The IHC Group's Carriers Receive A- (Excellent) Group Rating from A.M. Best Company and IHC Announces Expansion of Specialty Health Business

Strategy to Grow Specialty Health and Other Products via a Number of

Focused Investments

IHC Specialty Benefits Expands its Technology-Driven Platforms

Stamford, CT April 14, 2016 Independence Holding Company (NYSE:IHC) today announced that A.M. Best Company has affirmed the financial strength rating of A- (Excellent) for each of IHC carriers, Standard Security Life Insurance Company of New York, Madison National Life Insurance Company, Inc. and Independence American Insurance Company after the sale of IHC Risk Solutions and the employer medical stop-loss business produced by it.

Roy T.K. Thung, CEO of Independence Holding Company, commented: We are pleased that A.M. Best affirmed our A- (Excellent) group rating. While stop-loss was our largest line of business, it was also capital intensive and potentially subject to market cycles and regulatory pressures. We are now focused on growing our remaining lines of business: group long term disability and life, statutory disability benefit policies (DBL) in New York, pet, group and individual specialty health (short term medical, dental, vision, supplemental gap and scheduled benefit plans) and non-subscriber occupational accident. We realized a significant capital gain and substantial cash from the sale (the pro forma increase in stockholders' equity is approximately $100 million) and by the end of 2016, after the stop-loss business has run off, we will have significant excess statutory surplus in our insurance companies, which together provides us with a high degree of liquidity. We have set aside portions of our cash to accelerate the growth of our specialty health lines of business and to expand our other lines of business through targeted investments and acquisitions. Our specialty health lines of business, in particular, have significantly higher margins, are less capital intensive and are less prone to swings in underwriting results than stop-loss.

David T. Kettig, President and CEO of IHC Specialty Benefits, stated, "IHC Specialty Benefits is a diverse sales and marketing company with almost $100 million of premiums produced for IHC's carriers, ACA insurers and small group stop loss. We have our own call center and career agents, shopping-cart environments for agents to easily quote multiple insurance products, Health e Deals, an award-winning quoting and enrollment platform, and Aspira A Mas, a recently launched marketing division dedicated to serving under-insured Latino communities. Specialty Benefits recently signed several letters of intent to invest in agencies/technology companies that can drive significant specialty health premiums to IHC paper, and we are actively seeking to make investments in companies that will accelerate the growth of specialty health premiums as well as enhancing our position as a leader in delivering technology-driven platforms for consumers and insurance producers alike.
