Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 25, 2010, ABM Industries Incorporated (the Company) entered into an executive employment agreement substantially in the form of the Executive Employment Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this current report (the Executive Employment Agreement) with Sarah H. McConnell (Senior Vice President and General Counsel). On October 26, 2010, the Company entered in an Executive Employment Agreement with each of James S. Lusk (Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer) and Steven M. Zaccagnini (Executive Vice President), and on October 27, 2010, the Company entered into an Executive Employment Agreement with James P. McClure (Executive Vice President). The Executive Employment Agreement will replace each executive's current employment agreement. The current employment agreements for each such officer are scheduled to expire on October 31, 2010. The current employment agreement between the Company and Henrik Slipsager, President and Chief Executive Officer, does not expire until October 31, 2013.

The initial term of the Executive Employment Agreement will expire on October 31, 2012, and the term will automatically renew for consecutive one-year terms unless the Company provides notice not to renew. Each executive will continue to receive their current base salary, equal to $471,435 for Messrs. Lusk and Zaccagnini, $581,500 for Mr. McClure and $389,000 for Ms. McConnell. In addition, under the terms of the Executive Employment Agreement, each executive is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus pursuant to the Company's Performance Incentive Program, to participate in the Company's 2006 Equity Incentive Program and to receive such perquisites as are generally provided to similarly situated executives of the Company.

The Executive Employment Agreement provides that the Company may terminate an executive's employment without Cause (as defined in the Executive Employment Agreement). Upon such a termination, an executive's right to severance benefits will be governed by the terms of the Company's Severance Policy or any similar plan or policy of the Company as in effect from time to time that provides severance benefits upon a termination of employment. The Executive Employment Agreement provides that if any amount or benefit to be paid to an executive, whether pursuant to the Company's Severance Policy or otherwise, would create an obligation for an executive to pay an excise tax under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code (an Excess Parachute Payment), such payment will be reduced so that no portion of the payment constitutes an Excess Parachute Payment, unless such reduction would result in an executive receiving an amount that is less than 90% of the amount of the severance payment, after taking into account all applicable taxes on such payment, including any excise taxes.

The terms of the Executive Employment Agreement provide that upon the termination of an executive's employment for any reason, the executive will refrain from competing with, or soliciting the employees or customers of the Company for one year following the termination of employment, as set forth in the Executive Employment Agreement.

A copy of the form of the Executive Employment Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 to this current report and is incorporated herein by reference.
