Join as principal of the Federal Prosecutors Office in lawsuits of “Lava Jato (Car Wash) Operation”

Rio de Janeiro, May 8th, 2015 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras informs that joined the Federal Prosecutors Office as principal in actions against a dishonest public servant against subcontractors and executives alleged responsible for breaches in the scope of the “Lava Jato (Car Wash) Operation”.

Petrobras filed two lawsuits, one on April 30th and another on May 8th, in relation to overpayment in contracts of Engevix and Mender Júnior. The total amount is approximately R$ 452 million (Reais), taking into consideration compensations for pecuniary damage and pecuniary penalty whose amounts will be quantified in the course of the proceeding.

In the next few weeks, Petrobras will be joining, also as principal, in another three lawsuits involving contracts with Camargo Corrêa, OAS and Galvão Engenharia, summing up a reimbursement of approximately R$ 826 million (Reais).

Such lawsuits are part of several measures adopted to guarantee the total reimbursement of losses incurred by the Company, including those related to its reputation, and reinforce the Company’s commitment to cooperate with the investigations.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company’s expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “optimistic,” “intend,” “plan,” “aim,” “will,” “may,” “would,” “likely,” and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company’s actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the “Lava Jato Operation”; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company’s risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the Company’s other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
