Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

Beginning with the fourth quarter of 2009, MetLife has adopted a new presentation format for its Quarterly Financial Supplement (QFS). The new presentation reflects MetLife s recently realigned operating segments and other modifications to the presentation of its financial results, which are intended to improve investors understanding of MetLife s business segments.

As previously announced, MetLife has combined its Institutional and Individual Businesses, as well as its Auto & Home Unit, into a single U.S. Business organization. U.S. Business consists of Insurance Products, Retirement Products, Corporate Benefit Funding and Auto & Home. The former Institutional Business & Individual Business segments have been reclassified into the following three segments:

Insurance Products (group life, non-medical health and individual life products);

Retirement Products (individual and institutional annuity products); and Corporate Benefit Funding (pension closeouts, structured settlements and other benefit funding solutions).

The financial reporting format for the Auto & Home segment, which is also part of U.S. Business and consists of MetLife s property & casualty insurance products, remains unchanged from prior periods. MetLife also is now providing additional detail on the results of its banking operations within Banking, Corporate & Other and additional statistical data.

As a result of the abovementioned developments, MetLife has recast the information presented in its QFS for the quarters ended December 31, 2008, March 31, 2009, June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2009, attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K. These historical periods have been recast to reflect MetLife s realigned operating segments and conform to the new presentation format to be used effective with the QFS for the fourth quarter of 2009. There have been no changes to MetLife s consolidated operating earnings or net income for these historical periods as a result of recasting the financial results.

The Financial Supplement Historical Results attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K is furnished and not filed pursuant to instruction B.2 of Form 8-K.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.
