- (e) On April 16, 2014, certain amendments to the employment agreement between Prudential Savings Bank (the “Bank”) and Salvatore Fratanduono (the “Employment Agreement”) were approved by the Board of Directors of the Bank, the wholly owned subsidiary of Prudential Bancorp, Inc., after first being considered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Employment Agreement with Mr. Fratanduono was amended primarily to revise the severance provisions. In the event that he terminates his employment because of failure to comply with any material provision of the Employment Agreement by the Bank or the Employment Agreement is terminated by the Bank other than for cause, disability, retirement or death or in connection with a change in control, as defined in the Employment Agreement, Mr. Fratanduono will be entitled to the payment of two times (previously one times) his average annual cash compensation (salary and cash bonuses) as cash severance and the maintenance until the earlier to occur of the passage of two years or until the executive’s full time employment with another employer, of the executive’s participation in all employee benefit plans in which the executive was entitled to participate or similar plans, programs or arrangements if his continued participation is not permissible. The Employment Agreement continues to provide that benefits under the Employment Agreement will be reduced to the extent necessary to ensure that the executive does not receive any “parachute payment” as such term is defined under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
