NEWMONT ACQUISITIONS OF NORMANDY, FRANCO-NEVADA REMAIN ON TRACK

SYDNEY, 31 December 2001 (Denver, December 30, 2001)--Newmont Mining Corporation (NYSE:NEM) confirmed today that it has made substantial progress toward completing its acquisitions of Normandy Mining Limited (ASX: NDY) and Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited (TSE:FN).

Wayne W. Murdy, President and Chief Executive Officer of Newmont, noted, "We are on track with the schedule that we initially set for completion of our acquisitions of Normandy and Franco-Nevada by mid-February. We remain committed to the timely completion of these transactions, which we believe afford substantial, tangible benefits for the shareholders of all three companies."

Newmont has recently:

- o Dispatched its Bidder's Statement to holders of Normandy shares outside of Canada and the United States.
- o Filed its Registration Statement on Form S-4 for its offer for Normandy for holders of Normandy shares in the United States and Canada with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
- o Filed its Preliminary Proxy Statement for its special meeting of Newmont shareholders scheduled to be held in mid-February with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
- o Received termination of the Hart-Scott-Rodino anti-trust waiting period for the acquisitions of Normandy and Franco-Nevada.
- o Received advance ruling certificates from the Canadian Competition Bureau with respect to the transactions with Normandy and Franco-Nevada.
- o Received conditional approval from The Toronto Stock Exchange for the listing of the Exchangeable Shares to be issued in connection with Newmont's acquisition of Franco-Nevada.

Additionally, over the past week, Franco-Nevada has:

- o Received the interim order of the Ontario Superior Court calling the Franco-Nevada shareholders' meeting in connection with the Plan of Arrangement pursuant to which Newmont will acquire all of the shares of Franco-Nevada.
- o Begun mailing to its shareholders the materials for the Franco-Nevada shareholders' meeting at which the Plan of Arrangement with Newmont is to be considered on January 30, 2002.

Based on closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange on 28 December 2001, Newmont's bid has a value of A$1.83 per Normandy share, while AngloGold's recently revised offer has a value of A$1.79 per Normandy share. Shareholders should obtain current market quotes for the shares of Newmont, Normandy and AngloGold.

"Ours continues to be the better bid. We are offering Normandy shareholders more cash, the more liquid stock, and the most compelling investment in the gold industry. The combined company will have the financial capacity, expertise and growth opportunities to immediately become the premier global gold company," Murdy said.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Although Newmont Mining Corporation has lodged its Bidder's Statement in Australia and mailed it to shareholders of Normandy Mining Limited who reside outside of the United States and Canada, the offer by Newmont is not currently being made to shareholders in the United States and Canada. In addition, the Newmont offer cannot be accepted by shareholders in the United States and Canada until Newmont's Registration Statement on Form S-4 has been declared effective by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995
The following contains forward-looking information and statements about Newmont Mining Corporation, Franco-Nevada Mining Corporation Limited, Normandy Mining Limited and the combined company after completion of the transactions that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for "forward-looking statements" provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements include financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions; statements regarding plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, products and services; and statements regarding future performance. Forward-looking statements are generally identified by the words "expect," "anticipates," "believes," "intends," "estimates" and similar expressions. The forward-looking information and statements in this press release are subject to various risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of Newmont, Franco-Nevada and Normandy Mining, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include those discussed or identified in the public filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission made by Newmont and Normandy, and Franco-Nevada's filings with the
