Item No. 9

Ministry of Finance has vide its gazette notification dated January 17, 2013 notified the Banking Laws (Amendments) Act, 2012 making certain amendments to the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. In the context of the above, Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide its letter dated October 23, 2013 has advised all private sector banks to make necessary amendments to their Memorandum of Association (MoA) and Articles of Association (AoA) to align these constitutional documents with the provisions of the Banking Laws (Amendments) Act, 2012. Based on the changes to the provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, clauses 56(d) and 113(b) of the AoA are required to be amended to align the same with Banking Law (Amendments) Act, 2012.

Articles 56(d) of the Articles of Association provides that “Acquisition of shares by a person/group which could take in the aggregate his/her/its holding to a level of five per cent or more of the total paid-up capital of the Bank (or such other percentage as may be prescribed by RBI from time to time) should be effected by such buyer(s) after obtaining prior approval of RBI.” Article 56(d) was inserted in the AoA in line with Reserve Bank of India guidelines. It is proposed to amend the clause 56(d) to align the same with the new Section 12B introduced in Banking Regulation Act, 1949 on “Regulation of acquisition of shares or voting rights” which has enhanced the scope of the already existing clause as mentioned above to include the act of acquisition by a person acting in concert, relative and associate enterprise.

Article 113(b) of the Articles of Association provides that on a poll, the voting rights of Members shall be as provided in Section 87 of the Act (Companies Act, 1956), but will be subject to the ceiling of ten per cent of the total voting rights or such other percentage as may be stipulated by Section 12(2) of the Banking Regulation Act. It is proposed to amend Article 113(b) of the AoA to include appropriate cross reference to Section 47 of Companies Act, 2013 and Section 12(2) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 wherein a new proviso has been inserted and power has been given to RBI to increase, in a phased manner, ceiling on voting rights on poll from ten per cent to twenty six per cent.

The Directors recommend the adoption of the Resolution at Item No. 9 of the Notice.

No Director, Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives are in any way concerned or interested in the Resolution at Item No. 9 of the Notice.

Item No. 10 & 11

Section 180 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) (corresponding to Section 293 of the Companies Act, 1956) has been notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) with effect from September 12, 2013. In terms of Section 180(1) (c) which corresponds to Section 293 (1) (d) of the Companies Act, 1956 read with Articles 83 to 88 of the Articles of Association of the Company, borrowings by the Company (apart from the deposits accepted in the ordinary course of business by the Company, temporary loans repayable on demand or within six months from the date of the loan, and temporary loans, if any, obtained from the Company’s bankers, other than loans raised for the purpose of financing expenditure of a capital nature), in excess of the paid-up capital of the Company and its free reserves, require the approval of the Members by way of special resolution.

The Members at the thirteenth Annual General Meeting held on July 21, 2007 had approved the borrowing of sums not exceeding Rs. 200,000 crore (Rupees two hundred thousand crore) under Section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956.

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) has vide its circular dated March 25, 2014 clarified that the resolution passed under Section 293 of the Companies Act, 1956 prior to September 12, 2013 with reference to borrowings (subject to the limits prescribed) and / or creation of security on assets of the Company will be effective for a period of one year from the date of notification of Section 180 of the Act which would be September 11, 2014.

Pursuant to the above clarification, it is proposed to seek a fresh approval of the Members under Section 180 of the Companies Act, 2013. The balance sheet size and net worth of the Company has increased significantly since the last revision of the borrowing limit on July 21, 2007. Considering the substantial growth in business and operations of the Company, present and future requirements, your approval is being sought to increase the borrowing limits from Rs. 200,000 crore (Rupees two hundred thousand crore) to Rs. 250,000 crore (Rupees two hundred and fifty thousand crore). The outstanding borrowings as on March 31, 2014 for the purpose of section 180(1)(c) of the Act stood at around Rs. 133,500 crore (Rupees one hundred and thirty three thousand five hundred crore)

Section 42 of the Companies Act, 2013 and its underlying rules i.e. Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014 provide that a Company shall make a private placement of its securities only if the proposed offer of securities or invitation to subscribe securities has been previously approved by the Members of the company, by a Special Resolution, for each of the Offers or Invitations. It further provides that in the explanatory statement annexed to the notice for the general meeting the basis or justification for the price (including premium, if any) at which the offer or invitation is being made shall be disclosed. It also provides that in case of offer or invitation for non-convertible debentures, it shall be sufficient if the company passes a previous special resolution only once in a year for all the offers or invitation for such debentures during the year.

In line with the above, the Bank has assessed its fund requirements and it is proposed that the borrowing limits for the purpose of Section 42 read with the rules relating to this Section for borrowing by way of securities including but not limited to bonds and non-convertible debentures (NCDs) be fixed at Rs. 100,000 crore (Rupees one hundred thousand crore). This would form part of the overall borrowing limits under Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013 as mentioned above which is sought to be enhanced to Rs. 250,000 crore (Rupees two hundred and fifty thousand crore). The resolution under Section 42 will be valid for a period of one year from the date of passing this resolution. The pricing of the securities including but not limited to bonds and non-convertible debentures (NCDs) depends primarily upon the rates prevailing for risk free instruments, rates on other competing instruments of similar rating and tenor in the domestic or overseas markets, investor appetite for such instruments and investor regulations which enable investments in such instruments. Accordingly, during the validity of this resolution, the Bank proposes to issue securities including but not limited to bonds and non-convertible debentures (NCDs) by way of private placement at upto 300 basis point (bps) above the benchmark interest rates for issuances in rupee market and upto 500 bps above the benchmark interest rates for the respective risk category for issuance in foreign currency market. The pricing for each of the issuance/program would be approved by the Board or Committee of Board.
