWS employee is eligible to participate under any employee benefit plan of SJW or its subsidiaries following the closing, SJW will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, give credit under such SJW employee benefit plans to CTWS employees for all service with CTWS or its subsidiaries prior to the effective time of the merger for certain purposes and to the extent such service was taken into account or recognized by CTWS or an applicable subsidiary, but not to the extent crediting such service would result in duplication of benefits.

Treatment of CTWS Equity Awards

CTWS Restricted Share Units and CTWS Deferred Share Units. Upon completion of the merger, (i) all outstanding and unvested CTWS RSUs and (ii) all outstanding CTWS DSUs will be automatically converted pursuant to the merger agreement into, respectively, restricted stock units of SJW and deferred stock units of SJW based on the exchange ratio with any fractional units rounded down to the nearest whole unit and will continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions (including any deferral elections) as were in effect for such awards immediately prior to the completion of the merger. CTWS RSUs are awards that are subject to service-based vesting and are not or are no longer subject to performance-based vesting and entitle the holder to receive shares of CTWS upon vesting, and include awards granted as CTWS PSUs for which performance has been determined prior to the effective date of the merger and which are still subject to service vesting. CTWS DSUs are awards previously granted as CTWS PSUs that are fully vested (based on performance and completion of service vesting) with the underlying shares of CTWS common stock to be issued on a specified date or event as elected by the participant.

CTWS Performance Share Units. All outstanding and unvested CTWS PSUs that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested as to a number of shares of CTWS common stock determined by calculating the actual level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses associated with the merger) and the service-based vesting for each such performance vested CTWS PSU shall be accelerated and each such vested share of CTWS common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a number of shares of SJW common stock based on the exchange ratio, and will continue to be subject to the same dividend equivalents and deferral elections as in effect for such award prior to the completion of the merger, if any. All outstanding and unvested CTWS PSUs that were granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting awards covering a number of restricted stock units of SJW equal to the product of (x) the target number of outstanding and unvested share units that was subject to each applicable CTWS PSU award immediately prior to closing of the merger and (y) the exchange ratio, with any fractional share units rounded down to the nearest whole share unit.

CTWS Performance Cash Units. All outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs granted prior to the date of the merger agreement, and for which the amount payable based on the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger but are subject to service vesting, will be accelerated and will be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time. All outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs that were granted prior to the date of the merger agreement and for which the level of attainment of the performance goals applicable to the award has not been determined by the CTWS board of directors prior to the effective date of the merger, will become performance vested for an amount based on the actual performance of the performance goals applicable to the award up to the effective time of the merger (as may be adjusted to eliminate the impact of any non-recurring costs and expenses associated with the merger) and the service vesting will be accelerated and the award shall be paid out in cash in such amount at the effective time. All outstanding and unvested CTWS PCUs granted on or after the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by SJW and automatically converted into time-based vesting cash awards based on target.

CTWS Restricted Stock. CTWS's non-employee directors have historically received an annual grant of restricted shares of CTWS common stock on or around the date of the annual CTWS shareholders' meeting, which vest on the first anniversary of the grant date. Pursuant to CTWS's form of restricted stock award agreement to non-employee directors, outstanding restricted stock awards will vest in full on a change-in-control, including the closing of the merger. In accordance with the merger agreement, on the closing of the merger, issued and outstanding CTWS common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of SJW.

For additional information regarding treatment of CTWS equity awards, see the section entitled "The Merger Treatment of CTWS Restricted Share Units, Deferred Share Units, Performance Share Units and Performance Cash Units" beginning on page 113 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and "The Merger Non-Employee Directors Interests" beginning on page 104 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Other Covenants and Agreements

cooperation between SJW and CTWS in the preparation of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

Table of Contents

redemption of the shares of CTWS preferred stock;

confidentiality and access by each party to certain information about the other party during the period prior to the effective time of the merger;

cooperation between SJW and CTWS in the preparation and filing of all required applications and other documents with any governmental entity or regulatory authority with respect to the merger;

notice of material changes regarding representations, warranties, covenants and conditions contained in the merger agreement;

treatment of CTWS equity awards;

fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the use of each party's reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

cooperation between SJW and CTWS in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

causing any dispositions of CTWS common stock or derivative securities resulting from the merger and any acquisitions of SJW common stock or derivative securities resulting from the merger by each individual who is or may become subject to reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act;

cooperation of CTWS in connection with debt financing, if any, obtained by SJW in connection with the consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

cooperation between SJW and CTWS in connection with public announcements;

cooperation to cause the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger to be listed on the NYSE, and to cause the shares of CTWS common stock and other securities, if applicable, to be delisted from the NASDAQ;

cooperation between SJW and CTWS to coordinate the record and payment dates of dividends payable on shares of each party's common stock;

the use of reasonable best efforts, subject to applicable laws, to cooperate in connection with planning the integration of the business operations of SJW and CTWS and their respective subsidiaries;

voting agreements entered into between SJW and certain of its stockholders; and continuation of charitable contributions and community support for two years following the merger. Under the merger agreement, following the completion of the merger, to the fullest extent permitted by law, Combined SJW and CTWS (the surviving corporation in the merger) will assume all obligations relating to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for certain acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger existing in favor of the former or present directors and officers of CTWS and its subsidiaries. Prior to the effective time of the merger, CTWS will purchase tail directors and officers liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance policies.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Each party's obligation to consummate the merger is conditioned upon the satisfaction (or waiver by such party) at or prior to the closing of the merger of each of the following:

approval of the merger agreement by CTWS shareholders;

Table of Contents

approval of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger by SJW stockholders;

approval of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment by SJW stockholders;

approval of the listing on the NYSE of the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;

any required approvals (as listed below) having been obtained and having become final orders (as to which all conditions, not within the control of SJW or CTWS, to the consummation of such transactions prescribed by applicable law or order have been satisfied) and any waiting period having expired or been terminated, and that do not impose terms or conditions that are materially adverse to CTWS, SJW, or Combined SJW, in each case, taken as a whole (and in the case of SJW and Combined SJW, the materiality assessed for an equivalent entity of the size and scale of CTWS);

the expiration or earlier termination of the waiting period applicable to the completion of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement under the HSR Act;

any pre-approvals of license transfers by the FCC;

consents required by the PURA; and

absence of any statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation, binding legal requirement, judgment, order or decree by any court, tribunal or other governmental entity of appropriate jurisdiction that seeks to make illegal or prohibit the consummation of the merger, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and

effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and the absence of a stop order or proceedings initiated and not subsequently withdrawn by the SEC for that purpose.

In addition, the obligations of each of SJW and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and CTWS, on the other hand, to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of the other party (other than the representations and warranties related to (i) the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding or reserved for issuance, (ii) the absence of any outstanding voting debt interests, (iii) the authority with respect to the execution, delivery, and performance of the merger agreement and the due and valid authorization and enforceability of the merger agreement, (iv) the fees payable to a financial advisor, broker or finder in connection with the transactions under the merger agreement and (v) solely in the case of SJW and Merger Sub, the sole purpose of and lack of business engagement by Merger Sub) will be true and correct (without giving effect to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications contained in such representations and warranties) as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties are expressly made as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date), except to the extent that any failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;

the representations and warranties of the other party relating to (i) the absence of any outstanding voting debt interests, (ii) the authority with respect to the execution, delivery, and performance of the merger agreement and the due and valid authorization and enforceability of the merger agreement and (iii) the fees payable to a financial advisor, broker or finder in connection with the transactions under the merger agreement will be true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties address matters only as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date);

the representations and warranties of the other party relating to (i) the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding or reserved for issuance and (ii) solely in the case of SJW and Merger Sub, the sole purpose of and lack of business engagement by Merger Sub, will be true and correct in all respects (except de minimis errors) as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent such representations or warranties are expressly made as of an earlier date, which need only be true and correct as of such earlier date);

the other party having performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing of the merger;

no fact, circumstance, effect, change, event or development will have occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the other party that has not been ameliorated or cured; and

receipt of a legal opinion of such party's counsel (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to the other party), dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, before or after the receipt of the required shareholder approvals, under the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent of SJW and CTWS;

by either SJW or CTWS:

if the merger is not consummated on or before March 14, 2019, except if, as of 5:00 p.m., Pacific time, on March 14, 2019, all the conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived, or will then be capable of being satisfied (other than the conditions related to required governmental approvals having been obtained and having become final orders and those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger), such date will be extended automatically to June 14, 2019 (such date, as so extended, the end date); provided that the right to terminate the merger agreement under the provision described in this bullet will not be available to any party if such failure of the merger to occur on or before the end date is the result of a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the merger agreement by such party (the end-date termination provision);

if any law or final and non-appealable judgment, order or decree is issued, imposed or deemed applicable to the merger by any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction which permanently prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the merger, the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; except that the right to terminate the merger agreement under the provision described in this bullet will not be available to any party if such failure of the merger to be capable of being consummated is the result of the failure of such party to comply with the reasonable best efforts covenant under the merger agreement;

if SJW stockholders fail to approve either the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment at the SJW stockholders meeting (or, if the SJW stockholders meeting has been adjourned or postponed, at the final adjournment or postponement thereof) (the SJW stockholder approval failure termination provision); or if CTWS shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the CTWS shareholders meeting (or, if the CTWS shareholders meeting has been adjourned or postponed, at the final adjournment or postponement thereof) (the CTWS shareholder approval failure termination provision);

if CTWS has breached or failed to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement, or if any of its representations or warranties has failed to be true and correct, which breach or failure to perform (i) is not reasonably capable of being cured by CTWS by the end date, or is not cured by CTWS within the earlier of (x) 45 days after receiving written notice from SJW or (y) three business days prior to the end date and (ii) would give rise to the failure of certain closing conditions; provided that the right to terminate the merger agreement under the provision described in this bullet will not be available to SJW if SJW is then also in breach of any of its covenants or agreements, or if any of its representation or warranties has failed to be true and correct such as would give rise to the failure of certain closing conditions (the CTWS material breach termination provision);

prior to the time that CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement, if:

CTWS materially breaches any of its obligations described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals ;

the CTWS board of directors has made an adverse recommendation change;

CTWS has failed to include, in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the recommendation of its board of directors that CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement;

following the receipt of a takeover proposal with respect to CTWS, the CTWS board of directors has failed to publicly reaffirm its recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement within 10 business days after SJW reasonably requests in writing that such recommendation be reaffirmed; or a tender or exchange offer relating to any shares of CTWS common stock has been publicly commenced and CTWS has not, within 10 business days after the commencement thereof, recommended rejection of such tender or exchange offer and reaffirmed its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or prior to the time that SJW stockholders approve both the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, if SJW is not in material breach of its obligations described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals in order to accept a superior proposal with respect to SJW and enter into an acquisition agreement related to such superior proposal, and SJW pays to CTWS a termination fee of $42.5 million pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement;

by CTWS:

if SJW or Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement, or if any of their respective representations or warranties has failed to be true and correct, which breach or failure to perform (i) is not reasonably capable of being cured by SJW or Merger Sub by the end date, or is not cured by SJW or Merger Sub, as applicable, within the earlier of (x) 45 days after receiving written notice from CTWS or (y) three business days prior to the end date and (ii) would give rise to the failure of certain closing conditions; provided that the right to terminate the merger agreement under the provision described in this bullet will not be available to CTWS if CTWS is then also in breach of any of its covenants or agreements, or if any of its representation or warranties has failed to be true and correct such as would give rise to the failure of certain closing conditions (the SJW material breach termination provision);

prior to the time that CTWS shareholders approve the merger agreement, if CTWS is not in material breach of its obligations described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals in order to accept a superior proposal with respect to CTWS and enter into an acquisition agreement related to such superior proposal, and CTWS pays to SJW a termination fee of $28.1 million pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

In the event of a valid termination of the merger agreement, other than termination by mutual written consent, written notice will be given by the terminating party to the other party specifying the provision pursuant to which such termination is made. In the event of a valid termination of the merger agreement, the merger agreement will be terminated and will become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of SJW or CTWS, except that certain provisions regarding the termination fee and other general matters will survive such termination and nothing in the merger agreement will relieve any party from liabilities or damages incurred or suffered as a result of fraud, willful misconduct, intentional misrepresentation or intentional breach by such party of any covenant or agreement set forth in the merger agreement. In such case, neither party will be under any obligation to hold a special meeting. The termination of the merger agreement will not affect the obligations of the parties contained in the confidentiality agreement between SJW and CTWS.

Expenses and Termination Fees; Liability for Breach

Each party will pay all fees and expenses incurred by it in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

SJW will be obligated to pay a termination fee of $42.5 million to CTWS if:

CTWS terminates the merger agreement, prior to the time that SJW stockholders approve both the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, as a result of any of the following:

SJW materially breaches any of its obligations described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals ;

the SJW board of directors has made an adverse recommendation change;

SJW has failed to include, in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the recommendation of its board of directors that SJW stockholders approve both the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment;

following the receipt of a takeover proposal with respect to SJW, the SJW board of directors has failed to publicly reaffirm its recommendation of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement within 10 business days after CTWS reasonably requests in writing that such recommendation be reaffirmed; or a tender or exchange offer relating to any shares of SJW common stock has been publicly commenced and SJW has not, within 10 business days after the commencement thereof, recommended rejection of such tender or exchange offer and reaffirmed its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

SJW terminates the merger agreement because SJW stockholders fail to approve either the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger or the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment at the SJW stockholders meeting (or, if the SJW stockholders meeting has been adjourned or postponed, at the final adjournment or postponement thereof), at any time during which CTWS would have been permitted to terminate the merger agreement under the provision described in the primary bullet immediately above;

SJW terminates the merger agreement in order to accept a superior proposal and enter into an acquisition agreement related to such superior proposal, prior to the time that SJW stockholders approve both the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, if SJW is not in material breach of its obligations described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals ; or

a takeover proposal is made to SJW or becomes publicly known, or an intention to make such a takeover proposal is publicly announced and not publicly withdrawn, after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the SJW stockholders meeting;

the merger agreement is thereafter terminated by (A) CTWS or SJW pursuant to either of the end-date termination provision (if the SJW stockholders meeting has not been held) or the SJW stockholder approval failure termination provision, or (B) CTWS pursuant to the SJW material breach termination provision; and within 12 months of such termination of the merger agreement, SJW enters into a definitive contract to consummate or consummates a takeover proposal; provided that for purposes of the provision described in this bullet, the term takeover proposal has the meaning described under No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals, except that all references to 15% therein will be changed to 50%.

SJW will be obligated to reimburse CTWS for certain fees and expenses in an amount not to exceed $5 million if either SJW or CTWS terminates the merger agreement because SJW stockholders fail to approve of either or both of the issuance of shares of SJW common stock to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger and the adoption of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment. If any termination fee is later payable by SJW to CTWS, the amount of such termination fee payable by SJW will be reduced by the expense reimbursement amount actually paid by SJW to CTWS.

Amendments, Extensions and Waivers

Prior to the effective time of the merger, the merger agreement may be amended by the parties (by a signed written instrument) at any time before or after the receipt of the approvals of the SJW or CTWS shareholders required to consummate the merger.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties may (i) extend the time for performance of any obligations or other acts of the other parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement (iii) waive compliance with any covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement or (iv) waive the satisfaction of any of the conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, after receipt of the approvals by the shareholders of SJW and/or CTWS required to consummate the merger, there will not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment for which applicable law requires further shareholder approval.

Parties in Interest

Except as expressly provided in the merger agreement, nothing expressed or referred to in the merger agreement is intended to confer, nor should it be read or construed to confer, upon any person other than the parties (and their respective successors and permitted assigns) any rights or remedies.

For additional information regarding indemnification of directors and officers, see the section entitled "The Merger Interests of SJW Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Indemnification of SJW Directors and Officers" beginning on page 100 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and "The Merger Interests of CTWS Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Indemnification of CTWS Directors and Officers" beginning on page 101 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Specific Performance

SJW and CTWS have agreed in the merger agreement that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of the merger agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy. To that end, the parties agreed that prior to the termination of the merger agreement, each party will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the merger agreement and to enforce specifically the performance of terms and provisions of the merger agreement without proof of actual damages, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties further agreed not to assert that a remedy of specific enforcement is unenforceable, invalid, contrary to law or inequitable for any reason, nor to assert that a remedy of monetary damages would provide an adequate remedy for any such breach. Each party further agreed to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with any remedy relating to specific performance.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following summary describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of CTWS common stock that exchange their shares of CTWS common stock for shares of SJW common stock in the merger. The following summary is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, or federal laws applicable to alternative minimum taxes or the Medicare tax on net investment income, are not addressed in this joint proxy statement and prospectus.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder is used to mean a beneficial owner of CTWS common stock which is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion is a summary and does not purport to be a comprehensive analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion addresses only those U.S. holders of CTWS common stock that hold their CTWS common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment) and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of CTWS common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of CTWS common stock that are subject to special rules, such as, for example:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities (or other entities or arrangements classified as pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or investors in pass-through entities;

tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;

dealers or brokers in securities or currencies;

persons that hold CTWS common stock that are subject to the alternative minimum tax;

persons that immediately before the merger actually or constructively owned at least 5% of CTWS common stock;

persons that hold CTWS common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

persons required to accelerate the recognition of any item of gross income with respect to CTWS common stock as a result of such income being recognized on an applicable financial statement;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States or who are U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States; and holders who acquired their shares of CTWS common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds CTWS common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

No rulings will be sought by SJW or CTWS from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with respect to the merger, and there can be no assurance that the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position regarding the tax consequences described herein. The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within SJW's or CTWS's control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Provided that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders will be as follows:

except as discussed below under Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of SJW Common Stock, no gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. holders of CTWS common stock on the exchange of CTWS common stock for SJW stock pursuant to the merger;

the aggregate basis of the SJW common stock received by a U.S. holder of CTWS common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of SJW common stock deemed received and exchanged for cash as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the CTWS common stock for which it is exchanged; and the holding period of SJW common stock received in exchange for shares of CTWS common stock (including fractional shares of SJW common stock deemed received and exchanged for cash as described below) will include the holding period of the CTWS common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of CTWS common stock acquired different blocks of CTWS common stock at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder's holding period and basis will be determined separately with respect to each block of CTWS common stock.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt by CTWS and SJW of legal opinions from Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to SJW) and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (or such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to CTWS), respectively, each dated as of the closing date of the merger, that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on certain assumptions and on representation letters provided by CTWS and SJW to be delivered at the time of closing. Neither of the tax opinions will be binding on the IRS. As discussed above, neither CTWS nor SJW intends to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, and there is no guarantee that the IRS or a court will treat the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of SJW Common Stock

A U.S. holder of CTWS common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of SJW common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash. As a result, such U.S. holder of CTWS common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in such holder's fractional share interest as set forth above. The gain or loss recognized by the U.S. holders described in this paragraph will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant shares is greater than one year. For U.S. holders of shares of CTWS common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a U.S. federal income tax rate that is lower than the rate for ordinary income or for short-term capital gains. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisors about the particular tax consequences of the merger to you, including the effects of U.S. federal, state or local, or foreign and other tax laws.

Information Reporting

Payments of cash in lieu of a fractional share to a U.S. holder of CTWS common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, SJW and CTWS strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

Holders of CTWS common stock should consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate, gift or other non-income tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

SJW prepares its financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The merger will be accounted for by applying the acquisition method, which requires the determination of the acquirer, the acquisition date, the fair value of assets and liabilities of the acquiree and the measurement of goodwill. The accounting guidance for business combinations, referred to as ASC 805, provides that in identifying the acquiring entity (the entity that obtains control over the acquiree) in a combination effected through an exchange of equity interests, all pertinent facts and circumstances must be considered, including: the relative voting rights of the shareholders of the constituent companies in the combined entity, the composition of the board of directors and senior management of the combined company, the relative size of each company and the terms of the exchange of equity securities in the business combination, including payment of any premium. In a business combination effected primarily by exchanging equity interests, the acquirer usually is the entity that issues its equity interests.

Based on current SJW board members representing a majority of the board of directors of the combined company, as well as the terms of the merger, with CTWS shareholders receiving a premium (as of the closing date) over the fair market value of their shares on such date, SJW is considered to be the acquirer of CTWS for accounting purposes. This means that SJW will allocate the purchase price to the fair value of CTWS assets and liabilities at the acquisition date, with any excess purchase price being recorded as goodwill.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements (the Pro Forma Financial Statements) have been primarily derived from the December 31, 2017 consolidated financial statements of SJW and CTWS incorporated by reference into this document.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet (the Pro Forma Balance Sheet) as of December 31, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if it were completed on December 31, 2017. The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statement of Operations (the Pro Forma Statement of Operations) for the year ended December 31, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if it were completed on January 1, 2017.

The merger agreement provides that each outstanding share of CTWS stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock, with cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares.

The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted in the Pro Forma Financial Statements to give effect to pro forma events that are: (1) directly attributable to the merger; (2) factually supportable; and (3) with respect to the Pro Forma Statement of Operations, expected to have continuing impact on the combined results of SJW and CTWS. As such, the impact of non-recurring merger related expenses is not included in the Pro Forma Statement of Operations. However, the impact of these expenses is reflected in the Pro Forma Balance Sheet as an increase to liabilities and deferred tax assets and a decrease to retained earnings.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements do not reflect any cost savings (or associated costs to achieve such savings) from operating efficiencies or synergies that could result from the merger. Further, the Pro Forma Financial Statements do not reflect the effect of any regulatory actions that may impact the Pro Forma Financial Statements when the merger is completed. In addition, the Pro Forma Financial Statements do not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company.

United States generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) require that one party to the merger be identified as the acquirer. In accordance with such principles, the merger of SJW and CTWS will be accounted for as an acquisition of CTWS common stock by SJW and will follow the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations. The purchase price ultimately will be determined on the acquisition date based on the fair value of shares of SJW common stock issued in the merger. The purchase price in the Pro Forma Financial Statements is based on the closing price of SJW common stock on the NYSE on April 13, 2018 of $53.55 per share and the exchange of CTWS's outstanding shares for the right to receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock (refer to Note 3 to the Pro Forma Financial Statements for additional information related to the preliminary purchase price).

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The Pro Forma Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if it were completed on December 31, 2017. The Pro Forma Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if it were completed on January 1, 2017.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements have been derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of SJW and CTWS that are incorporated by reference into this document. Assumptions and estimates underlying the pro forma adjustments are described in the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements, which should be read in conjunction with the Pro Forma Financial Statements. Since the Pro Forma Financial Statements have been prepared based upon preliminary estimates, the final amounts recorded at the date of the merger may differ materially from the information presented. These preliminary estimates are subject to change pending further review of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed.

The merger is reflected in the Pro Forma Financial Statements as an acquisition of CTWS by SJW, based on the guidance provided by U.S. GAAP for business combinations. In accordance with such accounting guidance, the total estimated purchase price is calculated as described in Note 3 to the Pro Forma Financial Statements, and the CTWS assets acquired and the liabilities assumed have been measured at estimated fair value. For purpose of measuring the estimated fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, SJW has applied the accounting guidance for fair value measurements. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. The fair value measurements utilize estimates based on key assumptions of the merger, including historical and current market data. The pro forma adjustments included herein are preliminary and will be revised at the time of the merger when SJW has completed detailed fair value valuations and additional analyses. The final purchase price allocation will be determined at the time that the merger is completed. The final amounts recorded for the merger may differ materially from the information presented herein.

Estimated merger costs have been excluded from the Pro Forma Statement of Operations as they reflect non-recurring charges directly related to the transaction. However, the estimated merger costs are reflected in the Pro Forma Balance Sheet as an increase to liabilities and deferred tax assets and a decrease to retained earnings.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements do not reflect any cost savings (or associated costs to achieve such savings) from operating efficiencies, synergies, or other restructuring that could result from the merger. Further, the Pro Forma Financial Statements do not reflect the effect of any regulatory actions that may impact the Pro Forma Financial Statements once the merger is completed.

The SJW historical consolidated 2017 financial statements include the sale of its Texas Water Alliance Limited subsidiary. SJW recognized a pre-tax gain on the sale of $12.5 million. The sale of TWA was not considered to be an unusual transaction, as defined, and as a result, no separate pro forma condensed statement of operations is presented for this transaction.

CTWS's regulated operations comprise water and waste water operations. The operations are subject to the rate-setting authority of the Connecticut Public Utilities Regulatory Authority in Connecticut and the Maine Public Utilities Commission in Maine and are accounted for pursuant to U.S. GAAP, including the U.S. GAAP accounting guidance for regulated operations. The rate-setting and cost recovery provisions currently in place for CTWS's regulated operations provide revenues derived from costs including a return on investments of assets included in rate base. The fair values of CTWS's tangible and intangible assets which are subject to these rate-setting provisions will be determined when detailed asset information can be obtained and a fair value analysis can be performed. The amounts presented in the Pro Forma Financial Statements for CTWS's regulated utility plant tangible and intangible assets are at carrying value. Fair value amounts may differ materially from the carrying value of the assets presented herein.

Table of ContentsNote 2. Reclassification Adjustments

Certain reclassifications have been made to the presentation of CTWS's historical consolidated financial statements to conform to the historical consolidated financial statement presentation of SJW. Additionally, based on SJW's review of CTWS's summary of significant accounting policies disclosed in the CTWS 2017 consolidated financial statements and preliminary discussions with CTWS management, certain reclassification adjustments have been made to the CTWS historical financial statements to conform its accounting policies to those of SJW.

The following reclassification adjustments have been made to the Pro Forma Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2017 (in thousands):

Upon completion of the merger, further review of CTWS's accounting policies and consolidated financial statements may result in revisions to CTWS's classifications and accounting policies to conform to those of SJW's.

Note 3. Preliminary Purchase Price

On the terms and subject to the conditions contained in the merger agreement and upon the completion of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement, holders of CTWS common stock will receive 1.1375 shares of SJW common stock for each share of CTWS common stock, with cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares, and each CTWS RSU, CTWS DSU, CTWS PSU and CTWS PCU will be treated in a manner specific to such awards. For further information regarding the consideration to be received in settlement of equity-based awards, see the section entitled

CTWS shares outstanding as of December 31, 2017 (in thousands) (1)	12,065
Exchange Ratio	1.1375
SJW Shares issued for each share of SJW shares outstanding (in thousands)	13,724
Closing price of SJW common stock on 4/13/2018	$ 53.55

Preliminary purchase price for common stock (in thousands)	$ 734,917
--	------------

151

The preliminary purchase price was computed using CTWS' s outstanding shares as of December 31, 2017, adjusted for the exchange ratio. The preliminary purchase price reflects the market value of SJW' s common stock to be issued in connection with the merger based on the closing price of SJW' s common stock on the NYSE on April 13, 2018.

The preliminary purchase price will fluctuate with the market price of SJW' s common stock until it is reflected on an actual basis when the merger is completed. An increase or decrease in SJW' s common share price of 10% from the price used above would increase or decrease the purchase price by approximately $73.5 million. The outstanding number of shares of CTWS common stock will change prior to the closing of the merger due to transactions in the ordinary course of business, including the vesting of outstanding CTWS equity awards. These changes are not expected to have a material impact on the Pro Forma Financial Statements

Note 4. Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation

The allocation of the preliminary purchase price to the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed includes pro forma adjustments to the fair values of CTWS' s assets and liabilities. The allocation of the preliminary purchase price is as follows (in thousands):

Note 5. Adjustments to the Pro Forma Financial Statements*Adjustments to the Pro Forma Balance Sheet*

(a) Intangible Assets. The pro forma adjustment reflects the fair value of an identified acquired intangible asset for non-regulated operations that consists of customer relationships ($15 million). The asset was valued using the Excess Earnings Method. The fair value estimate is preliminary and determined based on assumptions that a market participant would use in pricing an asset based on the most advantageous market for the asset (i.e., highest and best use). The final fair value determination of the customer relationships intangible asset may differ materially from this preliminary estimate.

(b) Regulatory Assets and Deferred Charges. The pro forma adjustment reflects a net increase to regulatory assets ($534 thousand in current regulatory assets and $8.5 million in regulatory assets and deferred charges) to reflect the write-up to fair value of the long-term debt of CTWS's regulated subsidiaries (an increase to current portion of long-term debt and long-term debt of $534 thousand and $3.7 million, respectively, and the elimination of $4.8 million in unamortized debt issuance costs and acquisition fair value adjustments related to prior acquisitions as described in Note 5(d)).

(c) Goodwill. The pro forma adjustment reflects the preliminary estimate of the purchase price paid over the fair value of CTWS's identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The estimated purchase price of the transaction is based on the closing price of SJW's common stock on the NYSE on April 13, 2018, and the excess purchase price over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is calculated as follows (in thousands):

Less: Fair value of net assets acquired (excluding goodwill)	$ (241,574)
Less: CTWS existing goodwill	$ (67,016)
Pro forma goodwill adjustment	$ 426,327

(d) Long-Term Debt. The pro forma adjustment represents the fair value adjustments to decrease CTWS's parent company long-term debt (current portion of long-term debt and long-term debt of $16 thousand and $16 thousand, respectively) and increase the regulated companies' long-term debt (current portion of long-term debt and long-term debt of $534 thousand and $3.7 million, respectively) based on prevailing market prices for the individual debt securities as of December 31, 2017. In addition, the unamortized debt issuance costs and the acquisition fair value adjustments related to prior acquisitions of $72 thousand for the parent company and $4.8 million for the regulated operating companies were eliminated upon the fair value measurement.

The final fair value determination of long-term debt will be based on prevailing market prices upon completion of the merger. The resulting adjustment to parent company debt will be amortized as an adjustment to interest expense over the remaining life of the debt, as described in note 5(j). The portion of the adjustment related to regulated company debt is offset by an increase to regulatory assets, and amortization of these adjustments will offset each other with no effect on earnings, as described in Note 5(b). The preliminary estimated annual fair value debt adjustment amortization is $695 thousand. This preliminary estimate is based on the preliminary fair value adjustment to long term debt and may differ materially when the final fair value long-term debt adjustment is completed.

(e) Accounts Payable. The pro forma adjustment represents the accrual for estimated nonrecurring merger transaction costs of $31.6 million for the combined companies to be incurred after December 31, 2017, including $900 thousand related to estimated stock registration costs. Also refer to note 5(h).

(f) Other Current Liabilities. In connection with SJW's merger with CTWS, certain CTWS officers are eligible to receive severance and other separation benefits related to preexisting employment agreements with double trigger provisions. These double-trigger agreements result in cash payments to eligible officers following the occurrence of two events: a change of control (as defined) and, where applicable, the named officer experiences a qualifying termination of employment other than for cause, death, or attainment of age 65, by the company or by the participant for good reason (as defined) as determined by such eligible officer at the closing of a merger or as of a specified date following such closing. The amount has been calculated assuming the merger was completed on April 13, 2018 (the last practicable date prior to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus) and, where applicable, each participating officer experienced a qualifying termination of employment on such date using a price per share of CTWS stock of $60.79 (the average per-share closing price of CTWS common stock for the first five business days after the Merger Agreement was announced). The estimate is based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur and as a result, the actual amount may differ in material respects from the estimate. Also refer to note 5(h).

(g) Deferred Income Taxes. The pro forma adjustment for deferred income taxes represents the estimated net deferred tax asset, based on the estimated post-merger composite statutory tax rate of 28% multiplied by the certain fair value adjustments recorded to assets acquired and liabilities assumed, excluding goodwill. This estimated rate is different than SJW's effective tax rate for the year ended December 31, 2017, which includes the revaluation of deferred tax assets and liabilities in accordance with the 2017 Tax and Jobs Act and other tax charges or benefits, and does not take into account any historical or future tax events that may impact the combined company.

(h) Shareholders' Equity. The pro forma balance sheet reflects the elimination of CTWS's historical equity balances and recognition of approximately 13.7 million new SJW common shares issued ($13.7 thousand of $0.001 par value common stock and $735 million in additional paid-in capital). Additional paid-in-capital has also been adjusted to reflect the estimated cost of issuing the new SJW shares ($900 thousand). Also refer to note 3 regarding future changes to the preliminary purchase price.

Pro forma retained earnings were reduced by $22 million (net of tax, with the tax benefit of $8.6 million reflected as an increase in deferred tax assets and the pre-tax amount of $31 million reflected as an increase in accounts payable) for estimated merger transaction costs of the combined companies directly related to the merger that would be expensed. Estimated merger transaction costs have been excluded from the pro forma income statement as they reflect non-recurring charges directly related to the merger.

In addition, pro forma retained earnings were reduced by $8.9 million (net of tax, with the tax benefit of $3.5 million reflected as an increase in deferred tax assets and the pre-tax amount of $12.4 million reflected as an increase in other current liabilities) for severance costs included in employment agreements with certain officers that are directly related to the merger. Estimated merger related severance costs have been excluded from the pro forma income statement as they reflect non-recurring charges directly related to the merger.

Adjustments to the Pro Forma Statement of Operations

(i) Amortization of intangible assets. The pro forma adjustment represents amortization of the fair value adjustment for a definite life, identified intangible asset. The asset, customer relationships, is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a 15 year estimated useful life. The preliminary estimated annual fair value intangible asset adjustment is $1 million. Also refer to note 5(a). The final amortization amount will be determined once a final fair value determination of the customer receivable has been completed.

(j) Interest expense. The pro forma adjustment reflects a net reduction in interest expense as a result of the amortization of the pro forma fair value adjustment of CTWS' parent company long-term debt offset by the elimination of deferred costs ($72 thousand) related to this debt. The effect of the fair value adjustment is being amortized over the remaining life of the individual debt issuances, with the average amortization period being approximately 15 years. The final fair value determination will be based on prevailing market interest rates at the completion of the merger and the necessary fair value adjustment will be amortized as an adjustment to interest expense over the remaining life of the individual debt issuances.

(k) Income Tax Expense. The pro forma adjustments include the income tax effects of the pro forma adjustments calculated using an estimated statutory income tax rate of 28%.

(l) Shares Outstanding. The pro forma shares outstanding reflects the elimination of CTWS's common stock, including outstanding CTWS common stock equivalents and restricted shares reported as outstanding shares at December 31, 2017, and the issuance of approximately 13.7 million common shares of SJW, using an exchange ratio of 1.1375. The share issuance does not consider fractional shares that will be paid in cash as applicable. This payout will be reflected as a reduction of cash and shares issued at the time of the merger.

The pro forma weighted average number of basic shares outstanding is calculated by adding SJW's weighted average number of basic shares outstanding for the year ended December 31, 2017 and the number of

SJW shares expected to be issued to CTWS shareholders as a result of the merger. The pro forma weighted average number of diluted shares outstanding is calculated by adding SJW's weighted average number of diluted shares outstanding for the year ended December 31, 2017 and the number of SJW shares expected to be issued to CTWS shareholders as a result of the merger.

Table of ContentsSECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF CTWS*Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table lists, to CTWS's knowledge, the beneficial ownership of CTWS's capital stock and the nature of such ownership for each director and nominee for director, for each named executive officer, for all executive officers and directors of CTWS as a group, and for each person who beneficially owns in excess of five percent of the outstanding shares of any class of CTWS's voting securities. Except for shares that are subject to CTWS PSUs as indicated in the table's footnotes, which shares are not issued, or unless otherwise noted, each holder has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the shares listed. All information is given as of April 13, 2018, and assumes that shares which the named person has a contractual right to acquire within 60 days have been acquired and are outstanding. The beneficial ownership percentages have been calculated based on 12,089,126 shares of CTWS common stock outstanding (including 221,528 CTWS common stock equivalent shares awarded under the CTWS 2014 Performance Stock Program, the CTWS 2004 Performance Stock Program and the CTWS 1994 Performance Stock Program) as of such date.

The total insider ownership, individually and as a group, is less than 5% of the outstanding shares of CTWS common stock.

DESCRIPTION OF COMBINED SJW CAPITAL STOCK

This section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus summarizes the material terms of Combined SJW's capital stock that will be in effect if the merger is completed. You are encouraged to read the form of the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, which is included as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and the form of amendment to SJW's bylaws, attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for greater detail on the provisions that may be important to you. All references within this section to common stock mean the common stock of Combined SJW unless otherwise noted.

Authorized Capital Stock

Subject to the approval of SJW stockholders, after giving effect to the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment of the combined company, Combined SJW's authorized capital stock will consist of shares made up of:

72 million shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share; and

1 million shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, the rights and preferences of which may be established from time to time by the board of directors of Combined SJW.

Description of Combined SJW Common Stock

Voting Rights

After the completion of the merger, each share of common stock, par value $0.001 (Combined SJW common stock), outstanding will be entitled to one vote on all matters on which stockholders of Combined SJW generally are entitled to vote. However, the voting rights of holders of Combined SJW common stock will be restricted to the extent such rights conflict with the rights of holders of any series of Combined SJW preferred stock as may be designated by the board of directors of Combined SJW from time to time.

Generally, the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares of Combined SJW stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, at a meeting on a matter will be required in order to approve such matter.

Liquidation Rights

In the event that Combined SJW is liquidated, dissolved or wound up, the holders of Combined SJW common stock will be entitled to a pro rata share in any distribution to stockholders, but only after satisfaction of all of Combined SJW's liabilities and of the prior rights of any outstanding series of Combined SJW preferred stock.

Dividends

Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any outstanding preferred stock, the holders of Combined SJW common stock are entitled to dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors of Combined SJW out of funds legally available for that purpose. In the case that preferred stock of Combined SJW is issued, its holders will be similarly entitled to dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors of Combined SJW out of funds legally available for that purpose.

No Preemptive Rights

The common stock has no preemptive rights or other subscription rights.

Table of Contents

No Redemption Rights, Conversion Rights or Sinking Fund

There are no redemption, conversion or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock.

Exchange Listing

It is expected that following the completion of the merger, Combined SJW's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE under the symbol SJW.

Blank Check Preferred Stock

Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation will permit Combined SJW to issue up to 1 million shares of Combined SJW preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, in one or more series with such designations, powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions as may be fixed by the board of directors of Combined SJW without any further action by Combined SJW stockholders. The ability to authorize undesignated preferred stock will make it possible for the board of directors of Combined SJW to issue preferred stock with super voting, special approval, dividend or other rights or preferences on a discriminatory basis that may impede the success of any attempt to acquire Combined SJW. These and other provisions may have the effect of deferring, delaying or discouraging hostile takeovers or changes in control or management of Combined SJW.

The issuance of preferred stock may adversely affect the rights of Combined SJW's common stockholders by, among other things:

diluting the voting power of the common stock; or impairing the liquidation rights of the common stock.

As a result of these or other factors, the issuance of preferred stock could have an adverse impact on the market price of the common stock of Combined SJW.

Anti-takeover Provisions

General

Some provisions of Delaware law and Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation and bylaws could discourage or make it more difficult to acquire control of the combined company by means of a tender offer, open market purchases, a proxy contest or otherwise. A description of these provisions is set forth below.

Meetings and Elections of Directors

Special Meetings of Stockholders. Combined SJW's bylaws will provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the chairman of the board of directors, by the president, by resolution of the board of directors adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (regardless of any vacancy), or by stockholders holding 20% or more of Combined SJW s voting power.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent. Combined SJW s bylaws will provide that holders of Combined SJW common stock having enough votes necessary to authorize or take an action at a meeting can act by written consent in lieu of a meeting. However, the election of directors by written consent of the stockholders requires unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

Vacancies. If the office of any director becomes vacant for any reason or any new directorship is created by any increase in the authorized number of directors, a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, may choose a successor or successors or fill the newly created directorship. Any director so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified.

No Cumulative Voting

Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation will not grant stockholders the right to vote cumulatively.

Advance Notice Procedure

Combined SJW's bylaws will provide an advance notice procedure for stockholders to nominate director candidates for election or to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders, including proposed nominations of persons for election to the board of directors.

Combined SJW's bylaws will provide that as to the notice of stockholder proposals of business to be brought at the annual meeting of stockholders, notice must be delivered to Combined SJW's secretary (i) not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting or (ii) if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, not earlier than 120 days before the annual meeting nor later than the later of 90 days prior to the annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by Combined SJW. In addition, any proposed business other than the nomination of persons for election to the combined company's board of directors must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action.

In the case of nominations for election at an annual meeting, notice must be delivered to Combined SJW's secretary (i) not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting or (ii) if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, not earlier than 120 days before the annual meeting nor later than the later of 90 days prior to the annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by Combined SJW. In the case of nominations for election at a special meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors, a stockholder may nominate candidates by delivering notice to Combined SJW's secretary not earlier than 120 days before the special meeting nor later than the later of 90 days prior to the special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the board of directors to be elected at such meeting. In addition, each such stockholder's notice must include certain information regarding the stockholder and the director nominee as set forth in Combined SJW's bylaws.

Amendments to Bylaws

Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will provide that its bylaws may be adopted, amended or repealed by the affirmative action of a majority of the Combined SJW board of directors or the affirmative vote of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at any regular meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting of the stockholders if notice of such proposed adoption, amendment or repeal be contained in the notice of such meeting. In addition, prior to the effective time of the merger, SJW will adopt an amendment to the SJW bylaws (in the form attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus), which amendment will provide that Article VII of the Combined SJW bylaws may not be amended other than with the affirmative approval of 75% of the board of directors of Combined SJW.

Selection of Lead Independent Director

Combined SJW s bylaws will provide that, during the period beginning at the completion of the merger and ending December 31, 2020, the CTWS continuing directors will be authorized to select a CTWS continuing director (who qualifies as independent under the applicable standards of the NYSE and the policies of Combined SJW) to serve as the lead independent director of Combined SJW, unless otherwise determined by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the entire board of directors of Combined SJW. See the section entitled Comparison of Rights of CTWS Shareholders and Combined SJW Stockholders beginning on page 164 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and Board of Directors and Management Following the Merger beginning on page 112 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for additional information.

Interested Stockholder Transaction and Business Combination

Section 203 of DGCL prohibits, subject to certain exceptions, a Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder (i.e., a stockholder acquiring 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock) for three years following the date that such stockholder becomes an interested stockholder without approval of the board of directors. Section 203 makes certain types of unfriendly or hostile corporate takeovers, or other non-board approved transactions involving a corporation and one or more of its significant stockholders, more difficult. Delaware companies may opt out of Section 203 if the company's original certificate of incorporation expressly elects not to be governed by Section 203. Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will not opt out of Section 203, therefore Section 203 will apply to Combined SJW following the merger.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF CTWS SHAREHOLDERS AND COMBINED SJW STOCKHOLDERS

CTWS and SJW are incorporated under the laws of the State of Connecticut and the State of Delaware, respectively, and, accordingly, the rights of CTWS shareholders are currently governed by the CBCA and the governing documents of CTWS, including CTWS's certificate of incorporation and CTWS's bylaws, and the rights of SJW stockholders are currently governed by the DGCL and the governing documents of SJW, including SJW's certificate of incorporation and SJW's bylaws.

Upon completion of the merger, CTWS shareholders will become stockholders of the combined company. Subject to the approval of SJW stockholders, and as a condition to the closing of the merger, SJW's certificate of incorporation will be amended, in the form included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. SJW's bylaws will be amended and restated upon the closing of the merger to add a new Article VII in the form attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement, which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus (with such changes as necessary to reflect the applicable provisions based on the actual date of completion of the merger). Subject to the approval of SJW stockholders of the proposal to adopt the SJW certificate of incorporation amendment, upon the completion of the merger, the rights of the former CTWS shareholders and SJW stockholders will thereafter be governed by the DGCL and by Combined SJW's certificate of incorporation and Combined SJW's bylaws.

The following is a summary of the expected material differences between the rights of CTWS shareholders and Combined SJW stockholders, but it is not a complete statement of all those differences, or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. All CTWS shareholders and SJW stockholders are urged to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, the relevant provisions of the CBCA and the DGCL, and the respective certificates of incorporation and bylaws of CTWS and SJW, as well as the proposed amendments thereto. For more information on how to obtain the documents that are not attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 181.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Section 33-771 of the CBCA provides, generally, that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he or she is a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if (i) (a) the individual conducted himself or herself in good faith, (b) the individual reasonably believed (1) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the corporation and (2) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests

Section 145(a) of the DGCL provides, generally, that a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or a person serving in a similar capacity at its request for another entity, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner of the corporation and (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; or (ii) the individual engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the certificate of incorporation. Section 33-775 of the CBCA provides, generally, that a corporation may not indemnify a director under Section 33-771 unless authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible because he or she has met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in Section 33-771.

Sections 33-772 and 33-776 of the CBCA provide, generally, that a corporation must indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which such director was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding. Sections 33-774 and 33-776 of the CBCA permit, generally, a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is party to a proceeding because of that individual's position as such to apply to a court for an award of indemnification.

CTWS's certificate of incorporation provides that CTWS will indemnify to the fullest extent of the law its directors and

CTWS shareholders will not have appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with any of the proposals to be voted upon at the CTWS special meeting. Under Section 33-856 of the CBCA, appraisal rights are not available for the holders of shares of any class or series of shares which is a covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act when the terms of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights require such holders to accept cash or shares of any class or any series of shares which is a covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act. The CTWS common stock is listed on the NASDAQ and CTWS shareholders will receive a combination of shares of SJW common stock, which is listed on the NYSE, and cash in lieu of fractional shares. As NYSE-listed shares and NASDAQ-listed shares are covered securities under Section 18(b)(1)(A) of the Securities Act, appraisal rights are not available for CTWS shareholders.

SJW will hold a regular annual meeting in 2019 regardless of whether the merger is completed.

For inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the 2019 annual meeting, stockholder proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act must be received by SJW no later than November 16, 2018. For matters other than stockholder proposals pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8 to be properly brought before the 2019 annual meeting by a stockholder, including director nominations, the stockholder must comply with the advance notice and other provisions in SJW's bylaws. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to SJW's secretary between December 26, 2018 and January 25, 2019, both inclusive. If, however, the date of the annual meeting is not within 30 days before or 60 days after April 25, 2019, notice by the stockholder must be delivered not earlier than 120 days before the annual meeting nor later than the later of 90 days prior to the annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by SJW. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting of stockholders commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

CTWS will only hold a regular annual meeting in 2019 if the merger is not completed. If, however, the merger is not completed and CTWS holds a regular annual meeting in 2019, in order to be considered for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders, shareholder proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act must be received by CTWS no later than December 7, 2018. For matters other than shareholder proposals pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8 to be properly brought before the 2019 annual meeting by a shareholder, including director nominations, shareholders desiring to bring business before the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders must give proper and timely notice in writing to the secretary of CTWS. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the secretary of CTWS at the Main Offices of CTWS, 93 West Main Street, Clinton, Connecticut 06413, no later than the close of business on a day which is not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting, which date for purposes of the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders is January 10, 2019. A shareholder's notice to the secretary must set forth as to each matter the shareholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and address, as they appear on CTWS's books, of the shareholder proposing such business, (c) the class and number of shares of CTWS common stock which are beneficially owned by the shareholder, and (d) any material interest of the shareholder in such business.

SJW and CTWS each file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC under the Exchange Act. You may read and copy any of this information at the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the Public Reference Room. The SEC also maintains an Internet website that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers, including SJW and CTWS, who file electronically with the SEC. The address of that site is www.sec.gov.

Investors may also consult SJW's or CTWS's website for more information about SJW or CTWS, respectively. SJW's website is www.sjwgroup.com. CTWS's website is www.ctwater.com. The information contained on the websites of SJW, CTWS and the SEC (except for the filings described below) is not incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

SJW has filed with the SEC a registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. The registration statement registers the shares of SJW common stock to be issued to CTWS shareholders pursuant to the merger. The registration statement, including the attached exhibits, contains additional relevant information about SJW and SJW common stock. The rules and regulations of the SEC allow SJW and CTWS to omit certain information included in the registration statement from this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, the SEC allows SJW and CTWS to disclose important information to you by referring you to other documents filed separately with the SEC. This information is considered to be a part of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus incorporates by reference the documents listed below that SJW has previously filed with the SEC (other than information furnished pursuant to Item 2.01 or Item 7.01 of a Current Report on Form 8-K). These documents contain important information about SJW, its financial condition or other matters.

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017.

Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed March 6, 2018.

Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on March 15, 2018 and March 22, 2018 (other than the portions of this document not deemed to be filed pursuant to the rules promulgated under the Exchange Act).

The description of our common stock contained in our registration statement on Form 8-A filed on October 31, 2005, including any amendment or reports filed for the purpose of updating such description. In addition, SJW incorporates by reference any future filings it makes with the SEC under Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and prior to the date of the SJW special meeting (other than information furnished pursuant to Item 2.02 or Item 7.01 of any Current Report on Form 8-K, unless expressly stated otherwise therein). Such documents are considered to be a part of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, effective as of the date such documents are filed.

Attention: Corporate Secretary

In the event of conflicting information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in comparison to any document incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, or among documents incorporated by reference, the information in the latest filed document controls.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. No one has been authorized to provide you with information that is different from that contained in, or incorporated by reference into, this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This joint proxy statement/prospectus is dated [], 2018. You should not assume that the information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is accurate as of any date other than that date. You should not assume that the information incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus is accurate as of any date other than the date of such incorporated document. Neither our mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to SJW stockholders or CTWS shareholders nor the issuance by SJW of shares of common stock pursuant to the merger will create any implication to the contrary.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains a description of the representations and warranties that each of SJW and CTWS made to the other in the merger agreement. Representations and warranties made by SJW, CTWS and other applicable parties are also set forth in contracts and other documents (including the merger agreement) that are attached or filed as exhibits to this joint proxy statement/prospectus or are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. These materials are included or incorporated by reference only to provide you with information regarding the terms and conditions of the agreements, and not to provide any other factual information regarding SJW, CTWS or their businesses. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the other information provided elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.
