Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The preparation of the Company's 3<sup>d</sup> Quarter 10-QSB has been delayed due to the Company's acquisition of the Black Chandelier operations by Gold Fusion Laboratories, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, and the accounting required by the acquisition of these operations. The Company was not able to hire additional accounting staff to meet the additional accounting burden of the new operations. As a result of these issues, the Company has faced unavoidable delays in the timely preparation of the information required by its 10-QSB for the third quarter of 2006 and that 10-QSB cannot be timely completed without unreasonable effort or expense to the Company.

Part IV - Other Information

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narrative and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Anticipated Change in the results of operations:

As a result of the acquisition during the third quarter of 2006 of the retail operations of Black chandelier by the Company's subsidiary Gold Fusion Laboratories, Inc. it is anticipated that the results of operation for the Company on a consolidated basis will result in a significant increase in revenue due to the retail sales and operations of Black Chandelier, especially when combined with the results from the operations of the Landis salon. The need to produce consolidated results reporting on the comparable periods during the third quarter of 2005 will reflect significant changes in the results to be reported by the Company. The estimated gross revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 is expected to be $1,111,127 compared to $254,702 for the same period in 2005. Assets and liabilities are expected to reflect changes based upon the addition of these operations, the estimated amount of total assets are expected to be $4,983,157 compared to $4,319,916 for the year ended December 31, 2005 and liabilities are expected to be $3,828,234 compared to $3,120,305 for the year ended December 31, 2005. The resulting estimate for net equity as of September 30, 2006 is $1,060,807 compared to net equity of $963,185 as of the year end December 31, 2005.
