Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On October 2, 2003, we signed a definitive stock purchase agreement to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Royal Robbins, Inc., a privately held California-based casual and outdoor apparel brand. Upon consummation of the acquisition, Royal Robbins would become our wholly-owned subsidiary. The stock is owned by three family trusts controlled by Royal Robbins Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Dan J. Costa, and his immediate family.

Under the terms of the stock purchase agreement, the purchase price for the stock is $6.5 million payable in cash and our common stock, plus earnout cash payments of 25% of Royal Robbins gross profit over its next two fiscal years ending May 31, 2004 and 2005, respectively, so long as minimum thresholds are achieved by the acquired business for each of these fiscal years. The stock portion of the purchase price is payable with $500,000 worth of our common stock based on the average closing price on the American Stock Exchange over the 10 day trading period preceding the second to last day prior to the closing of the acquisition. The purchase price was determined through arms-length negotiations between the parties.

Our pending acquisition of Royal Robbins is subject to financing and other closing conditions. Our lender has provided us with a commitment letter for a new credit facility of $24.75 million, which is subject to closing conditions. This includes the increase of our existing line of credit from $11 million to $18 million, the refinancing of $5.25 million in existing term loans and a new term loan of $1.5 million. We plan to use this increase in our revolving line of credit and the new term loan to pay the cash portion of the purchase price. Although we expect to complete this transaction by the end of October 2003, we can give no assurance that the transaction will be completed at that time, or at all.

Should the Royal Robbins acquisition be consummated, it would mark our entry into the men's and women's apparel category, and elevate us into a full-scale men's and women's footwear and apparel company with an emphasis on classic, comfortable footwear and outerwear brands.
