ALZA CORPORATION TAX DEFERRAL INVESTMENT PLAN

We have audited the accompanying statement of net assets available for benefits of the ALZA CORPORATION TAX DEFERRAL INVESTMENT PLAN (the Plan) as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan at December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplemental schedule of assets held for investment purposes as of December 31, 2003 is presented for the purpose of complying with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2003 and 2002

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the ALZA CORPORATION TAX DEFERRAL INVESTMENT PLAN (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan. ALZA Corporation (the Company or ALZA) remits to the Trust created by the Plan such amounts as are voluntarily elected by participants and Company contributions. The Plan is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

On June 22, 2001, a merger between Johnson & Johnson and ALZA Corporation was completed. Effective January 1, 2003, the Johnson & Johnson Pension Committee has the responsibility of making decisions with respect to the Plan. There were no participant salary reduction or Company contributions during 2003. Additionally, during 2003 the Johnson & Johnson Pension Committee approved the following:

- 1) Freeze all new investments into the Retirement Cash Management Account option as soon as administratively feasible.
- 2) The merger of the Plan into the Johnson & Johnson Salaried Savings Plan upon completion of a compliance audit and any necessary and appropriate corrections.

Contributions

Prior to January 1, 2003, participants may make elective salary reduction contributions which are tax deferred and are, therefore, not included in a participant's compensation for federal income tax purposes until distributed to the participant. Under the Plan, participants may elect to contribute through bi-weekly payroll deductions a fixed dollar amount up to a maximum of $11,000 for participants under age 50, or $12,000 for participants age 50 and up in 2002. Further restrictions may be imposed on highly compensated individuals and Plan participants who also participate in the ALZA Retirement Plan.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 the Company made a contribution of $20 each pay period for each employee (thereby making all ALZA employees participants) to begin an account and encourage employees to participate further in the Plan. The Company also made a matching contribution at 50% of participant contributions. The maximum Company contribution was $2,000 for each participant.

Edgar Filing: JOHNSON & JOHNSON - Form 11-K

ALZA CORPORATION TAX DEFERRAL INVESTMENT PLAN Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2003 and 2002

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN (continued)

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with 100% of the contributions made by the participant through a salary deferral agreement. The Company will suspend the pretax salary deferral agreement of any participant if it determines that a participant's annual contribution limitation, as described in the Internal Revenue Code, will be exceeded.

Participants are allowed to make rollover contributions of amounts received from other qualified employer-sponsored retirement plans. Such contributions are deposited in the appropriate investment funds in accordance with the participant's directions and the Plan's provisions.

Participants allocate their contributions for investment into mutual funds and other investment vehicles (see Note 5). Earnings and losses of the investments are allocated to participants in accordance with the Plan's provisions.

Vesting

Participant account balances are 100% vested at all times.

Distribution of Benefits

Distributions from the Plan are available to a participant (or the beneficiary) in any of the following situations: termination of employment with the Company, retirement, total disability, death, reaching age 59-1/2, or a qualified financial hardship. The participant (or the beneficiary) may elect to receive a lump sum distribution of the value of his account, or he or she may choose to have the funds remain in the Plan.

Loans

A participant who is employed by the Company and meets certain Plan requirements may elect to borrow funds from his or her account. The borrowings are evidenced by notes that bear interest at the published prime rate plus 1% and have repayment terms of one to 30 years, depending on the purpose of the loans. Such repayments and interest thereon are credited to the borrower's account and reinvested in the same manner as current contributions.

ALZA CORPORATION TAX DEFERRAL INVESTMENT PLAN Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2003 and 2002

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN (Continued)

Income Tax Status

The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on March 11, 2002, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan Administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Administrative Expenses

Although not required to do so, the Company has paid all of the expenses (except for certain broker fees on transactions executed at the participant's discretion, and loan fees) associated with administering the Plan.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Plan's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Revenues are recognized as earned. Expenses are recorded as incurred.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments in mutual funds are valued at the published fair value as reported by the fund manager which represents the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year end. Other investments are valued at the published fair value as reported. The participant loans receivable is valued at cost which approximates fair value.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Plan management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are shares of mutual funds managed by Merrill Lynch Trust Company of California. Merrill Lynch Trust Company of California is the trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Fees for the investment management services are paid by ALZA.

4. PLAN TERMINATION

Edgar Filing: JOHNSON & JOHNSON - Form 11-K

The Company has the right under the Plan to terminate the Plan at any time subject to the provisions of ERISA.

5. INVESTMENT FUND ACTIVITY

The following are investment options under the Plan:

Mutual Funds

Merrill Lynch Ready Asset Trust - A money market fund.
