ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REQUIRED FD DISCLOSURE

The Leather Factory, Inc. (the "Company", "we", "us" or "our") updates the description of its securities originally contained in the Form 8-B filed with the Commission on August 16, 1994, by amending the description to read in its entirety as shown below.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK
COMMON STOCK

Our common stock has a par value of $0.0024 per share, and our amended certificate of incorporation allows us to issue up to 25,000,000 shares of this stock. Our common stock is listed for trading on the American Stock Exchange. The stock's symbol is "TLF".

As of May 10, 2004, we had 10,555,661 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

VOTING RIGHTS

Each holder of our common stock is entitled to one vote for each share on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders, including the election of directors. Under our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, our stockholders will not have cumulative voting rights. Because of this, the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote in any election of directors can elect all of the directors standing for election, if they should so choose.

DIVIDENDS

Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any then outstanding preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably those dividends, if any, as may be declared from time to time by the board of directors out of legally available funds.

LIQUIDATION

In the event we liquidate, dissolve or wind up, holders of common stock will be entitled to share ratably in the net assets legally available for distribution to stockholders after the payment of all our debts and other liabilities and the satisfaction of any liquidation preference granted to the holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock.

RIGHTS AND PREFERENCES

Holders of common stock have no preemptive, conversion, or subscription rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock. The rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock that we may designate in the future.

FULLY PAID AND NONASSESSABLE

All of our outstanding shares of common stock are, and the shares of common stock to be issued pursuant to this offering will be, fully paid and nonassessable.

PREFERRED STOCK

In addition to our common stock, our board of directors has the authority, without further action by the stockholders, to issue up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each such series, to fix the rights, preferences and privileges of the shares of each wholly unissued series and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions on the series of preferred stock, and to increase or decrease the number of shares of any such series, but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding. Our board of directors may authorize the issuance of preferred stock with voting or conversion rights that could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of the common stock.

The issuance of preferred stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could, among other things, have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control and may adversely affect the market price of the common stock and the voting and other rights of the holders of common stock. No shares of our preferred stock are outstanding.

DELAWARE ANTI-TAKEOVER LAW AND CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

DELAWARE LAW

We are governed by Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. In general, Section 203 prohibits a public Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for a period of three years after the date of the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder, unless the business combination is approved in a prescribed manner. A "business combination" includes mergers, asset sales or other transactions resulting in a financial benefit to the stockholder. An "interested stockholder" is a person who, together with affiliates and associates, owns, or within three years did own, 15% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock. These provisions may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in our control.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Our amended certificate of incorporation and bylaws include a number of provisions that may have the effect of deterring hostile takeovers or delaying or preventing changes in control or management of The Leather Factory, Inc. including the following:

- Our board of directors can issue up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, with any rights or preferences, including the right to approve or not approve an acquisition or other change in control;

- Our bylaws provide that stockholders seeking to present proposals before a meeting of stockholders or to nominate candidates for election as directors at a meeting of stockholders must provide timely notice in writing. Our bylaws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a stockholder's notice. In addition, our bylaws provide that stockholders may not call a special meeting of the stockholders. These provisions may delay or preclude stockholders from bringing matters before a meeting of stockholders or from making nominations for directors at a meeting of stockholders, which could delay or deter takeover attempts or changes in management;

- Our bylaws provide that all vacancies, including any newly created directorships, may, except as otherwise required by law, be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of our directors then in office, even if less than a quorum.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This Agreement and plan of Merger (this "Agreement") is made and entered into this 30th day of March, 1994, by and between The Leather Factory, Inc., a Colorado corporation (herein referred to as "TLFI" or as a "Constituent Corporation"), and The Leather Factory, Inc., a Delaware Corporation (herein referred to as "Newco" or as a "Constituent Corporation").

R E C I T A L S

TLFI desires to change its domicile from the State of Colorado to the State of Delaware. In order to effect the foregoing change, TLFI proposes to merge with and into Newco, its wholly-owned subsidiary, which will survive the merger, in a transaction intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of the merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

Section 1. The Merger. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, on the Effective Date (as defined below), TLFI shall be merged with and into Newco (the "Merger"). Newco shall survive the merger as the "Surviving Corporation". On the Effective Date, (a) the separate existence of TLFI shall cease and Newco shall possess all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises of a public as well as of a private nature, and shall be subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of the Constituent Corporations; (b) all and singular, the rights, privileges, powers and franchises of each of the Constituent Corporations, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to either of the Constituent Corporations on whatever account, as well for stock subscriptions as all other things in action or belonging to each of the Constituent Corporations, shall be vested in Newco; (c) all property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises, and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectually the property of Newco as they were of the respective Constituent Corporations; (d) the title to any real estate, vested by deed or otherwise, in either of the Constituent Corporations, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger; and (e) all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of either of the Constituent Corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of each of the Constituent Corporations shall thenceforth attach to Newco and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

Section 2. Conversion of TLFI Stock. On the Effective Date, the outstanding shares of Common Stock, $0.0024 par value, of TLFI ("TLFI Common Stock"), shall be converted into common stock, $0.0024 par value, of Newco ("Newco Common Stock") on the basis of one share of TLFI Common Stock for each share of Newco Common Stock (the "Conversion Ratio").

Section 3. Newco Common Stock Cancelled. The shares of Newco Common Stock outstanding and held by TLFI on the Effective Date, which constitute all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Newco, shall be cancelled.

Section 4. No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Newco Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. If any fractional share of Newco Common Stock would otherwise arise from the application of the Conversion Ratio to the shareholdings of any shareholder of TLF_I, that shareholder shall be entitled to receive one whole share of Newco Common Stock for that fractional share to the extent such fractional share equals or exceeds .5, but that shareholder shall not receive any Newco Common Stock or any other property for that fractional share to the extent such fractional share is less than .5.

Section 5. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation; Officers and Directors. The Certificate of Incorporation of Newco, attached hereto as Exhibit A, and Bylaws of Newco shall constitute the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, from and after the Effective Date until amended in the manner provided by law. The officers, directors and members of committees of the Board of Directors of TLF_I as of the Effective Date shall become the officers, directors and members of committees of the Board of Directors of the surviving Corporation from and after the Effective Date until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualify, unless they earlier die, resign or are removed.

Section 6. Shareholder Approval. Under Section 252 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and Section 7-7-107 of the Colorado Corporation Code, this Agreement must be approved by the shareholders of each of the Constituent Corporations. The signature of TLF_I on this Agreement shall constitute its written consent as sole stockholder of Newco, to this Agreement and the Merger. This agreement shall be submitted for approval at a meeting of the shareholders of TLF_I to be called and held as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

Section 7. Delivery and Filing of Certificate of Merger and Articles of Merger; Effective Date of Merger. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, within thirty (30) days after all of the conditions set forth in Section 8 below have been satisfied, TLF_I and Newco will cause (a) a certificate of merger, in the form required by Delaware law (the "Certificate of Merger"), to be signed, verified and filed with the Delaware Secretary of State and with the Recorder of New Castle County, Delaware, as provided in Section 252 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and (b) articles of merger in the form required by the Colorado Corporation Code (the "Articles of Merger") to be signed, verified and filed with the Colorado Secretary of State, as provided in Section 7-7-104 of the Colorado Corporation Code. The Merger shall be effective as of the close of business on the first day that the Certificate of Merger and the Articles of Merger have been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State and the Colorado Secretary of State, respectively (the "Effective Date").

Section 8. Conditions to Obligations of Parties. The obligation of each party to this Agreement to effect the Merger shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) There shall not be pending any litigation instituted to enjoin or prohibit the Merger which, in the reasonable judgment of either party to this Agreement, makes consummation of the Merger impractical;

(b) This Agreement shall have been approved and adopted by the shareholders of TLF_I at the meeting contemplated in Section 6 above; and

(c) All statutory requirements for the valid consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been satisfied, and all authorizations, consents, and approvals of all governmental agencies and authorities and private parties required to be obtained in order to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and to permit the business carried on by TLF_I to continue to be carried on by Newco immediately following the Effective Date, shall have been obtained.

Section 9. Termination of Agreement and Abandonment of Merger. This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Date, whether before or after approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of TLF, as follows:

- (a) By mutual consent of the parties;
- (b) By either party if any of the conditions set forth in Section 8 above has not been satisfied;
- (c) By either party of shareholders of TLF owning five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of TLF Common Stock indicate an intention at or before the shareholders' meeting contemplated in Section 6 above to pursue appraisal rights under Colorado Law.

Any such termination or abandonment by one party shall be effective upon the giving of notice thereof to the other party.

Section 10. Exchange of Certificates. After the Effective Date, each holder of a certificate evidencing TLF Common Stock may, but shall not be required to, surrender such certificate to Newco's transfer agent and, upon such surrender, such holder shall be entitled to receive a certificate or certificates representing the number of shares of Newco Common Stock into which such shares shall have been so converted. Until so surrendered, each outstanding certificate which, prior to the Effective Date, represented shares of TLF Common Stock shall for all purposes, evidence the ownership of the shares of Newco Common Stock into which such shares shall have been so converted. After the Effective Date no further transfers of TLF Common Stock shall be reissued and any certificates for TLF Common Stock submitted for transfer shall be forwarded to Newco's transfer agent. If any such certificate or certificates is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate surrendered for exchange is registered, it shall be a condition of such issuance that the certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such issuance shall pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of the Newco Common Stock certificated in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate surrendered, or establish to the satisfaction of Newco or its transfer agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable.

Section 11. Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when delivered personally, or on the next day after being sent by facsimile transmission or a nationally recognized overnight delivery service, or on the third (3rd) day after being sent by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested), postage prepaid, to a party to this Agreement at the following address or at such other address as such party shall specify by like notice:

Section 12. Service of Process. Newco, the Surviving Corporation, agrees that, from and after the Effective Date, it may be served with process in the State of Colorado in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of TLF and in any proceeding for the enforcement of rights of a dissenting shareholder of TLF against Newco. Newco irrevocably appoints the Secretary of State of the State of Colorado as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceedings

State of Delaware, in accordance with the provisions of Section 103 thereof, DO HEREBY CERTIFY:

That pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Board of Directors by the Certificate of Incorporation of the said Corporation, the said Board of Directors on July 24, 1995, adopted the following resolution creating a series of One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of Preferred Stock designated as Senior Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, par value Ten Cents ($0.10) per share:

RESOLVED, that pursuant to the authority vested in the Board of Directors of this Corporation in accordance with the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation, a series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation be and it hereby is created, and that the designation and amount thereof and the powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of the shares of such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof are as follows:

Section 1. Designation and Amount. The shares of such series shall be designated as "Senior Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock" (the "Senior Preferred Stock"), Ten Cents ($.10) par value per share, and the number of shares constituting such series shall be One Hundred Thousand (100,000).

Section 2. Dividends and Distributions. (A) The holders of the Senior Preferred Stock (the "Senior Stockholders") shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available for such purpose, cumulative cash dividends which shall accrue, be payable in arrears, and be payable in cash via wire transfer of immediately available funds (i) for the period commencing upon the date of issuance of each share of Senior Preferred Stock to and including the last day of the Quarterly Dividend Period (as hereinafter defined) within which the date of first issuance of such shares falls, and (ii) thereafter, for each Quarterly Dividend Period, payable on the first business day of November, February, May and August in each year (hereinafter referred to as a "Quarterly Dividend payment Date") at a rate of Five Dollars ($5.00) per share per annum, as such rate is adjusted for any stock dividends, adjustments or splits with respect to such shares. Such dividends, when declared, shall be paid to the Senior Stockholders of record on such record dates as may be determined by the Board of Directors in advance of the payment of the particular dividend, which dates shall not be set more than sixty (60) days preceding the applicable Quarterly Dividend Payment Dates. The "Quarterly Dividend Periods" shall commence on July 1, October 1, January 1, and April 1 in each year and end on the day next preceding the first day of the next Quarterly Dividend Period. Dividends shall commence to accrue on a daily basis and be cumulative from the date of first issuance of shares of the Senior Preferred Stock. The amount of dividends so payable shall be determined on the basis of a year of 365/6 days. If at any time dividends are accrued but unpaid in whole or in part, whether or not declared, the Senior Preferred Stock shall, during the time such dividends are accrued but unpaid, accrue a Three Dollar ($3.00) per share per annum incremental dividend (i.e., during any such period of accrual, the dividend rate on the Senior Preferred Stock shall be eight (8%) percent), as such rate is adjusted for any stock dividends, adjustments or splits with respect to such shares. Dividends paid on the shares of Senior Preferred Stock in an amount less than the total amount of such dividends at the time accrued and payable on such shares shall be allocated pro rata on a share-for-share basis among all such shares outstanding at the record date for such payment. Accrued but unpaid dividends shall not bear interest, but shall bear the incremental dividend described above. The Corporation may pay accrued but unpaid dividends at any time. Dividends shall accrue from the date the corresponding shares are issued. (B) The Senior stockholders shall not be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions except as provided herein and as may be provided by law.

Section 3. Voting Rights. Except as otherwise required by law or by this

Edgar Filing: LEATHER FACTORY INC - Form 8-K

Section 3, the issued and outstanding shares of Senior Preferred Stock shall comprise a separate class of capital stock of the Corporation and shall vote together as one class with the Corporation's Common Stock at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation. The Senior Stockholders shall be entitled to vote upon all matters submitted to a vote of the Corporation's stockholders. The Senior Preferred Stock shall have voting rights and powers equal to the voting rights and powers of the Common Stock, with numbers of votes determined as follows: each share of Senior Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such number of votes on the record date fixed for any such meeting as shall be equal to the whole number of shares (for establishing the Senior Stockholders voting rights, any fractional shares of Common Stock shall be deemed a whole share of Common Stock) of the Corporation's Common Stock into which each such share of Senior Preferred Stock is convertible immediately after 5:00 p.m., CST on the record date fixed for such meeting; provided, however, that the Senior Stockholders shall have no rights regarding election of directors except for the rights set forth in Section 3 (A).

(A) The Senior Stockholders, voting as a separate class, shall have the right to elect one director (the "Senior Preferred Director") to a class of the Corporation's Board of Directors separate and apart from the classes of directors elected by the Common Stock, with an initial term of office to commence upon the first issuance of shares of Senior Preferred Stock and to expire at the next annual meeting of stockholders and thereafter to expire at each succeeding annual meeting of stockholders after such election. The Senior Preferred Director shall hold office until the annual meeting of Stockholders next succeeding his election or until his successor, if any, is elected by such holders and qualified. The Senior Preferred Director may be removed at any time without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Senior Preferred Stock at the time entitled to vote, and any vacancy thereby created or created by any removal of such director for cause may be filled only by the vote of such holders. Senior Stockholders holding twenty five percent (25%) or more of the issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Stock may call a special meeting of the Senior Stockholders at any time upon written notice (the "Meeting Notice") to all other holders given via certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, at their addresses upon the stock record books of the Corporation to consider the removal of such director. Any such special meeting shall be held thirty (30) days after the date of the Meeting Notice, and may be a telephonic meeting.

(B) In addition to the foregoing voting rights, none of the following may occur without the affirmative vote of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares of Senior Preferred Stock, voting together as a single, separate class:

(i) any amendment of or change to the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, the Corporation's Bylaws (including, but not limited to, increasing or decreasing the number of Directors constituting the Corporation's Board of Directors), the Certificate or any other governing document of the Corporation in any manner which would directly or indirectly alter or change the attributes, privileges, powers, preferences or special rights of the Senior Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely; and

(ii) any material change in the covenants and financial reporting requirements set forth in Section 9 of this Certificate;

(iii) the issuance of debt or equity securities of any kind or character either senior to or on parity with the Senior Preferred Stock, except as expressly provided by Section 3 (c) (iii) below; and

(iv) any action by the Corporation to delist its Common Stock or otherwise cause, directly or indirectly, the delisting of its Common Stock or the public market for its Common Stock to cease to exist.

(C) In addition to the foregoing voting rights, none of the following may occur without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Senior Preferred Stock, voting together as a single, separate class:

(i) any merger, reorganization, business combination, liquidation, dissolution, consolidation, or sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation;

(ii) the issuance by way of dividend or spin-off, reclassification, recapitalization or other or similar corporate arrangement of additional shares of Common Stock or Senior Preferred Stock, or any distribution of other securities, properties, agreements, warrants or other rights of any kind or character to subscribe for or to receive securities of the Corporation or any of its Affiliates or to cause the Corporation or any of its Affiliates to issue shares of additional Common Stock;

(iii) the incurring, creating, assuming or permitting to exist by the Corporation or any of its Affiliates of any Debt, except:

(a) Debt contemplated by the Corporation's and its Affiliates agreements with NationsBank of Texas, N.A. ("NationsBank") on the date hereof, as follows:

(i) The Corporation's and its Affiliates outstanding Debt to NationsBank on the date hereof in the amount of Ten Million Six Hundred Sixty Nine Thousand One Hundred Seventy Seven Dollars ($10,699,177), plus

(ii) Debt for which a commitment from NationsBank exists as of the date hereof in the amount of Thirteen Million Eight Hundred Thirty Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty Three Dollars ($13,830,823), for an aggregate possible outstanding Debt to NationsBank of Texas, N.A., of Twenty Four Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($24,500,000), together with renewals, extensions or refinancing of such Debt which (y) do not increase the outstanding principal amount of such Debt and (z) the terms and provisions of which are not materially more onerous than the terms and conditions of such Debt on the date hereof.

(b) Purchase money Debt secured by purchase money liens, which Debt and liens, which Debt and liens are permitted hereunder and meet all of the following requirements:

(i) any property subject to the foregoing is acquired by the Corporation or any of its Affiliates in the ordinary course of their respective businesses and the lien on the property attaches concurrently or within 90 days after the acquisition thereof;

(ii) the Debt secured by any lien so created assumed, or existing shall not exceed the lesser of the cost or fair market value at the time of acquisition of the property covered thereby;

(iii) each such lien shall attach only to the property so acquired and the proceeds thereof; and

(iv) the Debt secured by all such liens shall not exceed One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) at any time outstanding in the aggregate.

(c) Intercompany Debt between or among the Corporation and any of its Affiliates incurred in the normal course of business as heretofore practiced;

(d) Unsecured Debt of the Corporation and its Affiliates in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) at any time outstanding; and

(e) Real property leases capitalized in accordance with generally accepted principles of accounting, the aggregate amount of which is not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) at any time outstanding.

Edgar Filing: LEATHER FACTORY INC - Form 8-K

For the purposes of this Section 3 (C) (iii), "Debt" means as to the Corporation and its Affiliates at any time: (a) all obligations of the Corporation or its Affiliates for borrowed money, (b) all obligations of the Corporation or its Affiliates evidenced by bonds, notes, debentures, or other similar instruments, (c) all obligations of the Corporation or its Affiliates to pay the deferred purchase price of Property or services, except trade accounts payable of the Corporation or its Affiliates arising in the ordinary course of business that are not past due by more than 90 days, (d) all capital lease obligations of the Corporation or its affiliates, (e) all debt of others guaranteed by the Corporation or its Affiliates, (f) all obligations secured by a Lien existing on real or personal and tangible and intangible properties owned by the Corporation or its Affiliates, whether or not the obligations secured thereby have been assumed by the Corporation or its Affiliates or are non-recourse to the Corporation or its Affiliates, (g) all reimbursement obligations of the Corporation or its Affiliates (whether contingent or otherwise) in respect of letters of credit, bankers' acceptances, surety or other bonds and similar instruments, (h) all obligations of the Corporation or its Affiliates to redeem or retire shares of capital stock of the Corporation or its Affiliates, (i) all obligations and liabilities of the Corporation or its Affiliates under interest rate protection agreements, and (j) all liabilities of the Corporation or its Affiliates in respect of unfunded vested benefits under any employee welfare or employee benefit plan.

(D) At each meeting of the Corporation's stockholders at which the Senior Stockholders shall have the right to vote as a class, as provided in this Section 3, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of record of one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares of Senior Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum of such class. At any such meeting or adjournment thereof,

(i) the absence of a quorum of the Senior Stockholders shall not prevent the election of directors other than the election of the Senior Preferred Director, and the absence of a quorum of the holders of any other class of stock shall not prevent the election of the Senior Preferred Director, and

(ii) in the absence of either or both such quorums, a majority of the holders present in person or by proxy of the classes which lack a quorum shall have the power to adjourn the meeting for the election of directors which they are entitled to elect from time to time without notice other than announcement at the meeting until a quorum shall be present.

Section 4. Reacquired Shares. Any shares of Senior Preferred Stock purchased or otherwise acquired by the Corporation in any manner whatsoever shall be retired and canceled promptly after the acquisition thereof. All such shares shall upon their cancellation and upon the taking of any action required by applicable law become authorized but unissued shares of Preferred Stock and may be reissued as part of a new series of Preferred Stock to be created by resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors, subject to the conditions and restrictions on issuance set forth herein.

Section 5. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up.

(A) In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary, the assets and funds of the Corporation available for distribution to the Corporation's stockholders shall be distributed as follows:

(i) The Senior Stockholders shall be entitled to receive, prior to and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets and funds of the Corporation to the holders of Common Stock or any shares of stock ranking junior (either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up) to the Senior Preferred Stock, via wire transfer of immediately available funds the sum of One Hundred Ten Dollars ($110.00) per share, as adjusted for any stock dividends, adjustments or splits with respect to such shares, plus an amount in cash equal to the aggregate accrued and unpaid dividends (including incremental dividends) thereon, whether or not earned or declared, up to and including the date of such distribution (the "Liquidation Preference"). If upon the occurrence of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the assets and funds available for distribution among the Senior Stockholders pursuant to this Section 5 (A) (i) shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full aforesaid preferential amount, then the entire assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed ratably among the Senior Stockholders in proportion to the amount of such Senior Preferred Stock owned by each Senior Stockholder.

(ii) After the distribution described in Section 5 (A) (i) above has been paid, the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation available for distribution to stockholders shall be distributed pro rata among the holders of Common Stock.

B. A consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation or corporations, where the stockholders of the Corporation immediately prior to such transaction shall own less than a majority of the voting stock of the surviving corporation immediately following such consolidation or merger, or a sale, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation (any of which transactions is referred to as a "Corporate Sale"), shall be deemed a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation for purposes of this Section 5. In such event the Corporation shall, (i) if the Corporate Sale is a sale, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation, redeem immediately after such Corporate Sale all of the outstanding shares of Senior Preferred Stock for cash via wire transfer of immediately available funds or, if acceptable to the Senior Stockholders, for other consideration received by the Corporation in such corporate Sale in an amount per share equal to the liquidation Preference calculated as of the date of such Corporate Sale, with the value of such other consideration received in such Corporate Sale to be determined by an independent appraiser or investment banking firm selected by the Corporation and reasonably acceptable to a majority of the holders of the Senior Preferred Stock ("Independent Appraiser"), or (ii) if the Corporate Sale is a merger or consolidation, ensure that the Senior Stockholders receive as part of such Corporate Sale cash or, if acceptable to the Senior Stockholders, securities with a value equal to the Liquidation Preference calculated as of the date of such Corporate Sale, with such value to be determined by an Independent Appraiser.

(C) (1) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation which will involve the distribution of assets other than cash or securities, an Independent Appraiser shall promptly be engaged to determine the value of the assets to be distributed to the Senior Stockholders, and the Senior Stockholders shall be entitled to receive assets with an aggregate value equal to or greater than the Liquidation Preference.

(2) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation which will involve the distribution of securities, such securities shall be valued as follows:

(a) If traded on a securities exchange or on the NASDAQ National Market System, the value thereof shall be deemed to be the average of the closing prices of the securities on such exchange over the 30 day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, and

(b) If actively traded over-the-counter, the value thereof shall be deemed to be the average of the closing bid and asked prices over the 30-day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing; and

(c) If there is no active public market, the value shall be the fair market value thereof as determined by an Independent Appraiser. No discount shall be applied to the value of the Senior Preferred Stock of the Senior Stockholders regarding investment letter or other similar restrictions on marketability, if any.

Section 6. Redemption.

(A) From and after 11:59 p.m. CTS on July 31, 2000, and upon the terms and conditions hereof, the Senior Stockholders, individually or acting as a group, shall have the option to require the Corporation to redeem, at any time or from time-to-time, all or any portion of the issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Stock of the Corporation; provided, however, that as to each such redemption the Senior Preferred Stockholders may not require redemption by the Corporation of less than ten thousand (10,000) shares of Senior Preferred Stock.

(B) From and after 11:59 p.m. CST on July 31, 2001, and upon the terms and conditions hereof, the corporation shall have the option to redeem, at any time or from time to time, all or any portion of the issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Stock of the Corporation from the holders thereof; provided, however, that as to each such redemption the Corporation may not redeem shares of the Senior Preferred Stock unless the Corporation shall redeem at least ten thousand (10,000) shares of Senior Preferred Stock.

(C) The redemption price (the "Redemption Price") for each share of Senior Preferred Stock in the case of a redemption contemplated by either Paragraph 6 (A) or 6 (B) shall be an amount in cash via wire transfer of immediately available funds equal to the lesser of:

(i) The amount obtained, with such calculations to be effected as of the Redemption Date, by multiplying the amount derived by:

(a) multiplying by six (6) the Corporation's consolidated trailing twelve months' earnings before depreciation, amortization, interest and taxes ("EBITDA"), as shown on the Corporation's publicly reported financial statements plus its internal regularly-prepared monthly consolidated statements of income and cash flows for any intra-quarterly periods, with the last such internal statement to be as of the end of the month immediately preceding the redemption Date; plus

(b) The aggregate of the Corporation's cash and cash equivalents, as shown on the Corporation's last regularly-prepared consolidated balance sheet as of the end of the month immediately preceding the Redemption Date; less

(c) the lower of:

(i) the aggregate outstanding Funded Debt of the Corporation on a consolidated basis, as shown on the Corporation's last regularly-prepared balance sheet as of the end of the month immediately preceding the Redemption Date, or by the percentage derived by dividing: (y) the Senior Preferred Stockholders' ownership of Common Stock in the Corporation as if all issued and outstanding shares of Senior Preferred Stock were fully converted on the Redemption Date by (z) all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Corporation on the redemption Date; or

(ii) the average of the aggregate outstanding Funded Debt of the Corporation on a consolidated basis, as shown on the Corporation's last twelve preceding regularly-prepared monthly balance sheets, with the most recent dated as of the end of the month immediately preceding the Redemption Date.

(ii) an amount sufficient to provide the Senior Preferred Stockholders with an aggregate cumulative internal rate of return of twenty two percent (22%) (including dividends actually paid through the Redemption Date) per annum on their investment from the date of first issuance of such shares, to which amount shall be added the aggregate amount of all accrued and unpaid dividends (including any incremental dividends) thereon to the date fixed for redemption. For the purposes of this Certificate. (y) the Senior Preferred Stockholders internal rate of return shall be calculated by reference to all cash outflows and inflows of the Senior Preferred Stockholders (excluding, however, from the calculation of such inflows directors fees, commitment fees, transaction fees and reimbursed expenses), taking into account the timing of such inflows and outflows, and (z) "Funded Debt" shall mean the Debt of the Corporation identified in Section 3 (C) (iii) (a) hereof.

(D) Mechanics of Redemption

(i) If the Corporation shall exercise its option to redeem shares of Senior Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall give notice of such redemption (the "Redemption Notice") by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not fewer than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the redemption date (the "Redemption Date") stated therein, to each Senior Stockholder of record, at such holder's address as the same appears on the stock register of the Corporation.

Each such Redemption Notice shall state: (a) the Redemption Date; (b) the number of shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be redeemed; (c) if fewer than all the shares held by each such holder are to be redeemed, the number of such shares to be redeemed from such Senior Stockholder; (d) the Redemption Price; (e) the place or places where certificates for such shares are to be surrendered following payment of the redemption Price; and (f) that dividends on the shares to be redeemed will cease to accrue on such Redemption Date.

If the Corporation shall mail a Redemption Notice in the manner set forth above, the Redemption Price shall be paid on the Redemption Date by the Corporation via wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by the Senior Stockholders. If the Corporation shall pay the Redemption Price in full on the Redemption Date, then from and after the Redemption Date dividends on the shares of the Senior Preferred Stock so called for redemption shall cease to accrue, and as of the Redemption Date said shares shall no longer be deemed to be issued and outstanding, and all rights of the Senior Stockholders as holders of Senior Preferred Stock (except the right to receive from the Corporation the Redemption Price) shall cease except as herein provided. If the Corporation shall fail, for any reason, to pay the redemption Price in full upon the Redemption Date, the attempted redemption by the Corporation shall be null and void and the shares of Senior Preferred Stock to which such Redemption Notice relates shall be promptly returned to the Senior Stockholders and shall thereafter remain issued and outstanding as if such attempted redemption had never occurred.

(ii) In the event the Senior Stockholders, acting individually or as a group, shall exercise their option to cause the Corporation to redeem shares of Senior Preferred Stock, notice of such redemption (the "Put Notice") shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not fewer than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the redemption date (the "Put Date") stated therein, to the office of the Corporation. Each such Put Notice shall state the Redemption Price, the Put Date, the number of shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be redeemed and, if fewer than all the shares held by such holder are to be redeemed, the number of such shares to be redeemed by such holder. Within ten (10) business days, the Corporation shall notify the Senior Stockholders delivering a Put Notice of the place or places where certificates for such shares are to be surrendered in advance of the Put Date. Upon surrender in accordance with said Put Notice of the certificates for any shares of Senior Preferred Stock so redeemed (properly endorsed or assigned for transfer, if the Corporation shall so require), such shares shall be redeemed on the Put Date by the Corporation at the Redemption Price via wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by the Senior Stockholders.

Section 7. Conversion. The Senior Stockholders on the one hand and the Corporation on the other shall have conversion rights regarding the Senior Preferred Stock as follows (the "Conversion Rights"):

(A) Conversion Rights of Holders.

(i) The Senior Stockholders shall have the option to: (a) convert each share of Senior Preferred Stock, at any time and from time-to-time after the date of issuance of each such share, into such number of fully paid and nonassessable whole and fractional shares of Common Stock as is determined by dividing One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) by the Conversion Price at the time in effect for such share, and (b) convert any accrued but unpaid dividends (including incremental dividends) on the Senior preferred Stock into whole and fractional shares of Common Stock at the Conversion price in effect at the time, at any time and from time-to-time. The initial Conversion price per share for shares of Senior Preferred Stock shall be Three Dollars and Seventy Five Cents ($3.75); provided, however, that the Conversion price for the Senior Preferred Stock shall be subject to adjustment as set forth in Section 7 (D) below.

(ii) In the event of a call for redemption of any shares of Senior Preferred Stock pursuant to Section 6 hereof, the Conversion Rights shall terminate as to the shares designated for redemption in a Put or Redemption Notice at 5:00 pm CST on the Redemption or Put Date as may have been fixed in any Put or Redemption Notice with respect to such shares of Senior Preferred Stock, unless default is made in payment of the Redemption Price, in which case such conversion rights shall continue in full force and effect as if such termination had never occurred.

(B) Corporation Rights to Compel Conversion

(i) The Corporation shall have the option, which shall expire at 5:00 p.m. CST on July 21, 2000, to compel conversion of each share of the Senior Preferred Stock, after the issuance of such shares, into that number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock as shall be determined pursuant to Section 7 (A) (i) above; provided, however, that (y) the Corporation cannot compel conversion of the Senior Preferred Stock unless and until all accrued but unpaid dividends on the Senior Preferred Stock (including incremental dividends) have been paid in full, and (z) the Corporation's option to compel conversion shall arise only after payment in full of all accrued but unpaid dividends and the occurrence of the first to occur of the following:

(a) the successful completion of a Qualified Secondary Offering, hereby defined as an offering:

(i) that results in gross proceeds to the Corporation in an amount greater than Seventeen Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($17,500,000), and

(ii) regarding which the Senior stockholders are advised, in a written opinion by the managing underwriter or underwriters thereof, that the Senior Stockholders may sell fifty percent (50%) or more of the aggregate shares of Common Stock which the Senior Stockholders would receive if the Senior Preferred stock were fully converted, and

(iii) underwritten by a security firm of nationally recognized standing or otherwise acceptable to a majority of the Senior Preferred stockholders, and

(iv) in which shares of Common Stock are sold at a per-share offering price such that the Senior Preferred Stock's cumulative internal rate of return, not including dividends on the Senior Preferred Stock paid or received to date, would be twenty percent (20%) per annum from the date of the first issuance of each such share of Senior Preferred Stock (or, if applicable, the issuance of each group of shares of Senior Preferred Stock), assuming for the purposes of effecting such calculation that (i) all shares of Senior Preferred Stock were fully converted, and (ii) the aggregate shares received upon conversion were sold at the per-share price at which such shares were sold in such offering, less normal underwriting and distribution costs (i.e. customary brokerage charges) or

(b) if (and only if) after July 31, 1996 a viable secondary public market has been established for the Corporation's Common Stock for at least twelve (12) months prior to the Conversion date (as defined below), and if (and only if) the market price of the Corporation's Common Stock for the forty five (45) trading days preceding the date of the Conversion Notice (as defined below) and preceding the Conversion Date did not fall below a price that would provide the Senior Stockholders with a cumulative internal rate of return, not including dividends received to date, of twenty percent (20%) per annum from the date of the first issuance of each such share of Senior Preferred Stock (or, if applicable, the issuance of each group of Stock shares of Senior Preferred Stock), assuming for the purposes of effecting such calculation that (i) all shares of Senior Preferred Stock were fully converted, and (ii) the aggregate shares received upon conversion were sold at the per-share market price, less normal underwriting and distribution costs (ie customary brokerage charges). For the purpose of this Section 7 (B) (i) (b), "viable public market" shall be defined as a market for the Corporation's Common Stock that for the prior twelve (12) months had sufficient trading volume so that (x) the number of shares of Common Stock into which the issued and outstanding Senior Preferred Stock would convert if fully converted divided by (y) the average daily trading volume of the Corporation's Common Stock for the prior twelve (12) months yields (z) a number less than or equal to Sixty Two and Twenty Five Hundredths (62.25).

(ii) If the Corporation shall exercise its option to compel conversion of Senior Preferred Stock, notice of such conversion (the "Conversion Notice") shall be given by first class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not fewer than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the conversion date (the "Conversion Date"), to each holder of record of the shares to be converted, at such holder's address as the same appears on the stock register of the corporation. Each such Conversion Notice shall state (a) the Conversion Price; (b) the number of shares of Common Stock to be delivered to such Senior Stockholder derived from calculation of the Conversion Price; (c) the Conversion Date; (d) the number of shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be converted and, if fewer than all the shares held by such Senior Stockholder are to be converted, the number of such shares to be converted from such holder; provided, however, that if less than all of the shares of the Senior Preferred Stockholders are to be converted, the conversion must be proportionate to the shareholdings of the Senior Stockholder of Senior Preferred Stock; (e) the place or places where certificates for such shares of Senior Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for conversion; (f) that dividends applicable to the Senior Preferred Stock on the shares thereof to be converted will cease to accrue on such Conversion Date, and shall be accompanied by evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Senior Stockholders that the conditions precedent to the Corporation's rights to compel conversion have been fully satisfied.

If the Corporation shall mail a Conversion Notice in the manner set forth above, then from and after the Conversion Date (unless default shall be made by the Corporation in providing shares of Common Stock in satisfaction of the Conversion price), dividends on the shares of the Senior Preferred Stock so called for conversion shall cease to accrue, and as of the Conversion Date said shares shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding, and all rights of the holders thereof as holders of Senior Preferred Stock (except for the registration rights set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement and the right to receive from the Corporation the shares of the Corporation's Common Stock representing the Conversion price) shall cease except as herein provided and except as provided in any other agreements between the Corporation, the Senior Stockholders and other. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be converted, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock as of such date. Upon surrender in accordance with said Conversion Notice of the certificates for any shares of Senior Preferred Stock so converted (properly endorsed or assigned for transfer, if the Corporation shall so require and the notice shall so state), such shares shall be converted by the Corporation at the conversion price aforesaid, and certificates representing the number of shares of the Corporation's Common Stock derived from the calculation of the conversion price shall be mailed to the holders of the converted Senior Preferred Stock at such holder's address as the same appears on the stock register of the Corporation.

(C) Mechanics of Senior Stockholder Conversion.

Before any holder of Senior Preferred Stock making the election provided in Section 7 (A) shall be entitled to convert the same into shares of Common Stock, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefore, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or of any transfer agent for the Senior Preferred Stock designated in writing by the Corporation, and shall on the same date give written notice (the "Shareholder Conversion notice") by a national overnight courier service or by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, to the Corporation at its principal corporate office, of the election to convert the same. Such Shareholder Conversion notice shall state (i) the Conversion Price, (ii) the number of shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be converted; (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock to be delivered to such holder, derived from calculation of the Conversion price; and (iv) the name or names in which the certificate or certificates for share of Common Stock are to be issued. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver to such holder of Senior Preferred Stock, or to the nominee or nominees of such holder, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled as aforesaid. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such surrender of the shares of Senior Preferred Stock to be converted, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock as of such date.

(D) Conversion Price Adjustments. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Conversion Price of the Senior Preferred Stock shall be subject to adjustment from time-to-time as follows:

(i) In case the Corporation at any time shall subdivide the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, issue a stock dividend on its outstanding shares of Common Stock or otherwise take any action or enter into any agreement which would directly or indirectly result in an increase at any time in the aggregate number of issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Conversion Price of the Senior Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such subdivision, dividend or action shall be proportionately decreased; provided, however, that:

(a) If Common Stock, Preferred Stock or any other investment instrument or security is issued for an effective per-share price which is less than the Conversion Price existing at such time, the existing Conversion Price shall be adjusted to the price of the subsequent financing so long as the Senior Stockholders participate in such issuance on a pro-rate basis (ie, the Senior Stockholders participate in such offering in the same percentages as their percentage ownership of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Corporation, as is fully converted, at such time); if the Senior Stockholders do not so participate, and if the per-share effective price of such security or instrument is less than the Conversion Price, the Conversion Price shall be adjusted to a weighted average of the per-share effective price of the securities so issued and the Conversion price in existence at such time.

(b) If the Corporation shall, from and after the date hereof, adopt a management or director incentive stock option plan which is satisfactory to the Senior Stockholders in the exercise of their reasonable judgment, the Conversion Price in effect at such time shall not be adjusted as a result of either the issuance of such options or the exercise thereof by the holders thereof.

(c) If the Corporation shall affect an underwritten public offering of its Common Stock at an effective price higher than the Conversion price in effect upon the date such offering concludes, the Conversion price shall not be adjusted to reflect the issuance of shares of Common Stock by the Corporation pursuant to completion of such offering.

(d) With regard to transactions and dealings between the Corporation's Employee Stock Ownership Plan, dated as of October 1, 1993 and amended October 5, 1994 (the "ESOP"), or any participant therein, the following shall apply:

(i) If the Corporation engages in transactions with the ESOP or its participants pursuant to Sections 11.01 and 11.07 thereof, the Conversion Price shall not be adjusted to reflect such transactions.

(ii) In the event of a pledge of the Corporation's Common Stock by the ESOP, the conversion Price shall not be adjusted to reflect such transactions.

(iii) If the Corporation makes contributions to the ESOP to retain the qualified status of the ESOP and to comply with any request or order made by a court of competent jurisdiction or governmental agency, the Conversion Price shall not be adjusted to reflect such transactions.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 7 (D) (i) (d) (i) - (iii) immediately above, if the Corporation effects any sale or contribution of its Common Stock to the ESOP, the Conversion Price shall be adjusted in accordance with Section 7 (D) (i) above.

If the Corporation shall at any time combine the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock or otherwise take any action or enter into any agreement which would directly or indirectly result in a reduction at any time in the aggregate number of issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Conversion Price of the Senior Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such combination shall be proportionately increased, effective at the close of business on the date of such combination or reduction, as the case may be.

(ii) If at any time or from time to time there shall be:

(a) a recapitalization of the Common Stock or a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other person other than a consolidation or a merger in which the Corporation is the surviving entity and the holders of the Corporation's voting stock (defined for purposes of this Section 7 (D) as Common Stock and Senior Preferred Stock which has not lost its right to vote) before such consolidation or merger continue to own at least a majority of the voting power of the Corporation, or

(b) a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation,

provision shall be made so that the Senior Stockholders shall thereafter be entitled to receive, upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Stock, the number of shares of stock, other securities or properties of the Corporation, or otherwise, to which a holder of Senior Preferred Stock would have been entitled upon such event if all Senior Preferred Stock were fully converted. In any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 7 regarding the rights of the Senior Stockholders to the end that after the recapitalization, merger, consolidation or sale of assets the provisions of the Section 7 (including adjustment of the Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Stock then in effect and the number of shares receivable upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Stock) shall be applicable on a basis as nearly equivalent as the basis existing therefore as may be practicable.

(iii) The Corporation will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid directly or indirectly or seek to avoid directly or indirectly the observance or performance of any of the terms herein to be observed or performed hereunder by the Corporation, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of the Section 7 (D) and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the Conversion Rights of the Senior Stockholders against loss, diminution or impairment.

(E) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of such adjustment or readjustment of the Conversion Price of Senior Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section 7, the Corporation, at its expense, shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and prepare and promptly furnish to each Senior Stockholder a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time of any holder of Senior Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate setting forth (a) such adjustment and readjustment, (b) the Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Stock at the time in effect and (c) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of a share of Senior Preferred Stock.

(F) Reservation of Stock Issuable Upon Conversion. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available solely for such purpose out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock such number thereof as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect conversion of all issued and outstanding shares of the senior Preferred Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect such conversion, the Corporation will promptly take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purposes.

(G) Notices. Any notice required by the provision of this Section 7 to be given to the Senior stockholders shall be deemed given if (i) mailed via certified or registered mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested addressed to each holder of record at his address appearing on the stock register of the Corporation; (ii) sent via national overnight courier service and addressed to each holder of record at his address appearing on the stock register of the Corporation; or (iii) delivered via telephonic facsimile transmission to the offices of the Senior Stockholders as they may direct in writing from time-to-time; provided, however, that any notice given by telephonic facsimile transmission shall be followed within twenty four (24) hours by the mailing of a copy of such notice via a method set forth immediately above in Section 7 (H) (i) or (ii).

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of The Leather Factory, Inc. (hereinafter called the "Corporation") within the State of Delaware shall be located in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle.

Section 2. Other Offices. The corporation may also have an office or offices and keep the books and records of the Corporation, except as may otherwise be required by law, in such other place or places, within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors of the Corporation (hereinafter sometimes called the "Board") may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Article II
Meetings of Stockholders

Section 1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of stockholders of the Corporation shall be held at the office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware or at such other place, within or without the State of Delaware, as may from time to time be fixed by the Board or specified or fixed in the respective notices or waivers of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation for the election of Directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held annually on such date and at such time as may be fixed by the Board.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders, unless otherwise provided by law, may be called at any time only by the Board pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the then authorized number of Directors (as determined in accordance with Section 2 of Article III of these Bylaws), the Chairman of the Board or the President. Any such call must specify the matter or matters to be acted upon at such meeting and only such matter or matters shall be acted upon thereat.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings and Adjourned Meetings. Except as may otherwise be required by law, notice of each meeting of stockholders, annual or special, shall be in writing, shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting, the place, date and hour of the meeting and, unless it is the annual meeting, shall indicate that the notice is being issued by or at the direction of the person or persons calling the meeting, and a copy thereof shall be delivered or sent by mail, not less than ten (i) or more than sixty days before the date of said meeting, to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be directed to the stockholder at his address as it appears on the stock record of the corporation. Unless he shall have filed with the Secretary a written request that notices to him be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be directed to him at such other address. Notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which the meeting shall be adjourned were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken unless (i) the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, (ii) the Board shall fix a new record date for any adjourned meeting after the adjournment or (iii) these Bylaws otherwise require.

Section 5. Quorum. At each meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, the holders of a majority of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote shall be present or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as may otherwise be provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation.

If a quorum is present at a meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders represented in person or by proxy at the meeting may conduct such business as may be properly brought before the meeting until it is finally adjourned, and the subsequent withdrawal from the meeting of any stockholder or the refusal of any stockholder represented in person or by proxy to vote shall not affect the presence of a quorum at the meeting, except as may otherwise be provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation.

If, however, a quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the chairman of the meeting or holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy shall have the power to adjourn the meeting to another time, or to another time and place, without notice (subject, however, to the requirements of Section 4 of Article II of the Bylaws) other than announcement of adjournment at the meeting, and there may be successive adjournments for like cause and in like manner until the requisite amount of shares entitled to vote at such meeting shall be represented. At such adjourned meeting at which the requisite amount of shares entitled to vote thereat shall be represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original meeting so adjourned.

Section 6. Certain Rules of Procedure Relating to Stockholder Meetings. All stockholder meetings, annual or special, shall be governed in accordance with the following rules:

(i) Only stockholders of record will be permitted to present motions from the floor at any meeting of stockholders.

(ii) The chairman of the meeting shall preside over and conduct the meeting in a fair and reasonable manner, and all questions of procedure or conduct of the meeting shall be decided solely by the chairman of the meeting. The chairman of the meeting shall have all power and authority vested in a presiding officer by law or practice to conduct an orderly meeting. Among other things, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power to adjourn or recess the meeting, to silence or expel persons to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting, to declare motions or persons out of order, to prescribe rules of conduct and an agenda for the meeting, to impose reasonable time limits on questions and remarks by any stockholder, to limit the number of questions a stockholder may ask, to limit the nature of questions and comments to one subject matter at a time as dictated by any agenda for the meeting, to limit the number of speakers or persons addressing the chairman of the meeting or the meeting, to determine when the polls shall be closed, to limit the attendance at the meeting to stockholders of record, beneficial owners of stock who present letters from the record holders confirming their status as beneficial owners, and the proxies of such record and beneficial holders, and to limit the number of proxies a stockholder may name.

Section 7. Voting. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, at each meeting of stockholders, every stockholder of the Corporation shall be entitled to one (1) vote for every share of capital stock standing in his name on the stock records of the Corporation (i) at the time fixed pursuant to Section 6 of Article VII of these Bylaws as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, or (ii) if no such record date shall have been fixed, then at the close of business on the date next preceding the day on which notice thereof shall be given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. At each such meeting, every stockholder shall be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing executed by such stockholder or by his duly authorized agent and bearing a date not more than three (3) years prior to the meeting in question, unless said instrument provides for a longer period during which it is to remain in force.

At all meetings of stockholders at which a quorum is present, all matters (except as otherwise provided in Section 3 of article III of these Bylaws and except in cases where a larger vote is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws) shall be decided by a majority of the voted cast at such meeting by the holders of shares present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon.

Section 8. Action of Stockholders by Written Consent Without Meetings. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by stockholders for or in connection with any corporate action may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be (i) signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and (ii) delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in Delaware, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the Corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent.

If action is taken by less than unanimous consent of stockholders and in accordance with the foregoing, there shall be filed with the records of meetings of stockholders the writing or writings comprising such less than unanimous consent. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those who have not consented in writing, and a certificate signed and attested to by the Secretary that such notice was given shall be filed with the records of the meetings of the stockholders.

If action is taken by unanimous consent of stockholders, the writing or writings comprising such unanimous consent shall be filed with the records of the meetings of stockholders.

In the event that the action which is consented to is such as would have required the filing of a certificate under any of the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ("DGCL"), if such action had been voted upon by the stockholders at a meeting thereof, the certificate filed under such provision shall state (i) that written consent has been given under Section 228 of the DGCL in lieu of stating that the stockholders have voted upon the corporate action in question, if such last mentioned statement is so required, and (ii) that written notice has been given as provided in such Section 228.

Section 9. Inspectors. The Board of Directors may, and shall whenever required by law, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting and may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If any inspector appointed or designated by the Board shall be unwilling or unable to serve, or if the Board shall fail to appoint inspectors, the chairman of the meeting shall appoint the necessary inspector or inspectors. The inspectors so appointed before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duties with strict impartiality, and according to the best of their ability, and the oath so taken shall be subscribed by them. Such inspectors shall (i) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting of power of each, (ii) determine the shares represented at a meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the validity of proxies and ballots, (iii) count all votes and ballots, (iv) determine and retain for a reasonable period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by such inspectors, (v) certify their determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting and their count of all votes and ballots and (vi) perform such further acts as are proper to conduct any election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. On request of the chairman of the meeting or any stockholder entitled to vote thereat, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, question or matter determined by them and shall execute a certificate of any fact found by them. An inspector need not be a stockholder of the Corporation, and any officer or Director of the corporation maybe an inspector on any question other than a vote for or against his election to any position with the Corporation or on any other question in which he may be directly interested.

Section 10. New Business. Any new business to be taken up at any annual meeting of stockholders shall be stated in writing and filed with the Secretary by the Board of Directors or other person or persons proposing such new business at least ten (10) days before the date of the annual meeting, and all business so stated, proposed and filed shall be considered at the annual meeting, but no other proposal shall be acted upon at the annual meeting of stockholders. Any stockholder may make any other proposal at the annual meeting, and the proposal may be discussed and considered, but unless stated in writing and filed with the Secretary at least ten (10) days before the meeting such a proposal shall be postponed for action at an adjourned, special or annual meeting of stockholders taking place thirty (30) days or more thereafter. This provision shall not prevent the consideration and approval or disapproval at the annual meeting of stockholders or reports of officers, Directors and committees of the Board of Directors, but in connection with such reports no new business shall be acted upon at such annual meeting unless stated and filed as herein provided.

Section 11. Nominations for Director. Notwithstanding anything in these Bylaws to the contrary, only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures hereinafter set forth in this Section 11 shall be eligible for election as Directors of the Corporation in accordance with Section 3 of Article III of these Bylaws.

Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation may be made at a meeting of stockholders only (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation entitled to vote for the election of Directors at the meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 11. Such nominations, other than those made by or at the direction of the Board, shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than forty (40) days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholders to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) of the original meeting whereby the meeting will reconvene within thirty (30) days from the original date shall be deemed for purposes of notice to be a continuation of the original meeting and no nominations by a stockholder of persons to be elected Directors of the Corporation may be made at any such reconvened meeting other than pursuant to a notice that was timely for the meeting on the date originally scheduled. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth: (i) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a Director, all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of Directors, or as otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any successor regulation thereto (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a Director if elected); and (ii) as to the stockholder giving the notice (a) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of such stockholder, and (b) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such stockholder. At the request of the Board of Directors, any person nominated by the Board for election as a Director shall furnish to the Secretary of the Corporation that information required to be set forth in a stockholder's notice of nomination which pertains to the nominee.

The chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this Section 11, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

Section 12. Requests for Stockholder List and Corporation Records. Stockholders shall have those rights afforded under the DGCL to inspect for any proper purpose the Corporation's stock ledger, list of stockholders and other books and records, and make copies or extracts therefrom. Such request shall be in writing in compliance in compliance with Section 220 of the DGCL. Information so requested shall be made available for inspecting, copying or extracting during usual business hours at the principal executive offices of the Corporation. Each stockholder desiring photostatic or other duplicate copies of any of such information requested shall make arrangements to provide the duplicating or other equipment necessary in the city where the Corporation's principal executive offices are located. Alternative arrangements with respect to this Section 12 may be permitted in the discretion of the President of the Corporation or by vote of the Board of Directors.

Article III Directors

Section 1. Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may exercise all such authority and powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law or otherwise directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 2. Number of Directors; Term; Qualification. The number of Directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors shall from time to time be fixed and determined only by resolution of the Board of Directors. No decrease in the number of Directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent Director.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, each Director shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal. Directors need not be residents of the State of Delaware or stockholders of the Corporation.

Section 3. Election. At each meeting of stockholders for the election of Directors at which a quorum is present, the persons receiving a plurality of the votes of the shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the election of Directors shall be elected Directors. All elections of Directors shall be by written ballot, unless otherwise provided in the

Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 4. Vacancies. In the case of any increase in the number of Directors or any vacancy in the Board of Directors, such newly created directorship or vacancy may be filled by vote of the stockholders at a meeting called for such purpose or, unless the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide otherwise, by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining Directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Unless the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide otherwise, when one or more Directors shall resign from the Board of Directors, effective at a future date, the majority of Directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective. Any Director elected or chosen as provided herein shall serve for the remaining term of the directorship to which appointed or until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 5. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board shall be held at the Corporation's office in the State of Delaware or at such other place, within or without such State, as the Board may from time to time determine or as shall be specified or fixed in the notice or waiver of notice of any such meeting.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on such days and at such times as the Board may from time to time determine. Notice of regular meetings of the Board need not be given except as otherwise required by law or these Bylaws.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman of the Board or the President and shall be called by the Secretary at the request of any two of the other Directors.

Section 8. Notice of Meetings. Notice of each special meeting of the Board (and of each regular meeting for which notice shall be required), stating the time, place and purpose thereof, shall be mailed to each Director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, or shall be sent to him by telex, cable, facsimile or telegram so addressed, or shall be given personally or by telephone, on twenty-four (24) hours notice, or such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any Director, however, if waived by him in writing or by telegraph, telex, cable, facsimile or other form of recorded communication, or if he shall be present at the meeting, except when he is present for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of such meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 9. Quorum and Manner of Acting. The presence of at least a majority of the authorized number of Directors shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board, a majority of the Directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. Except where a different vote is required by law, the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which a quorum shall be present shall be the act of the Board.

Section 10. Action by Consent: Participation by Telephone or Similar Equipment. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all the Directors consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action, unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the Directors shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any one or more Directors may participate in any meeting of the Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting of the Board.

Section 11. Resignation; Removal. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation, provided, however, that written notice to the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Secretary shall be deemed to constitute notice to the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Any Director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of Directors, provided, however, that when the holders of any class or series are entitled by the Certificate or Incorporation to elect one (1) or more Directors, then, in respect to the removal without cause of a Director or Directors so elected, the required majority vote shall be of the holders of the outstanding shares of such class or series and not of the outstanding shares as a whole.

Section 12. Compensation of Directors. The Board may, unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, provide for the payment to any of the Directors, other than officers or employees of the Corporation, of a specified amount for services as a Director and/or member of a committee of the Board, or of a specified amount for attendance at each regular or special Board meeting or committee meeting, or of both, and all Directors shall be reimbursed for expenses of attendance at any such meeting; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefore.

Article IV Committees of The Board

Section 1. Designation, Powers and Name. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, including, if they shall so determine, an Executive Committee, each such committee to consist of one or more of the Directors of the Corporation. If an Audit Committee or a Compensation Committee is designated, each such committee shall consist of one or more Directors of the Corporation who are not employees of the Corporation.

Each committee designated by the Board of Directors shall have and may exercise such of the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation as may be provided in such resolution or in these Bylaws; provided, however, that no such committee shall have the power or authority in reference to amending the Certificate of Incorporation (except that a committee may, to the extent authorized in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance of shares of stock adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to authority, if any, expressly vested in the Board by the provisions of the certificate of Incorporation, (i) fix the designations and any of the preferences or rights of such shares relating to dividends, redemption, dissolution, any distribution of assets of the Corporation or the conversion into, or the exchange of such shares for, shares of any other class or classes or any other series of the same or any other class or classes of stock of the Corporation, or (ii) fix the number of shares of any series of stock or authorize the increase or decrease of the shares of any series), adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the stockholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the Corporation's property and assets, recommending to the stockholders a dissolution of the Corporation or a revocation of a dissolution, or amending the Bylaws of the Corporation; and, provided further, that, unless the resolution establishing the committee, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws expressly so provide, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend, to authorize the issuance of stock or to adopt a certificate of ownership and merger pursuant to Section 253 of the DGCL. The committee may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. The Board of Directors may designate one or more Directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member.

Section 2. Meetings; Minutes. Unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise provide, upon designation of any committee by the Board, such committee shall elect one of its members as chairman and may elect one of its members as vice chairman and shall adopt rules of proceeding providing for, among other things, the manner of calling committee meetings, giving notices thereof, quorum requirements for such meetings, and the methods of conducting the same. Each committee of Directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

Section 3. Compensation. Members of special or standing committees may be allowed compensation if the Board of Directors shall so determine pursuant to Section 12 of Article III of these Bylaws.

Section 4. Action by Consent: Participation by Telephone or Similar Equipment. Unless the Board of Directors, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws shall otherwise provide, any action required or permitted to be taken by any committee may be taken without a meeting if all members of the committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the members of the committee shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Unless the Board of Directors, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws shall otherwise provide, any one or more members of any such committee may participate in any meeting of the committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting of the committee.

Section 5. Changes in Committees; Resignations; Removals. The Board shall have power, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the authorized number of Directors, at any time to change the members of, to fill vacancies in, and to discharge any committee of the Board. Any member of any such committee may resign at any time by giving notice to the Corporation, provided, however, that notice to the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, the chairman of such committee or the Secretary shall be deemed to constitute notice to the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any member of any such committee may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the authorized number of Directors at any meeting of the Board called for that purpose.

Article V Officers

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board (if such office is created by resolution adopted by the Board), a President, one or more Vice Presidents (if such office is created by resolution adopted by the Board, any one or more of whom may be designated Executive Vice President or Senior Vice President), a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers and agents, including Assistant Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers, as it shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined by the Board. No officer shall execute, acknowledge, verify or countersign any instrument on behalf of the Corporation in more than one capacity, if such instrument is required by law, by these Bylaws or by any act of the Corporation to be executed, acknowledged, verified or countersigned by two or more officers. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected from among the Directors, and none of the officers need be a stockholder of the Corporation unless otherwise required by the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first regular meeting held after the annual meeting of stockholders or as soon thereafter as conveniently practicable. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and shall have been qualified or until his death or the effective date of his resignation or removal, or until he shall cease to be a Director in the case of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 3. Removal and Resignation. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the Corporation shall be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights, if any, of the person so removed. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation by death, resignation, removal or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors and, in the case of any vacancy in an office other than the office of Chairman of the Board (if any) or President, by the President for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5. Salaries. The salaries of all officers and agents of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors or pursuant to its direction; and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of his also being a Director.

Section 6. Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board (if such office is created by resolution adopted by the Board and who may also hold the office of President or other offices) shall have such duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe. In the Chairman's absence, such duties shall be attended to by the President.

Section 7. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation, and, subject to the provisions of these Bylaws, shall have general and active control of all of its business and affairs. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and at all meetings of the stockholders. The President shall have the power to (i) appoint and remove subordinate officers, agents and employees, including Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers, except that the President may not remove those elected or appointed by the Board of Directors, and (ii) delegate and determine their duties. The President shall keep the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee (if any) fully informed and shall consult them concerning the business of the Corporation. The President may sign, with the Secretary or another office of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, certificates for shares of the Corporation and any deeds, bonds, mortgages, contracts, checks, notes, drafts or other instruments the issue or execution of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof has been expressly delegated by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors to some other officer or agent of the Corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise executed. The President shall, vote, or give a proxy to any other officer of the Corporation to vote, all shares of stock of any other corporation standing in the name of the Corporation. The President shall, in general, perform all other duties normally incident to or as usually appertain to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by these Bylaws, the stockholders, the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee (if any) from time to time.

Section 8. Vice Presidents. In the absence of the President, or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Executive Vice President (or in the event there shall be no Vice President designated Executive Vice President, any Vice President designated by the Board) shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President. Any Vice President may sign, with the Secretary or Assistant Secretary or with the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer, certificates for shares of the Corporation and any deeds, bonds, mortgages, contracts, checks, notes, drafts or other instruments the issue or execution of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof has been expressly delegated by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors to some other officer or agent of the Corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise executed. The Vice Presidents shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Chairman of the Board (if any), the President, the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee (if any).

Section 9. Secretary. The Secretary shall (i) record the proceedings of the meetings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors and committees of Directors in the permanent minute books of the Corporation kept for that purpose, (ii) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and as required by law, (iii) be custodian of the corporate books and records and of the seal of the Corporation, and see that the seal of the Corporation or a facsimile thereof is affixed to all certificates for shares of the Corporation prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws, (iv) keep or cause to be kept a register of the post office address of each stockholder which shall be furnished by such stockholder, (v) sign with the Chairman of the Board (if any), the President, or an Executive Vice President or Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation and any deeds, bonds, mortgages, contracts, checks, notes, drafts or other instruments the issue or execution of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof has been expressly delegated by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors to some other officer or agent of the Corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise executed, (vi) have general charge of the stock transfer books of the Corporation and (vii) in general, perform all duties normally incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Chairman of the Board (if any), the President, the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee (if any).

Section 10. Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Treasurer shall (i) have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation, receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other
