New discovery in ultra-deep waters of Campos Basin pre-salt

Rio de Janeiro, June 28, 2011 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras informs that the joint venture formed by Petrobras, Repsol Sinopec and Statoil confirm the discovery of 2 levels of good quality oil in the exploration well 1-REPF-11A-RJS informally known as Gávea, which represents another discovery made in the pre-salt Campos Basin.

The joint venture is currently incorporating the results from the well into the evaluations before deciding on how to further explore and appraise the area.

The well, located at 190 kilometers off the coast of Rio de Janeiro, in a water depth of 2,708 meters reaching a final depth of 6,851 meters.

Petrobras and the consortium informed the Brazilian authorities about the existence of signs of hydrocarbons in the Gávea exploratory well in March 2011 for the first level and in April 2011 for the second one.

Repsol Sinopec is the operator of the consortium, with 35% stake, together with Statoil (35%) and Petrobras (30%).

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
