DIRECTOR NOMINATION PROCESS

Director Qualifications. Nominees for director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their careers; broad experience; education; independence under applicable Nasdaq Stock Market and SEC rules; financial expertise; integrity; financial integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board of Directors and committee duties. Nominees should also have experience in the retail industry and knowledge about the issues affecting the retail industry. Finally, the proposed nominee should be free of conflicts of interest that could prevent such nominee from acting in the best interest of shareholders. Additional special criteria apply to directors being considered to serve on a particular committee of the Board of Directors. For example, members of the Audit Committee must meet additional standards of independence and have the ability to read and understand our financial statements.

Director Nominee Selection Process. In the case of an incumbent director whose term of office expires, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews such director's service to us during the past term, including, but not limited to, the number of board and committee meetings attended, as applicable, quality of participation and whether the candidate continues to meet the general qualifications for a director outlined above, including the director's independence, as well as any special qualifications required for membership on any committees on which such director serves.

In the case of a new director candidate, the selection process for director candidates includes the following steps:

- o identification of director candidates by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee based upon suggestions from current directors and executives and recommendations received from shareholders;
- o possible engagement of a director search firm;
- o interviews of candidates by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee;
- o reports to the Board of Directors by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee on the selection process;

Edgar Filing: A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc. - Form 10-K/A

- o recommendations by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee; and
- o formal nominations by the Board of Directors for inclusion in the slate of directors at the annual meeting.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider recommending properly submitted shareholder nominations for director candidates. Director candidates recommended by shareholders are given the same consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as candidates suggested by directors and executive officers.

Consideration of Director Candidates Recommended by Shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective director nominee should submit their recommendation to the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance

6

Committee in writing c/o A.C. Moore Arts & Crafts, Inc., 130 A.C. Moore Drive, Berlin, New Jersey 08009. The following information must be included in or attached to the letter:

- o a description of all arrangements and understandings between the shareholder and each recommended nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the recommendation was made by the shareholder;
- o such other information regarding each recommended nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC if the nominee were to be nominated by the Board of Directors; and
- o the consent of each recommended nominee to serve as a director of us if so nominated and elected.

Shareholder recommendations of director nominees for our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders must be received not less than 120 calendar days before the date of our proxy statement relating to our 2006 annual meeting of shareholders. All shareholder recommendations which are late will be rejected.

In addition, under our bylaws, shareholders are permitted to nominate directors to be elected at a meeting of shareholders by providing notice and the other required information specified in the bylaws. 2006 BONUS PLAN

On February 20, 2006, the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors approved the 2006 Bonus Plan, which is not set forth in a written agreement, for certain management-level employees, including the Named Executive Officers. Under the 2006 Bonus Plan, if we achieve certain pre-tax profit targets approved by the Compensation Committee, we will pay bonuses to eligible participants at pre-determined amounts which increase as our pre-tax profit increases. The amounts paid to eligible participants vary based upon that participant's job responsibility. The pre-tax profit targets approved by the Compensation Committee are based on our net income.

2005 BONUS PLAN

On April 19, 2005, the Compensation Committee approved the 2005 Bonus Plan, which is not set forth in a written agreement, for certain management-level employees, including the Named Executive Officers. Under the 2005 Bonus Plan, if the Company achieved certain pre-tax profit targets approved by the Compensation Committee, the Company would pay bonuses to eligible participants at pre-determined amounts which increase as the Company's pre-tax profit increases. approved by the Compensation Committee.

SEVERANCE ARRANGEMENT

We have agreed to pay Mr. Gordon a sum equal to one year of his then current salary if his employment is terminated by us without cause.

STOCK OPTION PLANS

Our stock option plans consist of the 2002 Stock Option Plan (the "2002 Plan") and the 1997 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Option Plan (the "1997 Plan") (each, a "Plan" and together, the "Option Plans"). The purpose of the Option Plans is to encourage ownership of the Common Stock by our employees and directors (and by certain consultants in the case of the 1997 Plan) in order to attract such persons, induce them to work for our benefit and provide additional incentive for them to promote our success. Options granted under each Plan may be incentive stock options intended to qualify under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or options not intended to so qualify, except that incentive stock options may only be granted to employees. The maximum total number of shares of the Common Stock for which awards may be granted under the 2002 Plan and 1997 Plan is 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 shares, respectively, subject to adjustment in a manner determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors to reflect changes in the Common Stock. Payment of the exercise price for options granted under the Option Plans may be made in cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination of both. All options granted pursuant to the Plans are exercisable in accordance with a vesting schedule and prior to an expiration date, each of which are set at the time of the issuance of the option.

As of December 31, 2005, there were options to purchase 858,266 and 626,801 shares of Common Stock outstanding under the 2002 Plan and 1997 Plan, respectively. Shares available for future grants under the 2002 Plan and 1997 Plan amounted to 627,283 and 9,877 shares, respectively, as of December 31, 2005.

All, directors, officers and key employees (and certain consultants in the case of the 1997 Plan) are eligible to receive options under the Option Plans. The Options Plans are administered by the Compensation Committee or, at the option of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may administer the Option Plans. The Compensation Committee approves the optionees and determines the nature of the option granted, the number of shares subject to each option, the option vesting schedule and other terms and conditions of each option. The Compensation Committee may modify or amend each Plan, provided that without the consent of the participant, such action may not affect a participant's rights under previously granted options. With the consent of a participant, the Compensation Committee may amend outstanding options in a manner not inconsistent with the applicable Plan.
