Introduction:

Mellon HBV Alternative Investment Strategies LLC, a registered investment adviser (the "Reporting Person"), on behalf of affiliated investment funds and separately managed accounts over which it exercises discretionary authority, beneficially owns 11.2% of the Common Stock of California Coastal Communities Inc. (the "Company").

The Reporting Person is filing this amendment no. 1 to Schedule 13D to disclose the Reporting Person's recent correspondence with the Company relating to the Company's annual meeting and consider the Reporting Person's recommendation that the Company's stockholders be provided an opportunity to vote on engaging an investment bank to sell the Company or the Bolsa Chica property, as set forth in its letter to the Company dated June 5, 2006, attached hereto as Exhibit A. Attached as Exhibit B is the Company's response dated June 6, 2006 to the Reporting Person's letter of June 5, 2006. Attached as Exhibit C is the Reporting Person's response to the Company's response letter of June 6, 2006, which indicates, among other things, that in connection with the Company's

Re: Re-Scheduling Annual Meeting and Consideration of Shareholder Proposal
Ladies and Gentlemen:

In reviewing the proxy materials for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders presently scheduled for June 29, 2006, we were alarmed to realize that the Company has apparently set a stale record date for action to be taken at this meeting. It appears that more than the sixty (60) days permitted by Delaware law will have elapsed between the record date of April 28, 2006 and the scheduled meeting date of June 29, 2006.

To comply with applicable law, we assume the Company will re-schedule the meeting. Assuming this is true, we would propose including the following proposal for consideration by shareholders:

RESOLVED that the Company shall promptly engage one or more reputable investment banking firms for the purpose of exploring alternatives to maximize stockholder value in the near term, including if appropriate running an open auction of the Company and/or the Bolsa Chica property, such process to be monitored by a group of shareholders representative of the Company's public investors.

As one the largest stockholders of California Coastal, and as we have previously noted, we remain quite concerned that, if not promptly exploited, the present optimal opportunity to maximize stockholder value may be missed if the Company does not promptly act to put the Company up for sale.

We note with interest the recent media coverage of the sale of John Laing Homes, to a purchaser based in the United Arab Emirates, indicates that despite recent headlines suggesting doom and gloom in the housing industry, the sector remains strong and ripe with opportunity.

Nothing contained herein shall constitute a solicitation; however, we are sufficiently concerned that we reserve our rights to solicit support for any resolution relating to a potential disposition of the Company or the Bolsa Chica property duly put before the Company's stockholders.

Very truly yours,

Re: Annual Meeting

Dear Mr. Harley:

This letter is in response to your letter of June 5, 2006 in which you questioned the validity of the record date for our Annual Meeting of Stockholders. We are informed that there is an ambiguity between Delaware case law and the wording of the applicable Delaware statu[t]e, as to how the date is calculated, and that there is case law permitting meetings to go forward and validating the actions taken in circumstances where a record date is, in fact, invalid.

However, in order to avoid any ambiguity, we are considering advancing the date for the Annual Meeting which would clearly preserve the current record date, and is permissible under Delaware status and applicable case law. Notice of any such new meeting date will be delivered to you and all of the other applicable stockholders in accordance with the provisions of Delaware law and our charter documents.

Nothing contained in this letter shall constitute a solicitation.

Sincerely,

CALIFORNIA COASTAL COMMUNITIES, INC.

Re: California Coastal Communities, Inc. (the "Company") - Rescheduled
Annual Meeting

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We received your correspondence of June 6th and are not surprised by your decision to advance the Annual Meeting. We are disappointed that we received no response regarding our suggestion that the stockholders be provided an opportunity to vote on engaging an investment bank to sell the Company or the Bolsa Chica property.

We will be soliciting proxies in connection with the rescheduled Annual Meeting to protest the Company's lack of responsiveness to our proposal. In that connection, we have engaged D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist with our limited solicitation of votes to withhold authority for the proposed Board nominees and against the proposed increase in shares underlying the Company's option plan. We believe the outcome of the vote on the Board nominees will go a long way toward determining whether the Company's stockholders are on board with management's plan to develop the Bolsa Chica property or believe, as we do, that the property should be sold.

Nothing contained herein shall constitute a solicitation.

Very truly yours,
