Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 24, 2014, we determined that Gabriel J. Mainardi, our Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer and Treasurer, employment with us will terminate. This determination was not the result of any disagreement on any matter relating to our operations, policies or practices.

We have entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Mainardi that provides for a severance payment and continuation of his base salary through, but not after, December 31, 2014. Mr. Mainardi's unvested equity and equity-based awards will be terminated in full. Mr. Mainardi will be available to assist us in the transition of his duties through December 31, 2014.

We have commenced a search for a new chief accounting officer. Upon the date that Mr. Mainardi's employment terminates, Thomas E. Wirth, our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, has assumed on November 24, 2014 the additional role of, and responsibilities associated with, our principal accounting officer.

Mr. Wirth, age 51, has served as our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since March 10, 2014. Prior to that time, and since December 2009, Mr. Wirth served as our Executive Vice President, Portfolio Management and Investments where he directed portfolio management, acquisition and disposition activities and assisted in formulating our capital allocation tactics, including structuring joint ventures and construction financings.

Mr. Wirth is a CPA and earned his B.A. in business management and accounting from Gettysburg College.

There is no arrangement or understanding with any person pursuant to which Mr. Wirth will assume the additional role of, and responsibilities associated with, serving as our principal accounting officer. There are no family relationships between Mr. Wirth and any of our directors or executive officers, and he is not a party to any transaction requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Mr. Wirth does not have a written employment agreement. He receives an annual base salary commensurate with his duties and is eligible for an annual incentive compensation award. Mr. Wirth also is eligible to participate in our equity-based incentive plans and other benefit plans and arrangements available to our officers and employees as described in our Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 11, 2014 (the "Proxy"). Mr. Wirth is also a party to a change of control agreement with us as described in the Proxy.
