PART 1. FINANCIAL INFORMATION (continued)
DAVOX CORPORATION & SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

1. Basis of Preparation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements presented herein have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and note disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. The statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K, Commission File No. 000-15578, that was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 15, 2001. In the opinion of management, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position and results of operations. The results of operations for the three-month period ended March 31, 2001 may not be indicative of the results that may be expected for the next quarter or the full fiscal year.

2. Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

3. Revenue Recognition

The Company generates software revenue from licensing the rights to use its software products. The Company also generates service revenues from the sale of product maintenance contracts, implementation, education and consulting services. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position (SOP) No. 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, and SOP No. 98-9, Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, with Respect to Certain Transactions. Revenue from software license fees are generally recognized upon delivery provided that there are no significant post delivery obligations, persuasive evidence of an agreement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collection of the related receivable is probable. If acceptance is required beyond the Company's standard published specifications, software license revenue is recognized upon customer acceptance.

SOP 98-9 requires use of the residual method for recognition of revenues when vendor-specific objective evidence exists for undelivered elements but does not exist for the delivered elements of a multiple-element arrangement. In such circumstances, the Company defers the fair value of the undeliverable elements and recognizes, as revenue, the remaining value for the delivered elements.

 (Unaudited)

3. Revenue Recognition (continued)

Revenues for consulting, implementation and educational services are recognized over the period in which services are provided. Maintenance revenue is deferred at the time of software license shipment and is recognized ratably over the term of the support period, which is typically one year. Amounts collected prior to satisfying the revenue recognition criteria are reflected as deferred revenue.

4. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and the effect of dilutive common stock options using the treasury stock method. A reconciliation of basic and diluted weighted average shares outstanding is as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2001	2000
	----	----
Basic weighted average shares outstanding	12,683	13,404
Effect of dilutive stock options	547	1,148
	-----	-----
Diluted weighted average shares outstanding	13,230	14,552
	=====	=====

For the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000, 1,685,359 and 307,274 common equivalent shares, respectively, were not included in the diluted weighted average shares outstanding, as their effect would be antidilutive.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contains certain safe harbors regarding forward-looking statements. Statements set forth herein may contain "forward-looking" information that involves risks and uncertainties. Actual future financial or operating results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements. Statements indicating that the Company "expects," "estimates," "believes," "is planning," or "plans to" are forward-looking, as are other statements concerning future financial or operating results, product offerings or other events that have not yet occurred. There are several important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. Such factors are described in greater detail under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations--Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results. Although the Company has sought to identify the most significant risks to its business, the Company cannot predict whether, or to what extent, any of such risks may be realized nor can there be any assurance that the Company has identified all possible issues that the Company may face.

Edgar Filing: DAVOX CORP - Form 10-Q

PART I. FINANCIAL INFORMATION (continued) ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Three Months Ended March 31, 2001 and 2000

Total revenue for the first quarter of 2001 decreased approximately $1.7 million, or 6.4%, to $24.7 million compared to the same period in 2000.

Product revenue for the first quarter of 2001 decreased approximately $2.9 million, or 19.7%, to $11.9 million compared to the same period in 2000. This decrease was principally due to the fact that the first quarter of 2000 was a record quarter for the Company driven by pent up demand from Y2K. There was an increase in the number of customers placing orders for new systems during the first quarter of 2000, after the successful passing of Y2K

Cost of product revenue for the first quarter of 2001 decreased approximately $226,000, or 10%, to $2.0 million compared to the same period in 2000. As a percentage of product revenue, the cost of product revenue increased by 1.7% to 16.5% in the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. The decrease in the cost of product revenue and product gross margin was due primarily to the lower product revenue.

Service revenue for the first quarter of 2001 increased approximately $1.2 million, or 10.7%, to $12.8 million compared to the same period in 2000. The increase in service revenue was due primarily to increased professional services revenue in the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000 and an increase in maintenance revenue resulting from continued growth of the global customer base.

Cost of service revenue for the first quarter of 2001 increased approximately $1.5 million, or 26.0%, to $7.1 million compared to the same period in 2000. As a percentage of service revenue, the cost of service revenue increased by 6.0% in the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. The increase during the first quarter of 2001 was due primarily to increased headcount and payroll and related expenses required to support the increased revenue compared to the same period in 2000.

Research, development and engineering expenses increased approximately $904,000, or 23.5%, to $4.7 million for the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. The increase was primarily due to increased headcount and payroll related expenses and consulting costs compared to the same period in 2000.

Edgar Filing: DAVOX CORP - Form 10-Q

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by approximately $1.2 million, or 11.7%, to $11.4 million for the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. The increase in the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000 was principally due to increased headcount and payroll related expenses and continuing investment in the international operations as the Company continues to expand its global presence.

Other income in 2001 was derived primarily from interest income from investments in commercial paper, corporate bonds, Eurodollar bonds, and similar financial instruments, net of investment fees. Other income increased 8% for the first quarter of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. This increase reflects the higher average investment balances in 2001 compared to 2000.

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Company provides for income taxes on an interim basis using its estimated annual effective income tax rate. The Company is providing for income taxes in 2001 at an effective tax rate of 31%, which is lower than the combined federal and state statutory tax rates due primarily to net operating loss carryforwards, utilization of tax credits and benefits derived from the Company's foreign sales corporation.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of March 31, 2001, the Company's principal sources of liquidity were its cash and cash equivalent balances of approximately $57.3 million, as well as its marketable securities of approximately $11.4 million. At December 31, 2000, the Company's cash and cash equivalent balances were approximately $61.8 million and its marketable securities were approximately $9.0 million. The overall decrease of approximately $2.0 million in the total cash and marketable securities balances was due primarily to increased operating expense and increased investment in property and equipment in the first quarter of 2001.

Net cash used in operating activities for the first three months of 2001 was approximately $501,000 compared to cash provided by operating activities of approximately $8.2 million for the same period in 2000. The decrease in cash provided by operating activities for the first three months of 2001 was due primarily to less favorable operating results, a decrease in accrued expenses of approximately $1.1 million and an increase in accounts receivable of approximately $2.2 million for the period.

PART I. FINANCIAL INFORMATION (continued)
ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company's primary investing activities were purchases and maturities of marketable securities and purchases of property and equipment. Purchases and maturities of marketable securities generated a net cash outflow of approximately $2.4 million during the first three months of 2001, compared to a net cash inflow of approximately $6.1 million during the same period in 2000. Property and equipment purchases were approximately $1.7 million during the first three months of 2001, compared to approximately $1.3 million during the same period in 2000.

Cash provided by financing activities during the first three months of 2001 totaled approximately $303,000 and was generated from proceeds from exercises of stock options and from purchases of stock through the Company's employee stock purchase plan, which was partially offset by the repurchase of 20,000 shares of the Company's common stock for approximately $225,000. Cash provided by financing activities during the first three months of 2000 totaled approximately $4.7 million and was generated from proceeds from exercises of stock options.

At March 31, 2001, the working capital of the Company decreased to approximately $66.4 million from approximately $66.6 million as of December 31, 2000.

Management believes, based on its current operating plan, that the Company's existing cash and marketable securities balances and cash generated from operations are sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements for the next twelve months.

PART I. FINANCIAL INFORMATION (continued) ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

Derivative Financial Instruments, Other Financial Instruments, and Derivative Commodity Instruments.

As of March 31, 2001, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under Statement of Financial Standards (SFAS) No. 107. Substantially all, of the Company's investments are short-term; commercial paper, corporate bonds, Eurodollar bonds, and similar financial instruments that are carried on the Company's books at amortized cost, which approximates fair market value. Accordingly, the Company has no quantitative information concerning the market risk of participating in such investments.

Primary Market Risk Exposures.

The Company's primary market risk exposures are in the areas of interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk. The Company's investment portfolio of cash equivalents and marketable securities is subject to interest rate fluctuations, but the Company believes this risk is immaterial due to the short-term nature of these investments.

The Company's exposure to currency exchange rate fluctuations has been and is expected to continue to be modest due to the fact that the operations of its international subsidiaries are almost exclusively conducted in their respective local currencies. International subsidiary operating results are translated into U.S. dollars and consolidated for reporting purposes. The impact of currency exchange rate movements on intercompany transactions was immaterial for the three months ended March 31, 2001. Currently, the Company does not engage in foreign currency hedging activities.

CERTAIN FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

In addition to historical information contained herein, this report contains forward-looking statements concerning future expected financial and operating results. The Company's future actual results could differ materially from the forward-looking statements discussed or implied in this report because of risks or uncertainties including, but not limited to, competition and competitive pricing pressures, technological change, new product introduction and market acceptance, the ability of Davox to attract and retain key personnel and general economic conditions in the United States and worldwide markets served by Davox; and those other factors discussed from time to time in Davox's public reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, such as those discussed under "Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results" in Davox's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K.
