Dear Harry and Carl:

I am writing on behalf of the independent directors of Reckson to confirm that Reckson has determined that it is not consistent with the terms of its pending merger agreement with SL Green or your confidentiality agreement with us for you to provide access to confidential evaluation materials relating to Reckson and its properties to other potential bidding parties beyond the present partnership the two of you have formed. SL Green has advised us that they believe such consent is not permitted under the terms of our pending merger agreement with them. Our determination on November 16th to enter into a confidentiality agreement with and provide information to the two of you was based on the proposal you submitted to us on that date. We have treated the two of you as the Person making a proposal for a competing transaction and accordingly are limited under the terms of our agreement to provide information only to the two of you.

We have given you broad access to information and have facilitated detailed due diligence by commercial banking institutions which you have identified as being willing to provide debt financing in support of your bid. We are concerned that you are making a request to bring on additional partners so late in the process of your review. As we noted yesterday, we expect to receive the full details of your capital structure and your financing commitments by no later than tomorrow.

As I indicated in the letter of November 27, 2006, we appreciate all of the hard work that you and your team have put forth. We await your response to the matters which we have raised in our prior communications.
