REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SEPARATION OF CARMAX
FROM CIRCUIT CITY DECLARED EFFECTIVE

Shareholder Vote Set for September 10, 2002

Richmond, Va., August 6, 2002 - Circuit City Stores, Inc. announced today that the Securities and Exchange Commission has declared effective the CarMax, Inc. registration statement, which includes a proxy statement/prospectus relating to the previously announced plan to separate the CarMax auto superstore business from the Circuit City consumer electronics business through a tax-free transaction in which CarMax, Inc., presently a wholly owned subsidiary of Circuit City Stores, Inc., would become an independent, separately traded public company.

Holders of record of outstanding shares of Circuit City Group Common Stock and CarMax Group Common Stock at the close of business on July 22, 2002, will be entitled to vote upon a proposal to approve the separation and other related matters at a special meeting of shareholders scheduled for September 10, 2002. Circuit City Stores expects to mail proxy solicitation materials, including the proxy statement/prospectus for the special meeting, to shareholders by mid-month.

If the shareholders and the board of directors approve the separation plan, Circuit City Stores will redeem its CarMax Group stock in exchange for shares of CarMax, Inc. common stock. Simultaneously, a number of shares of CarMax, Inc. common stock equal to the number of shares of CarMax Group stock reserved for the Circuit City Group will be distributed as a tax-free dividend to the holders of Circuit City Group stock. The company expects the separation, if approved, to be effective October 1, 2002.

With headquarters in Richmond, Va., Circuit City Stores, Inc. (NYSE:CC,KMX) operates 605 Circuit City Superstores, 17 mall-based Circuit City Express stores and 40 CarMax stores in 38 locations. Circuit City is a leading national retailer of brand-name consumer electronics, personal computers and entertainment software, operating more locations in more markets than any other consumer electronics specialty retailer. CarMax is the nation's leading specialty retailer of used cars. Its locations include 36 used-car superstores and 17 new-car franchises, 15 of which are integrated or co-located with its used-car superstores.
