In addition, a properly executed and returned proxy card gives the authority to vote in accordance with the proxy-holders' best judgment on such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof. VOTING SECURITIES

Record Date and Voting of Securities

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on July 12, 2001 as the record date for determining the holders of common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On July 12, 2001, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote a total of 18,697,107 Class A Common Shares ("Class A shares") and 4,082,289 Class B Common Shares ("Class B shares").

Other than in the election of directors, in which holders of Class A shares and Class B shares vote as separate classes, each outstanding Class A share is entitled to one-tenth vote per share and each outstanding Class B share is entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be brought before the meeting. The Class A directors and the Class B directors will be elected by a majority of the votes cast by the respective classes. Any other matter submitted to the meeting must be approved or ratified by a majority vote of the outstanding shares (adjusted as described above). A one-third quorum of 6,232,369 Class A shares and of 1,360,763 Class B shares is required to be present or represented by proxy at the meeting in order to conduct all of the business expected to come before the meeting. A vote of abstention cast by any shareholder on a particular action will be counted towards the quorum requirement, but will not be counted as a vote for or against the action.

Security Ownership

Five Percent Shareholders. The only persons known by the Company to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of either class of the Company are those set forth below. Unless otherwise noted, this information is as of June 30, 2001. The statements as to securities beneficially owned are, in each instance, based upon information provided by the person(s) concerned. Except as disclosed in the notes to the table, each person has sole voting and investment power with respect to the entire number of shares shown as beneficially owned by that person.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). Officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of the Class A shares are required under regulations promulgated by the Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based upon a review by the Company of filings made under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The directors of the Company are elected annually to hold office until the election and qualification of their successors at the next Annual Meeting. Of the eight directors to be elected, three are to be elected by the holders of the outstanding Class A shares and five are to be elected by the holders of the outstanding Class B shares. The persons named in the enclosed proxy card intend to vote Class A shares for the election of Dennis Hogue, Dr. John J. Jarvis and Thomas R. Williams, the Class A director nominees. In the event any of these individuals should be unavailable to serve as a director, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the person or persons acting under it. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any director nominees will be unavailable for election as a director.

It is anticipated that Mr. Edenfield and Dr. Newberry, who together own all of the Class B shares, will vote their Class B shares in favor of the election of James C. Edenfield, J. Michael Edenfield, David H. Gambrell, Dr. Thomas L. Newberry and Thomas L. Newberry, V as Class B directors. Thus, it is expected that James C. Edenfield and Thomas L. Newberry will continue serving as Class B directors and that J. Michael Edenfield, David H. Gambrell and Thomas L. Newberry, V will be elected as Class B directors.

J. Michael Edenfield, Dennis Hogue, Dr. John J. Jarvis, and Thomas L. Newberry, V were elected to the Board of Directors by the existing Board members effective June 1, 2001, and have not previously been candidates for election at an annual meeting of shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT CLASS A SHAREHOLDERS VOTE
"FOR" MESSRS. HOGUE, JARVIS AND WILLIAMS.

From May 1, 2000 through April 30, 2001, the Board of Directors held four meetings and acted by unanimous written consent on one occasion. No director of the Company attended fewer than 75% of the total meetings of the Board of Directors and committee meetings on which such Board member served and was eligible to attend during this period.

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, which presently consists of Messrs. Gambrell (Chairman), Hogue, Jarvis and Williams. The Audit Committee held two meetings during fiscal 2001. The Securities and Exchange Commission and National Association of Securities Dealers have promulgated rules that require audit committees to be composed of not less than three members who are "independent," as that term is defined in the rules. Three of the four Audit Committee members--Messrs. Hogue, Jarvis and Williams--meet the definition of "independent" set forth in the new rules.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

The rules provide that a director who is a partner in or controlling shareholder or executive officer of any business organization to which the Company made, or from which the Company received, payments that exceed the greater of 5% of the business organization's consolidated gross revenues or $200,000 in any of the past three years is not considered "independent." Mr. Gambrell is a partner in the law firm of Gambrell & Stolz, L.L.P., which provides legal services to the Company and received payments in excess of the above threshold amount. Accordingly, Mr. Gambrell would not be considered "independent" under the rules. See Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation, below.

An exception to the independence requirement allows one non-independent director who is not a current employee of the Company or an immediate family member of a current employee to serve on the Audit Committee if the Board, under limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by the individual is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, provided that the Board discloses in the next annual proxy statement the nature of the relationship and the reasons for its determination. The Board has determined that Mr. Gambrell's membership on the Committee is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders because his experience serving as Chairman of the Committee will benefit the new Committee members.

The Company's Audit Committee Charter, attached as Exhibit "A" hereto, outlines the composition requirements of the Audit Committee as described above, as well as its duties and responsibilities. Under the current charter, the primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. The functions of the Audit Committee include making an annual recommendation of independent public accountants to the Company, reviewing the scope and results of the independent public accountants' audit, monitoring the adequacy of the Company's accounting, financial and operating controls, reviewing from time to time the Company's periodic financial statements and other financial reports with management and with the independent auditors, and reviewing with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's annual report.

Prior to the September 1, 2000 termination of the 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan, the Board had a 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan Committee, consisting of Messrs. Edenfield and Newberry. During fiscal 2001, this Committee met or acted by written consent ten times to grant stock options or take other actions with respect to the Company's 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan. The members of this Committee were not eligible to participate in this Plan. The functions of this Committee were to grant options and establish the terms of those options, as well as to construe and interpret the Plan and to adopt rules in connection therewith.

Two different committees of the Board administer the 2001 Stock Option Plan, depending on whether the option grant is to an officer or director or to other employees. The Special Stock Option Committee, which consists of David H. Gambrell and Thomas R. Williams, as members of the Compensation Committee, administers stock option grants to executive officers and directors. The Stock Option Committee, which consists of James C. Edenfield and Thomas L. Newberry, administers grants to other employees. During fiscal 2001, the Stock Option Committee met or acted by written consent nine times to grant stock options or take other actions with respect to the Company's 2001 Stock Option Plan. The Special Stock Option Committee did not meet or act by written consent during fiscal 2001 because all stock option grants to officers and directors during fiscal 2001 were made under the Directors and Officers Stock

Option Plan prior to its termination. The Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan was administered by the Compensation Committee. The function of these Committees is to grant options and establish the terms of those options, as well as to construe and interpret the Plan and to adopt rules in connection therewith.

The Board has a Compensation Committee, consisting of Messrs. Williams (Chairman) and Gambrell, described below in "Certain Information Regarding Executive Officers and Directors--Report on Executive Compensation." The Compensation Committee met or acted by written consent on two occasions during fiscal 2001.

The Board has no nominating committee or any other committee performing similar functions.

Stock Option Plans

The Company has outstanding stock options granted pursuant to three stock option plans. The 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Employee Option Plan") and the Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan (the "Directors and Officers Option Plan") were adopted in 1991. These Plans were terminated effective September 1, 2000 and replaced by the 2001 Stock Option Plan (the "2001 Option Plan"). Options outstanding under the Employee Option Plan and the Directors and Officers Option Plan remain in effect, but no new options may be granted under those plans. The following sections describe these three stock option plans.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

1991 Employee Stock Option Plan. On August 22, 1991, the Company adopted the 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan. The Employee Option Plan was designed to provide certain key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries with additional incentives to increase their efforts on the Company's behalf and remain in the employ of the Company. Options to purchase Class A common shares were granted in the form of both incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options. Participants in this plan were selected from key personnel of the Company or a subsidiary, provided, however, that no director, officer or 10% shareholder of the Company was eligible to participate. The number of options granted under this plan was determined with each grant. Options are exercisable at any time within the option period, but no more than ten years from the date of grant. As of April 30, 2001, there were outstanding under the Employee Stock Option Plan options to purchase 2,048,430 Class A shares.

Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan. On August 22, 1991, the Company adopted the Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan. The Directors and Officers Option Plan was designed to provide directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries with additional incentives to increase their efforts on the Company's behalf and to remain in the employ of the Company or to remain as directors of the Company. Options to purchase Class A common shares were granted in the form of both incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options. Participants in this plan were selected from among the directors and officers of the Company or a subsidiary. The number of options granted under this plan was determined with each grant. Further, each non-employee member of the Board of Directors received an automatic grant of nonqualified options to purchase 5,000 shares on April 30 and October 31 of each year. The option price for such grant was equal to the closing market price of the shares on the date of grant and were exercisable one year after grant. Options are exercisable at any time within the option period, but no more than ten years from the date of grant. As of April 30, 2001, there were outstanding under the Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan options to purchase 1,208,469 Class A shares.

2001 Stock Option Plan. The 2001 Option Plan became effective September 1, 2000. This plan is designed to attract and retain the best available talent and encourage the highest level of performance by officers, employees, directors, advisors and consultants, and to provide them with incentives to put forth maximum efforts for the success of the Company's business. Options to purchase Class A common shares are granted in the form of both incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options. The number of options granted under this plan is determined with each grant, except with respect to non-employee directors, who receive grants of non-qualified options to purchase 5,000 shares upon election and 3,000 shares at the end of each fiscal quarter. The price of such grants is equal to the closing market price of the shares on the date of grant. Options are exercised at any time within the option period, but no more than 10 years after the date of grant (or 5 years for incentive stock options granted to any person who owns 10% or more of the combined voting power of all classes of capital stock of the Company at the time of grant). A total of 2,000,000 shares are authorized for issuance pursuant to options granted under the 2001 Option Plan. As of April 30, 2001, there were outstanding under the 2001 Option Plan options to purchase 511,250 Class A shares.

Stock Option Committees. Prior to its termination, the Employee Stock Option Plan was administered by the 1991 Employee Stock Option Plan Committee, consisting of Mr. Edenfield and Dr. Newberry. Prior to its termination, the Directors and Officers Option Plan was administered by the Compensation Committee, consisting of Messrs. Gambrell and Williams. The 2001 Option Plan is administered by two separate committees: (i) the Special Stock Option Committee (comprised of Messrs. Gambrell and Williams, as members of the Compensation Committee) is responsible for option grants to officers and directors, and (ii) the Stock Option Committee (comprised of Mr. Edenfield and Dr. Newberry) is responsible for other option grants.

The members of these Committees are not eligible to participate in the portion of the Plan that they administer, except pursuant to the formula option grant program for non-employee directors under the 2001 Option Plan. Under the Plans, the functions of these Committees are to grant options and establish the terms of those options, as well as to construe and interpret the respective Plans and adopt rules in connection therewith.

Employment Agreement and Bonus Policy

From May 1, 1983 through April 30, 1995, the compensation of James C. Edenfield, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, was determined under an employment contract entered into by him and the Company on January 17, 1983. This contract provided for an annual base salary of $434,500, payable monthly, plus expenses and normal employee fringe benefits. In addition, the contract provided for an annual bonus of 5% of the increase of each fiscal year's pre-tax earnings over the pre-tax earnings of the preceding fiscal year. The contract expired at the end of fiscal 1995, and since that time Mr. Edenfield has continued to be compensated on the same basis as applied under the contract. The Board of Directors, after consulting with the Compensation Committee, determined that the same contract terms would continue through fiscal 2001. Accordingly, during fiscal 2001, Mr. Edenfield's salary was $434,500. He received no bonus under the bonus formula with respect to fiscal 2001. See "Report on Executive Compensation" for a detailed discussion of Mr. Edenfield's compensation in fiscal 2001 and fiscal 2002.

Pursuant to written plans, Jeffrey W. Coombs, Paul DiBono, Jr. and Vincent C. Klinges had the potential to receive certain cash bonuses, the amounts of which were determined on the basis of fiscal 2001 performance standards. Accordingly, Mr. Coombs received a bonus in the amount of $24,875 in fiscal 2001. Neither Mr. DiBono nor Mr. Klinges, however, qualified for a bonus under performance standards applicable during fiscal 2001. For fiscal 2002, the bonus plans for Messrs. Coombs and Klinges again will have individualized incentive goals tied to increases in revenues and/or net income, either Company-wide or related to specific areas over which they have responsibility, or both. Mr. DiBono retired from the Company effective October 31, 2000.

Certain Transactions

The Company leases one of its office facilities from a partnership that is owned entirely by James C. Edenfield and Thomas L. Newberry under a lease that by its terms expired December 31, 1996. An extension of that lease, on a month-to-month basis, has been approved by the disinterested members of the Board of Directors, pending negotiation of a new long-term lease. The Company incurred expenses of approximately $300,000 in fiscal 2000, and approximately $300,000 in fiscal 2001 pursuant to this lease. The current rental rate is $17.00 per square foot. Management believes that the terms of the lease are fair to the Company.

The Company and Logility have previously entered into various agreements (the "Intercompany Agreements"), including a Services Agreement, a Facilities Agreement, a Marketing License Agreement and a Tax Sharing Agreement. These Agreements and the other Intercompany Agreements are further described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2001, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In fiscal 2001, Logility paid the following aggregate amounts to the Company under the terms of the Intercompany Agreements: Services Agreement--$1,552,000; Facilities Agreement--$763,000; and Marketing License Agreement--$367,000. Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, Logility received no allocation of federal, state and local taxes for fiscal 2001.

As a result of the various transactions between the Company and Logility, amounts payable to and receivable from Logility arise from time to time. At April 30, 2001, there was a payable from the Company to Logility in the amount of $2,916,000.

Director Compensation

During fiscal 2001, the Company compensated Dr. Newberry, the Chairman of the Board, at the rate of $18,000 per annum, and other Directors who are not employed by the Company at the rate of $12,000 per annum, plus $600 for each half-day or $1,200 for each full day meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board that they attended.

Directors are eligible to receive stock option grants under the Company's 2001 Option Plan, which became effective September 1, 2000. Under the terms of that Plan, newly-elected Directors who are not employed by the Company automatically receive stock option grants of 5,000 shares each upon their initial election and 3,000 shares each as of the end of each fiscal quarter, with exercise prices equal to the market price on the dates of such grants. These options become exercisable one year after the date of grant and expire ten years after the date of grant. They do not terminate if the Director ceases to serve on the Board of the Company after the options become exercisable. Under this program, Messrs. Gambrell, Newberry and Williams each received options to purchase an aggregate of 9,000 shares in fiscal 2001.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Messrs. Gambrell and Williams have been selected by the Board of Directors to serve on the Compensation Committee. Mr. Gambrell is a partner in the law firm of Gambrell & Stolz, L.L.P., which performs legal services for the Company, Logility and AmQUEST, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Legal fees in the amount of $746,290 were paid by the Company (including fees paid by Logility and AmQUEST) to that firm during fiscal year 2001 for legal services rendered, in addition to $16,800 in Director fees paid during that year for Mr. Gambrell's service as a Director of the Company and as a member of Board Committees.

Report on Executive Compensation

The following is the report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of American Software, Inc. for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2001.

Meetings. The Compensation Committee met two times formally and conferred informally a number of times during fiscal year 2001. Informal conferences have been held among the members of the Committee, as well as with the Chief Executive Officer, concerning the authority and responsibilities of the Committee.

Executive Compensation Philosophy. The Committee believes that a compensation program that enables the Company to attract, retain and motivate outstanding executives will assist the Company in meeting its long-range objectives, thereby serving the interests of the Company's shareholders. The compensation program of the Company is designed to achieve the following objectives:

- . Provide compensation opportunities that are competitive with those of companies of a similar size.

- . Create a strong link between the executive's compensation and the Company's annual and long-term financial performance.
- . Include above-average elements of financial risk through performance-based incentive compensation that offers an opportunity for above-average financial reward to the executives.

Fiscal Year 2002 Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility and authority to review and establish compensation for the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, including his participation in stock option plans and the re-evaluation and negotiation of his employment contract. In the previous three fiscal years, the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer, James C. Edenfield, agreed to extend his existing compensation arrangement on a year-to-year basis. For the fiscal year 2002, the Committee has again decided to continue the Chief Executive Officer's current level of compensation, so that Mr. Edenfield will continue to receive a base salary of $434,500 and a bonus equal to 5% of the increase in the Company's pre-tax earnings for fiscal 2002 over the pre-tax earnings for fiscal 2001. The Compensation Committee's decision to continue this basis for compensation in fiscal 2002 reflects the belief of the Committee and Mr. Edenfield that the Chief Executive Officer's compensation should continue to be tied substantially to growth in earnings and that the existing compensation arrangement meets that objective.

In extending this basis for compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee is expressing its view that Mr. Edenfield is paid a reasonable current salary, and that any potential bonus is based on an important corporate financial goal, growth in earnings, which aligns his interests with those of other shareholders. Moreover, Mr. Edenfield is one of the largest shareholders of the Company, and to the extent his performance as CEO translates into an increase in the value of the Company's shares, all shareholders, including Mr. Edenfield, share the benefits.

As described below under "Split-Dollar Insurance Agreement," Mr. Edenfield's compensation package also includes a split-dollar life insurance policy, established in fiscal 2000.

Fiscal Year 2001 Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer's cash compensation in fiscal year 2001, both salary and bonus, was determined under the terms of the compensation arrangement described above. Accordingly, the Chief Executive Officer did not receive a bonus with respect to fiscal year 2001 as the Company did not have pre-tax earnings in fiscal 2001. During fiscal 2001, the Chief Executive Officer was granted stock options covering 120,000 Class A shares pursuant to the Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan, which was in effect at that time and administered by this Committee. A portion of those stock options (32,208 shares) are classified as incentive stock options, the exercise price for which is $4.33, or 10% above the market price of Class A shares on the date of grant. The remaining option shares are nonqualified stock options, priced at $3.9375 per share, which was the market price on the date of grant. The participation of the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers of the Company in the 2001 Option Plan is determined by the Compensation Committee, as members of the Special Stock Option Committee, based upon its authority to grant options under that Plan. The Committee did not grant stock options to the current executive officers during fiscal 2001 under this Plan.

Split-Dollar Insurance Agreement. During the early part of fiscal year 2000, the Committee completed its study of the long-range compensation plan for the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and proposed that the Company provide additional life insurance for the Chief Executive Officer, comparable to coverage provided by other companies to their chief executives. Pursuant to this plan, the Company purchased life insurance policies on the life of Mr. Edenfield having a total face amount of $3,158,833, of which the Company is the owner and co-beneficiary and Mr. Edenfield's designee is co-beneficiary. This "Split Dollar" plan provides obligations and benefits under which the employer and employee divide not only the costs of the policies, but the benefits thereunder, similar to such arrangements made between other like companies and their chief executive officers. The policies are assets of the Company, against which death benefits accrue to Mr. Edenfield.

Other Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee has responsibility for the review of compensation of other executive officers of the Company, including certain executive officers of operating subsidiaries. (The American Software Compensation Committee does not have oversight over the compensation of J. Michael Edenfield or any other Logility officers by Logility, Inc., as their Logility compensation is established or reviewed by the compensation committee of Logility's Board of Directors. (The American Software Compensation Committee, however, does retain the authority to grant stock options to these officers under the Company's 2001 Stock Option Plan.) To assist in this process, the Committee has reviewed compensation of officers having similar responsibilities with peer group companies, based upon publicly available information. In this regard, the Compensation Committee also consults with the Chief Executive Officer. Through its oversight and control of the 2001 Option Plan, the Compensation Committee has direct authority over the granting of stock options to executive officers. In addition, the Compensation Committee assists the Chief Executive Officer in evaluating and establishing executive bonus plans, which are customized for each executive officer.

It has been the policy of the Company in consultation with the Compensation Committee to base a substantial portion of executive officer compensation upon the achievement of Company-wide and divisional goals, relating in some cases to growth in revenues, in some cases to growth in net income and in some cases to both of these factors, as well as other factors. Currently, these other factors include the effectiveness of the executive officers in executing the Company's plans for cutbacks and efficiencies in operations. The bonus plans for each of the most highly compensated executive officers reflect this approach.

Stock option grants are utilized as both a motivating and a compensating factor. Because the performance of executive officers can substantially influence performance of the entire enterprise, grants of stock options have been utilized to create greater incentives for improving Company performance, which the Compensation Committee believes may positively influence the market price for Company stock.

On June 22, 2000, the Compensation Committee exercised its authority under the Directors and Officers Stock Option Plan, which was in effect at that time, to grant new stock options to various executive officers of the Company, including the Chief Executive Officer, as discussed above. In each instance, the term and size of the options were intended and calculated by the Compensation Committee to reward these officers for their prior performance, to serve as incentive for promotion of Company profitability and other long-term objectives and to maintain their overall compensation at competitive levels.

During fiscal 2002, as required by its Charter, the Compensation Committee will continue to consult with the Chief Executive Officer with respect to executive officer compensation packages, including salary, bonus, stock options and fringe benefits, to ensure that compensation is appropriately related to individual and Company performance, as well as to competitive compensation standards and other relevant criteria.

Limitations on Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Since 1994, the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 has limited the deductibility of executive compensation paid by publicly held corporations to $1 million per employee, subject to various exceptions, including compensation based on performance goals.

The Company has not adopted a policy with respect to deductibility of compensation since no executive officer currently receives, or has previously received, taxable income in excess of $1 million per year from the Company. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor compensation levels closely, particularly in areas of incentive compensation. If the Company's performance improves substantially, incentive compensation also can be expected to increase and it may become necessary to adopt a long-term incentive compensation plan structured to take advantage of the tax deductibility provided for plans qualifying under the Act of 1993.

BY THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE:

Thomas R. Williams, Chairman
David H. Gambrell

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors has adopted a written audit committee charter, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A" hereto. Under the current charter, the primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of the Committee's activities to the Board. In fulfilling its responsibilities with respect to the fiscal year 2001 audit, the Audit Committee:

- . Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2001 with Company management and KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), the Company's independent auditors;
- . Discussed with KPMG the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 relating to the conduct of the audit; and
- . Received written disclosures and the letter from KPMG regarding its independence as required by Independence Standards Board No. 1. The Audit Committee discussed with KPMG their independence from the Company.

Based on the Audit Committee's review of the audited financial statements and discussions with management and KPMG, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Securities and Exchange Commission and National Association of Securities Dealers have promulgated rules that require audit committees to be composed of not less than three members who are "independent," as that term is defined in the rules. Three of the four Audit Committee members--Messrs. Hogue, Jarvis and Williams--meet the definition of "independent" set forth in the new rules.

Mr. Gambrell is a partner in the law firm of Gambrell & Stolz, L.L.P., which provides legal services to the Company and has received from the Company compensation for legal services in excess of the threshold amount set forth in the NASD's definition of "independent." Accordingly, Mr. Gambrell ordinarily would not be considered as an "independent" director for this purpose.

However, an exception to the independence requirement allows one director, who is not "independent" and is not a current employee or an immediate family member of a current employee, to serve on the Audit Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by the individual is required in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders and the Board discloses in the next annual proxy statement the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination. The Board has determined that Mr. Gambrell's membership on the Committee is required in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders because his significant past experience serving on this Committee and acting as its Chairman will be beneficial to the Committee. Therefore, the Board believes that Mr. Gambrell may continue to serve on the Audit Committee pursuant to this exception and has so advised the NASD.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Organization.

There shall be an Audit Committee (the "Committee") selected by the Board of Directors (the "Board") as soon as practicable, which shall be composed of not less than three members of the Board, each of whom is independent of Company management. Committee members shall be considered independent if they have no relationship that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company. All Committee members, either at the time of their appointment to the Committee or within a reasonable time thereafter, must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. At least one Committee member must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting or any other comparable experience or background.

II. Statement of Policy.

The Audit Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community and others relating to the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by management and the Board. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication between the Committee, independent auditors, the internal accountants and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose.

III. Responsibilities and Processes.

The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of the Committee's activities to the Board. Management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee should take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate "tone" for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices and ethical behavior.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN SOFTWARE INC - Form DEF 14A

The following are the principal recurring processes of the Audit Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. These processes are a guide and may be supplemented by the Committee or the Board as it deems appropriate.

- (1) The Audit Committee shall recommend annually to the Board of Directors the accounting firm to be selected by the Board to act as independent auditors of the Company, who shall be accountable to the Board and the Committee as representatives of the Company's shareholders. The Committee shall have authority to evaluate and replace the independent auditors if appropriate. The Committee shall discuss with the auditors their independence from management and the Company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standard Board.
- (2) The Committee shall discuss with both the Company's internal accountants and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for all audits, including the adequacy of staffing and compensation. Also, the Committee shall discuss with management, the internal accountants, and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs. Further, the Committee shall meet separately with the internal accountants and the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations.

- (3) The Committee shall from time to time review the periodic financial statements and other financial reports of the Company with management, and with the independent auditors. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for the purposes of any such review. The Committee shall also discuss matters required to be communicated to the Company by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
- (4) The Committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to shareholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
