Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

At the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”), held May 26, 2016, the stockholders of New Residential Investment Corp. (the “Company”) voted on the matters described below.

The Company’s stockholders elected one Class III director, the sole director of such class, to serve until the 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his successor is elected and duly qualified. The numbers of shares that

1. voted for the election of such director, abstained from voting for such director, and represented broker non-votes with respect to this proposal are summarized in the table below.

* Broker non-votes are instances where a broker holding shares of record for a beneficial owner does not vote the shares because it has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and therefore is precluded by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) from voting on a particular matter. Under NYSE rules, when a broker holding shares in “street name” does not receive voting instructions from a beneficial owner, the broker has discretionary authority to vote on certain routine matters but is prohibited from voting on non-routine matters. Brokers who did not receive instructions were not entitled to vote on the election of directors, but they were entitled to vote on the ratification of the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm.

The Company’s stockholders ratified the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016. The numbers of shares that voted

2. for, against and abstained from voting for or against the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP are summarized in the table below.
