Item 4.

Purpose of the Transaction

The Reporting Persons acquired Issuer's securities reported on this Schedule 13D because they believed such securities represented an attractive investment.

RIM believes the shares of the Issuer to be significantly undervalued. RIM believes the sum of the parts of the Issuer, including cash of $168 million, equity investments which RIM believes are worth in excess of $100 million, annual licensing revenue of over $35 million, existing NOR flash business and robust pipeline of non-commodity products are worth significantly more than the Issuer's current market capitalization of $321 million. In fact, when one backs out cash and investments, the market is valuing SST's NOR flash business, product pipeline and licensing revenue stream at only $60 million which RIM believes to be an extremely low valuation by any measure. RIM has communicated this view to the Issuer's management. Although the current options investigation seems to have clouded investors' view of the Issuer, RIM believes that recent data points appear to be encouraging. For example a September 10th article in DIGITIMES suggests the Issuer's capacity is fully booked and that the Issuer may have difficulty meeting demand from motherboard manufactures. The article goes on to suggest that this tight environment may persist for some time. RIM's desire, at this point in time, is to work assiduously and aggressively with the current management team on behalf of all shareholders. RIM's sincere hope is that management and the Board of Directors share its sense of urgency. If they do not, it will force RIM to take a more proactive approach, one which will include, among other things, the nomination of new directors.

The Reporting Persons may, from time to time, evaluate various other alternatives that they might consider in order to influence the performance of the Issuer and the activities of its Board of Directors. Depending on various factors, the Reporting Persons may take such actions as they deem appropriate including, without limitation, engaging in discussions with management and the Board of Directors of the Issuer, communicating with other stockholders, making proposals to the Issuer concerning the capitalization and operations of the Issuer, seeking representation on the Board of Directors, purchasing additional shares of Common Stock or selling some or all of their shares of Common Stock or seeking to make a significant equity investment or to otherwise acquire the Issuer.

The Reporting Persons may also determine to change their investment intent with respect to the Issuer in the future. The Reporting Persons intend to vote their respective shares of Common Stock individually as each Reporting Person deems appropriate from time to time. In determining whether to sell or retain their shares of Common Stock, the applicable Reporting Person will take into consideration such factors as it deems relevant, including without limitation Issuer's business and prospects, anticipated future developments, existing and anticipated market conditions, general economic conditions, and other opportunities available to the Reporting Person. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to acquire additional securities from Issuer in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions, or otherwise, to dispose of all or a portion of its holdings in Issuer's securities, or to change their intention with respect to any or all of the matters referred to in this Item 4.

Item 5.

Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a)

With respect to each Reporting Person, see the response set forth in Rows 11 and 13, including the footnotes thereto.

(b)

See Item 5(a) and, with respect to each Reporting Person, the responses to Rows 7 through 10 set forth for such Reporting Person on the cover pages hereto.

(c)

In the ordinary course of business, BRC effects transactions in connection with its ordinary course market making activities, as well as for customer transactions. The transactions effected by the other Reporting Persons in Common Stock that have taken place in the past 60 days are set forth on Exhibit A.

(d)

RIM's advisory clients and BRC's managed account, respectively, are entitled to any dividends or proceeds paid with respect to stock held by such persons.

(e)

Not applicable.

Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

The relationships between Mr. Riley, RIM, BRC and RIP are described above under Item 2(c) above. The relationship between RIM and other investment advisory clients and BRC and a managed account are described under Item 2(c) above.
