(99) Press Release of REGAL-BELOIT Corporation dated August 30, 2004

Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 30, 2004, REGAL-BELOIT Corporation (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the completion of the Company’s acquisition of GE’s Commercial AC motor business. A copy of the Company’s press release is attached as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Current Report”). The Company plans to file its 8-K under Item 2, Acquisition or Disposition of Assets by September 3, 2004.

The Company intends that certain matters disclosed in this Current Report (including the exhibit hereto) are “forward-looking statements” intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors, some of which are beyond the Company’s control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated as of August 30, 2004. Factors that could cause such a variance include, but are not limited to, cyclical downturns affecting the markets for capital goods, substantial increases in interest rates which impact the cost of the Company’s outstanding debt, the success of the Company’s management in increasing sales and maintaining or improving the operating margins of its business, the availability of or material increases in the costs of select raw materials or parts, actions taken by competitors, the ability of the Company to successfully integrate acquisitions and the Company’s ability to satisfy various covenant requirements under its credit facility. Shareholders, potential investors, and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating the forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included in this Current Report (including the exhibit hereto) are made only as of August 30, 2004, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly such forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.

REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION

Completes Acquisition of General Electric Company's

Commercial AC Motor Business

Beloit, WI – August 30, 2004 – REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION (AMEX:RBC) today announced that it has completed the acquisition of GE's Commercial AC motor business.

The Company will hold a conference call at 10:00 a.m. CST on August 31, 2004. To participate in the call, investors should call 1-866-297-6315 at the scheduled time. The call will be available by digital replay for 7 days at 1-877-213-9653. The passcode is 9763722.

The acquired business is expected to add $137 million in annual sales on a normalized basis. The business expands the Company's product offering through extensions of existing product lines and new product applications into existing and new market segments. The customer base also expands the Company's OEM and distributor relationships. The products will be branded "GE Commercial Motors by REGAL-BELOIT," adding another strong brand to the existing three motor brands.>

James L. Packard, Chairman and CEO of REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION commented, "We are extremely pleased about this acquisition as it is a significant piece of our strategy to continue our growth in this sector and to expand our product offering and global capability. This represents our fourth acquisition in the electric motor business, and the 39th in our Company's history. This acquisition clearly strengthens our position as a leader in the industrial/commercial motor business. Adding this new line of motors and capability to our already strong brands of Marathon, Lincoln, and LEESON will strengthen our position with our customers, and demonstrates our strong commitment to this industry."

Henry Knueppel, President and COO added, "This is a solid business with 900 outstanding employees. It gives us a significant presence in Mexico and an important technology and engineering capability in India. This is very important to us and plays a significant role in our overall strategy."

The acquisition is expected to be neutral to earnings per share in 2004 and accretive to earnings per share in 2005 in the range of $.22-$.26. The purchase price was $72.5 million. The Company will finance the purchase through available capacity under its existing bank credit facility.

The business is headquartered in Fort Wayne, Indiana. The business also operates a 335,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Juarez, Mexico and has technology resources located in Hyderabad, India. Additionally, the business will continue with a joint venture relationship in China.

REGAL-BELOIT CORPORATION, founded in 1955, had 2003 revenue of $619 million. The Company is a leading international manufacturer of mechanical and electrical motion control and power generation products designed to meet the high-performance needs of customers around the world. The Company is headquartered in Beloit, Wisconsin, and has manufacturing, sales, and service facilities throughout the United States and Canada, and in Europe and Asia.
