The consolidated balance sheets of The Goldfield Corporation and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related consolidated statements of income, cash flows and stockholders' equity for the years then ended, included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31,

2013, incorporated by reference in this registration statement have been so incorporated in reliance on the report of KPMG LLP, independent registered public accountants, given on the authority of said firm as experts in auditing and accounting.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Article SEVENTH of our Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that we shall, to the full extent permitted by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as amended from time to time, indemnify all persons whom we may indemnify pursuant thereto.

Our Amended and Restated By-Laws include the following provisions:

Article XIII Indemnification

Section 1. General. The Company shall indemnify to the full extent authorized or permitted by law (as now or hereinafter in effect) any person made, or threatened to be made, a defendant or witness to any action, suit or proceeding (whether civil or criminal or otherwise) by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company or by reason of the fact that such director, officer, employee or other agent, at the request of the Company, is or was serving any other company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, in any capacity. No amendment or repeal of this Section 1 shall apply to or have any effect on any right to indemnification provided hereunder with respect to any acts or omissions occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Section 2. Procedure. Any indemnification under Section 1 of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct as defined by applicable law. Such determination shall be made by either (i) the Board by a majority vote of a quorum of directors who are not party to such action, suit or proceeding or (ii) an independent legal counsel as set forth in a written opinion (it being understood that such independent legal counsel shall make such determination only if the quorum of directors referred to in clause (i) above is not obtainable or if the Board by a majority vote of a quorum of directors who are not party to such action, suit or proceeding so directs).

Section 3. Expenses. The expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company in any action, suit or proceeding shall be paid promptly by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding at the written request of the director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or hereinafter amended; provided, however, that the director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company shall set forth in such request reasonable evidence that such expenses have been incurred by the director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, a statement that such expenses are permissible under the standards set forth under applicable law and an undertaking in writing to repay any advances if it is ultimately determined that the director, officer, employee or other agent is not entitled to indemnification under these By-Laws. Advances of expenses shall be made without regard to the ability to repay the advances. An indemnitee's obligation to repay the Company for advances shall be unsecured and no interest shall be charged thereon.

Section 4. Insurance. The Company may, but shall have no obligation to do so, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Company, or is serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another Company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of law.

Section 5. Exclusivity. The rights and authority conferred in this article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may otherwise have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Company, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides for indemnification of our directors and officers in a variety of circumstances, which may include liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

In addition, we have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and certain officers to provide for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Delaware law, as it presently exists or may be amended, for all indemnifiable amounts (including fees, expenses, judgments, fines, interest, penalties, settlements and taxes), arising out of or resulting from any threatened, pending or completed legal action or proceeding relating to the person's service as a director, officer, employee or agent of The Goldfield Corporation or our subsidiaries.

We also have in force and effect a policy insuring our directors and officers against losses which they or any of them shall become legally obligated to pay for by reason of any actual or alleged error or misstatement or misleading statement or act or omission or neglect or breach of duty by the directors and officers in the discharge of their duties, individually or collectively, or any matter claimed against them solely by reason of their being directors or officers, such coverage being limited by the specific terms and provisions of the insurance policy.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, That paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
