NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION
FOR THE NINE MONTHS ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2010

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

China Unicom (Hong Kong) Limited (the Company) was incorporated as a limited liability company in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (Hong Kong), the People's Republic of China (the PRC) on 8 February 2000. The principal activities of the Company are investment holding and the Company's subsidiaries are principally engaged in the provision of cellular and fixed-line voice and related value-added services, broadband and other Internet-related services, information communications technology services, and business and data communications services in the PRC. The Company and its subsidiaries are hereinafter referred to as the Group.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The basis of preparation and the significant accounting policies and estimates adopted in the preparation of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial information for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 are consistent with those used in preparing the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2009.

Going Concern Assumption

As at 30 September 2010, current liabilities of the Group exceeded current assets by approximately RMB158.0 billion (31 December 2009: approximately RMB169.2 billion). Given the current global economic conditions and the Group's expected capital expenditures in the foreseeable future, management has comprehensively considered the Group's available sources of funds as follows:

The Group's continuous net cash inflow from operating activities;

Revolving banking facilities of approximately RMB105.0 billion, of which approximately RMB86.5 billion was unutilised as at 30 September 2010; and

Other available sources of financing from domestic banks and other financial institutions given the Group's credit history.

In addition, the Group will continue to optimise its fund raising strategy from the short, medium and long-term perspectives and will consider the opportunities in the current capital market to take advantage of low interest rates by issuing medium to long-term debts with low financing cost.

Based on the above considerations, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the Group has sufficient funds to meet its working capital requirements and debt obligations. As a result, the unaudited condensed consolidated financial information of the Group for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 has been prepared under the going concern basis.

Table of Contents3. MUTUAL INVESTMENT OF USD1 BILLION BY THE COMPANY AND TELEFÓNICA S.A. IN EACH OTHER

On 6 September 2009, the Company entered into a subscription agreement (Subscription Agreement) with Telefónica S.A. (Telefónica), pursuant to which each party conditionally agreed to invest an equivalent of USD1 billion in each other through an acquisition of each other's shares. On 21 October 2009 (Completion Date), the Company and Telefónica completed the mutual investment of the equivalent of USD1 billion in each other, which was implemented by way of the subscription by Telefónica for 693,912,264 new shares of the Company at a price of HKD11.17 each, satisfied by the contribution by Telefónica of 40,730,735 Telefónica treasury shares at a price of EUR17.24 each to the Company.

At the inception of the Subscription Agreement on 6 September 2009, the Company's agreement to undertake the mutual investment with Telefónica was treated as a derivative financial instrument in accordance with IAS/HKAS 39

Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement as it represented a forward contract for the purchase of shares by the Company and Telefónica in each other at predetermined fixed prices and different foreign currencies. The changes in the fair value of the derivative financial instrument during the period from 6 September 2009 to 30 September 2009 resulted in a fair value gain of approximately RMB962 million, which has been recorded as Unrealised gain on changes in fair value of derivative financial instrument in the unaudited condensed consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended 30 September 2009.

Upon settlement of the derivative financial instrument on completion of the mutual investment by the Company and Telefónica in each other at the Completion Date, 21 October 2009, the derivative financial instrument was derecognised and an available-for-sale financial asset, representing the investment in the Telefónica shares, was recognised at the then fair value of the Telefónica shares. As at 30 September 2010 and 31 December 2009, the related available-for-sale financial asset amounted to approximately RMB6,759 million and RMB7,789 million, respectively. For the nine months ended 30 September 2010, loss on changes in fair value of available-for-sale financial asset amounted to approximately RMB1,030 million. The loss, net of tax impact of approximately RMB258 million, was recorded in the unaudited condensed consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

4. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 and 2009 were computed by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the periods. Diluted earnings per share for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 and 2009 were computed by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the periods, after adjusting for the effects of dilutive potential ordinary shares. All potential ordinary shares for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 arose from (i) share options granted under the amended Share Option Scheme; and (ii) share options granted under the amended Special Purpose Share Option Scheme, while all potential ordinary shares for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 arose from (i) share options granted under the amended Pre-Global Offering Share Option Scheme, (ii) share options granted under the amended Share Option Scheme; (iii) share options granted under the amended Special Purpose Share Option Scheme, and (iv) shares to be issued to Telefónica under the Subscription Agreement.

The potential ordinary shares which are not dilutive for the nine months ended 30 September 2010 arose from share options with exercise price of HKD15.42 granted under the amended Share Option Scheme, while the potential ordinary shares which are not dilutive for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 arose from (i) share options with exercise price of HKD15.42 granted under the amended Pre-Global Offering Share Option Scheme and amended Share Option Scheme, and (ii) shares to be issued to Telefónica under the Subscription Agreement, which were excluded from the weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purpose of computation of diluted earnings per share.

5. EVENTS AFTER BALANCE SHEET DATEIssue of USD1,838,800,000 0.75% guaranteed convertible bonds due 2015

On 28 September 2010, the Company (as guarantor) entered into a subscription agreement (the Subscription Agreement), pursuant to which 0.75 per cent guaranteed convertible bonds due 2015 (the Convertible Bonds) will be issued by bond issuer exchangeable into ordinary shares of the Company for an aggregate principal amount of USD1,838,800,000. Upon fulfillment of all conditions precedent under the Subscription Agreement, the issue of the Convertible Bonds was completed on 18 October 2010. For details, please refer to the section headed ISSUE OF CONVERTIBLE BONDS in this announcement.

Table of Contents

FINANCIAL OUTLINE

For the first three quarters of 2010, the Company demonstrated a steady growth in its overall revenue by further accelerating its business development, and enhancing its network services and network support capability continuously, achieving a sustainable faster growth in mobile business and a rapid growth in broadband business and better controlling the decline in fixed-line business.

Revenue

For the first three quarters of 2010, total revenue reached RMB125.11 billion, of which, telecommunications service revenue was RMB120.65 billion. Excluding the effects of deferred fixed-line upfront connection fees, total revenue and telecommunications service revenue would increase by 9.1% and 7.7%, respectively, as compared to the same period of last year.

Revenue from mobile business (Note 1) was RMB63.59 billion, up by 20.0% from the same period of last year, of which, telecommunications service revenue from mobile business was RMB60.52 billion, up by 16.8% from the same period of last year. Monthly average minutes of usage (MOU) per subscriber was 276.0 minutes, and monthly average revenue per user (ARPU) was RMB43.5. Of which, telecommunications service revenue from 3G business was RMB7.34 billion, MOU per subscriber was 641.6 minutes and ARPU was RMB129.8.

Revenue from the fixed-line business (Note 1) was RMB60.14 billion, of which, telecommunications service revenue from the fixed-line business was RMB59.42 billion. Excluding the effects of deferred fixed-line upfront connection fees, revenue and telecommunications services revenue from the fixed-line business would decrease by 1.9% and 1.0%, respectively, from the same period of last year. Telecommunications service revenue from broadband business was RMB22.09 billion, up by 22.3% from the same period of last year. ARPU of broadband business was RMB57.8.

Costs and Expenses and Others

For the first three quarters of 2010, total costs and expenses and others, including finance costs, interest income, the unrealised gain on the changes in fair value of derivative financial instrument, and other income-net, were RMB120.86 billion, up by 17.7% from the same period of last year. With the further expansion of network capacity and rapid development of core businesses such as 3G and broadband businesses, depreciation and amortization, networks, operations and support expenses, selling expenses and 3G handset subsidies increased faster. Depreciation and amortisation was RMB40.54 billion, increased by RMB5.37 billion or 15.3% from the same period of last year. Networks, operations and support expenses were RMB19.34 billion, increased by RMB2.19 billion or 12.7% from the same period of last year. Selling expenses were RMB17.11 billion, increased by RMB2.23 billion or 15.0% from the same period of last year. Handset subsidies relating to 3G business amounted to RMB2.99 billion, of which, the subsidies for the third quarter was RMB1.82 billion, has been recorded in the consolidated statement of income for the first three quarters of 2010.

Table of Contents

Earnings

For the first three quarters of 2010, profit before income tax was RMB4.25 billion and profit for the period was RMB3.27 billion. Basic earnings per share was RMB0.139. Adjusted profit for the period (Note 2) would be RMB3.10 billion, down by 62.3% as compared to the same period of last year. Adjusted EBITDA (Note 3) would be RMB45.37 billion, down by 1.8% as compared to the same period of last year. Adjusted EBITDA margin (adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of the total revenue) would be 36.3%.

Additional Information

Although revenue from the 3G business and fixed-line broadband business of the Company have been growing fast, the Company's earnings for 2010 may be substantially different from the earnings for 2009 due to the fast-increasing of depreciation and amortisation, networks, operations and support expenses, as well as selling expenses, particularly the 3G handset subsidies.

This announcement is also made pursuant to Rule 13.09 of the Listing Rules.

Note 1: Revenue from mobile business and the fixed-line business represents revenues from external customers, excluding intersegment revenue.

Note 2: Adjusted profit for the period represents profit for the period excluding the effects of deferred fixed-line upfront connection fees of RMB0.17 billion and RMB0.4 billion for the first three quarters of 2010 and 2009, respectively, and the unrealised gain on the changes in fair value of derivative financial instrument of RMB0.96 billion for the first three quarters of 2009.

Note 3: Adjusted EBITDA represents profit for the period (excluding the effects of deferred fixed-line upfront connection fees of RMB0.17 billion and RMB0.4 billion for the first three quarters of 2010 and 2009, respectively, and the unrealised gain on the changes in fair value of derivative financial instrument of RMB0.96 billion for the first three quarters of 2009) before interest income, finance costs, other income-net, income tax, depreciation and amortisation. As the telecommunications business is a capital intensive industry, capital expenditures and finance costs may have a significant impact on the net profit of the companies with similar operating results. Therefore, the Company believes that EBITDA may be helpful in analyzing the operating results of a telecommunications service operator like our Group.

Although EBITDA has been widely applied in the global telecommunications industry as an indicator to reflect operating performance, financial capability and liquidity, it should be considered in addition to, and is not substitute for or superior to, the measure of financial performance prepared under generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) as it does not have any standardised meaning under GAAP. In addition, it may not be comparable to similar indicators provided by other companies.
