Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On January 27, 2015, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Cree, Inc. (the “Company”) approved an amendment to the Company’s Bylaws (as amended and restated, the “Bylaws”) to add a new forum selection provision. The forum selection provision provides that, to the fullest extent provided by law, unless the Company consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the sole and exclusive forum for all litigation relating to the internal affairs of the Company, including without limitation (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Company, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Company to the Company or the shareholders of the Company, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act, the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, as amended, or the Bylaws, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine, shall be the state courts of North Carolina, or if such courts lack jurisdiction, a federal court located within the State of North Carolina, in all cases subject to the court’s having personal jurisdiction over the indispensable parties named as defendants. Any such action filed in a North Carolina state court shall be designated by the party filing the action as a mandatory complex business case pursuant to Section 7A-45.4 of the North Carolina General Statutes. In any such action where the Act specifies the division or county wherein the action must be brought, the action shall be brought in such division or county.

A copy of the Bylaws is attached as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated into this report by reference.
