Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

Reservation of Rights Letters

On July 15, 2016, Viacom Inc. (“Viacom” or the “Company”) received “reservation of rights” letters from counsel to each of Philippe P. Dauman, the Company’s Executive Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Thomas E. Dooley, the Company’s Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. The letters were delivered in light of the delivery on June 16, 2016 to Viacom of purportedly valid written consents of stockholders by National Amusements, Inc. and one of its subsidiaries claiming to remove five directors of Viacom, including Mr. Dauman. The letters note that Messrs. Dauman and Dooley are highly engaged in overseeing Viacom’s operations and are committed to pursuing and executing Viacom’s strategic plan for the duration of their respective employment agreements. Each letter refers to the executive’s right under his employment agreement to resign upon the occurrence of certain events that constitute “Good Reason” (subject to the Company’s opportunity to cure). The letters note the belief of the authors and each executive that such events have not occurred, but, in order to preserve their rights, the executives exercise the right to resign for “Good Reason” effective 31 days after the entry of a judicial order from which no appeal may be taken establishing the validity of the purported removals. No such order is now in effect and therefore no resignations have yet occurred. For purposes of clarity, the letters also note that if there is an entry of a judicial order from which no appeal may be taken establishing the invalidity of the purported director removals, the executive’s resignation of employment shall not take effect.
