Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously reported, on November 17, 2006, BioMed Realty Trust, Inc. ( BioMed ), through its subsidiary BMR-Blackfan Circle LLC, entered into a secured acquisition and construction loan (the Loan ) with KeyBank National Association ( KeyBank ), as administrative agent, and certain other lenders, to provide borrowings of up to approximately $550 million in connection with the acquisition of the Center for Life Science Boston. BioMed initially borrowed approximately $266 million under the Loan.

On December 21, 2006, BioMed and KeyBank entered into an amended and restated secured acquisition and construction loan (the Amended Loan ), which modified the Loan by, among other things, (1) creating four tranches of notes, Tranches A, B-1, B-2 and C, (2) syndicating the Loan among certain other lenders and (3) revising certain restrictions and covenants set forth in the Loan. The notes provide borrowings of up to approximately $550 million and bear interest at a blended rate equal to, at BioMed s option, either (a) LIBOR plus approximately 122.5 basis points or (b) the higher of (i) the prime rate then in effect, or (ii) the federal funds rate then in effect plus 50 basis points. The Amended Loan has a maturity date of November 16, 2009 and is secured by the Center for Life Science Boston property and any related collateral. BioMed, at its sole discretion, may extend the maturity date of the Amended Loan for an additional one year after satisfying certain conditions.

The Amended Loan includes certain revised restrictions and covenants, which limit, among other things, the incurrence of additional indebtedness and liens. The Amended Loan also requires compliance with financial covenants relating to the minimum amounts of net worth, fixed charge coverage and leverage ratio. The Amended Loan specifies a number of events of default (some of which are subject to applicable cure periods), including, among others, the failure to make payments when due, noncompliance with covenants and defaults under other agreements or instruments of indebtedness. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the lenders may terminate the Amended Loan and declare all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable.

The foregoing description of the Amended Loan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the amended and restated loan agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report, and incorporated herein by reference.
