Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

We cordially invite you to attend the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Greenville First Bancshares, Inc., the holding company for Greenville First Bank. At the meeting, we will report on our performance in 2002 and answer your questions. We are excited about our accomplishments in 2002 and look forward to discussing both our accomplishments and our future plans with you. We hope that you can attend the meeting and look forward to seeing you there.

This letter serves as your official notice that we will hold the meeting on May 14, 2003 at the bank's main office location at 112 Haywood Road, Greenville, South Carolina at 4:30 p.m. for the following purposes:

1. To elect four members to the Board of Directors; and
2. To transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.

Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on April 1, 2003 are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. A complete list of these shareholders will be available at the company's offices prior to the meeting. Please note, if your shares are held in "street name," you will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds your shares in order to vote at our annual meeting.

Please use this opportunity to take part in the affairs of your company by voting on the business to come before this meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, we encourage you to complete and return the enclosed proxy to us as promptly as possible.

Proxy Statement for Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be Held on May 14, 2003

Our Board of Directors is soliciting proxies for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement contains important information for you to consider when deciding how to vote on the matters brought before the meeting. We encourage you to read it carefully.

Voting Information

The Board set April 1, 2003 as the record date for the meeting. Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on that date are entitled to vote and to attend the meeting, with each share entitled to one vote. If you are a registered shareholder who wishes to vote at our annual meeting, you may do so by delivering your proxy card in person at the meeting. "Street name" shareholders who wish to vote at our annual meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares. There were 1,150,000 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

When you sign the proxy card, you appoint James B. Orders, III and Mr. Fred Gilmer, Jr. as your representatives at the meeting. Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy as you have instructed them on the proxy card. If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy for the election to the board of directors of all nominees listed below under "Election of Directors." We are not aware of any other matters to be considered at the meeting. However, if any other matters come before the meeting, Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by signing and delivering another proxy with a later date or by voting in person at the meeting. Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies that brokers do not vote on some proposals but that they do vote on others are referred to as "broker non-votes" with respect to the proposals not voted upon. A broker non-vote does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority. In addition, if a shareholder abstains from voting on a particular proposal, the abstention does not count as a vote in favor of or against the proposal.

We are paying for the costs of preparing and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing brokers and others for their expenses of forwarding copies of the proxy materials to our shareholders. Upon written or oral request, we will promptly deliver a separate copy of our annual report, our annual report on Form 10-KSB, or this proxy statement to our shareholders at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered. Our officers and employees may assist in soliciting proxies but will not receive additional compensation for doing so. We are distributing this proxy statement on or about April 14, 2003.

Proposal No. 1: Election of Directors

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes with staggered terms, so that the terms of only approximately one-third of the Board members expire at each annual meeting. The current terms of the Class I directors will expire at the meeting. The terms of the Class II directors expire at the 2004 Annual Shareholders Meeting. The terms of the Class III directors will expire at the 2005 Annual Shareholders Meeting. Our directors and their classes are:

Class I -----	Class II -----	Class III -----
Mark A. Cothran	Leighton M. Cabbage	Andrew B. Cajka
Rudolph G. Johnstone, III, M.D.	David G. Ellison	Anne S. Ellefson
Keith J. Marrero	James B. Orders, III	Fred Gilmer, Jr.
R. Arthur Seaver, Jr.	William B. Sturgis	Tecumseh Hooper, Jr.

Shareholders will elect four nominees as Class I directors at the meeting to serve a three-year term, expiring at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting. This means that the four nominees receiving the highest number of votes will be elected.

The board of directors recommends that you elect Mark A. Cothran, Rudolph G. Johnstone, III, M.D., Keith J. Marrero, and R. Arthur Seaver, Jr. as Class I directors.

If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy to elect Messrs. Cothran, Marrero, and Seaver and Dr. Johnstone. If any of these nominees is unable or fails to accept nomination or election (which we do not anticipate), Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote instead for a replacement to be recommended by the board of directors, unless you specifically instruct otherwise in the proxy.

Set forth below is certain information about the nominees. Each of the nominees is also a director and organizer of our subsidiary, Greenville First Bank:

Mark A. Cothran, 45, Class I director, is the president and owner of Cothran Properties, LLC, a real estate development company in Greenville, South Carolina. He has been with Cothran Properties, LLC since 1986. Mr. Cothran received his bachelor degree in finance and banking from the University of South Carolina in 1980 and is a licensed real estate broker in the State of South Carolina. He currently serves on the National Business Park Forum of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) and is past president of the state chapter of NAIOP. He has served on the board of directors of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce and on the Advisory Board of Greenville National Bank and is currently a member of the Chamber's Economic Development Board.

Rudolph "Trip" G. Johnstone, III, M.D., 42, Class I director, is a physician who has practiced with the Cross Creek Asthma, Allergy and Immunology medical clinic, since 1992. He graduated from Washington & Lee University in 1982 with a degree in biology and from the Medical University of South Carolina in 1986. Dr. Johnstone served on the consulting board to Greenville National Bank from 1995 until 1998, when it was acquired by Regions Bank. Employment Agreements

We have entered into an employment agreement with Art Seaver on July 27, 1999, for an annually renewing three-year term, pursuant to which he serves as the president, the chief executive officer, and a director of both our company and our subsidiary bank. Mr. Seaver was paid an initial salary of $123,000, plus his yearly medical insurance premium. He also receives an annual increase in his salary equal to the previous year's salary times the increase in the Consumer Price Index during the previous year. The board of directors may increase Mr. Seaver's salary above this level, but not below it. He is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 5% of the net pre-tax income of our bank, if the bank meets performance goals set by the board. He is also eligible to participate in any management incentive program of the bank or any long-term equity incentive program and is eligible for grants of stock options and other awards thereunder. Mr. Seaver was granted options to purchase a number of shares of common stock equal to 5% of the number of shares sold in offering, or 57,500 shares. These options vest over a five-year period beginning on the first anniversary of the bank's opening and have a term of ten years. Additionally, Mr. Seaver participates in the bank's retirement, welfare, and other benefit programs and is entitled to a life insurance policy and an accident liability policy and reimbursement for automobile expenses, club dues, and travel and business expenses.

Mr. Seaver's employment agreement also provides that following termination of his employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter, he may not (a) compete with the company, the bank, or any of its affiliates by, directly or indirectly, forming, serving as an organizer, director or officer of, or consultant to, or acquiring or maintaining more than 1% passive investment in, a depository financial institution or holding company thereof if such depository institution or holding company has one or more offices or branches within radius of thirty miles from the main office of the company or any branch office of the company, (b) solicit major customers of the bank for the purpose of providing financial services, or (c) solicit employees of the bank for employment. If Mr. Seaver terminates his employment for good cause as that term is defined in the employment agreement or if he is terminated following a change in control of Greenville First Bancshares as defined in the agreement, he will be entitled to severance compensation of his then current monthly salary for a period of 12 months, plus accrued bonus, and all outstanding options and incentives shall vest immediately.

Director Compensation

In 2002, we paid each of our ten outside directors $200 for each board meeting they attended and $50 for each committee meeting they attended. Beginning in 2003, we plan to pay our outside directors $300 for each board meeting they attend and $150 for each committee meeting they attend.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2002, the board of directors of the company held 12 meetings and the board of directors of the bank held 12 meetings. All of the directors of the company and the bank attended at least 75% of the aggregate of such board meetings and the meetings of each committee on which they served.

The company's board of directors has appointed four committees, including an audit, personnel, nominating, and finance committee. The audit committee is composed of Mr. Cajka, Mr. Hooper, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Marrero, Mr. Sturgis, and Mr. Cabbage. Each of these members is considered "independent" under Rule 4200(a)(14) of the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards. The audit committee met two times in 2002. The audit committee functions are set forth in its charter, which was adopted in September 19, 2000. The audit committee has the responsibility of reviewing financial statements, evaluating internal accounting controls, reviewing reports of regulatory authorities, and determining that all audits and examinations required by law are performed. The committee recommends to the board the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor's audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management's responses. The audit committee is responsible for overseeing the entire audit function and appraising the effectiveness of internal and external audit efforts. The audit committee reports its findings to the board of directors.

The personnel committee is composed of Mr. Sturgis, Mr. Cothran, Mr. Cabbage, Dr. Johnstone, Mr. Ellison, Mr. Seaver, and Mr. Marrero. The personnel committee met two times in 2002. The personnel committee has the responsibility of approving the compensation plan for the entire bank and specific compensation for all executive officers. The personnel committee reviews all benefit plans and annually reviews the performance of the chief executive officer.

The finance committee is composed of Mr. Orders, Mr. Cajka, Mr. Cothran, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Ellison, Mr. Gilmer, Mr. Hooper, Dr. Johnstone and Mr. Seaver. The finance committee met eleven times in 2002. The finance committee has the responsibility of reviewing the loan policy, investment policy, and the bank's asset/liability structure.

The nominating committee is composed of Mr. Cajka, Ms. Ellefson, and Mr. Hooper. The nominating committee met once in 2003. The nominating committee recommends nominees for election to the Board. The committee is comprised entirely of independent directors. The committee will consider nominees recommended by shareholders if proposals are submitted in accordance with the procedures set forth in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Shareholder Proposals for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders."

Report of The Audit Committee of the Board

The report of the audit committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the company specifically incorporates the information contained in the report by reference, and shall not be deemed filed under such acts.

The audit committee reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements. The audit committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 ("Independence Discussions with Audit Committees") and discussed with the independent auditors the independent auditor's independence from the company and its management. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the audit committee recommended to our board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on SEC Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the SEC.

The report of the audit committee is included herein at the direction of its members Mr. Cajka, Mr. Hooper, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Marrero, Mr. Sturgis, and Mr. Cabbage.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by the independent auditors during our 2002 fiscal year for audit of our annual financial statements and review of those financial statements included in our quarterly reports filed on SEC Form 10-QSB totaled approximately $20,100.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

We did not engage the independent auditors to provide, and the independent auditors did not bill for, professional services regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the year ended December 31, 2002.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed for non-audit services rendered by the independent auditors during the company's fiscal year totaled $3,000. Non-audit services included income tax return preparation. The audit committee believes that the provision of those services is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Interests of Management and Others in Certain Transactions

We enter into banking and other transactions in the ordinary course of business with our directors and officers of the company and the bank and their affiliates. It is our policy that these transactions be on substantially the same terms (including price, or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. We do not expect these transactions to involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features to us. Loans to individual directors and officers must also comply with our bank's lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of the loan application. We intend for all of our transactions with our affiliates to be on terms no less favorable to us than could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party and to be approved by a majority of disinterested directors.

We leased our bank's main facility from Halton Properties, LLC for a term of 20 years beginning in 2001. The lease requires us to make a $27,659 monthly payment for the next year. Mark A. Cothran, one of our directors, is a 50% owner of Halton Properties, LLC. We have conducted two separate appraisals of the lease and the property and believe that the terms of the proposed lease are on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

As required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, our directors, and executive officers and certain other individuals are required to report periodically their ownership of our common stock and any changes in ownership to the SEC. Based on a review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 and any representations made to us, it appears that all such reports for these persons were filed in a timely fashion during 2002, except that a timely filing on Form 4 was not made for Mr. Ellison. He purchased 544 shares in February of 2002 for which we filed a late Form 4 in April of 2002.

Independent Auditors

We have selected the firm of Elliott Davis, LLC to serve as independent auditors to the company for the year ending December 31, 2003. We do not expect a representative of the firm to be present at our annual meeting.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

If shareholders wish a proposal to be included in our proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the 2004 annual meeting, they must deliver a written copy of their proposal to our principal executive offices no later than December 18, 2003. To ensure prompt receipt by the company, the proposal should be sent certified mail, return receipt requested. Proposals must comply with our bylaws relating to shareholder proposals in order to be included in our proxy materials.

Any shareholder proposal to be made at an annual meeting, but which is not requested to be included in the company's proxy materials, must comply with the company's bylaws, including the following requirements: Proposals for director nominations must be delivered to the company's principal executive offices no later than 90 days prior to the annual meeting of shareholders. Other proposals must be delivered between 30 and 60 days prior to the annual meeting. However, if less than 31 days' notice of the meeting is given to shareholders, the notice must be delivered no later than 10 days following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to shareholders.
