STATEMENT FROM THE MYER FAMILY COMPANY PTY LTD

After careful consideration of the issues, the Myer Family Company has resolved that it is in the best interests of Coles Myer Ltd, and of its large and small shareholders, to direct its proxy to the Chairman, Mr Rick Allert, and to instruct him to vote against all nominating candidates for director at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

We make this statement now because we feel we have a responsibility to clarify our position to all shareholders in light of the publicity turmoil surrounding the election of directors.

The Myer family regrets that the current situation has been allowed to arise. It is clear that following the Annual General Meeting on 20 November, the current Board will need to be strengthened to include outstanding individuals with appropriate experience and skills including, but not limited to, retail. We urge the Chairman, Mr Rick Allert, to commit himself to this process and offer him our strong support to this end. We seek to rebuild an outstanding board that enjoys the confidence of management and is worthy of the support of all shareholders.

To attract a truly outstanding Board necessarily requires boardroom stability and a clear focus, shared between management and the Board, on business objectives, strategy and targets. Only in this way can confidence be restored and real value be returned to all shareholders.

In the last year a new management team under CEO John Fletcher has been put in place. He was appointed by a unanimous Board and came to CML with an outstanding reputation. John Fletcher, his management team and loyal staff of 165,000 around Australia have our full support.

We encourage shareholders to exercise their voting rights at the AGM on 20 November by completing the Company's blue proxy form. We note that in doing so, they do not have to vote for any of the nominated candidates.

Carrillo Gantner

Chairman

The Myer Family Company Pty Ltd

The Myer family does not intend to make any further comment on this matter at this time.
