This Current Report on Form 8-K/A is being filed to amend and supplement the Current Report on Form 8-K originally dated June 1, 2007 (the "Original Report"). The Original Report stated the Company's belief that as of January 31,

Edgar Filing: INVU INC - Form 8-K/A

2007, the end of the Company's most recent fiscal year, the Company had more than 300 shareholders of record (but less than 500 shareholders of record) and more than $10 million in total assets and was, therefore, required to resume its reporting obligations under Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Resumption of these obligations required the Company to file an annual report on Form 10-K by May 31, 2007 pursuant to Rule 12h-3(e) promulgated under the Exchange Act. On June 1 2007, the Company filed a Form 12b-25 reporting that the Company would not be able to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2007 by the due date.

The Company's belief that it had more than $10 million in total assets as of January 31, 2007 was based upon a translation of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2007, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in effect in the U.K., into U.S. dollars at the year-end exchange rate. In connection with a review by Grant Thornton UK LLP, the Company's auditors, of the Company's financial statements, which had been converted to conform with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"), the Company concluded that the Company's total assets as of the end of its last fiscal year were less than $10 million under U.S. GAAP, which is the appropriate set of accounting principles for SEC reporting purposes.

Accordingly, the Company was not required as of January 31, 2007 to resume its reporting obligations under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act and, therefore, will not be filing periodic reports with the SEC, including an annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2007, until such time as the Company may be required to resume its periodic reporting with the SEC by applicable U.S. securities laws.
