Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 30, 2014, Forest Oil Corporation commenced the initial steps in winding up its vertically integrated drilling operations, transitioning to the exclusive use of third-party drilling rigs. Forest expects to complete this process on or before August 31, 2014. This course of action involves a workforce reduction, among other things, and Forest estimates that it will incur costs ranging from approximately $6,500,000 to approximately $7,500,000, including the costs stated below:

• An estimated $5,500,000 to $6,500,000 related to the termination of drilling rig operating leases;

• Approximately $760,000 in severance payments for certain terminated employees; and

• Approximately $210,000 in costs related to the acceleration of equity awards for certain terminated employees.
