Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 30, 2009, Steak n Shake Operations, Inc., an Indiana corporation (the “Company”), entered into a Credit Agreement with Fifth Third Bank. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Steak n Shake Company (the “Registrant”).

The Credit Agreement (the “Agreement”) extends to the Company a $20 million revolving credit facility available for working capital and general corporate purposes. The new credit facility matures on February 15, 2011. The Agreement replaces the Registrant’s previous $20 million credit facility with Fifth Third Bank, amended July 8, 2009, which was due to expire in January 2010. The Registrant did not incur any early termination penalties on the cessation of the previous credit facility. The outstanding balance on the concluded facility has been assumed under the Agreement.

Outstanding borrowings under the Agreement generally will bear interest at the London Interbank Offered Rate plus 2.75%. To secure its obligations under the new credit facility, the Company has granted to Fifth Third Bank a security interest in its deposit accounts, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, general intangibles, chattel paper, software, and all other personal property.

The Registrant and two of its other subsidiaries — Steak n Shake Enterprises, Inc., an Indiana corporation, and Steak n Shake, LLC, an Indiana limited liability company, each has agreed to guarantee the Company’s obligations under the Agreement. If the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the Company’s fiscal year ending September 30, 2009 show no material adverse change in the Company’s financial condition or prospects, Fifth Third Bank has agreed to release the Registrant’s guaranty upon receipt of audited financial statements of the Company. The obligations of each of the guarantors are secured by a security interest on substantially all of the guarantor’s personal property.

Because the Registrant now operates as a holding company, the purpose of the new agreement is to limit (upon the receipt of audited financial statements of the Company) the obligation of the revolving credit facility at the subsidiary level. The Registrant, which is the parent company, will no longer be subject to prior limitations on its investments.

The aforementioned description of the Agreement does not constitute a complete summary of its terms and conditions. Reference is made to the complete text of the Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. A copy of the Credit Agreement is filed as an exhibit to this report and is incorporated by reference in Items 1.01, 1.02, and 2.03.
