Item 8.01 Other Events

On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (H.R. 1) (the “Act”) was signed into law. The Act includes a number of changes in existing tax law impacting businesses including, among other things, a permanent reduction in the corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21% effective January 1, 2018.

As of September 30, 2017, SI Financial Group, Inc. (the “Company”) had net deferred tax assets totaling $9.4 million. Under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, the Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The Company’s net deferred tax asset as of September 30, 2017 was determined based on the current enacted federal tax rate of 34% prior to the passage of the Act. As a result of the reduction in the corporate income tax rate to 21% under the Act, the Company will need to revalue its net deferred tax asset in the period of enactment. The Company estimates that this will result in a reduction in the value of its net deferred tax asset of approximately $4.0 million, which would be recorded as additional income tax expense in the Company’s statement of income for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2017.

The Company’s revaluation of its deferred tax assets is subject to further clarification of the new law that cannot be estimated at this time. As such, the Company is unable to make a final determination of the effect on quarterly and annual earnings for the period ending December 31, 2017. Additionally, the Company is evaluating the other provisions of the Act and is unable to assess the effect on the Company at this time.
