- (a) It is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the country or state where it was incorporated;
- (b) It is authorized by all the corporate authorizations, internal or governmental, necessary to validly enter into this Instrument and to comply with the obligations provided herein;

(c) The execution of this Instrument and the undertaking of and compliance with the obligations provided for in this Instrument do not constitute and shall not constitute a violation, infringement, event of default or other form of default, and shall not result in the creation of any lien or in the imposition of any penalty, under any agreement, instrument, commitment, shareholders or quotaholders Agreement, articles of incorporation, bylaws, articles of association or other corporate documents, regulation, order, decision, decree, law, authorization, permission or concession, to which such Party is a contracting party or that imposes obligations, penalties or limitations to such Party; and

(d) This Instrument constitutes a legal, valid, effective and binding obligation, and the compliance with this Instrument may be required from the Party, in accordance with its terms.

SECTION FOUR MISCELLANEOUS

Section 4.01. Successors. This Instrument is entered into on an irrevocable basis, obliging the Parties and their respective heirs, successors and assignees under any title.

Section 4.02. Entire Agreement, Changes and Amendments. This Instrument constitutes the entire agreement entered into between the Parties with respect to the matters hereof, and shall replace any other prior understanding, negotiation, commitments, representations, correspondences and discussions between the Parties, whether written or verbal, relating to the subject matter of this Instrument.

Section 4.03. Other Necessary Measures. Each Party undertakes to take all the necessary measures to ensure the effectiveness of the provisions of this Instrument and shall make its best efforts in order to ensure that the provisions of this Instrument replace any other agreements that deal with the subject matter of this Instrument.

Section 4.04. Registration at the Headquarters. (a) This Instrument shall be filed by the Parties as per the terms and for the purposes of article 118 of the Corporations Law, at the headquarters of Brasil Telecom Participações S.A. and Brasil Telecom S.A. (the Companies), being incumbent on the Companies to watch over its due compliance and to immediately inform the Parties of any act or omission in violation of this Instrument.

(b) In the book of the Registration of Nominative Shares of each Company, upon the fulfillment of the Condition Precedent, and in the certificates representing the Shares, if any were issued, the following text shall be written: The Vote Agreement of Brasil Telcom Participações S.A., dated September 16, 2003, was terminated and cancelled by the Instrument of Termination Subject to Condition Precedent dated [date], 2008.

Section 4.06. Governing Law. This Instrument shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Brazil, disregarding any private international law rule that may cause the laws of any other country or jurisdiction other than the Federal Republic of Brazil to be applicable.

SECTION FIVE ARBITRATION

Section 5.1. Any and all disputes resulting from this Instrument (Dispute) shall be settled by arbitration.

Section 5.2. The Dispute shall be presented before the Arbitral Tribunal of the International Chamber of Commerce ICC (ICC) in accordance with its rules (Rules) in force on the date of the request for the institution of the arbitration.

Section 5.3. Each Party and Intervening Party hereof is bound to the current arbitration provision for all legal purposes and effects.

Section 5.4. The arbitral award shall be definitive, not subject to appeal and shall bind the Parties that undertake to comply with it spontaneously, undertaking not to pursue judicial measures, except for the provisions of item 5.7 below.

Section 5.5. The arbitration shall take place in the city of London, England, provided that the arbitrators may not judge based on equity, the Brazilian legislation being applicable. The arbitration shall be carried out in the English language.

Section 5.6. The arbitration shall be constituted by three (3) arbitrators, provided that the claimant(s) (together, as applicable) shall indicate one (1) arbitrator and the respondent(s) (together, as applicable) shall indicate the second arbitrator, and the two arbitrators shall in mutual agreement appoint a third arbitrator, which shall serve as the chairman of the arbitral tribunal. If the dispute cannot be divided into two (2) groups, the provisions of the Rules shall apply. In case the two (2) arbitrators indicated by the Parties fail to appoint the third arbitrator within thirty (30) days counted as of date on which the last of the two (2) arbitrators was appointed, it shall fall to ICC to indicate the third arbitrator. Should the claimant(s) or the respondent(s) not be able to reach an agreement in connection with the respective arbitrator, the three (3) arbitrators shall be chosen and appointed by ICC.

Section 5.7. The provisions of this Section Five notwithstanding, each Party remains with the right of requesting before the competent court elected in this Section, prior to the institution of the arbitral tribunal, the preparatory judicial measures that aim at the obtaining of any urgent remedy for the protection or safeguard of rights that will be the subject matter of the arbitration, without that being interpreted as a waiver of the arbitration. For the exercise of the aforementioned judicial measures, the Parties hereby elect the venue of the Circuit Court of the Capital of the State of Rio de Janeiro, expressly waiving any other, as privileged as it is or may be. Once the arbitration is instituted, the parties undertake to observe, with respect to the judicial measure filed, the orders of the arbitral tribunal.

Section 5.8. The execution of the arbitral award shall be carried out in any court that has jurisdiction over the Parties and their assets. Each Party shall make its best efforts in order to ensure the fast and efficient conclusion of the arbitral proceeding and to comply with it.

Section 5.9. The Parties agree that the arbitration shall be treated as confidential and its elements (including without limitation the allegations of the Parties, evidences, experts reports and other expressions of third parties and any other documents submitted or exchanged within the arbitral proceeding) shall be disclosed only to the arbitral tribunal, the Parties, their lawyers and any person necessary to the development of the arbitration, except if the disclosure is required for the compliance of the obligations imposed by law or by any regulatory authority.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties execute this Instrument in five (5) counterparts of same tenor and content and for one single purpose, in the presence of the two undersigned witnesses.
