Media Release

Zurich, October 8, 2015

We have noted today's media speculation regarding our capital position and our October 21, 2015 investor day. As we outlined in our 2Q announcement on July 23, 2015, we are conducting a thorough assessment of Credit Suisse's strategy, evaluating all options for the Group, its businesses and its capital usage and requirements. As previously announced, the results of this review will be presented at our Investor Day on October 21, 2015.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2015 and beyond;
the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets; adverse rating actions by agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
the ability to achieve our objectives, including improved performance, reduced risks, lower costs, and more efficient use of capital;
the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalizations or confiscations in countries where we conduct operations;
operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly; actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries where we conduct operations;
the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices; competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
