ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

Underwriting Agreement

On May 13, 2011 Royal Wolf Holdings Limited (“Royal Wolf Holdings”), the indirect subsidiary of GFN formerly known as GFN Holdings, lodged a prospectus with the Australian Securities Investment Commission (“ASIC”) for an initial public offering (the “Australian IPO”) of ordinary shares (the “Shares”) on the Australian Stock Exchange (“ASX”). Following the closing of the Australian IPO, GFN will own approximately 50.2 million Shares, representing slightly over 50% of the issued and outstanding Shares, management and directors of Royal Wolf Holdings will own approximately 188,500 Shares, representing slightly under 0.2% of the outstanding Shares and new shareholders purchasing Shares in the Australian IPO will collectively own 50 million Shares, representing 49.8% of the outstanding Shares.

Royal Wolf Holdings also agreed to reimburse Credit Suisse for certain reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Offer. Credit Suisse is responsible for any broker firm fees owed to any co-managers, co-lead managers and brokers appointed by Credit Suisse. The Underwriting Agreement contains representations, warranties and undertakings by Royal Wolf Holdings, GFN U.S. and GFN in favor of Credit Suisse.

The Underwriting Agreement also prohibits Royal Wolf Holdings and its subsidiaries from acquiring or agreeing to acquire any business or assets worth A$10 million or more without the prior written consent of Credit Suisse.

Credit Suisse may terminate the Underwriting Agreement if it has reasonable grounds to believe that one of the following events has or is likely to have a material adverse effect on the success, settlement or marketing of the Offering, the ability of Credit Suisse to market, promote or settle the Offer, the likely price at which the Shares will trade on the ASX, the willingness of investors to subscribe for Shares or could give rise to liability for Credit Suisse or violate applicable law: fraud, disclosures in the diligence report, adverse changes in the assets, liabilities, financial performance, profits, losses or prospects of Royal Wolf Holdings and its subsidiaries, hostilities, change in law, breach of laws, change in management, criminal prosecution, breach of representation and warranty under the Underwriting Agreement, breach of the Underwriting Agreement, changes to the constitution of Royal Wolf Holdings, legal proceedings are commenced against Royal Wolf Holdings, information provided to Credit Suisse by Royal Wolf Holdings and its affiliates is misleading or false or if there is a significant disruption in the financial markets.
