The Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation primarily through investment in middle-market German equities.

Investments in funds involve risks, including the loss of principal.

The shares of most closed-end funds, including the Fund, are not continuously offered. Once issued, shares of closed-end funds are bought and sold in the open market. Shares of closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below, or above net asset value.

This Fund is diversified, but primarily focuses its investments in Germany, thereby increasing its vulnerability to developments in that country. Investing in foreign securities, particularly those of emerging markets, presents certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, political and economic changes and market risks. Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market or in a particular geographical region will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

The European Union, the United States and other countries have imposed sanctions on Russia as a result of the Russian military intervention in the Ukraine. These sanctions have adversely affected Russian individuals, Russian issuers and the Russian economy. Russia, in turn, has imposed sanctions targeting Western individuals, businesses and products including food products. The various sanctions have adversely affected, and may continue to adversely affect, not only the Russian economy but also the economies of many countries in Europe, including Germany. Potential developments in the Ukraine, and the continuation of current sanctions or the imposition of additional sanctions may materially adversely affect the value of the Fund's portfolio.

In June 2016, citizens of the United Kingdom voted that the United Kingdom should leave the European Union and in March 2017, the United Kingdom initiated its withdrawal from the European Union, which is expected to take place by March 2019. Significant uncertainty exists regarding the timing and terms of the United Kingdom's anticipated withdrawal from the European Union and the effects such withdrawal may have on the United Kingdom, other European countries and the global economy.

Letter to the Shareholders (Unaudited)

Dear Shareholder,

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2017, the total return of The New Germany Fund Inc. (the "Fund") in U.S. dollars (USD) was 23.05% based on net asset value and 27.24% based on market price. During the same period, the total return in USD of the Fund's benchmark, the Midcap Market Performance Index, was 21.89%.¹ In euro terms, the Midcap Market Performance Index had a total return of 12.71%. The Fund's discount to net asset value averaged 11.22% for the first six months of 2017, compared with 11.04% for the first six months of 2016.

During much of the first half of 2017, the German equity market continued on a mainly positive trend. Strong economic data within the Eurozone, Emmanuel Macron's victory in the French parliamentary election, brisk merger and acquisition activity and strong first-quarter earnings results were key positive factors supporting the markets. However, in June global equity markets experienced a correction and German equity markets were unable to decouple as investors focused on receding market support from central banks. Additionally, the U.S. Federal Reserve Board's (the Fed's) June 2017 rate hike, accompanied by more hawkish commentary than had been expected, the European Central Bank's comments regarding reflationary forces and the weakening of U.S. economic data put some downward pressure on the markets toward the end of the period.

However, improving economic data in the Eurozone remained a key positive catalyst in the first half. The Eurozone Purchasing Managers Index (PMI) for May 2017 rose to a six-year high.² Also, in Germany, the Institute for Economic Research ("Ifo") Business Climate Index jumped to a record high of 115.1, signaling that German business leaders were feeling very confident.³ German first-quarter GDP growth improved to 0.6% quarter on quarter from 0.4% in the fourth quarter of 2016. And Eurozone first-quarter GDP growth was also at 0.6%.

For the Fund, outperformance in the first half was driven mainly by strong stock selection. Positive attributions were especially generated within the industrial and technology sectors. In technology, Siltronic AG was the strongest performer. Siltronic, a major silicon wafer manufacturer, benefited from strong semiconductor end-market demand. Within industrials, OSRAM Licht and Fraport AG were the strongest performers. OSRAM Licht, a chips and components supplier for lighting applications, recently benefited from strong automotive demand. Fraport AG, the operator of Frankfurt Airport, was boosted by a rebound in traffic and the addition of new routes added by low-cost carriers. We slightly reduced the Fund's weighting in industrials over the period in order to take profits. In technology, we increased the Fund's overweight as we added new positions.

Conversely, underweights in the telecommunications and real estate sectors detracted from performance.⁴ The telecommunications sector has recently received a boost from the merger of United Internet and Drillisch, two companies held by the Fund. Their merger could help to stabilize the price environment for the sector. We therefore increased the Fund's telecommunications position during the first half of 2017. The yield-sensitive real estate sector displayed positive performance as the yield environment remained rather stable. We retained the Fund's underweight position.

We continue to view the macroeconomic environment as benign, with global growth expected to remain at reasonable levels. Germany had been experiencing strong earnings upgrades in recent months due to its high level of exposure to global growth and strong domestic consumer sentiment. First-quarter earnings were robust, and company managements have made constructive forecasts, further driving up earnings growth expectations.

The German economy is likely to maintain its favorable growth rate. Consumer spending, in particular, has been stronger than expected thanks to recent declines in oil prices and a continuing significant rise in employment levels. The tight labor market could lead to increases in pay settlements of more than 3% during the round of collective pay bargaining set to take place in early 2018. Against a backdrop of additional fiscal stimulus following the Bundestag election in September and monetary policy remaining relaxed, the risk of economic overheating — at least in some portions of the German economy — is increasing. However, the rate of consumer price inflation over the coming two years should remain moderate.

The Fund is selectively positioned to benefit from the still benign German consumer environment, while we continue to pay careful attention to potential disruptions from the digitalization trend relating to online retail. At the same time, we retain a positive view regarding technology, as Internet and software companies are likely to benefit from the longer-term digitalization trend. Lastly, the Fund remains overweight in industrials, as we expect the sector to benefit from the current macroeconomic environment.

Sincerely,

Christian Strenger

Outlook Interview with the Portfolio Manager (Unaudited)

Portfolio Manager

Valerie Schueler

Question: How would you assess growth in the German industrial segment, and how is the Fund positioned?

Answer: Our forecast for German manufacturing output growth in 2017 as a whole has been lifted over the course of the year. In the first quarter of 2017, German manufacturing output rose 1% quarter on quarter in real terms according to Germany's Federal Statistical Office.¹ This was the third quarter-on-quarter increase in a row, and growth accelerated considerably. The latest Ifo indices for the manufacturing sector suggest that domestic production will continue to rise in the coming months.² In fact, we believe that companies are more confident regarding their current business situation than at any time since mid-2011. Moreover, according to a report from the Ifo Institute in July 2017, capacity utilization reached its highest level since autumn 2008 at the beginning of the second quarter of 2017. Among the main capital goods sectors, electrical engineering performed best at the beginning of 2017. Mechanical engineering and the automotive industry are also expected to grow, but at lower rates. The Fund is positioned with an overweight in the industrial sector in order to benefit from the positive environment.³

Question: What was the key driver of the strong performance of German small- and mid-cap stocks in the first half of 2017, and how do valuation levels compare?

Answer: All German indices continued their strong absolute performance in the first half of 2017, leaving the MDAX and SDAX trading at or near their all-time highs, respectively.⁴ Key performance drivers were the earnings growth and positive earnings revisions due to the benign macroeconomic environment. Valuation multiples have remained relatively unchanged for most German indices over the past six months, despite the strong absolute performance. The large-cap DAX Index trades at a nearly unchanged 12-month forward P/E of approximately 13x, relative to the MDAX at approximately 16x. This implies a slight decrease in the valuation premium of the MDAX from 26% to 23%. This premium is very much comparable to global small caps as measured by the MSCI World Small Cap Index trading at 20% premiums to large caps as measured by the MSCI World Index.^{5,6} On a separate index level, MDAX currently trades at premiums of 17% respective to their 10-year average 12-month forward price/earnings ratio. However, the valuation of MDAX companies is approximately in line with global equities as measured by the MSCI World Index, which are trading at a 12-month forward price earnings ratio of about 16x.

1 The Federal Statistical Office (Statistisches Bundesamt) is a German federal authority responsible for analyzing statistical information, including information about that country's economy.

2 The Ifo Business Climate Index is a monthly survey prepared by the Ifo Institute for Economic Research in Munich, Germany that measures the business climate in Germany.

3 "Overweight" means the Fund holds a lower weighting in a given sector or security than the benchmark. "Underweight" means the Fund holds a higher weighting.

4 The Midcap Market Performance Index is a total-return index that is composed of various mid-cap securities across all sectors of the MDAX and TecDAX. The MDAX is a total-rate-of-return index of 50 mid-cap issues that rank below the DAX. The DAX is a total-rate-of-return index of 30 selected German blue chip stocks traded on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. The TecDAX is a total-return index that tracks the 30 largest and most liquid issues from the various technology sectors of the Prime Standard Segment beneath the DAX. The SDAX tracks the performance of fifty small-capitalization stocks. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike Fund returns, do not reflect any fees or expenses. It is not possible to invest directly in the Midcap Market Performance Index.

5 The MSCI World Small Cap Index tracks the performance of small-cap stocks in select developed markets around the world.

6 The MSCI World Index tracks the performance of stocks in select developed markets around the world.

144A: Securities exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933. These securities may be resold in transactions exempt from registration, normally to qualified institutional buyers.

For purposes of its industry concentration policy, the Fund classifies issuers of portfolio securities at the industry sub-group level. Certain of the categories in the above Schedule of Investments consist of multiple industry sub-groups or industries.

Securities are listed in the country of domicile. For purposes of the Fund's investment objective policy to invest in German companies, non-Germany domiciled securities may qualify as German companies as defined in the Fund's Statement of Investment Objectives, Policies and Investment Restrictions.

Fair Value Measurements

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The level assigned to the securities valuations may not be an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of June 30, 2017 in valuing the Fund's investments.

Notes to Financial Statements (Unaudited)

A. Accounting Policies

The New Germany Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") was incorporated in Maryland on January 16, 1990 as a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund commenced investment operations on January 30, 1990. The Fund became a diversified fund on October 26, 2007.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Fund qualifies as an investment company under Topic 946 of Accounting Standards Codification of U.S. GAAP. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Security Valuation. The Fund calculates its net asset value ("NAV") per share for publication at the close of regular trading on Deutsche Börse XETRA, normally 11:30 a.m., New York time.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The level assigned to the securities valuations may not be an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with investing in those securities.

Equity securities are valued at the most recent sale price or official closing price reported on the exchange (U.S. or foreign) or over-the-counter market on which they trade prior to the time of valuation. Securities for which no sales are reported are valued at the calculated mean between the most recent bid and asked quotations on the relevant market or, if a mean cannot be determined, at the most recent bid quotation. Equity securities are generally categorized as Level 1.

Investments in open-end investment companies and closed-end investment companies are valued and traded at their NAV each business day and are categorized as Level 1.

Securities and other assets for which market quotations are not readily available or for which the above valuation procedures are deemed not to reflect fair value are valued in a manner that is intended to reflect their fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board and are generally categorized as Level 3. In accordance with the Fund's valuation procedures, factors considered in determining value may include, but are not limited to, the type of the security; the size of the holding; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities); an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold; and, with respect to debt securities, the maturity, coupon, creditworthiness, currency denomination and the movement of the market in which the security is normally traded. The value determined under these procedures may differ from published values for the same securities.

Disclosure about the classification of the fair value measurements is included in a table following the Fund's Schedule of Investments.

Securities Transactions and Investment Income. Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date plus one basis for daily NAV calculation. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment security transactions are reported on trade date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date net of foreign withholding taxes. Certain dividends from foreign securities may be recorded subsequent to the ex-dividend date as soon as the Fund is informed of such dividends. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis. Proceeds from litigation payments, if any, are included in net realized gain (loss) for investments.

Securities Lending. Brown Brothers Harriman & Co., as lending agent, lends securities of the Fund to certain financial institutions under the terms of its securities lending agreement. During the term of the loans, the Fund continues to receive interest and dividends generated by the securities and to participate in any changes in their market value. The Fund requires the borrowers of the securities to maintain collateral with the Fund consisting of either cash or liquid, unencumbered assets having a value at least equal to the value of the securities loaned. When the collateral falls below specified amounts, the lending agent will use its best effort to obtain additional collateral on the next business day to meet required amounts under the securities lending agreement. As of period end, any securities on loan were collateralized by cash. During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Fund invested the cash collateral into a joint trading account in affiliated money market funds managed by Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. As of June 30, 2017, the Fund invested the cash collateral in Deutsche Government & Agency Securities Portfolio. Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. receives a management/administration fee (0.13% annualized effective rate as of June 30, 2017) on the cash collateral invested in Deutsche Government & Agency Securities Portfolio. The Fund receives compensation for lending its securities either in the form of fees or by earning interest on invested cash collateral net of borrower rebates and fees paid to a lending agent. Either the Fund or the borrower may terminate the loan at any time and the borrower, after notice, is required to return borrowed securities within a standard time period. There may be risks of delay and costs in recovery of securities or even loss of rights in the collateral should the borrower of the securities fail financially. If the Fund is not able to recover securities lent, the Fund may sell the collateral and purchase a replacement investment in the market, incurring the risk that the value of the replacement security is greater than the value of the collateral. The Fund is also subject to all investment risks associated with the reinvestment of any cash collateral received including, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and liquidity risk associated with such investments.

As of June 30, 2017, the Fund had securities on loan which were classified as common stock in the Schedule of Investments. The value of the related collateral exceeded the value of the securities loaned at period end. As of period end, the remaining contractual maturity of the collateral agreements were overnight and continuous.

Foreign Currency Translation. The books and records of the Fund are maintained in United States dollars.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are translated into United States dollars at the prevailing exchange rates at period end. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net gains and losses between trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the acquisition and disposition of foreign currencies, and the difference between the amount of net investment income accrued and the U.S. dollar amount actually received. The portion of both realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that results from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed but is included with net realized and unrealized gain/appreciation and loss/depreciation on investments.

At June 30, 2017, the exchange rate was EUR €1.00 to USD $1.14.

Contingencies. In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

Taxes. The Fund's policy is to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which are applicable to regulated investment companies, and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders.

Additionally, the Fund may be subject to taxes imposed by the governments of countries in which it invests. Such taxes are generally based on income and/or capital gains earned or repatriated. Estimated tax liabilities on certain foreign securities are recorded on an accrual basis and are reflected as components of interest income or net change in unrealized gain/loss on investments. Tax liabilities realized as a result of security sales are reflected as a component of net realized gain/loss on investments.

From November 1, 2016 through December 31, 2016, the Fund elects to defer qualified late year losses of approximately $747,000 of net short-term realized capital losses and approximately $203,000 of net ordinary losses and treat them as arising in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017.

The Fund has reviewed the tax positions for the open tax years as of December 31, 2016 and has determined that no provision for income tax and/or uncertain tax provisions is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain open subject to examinations by the Internal Revenue Service.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders. The Fund records dividends and distributions to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. The timing and character of certain income and capital gain distributions are determined annually in accordance with United States federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences primarily relate to investments in foreign passive investment companies and certain securities sold at a loss. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. Accordingly, the Fund may periodically make reclassifications among certain of its capital accounts without impacting the NAV of the Fund.

The tax character of current year distributions, if any, will be determined at the end of the current fiscal year.

B. Investment Advisory and Administration Agreements

The Fund is party to an Investment Advisory Agreement with Deutsche Asset Management International GmbH ("Deutsche AM International GmbH"). The Fund also has an Administration Agreement with Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. ("DIMA"). Deutsche AM International GmbH and DIMA are affiliated companies.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement with Deutsche AM International GmbH, Deutsche AM International GmbH directs the investments of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives, policies and restrictions. Deutsche AM International GmbH determines the securities, instruments and other contracts relating to investments to be purchased, sold or entered into by the Fund.

The Investment Advisory Agreement provides Deutsche AM International GmbH with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rate of 0.80% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to and including $100 million, 0.60% of such assets in excess of $100 million and up to and including $500 million, and 0.55% of such assets in excess of $500 million.

Accordingly, for the six months ended June 30, 2017, the fee pursuant to the Investment Advisory Agreement was equivalent to an annualized rate of 0.67% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

Under the Administration Agreement with DIMA, DIMA provides all of the non-investment advisory services to the Fund. The Administration Agreement provides DIMA with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, of 0.20% of the Fund's average weekly net assets.

C. Transactions with Affiliates

Deutsche AM Service Company ("DSC"), an affiliate of DIMA, is the transfer agent, dividend-paying agent and shareholder service agent of the Fund. Pursuant to a sub-transfer agency agreement between DSC and DST Systems, Inc. ("DST"), DSC has delegated certain transfer agent and dividend-paying agent functions to DST. DSC compensates DST out of the shareholder servicing fee it receives from the Fund. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the amount charged to the Fund by DSC aggregated $6,000, of which $1,000 is unpaid.

Under an agreement with DIMA, DIMA is compensated for providing typesetting and certain regulatory filing services to the Fund. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the amount charged to the Fund by DIMA included in the Statement of Operations under "Reports to shareholders" aggregated $5,589, of which $5,575 is unpaid.

Deutsche Bank AG, the German parent of DIMA and Deutsche AM International GmbH, and its affiliates may receive brokerage commissions as a result of executing agency transactions in portfolio securities on behalf of the Fund, that the Board determined were effected in compliance with the Fund's Rule 17e-1 procedures. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, Deutsche Bank did not receive brokerage commissions from the Fund.

Certain Officers of the Fund are also officers of DIMA or Deutsche AM International GmbH.

The Fund pays each Director not an "interested person" of DIMA or Deutsche AM International GmbH retainer fees plus specified amounts for attended board and committee meetings.

The Fund may invest cash balances in Deutsche Central Cash Management Government Fund, which is managed by DIMA. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of the expenses of Deutsche Central Cash Management Government Fund. Deutsche Central Cash Management Government Fund does not pay DIMA an investment management fee. Deutsche Central Cash Management Government Fund seeks maximum current income to the extent consistent with stability of principal.

D. Portfolio Securities

Purchases and sales of investment securities, excluding short-term investments, for the six months ended June 30, 2017, were $24,138,082 and $32,587,492, respectively.

E. Capital

During the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, the Fund purchased 259,600 and 664,300 of its shares of common stock on the open market at a total cost of $3,780,146 and $9,060,828 ($14.56 and $13.64 average per share), respectively. The average discount of these purchased shares comparing the purchased price to the NAV at the time of purchase was 11.36% and 11.48%, respectively.

During the six months ended June 30, 2017 and year ended December 31, 2016 the Fund issued for dividend reinvestment 420,774 and 492,027, respectively. The average discount of these issued shares, comparing the issue price to the NAV at the time of issuance, was 11.97% and 11.29%, respectively.

F. Share Repurchases

On July 27, 2015, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 1,610,000 shares during the period from August 1, 2015 through July 31, 2016. The Fund repurchased 480,311 shares between August 1, 2015 and July 31, 2016. On July 25, 2016, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 1,596,000 shares during the period August 1, 2016 through July 31, 2017. The Fund repurchased 602,296 shares between August 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017. On July 31, 2017, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the current repurchase authorization permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 796,000 shares during the period August 1, 2017 through July 31, 2018.

Repurchases will be made from time to time when they are believed to be in the best interests of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund's repurchases will reduce the spread between the market price of the Fund's shares referred to below and its NAV per share.

Monthly updates concerning the Fund's repurchase program are available on its Web site at deutschefunds.com.

G. Concentration of Ownership

From time to time, the Fund may have a concentration of several shareholder accounts holding a significant percentage of shares outstanding. Investment activities of these shareholders could have a material impact on the Fund. At June 30, 2017, there were three shareholders that held approximately 16%, 13% and 7%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the Fund.

Report of Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Unaudited)

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting") of The New Germany Fund, Inc. was called to order on June 27, 2017. At the close of business on May 15, 2017, the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the Meeting, there were issued and outstanding 15,951,988 shares of the Fund's common stock, each share being entitled to one vote, constituting all of the Fund's outstanding voting securities. Notes

There are three closed-end funds investing in European equities advised and administered by wholly owned subsidiaries of the Deutsche Bank Group:

— The Central and Eastern Europe Fund, Inc. (formerly The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc.) — investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central and Eastern Europe (with normally at least 80% in securities of issuers domiciled in countries in Central and Eastern Europe) and concentrating in the energy sector (with more than 25% of the fund's total assets in issuers conducting their principal activities in that sector).

— The European Equity Fund, Inc. — investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Europe (with normally at least 80% in securities of issuers domiciled in Europe).

— The New Germany Fund, Inc. — investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of middle market German companies with up to 20% in other Western European companies (with no more than 15% in any single country).

Please consult your broker for advice on any of the above or call 1-800-349-4281 (in the U.S.) or 00-800-2287-2750 (outside of the U.S.) for shareholder reports.

The New Germany Fund, Inc. is diversified, but primarily focuses its investments in Germany, thereby increasing its vulnerability to developments in that country. Investing in foreign securities presents certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, political and economic changes and market risks. Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market or in a particular geographical region will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

ITEM 10. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS There were no material changes to the procedures by which stockholders may recommend nominees to the Fund's Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider nominee candidates properly submitted by stockholders in accordance with applicable law, the Fund's Articles of Incorporation or By-laws, resolutions of the Board and the qualifications and procedures set forth in the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter and this proxy statement. The Nominating and Governance Committee's Charter requires that a stockholder or group of stockholders seeking to submit a nominee candidate (i) must have beneficially owned at least 5% of the Fund's common stock for at least two years, (ii) may submit only one nominee candidate for any particular meeting of stockholders, and (iii) may submit a nominee candidate for only an annual meeting or other meeting of stockholders at which directors will be elected. The stockholder or group of stockholders must provide notice of the proposed nominee pursuant to the requirements found in the Fund's By-laws. Generally, this notice must be received not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of mailing of the notice for the preceding year's annual meeting. Such notice shall include the specific information required by the Fund's By-laws. The Nominating and Governance Committee will evaluate nominee candidates properly submitted by stockholders on the same basis as it considers and evaluates candidates recommended by other sources. ITEM 11. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES (a) The Chief Executive and Financial Officers concluded that the Registrant's Disclosure Controls and Procedures are effective based on the evaluation of the Disclosure Controls and Procedures as of a date within 90 days of the filing date of this report.
