Media Release

Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG:
All Proposals put forward by the Board of Directors Approved

Zurich, May 9, 2014 The shareholders of Credit Suisse Group AG approved all the proposals of the Board of Directors at today's Annual General Meeting in Zurich. The shareholders approved a distribution in cash of CHF 0.70 per registered share for the 2013 financial year. The increase in conditional capital for the purpose of delivering shares as part of employee stock option programs also met with the approval of shareholders. Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun were elected as new Members of the Board of Directors. The Chairman and the other existing Members of the Board of Directors proposed for re-election were all elected for a further term of one year. In terms of its own composition, the Board of Directors appointed both Noreen Doyle and Richard E. Thornburgh as its new Vice-Chairs. The Annual General Meeting also appointed the Compensation Committee. In addition, shareholders approved the 2013 Compensation Report and the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association to implement the new Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations.

At today's Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG in Zurich, shareholders approved all of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Distribution in cash against reserves from capital contributions

Shareholders approved a distribution in cash against reserves from capital contributions of CHF 0.70 per registered share. The distribution is scheduled to take place on May 16, 2014.

Increase in conditional capital for employee shares

With a majority of 67.68% of votes represented, shareholders approved the increase in conditional capital for the delivery of shares to meet the obligation arising from employee stock option programs in a capital-efficient manner. The existing conditional capital for employee shares will be increased by CHF 1,200,000 (equivalent to 30,000,000 registered shares) to a maximum of CHF 1,641,983.92 (equivalent to 41,049,598 registered shares).

Election of Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun as new Members of the Board of Directors

Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun were both newly elected to the Board of Directors for a term of one year.

Severin Schwan has been CEO of Roche Group since 2008, and a member of its Board of Directors since 2013. Prior to his appointment as Group CEO he served as CEO of Roche's Diagnostics division from 2006 to 2008. Severin Schwan began his career in 1993 in Roche's Corporate Finance area.

Sebastian Thrun is CEO of Udacity, an online university that he co-founded in 2012. While working for Google, he founded the Google X research division. He has worked for the University of Stanford since 2003 as research professor in the area of artificial intelligence and robotics.

Re-election of the Chairman and further members to the Board of Directors

The incumbent Chairman Urs Rohner and the other members of the Board of Directors who were standing for re-election were re-elected for a term of one year.

Election of the members to the Compensation Committee

Iris Bohnet, Andreas N. Koopmann, Jean Lanier and Kai S. Nargolwala were elected as Members of the Compensation Committee for a term of one year. Jean Lanier will serve as Chairman of the Compensation Committee for a further year.

Amendments to the Articles of Association to adapt to changes in company law

The proposed amendments to the Articles of Association to implement the provisions of the Swiss Federal Council's Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations were approved with a majority of 93.36%. As a result, binding votes on the compensation of the Executive Board and the Board of Directors can be held with effect from the 2015 Annual General Meeting.

Further information on the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association can be found in the invitation to the Annual General Meeting and in a separate report of the Board of Directors at: www.credit-suisse.com/agm

2013 Compensation Report

In a consultative vote, shareholders approved the 2013 Compensation Report with a majority of 81.28% of votes represented.

Statements by Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors

Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group, commented: "At today's Annual General Meeting, we signed off on the 2013 financial year and the multiple challenges it presented. We have made significant progress at both a strategic and operational level and are compliant with Basel III regulations. At the same time, we posted an 86% increase in reported pre-tax income to CHF 3.5 billion and increased our net income by 72% compared to the previous year. We generated a return on equity of 13% in our strategic businesses in 2013."

With regard to the approval of all the items on the agenda and the consultative vote on the 2013 Compensation Report, Urs Rohner stated: "We are pleased by the positive voting results. The approval rate of 81.28% for the Compensation Report is an acknowledgment of our prudent compensation policy. The approval of the amendments to the Articles of Association will allow us to hold binding votes on the compensation of the Executive Board and the Board of Directors with effect from the 2015 Annual General Meeting."

With regard to the changes to the Board of Directors, Urs Rohner added: "I am delighted to welcome Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun as new Members of our Board of Directors. I am convinced that their great experience will help us to systematically execute Credit Suisse's strategy, which is focused on creating value for clients and on innovation. We also said farewell to Walter B. Kielholz and Peter Brabeck-Letmathe today. We owe both of them enormous thanks for the very important contributions they have made, both as Members of the Board of Directors and in the role of Chairman and Vice-Chairman, respectively."

Voting Results

All the voting results together with the speeches of Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Brady Dougan, Chief Executive Officer, are available on the internet in both English and German at:

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
 - market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2014 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability to achieve our objectives, including improved performance, reduced risks, lower costs, and more efficient use of capital;
 - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
 - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
 - political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalizations or confiscations in countries where we conduct operations;
 - operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;

- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries where we conduct operations;
 - the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
 - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
 - technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
 - the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, including the information set forth in “Risk Factors” in I – Information on the company in our Annual Report 2013.
