Pursuant to Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, AMCON Distributing Company ("AMCON") is unable to file its quarterly report for the fiscal quarter and six months ended March 31, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense. AMCON is currently in the process of finalizing the accounting classification of certain financial instruments and accounting treatment of the discontinuation of the operations of The Beverage Group, Inc., the marketing and distribution business in the beverage segment. The process has resulted in extensive consultations with legal and accounting professionals. AMCON expects the process to conclude on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date of Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter and six months ended March 31, 2005 after which AMCON expects to file this Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
