Voting Rights. Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, MBO-VI and MBO-VII are entitled, subject to the Series D Certificate of Designation, to designate for election to the Board of Directors of McLeodUSA (the "Board of Directors") two persons. Pursuant to this contractual right, MBO-VI and MBO-VII designated Theodore J. Forstmann and Erskine B. Bowles, each of whom served on the Board of Directors as a director designee of the holders of the Series B Preferred, for election to the Board of Directors. In addition, pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, Equity-V is entitled, subject to the Series E Certificate of Designation, to designate one non-voting observer, who will have the same access to information concerning the business and operations of McLeodUSA and its subsidiaries as directors of McLeodUSA, and will be entitled to participate in discussions and consult with the Board of Directors of McLeodUSA without voting. Lock-Up Provisions. Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, until the earlier of September 15, 2004 or the occurrence of certain events, the FL Partnerships may not, subject to certain exceptions, sell, transfer, assign, convey or otherwise dispose of any of the New Preferred Shares or Common Stock. In addition, the FL Partnerships may not exercise any conversion rights with respect to the New Preferred Shares until September 15, 2004. Nothing contained in the Exchange Agreement, however, will be deemed to limit the ability of the limited partners in the FL Partnerships from transferring, directly or indirectly, their limited partnership interests in the FL Partnerships or the general partners of the FL Partnerships from transferring, directly or indirectly, up to 15% of the equity interests in the FL Partnerships at any time or from time to time.

The foregoing description of the Exchange Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Exchange Agreement, all of which is incorporated herein by reference. The Exchange Agreement is filed as Exhibit 6 hereto.

Termination Agreement

In connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, McLeodUSA and the FL Partnerships entered into the Termination Agreement, pursuant to which McLeodUSA and the FL Partnerships agreed to terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Termination Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Termination Agreement, all of which is incorporated herein by reference. The Termination Agreement is filed as Exhibit 7 hereto.

2001 Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, McLeodUSA and the FL Partnerships entered into the 2001 Registration Rights Agreement, which replaces and supersedes the Registration Rights Agreement. Pursuant to the 2001 Registration Rights Agreement, McLeodUSA granted to the FL Partnerships three demand rights to cause McLeodUSA to register under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, all or part of the Registrable Securities (as defined below) held by the FL Partnerships. McLeodUSA has the right to delay any such registration once in any six-month period for a reasonable period of time (but not exceeding 60 days) under certain circumstances.

In addition, if McLeodUSA proposes to register any of its securities for the account of any other stockholder (other than in connection with an employee benefit plan, dividend reinvestment plan, merger or consolidation), the FL Partnerships may require McLeodUSA to include all or a portion of their Registrable Securities in such registration, subject to certain priorities among them and to certain limitations. All expenses incurred in connection with such registrations (other than underwriting discounts and commissions) will be borne by McLeodUSA.

Edgar Filing: MCLEODUSA INC - Form SC 13D/A

"Registrable Securities" means (i) any shares of common stock of McLeodUSA owned by the FL Partnerships, (ii) any shares of common stock of McLeodUSA issued or issuable upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of any New Preferred Shares or of any other common stock equivalents at any time held by the FL Partnerships, and (iii) any shares of common stock of McLeodUSA issued with respect to the common stock referred to in clauses (i) or (ii) by way of a stock dividend, stock split or reverse stock split or in connection with a combination of shares, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or otherwise.

The foregoing description of the 2001 Registration Rights Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the 2001 Registration Rights Agreement, all of which is incorporated herein by reference. The 2001 Registration Rights Agreement is filed as Exhibit 8 hereto.

Series D Certificate of Designation

As contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, McLeodUSA filed the Series D Certificate of Designation to create the Series D Preferred.

Rank. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, the Series D Preferred and the Series E Preferred taken together, with respect to dividend rights and rights on liquidation and dissolution, rank (i) senior to all classes of capital stock or series of preferred stock of McLeodUSA established by the Board of Directors, the terms of which do not expressly provide that such class or series ranks senior to, or on a parity with, the Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred (collectively referred to, together with all classes of Common Stock, as "Junior Securities"), (ii) on a parity with the Series A Preferred and with each class of capital stock or series of preferred stock of McLeodUSA established by the Board, the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank on a parity with the New Preferred Shares (collectively referred to as "Parity Securities"), and (iii) junior as to each class of capital stock or series of preferred stock of McLeodUSA established by the Board, the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank senior to the New Preferred Shares (collectively referred to as "Senior Securities"). Creation by McLeodUSA of Senior Securities requires the vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series D Preferred.

Dividends. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, if at any time from the original date of issuance of shares of Series D Preferred (the "Issue Date") through the date ending five years thereafter, McLeodUSA pays a dividend in cash or property other than in shares of capital stock on the Common Stock, then each share of Series D Preferred will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the Series D Per Share Participation Amount. The "Series D Per Share Participation Amount" means, as at any date, 56% of the amount of dividends that would be paid with respect to the Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together if converted into Common Stock on the date established as the record date with respect to such dividend on the Common Stock divided by the number of shares of Series D Preferred then outstanding. Except for the foregoing, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred are not entitled to receive any dividends in respect of their shares of Series D Preferred.

Liquidation. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up (a "liquidation") of McLeodUSA, before any payment or distribution of the assets of McLeodUSA may be made to or set apart for the holders of Junior Securities, the holders of the shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together are entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the greater of

(x) the aggregate Liquidation Preferences (as defined below) of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred, or (y) the aggregate amount that would have been received with respect to the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred if such shares had been converted to Common Stock immediately prior to the earliest event comprising the liquidation. If, upon any liquidation of McLeodUSA, the assets of McLeodUSA, or proceeds thereof, are insufficient to pay in full the amounts under clause (x) of the preceding sentence and liquidating payments on all Parity Securities, then such assets, or proceeds thereof, will be distributed among the shares of Series D Preferred and the Series E Preferred taken together and all such other Parity Securities ratably in accordance with the respective amounts that would be payable on such shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred and any such other Parity Securities if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full. Any proceeds distributed among the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred under clause (x) of the first sentence, or pursuant to the preceding sentence, of this paragraph upon a liquidation will be distributed (a) first, to the Series D Preferred until it has received an amount equal to the aggregate Preference Amounts (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation) as of the date of liquidation of the outstanding Series D Preferred, (b) second, 37.5% to the Series D Preferred and 62.5% to the Series E Preferred until the Series D Preferred has received an amount equal to the Outstanding Series D Capital Amount (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation) as of the date of liquidation (in addition to any amount received pursuant to clause (a) above) and the Series E Preferred has received an amount equal to the Outstanding Series E Capital Amount (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation) as of the date of liquidation, and (c) thereafter, 56% to the Series D Preferred and 44% to the Series E Preferred.

"Liquidation Preference" with respect to a share of Series D Preferred means $2500.00.

Redemption. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, subject to applicable legal requirements and the Company's existing Credit Agreement (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation), to the extent McLeodUSA has funds legally available therefor, during the 180-day period commencing on the eighth anniversary of the Issue Date, the holders of the Series D Preferred will have the right to cause McLeodUSA to redeem at any time (the date of any such redemption, the "Redemption Date") outstanding shares of Series D Preferred (the "Mandatory Redemption Obligation"). Upon any such election McLeodUSA will be required to redeem a proportional amount of the Series E Preferred. On any Redemption Date, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred being redeemed on such date, taken together, will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the aggregate Liquidation Preferences of such shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred as of such Redemption Date (the "Aggregate Redemption Amount"). The Aggregate Redemption Amount will be allocated between the shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred being redeemed on any Redemption Date as follows: (x) the holders of shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the sum of (A) the aggregate Preference Amounts of the shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed as of such Redemption Date plus (B) 37.5% of the difference between (i) the Aggregate Redemption Amount and (ii) the amount payable pursuant to clause (A) above (such difference, the "Excess Amount"), and (y) the holders of shares of Series E Preferred being redeemed will be entitled to receive an amount equal to 62.5% of the Excess Amount. The amount payable with respect to each share of Series D Preferred being redeemed on any Redemption Date is an amount in cash (the "Series D Redemption Amount") equal to (x) the aggregate amount payable to the shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed as calculated pursuant to the previous sentence divided by (y) the number of shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed on such Redemption Date. On any Redemption Date, McLeodUSA will pay, in cash or by wire transfer to an account designated by the holder of Series D Preferred, the Series D Redemption Amount for each share of Series D Preferred being redeemed.

Conversion. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred have the right, generally, at any time, to convert any or all outstanding shares of Series D Preferred into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock ("Optional Conversion"). Upon any Optional Conversion, a proportional amount, based on the percentage of each series of shares outstanding, of the Series E Preferred will automatically convert. In addition, if, at any time on or after the fifth anniversary of the Issue Date, the Sixty Trading Day Average (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation) is equal to or greater than the product of (x) 1.01 and (y) the Conversion Price (as defined below), then McLeodUSA will have the right to declare, during the 30-day period following the last trading day used in the calculation of the Sixty Trading Day Average, that all outstanding shares of Series D Preferred will be automatically converted into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock ("Mandatory Conversion"). Upon any Optional Conversion or Mandatory Conversion, the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together will be convertible into a number of shares of Common Stock (the "Aggregate Conversion Shares") equal to (x) the aggregate Liquidation Preferences of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred divided by (y) $6.10 (subject to adjustment pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, the "Conversion Price"). The Series D Preferred is convertible into a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the sum of (A) the aggregate Preference Amounts as of the date of conversion of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred divided by the Net Realizable FMV (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation) of a share of Common Stock as of the date of conversion, plus (B) the Series D Capital Share Number (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation), plus (C) the product of (x) .560 and (y) the excess, if any, of the Aggregate Conversion Shares over the sum of (i) the number determined pursuant to clause (A), (ii) the Series D Capital Share Number and (iii) the Series E Capital Share Number (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation).

Voting Rights. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, so long as at least 40% of the shares of Series D Preferred issued on the Issue Date remain outstanding, the holders of the Series D Preferred are entitled to collectively elect two directors to the Board of Directors; so long as at least 20%, but less than 40%, of the shares of Series D Preferred issued on the Issue Date remain outstanding, the holders are entitled to collectively elect one director to the Board and to designate a person as a non-voting observer (a "Board Observer") to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors; and so long as 20% or less (but at least one) of the shares of Series D Preferred issued on the Issue Date remain outstanding, the holders are entitled to designate two Board Observers. If McLeodUSA fails to discharge its Mandatory Redemption Obligation or if it issues securities senior to the Series D Preferred without the requisite consent of the holders of Series D Preferred, the total number of directors then constituting the whole Board automatically will be increased by one and the holders of outstanding shares of Series D Preferred, voting separately as a single series, will be entitled to elect one additional director to serve on the Board. Whenever McLeodUSA fulfills its Mandatory Redemption Obligation, the right of the holders of shares of Series D Preferred to elect the additional director will cease. Without the written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred or the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred at a meeting of such holders called for such purpose, McLeodUSA may not (i) create, authorize or issue any Senior Securities, (ii) declare, pay or set apart for payment any dividends in cash on Junior Securities (other than dividends on Common Stock which are, at the same time, also declared and paid on shares of Series D Preferred pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation), (iii) declare or make a distribution in cash upon Junior Securities (other than distributions on Common Stock which are, at the same time, also declared and made on shares of Series D Preferred pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation) or (iv) redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire in exchange for cash any Junior Securities.

The foregoing description of the Series D Certificate of Designation is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Series D Certificate of Designation, all of which is incorporated herein by reference. The Series D Certificate of Designation is filed as Exhibit 9 hereto.

Series E Certificate of Designation

As contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, McLeodUSA filed the Series E Certificate of Designation to create the Series E Preferred.

Rank. Pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation, the Series D Preferred and the Series E Preferred taken together, with respect to dividend rights and rights on liquidation and dissolution, rank (i) senior to all Junior Securities, (ii) on a parity with the Series A Preferred and with the Parity Securities, and (iii) junior to all Senior Securities. Creation by McLeodUSA of Senior Securities requires the vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Series E Preferred.

Dividends. Pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation, if at any time from the Issue Date through the date ending five years thereafter, McLeodUSA pays a dividend in cash or property other than in shares of capital stock on the Common Stock, then each share of Series E Preferred will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the Series E Per Share Participation Amount. The "Series E Per Share Participation Amount" means, as at any date, 44% of the amount of dividends that would be paid with respect to the Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together if converted into Common Stock on the dividend record date divided by the number of shares of Series E Preferred then outstanding. Except for the foregoing, the holders of shares of Series E Preferred are not entitled to receive any dividends in respect of their shares of Series E Preferred.

Liquidation. Pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation, in the event of any liquidation of McLeodUSA, before any payment or distribution of the assets of McLeodUSA may be made to or set apart for the holders of Junior Securities, the holders of the shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together are entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the greater of (x) the aggregate Liquidation Preferences (as defined below) of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred, or (y) the aggregate amount that would have been received with respect to the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred if such shares had been converted to Common Stock immediately prior to the earliest event comprising the liquidation. If, upon any liquidation of McLeodUSA, the assets of McLeodUSA, or proceeds thereof, are insufficient to pay in full the amounts under clause (x) of the preceding sentence and liquidating payments on all Parity Securities, then such assets, or proceeds thereof, will be distributed among the shares of Series D Preferred and the Series E Preferred taken together and all such other Parity Securities ratably in accordance with the respective amounts that would be payable on such shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred and any such other Parity Securities if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full. Any proceeds distributed among the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred under clause (x) of the first sentence or pursuant to the preceding sentence of this paragraph upon a liquidation will be distributed (a) first, to the Series D Preferred until it has received an amount equal to the aggregate Preference Amounts as of the date of liquidation of the outstanding Series D Preferred, (b) second, 37.5% to the Series D Preferred and 62.5% to the Series E Preferred until the Series D Preferred has received an amount equal to the Outstanding Series D Capital Amount as of the date of liquidation (in addition to any amount received pursuant to clause (a) above) and the Series E Preferred has received an amount equal to the Outstanding Series E Capital Amount as of the date of liquidation, and (c) thereafter, 56% to the Series D Preferred and 44% to the Series E Preferred.

"Liquidation Preference" with respect to a share of Series E Preferred means $2500.00.

Redemption. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, subject to applicable legal requirements and the Company's existing Credit Agreement (as defined in the Series D Certificate of Designation), to the extent the holders of Series D Preferred choose to exercise their right to cause McLeodUSA to redeem their shares pursuant to the Mandatory Redemption Obligation, McLeodUSA will be required to redeem a proportional amount of the Series E Preferred. On any Redemption Date, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred being redeemed on such date, taken together, will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the Aggregate Redemption Amount. The Aggregate Redemption Amount will be allocated between the shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred being redeemed on any Redemption Date as follows: (x) the holders of shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the sum of (A) the aggregate Preference Amounts of the shares of Series D Preferred being redeemed as of such Redemption Date plus (B) 37.5% of the Excess Amount, and (y) the holders of shares of Series E Preferred being redeemed will be entitled to receive an amount equal to 62.5% of the Excess Amount. The amount payable with respect to each share of Series E Preferred being redeemed on any Redemption Date is an amount in cash (the "Series E Redemption Amount") equal to (x) the aggregate amount payable to the shares of Series E Preferred being redeemed as calculated pursuant to the previous sentence divided by (y) the number of shares of Series E Preferred being redeemed on such Redemption Date. On any Redemption Date, McLeodUSA will pay, in cash or by wire transfer to an account designated by the holder of Series E Preferred, the Series E Redemption Amount for each share of Series E Preferred being redeemed.

Conversion. Pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation, upon any Optional Conversion, a proportional amount, based on the percentage of each series of shares outstanding, of the Series E Preferred and, upon a Mandatory Conversion, all of the Series E Preferred, will automatically convert. Upon any Optional Conversion or Mandatory Conversion, the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and Series E Preferred taken together will be convertible into the Aggregate Conversion Shares. The Series E Preferred is convertible into a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the sum of (A) the Series E Capital Share Number, plus (B) the product of (x) .440 and (y) the excess, if any, of the Aggregate Conversion Shares over the sum of (i) the aggregate Preference Amounts as of the date of conversion of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred divided by the Net Realizable FMV of a share of Common Stock as of the date of conversion, (ii) the Series D Capital Share Number and (iii) the Series E Capital Share Number.

Edgar Filing: MCLEODUSA INC - Form SC 13D/A

Voting Rights. Pursuant to the Series D Certificate of Designation, so long as any shares of Series E Preferred are outstanding, the holders of the Series E Preferred are entitled to designate one Board Observer to the Board of Directors. If McLeodUSA fails to discharge its Mandatory Redemption Obligation or if it issues securities senior to the Series E Preferred without the requisite consent of the holders of Series E Preferred, the total number of directors then constituting the whole Board automatically will be increased by one and the holders of outstanding shares of Series E Preferred, voting separately as a single series, will be entitled to elect one additional director to serve on the Board. Whenever McLeodUSA fulfills its Mandatory Redemption Obligation, the right of the holders of shares of Series E Preferred to elect the additional director will cease. Without the written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series E Preferred or the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series E Preferred at a meeting of such holders called for such purpose, McLeodUSA may not (i) create, authorize or issue any Senior Securities, (ii) declare, pay or set apart for payment any dividends in cash on Junior Securities (other than dividends on Common Stock which are, at the same time, also declared and paid on shares of Series E Preferred pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation), (iii) declare or make a distribution in cash upon Junior Securities (other than distributions on Common Stock which are, at the same time, also declared and made on shares of Series E Preferred pursuant to the Series E Certificate of Designation) or (iv) redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire in exchange for cash any Junior Securities.

The foregoing description of the Series E Certificate of Designation is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the Series E Certificate of Designation, all of which is incorporated herein by reference. The Series E Certificate of Designation is filed as Exhibit 10 hereto.

Except as set forth or incorporated by reference herein, none of the FL Partnerships, nor to the knowledge of any of the FL Partnerships, any person identified in Schedule I, has any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with any person with respect to any securities of McLeodUSA.
