ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
APRIL 19, 2002

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Banner Corporation ("Company") to be used at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders ("Annual Meeting") of the Company. The Company is the holding company for Banner Bank (sometimes referred to herein as the "Bank"). The Annual Meeting will be held at the Elks Lodge at 351 E. Rose Street, Walla Walla, Washington, on Friday, April 19, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., local time. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card are being first mailed to shareholders on or about March 22, 2002.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURE

Shareholders Entitled to Vote. Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 1, 2002 are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock ("Common Stock") of the Company then held. As of March 1, 2002, the Company had 11,598,103 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding.

If you are a beneficial owner of Company Common Stock held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), you will need proof of ownership to be admitted to the Annual Meeting. A recent brokerage statement or letter from a bank or broker are examples of proof of ownership. If you want to vote your shares of Company Common Stock held in street name in person at the Annual Meeting, you will have to get a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank or other nominee who holds your shares.

Quorum. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. Broker non-votes will be considered shares present and will be included in determining whether a quorum is present.

Voting. The Board of Directors solicits proxies so that each shareholder has the opportunity to vote on the proposals to be considered at the Annual Meeting. When a proxy card is returned properly signed and dated, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. If a shareholder of record attends the Annual Meeting, he or she may vote by ballot. The Board recommends a vote:

- FOR the election of the nominees for director; and
- FOR the approval of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as independent auditors.

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. Shareholders are not permitted to cumulate their votes for the election of directors. Votes may be cast for or withheld from each nominee. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election because the nominees receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected. In voting on the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as independent auditors, you may vote in favor of the proposal, vote against the proposal or abstain from voting. This matter will be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting. However, abstentions will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Revocation of a Proxy. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time before they are voted. Proxies may be revoked by written notice delivered in person or mailed to the Secretary of the Company or by filing a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Annual Meeting. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not automatically revoke a proxy, but a shareholder of record in attendance may request a ballot and vote in person, thereby revoking a prior granted proxy.

If your Company Common Stock is held in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to have your shares voted. Your broker or bank may allow you to deliver your voting instructions via the telephone or the Internet. Please see the instruction form that accompanies this proxy statement. If you wish to change your voting instructions after you have returned your voting instruction form to your broker or bank, you must contact your broker or bank.

Participants in the Banner Corporation ESOP. If a shareholder is a participant in the Banner Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the "ESOP"), the proxy card represents a voting instruction to the trustees of the ESOP as to the number of shares in the participant's plan account. Each participant in the ESOP may direct the trustees as to the manner in which shares of Common Stock allocated to the participant's plan account are to be voted. The instructions are confidential and will not be disclosed to the Company. Unallocated shares of Common Stock held by the ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received will be voted by the trustees in the same proportion as shares for which the trustees have received voting instructions.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Persons and groups who beneficially own in excess of 5% of the Company's Common Stock are required to file certain reports disclosing such ownership pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"). Based on such reports, the following table sets forth, as of February 1, 2002, certain information as to those persons who were beneficial owners of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. To the Company's knowledge, no other person or entity beneficially owned more than 5% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock as of February 1, 2002.

The following table also sets forth, as of February 1, 2002, information as to the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by (a) each director, (b) each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table contained in this Proxy Statement (the "named executive officers") and (c) all executive officers and directors of the Company as a group.

Officers of the Company or its subsidiaries who are also directors do not receive any fee or remuneration for services as members of the Board of Directors or of any committee of the Board of Directors.

In order to encourage the retention of qualified directors, the Company has entered into deferred fee agreements whereby directors may defer all or a portion of their regular fees until retirement. Each director may direct the investment of the deferred fees toward the purchase of life insurance or the Company's Common Stock. The Company has established a grantor trust to hold the Common Stock investments. The assets of the trust are considered part of the Company's general assets and the directors have the status of unsecured creditors of the Company with respect to the trust assets. The deferred fee agreements provide pre-retirement death and disability benefits in an amount based on the value of the director's account balance upon the occurrence of either event. At retirement, a director may elect to receive the balance of his account in a lump sum or in annual installments over a period not exceeding the life expectancy of the director and his beneficiary. - (5) Mr. Meikle resigned as President of Banner Bank effective January 31, 2002. On February 11, 2002, D. Michael Jones was selected by the Board of Directors to become the President and Chief Executive Officer of Banner Bank and a director of the Company and Bank.

- (1) Each option grant reported in the table vests at the rate of 20% per annum. Options will become immediately exercisable in the event of a change in control of the Company.
- (2) The dollar gains under these columns result from calculations required by the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") rules and are not intended to forecast future price appreciation of the Common Stock of the Company. It is important to note that options have value to the listed executives only if the stock price increases above the exercise price shown in the table during the effective option period. In order for the listed executives to realize the potential values set forth in the 5% and 10% columns in the table, the price per share of the Company's Common Stock would be approximately $26.75 and $42.60, respectively, as of the expiration of the options granted on December 19, 2001.
- (3) Mr. Meikle resigned as President of Banner Bank effective January 31, 2002.

Option Exercise/Value Table. The following information with respect to options exercised during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and remaining unexercised at the end of the fiscal year, is presented for the named executive officers.

Name	Shares Acquired on Exercise(#)	Value Realized($)	Number of Securities Underlying Unexercised Options at Fiscal Year End		Value of Unexercised In-the-Money Options at Fiscal Year End ($)(1)

- (1) Value of unexercised in-the-money options equals market value of shares covered by in-the-money options on December 31, 2001 less the option exercise price. Options are in-the-money if the market value of the shares covered by the options is greater than the option exercise price.
- (2) Mr. Meikle resigned as President of Banner Bank effective January 31, 2002.

Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers. The Company entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen and Baker (individually, the "Executive") on July 1, 1998 and with Mr. Jones (also, the "Executive") on February 11, 2002. The agreements provide that the Executive's base salary is subject to annual review. The current base salaries for Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen, Baker and Jones, are $350,000, $160,451, participation in the employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits applicable to executive personnel. The initial three-year term of each agreement may be extended annually for an additional year at the discretion of the Board of Directors of Banner Bank and the agreements for Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen and Baker were extended on July 1, 2001. The employment of the Executive is terminable at any time for cause as defined in the agreements. In addition, Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen and Baker may be terminated without cause in which case they would continue to receive base salary and other benefits over the remaining term of the agreement. In the event of Mr. Jones's termination without cause, he would continue to receive his base salary over the remaining term of the agreement.

$160,000, and $300,000, respectively. In addition to base salary, the agreements provide for the Executive's

The agreements also provide for the payment of severance benefits to the Executive in the event of his termination of employment following a change in control of Banner Bank or the Company. Such benefits would include a lump sum payment equal to 2.99 times the average of the Executive's five preceding years' compensation and continuation of retirement, life, health, and disability coverage for a three-year period. In the event of a change in control of Banner Bank or the Company, the total cash payment due under the agreements, excluding any benefits payable under any employee benefit plan, would be approximately $2,326,625, $1,114,471, $413,722, and $897,000 for Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen, Baker and Jones, respectively. For purposes of the agreements, "change in control" includes, among other things, a change in control within the meaning of the rules and regulations promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978, the acquisition by any person of securities representing 20% or more of the outstanding securities of Banner Bank or the Company (or 25% or more of the outstanding securities of the Company for Mr. Jones), or a plan of reorganization, merger, consolidation, or sale of substantially all of the assets of Banner Bank or the Company in which Banner Bank or the Company is not the resulting entity.

The agreements restrict the right of the Executive to compete against Banner Bank or the Company for a period of one year following retirement in the area of Walla Walla or any other area in which Banner Bank maintains a full service branch office.

Banner Bank of Oregon (formerly known as Inland Empire Bank) entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Foster on September 30, 1994. The agreement was continued, with certain modifications, following the acquisition of Banner Bank of Oregon by the Company and its merger into Banner Bank. The initial term of the agreement expired on September 30, 1999. The agreement provides for an automatic one-year extension unless either party gives notice of an intention not to renew at least 60 days prior to the expiration date. Mr. Foster's base salary, which is subject to periodic review, is currently $185,000. In the event of Mr. Foster's termination without cause, Banner Bank is obligated to continue his then current salary through the expiration date of the agreement. In the event of Mr. Foster's resignation following a change in control of Banner Bank (as defined in the agreement), Banner Bank is obligated to continue his base salary for a 12 month period but, in any event, not longer than the expiration date of the agreement. The agreement restricts Mr. Foster's ability to compete with Banner Bank within a 50-mile radius of the former Banner Bank of Oregon's main and branch office locations during any period in which he is receiving compensation payments from Banner Bank.

Towne Bank, the Company, and the Bank had entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Meikle on April 1, 1998, which agreement provided for an initial term of three years and automatic one-year extensions, on substantially similar terms to the agreements for Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen and Baker. Mr. Meikle's employment agreement was terminated upon his voluntary resignation, effective January 31, 2002. In connection with his resignation, the Bank authorized severance compensation payable to Mr. Meikle for one year (through January 31, 2003) at his then-current salary of $225,000, payable monthly. Each payment is subject to all applicable federal and state withholding obligations. As a condition of payment, Mr. Meikle has agreed not to solicit any of the Bank's employees or customers for the period through July 31, 2002. The Bank released Mr. Meikle from the non-competition covenant in his employment agreement.

Salary Continuation and Deferred Compensation Agreements. Banner Bank has entered into salary continuation agreements with Messrs. Sirmon and Larsen (individually, the "Executive") to ensure their continued service with Banner Bank through retirement. Banner Bank has purchased life insurance to finance the benefits payable under the agreements. Assuming that the Executive remains in the employ of Banner Bank to age 65, the agreements provide for monthly payments over a minimum of a 180-month period following retirement. The annual payment for Messrs. Sirmon and Larsen would be $112,000 and $64,000, respectively. In the event of the Executive's termination of employment by reason of death or disability prior to age 65, the salary continuation benefit would be payable to the Executive or his designated beneficiary.

Edgar Filing: BANNER CORP - Form DEF 14A

For 1994 and subsequent years, Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits to $150,000 (indexed) per employee the amount of compensation that is considered for purposes of determining the maximum contribution to Banner Bank's tax-qualified profit sharing plan on behalf of each eligible employee. Banner Bank credits certain executive officers whose total compensation exceeds $150,000 with additional deferred compensation to restore amounts that may not be contributed to the profit sharing plan as a consequence of the Section 401(a)(17) limitation. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, $16,953 was credited as deferred compensation for Mr. Sirmon; $2,051 was credited as deferred compensation for Mr. Foster; $379 was credited as deferred compensation for Mr. Baker; $1,212 was credited as deferred compensation for Mr. Larsen; and $6,990 was credited as deferred compensation for Mr. Meikle.

Banner Bank of Oregon entered into an agreement with Mr. Foster to provide him with supplemental retirement benefits. The agreement was continued, with certain modifications, following the acquisition of Banner Bank of Oregon by the Company and its merger into Banner Bank. The agreement provides that, following Mr. Foster's retirement at or after attaining age 62 (or in the event of his prior death or disability) and for a 12-year period thereafter, Banner Bank will pay him (or his beneficiary) an annual benefit equal to 40 percent of his average annual salary during the three years preceding his retirement. In the event of his termination of employment prior to age 62, Mr. Foster's benefits would be deferred until age 62. The agreement also restricts Mr. Foster's ability to compete with the Bank within a 50-mile radius of the former Banner Bank of Oregon's main and branch office locations for a one-year period following his termination of employment.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Program. The Company has adopted a Supplemental Executive Retirement Program ("SERP") for selected senior executives, including Messrs. Sirmon, Larsen, and Baker (individually, the "Executive") and Mr. Meikle, former President of the Bank until his resignation, effective January 31, 2002. At termination of employment at or after attaining age 62 with at least 15 years of service, the Executive's annual benefit under the SERP would be computed as the product of 3% of the Executive's final average compensation (defined as the three calendar years of Executive's annual cash compensation, including bonuses, which produce the highest average within the Executive's final eight full calendar years of employment) and the Executive's annual years of service, reduced by certain amounts, such as the amount payable to the Executive under the Company's 401(k) profit sharing plan and its ESOP, employer-contributed deferred compensation, and any amount payable to an Executive under the salary continuation agreements described above. The maximum benefit would be 60% of final average compensation, less applicable reductions. A reduced benefit is payable at termination of employment at or after attaining age 59½ with at least 15 years of service. At December 31, 2001, none of the named executive officers were eligible for benefits under the SERP. At December 31, 2001, the estimated annual benefit payable to Messrs. Sirmon and Baker upon normal retirement would be approximately $72,916 and $69,343, respectively, and there would be no annual benefit payable to Mr. Larsen. Mr. Meikle forfeited any rights he may have had under the SERP upon his resignation, effective January 31, 2002.

Independence and Other Matters. Each member of the Audit Committee is "independent," as defined, in the case of the Company, under The Nasdaq Stock Market Rules. The Audit Committee members do not have any relationship to the Company that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company. None of the Audit Committee members are current officers or employees of the Company or its affiliates.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE MATTERS

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, in whole or in part, the following Report of the Compensation Committee and Performance Graph shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings.

Report of the Compensation Committee. Under rules established by the SEC, the Company is required to provide certain data and information in regard to the compensation and benefits provided to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers. The disclosure requirements for the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers include the use of tables and a report explaining the rationale and considerations that led to the fundamental executive compensation decisions affecting those individuals. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and monitoring compensation policies of the Company and for reviewing and ratifying the actions of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Banner Bank. Performance is evaluated and salaries are set by the Compensation Committee of the Bank.

General. The Bank's Compensation Committee's duties are to recommend and administer policies that govern executive compensation. The Committee evaluates individual executive performance, compensation policies and salaries. The Committee is responsible for evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer of the Bank while the Chief Executive Officer of the Bank evaluates the performance of other senior officers of the Bank and makes recommendations to the Committee regarding compensation levels. The Committee has final authority to set compensation levels.

Compensation Policies. The executive compensation policy of the Bank is designed to establish an appropriate relationship between executive pay and the Company's and the Bank's annual performance, to reflect the attainment of short- and long-term financial performance goals and to enhance the ability of the Company and the Bank to attract and retain qualified executive officers. The principles underlying the executive compensation policies include the following:

- To attract and retain key executives who are vital to the long-term success of the Company and the Bank and are of the highest caliber;
- To provide levels of compensation competitive with those offered throughout the financial industry and consistent with the Company's and the Bank's level of performance;
- To motivate executives to enhance long-term shareholder value by building their equity interest in the Company; and
- To integrate the compensation program with the Company's and the Bank's annual and long-term strategic planning and performance measurement processes.

The Committee considers a variety of subjective and objective factors in determining the compensation package for individual executives including: (1) the performance of the Company and the Bank as a whole with emphasis on annual performance factors and long-term objectives; (2) the responsibilities assigned to each executive; and (3) the performance of each executive of assigned responsibilities as measured by the progress of the Company and the Bank during the year.

Base Salary. The Bank's current compensation plan involves a combination of salary, at-risk incentives to reward short-term performance, stock options to reward long-term performance and deferred compensation. The salary levels of executive officers are designed to be competitive within the banking and financial services industries. In setting competitive salary levels, the Compensation Committee continually evaluates current salary levels by surveying similar institutions in Washington, Oregon, the Northwest and the United States. The Committee's peer group analysis focuses on asset size, nature of ownership, type of operation and other common factors. Specifically, the Committee annually reviews the Northwest Financial Industry Salary Survey prepared by Milliman USA (actuaries and consultants) in association with the Washington Bankers Association, the Washington Financial League and the Oregon Bankers Association, covering 140 Northwest financial organizations, the America's Community Bankers' Compensation Survey which covers 458 responding financial institutions, the Moss Adams Pacific Northwest Bankers' Compensation Survey covering 72 respondents in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, the Watson Wyatt Survey of Top Management Compensation, and an individualized review of executive compensation prepared by Watson Wyatt.

Incentive (at-risk) Compensation Program. A short-term incentive plan is in effect for the officers of the Bank which is designed to compensate for performance. The plan is designed to provide for incentive compensation of up to 35% of salary for the chief executive officer, up to 25% of salary for executive vice presidents, up to 20% of salary for senior vice presidents and up to 15% of salary for vice presidents and certain other officers. In certain circumstances, incentive compensation may be payable at higher levels based on exceptional performance in excess of established targets. The performance incentive is based primarily on quantifiable data such as return on assets, return on equity, loan and deposit growth, asset quality and level of operating expenses. Subjective evaluation of performance is limited.

Deferred Compensation. To the extent that executive officers' contributions to Banner Bank's retirement programs are limited by applicable law, Banner Bank credits each affected executive with deferred compensation in the amount of the additional annual contribution the executive would have received if such limits were not applicable.

Long Term Incentive Compensation. The Company, with shareholder approval, on July 26, 1996, adopted the 1996 Management Recognition and Development Plan and the 1996 Stock Option Plan, on July 24, 1998, the 1998 Stock Option Plan, and on April 20, 2001, the 2001 Stock Option Plan, under which officers may receive grants and awards. The Company believes that stock ownership by the Company's and the Bank's officers is a significant factor in aligning the interests of the officers with those of shareholders. Stock options and stock awards under such plans were allocated based upon regulatory practices and policies, the practices of other recently converted financial institutions as verified by external surveys and based upon the officers' level of responsibility and contributions to the Company and the Bank. The Company also provides a 401(k) profit sharing plan. A committee appointed by the Board of Directors administers the 401(k) profit sharing plan and the named executive officers participate in the 401(k) profit sharing plan.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer.

During the calendar year ended December 31, 2001, the base salary of Gary Sirmon, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and then Chief Executive Officer of Banner Bank, was $325,000. In addition, he received incentive compensation of $125,170, which was accrued during the calendar year ended December 31, 2000 but was paid in January 2001, and was credited with $60,089 in other compensation (comprised of Deferred Compensation - $41,953, Employees' Stock Ownership Plan - $10,200, and 401(k) contribution - $7,936). This resulted in total compensation of $510,259, which represents a 7.2% increase from the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2000. The Committee believes that Mr. Sirmon's compensation is appropriate based on the Company's overall compensation policy, on the basis of the Committee's consideration of peer group data, and the financial performance of the Company during the fiscal year.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Federal regulations require that all loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors of insured financial institutions must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, except for loans made pursuant to programs generally available to all employees, and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. The Company's subsidiary financial institution is therefore prohibited from making any new loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors at different rates or terms than those offered to the general public, except for loans made pursuant to programs generally available to all employees, and has adopted a policy to this effect. In addition, loans made to a director or executive officer in an amount that, when aggregated with the amount of all other loans to such person and his or her related interests, are in excess of the greater of $25,000 or 5% of the institution's capital and surplus (up to a maximum of $500,000) must be approved in advance by a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors.

Ms. Margaret C. Langlie, a director of the Company, is an attorney and is a partner with her spouse in the Woodinville, Washington law firm of Langlie & Goddu. The law firm handles various legal matters for the Company and the Bank. As counsel for the Company and the Bank for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, Langlie & Goddu was paid approximately $324,000 in legal fees and expense reimbursement. Ms. Langlie abstains from voting upon, evaluation of, or discussion regarding the firm's legal services. She does not personally perform any legal services for the Company or the Bank.

A representative of Deloitte & Touche LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting to respond to stockholders' questions and will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires.

All Other Fees

Other than audit fees, the aggregate fees billed to the Company by Deloitte & Touche for fiscal 2001, none of which were financial information systems design and implementation fees, were $37,000, including audit-related services of approximately $26,000 and non-audit services of $11,000. Audit-related services generally include fees for consents and other attestation reports. The Audit Committee of the Board
