Letter from the President

Thomas J. Fuccillo

President & Chief Executive Officer

Dear Shareholder:

U.S. economic expansion accelerated during the six-month fiscal reporting period ended August 31, 2018. In contrast, economic growth overseas moderated. Against this backdrop, the overall U.S. equity market posted a solid return, whereas international equities were weak. Elsewhere, the overall U.S. bond market posted a small gain during the reporting period.

For the six month reporting period ended August 31, 2018:

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund returned 4.52% on net asset value (NAV) and 4.01% on market price.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund returned 3.90% on NAV and 9.13% on market price.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II returned 3.89% on NAV and 7.89% on market price.

During the six-month period ended August 31, 2018, the Standard & Poor's (S&P) 500 Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the U.S. stock market, rose 7.96% and the ICE BofA Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the high yield bond market, gained 2.23%. Convertible securities, which share characteristics of both stocks and bonds, generated even stronger results. The ICE BofA Merrill Lynch All Convertibles All Qualities Index, an unmanaged index generally representative of the convertible securities market, returned 8.61%.

Turning to the U.S. economy, gross domestic product (GDP), the value of goods and services produced in the country, which is the broadest measure of economic activity and the principal indicator of economic performance, expanded at a 2.3% annualized pace during the fourth quarter of 2017. GDP growth then moderated to 2.2% during the first quarter of 2018. Finally, the Commerce Department's final reading released after the reporting period had ended showed that GDP grew at an annual pace of 4.2% for the second quarter of 2018.

After raising interest rates three times in 2017, the U.S. Federal Reserve (the Fed) again raised rates at its meetings in March and June 2018. The last hike pushed the federal funds rate to a range between 1.75% and 2.00%. At its meeting in June 2018, the Fed announced that it anticipated raising rates an additional two times before the end of the year. In September 2018 after the reporting period ended the Fed raised the federal funds rate to a range between 2.00% and 2.25%.

Outlook

Economic growth in the U.S. accelerated during the second quarter of 2018, but the end of the economic cycle may be closer than anticipated by the consensus forecast. In our view, a pro-growth mix of economic policies has set conditions conducive to more rapid increases in consumer spending, business investment and labor compensation. Consumer spending is brisk and measures of business optimism seem to break records every month.

Looking ahead to the last few months of the year, however, these outcomes cannot be assured. Households and businesses may well rethink their spending plans over the months ahead as they evaluate the meaning of tax changes, government spending, economic policy adjustments and new risks to their well-being. If capital expenditures by businesses go to unproductive investment, productivity fails to accelerate and inflation-adjusted workers' compensation does not increase, real economic growth could languish.

While Fed monetary policymakers will continue to base their interest-rate decisions on the flow of inflation, wage and labor market data, how the Fed implements monetary policy over the next several years may be at least as important as the timing and magnitude of its policy decisions.

Meanwhile, the interconnectedness of the U.S. economy to other countries remains intricate and deep. Even as trade relations deteriorate, we believe the forces of globalization and technological revolution promise to defeat the forces of nationalism, populism and withdrawal from multilateral arrangements. Even if U.S.-China and U.S.-European Union trade relations play out acrimoniously over the years ahead, for example, a complicated and extensive flow of goods, services, resources and intellectual property between the nations will continue based, for the time being, on a co-dependency built up over the last three decades.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund / AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund /AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

August 31, 2018 (unaudited)

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund

For the period of March 1, 2018 through August 31, 2018, as provided by Douglas G. Forsyth, CFA, Managing Director, Portfolio Manager.

For the six-month period ended August 31, 2018, the AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund (the Fund) returned 4.52% on net asset value (NAV) and 4.01% on market price.

Market Environment

A number of factors influenced the convertible, high yield, and senior secured loan markets during the reporting period, including improving corporate fundamentals, healthy U.S. economic trends, rising interest rates, U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) actions and commentary, and the impact of growing geopolitical concerns on international markets.

Corporate fundamentals continued to improve with most issuers reporting better-than-expected financial results and positive outlooks, citing increasing demand, a more favorable regulatory environment and recent tax-reform benefits. In fact, first and second quarter earnings growth for U.S. companies were the strongest recorded in years.

U.S. economic reports revealed a strengthening labor market, higher consumer confidence and small business optimism, plus healthy retail sales growth. Yet, inflation readings rose and home sales slowed.

Against this favorable economic and corporate backdrop, the Fed raised its key interest rate 25 basis points twice during the reporting period, to a range of 1.75% to 2.00%. Additionally, the U.S. central bank continued to reduce its balance sheet and signaled two more hikes before year-end.

While the U.S. economy remained healthy, the global environment was mixed. Rising global trade tensions, a surging U.S. dollar, Brexit and Italian debt concerns, emerging market stress, and continued conflicts in the Middle East weighed on global markets during the reporting period. While these issues impacted investor sentiment, the U.S. markets remained resilient and reflected a relative safe-haven for investors.

Portfolio Specifics

The convertible bond, high-yield bond, and senior secured loan asset classes all finished the reporting period higher. In addition to providing a strong total return, the Fund also provided a high level of income over the reporting period.

In the convertible bond sleeve, sectors that helped relative performance were financials, consumer discretionary, and media. On the other hand, technology, energy, and transportation sectors pressured relative performance.

Edgar Filing: AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II - Form N-CSRS

In the high-yield bond sleeve, industry exposure that helped relative performance included automotive, banking, and retail. Conversely, the financial services, metals/mining ex-steel, and building materials industries hindered relative performance.

In the senior secured loan sleeve, the top-contributing industries included technology & electronics, retail, and gaming. The top-detracting industries included healthcare, building materials, and energy.

Outlook

In our view, the U.S. economy remains healthy. We believe growth is supported by elevated consumer and business confidence, low unemployment, favorable lending conditions, government spending growth and tax cuts. In addition, corporate profits are estimated to grow significantly in 2018.

We also believe the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act implemented in December 2017 should provide upside benefits to earnings estimates with tax obligations of U.S. corporations likely moving notably lower. Based on bottom-up estimates, the current earnings trajectory could result in double-digit year-over-year earnings growth for the S&P 500 Index in 2018. Potential risks to the economy include geopolitical issues, including rising global trade tensions, higher energy prices, a stronger U.S. dollar, monetary policy surprises by the Fed or higher than expected inflation.

The Fed is expected to take a gradual approach toward monetary policy adjustments. Interest-rate hikes and balance-sheet reduction efforts signal confidence in the U.S. economy's ability to grow. The purpose of these adjustments would be to achieve a normalized environment after an extended period of extreme accommodation. Until the Fed either moves aggressively or is well into the tightening cycle, monetary policy should not be expected to drive an extended sell-off of risk-assets. Overseas, monetary policies continue to be constructive. Over the past 30 years, the U.S. has not fallen into a recession without being preceded by an inverted yield curve. The difference between the three-month Treasury bill and the 10-year Treasury note has narrowed, but the curve remains positive sloping and, in our view, accommodative for growth.

Notes to Performance & Statistics:

* Credit ratings apply to the underlying holdings of the Funds and not the Funds themselves and are divided into categories ranging from highest to lowest credit quality, determined for purposes of presentations in this report by using ratings provided by S&P Global Ratings (S&P). Presentations of credit ratings information in this report use ratings provided by S&P for this purpose, among other reasons, because of the access to background information and other materials provided by S&P, as well as the Funds' considerations of industry practice. Bonds not rated by S&P, or bonds that do not have a rating available from S&P, or bonds that had a rating withdrawn by S&P are designated as NR or NA, respectively. Credit quality ratings assigned by a rating agency are subjective opinions, not statements of fact, and are subject to change periodically, even as frequently as daily. Ratings assigned by S&P or another rating agency are not absolute standards of credit quality and do not evaluate market risk. Rating agencies may fail to make timely changes in credit ratings, and an issuer's current financial condition may be better or worse than a rating indicates. In formulating investment decisions for the Funds, Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC develops its own analysis of the credit quality and risks associated with individual debt instruments, rather than relying exclusively on rating agencies or third-party research.

(1) Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total return is calculated by determining the percentage change in NAV or market price (as applicable) in the specified period. The calculation assumes that all dividends and distributions, if any, have been reinvested. Total return does not reflect broker commissions or sales charges in connection with the purchase or sale of Fund shares. Total return for a period of more than one year represents the average annual total return. Total return for a period of less than one year is not annualized.

Performance at market price will differ from results at NAV. Although market price returns tend to reflect investment results over time, during shorter periods returns at market price can also be influenced by factors such as changing views about the Funds, market conditions, supply and demand for each Fund's shares, or changes in each Fund's dividends.

An investment in each Fund involves risk, including the loss of principal. Total return, market price, market price yield and NAV will fluctuate with changes in market conditions. This data is provided for information purposes only and is not intended for trading purposes. Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. There is a one time public offering and once issued, shares of closed-end funds are traded in the open market through a stock exchange. NAV is equal to total assets attributable to common shareholders less total liabilities divided by the number of common shares outstanding. Holdings are subject to change daily.

(2) The NAV disclosed in the Funds' financial statements may differ from this NAV due to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(3) Market Price Yield is determined by dividing the annualized current monthly dividend per common share (comprised of net investment income) by the market price per common share at August 31, 2018.

(4) Represents amounts drawn under the liquidity facility (Leverage) outstanding, as a percentage of total managed assets. Total managed assets refer to total assets (including assets attributable to Leverage) minus liabilities (other than liabilities representing Leverage).

(5) Represents Preferred Shares and amounts drawn under the liquidity facility (Leverage) outstanding, as a percentage of total managed assets. Total managed assets refer to total assets (including assets attributable to Leverage) minus liabilities (other than liabilities representing Leverage).

Notes to Schedule of Investments:

- (a) Private Placement Restricted as to resale and may not have a readily available market. Securities with an aggregate value of $94,113,479, representing 51.8% of net assets.

- (b) These securities generally pay interest at rates which are periodically pre-determined by reference to a base lending rate plus a premium. These base lending rates are generally either the lending rate offered by one or more major European banks, such as the LIBOR or the prime rate offered by one or more major United States banks, or the certificate of deposit rate. These securities are generally considered to be restricted as the Fund is ordinarily contractually obligated to receive approval from the Agent bank and/or borrower prior to disposition. Remaining maturities of senior loans may be less than the stated maturities shown as a result of contractual or optional payments by the borrower. Such prepayments cannot be predicted with certainty. The interest rate disclosed reflects the rate in effect on August 31, 2018.
- (c) 144A Exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933. These securities may be resold in transactions exempt from registration, typically only to qualified institutional buyers. Securities with an aggregate value of $47,014,253, representing 25.9% of net assets.
- (d) When-issued or delayed-delivery. To be settled/delivered after August 31, 2018.
- (e) All or partial amount segregated for the benefit of the counterparty as collateral for liquidity facility.
- (f) Security, or portion of security, is on loan. The aggregate value of securities on loan is $61,863,998; cash collateral (included in liabilities) of $63,344,814 was received through a liquidity facility See Note 8 in the Notes to Financial Statements.
- (g) Fair Value Measurements See Note 1(b) in the Notes to Financial Statements.

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund (Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term), AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund (Convertible & Income) and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II (Convertible & Income II) (each, a Fund and, collectively, the Funds), were organized as Massachusetts business trusts on March 21, 2017, January 17, 2003 and April 22, 2003, respectively and accordingly follow the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 946 Financial Services Investment Companies. Prior to commencing operations on June 30, 2017, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term had no operations other than matters relating to its organization and registration as a diversified, closed-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), and the rules and regulations thereunder and the sale and issuance of 10,168 shares at an aggregate price of $100,002 (net of sales load) to Allianz Asset Management of America L.P. (AAM). Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II are organized and registered as diversified, closed-end management investment companies registered under the 1940 Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder. Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC (AllianzGI U.S. or the Investment Manager), serves as the Funds investment manager. AllianzGI U.S. is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of AAM. AAM is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Allianz SE, a publicly-traded European insurance and financial services company. Each Fund has authorized an unlimited amount of common shares with $0.00001 par value.

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term s investment objectives are to provide a high level of income and to return at least $9.835 per common share (the original net asset value per common share of beneficial interest before deducting offering costs of $0.02 per share) (the Original NAV) to holders of common shares on or about September 1, 2024 (the Termination Date). The objective to return Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term s Original NAV is not an express or implied guarantee obligation of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, the Investment Manager or any other entity, and an investor may receive less than the Original NAV upon termination of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term attempts to achieve its investment objectives by investing in a diversified portfolio of high yield securities, convertible securities and other income-producing debt instruments, including senior secured loans, primarily of U.S. issuers. The Fund intends, on or about the Termination Date, to cease its investment operations, liquidate its portfolio (to the extent possible), retire or redeem any outstanding leverage facilities and distribute all its liquidated assets to the then-record holders of common shares, unless such term is extended by the Trustees and absent Trustee and shareholder approval to amend the limited term.

Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II each have an investment objective to provide total return through a combination of capital appreciation and high current income. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II attempt to achieve this objective by investing in a portfolio of domestic convertible securities and non-convertible income-producing securities.

There can be no assurance that the Funds will meet their stated objectives.

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

The preparation of the Funds' financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires the Funds' management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in each Fund's financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

In the normal course of business, the Funds enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations that provide general indemnifications. The Funds' maximum exposures under these arrangements are unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet occurred.

In August 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-15 which amends ASC 230 to clarify guidance on the classification of certain cash receipts and cash payments in the statement of cash flows.

In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18 which amends ASC 230 to provide guidance on the classification and presentation of changes in restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents on the statement of cash flows.

ASUs 2016-15 and 2016-18 took effect on March 1, 2018 and the financial statements have been modified accordingly, as applicable.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-08 which changes the amortization period for a callable debt security from the maturity date to the earliest call date. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within those annual periods. At this time, management is evaluating the implications of these changes on the financial statements.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-13 which changes the fair value measurement disclosure requirements for investment companies. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019, and interim periods within those annual periods. At this time, management is evaluating the implications of these changes on the financial statements.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Funds:

(a) Valuation of Investments

Portfolio securities and other financial instruments for which market quotations are readily available are stated at market value. Market value is generally determined on the basis of official closing prices, last reported sales prices, or if no sales or closing prices are reported, on the basis of quotes obtained from a quotation reporting system, established market makers, or independent pricing services. The Funds' investments are valued daily using prices supplied by an independent pricing service or broker/dealer quotations, or by using the last sale or settlement price on the exchange that is the primary market for such securities, or the mean between the last bid and ask quotations. Independent pricing services use information provided by market makers or estimates of market values obtained from yield data relating to investments or securities with similar characteristics.

The Board of Trustees of each Fund (together, the Board) has adopted procedures for valuing portfolio securities and other financial instruments in circumstances where market quotations are not readily available (including in cases where available market quotations are deemed to be unreliable), and has delegated primary responsibility for applying the valuation methods to the Investment Manager. The Funds' Valuation Committee was established by the Board to oversee the implementation of the Funds' valuation methods and to make fair value determinations on behalf of the Board, as necessary. The Investment Manager monitors the continued appropriateness of methods applied and identifies circumstances and events that may require fair valuation. The Investment Manager determines if adjustments should be made in light of market changes, events affecting the issuer, or other factors. If the Investment Manager determines that a valuation method may no longer be appropriate, another valuation method previously approved by the Funds' Valuation Committee may be selected or the Funds' Valuation Committee will be convened to consider the matter and take any appropriate action in accordance with procedures adopted by the Board. The Board shall review and ratify the appropriateness of the valuation methods and these methods may be amended or supplemented from time to time by the Funds' Valuation Committee.

Short-term debt instruments maturing in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, if their original term to maturity was 60 days or less, or by amortizing premiums or discounts based on their value on the 61st day prior to maturity, if the original term to maturity exceeded 60 days.

The prices used by the Funds to value investments may differ from the value that would be realized if the investments were sold, and these differences could be material to the Funds' financial statements. Each Fund's net asset value (NAV) is normally determined as of the close of regular trading (normally, 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time) on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) on each day the NYSE is open for business. In unusual circumstances, the Board or the Valuation Committee may in good faith determine the NAV as of 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, notwithstanding an earlier, unscheduled close or halt of trading on the NYSE.

(b) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

- Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical investments that the Funds have the ability to access
- Level 2 valuations based on other significant observable inputs, which may include, but are not limited to, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, interest rates, yield curves, volatilities, prepayment speeds, loss severities, credit risks and default rates or other market corroborated inputs

Level 3 valuations based on significant unobservable inputs (including the Investment Manager's or Valuation Committee's own assumptions and securities whose price was determined by using a single broker's quote) The valuation techniques used by the Funds to measure fair value during the six months ended August 31, 2018 were intended to maximize the use of observable inputs and to minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The Funds' policy is to recognize transfers between levels at the end of the reporting period. An investment asset's or liability's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level input, individually or in aggregate, that is significant to the fair value measurement. The objective of fair value measurement remains the same even when there is a significant decrease in the volume and level of activity for an asset or liability and regardless of the valuation techniques used. Investments categorized as Level 1 or 2 as of period end may have been transferred between Levels 1 and 2 since the prior period due to changes in the valuation method utilized in valuing the investments.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following are certain inputs and techniques that the Funds generally use to evaluate how to classify each major category of assets and liabilities within Level 2 and Level 3, in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Equity Securities (Common and Preferred Stock and Warrants) Equity securities traded in inactive markets are valued using inputs which include broker-dealer quotes, recently executed transactions adjusted for changes in the benchmark index, or evaluated price quotes received from independent pricing services that take into account the integrity of the market sector and issuer, the individual characteristics of the security, and information received from broker-dealers and other market sources pertaining to the issuer or security. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of equity securities are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Convertible Bonds & Notes Convertible bonds & notes are valued by independent pricing services based on various inputs and techniques, which include broker-dealer quotations from relevant market makers and recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers. The broker-dealer quotations received are supported by credit analysis of the issuer that takes into consideration credit quality assessments, daily trading activity, and the activity of the underlying equities, listed bonds and sector-specific trends. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of convertible bonds & notes are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Corporate Bonds & Notes Corporate bonds & notes are generally comprised of two main categories: investment grade bonds and high yield bonds. Investment grade bonds are valued by independent pricing services using various inputs and techniques, which include broker-dealer quotations, live trading levels, recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers, and option adjusted spread models that include base curve and spread curve inputs. Adjustments to individual bonds can be applied to recognize trading differences compared to other bonds issued by the same issuer. High yield bonds are valued by independent pricing services based primarily on broker-dealer quotations from relevant market makers and recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers. The broker-dealer quotations received are supported by credit analysis of the issuer that takes into consideration credit quality assessments, daily trading activity, and the activity of the underlying equities, listed bonds and sector-specific trends. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of corporate bonds & notes are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

Senior Loans Senior Loans generally are valued by independent pricing services based on the average of quoted prices received from multiple dealers or valued relative to other benchmark securities when broker-dealer quotes are unavailable. These quoted prices are based on interest rates, yield curves, option adjusted spreads, credit spreads and/or other criteria. To the extent that these inputs are observable, the values of Senior Loans are categorized as Level 2. To the extent that these inputs are unobservable, the values are categorized as Level 3.

(c) Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Realized gains and losses on investments are determined on an identified cost basis. Interest income adjusted for the accretion of discounts and amortization of premiums is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts or premiums on debt securities purchased are accreted or amortized, respectively, to interest income. Conversion premium is not amortized. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except for certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, and then are recorded as soon after the ex-dividend date as the Funds, using reasonable diligence, become aware of such dividends. Facility fees and other fees (such as origination fees) received on settlement date are amortized as income over the expected term of the senior loan. Consent fees relating to corporate actions and facility fees and other fees received after settlement date relating to senior loans and commitment fees received relating to unfunded purchase commitments are recorded as miscellaneous income upon receipt. Payments received from certain investments may be comprised of dividends, realized gains and return of capital. These payments may initially be recorded as dividend income and may subsequently be reclassified as realized gains and/or return of capital upon receipt of information from the issuer. Payments considered return of capital reduce the cost basis of the respective security. Distributions, if any, in excess of the cost basis of a security are recognized as capital gains. Expenses are recorded on an accrual basis.

(d) Federal Income Taxes

The Funds intend to distribute all of their taxable income and to comply with the other requirements of Subchapter M of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, no provision for U.S. federal income taxes is required. The Funds may be subject to excise tax based on distributions to shareholders.

Accounting for uncertainty in income taxes establishes for all entities, including pass-through entities such as the Funds, a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of positions taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction), and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. In accordance with provisions set forth under U.S. GAAP, the Investment Manager has reviewed the Funds' tax positions for all open tax years. As of August 31, 2018, the Funds have recorded no liability for net unrecognized tax benefits relating to uncertain income tax positions they have taken. The Funds' federal income tax returns for the prior three years, as applicable, remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

(e) Dividends and Distributions – Common Shares

The distributions by Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term may be comprised in varying portions of net investment income, capital gains, including short-term or long-term capital gains, and return of capital. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term may distribute some or all net realized long-term capital gains not previously distributed, if any, at least annually.

The Funds declare dividends from net investment income to common shareholders monthly. The distributions by Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II may be comprised in varying proportions of net investment income and return of capital. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II distribute net realized capital gains, if any, at least annually. The Funds record dividends and distributions on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains or return of capital is determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. These book-tax differences are considered either temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal income tax treatment. Temporary differences do not require reclassification. To the extent dividends and/or distributions exceed current and accumulated earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes, they are reported as dividends and/or distributions to shareholders from return of capital. As of August 31, 2018, it is anticipated that Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II will have a return of capital at fiscal year-end.

(f) Convertible Securities

It is the Funds' policy to invest a portion of their assets in convertible securities. Although convertible securities derive part of their value from that of the securities into which they are convertible, they are not considered derivative financial instruments. However, certain of the Funds' investments in convertible securities include features which render them sensitive to price changes in their underlying securities. The value of structured/synthetic convertible securities can be affected by interest rate changes and credit risks of the issuer. Such securities may be structured in ways that limit their potential for capital appreciation and the entire value of the security may be at risk of loss depending on the performance of the underlying equity security. Consequently, the Funds are exposed to greater downside risk than traditional convertible securities, but typically still less than that of the underlying stock.

(g) Senior Loans

The Funds may purchase assignments of, and participations in, Senior Loans originated, negotiated and structured by a U.S. or foreign commercial bank, insurance company, finance company or other financial institution for a lending syndicate of financial institutions (the Lender). When purchasing an assignment, the Funds succeed to all the rights and obligations under the loan agreement with the same rights and obligations as the assigning Lender. Assignments may, however, be arranged through private negotiations between potential assignees and potential assignors, and the rights and obligations acquired by the purchaser of an assignment may differ from, and be more limited than, those held by the assigning Lender. The Funds may also enter into lending arrangements involving unfunded loan commitments, which are contractual obligations for future funding. Unfunded loan commitments may include revolving credit facilities, which may obligate the Funds to supply additional cash to the borrower on demand. Unfunded loan commitments represent a future obligation in full, even though a percentage of the principal amounts may never be utilized by the borrower.

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

The Funds may purchase the securities of distressed companies (including assignments or direct investments), including companies engaged in restructurings or bankruptcy proceedings. Investments in distressed companies may include senior obligations of an issuer issued in connection with a restructuring under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (commonly known as debtor-in-possession or DIP financings). Debtor-in-possession financings generally allow the issuer to continue its operations while reorganizing. Such financings constitute senior liens on unencumbered collateral (i.e., collateral not subject to other creditors' claims). There is risk that the issuer under a debtor-in-possession financing will not emerge from Chapter 11 and be forced to liquidate its assets under Chapter 7 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. In the event of liquidation, the Funds' only recourse would be against the collateral securing the debtor-in-possession financing.

(h) Payment In-Kind Securities

The Funds may invest in payment in-kind securities, which are debt or preferred stock securities that require or permit payment of interest in the form of additional securities. Payment in-kind securities allow the issuer to avoid or delay the need to generate cash to meet current interest payments and, as a result, may involve greater risk than securities that pay interest currently or in cash.

(i) Warrants

The Funds may receive warrants. Warrants are securities that are usually issued together with a debt security or preferred stock and that give the holder the right to buy a proportionate amount of common stock at a specified price. Warrants may be freely transferable and are often traded on major exchanges. Warrants normally have a life that is measured in years and entitle the holder to buy common stock of a company at a price that is usually higher than the market price at the time the warrant is issued. Warrants may entail greater risks than certain other types of investments. Generally, warrants do not carry the right to receive dividends or exercise voting rights with respect to the underlying securities, and they do not represent any rights in the assets of the issuer. In addition, their value does not necessarily change with the value of the underlying securities, and they cease to have value if they are not exercised on or before their expiration date. If the market price of the underlying stock does not exceed the exercise price during the life of the warrant, the warrant will expire worthless. Warrants may increase the potential profit or loss to be realized from the investment as compared with investing the same amount in the underlying securities. Similarly, the percentage increase or decrease in the value of an equity security warrant may be greater than the percentage increase or decrease in the value of the underlying common stock. Warrants may relate to the purchase of equity or debt securities. Debt obligations with warrants attached to purchase equity securities have many characteristics of convertible securities and their prices may, to some degree, reflect the performance of the underlying stock. Debt obligations also may be issued with warrants attached to purchase additional debt securities at the same coupon rate. A decline in interest rates would permit a Fund to sell such warrants at a profit. If interest rates rise, these warrants would generally expire with no value.

(j) Statement of Cash Flows

U.S. GAAP requires entities providing financial statements that report both financial position and results of operations to also provide a statement of cash flows for each period for which results of operations are provided, but exempts investment companies meeting certain conditions. One of the conditions is that the fund had little or no debt, based on the average debt outstanding during the period, in relation to average total assets. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term's indebtedness has been determined to be at a level requiring a statement of cash flows. The Statement of Cash Flows has been prepared using the indirect method which required net change in net assets resulting from operations to be adjusted to reconcile to net cash flows from operating activities. Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II do not require a Statement of Cash Flows.

(k) Loan Interest Expense

With respect to Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, loan interest expense relates to amounts borrowed under the BNP Facility (as defined below) and under its SSB Facility (as defined below). With respect to Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II, loan interest expense relates to amounts borrowed under each Fund's respective SSB Facility (See Note 8). Loan interest expense is recorded as it is incurred.

(l) Repurchase Agreements

The Funds are parties to Master Repurchase Agreements (Master Repo Agreements) with select counterparties. The Master Repo Agreements include provisions for initiation of repurchase transactions, income payments, events of default, and maintenance of collateral.

The Funds enter into transactions, under the Master Repo Agreements, with their custodian bank or securities brokerage firms whereby they purchase securities under agreements (i.e., repurchase agreements) to resell such securities at an agreed upon price and date. The Funds, through their custodian, take possession of securities collateralizing the repurchase agreement. Such agreements are carried at the contract amount in the financial statements, which is considered to represent fair value. The collateral that is pledged (i.e. the securities received by the Funds), which consists primarily of U.S. government obligations and asset-backed securities, is held by the custodian bank for the benefit of the Funds until maturity of the repurchase agreement. Provisions of the repurchase agreements and the procedures adopted by the Funds require that the market value of the collateral, including accrued interest thereon, be sufficient in the event of default by the counterparty. If the counterparty defaults under the Master Repo Agreements and the value of the collateral declines or if the counterparty enters an insolvency proceeding, realization of the collateral by the Funds may be delayed or limited. The gross values are included in the Funds' Schedules of Investments. As of August 31, 2018, the value of the related collateral exceeded the value of the repurchase agreements for each Fund.

(m) Restricted Securities

The Funds are permitted to invest in securities that are subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale. These securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration or to the public if the securities are registered. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and expenses, and prompt sale at an acceptable price may be difficult.

2. Principal Risks

In the normal course of business, the Funds trade financial instruments and enter into financial transactions where risk of potential loss exists due to, among other things, changes in the market (market risk) or failure of the other party to a transaction to perform (counterparty risk). The Funds are also exposed to other risks such as, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and leverage risks. Additionally, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term is exposed to limited term risk.

Interest rate risk is the risk that fixed income securities valuations will change because of changes in interest rates. During periods of rising nominal interest rates, the values of fixed income instruments are generally expected to decline. Conversely, during periods of declining nominal interest rates, the values of fixed income instruments are generally expected to rise. To the extent that a Fund effectively has short positions with respect to fixed income instruments, the values of such short positions would generally be expected to rise when nominal interest rates rise and to decline when nominal interest rates decline. A nominal interest rate can be described as the sum of a real interest rate and an expected inflation rate. Fixed income securities with longer durations tend to be more sensitive to changes in interest rates, usually making them more volatile than securities with shorter durations. Duration is used primarily as a measure of the sensitivity of a fixed income security's market price to interest rate (i.e., yield) movements. Interest rate changes can be sudden and unpredictable, and a fund may lose money as a result of movements in interest rates. A fund may not be able to hedge against changes in interest rates or may choose not to do so for cost or other reasons. In addition, any hedges may not work as intended. The values of equity and other non-fixed income securities may also decline due to fluctuations in interest rates.

The Funds are exposed to credit risk, which is the risk of losing money if the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income security is unable or unwilling, or is perceived (whether by market participants, rating agencies, pricing services or otherwise) as unable or unwilling, to make timely principal and/or interest payments, or to otherwise honor its obligations. Securities are subject to varying degrees of credit risk, which are often reflected in credit ratings.

The market values of securities may decline due to general market conditions (market risk) which are not specifically related to a particular company, such as real or perceived adverse economic conditions, changes in the general outlook for corporate earnings, changes in interest or currency rates, adverse changes to credit markets or adverse investor sentiment. They may also decline due to factors that affect a particular industry or industries, such as labor shortages or increased production costs and competitive conditions within an industry. Equity securities and equity-related investments generally have greater market price volatility than fixed income securities, although under certain market conditions fixed income securities may have comparable or greater price volatility. Credit ratings downgrades may also negatively affect securities held by the Funds. Even when markets perform well, there is no assurance that the investments held by the Funds will increase in value along with the broader market. In addition, market risk includes the risk that geopolitical events will disrupt the economy on a national or global level.

The Funds are exposed to counterparty risk, or the risk that an institution or other entity with which the Funds have unsettled or open transactions will default. The potential loss to the Funds could exceed the value of the financial assets recorded in the Funds' financial statements. Financial assets, which potentially expose the Funds to counterparty risk, consist principally of cash due from counterparties and investments. The Investment Manager seeks to minimize the Funds' counterparty risk by performing reviews of each counterparty and by minimizing concentration of counterparty risk by undertaking transactions with multiple customers and counterparties on recognized and reputable exchanges. Delivery of securities sold is only made once the Funds have received payment. Payment is made on a purchase once the securities have been delivered by the counterparty. The trade will fail if either party fails to meet its obligation.

The Funds are exposed to risks associated with leverage. Leverage may cause the value of the Funds' shares to be more volatile than if the Funds did not use leverage. This is because leverage tends to exaggerate the effect of any increase or decrease in the value of the Funds' portfolio securities. The Funds may engage in transactions or purchase instruments that give rise to forms of leverage. In addition, to the extent the Funds employ leverage, dividend and interest costs on such leverage may not be recovered by any appreciation of the securities purchased with the leverage proceeds and could exceed the Funds' investment returns, resulting in greater losses. As discussed further in Note 6, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II have auction-rate preferred shares outstanding. As discussed further in Note 8, the Funds have entered into a liquidity facility.

Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term is exposed to limited term risk. The Fund has a limited term feature, pursuant to which it intends, on or about September 1, 2024, to cease its investment operations, liquidate its portfolio (to the extent possible), retire or redeem any outstanding leverage facilities and distribute all its liquidated assets to its then record shareholders, unless the term is extended by the Fund's Board of Trustees (for up to six months) and absent Trustee and shareholder approval to amend the limited term. Because the assets of the Fund will be liquidated in connection with its termination, the Fund may be required to sell portfolio securities when it otherwise would not, including at times when market conditions are not favorable, or at a time when a particular security has entered into default or bankruptcy, or otherwise is in severe distress, which may cause the Fund to lose money. Although the Fund has an investment objective of returning the Original NAV to Common Shareholders on or about the Termination Date, this is not a guarantee and the Fund may not be successful in achieving this objective. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to return the Original NAV to Common Shareholders, and such return is not backed or otherwise guaranteed by the Fund, the Investment Manager or any other entity.

The Funds may hold defaulted securities that may involve special considerations including bankruptcy proceedings, other regulatory and legal restrictions affecting the Funds' ability to trade, and the availability of prices from independent pricing services or dealer quotations. Defaulted securities are often illiquid and may not be actively traded. Sale of securities in bankrupt companies at an acceptable price may be difficult and differences compared to the value of the securities used by the Funds could be material. A Fund may incur additional expenses to the extent it is required to seek recovery upon a portfolio security's default in the payment of principal or interest. In any bankruptcy proceeding relating to a defaulted investment, a Fund may lose its entire investment or may be required to accept cash or securities with a value substantially less than its original investment.

Investments in senior loans and repurchase agreements also involve special risks. Although typically secured, senior loans may not be backed by sufficient collateral to satisfy their issuers' obligations in the event of bankruptcy.

or similar scenarios. Senior loans may also be illiquid. Similarly, repurchase agreements may result in losses if the collateral associated with such positions is insufficient in the event of a counterparty default or similar scenario. Repurchase agreement positions may also be illiquid.

3. Investment Manager & Deferred Compensation

Investment Manager. Each Fund has an Investment Management Agreement (for the purpose of this section, each an Agreement) with the Investment Manager. Subject to the supervision of the Funds Board, the Investment Manager is responsible for managing, either directly or through others selected by it, the Funds investment activities, business affairs and administrative matters. Pursuant to its Agreement, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term pays the Investment Manager an annual fee, payable monthly, at an annual rate of 0.75% of its average daily total managed assets. Total managed assets for Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term refer to the total assets of the Fund (including assets attributable to any borrowings, issued debt securities or preferred shares that may be outstanding, reverse repurchase agreements and dollar rolls) minus accrued liabilities (other than liabilities representing borrowings, issued debt securities, reverse repurchase agreements and dollar rolls). Pursuant to their Agreements, Convertible & Income and Convertible &

Income II, pay the Investment Manager an annual fee, payable monthly, at an annual rate of 0.70% of each Fund's average daily total managed assets. Total managed assets for Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II refer to the total assets of the Fund (including any assets attributable to any preferred shares or other forms of leverage of the Fund that may be outstanding) minus accrued liabilities (other than liabilities representing leverage).

Deferred Compensation. Trustees do not currently receive any pension or retirement benefits from the Funds. The Funds have adopted a deferred compensation plan (the Plan) for the Trustees, which permits the Trustees to defer their receipt of compensation from the Funds, at their election, in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Under the Plan, each Trustee may elect not to receive all or a portion of his or her fees from the Funds on a current basis but to receive in a subsequent period, chosen by the Trustee, an amount equal to the value of such compensation if such compensation had been invested in one or more series of Allianz Funds Multi-Strategy Trust or Allianz Funds selected by the Trustees from and after the normal payment dates for such compensation. The deferred compensation program is structured such that the Funds remain in substantially the same financial position whether Trustee fees are paid when earned or deferred.

4. Investments in Securities

For the six months ended August 31, 2018, purchases and sales of investments, other than short-term securities were:

At August 31, 2018, the aggregate cost basis and the net unrealized depreciation of investments for federal income tax purposes were:

6. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares

Convertible & Income has 1,894 shares of Preferred Shares Series A, 1,779 shares of Preferred Shares Series B, 1,909 shares of Preferred Shares Series C, 1,842 shares of Preferred Shares Series D and 1,507 shares of Preferred Shares Series E outstanding, each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Convertible & Income II has 1,296 shares of Preferred Shares Series A, 1,512 shares of Preferred Shares Series B, 1,239 shares of Preferred Shares Series C, 1,156 shares of Preferred Shares Series D and 1,298 shares of Preferred Shares Series E outstanding, each with a liquidation preference of $25,000 per share plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Dividends are accumulated daily at an annual rate that is typically re-set every seven days. Distributions of net realized capital gains, if any, are paid annually.

Edgar Filing: AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II - Form N-CSRS

For the six months ended August 31, 2018, the annualized dividend rates paid with respect to the Preferred shares of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II ranged from:

	High	Low	At August 31, 2018
Series A	2.927%	2.162%	2.852%
Series B	2.882%	2.147%	2.852%
Series C	2.867%	2.162%	2.852%
Series D	2.867%	2.162%	2.852%
Series E	2.882%	2.177%	2.882%

Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II are subject to certain limitations and restrictions while Preferred Shares are outstanding. Failure to comply with these limitations and restrictions could preclude the Funds from declaring or paying any dividends or distributions to common shareholders or repurchasing common shares and/or could trigger the mandatory redemption of Preferred Shares at their liquidation preference plus any accumulated, unpaid dividends.

Preferred shareholders, who are entitled to one vote per shares, generally vote together with the common shareholders but vote separately as a class to elect two Trustees and on certain matters adversely affecting the rights of the Preferred Shares.

6. Auction-Rate Preferred Shares (continued)

Since mid-February 2008, holders of auction-rate preferred shares (ARPS) issued by the Funds have been directly impacted by a lack of liquidity, which has similarly affected ARPS holders in many of the nation's closed-end funds. Since then, regularly scheduled auctions for the Preferred shares (which are ARPS) issued by the Funds have consistently failed because of insufficient demand (bids to buy shares) to meet the supply (shares offered for sale) at each auction.

In a failed auction, ARPS holders cannot sell all, and may not be able to sell any, of their shares tendered for sale. While repeated auction failures have affected the liquidity for ARPS, they do not constitute a default or automatically alter the credit quality of the ARPS, and ARPS holders have continued to receive dividends at the defined maximum rate, which for the Funds is equal to the 7-day AA Composite Commercial Paper Rate multiplied by a minimum of 150%, depending on the credit rating of the ARPS. The maximum rate is a function of short-term interest rates and typically higher than the rate that would have otherwise been set through a successful auction.

On May 29, 2014, Moody's Investors Service upgraded each Fund's Preferred shares ratings to Aa3 from A1. As a result, the applicable multiplier for calculating the maximum rate decreased from 200% to 150% beginning on that date. If the Funds' Preferred shares auctions continue to fail and the maximum rate payable on the Preferred shares rises as result of changes in short-term interest rates, returns for the Funds' common shareholders could be adversely affected.

7. Tender Offer

On June 20, 2018, the Board announced a tender offer to purchase for cash up to 100% of the outstanding ARPS of each of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II at a price equal to 94% of the ARPS' liquidation preference of $25,000 per share (or $23,500 per share) plus any unpaid dividends accrued through the expiration date of each tender offer, or such later date to which such tender offer may be extended (each a Tender Offer and, together, the Tender Offers).

On June 28, 2018, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II each commenced its respective Tender Offer. The tables below include the per share liquidation preference and tender offer price per share for the ARPS of each of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II.

On July 31, 2018, the Tender Offers expired and Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II announced the results of the Tender Offers. With respect to Convertible & Income, 5,349 ARPS were tendered, representing approximately 37% of the outstanding ARPS. With respect to Convertible & Income II, 4,459 ARPS were tendered, representing approximately 41% of the outstanding ARPS. The Tender Offers resulted in accretion to the NAVs of common shareholders of $0.09 per common share for both Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II. The ARPS of Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II that were not tendered remain outstanding.

8. Liquidity Facility

Each of Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term, Convertible & Income and Convertible & Income II has entered into a liquidity facility (each a SSB Facility and together the SSB Facilities) with State Street Bank & Trust Company (State Street). The maximum capital commitment amounts under the respective SSB Facilities are $71,000,000, $265,000,000 and $210,000,000, respectively. Interest on amounts drawn under each SSB Facility is charged at a daily rate equal to the U.S. 3-month LIBOR rate plus 0.55%, with a commitment fee of 0.15% payable on the maximum capital commitment amount less the amount drawn. At August 31, 2018, the Funds had borrowings outstanding under the SSB Facilities totaling $69,700,000, $125,701,500 and $104,786,500, respectively. The interest rate charged at August 31, 2018, was 2.871%. During the period ended August 31, 2018, the weighted average daily balance outstanding was $69,700,000, $125,701,500 and $104,786,500, respectively, at the weighted average interest rate of 3.083%, 2.873% and 2.873%, respectively. Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term previously had a margin loan financing agreement with BNP Paribas Prime Brokerage International Ltd. at a daily rate equal to the U.S. 3-month LIBOR rate plus 0.90% which expired on June 26, 2018 (the BNP Facility). Loan interest expense of $1,027,439, $310,741 and $258,021, respectively, are included in the Funds' Statement of Operations. Borrowings under the SSB Facilities are fully secured by an all-assets lien. The SSB Facilities permit draw-downs to be funded through securities lending and reverse repurchase transactions administered by State Street.

The Funds have the right to call a loan and obtain the securities loaned after notice to State Street. As of August 31, 2018, Convertible & Income 2024 Term and Convertible & Income used approximately $63,344,814 and $53,889,750, respectively, of their cash collateral to offset borrowings under the SSB Facilities, representing 25.2% and 5.9% of managed assets, respectively. As of August 31, 2018, $61,863,998 and $52,832,323 of securities were on loan (all fixed income securities), respectively, under the SSB Facilities. These amounts are reflected on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities in Investments, at value. The borrowings are categorized as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy.

9. Related Party Transactions

The Investment Manager is a related party. Fees payable to this party are disclosed in Note 3 and the accrued related party fee amounts are disclosed on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities.

The Funds are permitted to purchase or sell securities from or to certain related affiliated funds under specified conditions outlined in procedures adopted by the Board. The procedures have been designed to ensure that any purchase or sale of securities by the Funds from or to another fund or portfolio that are, or could be, considered an affiliate by virtue of having a common investment adviser (or affiliated investment advisers), common Trustees and/or common officers comply with Rule 17a-7 of the 1940 Act. Further, as defined under the procedures, each transaction is effected at the current market price.

During the six months ended August 31, 2018, the Funds did not engage in sales of securities pursuant to Rule 17a-7 of the 1940 Act.

10. Common Shares Issued

During the fiscal year ended February 28, 2018, Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term issued 16,500,000 common shares in its initial public offering. An additional 1,746,796 shares were issued in connection with the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option. These shares were all issued at $9.835 per share (public offering price of $10.00 per share less sales load of 1.65% of the offering price). Offering costs of $364,936 (representing $0.02 per share) were incurred by Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term for the shares issued in the initial offering and the exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option and were charged to paid-in capital in excess of par. The Investment Manager agreed to pay all offering costs associated with the public offering (other than the sales load) exceeding $0.02 per share, which came to approximately $1,170,064.

Matters Relating to the Trustees Consideration of the Investment Management Agreements (unaudited)

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

The Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, requires that both the full Board of Trustees (the Board or the Trustees) and a majority of the non-interested Trustees (the Independent Trustees), voting separately, annually approve the continuation of each Fund s (as defined below) Investment Management Agreement (for purposes of this section, the Advisory Agreements or the Agreements) with Allianz Global Investors U.S. LLC (the Investment Manager).

The Board, including the Independent Trustees, met in person on June 13, 2018 (the approval meeting) for the specific purpose of considering whether to approve the continuation of the Advisory Agreements for an additional year. The Funds Contracts Committees, which are comprised of all of the Independent Trustees, met on May 30, 2018 and June 13, 2018 (together with the approval meeting, the contract review meetings) with independent counsel to discuss the materials provided by the Investment Manager in response to the Independent Trustees written request for information regarding the annual renewal. Representatives from fund management attended portions of those meetings to, among other topics, review the comparative fee and expense information and comparative performance information prepared and provided by Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (Broadridge), an independent third party, for each Fund using its respective Broadridge peer groups for performance and expense comparisons.

At their meeting held on June 13, 2018 the Board, including the Independent Trustees, unanimously approved the continuation of the Agreements for an additional one-year period commencing July 1, 2018 with respect to AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund (CBH), AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund (NCV), and AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II (NCZ and, together with CBH and NCV, for the purposes of this section, the Funds). The material factors and conclusions that formed the basis of these approvals are discussed below.

In connection with their deliberations regarding the approval of the Agreements, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, considered such information and factors as they believed, in light of the legal advice furnished to them and their own business judgment, to be relevant. As described below, the Trustees also considered the nature, quality and extent of the various investment management, administrative and other services to be performed by the Investment Manager under the applicable Agreement.

In connection with their contract review meetings, the Trustees received and relied upon materials provided by the Investment Manager including, among other items: (i) information provided by Broadridge on the total return investment performance (based on net asset value and common share market price) of the Funds for various time periods, and the investment performance of a group of funds identified by Broadridge with investment classifications and/or objectives comparable to those of the Funds (the Broadridge Performance Universe); (ii) information provided by Broadridge on the Funds management fees and other expenses, and the fees and other expenses of comparable funds identified by Broadridge (the Broadridge Expense Group or Expense Group) (based both on common share and leveraged assets combined (if applicable), and on common share assets alone); (iii) information regarding the investment performance and fees for other funds and separately managed accounts managed by the Investment

Manager with strategies that have similarities (but none of which are substantially similar) to those of the Funds; (iv) an estimate of the profitability to the Investment Manager from its relationship with the Funds for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017; (v) descriptions of various functions performed by the Investment Manager for the Funds, such as portfolio management, compliance monitoring, portfolio trading practices and oversight of third party service providers; (vi) information regarding the overall organization and business functions of the Investment Manager, including, without limitation, information regarding senior management, portfolio managers and other personnel providing investment management, administrative, compliance and other services, and corporate ownership and business operations unrelated to the Funds; (vii) fact cards for each Fund including, among other information, investment objective, total net assets, annual fund operating expenses, portfolio managers, performance based on net asset value and market value, related share price premium and/or discount information, performance (based on net asset value and market value) relative to each Fund's Broadridge Performance Universe, total expense ratio and management fee comparisons between each Fund and its Broadridge Expense Group and trends in profitability to the Investment Manager from its relationship with each Fund; (viii) summaries assigning a quadrant placement to each Fund based on an average of certain measures of performance and fees/expenses versus its Broadridge peer group medians; (ix) information regarding the Funds' use of leverage, if any; and (x) so-called "fall-out benefits" potentially available to the Investment Manager as a result of its advisory arrangements with the Funds.

The Trustees' conclusions as to the approval of the Agreements were based on a comprehensive consideration of all information provided to the Trustees and were not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees' deliberations are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently from one another, attributing different weights to various factors. The Trustees recognized that the fee arrangements for the Funds are the result of review and discussion in the prior years between the Independent Trustees and the Investment Manager, that certain aspects of such arrangements may receive greater scrutiny in some years than in others, and that the Trustees' conclusions may be based, in part, on their consideration of these same arrangements during the course of the year and in prior years. The Trustees evaluated information available to them on a Fund-by-Fund basis, and their determinations were made separately in respect of each Fund. The Trustees also considered the risk profiles of the Funds.

The Trustees considered, among other matters, that the Investment Manager provides the Funds with office space, administrative services and personnel to serve as officers of the Funds, and that the Investment Manager and its affiliates pay all of the compensation of the Funds' interested Trustees and officers (in their capacities as employees of the Investment Manager or such affiliates).

Performance Information

Fund-specific performance results reviewed by the Trustees are discussed below. The comparative performance information was prepared and provided by Broadridge and was not independently verified by the Trustees. Due to the passage of time, these performance results may differ from the performance results for more recent periods. The Trustees reviewed, among other information, comparative information showing performance of each Fund against its respective Broadridge Performance Universe (based on net asset value and market value) for the one-year, three-year, five-year and ten-year periods (to the extent each such Fund had been in existence), each ended March 31, 2018.

In addition, the Trustees considered matters bearing on the Funds and their advisory arrangements at their meetings throughout the year, including a review of performance data at each regular meeting (either by the full Board or by the Performance Committee of the Board).

As part of their review, the Trustees examined the ability of the Investment Manager to provide high-quality investment management and other services to the Funds. Among other information, the Trustees considered the investment philosophy and research and decision-making processes of the Investment Manager, as well as the Investment Manager's broker selection process and trading operations; the experience of key advisory personnel of the Investment Manager and its affiliates, as applicable, responsible for portfolio management of the Funds; the ability of the Investment Manager to attract and retain capable personnel; the background and capabilities of the senior management and staff of the Investment Manager; employee compensation; and the operational infrastructure, including technology and systems, of the Investment Manager. In addition, the Trustees reviewed the extent and quality of the Investment Manager's services with respect to regulatory compliance and ability to comply with the investment policies of the Funds; the compliance programs and risk controls of the Investment Manager; the specific contractual obligations of the Investment Manager pursuant to the Agreements; the nature, extent and quality of certain administrative services the Investment Manager is responsible for providing to the Funds; the Investment Manager's risk management function; and conditions that might affect the ability of the Investment Manager to provide high quality services to the Funds in the future under the Agreements, including, but not limited to, the organization's financial condition and operational stability. Based on the foregoing, the Trustees concluded that the Investment Manager's investment processes, research capabilities and philosophy were well-suited to the applicable Fund, given its respective investment objective and policies, that the Investment Manager would be able to continue to meet any reasonably foreseeable obligations under the Agreements, and that the Investment Manager would otherwise be able to provide services to the Funds of sufficient extent and quality.

Fee and Expense Information

In assessing the reasonableness of each Fund's fees under the Agreements, the Trustees considered, among other information, each Fund's management fee and its total expense ratio as a percentage of average net assets attributable to common shares and as a percentage of average managed assets (including assets attributable to common shares and leverage outstanding combined) and the management fee and total expense ratios of such Fund's Broadridge Expense Group. Specifically, the Trustees reviewed each Fund's ranking within its Broadridge Expense Group for total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share assets and total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share and leveraged assets combined, as applicable. Each Fund's ranking within its Broadridge Expense Group for both actual management fees based on common share assets and actual management fees based on common and leveraged assets combined were also considered, as applicable. The Fund-specific fee and expense results discussed below were prepared and provided by Broadridge and were not independently verified by the Trustees.

The Trustees specifically took note of how each Fund compared to its Broadridge peers as to performance, management fee and total expense ratio. The Trustees noted that while the Funds are not charged a separate administration fee (recognizing that their management fee includes a component for administrative services), it was not clear in all cases whether the peer funds in the Broadridge categories were separately charged such a fee by their investment managers, so that the total expense ratio (rather than any individual expense component) represented the most relevant comparison. It was noted that the total expense ratio comparisons reflect the effect of any expense waivers/reimbursements (although none exist for the Funds).

NCV

The Trustees noted that the Broadridge Expense Group for the Fund consisted of a total of eight closed-end funds, including the Fund (but excluding Convertible & Income II). The Trustees also noted that average net assets of the common shares of the eight funds in the Broadridge Expense Group ranged from $281.1 million to $774.4 million, and that two funds in the Expense Group were larger in asset size than the Fund. The Trustees also noted that the Fund was ranked second out of eight funds in the Expense Group for total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share assets, second based on total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share and leveraged assets combined, sixth in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common share assets and third in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common and leveraged assets combined (with the fund ranked first having the lowest fees/expenses and the fund ranked eighth having the highest fees/expenses in the Expense Group).

With respect to total return performance relative to its Broadridge Performance Universe (based on net asset value), the Trustees noted that the Fund had second quintile performance for the ten-year period, third quintile performance for the five-year period, and fourth quintile performance for the one- and three-year period, each ended March 31, 2018.

NCZ

The Trustees noted that the Broadridge Expense Group for the Fund consisted of a total of eight closed-end funds, including the Fund (but excluding Convertible & Income). The Trustees also noted that average net assets of the common shares of the eight funds in the Broadridge Expense Group ranged from $281.1 million to $774.4 million, and that four funds in the group were larger in asset size than the Fund. The Trustees noted that the Fund was ranked second out of the eight funds in the Expense Group for total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share assets, second based on total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share and leveraged assets combined, eighth in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common share assets and third in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common and leveraged assets combined (with the fund ranked first having the lowest fees/expenses and the fund ranked eighth having the highest fees/expenses in the Expense Group).

With respect to total return performance relative to its Broadridge Performance Universe (based on net asset value), the Trustees noted that the Fund had second quintile performance for the ten-year period, third quintile performance for the five-year period, and fourth quintile performance for the one- and three-year periods, each ended March 31, 2018.

CBH

The Trustees noted that the Broadridge Expense Group for the Fund consisted of a total of twelve closed-end funds, including the Fund. The Trustees also noted that average net assets of the common shares of the twelve funds in the Broadridge Expense Group ranged from $171.9 million to $888.8 million, and that nine funds in the group were larger in asset size than the Fund. The Trustees noted that the Fund was ranked seventh out of the twelve funds in the Expense Group for total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share assets, ninth based on total expense ratio (including any interest and borrowing expenses) based on common share and leveraged assets combined, third in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common share assets and fifth in the Expense Group for actual management fees based on common and leveraged assets combined (with the fund ranked first having the lowest fees/expenses and the fund ranked twelfth having the highest fees/expenses in the Expense Group).

With respect to total return performance relative to its Broadridge Performance Universe (based on net asset value), the Trustees noted that the Fund had fourth quintile performance for the period from inception on June 28, 2017 through March 31, 2018.

In addition to their review of Fund performance based on net asset value, the Trustees also considered the market value performance of each Fund's common shares and related share price premium and/or discount information based on the materials provided by Broadridge and the Investment Manager.

The Trustees were advised that the Investment Manager does not manage any funds or accounts, including institutional or separate accounts, with investment strategies and return profiles substantially similar to those of the Funds. However, the Trustees considered the management fees charged by the Investment Manager to other funds and accounts with strategies that have similarities (but none of which are substantially similar) to those of the Funds, including open-end funds and, in some cases, separate accounts, advised by the Investment Manager. The Trustees noted that the management fees paid by the Funds are generally higher than the fees paid by such separate account clients. However, the Trustees were advised that the Investment Manager generally provides broader and more extensive services to the Funds in comparison to separate accounts, and incurs additional expenses in connection with the more extensive regulatory regime to which the Funds are subject in comparison to separate accounts generally. The Trustees noted that the management fees paid by the Funds are generally higher than the fees paid by the open-end funds offered for comparison, but were advised by the Investment Manager that there are additional portfolio management challenges in managing closed-end funds such as the Funds, including, but not limited to, those associated with less liquid holdings, the use of leverage, issues relating to trading on a national exchange and attempting to meet a regular dividend, that do not apply to the management of open-end funds.

The Trustees also took into account that NCV and NCZ have preferred shares outstanding and CBH has short-term loans outstanding to provide leverage, which increase the amount of management fees payable by the Funds under the Agreements (because each Fund's fees are calculated based on average daily managed assets, including assets attributable to preferred shares or other forms of leverage outstanding). The Trustees took into account that the Investment Manager has a financial incentive for the Funds to continue to have preferred shares, borrowings, and/or other forms of leverage outstanding, which may create a conflict of interest between the Funds and the Investment Manager, on one hand, and each Fund's common shareholders, on the other. In this regard, the Trustees considered information provided by the Investment Manager and related presentations as to why each Fund's use of leverage continues to be appropriate and in the best interests of those Funds under current market conditions. The Trustees also considered certain leverage refinancing transactions that were then being contemplated for the three Funds. The Trustees also considered the Investment Manager's representation that it will use leverage for the Funds solely as it determines to be in the best interests of the Funds from an investment perspective and without regard to the level of compensation the Investment Manager receives.

AllianzGI Convertible & Income 2024 Target Term Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund/AllianzGI Convertible & Income Fund II

Based on a profitability analysis provided by the Investment Manager, the Trustees also considered the estimated profitability to the Investment Manager from its relationship with each Fund and determined that such profitability did not appear to be excessive.

The Trustees also considered the extent to which the Investment Manager may realize economies of scale or other efficiencies in managing and supporting the Funds. The Trustees took into account that, as a general matter, as closed-end investment companies, the assets of the Funds will grow (if at all) principally through the investment performance of each Fund or through the use of additional leverage. The Trustees considered that the Funds do not currently intend to raise additional assets, and the Trustees therefore did not consider potential economies of scale as a principal factor in assessing the fee rates payable under the Agreements. The Trustees considered that, as the assets of the Funds grow over time, certain economies of scale and other efficiencies may be realized through spreading certain fixed costs across a larger asset base.

Additionally, the Trustees considered so-called fall-out benefits potentially available to the Investment Manager as a result of its advisory arrangements with the Funds, including research, statistical and quotation services from broker-dealers executing the Funds portfolio transactions on an agency basis, and enhanced visibility for marketing and distribution of other products managed by the Investment Manager. The Trustees also took into account the entrepreneurial, legal, regulatory and business risks the Investment Manager has undertaken as investment manager and sponsor of the Funds.

After reviewing these and other factors described herein, the Trustees concluded, within the context of their overall conclusions regarding the Agreements, that they were satisfied with the Investment Manager's responses and ongoing efforts relating to the investment performance of the Funds. The Trustees also concluded that the fees payable under each Agreement represent reasonable compensation in light of the nature, extent and quality of services provided by the Investment Manager, and should be continued. Based on their evaluation of factors that they deemed to be material, including, but not limited to, those factors described above, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, unanimously concluded that the continuation of the Agreement with respect to each Fund was in the interests of the Fund and its shareholders, and should be approved.
