2. To consider and act upon a proposal to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as independent public accountants for the Company for 2003;
3. To consider and act upon such other matters as may properly come before the meeting and any adjournment thereof.

The foregoing matters are more fully described in the accompanying Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 11, 2003, as the record date for the determination of Stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Edgar Filing: HEARTLAND EXPRESS INC - Form DEF 14A

December 31, 2002, is not incorporated into this Proxy Statement and is not to be deemed a part of the proxy solicitation material.

PROXIES AND VOTING

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 11, 2003 ("Stockholders") are entitled to vote, either in person or by valid proxy, at the Annual Meeting. On the record date of March 11, 2003, the Company had 50,000,000 shares of $0.01 par value common stock issued and outstanding. Each share is entitled to one vote. The Company has no other class of stock outstanding. Stockholders are not entitled to cumulative voting in the election of directors.

All proxies that are properly executed and received by the Company prior to the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the choices indicated unless timely revoked. Any Stockholder may be represented and may vote at the Annual Meeting by a proxy or proxies appointed by an instrument in writing. In the event that any such instrument in writing shall designate two (2) or more persons to act as proxies, a majority of such persons present at the meeting shall have and may exercise, or, if only one shall be present, then that one shall have and may exercise, all of the powers conferred by such written instrument upon all of the persons so designated unless the instrument shall otherwise provide.

No such proxy shall be valid after the expiration of six (6) months from the date of its execution, unless coupled with an interest or unless the person executing it specifies therein the length of time for which it is to continue in force, which in no case shall exceed seven (7) years from the date of its execution. Any Stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its use at the Annual Meeting by filing with the Secretary of the Company a revocation of the proxy, by delivering to the Company a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Other than the election of directors, which requires a plurality of the votes cast, each matter to be submitted to the Stockholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast with respect to a particular matter, only those cast "For" or "Against" are included. If no direction is specified by the stockholder, the proxy will be voted "For" the proposals as specified in this notice, and at the discretion of the proxy holder, upon such other matters as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof. Proxies marked "Abstain" and broker non-votes are counted only for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting.

meetings during the last fiscal year. All directors were present at each meeting and any committee meeting on which he served. Audit Committee and Audit Committee Report. The Audit Committee meets with representatives of the Company's independent auditors to review the auditors' findings during the conduct of the annual audit and to discuss recommendations with respect to the Company's internal control policies and procedures. The Audit Committee also reviews quarterly financial and operating results of the Company, through meetings and conference calls, with the management, independent auditors and securities counsel of the Company. The Board has adopted a charter for the Audit Committee, which sets forth the purpose and responsibilities of the Audit Committee in greater detail. The Audit Committee met two times in person and two times via conference call during the past year and is currently composed of Lawrence D. Crouse (Chairman), Dr. Benjamin J. Allen and Richard O. Jacobson. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined by Rule 4200(a) (15) of the National Association of Securities Dealer's listing standards. The 2002 Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below.

The Audit committee Report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing made by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, notwithstanding any general statement contained in any such filings incorporating this Proxy Statement by reference, except to the extent the Company incorporates such report by specific reference.

Audit Committee Report for 2002

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Audit committee's actions are governed by a written charter, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined by Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealer's listing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independent Standards Board and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AV Section 380), as well as the overall scope and plans for their audit. The committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee held two meetings and two conference calls during the fiscal year 2002.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, and after receiving and reviewing the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants as required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee recommended the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the 2003 calendar year.

Crouse, all of whom participated in deliberations concerning executive officer compensation. No other individuals participated in such deliberations. During 2002, Russell A. Gerdin and reviews compensation set by Russell A. Gerdin for other executive officers.

In 2002, the Company leased two office buildings, totaling approximately 25,000 square feet, a storage building of approximately 3,500 square feet, and five acres of land from Russell A. The Company maintains cash accounts with a bank owned by Russell A. Gerdin. At December 31, 2002 the Company had cash accounts totaling $3.4 million on deposit at the bank.

Board of Directors Report on Executive Compensation

Edgar Filing: HEARTLAND EXPRESS INC - Form DEF 14A

The members of the Board of Directors prepared the following report on executive compensation:

The Board of Directors reviews the compensation of the Company's executive officers annually. The compensation of Mr. Gerdin, the Company's chief executive officer, is evaluated differently than that of the other executive officers. A summary of the considerations for each is set forth below.

Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Gerdin receives a base salary only, with no bonus or long-term incentives. The Board of Directors recognizes Mr. Gerdin's substantial responsibility and contribution to the Company's operating performance, operating margin, revenue and net income growth rates, and attainment of Company goals, as well as his large stockholdings. At Mr. Gerdin's request, his salary has remained the same since 1986, and he has never been paid a bonus. The Board believes that Mr. Gerdin's salary is reasonable compared to similarly situated executives, and that as a holder of approximately 40% of the Company's outstanding stock, Mr. Gerdin receives an incentive through appreciation in the value of the Company's stock. Because of Mr. Gerdin's request, the Board of Directors has not considered or approved an increase in annual compensation or any incentive compensation for Mr. Gerdin. Thus, corporate performance directly affects Mr. Gerdin, but not through his compensation by the Company.

Other Executive Officers. The Company's other executive officers are compensated through a mix of salary, restricted stock awards, and incentive compensation. In establishing compensation, the Board of Directors annually considers (i) the Company's operating performance, stock performance, operating margin, and revenue and net income growth rates, (ii) team-building skills, individual performance, past performance and potential with the Company, (iii) local compensation levels and cost of living, and (iv) compensation information disclosed by similar publicly-held truckload motor carriers. Salary and bonus levels are largely subjective, with individual performance being the most important factor. Compensation levels at other publicly-traded truckload motor carriers are used as a general guide, and the Board believes that the compensation of its executive officers as a group, historically and during the last fiscal year, has been comparable to that of other carriers.

The restricted stock award plan was adopted for key management employees to provide long-term incentive through equity ownership. Through this plan the Company seeks to provide executive officers and other key employees with incentive to maximize long-term stockholder value. The awards vest over a five year period contingent upon continued employment.

The Board believes that providing an incentive for its executive officers to maximize profitability is important. In 1993, the Company's subsidiary, Heartland Express, Inc. of Iowa, adopted a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for key management employees designated by the Board of Directors of the subsidiary for a given year. The total contingent benefit available for all participants is a percentage of the Company's previous year's net profits equal to one-fourth of one percent of such profits for each percentage point (or a fraction thereof) by which the Company's operating ratio was less than a specified target. The operating ratio represents the percentage which operating expenses bear to operating revenues. The benefits vest in increments up to age 65, payment is deferred until cessation of employment, and all payments are subject to certain vesting and forfeiture provisions. The chief executive officer does not participate in the deferred compensation arrangement. Under the deferred compensation plan, there is a direct relationship between the Company's operating efficiency and the deferred amount allocable to the executive officers. The Board of Directors determines the portion of the annual total deferred compensation pool to allocate to individual executive officers based upon a subjective evaluation of the job performance of each individual executive officer.

The Board of Directors Report on Executive Compensation, and the performance graph appearing later in this Proxy Statement shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing made by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, notwithstanding any general statement contained in any filing incorporating this proxy statement by reference, except to the extent that Company incorporates this report and graph by specific reference.

Tuition Award Program

The Company maintains a tuition award program for the children of certain employees, including executive officers. Contributions to the program are based upon the Company's performance. During 2002, the Company contributed $294,000 to the program, based upon 2001 performance. The amount paid for children of the Company's named executive officers was $10,954 in 2001 and $5,212 in 2000. There were no disbursements on behalf of the children of the Company's named executive officers in 2002.

Restricted Stock Awards

On March 7, 2002, Russell Gerdin transferred 90,750 shares of his Common Stock to key employees, including 40,000 shares to the named executive officers. Shares distributed under the award generally vest over a five year period or upon death or disability of a recipient. Unvested shares cannot be sold, assigned, or transferred and are to be forfeited to Mr. Gerdin in the event of a recipient's termination of employment.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Officers, directors, and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely upon a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, the Company believes that its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them during the Company's preceding fiscal year.

On April 5, 2002, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors approved the dismissal of our independent public accountants, Arthur Andersen LLP. During the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and during the subsequent interim period through the date of dismissal, April 5, 2002, there were not any disagreements between us and Arthur Andersen LLP on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, or any reportable events as defined under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A copy of a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission from Arthur Andersen LLP stating that it agrees with the above statements was included as Exhibit 16 to our Form 10K for the year ended December 31, 2002 filed with the Commission is incorporated by reference herein.
