Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 24, 2015, the New York Stock Exchange, or “NYSE,” notified Verso that we have fallen below the NYSE’s continued listing standard requiring that the average share price of our common stock be at least $1.00 over a consecutive 30-trading-day period. As of June 24, 2015, the date of the NYSE notification, the average closing price of Verso’s common stock over the past 30 consecutive trading days was $0.96 per share.

Verso intends to regain compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing standard by bringing the share price and the average share price of our common stock back to at least $1.00 within the required period of six months after receipt of the NYSE notification, i.e., by December 24, 2015. However, if Verso cannot cure the share price deficiency by such date, we intend to conduct a reverse stock split to facilitate achieving the $1.00 share price and average share price. In such case, as permitted by the NYSE’s rules, Verso would solicit stockholder approval of an appropriate amendment of our certificate of incorporation at our next annual stockholders meeting to be held in May 2016 and would effect the reverse stock split promptly thereafter.

On June 29, 2015, Verso issued a press release announcing the developments disclosed in this report. A copy of the press release is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
