Grand Canyon Education, Inc. Annual Cash Incentive Plan

At the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on May 17, 2011 (the Annual Meeting), the stockholders of Grand Canyon Education, Inc. (the Company) approved our proposed Annual Cash Incentive Plan to ensure that annual cash bonuses paid to plan participants will qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and thus be fully deductible by the Company for federal income tax purposes. The Company s Compensation Committee had previously approved the Annual Cash Incentive Plan.

Section 162(m) and related guidance generally preclude a publicly traded company from taking a tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1.0 million per individual paid to certain covered employees. These covered employees consist of our chief executive officer and our three other highest compensated officers, excluding our chief financial officer. The deduction limitation is subject to an exception for performance-based compensation that meets certain requirements, including a requirement that the material terms of the performance goals applicable to the covered employees must be disclosed to and approved by stockholders before any compensation is paid to them. Stockholder approval of the Annual Cash Incentive Plan constitutes approval of the material terms of the performance goals under the plan within the meaning of the regulations under Section 162(m). By approving the Annual Cash Incentive Plan, the stockholders approved, among other things, the participant eligibility requirements, the performance criteria on which incentive awards may be based and the maximum dollar amount of compensation that may be paid under the plan to any covered employee in any fiscal year.

The Annual Cash Incentive Plan is described in detail in the Company s proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the Annual Meeting. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Annual Cash Incentive Plan, filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

Grand Canyon Education, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan

Also at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders of the Company approved the addition of certain provisions to the Company s 2008 Equity Incentive Plan (the Equity Incentive Plan) solely for the purpose of preserving the Company s ability to deduct in full for federal income tax purposes under Section 162(m) of the Code the compensation recognized by certain of our executive officers in connection with performance-based awards that may be granted to them in the future under the Equity Incentive Plan. The stockholders were not asked to approve an increase in the number of shares issuable under the Equity Incentive Plan or any other amendment. The Company s Compensation Committee had previously approved the proposed amendments to the Equity Incentive Plan.

The Equity Incentive Plan is a performance-based compensation plan designed to comply with Section 162(m) of the Code. To qualify as performance-based compensation, the payment of any award or bonus under the Equity Incentive Plan must be made contingent upon the achievement of one or more of the performance criteria identified in the Equity Incentive Plan. Stockholder approval of these performance criteria is required under Section 162(m) for the Company to be able to fully deduct the amount or value of the performance awards or bonuses as compensation expense.

The Equity Incentive Plan is described in detail in the Company s 2010 proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the annual meeting of stockholders held on April 19, 2011. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Equity Incentive Plan, filed herewith as Exhibit 99.2.
