EXHIBIT I

(according to Exhibit 14 of Rule CVM no. 481, dated December 17, 2009 [1])

1. Inform the amount of the capital increase and the new amount of the capital stock

Amount of capital increase: R$20,282,743.76

New capital stock: The amount of the new capital stock, in case of approval of the Merger of Shares (as defined in item 3 below), can not be estimated at the present moment, since its calculation depends necessarily on the resulting of the following events which shall occur previously to the Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting of the Company that will deliberate on the Merger of Shares: (i) possible exercise of stock options by the Beneficiaries of the Stock Option Plans of the Company; and (ii) the result of the deliberations of the Annual and Extraordinary General Shareholders Meetings of the Company, already called to April 27, 2010. Therefore, the new amount of the capital stock will only be known after the occurrence of the referred events.

2. Inform whether the capital increase will be performed by means of: (a) conversion of debentures into shares; (b) exercise of subscription rights or subscription bonds; (c) capitalization of profits or reserves; or (d) subscription of new shares

The capital increase will be performed by means of a subscription of new shares.

3. Explain, in details, the reason of capital increase and its legal and economic consequences

On October 2, 2006, the Company executed an Investment Agreement and Other Covenants (Investment Agreement), which established the rules and conditions for Company's admission into the capital stock of Alphaville Urbanismo S.A. (AUSA), first with an equity participation corresponding to 60% (First Stage), to be increased to 80% in 2010 (Second Stage), and reaching 100% after 2011 (Third Stage).

For purposes of implementation of the Second Stage, were conducted independent economic and financial studies of AUSA, as provided for in the Investment Agreement, which resulted in the determination of the amount of R$126,489,500.00 for the equity portion corresponding to 20% of AUSA's capital stock subject of the Second Stage. In furtherance to the Investment Agreement, it was considered the daily arithmetic mean (trading floor days) of the closing price at R$/ Company's Share, in the period from January 28, 2010 to February 22, 2010, both dates inclusive, resulting in the issuance of 9,797,792 shares of the Company.

The managers of both the Company and Shertis Empreendimentos e Participações S.A., enrolled with the CNPJ/MF under no. 11.039.942/0001-08 (Shertis) have understood that the Second Stage should be carried out by means of a merger, by the Company, of the totality of shares issued by Shertis, which shall become Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, pursuant to article 252 of Law no. 6,404, dated December 15, 1976 (Merger of Shares).

Shertis is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alphaville Participações S.A. (Alphapar), and has, at the date hereof, as its main asset 23,069 shares issued by AUSA, corresponding to shares representing 20% of the capital stock of AUSA.

Therefore, both the shareholders of the Company and Shertis shall resolve, at an Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting of each such company, on the Merger of Shares proposal. In case the Merger of Shares is approved, there will be the consequent increase of the capital stock of the Company pursuant to the terms of this Exhibit, with the pay in of the new shares to be issued by the conveyance of the totality of shares issued by Shertis to the equity of the Company.

[1] Items 6 and 7 of the Exhibit 14 of Rule CVM no. 481/09 which refer, respectively, to the capital increase by means of the capitalization of profits or reserves and the capital increase by means of the conversion of debentures into shares or by the exercise of subscription bonds, are not applicable to the present situation.

4. Provide a copy of the Opinion of the Fiscal Council, if applicable

The company provides at the date hereof the Opinion of the Fiscal Council issued on April 19, 2010.

5. In case of capital increase by means of subscription of shares

a. Describe the allocation of funds

As a result of the Merger of Shares, the shares to be issued in virtue of the capital increase will be paid in by means of the conveyance of the totality of shares representing the capital stock of Shertis to the Company, which will integrate its assets.

The Merger of Shares will cause an increase of the equity of the Company in the amount of R$21,902,489.00, corresponding to the book equity value of the shares issued by Shertis merged into the equity of the Company.

From the amount mentioned in the paragraph above, R$20,282,743.76 shall be allocated to pay in the Company's capital stock increase, while the remaining amount, corresponding to R$1,619,745.24, shall be allocated to the capital reserve account, pursuant to article 182, § 1, a, of Law no. 6,404/76 (Corporations Law).

b. Inform the number of shares issued per class and type

The Company will issue 9,797,792 common shares, all registered, book-entry and without par value.

c. Describe rights, advantages and restrictions attributed to the shares to be issued

The common shares issued by the Company to be subscribed by the managers of Shertis, on behalf of its only shareholders, shall have the same rights given to Company's common shares then outstanding and shall be fully entitled to all benefits, including dividends and capital remuneration to be declared by the Company as of the Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting that approves the Merger of Shares.

According to the current Law and to the Bylaws of the Company, the shares issued by the Company have the following rights, advantages and restrictions:

Right to vote

Each share grants to its owner the right to one vote on resolutions at General Shareholders' Meetings.

Right to receive dividends

Pursuant to the Corporations Law and the Bylaws of the Company, the owners of shares issued by the Company are entitled to receive dividends or other distributions related to such shares in the proportion of their equity participation in the capital stock. Under the terms of Article 36, § 2nd (b) of the Bylaws of the Company, from the balance of the net profits of the fiscal year, determined after the deductions set forth in the Bylaws and adjusted according to Article 202 of the Corporations Law, twenty-five per cent (25%) shall be allocated for the payment of compulsory dividends to all shareholders of the Company.

Rights on Capital Reimbursement

In case of winding up of the Company, the shareholders will receive the payments related to the reimbursement of capital in the proportion of their equity participation in the capital stock, after the payment of all Company's obligations.

The shareholders who dissent from certain resolutions taken at General Shareholders' Meetings could withdrawal from the Company, under the terms of the Corporations Law. For purposes of reimbursement, the value of the share will be determined based on the economic value of the Company, assessed by means of a valuation prepared by a specialized company appointed and chosen accordingly to Section 45 of the Corporations Law. The Board of Directors will be entitled to determine the triple list of qualified institutions to be presented to the General Shareholders' Meeting of the Company for purposes of the assessment of the economic value of the Company.

Under the terms of Section 137 of the Corporations Law, the referred right of withdrawal shall not apply in case of dissent related to the amalgamation of the Company, its merger into other company, or the participation of the Company in a group of companies, since the Company's shares have liquidity and market dispersion. According to Section 137, it is deemed to have liquidity when the share of that class and type is part of an index representative of a securities portfolio subject to trade in market, as defined by the Brazilian Securities Exchange Commission; and it is deemed to have market dispersion in case there is a controlling shareholder or controlling group, which owns less than a half of the corresponding class or type of share.

With respect to the preemptive right for the subscription of shares, debentures convertible into shares and subscription bonds, the Company's Bylaws provides that the Company might reduce or exclude the term for the exercise of the preemptive right with regard to shares, debentures convertible into shares or subscription bonds, which issuance is made by means of sale in stock exchange, public subscription or exchange for shares in a compulsory public tender offer of acquisition of control pursuant the terms of Articles 257 to 263 of the Corporations Law. There will be no preemptive right with regard to the grant and exercise of stock options, under the terms of Section 171, § 3rd of the Corporations Law.

d. Inform whether the subscription will be publicly or private

The subscription will be private since it derives from the Merger of Shares.

e. In case of private subscription, inform if related parties, as defined by accounting rules related to such matter, will subscribe shares in the capital increase, specifying the corresponding amounts, when such amounts are already known

Pursuant to item 3, above, the Merger of Shares corresponds to the Second Stage of the acquisition process, by the Company, of the shares issued by AUSA. In virtue of the transaction, the managers of Shertis will subscribe, on behalf of its only shareholder, Alphapar, the totality of the Company's capital increase. Alphapar is not a related party, as currently defined by the accounting rules related to such matter, previously to the Merger of Shares.

f. Inform the issuance price of the new shares or the reasons why its determination shall be delegated to the Board of Directors, in case of public distribution

The total issuance price of the new shares will be of R$ 21,902,489.00, and the only shareholder of Shertis will receive 0,4473369214 common share issued by the Company for each common share issued by Shertis owned by such shareholder.

g. Inform the par value of the issued shares, or, in case of shares without par value, the fraction of the issuance price that will be allocated to the capital reserve account

As described in item 5.a above, R$ 1,619,745.24, shall be allocated to the capital reserve account, pursuant to article 182, § 1, a, of the Corporations Law.

h. Provide the opinion of the administrators on the effects of the capital increase, specially with respect to the dilution resulting from such capital increase

Pursuant to item 5.f above, the Merger of Shares corresponds to the Second Stage of the acquisition process, by the Company, of the shares issued by AUSA. As a result of the transaction, the managers of Shertis will subscribe, on behalf of its only shareholder, Alphapar, the totality of shares to be issued by the Company in virtue of the increase of its capital stock, which will be paid in by means of the conveyance of the totality of shares representing the capital stock of Shertis to the Company and will integrate the assets of the Company.

As a result of the Merger of Shares, Alphapar will become owner of 9,797,792 shares issued by the Company, representing 2.28% of the capital stock of the Company after such issuance. Considering the book equity value per share, the Merger of Shares represents a dilution of 1.37% of the current shareholders. For more information regarding to the calculation of the dilution, please see item 5.n below.

The management of the Company believes that the dilution resulting from the capital increase does not cause considerable negative effects for the operation of the Company and/or for its current shareholders in view of the Merger of Shares.

i. To inform the calculation criterion for the issuance price and to justify, in details, the economic aspects which have determined such choice

The issuance price of the new shares of the Company will be of R$ 21,902,489.00, corresponding to the book equity value of the totality of shares issued by Shertis to be conveyed to the Company.

In virtue of the criteria established in the Investment Agreement, were conducted independent economic and financial studies of AUSA, as provided for in the Investment Agreement, which resulted in the determination of the amount of R$126,489,500.00 for the equity portion corresponding to 20% of AUSA's capital stock subject of the Second Stage. Additionally, it was considered the daily arithmetic mean (trading floor days) of the closing price at R$/ Company's share, in the period from January 28, 2010 to February 22, 2010, both dates included, equivalent to R$12.91/share, determining the number of shares of the Company to be issued.

Considering the full issuance price of the new shares and the number of shares to be issued, it was determined the issuance price of R$2.24/share.

j. In case the issuance price has been determined comprising premium or discount compared to the market value, identify the reason of the premium or discount and explain how it have been determined

The issuance price of the new shares of the Company will be of R$ 21,902,489.00, corresponding to the book equity value of the totality of shares issued by Shertis to be conveyed to the Company. Therefore, no premium/discount resulting from the Merger of Shares will be registered in the financial statements of the Company.

k. Provide copy of all appraisal reports and studies which served for the determination of the issuance price

The Company makes available at the date hereof: (i) economic and financial studies of AUSA; and (ii) appraisal report of Shertis prepared by APSIS Consultoria Empresarial Ltda. (AP SIS), with basis on Shertis' special balance sheet drawn at December 31, 2009 and audited by Terco Grant Thornton Auditores Independentes (Terco), giving consideration also to the subsequent asset-related effects, deriving from later events.
