The issuance of the shares of Company Common Stock was registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the Company's registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-205607), which was declared effective by the Commission on September 16, 2015. Generally, except as described below and in the proxy statement/prospectus which was previously delivered to the stockholders of the Predecessor Registrant, the Charter, Bylaws and Maryland law are similar, but not identical to, the Predecessor Registrant's articles of incorporation and code of regulations, each as in effect immediately before the Merger, and Ohio law, which governed the rights of the Predecessor Registrant's stockholders. In particular, the Company Common Stock is subject to certain share ownership and transfer restrictions, as discussed below, which are designed to facilitate the Company's compliance with certain of the U.S. federal income tax rules that the Company must satisfy in order to qualify and remain qualified as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

These limitations are subject to waiver or modification by the board of directors of the Company.

Authorized Shares. The Charter provides that a majority of the Company's board of directors may amend the Charter, without the approval of the Company's stockholders, to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock that the Company is authorized to issue or the number or shares of stock of any class or series that the Company is authorized to issue.

Cumulative Voting. Pursuant to Maryland law, holders of Company Common Stock will have no right to cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Removal of Directors. The Charter provides that, subject to the rights of holders of shares of the Company's preferred stock, to the extent such stock is issued and outstanding, to elect or remove one or more directors, (i) any director elected by the holders of the Company Class A Common Stock may be removed as a director at any time by the affirmative vote of holders of shares of the Company Class A Common Stock entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of the Company's Class A directors, with or without cause, and (ii) any director elected by the holders of the Company Class B Common Stock may be removed as a director at any time by the affirmative vote of holders of shares of the Company Class B Common Stock entitled to cast a majority of the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of the Company's Class B directors, with or without cause.

Forum Selection Clause. The Charter also provides that unless the Company's board of directors agrees otherwise, the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland (or, if that court does not have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, Baltimore Division), will be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of any duty owed by any of the Company's directors, officers or other employees to the Company or to the Company's stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against the Company or any of the Company's directors, officers or other employees pursuant to the Maryland General Corporation Law, the Charter or the Bylaws and (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine.

Special Meetings of Stockholders. The Bylaws provide that, subject to the satisfaction of certain procedural and informational requirements by the stockholders requesting the meeting, a special meeting of stockholders to act on any matter that may be properly be considered at a meeting of stockholders must be called by the Company's secretary upon the written request of the stockholders entitled to cast not less than a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on such matter at the meeting.

Amendment to Bylaws. The Charter and Bylaws grant the Company's board of directors the exclusive power to adopt, alter or repeal any provision in the Bylaws and to make new bylaws, except for certain amendments specified in the Bylaws, including amendments that would adversely alter the rights, preferences, privileges or restrictions granted or imposed with respect to a particular class relative to the shares of any other class.

The foregoing description of the Company Common Stock is qualified in its entirety by the description of Company Common Stock contained in the "Description of Capital Stock" attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated into this Item 3.03 by reference. In addition, the foregoing description of the Charter, Bylaws and Company Common Stock is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Charter and the Bylaws, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 3.2 and 3.3, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

In connection with the appointment of Duane Bishop as Chief Operating Officer of the Company, as previously announced on the Company's and Predecessor Registrant's Current Reports on Form 8-K dated November 23, 2015, he will be paid a base salary of $500,000 with a target annual incentive opportunity of 100% of his base salary. Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

As a result of the Merger, as of the Effective Time, the rights of the stockholders of the Company are governed by the Charter and Bylaws. The provisions of the Charter and the Bylaws are similar to the provisions of the Predecessor Registrant's articles of incorporation and code of regulations in effect immediately before the Merger, except as discussed above in Item 3.03 and in the proxy statement/prospectus which was previously delivered to the stockholders of the Predecessor Registrant. Copies of the Charter and Bylaws are attached hereto as Exhibits 3.2 and 3.3, respectively, and are incorporated into this Item 5.03 by reference.

In connection with the Merger, the Predecessor Registrant converted from an Ohio corporation to a Delaware limited partnership pursuant to a Certificate of Conversion and Certificate of Limited Partnership filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware effective as of December 31, 2015, and changed its name to “Forest City Enterprises, L.P.” (the “Partnership”).
