Merger Proposed Your Vote is Very Important

The boards of directors of UnionBancorp, Inc. and Centru Financial Corporation have approved a merger agreement that would result in a tax-free merger of UnionBancorp with Centru Financial, with the combined entity adopting the name Centru Financial Corporation.

In the transaction, Centru Financial stockholders will be entitled to receive 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock for each share of Centru Financial common stock they own. We encourage you to read this document carefully and, if you are a Centru Financial stockholder, to obtain current market price quotations for UnionBancorp common stock.

UnionBancorp common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol UBCD. The closing price of UnionBancorp common stock on September 26, 2006, was $19.31.

To complete this merger we must obtain the necessary government approvals and the approvals of a majority of the stockholders of each of our companies. Each of us will hold a special meeting of our stockholders to vote on this merger proposal. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend your stockholder meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card to us. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: UnionBancorp stockholders and Centru Financial stockholders are being asked to adopt a merger agreement that will result in the merger of Centru Financial with and into UnionBancorp and to approve that merger. By approving the merger, UnionBancorp stockholders will also be approving the adoption of an amended and restated certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement.

Q: Why do UnionBancorp and Centru Financial want to merge?

A: UnionBancorp and Centru Financial believe that the proposed merger will provide each of its stockholders with substantial benefits and will further each of the companies' strategic growth plans. As a larger company, the combined entity can provide the capital and resources that the company's combined subsidiary bank needs to compete effectively and to offer a broader array of products and services to better serve its banking customers.

Q: What will happen to Centru Financial and UnionBancorp as a result of the Merger?

A: If the merger is completed, Centru Financial will merge with and into UnionBancorp with UnionBancorp being the surviving entity in the merger. Q: What will happen to my shares of UnionBancorp?

A: All shares of UnionBancorp will remain outstanding.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration fluctuate?

A: Yes. Because the exchange ratio of 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock per share of Centru Financial common stock is fixed, the value of the stock consideration will fluctuate as the price of UnionBancorp common stock changes. You should obtain current market price quotations for UnionBancorp common stock to determine the current value of the stock consideration.

Q: How do I exchange my Centru Financial stock certificates?

A: If the merger is approved and consummated, after the merger is effective, the exchange agent, Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc., will send to you a letter of transmittal, which will include instructions on where to surrender your stock certificates for exchange.

Q: What do the UnionBancorp board of directors and the Centru Financial board of directors recommend?

Q: Is the merger expected to be taxable to me?

A: In general, the exchange of your Centrue Financial common stock solely for UnionBancorp common stock will not cause you to recognize any taxable gain or loss for federal income tax purposes. However, you will have to recognize taxable income or gain in connection with cash received in lieu of any fractional shares of common stock of the combined company.

Each of UnionBancorp's and Centrue Financial's respective obligations to complete the merger is conditioned upon receipt of an opinion about the federal income tax treatment of the merger. The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which could take a different view. To review in greater detail the tax consequences to Centrue Financial stockholders, see "Description of Transaction - United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger," beginning on page 29. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible. If approved by the UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial stockholders, we anticipate closing the merger in the fourth quarter of 2006. However, it is possible that factors outside our control could require us to complete the merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

UnionBancorp stockholders. On the record date, UnionBancorp's directors owned 675,502 shares, or approximately 17.6% of the outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock. UnionBancorp's directors have agreed to vote their shares to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates. However, because they own only approximately 17.6% of the outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock, there is no assurance that the proposal will be approved.

Centrue Financial stockholders. On the record date, Centrue Financial's directors owned 213,117 shares, or approximately 9.5% of the outstanding shares of Centrue Financial common stock. Centrue Financial's directors have agreed to vote their shares to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates. However, because they own only approximately 9.5% of the outstanding shares of Centrue Financial common stock, there is no assurance that the proposal will be approved.

We have attached a copy of the merger agreement to this document as Appendix A. Please read the merger agreement. It is the legal document that governs the merger.

We propose a combination in which Centrue Financial will merge with and into UnionBancorp. The combined entity will continue under the name Centrue Financial Corporation and its shares will be traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol TRUE. The combined company's main office will be located in Ottawa, Illinois. We expect to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2006, although delays could occur.

At the same time or immediately following the merger, we also intend to merge Centrue Bank into UnionBank. The resulting institution will be an Illinois chartered commercial bank headquartered in Ottawa, Illinois, which will operate under the name Centrue Bank.

What You Will Receive in the Merger

UnionBancorp stockholders. You will not need to surrender your stock certificates. Each of your shares of UnionBancorp common stock will remain outstanding, and will represent shares of common stock of the combined company.

Centrue Financial stockholders. Each of your shares of Centrue Financial common stock will automatically become the right to receive 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock. The total number of shares you will have the right to receive will be equal to the number of shares of Centrue Financial common stock you own multiplied by 1.2. For example, if you hold 100 shares of Centrue Financial common stock, you will be entitled to receive 120 shares (100 x 1.2) of UnionBancorp common stock. Based on the $19.31 closing price of UnionBancorp common stock on September 26, 2006, the value of 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock was $23.17, and the total value of the merger consideration was approximately $52.1 million. However, because the exchange ratio is fixed, the market value of the shares of UnionBancorp common stock you will receive in the merger will fluctuate from time to time, causing the total value of the merger consideration to fluctuate.

Each share of UnionBancorp common stock will include all rights that are attached to or inherent in the then-outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock. See Effect of the Merger on Rights of Stockholders.

The number of shares of UnionBancorp common stock Centrue Financial stockholders will receive in the merger is subject to adjustments for reorganizations, recapitalizations, stock dividends and similar events that occur before the merger is completed. None of those adjustments would alter the value of the exchange ratio.

Table of Contents

You will need to surrender your Centru Financial common stock certificates to receive new certificates representing common stock of the combined company. However, this will not be necessary until you receive written instructions, which will occur on or around the time of the merger.

UnionBancorp will not issue any fractional shares. Instead, Centru Financial stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of common stock of the combined company owed to them in exchange for their shares of Centru Financial common stock. The amount of cash for any fractional shares will be based on the average closing prices of UnionBancorp common stock for the five trading days immediately following the completion of the merger.

On or shortly after the effective date of the merger, Centru Financial stockholders will receive a letter and instructions on how to surrender their stock certificates representing Centru Financial common stock in exchange for stock certificates of the combined company. You must carefully review and complete these materials and return them as instructed along with your Centru Financial common stock certificates. Please do not send any stock certificates to the exchange agent, UnionBancorp or Centru Financial until you receive these instructions.

Effect of the Merger on Options (page 28)

In the merger, each stock option to buy Centru Financial common stock that is outstanding immediately before completing the merger will become an option to buy UnionBancorp common stock and will continue to be governed by the terms of the original plans under which they were issued, except that all options that were not previously exercisable will become immediately exercisable (excluding those issued in connection with the merger). The number of shares of UnionBancorp common stock subject to each of these converted stock options, as well as the exercise price of these stock options, will be adjusted to reflect the exchange ratio applicable in the merger.

The merger agreement provides that, except for options issued in connection with the merger, options to purchase UnionBancorp common stock will become immediately exercisable upon the merger becoming effective.

Based on the exchange ratio contained in the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger, UnionBancorp will issue 2,698,655 shares of its common stock to Centru Financial stockholders. Based on these numbers, after the merger, existing UnionBancorp stockholders would own approximately 58.1%, and former Centru Financial stockholders would own approximately 41.9%, of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

The merger will become final when a certificate of merger is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. If our stockholders approve the merger at their special meetings, and if UnionBancorp obtains all required regulatory approvals, we anticipate that the merger will be completed in fourth quarter of 2006, although delays could occur.

We cannot assure you that we can obtain the necessary stockholder and regulatory approvals or that the other conditions to completion of the merger can or will be satisfied.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

For federal income tax purposes, the exchange of shares of Centru Financial common stock for shares of UnionBancorp common stock generally will not cause the holders of Centru Financial common stock to recognize any gain or loss. Holders of Centru Financial common stock, however, will recognize income, gain or loss in connection with any cash received to redeem any fractional share interest.

Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We urge you to consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Reasons for the Merger

(pages 36 and 37)

Each of our boards of directors believes the merger will enhance stockholder value by permitting the combined company to expand its presence in northern and central Illinois.

We expect the merger to strengthen our position as a competitor in the financial services business as a result of our increased resources and the availability of enhanced and more competitive products and services.

You can find a more detailed discussion of the background of the merger and UnionBancorp's and Centru Financial's reasons for the merger in this document under "Description of Transaction - Background of the Merger" beginning on page 32, "UnionBancorp's Reasons for the Merger and Board Recommendation" beginning on page 36 and "Centru Financial's Reasons for the Merger and Board Recommendation" beginning on page 37.

The discussion of our reasons for the merger includes forward-looking statements about possible or assumed future results of our operations and the performance of the combined company after the merger. For a discussion of factors that could affect these future results, see "A Warning About Forward-Looking Statements" on page 22.

Opinion of Financial Advisors

UnionBancorp stockholders. Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. has delivered a written opinion to the UnionBancorp board of directors that, as of June 30, 2006, the exchange ratio is fair to the holders of UnionBancorp common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this document as Appendix B. You should read this opinion completely to understand the procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the reviews undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in providing its opinion.

Centru Financial stockholders. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. has delivered a written opinion to the Centru Financial board of directors that, as of June 30, 2006, the exchange ratio is fair to the holders of Centru Financial common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this document as Appendix C. You should read this opinion completely to understand the procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the reviews undertaken by Keefe Bruyette in providing its opinion.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met. Subject to exceptions described in the merger agreement, these include:

accuracy of the respective representations and warranties of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial in the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

compliance in all material respects by each of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial with their respective covenants and agreements in the merger agreement; approval of regulatory authorities;

approval of the merger agreement by each company's stockholders; receipt by each of us of an opinion from UnionBancorp's accountants that, for federal income tax purposes, Centru Financial stockholders who exchange their shares for shares of common stock of the combined company will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger, except in connection with the payment of cash instead of fractional shares (this opinion will be subject to various limitations and we recommend that you read the more detailed description of tax consequences provided in this document beginning on page 29); and the absence of any injunction or legal restraint blocking the merger, or of any proceedings by a government body trying to block the merger.

A party to the merger agreement could choose to complete the merger even though a condition to its obligation has not been satisfied, as long as the law allows it to do so. We cannot be certain when or if the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination and Termination Fees

The parties can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger. Also, either party can decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the merger agreement if the merger has not been completed by March 1, 2007, unless the failure to complete the merger by that time is due to a violation of the merger agreement by the party that wants to terminate the merger agreement. Also, the termination date can be extended for up to ninety days if the sole reason that the closing has not occurred is due to the fact that the regulatory approvals have not been received.

In addition, either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial can terminate the merger agreement if the conditions to its respective obligation to complete the merger have not been satisfied or if the board of directors for either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial determines a competing takeover proposal from a third party is superior to the merger (provided certain notice requirements have been satisfied).

Either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial may be required to pay the other party a termination fee if the merger agreement is terminated due to certain circumstances outlined in the merger agreement. For a discussion of these conditions and fees, see Description of Transaction Termination and Termination Fees.

Waiver and Amendment

UnionBancorp and Centru Financial may jointly amend the merger agreement and either party may waive its right to require the other party to adhere to any term or condition of the merger agreement. However, neither may do so after our stockholders approve the merger, if the amendment or waiver would materially and adversely affect the rights of UnionBancorp or Centru Financial stockholders.

We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain the prior approval (or waiver of such approval) by the Federal Reserve Board and the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. Once the Federal Reserve Board approves or waives approval of the merger, we have to wait anywhere from 15 to 30 days before we can complete the merger, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice can challenge the merger on antitrust grounds.

Table of Contents

We have filed all of the required waiver requests, applications or notices with the Federal Reserve Board and the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation.

We have also filed applications with the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation and the FDIC for approval of the merger of the subsidiary banks, UnionBank and Centru Bank.

Management and Operations After the Merger

The present management groups of both companies will share the responsibility of managing the combined company after the completion of the merger. The board of directors of the combined company will be comprised of ten members, five from UnionBancorp and five from Centru Financial.

Following the merger, Dennis J. McDonnell will be chairman of the board of directors, Thomas A. Daiber will be President and Chief Executive Officer, Scott A. Yeoman will be Chief Operating Officer and Kurt R. Stevenson will be Chief Financial Officer of the combined company.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Some of our directors and officers have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders in our companies. These interests exist because of employment agreements that certain officers of our companies have and rights that the directors and officers have under some of our benefit plans. These employment agreements and plans will provide the officers with severance benefits if their current employment status changes as a result of the merger, except that both of our companies have agreed to amend or replace most of these employment agreements prior to the completion of our merger to provide that the merger will not require the payment of severance benefits if the merger is completed.

The members of our boards of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they approved the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Expenses

Each of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial will pay its own expenses in connection with the merger, including filing, registration and application fees, printing fees and fees and expenses of its own financial or other consultants, accountants and counsel.

Material Differences in the Rights of Stockholders

Both Centru Financial and UnionBancorp are incorporated in and governed by Delaware law. Upon our completion of the merger, Centru Financial stockholders will become stockholders of the combined company and their rights will be governed by the combined company's certificate of incorporation and by-laws, which are, except as noted in this document, the currently effective certificate of incorporation and by-laws of UnionBancorp. There are material differences between the rights of the stockholders of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial, which we describe in this document. By approving the merger, UnionBancorp's stockholders are approving the adoption of an amended and restated certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement.

Comparative Per Share Data

The following table presents comparative historical per share data of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial and unaudited pro forma per share data that reflect the combination of Centru with and into UnionBancorp using the purchase method of accounting. The historical financial data of Centru Financial for the year ended December 31, 2005 has been adjusted for the retrospective adoption of Statements of Financial Accounting Standard No. 123R, Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R) as described in their Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and for the six months ended June 30, 2006.

The information listed as equivalent pro forma for Centru Financial was obtained by multiplying the pro forma amounts for UnionBancorp by the exchange ratio of 1.2.

We expect that we will incur merger and integration charges as a result of combining our companies. We also anticipate that the merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect these expenses or benefits and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have actually been had our companies been combined as of the dates or for the periods presented.

RISK FACTORS

By voting in favor of the merger, you will be choosing to invest in the common stock of a combined UnionBancorp and Centru Financial. In addition to the information contained elsewhere in this joint proxy statement-prospectus or incorporated in this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference, you should carefully consider the following factors in making your decision as to how to vote on the merger.

The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in UnionBancorp's stock value prior to the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement provides that each share of Centru Financial common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock. The exchange ratio of 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp stock per share of Centru Financial stock is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the value of UnionBancorp common stock between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger. As a result, the value of the merger consideration to be paid to Centru Financial's stockholders will not be known at the time of the Centru Financial special meeting, and you will not know when you vote the exact value of the shares of UnionBancorp common stock that you will receive. You are urged to obtain current market price quotations for UnionBancorp common stock prior to voting on the merger.

Moreover, the value of the combined company's common stock may also rise or fall after the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including completion of the merger, general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the combined company's control, and it is possible that the market value of the combined company's common stock at the time of the merger and afterward may be substantially higher or lower than current market value.

The interests of certain management officials may be different from those of other stockholders.

Thomas A. Daiber, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Centru Financial, Scott A. Yeoman, the President and Chief Executive Officer of UnionBancorp, and Kurt R. Stevenson, the Chief Financial Officer of UnionBancorp, have entered into employment agreements in connection with the merger. We anticipate that other senior officers will enter into employment agreements that are substantially similar to those of Messrs. Daiber, Yeoman, and Stevenson. In addition, five of the members of UnionBancorp's current board of directors and five of the members of Centru Financial's board of directors will together serve as the entire board of directors of the combined company after the completion of the merger. Following the merger, they will also serve on the board of the combined bank subsidiary, and receive payments for their service. Accordingly, our directors and some of our executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. See Description of Transaction Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

Difficulties in combining the operations of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp may prevent the combined company from achieving the expected benefits from its acquisition.

The combined company may not be able to achieve fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies it hopes to achieve in the merger. The success of the merger will depend on a number of factors, including the combined company's ability to:

integrate the operations of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp; maintain existing relationships with depositors so as to minimize withdrawals of deposits after the merger;

maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers so as to limit unanticipated losses from loans of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp; control the incremental non-interest expense so as to maintain overall operating efficiencies;

retain and attract qualified personnel; and compete effectively in the communities served by Centru Financial and UnionBancorp and in nearby communities.

Your interest will be diluted by the merger.

After the merger, Centru Financial's stockholders will own less than a majority of the outstanding voting stock of the combined company and could therefore, for matters requiring a majority vote, be outvoted by the existing and continuing UnionBancorp stockholders if they all voted together as a group on any such issue that is presented to the combined company's stockholders. UnionBancorp's stockholders will own approximately 58.1% of the combined company's outstanding voting stock, but the President and Chief Executive Officer of the combined company and five of the combined company's ten-member board of directors will be individuals who formerly served as directors of Centru Financial. Neither group of stockholders will have the same control over the combined company as they currently have over their respective companies.

In addition, there will be no restrictions in the combined company's governing documents relating to the ability of any person or group of persons to acquire common stock of the combined company. Accordingly, your interests may be diluted further to the extent that any person or group is able to consolidate ownership.

Obtaining required approvals and satisfying closing conditions may delay or prevent completion of the merger.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all material governmental authorizations, consents, orders and approvals. UnionBancorp and Centru Financial intend to pursue all required approvals in accordance with the merger agreement. No assurance can be given that the required consents and approvals will be obtained or that the required conditions to closing will be satisfied, and, if all such consents and approvals are obtained and the conditions are satisfied, no assurance can be given as to the terms, conditions and timing of the approvals or that they will satisfy the terms of the merger agreement. See Description of Transaction Conditions for the Completion of the Merger for a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger and Description of Transaction Regulatory Approvals for a description of the regulatory approvals necessary in connection with the merger.

These factors could contribute to the combined company not achieving the expected benefits from the merger within the desired time frames, if at all.

We have each made forward-looking statements in this document (and in documents to which we refer you in this document) that are subject to risks and uncertainties. the availability of capital to fund the expansion of the combined business; and other factors referenced in this joint proxy statement-prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference.

These risks and uncertainties should be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements.

Any forward-looking earnings estimates included in this joint proxy statement-prospectus have not been examined or compiled by either of our independent public accountants, nor have either of our independent accountants applied any procedures to our estimates. Record Date, Voting Rights, Required Vote and Revocability of Proxies

The UnionBancorp board fixed the close of business on September 22, 2006, as the record date for determining those UnionBancorp stockholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of UnionBancorp common stock of record on the books of UnionBancorp at the close of business on the record date have the right to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. shares of UnionBancorp common stock present at the special meeting either in person or by proxy; and shares of UnionBancorp common stock for which it has received signed proxies, but with respect to which holders of shares have abstained on any matter.

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock.

Brokers who hold shares in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares may not give a proxy to vote those shares without specific instructions from their customers. Any abstention, non-voting share or broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger agreement.

Properly executed proxies that UnionBancorp receives before the vote at the special meeting that are not revoked will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. If no instructions are indicated, these proxies will be voted FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and to approve the transactions it contemplates, FOR any resolution to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and the proxy holder may vote the proxy in its discretion as to any other matter that may properly come before the special meeting.

A UnionBancorp stockholder who has given a proxy solicited by the UnionBancorp board may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the special meeting by:

giving written notice of revocation to the secretary of UnionBancorp;

properly submitting to UnionBancorp a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or

DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

The following information describes material aspects of the merger and related transactions. This description does not provide a complete description of all the terms and conditions of the merger agreement. It is qualified in its entirety by the Appendices to this document, including the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this joint proxy statement-prospectus and which is incorporated into this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference. We urge you to read the Appendices in their entirety.

We urge you to read the Appendices in their entirety.

General

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Centrue Financial with and into UnionBancorp. At the time the merger becomes effective, each share of Centrue Financial common stock then issued and outstanding will be converted into and exchanged for the right to receive 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock. By approving the merger, UnionBancorp stockholders are also approving the adoption of an amended and restated certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement.

No fractional shares of UnionBancorp common stock will be issued to Centrue Financial's stockholders. Rather, UnionBancorp will redeem any of these fractional interests for cash in an amount equal to the average of the closing sale prices of UnionBancorp common stock for the five trading days immediately following the completion of the merger. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable to holders of Centrue Financial common stock in lieu of fractional shares. No stockholder of Centrue Financial will be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights as a stockholder of UnionBancorp in respect of any fractional shares.

On their respective record dates, UnionBancorp had 3,742,851 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and Centrue Financial had 2,232,889 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Based on the exchange ratio contained in the merger agreement, on completion of the merger, UnionBancorp will issue 2,698,655 shares of its common stock to former Centrue Financial stockholders. After the merger, former Centrue Financial stockholders would own approximately 41.9% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

$21.25	$ 25.50

You should obtain current market price quotations for UnionBancorp common stock to determine the current value of the merger consideration. Treatment of Centru Financial Stock Options and Restricted Stock Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding option to acquire Centru Financial common stock will be converted into an option to acquire that number of whole shares of the combined company's common stock equal to the product of the number of shares of Centru Financial common stock that were subject to the original Centru Financial stock option multiplied by the exchange ratio at a per share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of the original Centru Financial stock option divided by the exchange ratio (subject to certain rounding adjustments set forth in the merger agreement). As soon as practicable following the completion of the merger, the combined company intends to file a registration statement to register the issuance of the shares of the combined company's common stock to be issued upon exercise of the converted Centru Financial stock options.

Centru Financial has issued 12,400 shares of common stock as restricted stock under its stock incentive plan. When the merger is completed, each share of restricted stock will vest and will become free of all restrictions, and each of these shares will be converted into the right to receive 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

Shortly after the merger, all Centru Financial stockholders will receive a letter of transmittal, together with a return envelope. The letter of transmittal will include instructions for the surrender and exchange of certificates representing Centru Financial common stock in exchange for the combined company's common stock. Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc. will serve as the exchange agent in the process. A letter of transmittal will be deemed properly completed only if signed and accompanied by stock certificates representing all shares of Centru Financial common stock or an appropriate guarantee of delivery of the certificates.

Table of Contents

Please do not send any certificates to the exchange agent, Centrue Financial or UnionBancorp until you receive a letter of transmittal and instructions.

Until you surrender your Centrue Financial stock certificates for exchange after completion of the merger, you will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the merger with respect to any of the combined company's common stock into which your Centrue Financial shares have been converted. When Centrue Financial stock certificates are surrendered, we will pay to the surrendering holder any of his or her respective unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the merger, no further transfers of Centrue Financial common stock will be permitted. Centrue Financial stock certificates presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be canceled and exchanged for common stock of the combined company.

None of the exchange agent, UnionBancorp, Centrue Financial or any other person will be liable to any former holder of Centrue Financial common stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

If a certificate for Centrue Financial common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon compliance by the holder of Centrue Financial common stock with the conditions reasonably imposed by the exchange agent. These conditions will include a requirement that the stockholder provide a lost instruments indemnity bond in form, substance and amount reasonably satisfactory to the exchange agent and us.

Effective Time of the Merger

Subject to the conditions to each party's obligations to complete the merger, the merger will become effective when a certificate of merger reflecting the merger is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Unless we agree otherwise, each party will use reasonable efforts to cause the merger to become effective 10 business days after the later to occur of:

the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and the expiration of all statutory waiting periods relating to the approvals; and the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions to closing.

We anticipate that the merger will become effective in the fourth quarter of 2006; however, delays could occur.

We cannot assure you that the necessary stockholder and regulatory approvals of the merger will be obtained or that other conditions precedent to the merger can or will be satisfied. Either party's board of directors may terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not completed by March 1, 2007, unless it is not completed because of the failure by the party seeking termination to comply fully with its obligations under the merger agreement, except that, in general, the termination date can be extended for up to ninety days if the sole reason that the closing has not occurred is due to the fact that (1) the regulatory approvals have not been received, or (2) the Registration Statement has not become effective. See Conditions to Completion of the Merger and Termination and Termination Fees.

It is a condition of the merger, that both UnionBancorp and Centru Financial have received an opinion from UnionBancorp's accountants that, for federal income tax purposes, Centru Financial stockholders who exchange their shares for shares of common stock of the combined company will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger, except in connection with the payment of cash instead of fractional shares. Subject to the conditions, qualifications, representations and assumptions contained in this document and in the tax opinion, Crowe Chizek's opinion provides the following conclusions:

The acquisition by UnionBancorp of substantially all of the assets of Centru Financial in exchange for shares of UnionBancorp common stock and the assumption of liabilities of UnionBancorp and of Centru Financial pursuant to the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

UnionBancorp and Centru Financial will each be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code.

No gain or loss will be recognized by either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial as a result of the merger.

No gain or loss will be recognized by the stockholders of Centru Financial as a result of the exchange of Centru Financial common stock for UnionBancorp common stock pursuant to the merger. Assuming that the UnionBancorp common stock is a capital asset in the hands of the respective Centru Financial stockholders and has been held for more than one year, any gain or loss recognized as a result of the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share will be a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash received and that portion of the holder's tax basis in the Centru Financial common stock allocable to the fractional share.

The tax basis of UnionBancorp common stock to be received by the stockholders of Centru Financial will be the same as the tax basis of the Centru Financial common stock surrendered in exchange therefor (reduced by any amount allocable to a fractional share interest for which cash is received).

The holding period of the UnionBancorp common stock to be received by stockholders of Centru Financial will include the holding period of the Centru Financial common stock surrendered in exchange therefore on the date of the exchange.

Backup Withholding. Unless you provide a taxpayer identification number (social security number or employer identification number) and certify, among other things, that such number is correct, or you provide proof of an applicable exemption from backup withholding, the exchange agent will be required to withhold 28% of any cash payable to Centru Financial stockholders in connection with the merger. Any amount so withheld under the backup withholding rules is not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against your United States federal income tax liability, provided that you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service. Centru Financial stockholders should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 that will be included as part of the transmittal letter that accompanies the election form to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding, unless an applicable exception exists and is established in a manner that is satisfactory to the exchange agent.

Centru Financial stockholders will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file a statement with your United States federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the merger takes place that sets forth certain facts relating to the merger, including your basis in your Centru Financial common stock that you surrender in connection with the merger and the fair market value of the UnionBancorp common stock that you receive in connection with the merger. In addition, pursuant to the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, Centru Financial, or UnionBancorp as Centru Financial's successor, will be required to provide to the Internal Revenue Service and Centru Financial stockholders information with respect to the merger, including information regarding your identity (and the identities of other Centru Financial stockholders) and the fair market value of UnionBancorp common stock received by you (and by each other Centru Financial stockholder) in the merger.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential federal income tax consequences of the merger. In addition, the discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, your individual circumstances. Moreover, the discussion does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state, or local tax consequences of the merger. Accordingly, you are strongly urged to consult with your own tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences to you of the merger.

Table of ContentsBackground of the Merger

The boards of directors of each of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp have regularly reviewed the business strategies of their respective companies in light of general conditions in the banking industry, local competitive and economic conditions, the results of operations and future prospects, legislative changes and other developments affecting the banking industry generally and each of their respective companies specifically.

The Centru Financial board of directors also has considered from time to time the possible benefits of strategic business combinations with other comparably-sized financial institutions, including other bank holding companies, as a part of its ongoing evaluation of available methods to increase stockholder value, to strengthen its franchise through expansion of its existing service area and to solidify its market position in existing markets. Following a series of strategic planning meetings in early 2003, the focus of the institution became to seek to transform Centru Financial into the premier financial institution in the central Illinois markets between Chicago and St. Louis. To this end, the senior management of Centru Financial has from time to time had informal discussions with senior management of other financial institutions regarding potential business combinations.

As a part of these discussions and the implementation of Centru Financial's strategic plan, representatives of each of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp, together with a significant individual stockholder of UnionBancorp, had an informal conversation and information-sharing meeting regarding a very preliminary exploration of the possibility of merging the two franchises. A follow-up meeting was held in the Fall of 2003 following Centru Financial's acquisition of Aviston Financial Corporation and the related retention of Thomas A. Daiber as Chief Executive Officer. Although the parties recognized that potential synergies could be reached given UnionBancorp's expressed desire to move their franchise toward Chicago and build a full-service financial institution, the parties did not make any further effort to pursue a transaction at that time. This decision was based in part on the need for UnionBancorp to address asset quality and earnings issues that had arisen in the early 2000s and to implement a cohesive long-term strategy, including focusing on the retention of a strong management team. In addition, the parties agreed that there was a need on the part of Centru Financial's new management team to integrate operations following the Aviston acquisition prior to undertaking a strategic transaction of this nature, as well as to focus on asset quality and earnings issues.

Centru Financial's board of directors continued to evaluate business combinations, undertaking the acquisition of two smaller financial institutions located in central Illinois, and also continued to explore the availability of additional opportunities that would enhance stockholder value. In April 2005, Centru Financial received an unsolicited, non-binding expression of interest from senior management of an Illinois financial institution, which included an offer to purchase Centru Financial for cash and stock consideration. Over a series of meetings conducted during May 2005, Centru Financial, together with a financial advisor, analyzed the expression of interest, and the parties conducted mutual due diligence. Following review and discussion among the parties, the negotiations were terminated due to relative valuation issues and to an inability of the parties to reach agreement on threshold issues such as management and director integration.

Following UnionBancorp's employment of Scott A. Yeoman as Chief Executive Officer in June 2005, Mr. Yeoman met with Mr. Daiber and with the retiring Chief Executive Officer of UnionBancorp, and the parties met again in November 2005, along with the Chief Financial Officers of each institution. At that time, the parties entered into a confidentiality agreement to facilitate the exchange of information. Although the parties again informally discussed the desirability of a proposed affiliation, these discussions did not progress, primarily because UnionBancorp's board was in the midst of consideration of UnionBancorp's strategic direction, and UnionBancorp was also in the midst of a reduction in force.

In the Fall of 2005, Centru Financial received an unsolicited, non-binding expression of interest from a financial institution located in the St. Louis metropolitan area regarding an offer to acquire Centru Financial in a cash and stock transaction. Representatives of each company met with one another to discuss the desired synergies resulting from the proposed acquisition, and the parties, including a new financial advisor to Centru Financial, conducted mutual due diligence. Following this process and after discussions among the respective parties regarding transaction terms, discussions, were terminated due to, among other things, uncertainty with respect to the combined company's ability to generate acceptable earnings.

The board of directors in November 2005 again considered its strategic alternatives, and agreed to further evaluate Centru Financial's strategic plan. In January 2006, Centru Financial conducted an informal market check, with its financial advisor contacting approximately 8-10 financial institutions, including UnionBancorp, that Centru Financial felt might have a strategic or financial interest in the potential acquisition of Centru Financial at a market premium. The board of directors of Centru Financial determined as a result of this market check that the timing did not seem appropriate to sell the company, but that it might be willing to consider strategic combinations structured as a merger of equals. In reaching this conclusion, the Centru Financial board considered that a merger of equals would, if completed, likely be completed at a value that would not represent an immediate premium over Centru Financial's then current market value, while its previous considerations of sale transactions had contemplated that Centru Financial stockholders would receive such a premium. However, the board noted that at no time had any prior discussions or the informal market check indicated that a sale transaction at an acceptable value would be achievable. In addition, in making its decision to focus on a merger of equals transaction, the board noted that the evaluation of the price to be paid to Centru Financial stockholders would be able to be evaluated over a long-term horizon, which would give the board flexibility to evaluate transactions that would support its overall corporate strategy and that may, if proper synergies were achieved, result in increases in stockholder value in the long term. When Mr. Yeoman again contacted Mr. Daiber in January, 2006 to discuss an affiliation structured as a merger of equals, the parties began in earnest to discuss the proposed structure and financial terms of such a transaction. At a UnionBancorp board meeting held on March 16, 2006, Dennis J. McDonnell, chairman of UnionBancorp, reported on conversations he had had with Centru Financial and discussed similarities between the organizations and advantages to be gained in a merger of equals.

As a result of discussions held in April, 2006 among representatives of each company, including a significant individual stockholder of UnionBancorp, the parties agreed to move forward with the consideration of a possible transaction in which Centru Financial would combine with UnionBancorp, with the combined company retaining the name Centru Financial Corporation. In the combination, it was proposed that UnionBancorp would issue stock to Centru Financial's stockholders, with an exchange ratio based on an approximation of market-to-market value preceding the date of announcement of the transaction. It was also proposed that the combined company would have a board of directors comprised of ten members, five from each constituent company, with equal representation on committees of the board. The senior management team was proposed to consist of Mr. Daiber as Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Yeoman as Chief Operating Officer, and Kurt R. Stevenson, the current Chief Financial Officer of UnionBancorp, as the Chief Financial Officer. Through a series of meetings and conversations held in late April 2006, the parties developed a framework for the financial terms and management integration, and expressed a mutual interest in pursuing a transaction. The discussions among the parties included the consideration of the possible advantages of a combination, including the fact that each of the franchises had little geographic overlap and represented the opportunity to extend the combined market share over a larger portion of central Illinois, with a possible long term goal of ultimately expanding into the Chicago metropolitan area. At a meeting of UnionBancorp's board on April 25, 2006, Mr. McDonnell apprised the entire UnionBancorp board of the above discussions and after discussion among the board members, the UnionBancorp board unanimously agreed that UnionBancorp should continue conversations with Centru Financial. Mr. McDonnell sent a letter to Centru Financial dated May 18, 2006 setting forth the proposed material terms of a possible merger of equals transaction between UnionBancorp and Centru Financial.

At a meeting of Centru Financial's board held on May 24, 2006, the directors approved moving forward with the consideration a possible merger, and authorized management to proceed with mutual due diligence. In addition, the directors authorized management to contact prospective investment bankers, including Centru Financial's most recent financial advisor, and ask the bankers to give presentations with respect to the proposed transaction. UnionBancorp and Centru Financial met and had discussions several times over the ensuing days to organize the due diligence process and to discuss organization, vision and strategy for the combined institution. In addition, the parties discussed with their respective counsel the alternative structures for a merger of equals transaction.

A meeting of UnionBancorp's board was held on May 25, 2006 which was attended by all of UnionBancorp's directors, UnionBancorp's Chief Financial Officer, Kurt R. Stevenson, and representatives of UnionBancorp's attorneys, Howard & Howard Attorneys P.C. At the meeting, Mr. McDonnell updated the board on the negotiations with Centru. Representatives of Howard & Howard discussed in detail with the board members their fiduciary duties in connection with merger transactions and answered questions from the board. A possible timeline was also discussed should events move forward including the due diligence process and the timing of the preparation of a definitive agreement. Messrs. Yeoman and Stevenson recommended that the company engage Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. to act as independent financial advisors to assist management in a possible merger of equals transaction with Centru Financial, based on UnionBancorp's previous experience with Sandler O'Neill and Sandler O'Neill's reputation and expertise in the financial services industry. After discussion and by unanimous vote, the Board authorized management to engage Sandler O'Neill as financial advisor to UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp formally engaged Sandler O'Neill by letter dated May 25, 2006.

On June 1, 2006, the audit committee of Centru Financial's board of directors met, with participation from the remaining board members and legal counsel, Barack Ferrazzano, to interview the investment bankers to represent Centru Financial in connection with the transaction. Following the presentations offered at the meeting, the audit committee selected Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. to represent Centru Financial as the investment banker on the transaction, based in part on their experience with merger of equals transactions. Keefe Bruyette was directed to begin its financial analysis of the transaction, and to engage in discussions with UnionBancorp's financial advisors, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, to assess whether any modification to the proposed exchange ratio was appropriate. At the conclusion of the meeting, the audit committee directed Barack Ferrazzano to prepare a definitive merger agreement to be presented to UnionBancorp's counsel.

Beginning June 2, 2006, additional meetings were held between Centru Financial, UnionBancorp and their financial advisors to discuss each organization's respective financial performance, personnel and business plans. The parties also discussed how the two organizations would combine in a merger of equals, and how the transaction and resulting company would be structured. Due diligence began June 5, 2006, and continued through the following week. Over this period, Sandler O'Neill and Keefe Bruyette continued discussions with respect to the exchange ratio, and Sandler O'Neill recommended to Keefe Bruyette a fixed exchange ratio of 1.2 shares of UnionBancorp common stock for each share of Centru Financial common stock, with this ratio based on the previously discussed market-to-market methodology. Keefe Bruyette reported to Centru Financial that UnionBancorp was not receptive to a modification of the exchange ratio methodology.

On June 12, 2006, UnionBancorp held a board meeting which was attended by all but one of its directors, Mr. Stevenson, Chief Financial Officer, and representatives of Howard & Howard and Sandler O'Neill. The meeting was called to update the board on the status of negotiations and due diligence. Mr. Yeoman advised that he and Mr. Stevenson met twice with Mr. Daiber prior to the commencement of the due diligence process. The meetings ended on a positive note with all parties agreeing that there would be synergies in a combined organization. Also discussed were preliminary organizational chart items, line of business structure and centralized operations and support functions. Mr. Yeoman discussed the diligence process and reviewed the findings identified by the due diligence team. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill then discussed the exchange ratio analysis projecting a 1.20x exchange ratio and their pro forma contribution analysis as of March 31, 2006 supporting a merger of equals transaction. The board briefly discussed a timeline of events should the companies move forward and the prospective need to offer employment contracts to key individuals to ensure the successful integration of the two companies.

On June 13, 2006, Centru Financial's board of directors held a meeting that included the participation of Keefe Bruyette and Barack Ferrazzano. At this meeting, the Centru Financial board reviewed the strategic alliance process to date, a summary of the merger-of-equals transaction proposal, and a financial analysis presented by Keefe Bruyette of Centru Financial, UnionBancorp and the proposed transaction. Management provided the board of directors with the initial due diligence report, which included a discussion of the loan review, financial and related areas, insurance and benefit plans, premises and equipment, retail overview, trust and brokerage activities, regulatory matters and personnel. In addition, Barack Ferrazzano delivered its initial legal due diligence report, including addressing securities, contract and benefit matters. The meeting also included a detailed discussion by counsel of the terms of the proposed merger agreement and employment agreements to be entered into with key management personnel of the combined company. Barack Ferrazzano also reviewed with the board its fiduciary obligations and the legal standards applicable to a decision by the board to approve the merger agreement and related transaction and recommend their approval to stockholders. At the conclusion of the meeting, counsel was requested to deliver the agreement to UnionBancorp's counsel and to negotiate a definitive agreement. Barack Ferrazzano delivered the draft agreement to Howard & Howard, counsel for UnionBancorp, later that afternoon.

Management of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp, along with their respective financial advisors, continued to have discussions regarding the proposed exchange ratio. The two management teams also discussed other key issues such as transaction structure, management, integration risk, systems compatibility and other transitional issues. These discussions continued through June 2006. Concurrently, Barack Ferrazzano and Howard & Howard negotiated, with input from their respective clients, the terms of the merger agreement and related documents, including proposed employment agreements for the top and lower-tier management personnel. Throughout this time period, the boards of directors of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp were kept advised of the progress made and the issues under discussion. In addition, the Centru Financial board of directors met on June 21 and June 22 to engage in additional discussions regarding the terms of the proposed transaction, including discussion of the status of the merger agreement and the status of conversations among the parties relating to employment agreement terms and management integration matters.

UnionBancorp's board met on June 22, 2006. Mr. Stevenson, representatives of Howard & Howard, representatives of UnionBancorp's independent auditor, Crowe Chizek and Company LLC, and representatives of Sandler O'Neill were also in attendance. Based on the current draft of the merger agreement, a representative of Howard & Howard discussed legal issues associated with the merger agreement and the board's fiduciary duties in considering the merger agreement and answered questions from the board. Messrs. Yeoman and Stevenson presented an assessment of the benefits and risks associated with the proposed merger and provided an overview of Centru Financial including a historical review and branch location descriptions. The scope and outcome of the due diligence investigation was discussed and board members were provided with executive overviews from the line of business managers who were directly involved in the due diligence process. Discussions also included a review of integration strategies and the proposed organizational chart. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill provided a detailed discussion of the analysis of the proposed merger and also answered questions from the board.

On June 26, 2006, Mr. Daiber and an independent director of Centru Financial met with Mr. Yeoman, an independent director of UnionBancorp and the Chairman of the Board of UnionBancorp, to discuss further specifics with respect to the employment and compensation arrangements, including final identification of the parties who would enter into employment agreements and the compensation and benefit levels for those individuals. The parties continued discussions on these matters as well as board structure over the next several days, while counsel for the respective parties worked to finalize the merger agreement and other documentation, including the disclosure schedules delivered in connection with the merger agreement.

On June 30, 2006, the Centru Financial board of directors held a special meeting to consider the negotiated terms of the transaction. The meeting included extensive discussion of the proposed transaction, the merger agreement and updated explanatory materials similar to those previously reviewed by the Centru Financial board at the June 13, 2006 meeting. Barack Ferrazzano again reviewed with the board its fiduciary duties and other legal considerations involved in a decision to approve the contemplated transactions. Keefe Bruyette reviewed the financial terms of the transaction, provided a financial analysis of the proposed transaction and orally expressed an opinion that the exchange ratio was fair to Centru Financial's stockholders from a financial point of view. Keefe Bruyette confirmed this oral opinion in writing by letter dated June 30, 2006. At the conclusion of this portion of the meeting, the Centru Financial board determined that the proposed merger of equals with UnionBancorp was in the best interests of its stockholders and unanimously approved the merger agreement and related transactions.

UnionBancorp also held a special meeting on June 30, 2006 to consider and vote on the proposed merger agreement and the transactions related to the merger agreement. Mr. Stevenson, representatives of Howard & Howard, representatives of Crowe Chizek, and representatives of Sandler O'Neill were also in attendance. Mr. Yeoman began by summarizing the activities which had taken place since the last meeting of the board relating to discussions between representatives of UnionBancorp and representatives of Centru Financial. He also summarized the results of due diligence investigations. A representative of Howard & Howard again discussed the fiduciary duties of the board in considering the merger agreement and reviewed the terms of the merger agreement, voting agreement, employment agreements, and other matters. Finally, Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the transaction, provided a financial analysis of the proposed transaction and orally expressed an opinion that the exchange ratio was fair to UnionBancorp's stockholders from a financial point of view, which Sandler O'Neill subsequently confirmed in writing by letter dated June 30, 2006. After extensive discussion, UnionBancorp's board determined that the proposed merger of equals with Centru Financial was in the best interests of its stockholders and unanimously approved the merger agreement and related transactions.

The merger agreement was signed by both Centru Financial and UnionBancorp after the closing of stock markets on June 30, 2006, and was publicly announced on June 30, 2006.

UnionBancorp's Reasons for the Merger and Board Recommendation

The UnionBancorp board believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, UnionBancorp and the UnionBancorp stockholders. Accordingly, the UnionBancorp board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that the UnionBancorp stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The UnionBancorp board believes that the consummation of the merger presents a unique opportunity to combine with one of central Illinois' leading community banking franchises to create an even stronger Illinois community banking franchise with an enhanced geographic presence and product development capabilities.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the UnionBancorp board consulted with UnionBancorp's management, as well as with its financial and legal advisors, and considered a variety of factors, including the following:

the fact that the exchange ratio represented an at-market transaction based on the ratio of the market price of Centru Financial common stock to the market price of UnionBancorp common stock, which the UnionBancorp board believed presented a unique and attractive opportunity, and that the exchange ratio would be fixed thereby reducing the risk that the transaction would become dilutive to UnionBancorp's stockholders;

the potential cost saving opportunities and the related potential positive impact on the combined company's earnings, including, specifically, the elimination of UnionBancorp's current need to upgrade its operating platform by converting to the operating platform currently in use at Centru Financial;

the opportunities for revenue enhancements through the development of more extensive product offerings, including cash management and private banking, by a combined company with significantly greater resources than either standing alone, and the ability to leverage UnionBancorp's asset management business over a larger franchise;

the opportunity to build greater brand recognition and awareness;

the governance arrangements with respect to the combined company post-merger, including the fact that Mr. McDonnell would serve as Chairman of the combined company, Mr. Yeoman would serve as Chief Operating Officer, and Mr. Stevenson would serve as Chief Financial Officer, as well as, the proposed composition of the board of directors;

the belief of UnionBancorp's senior management that the managements and employees of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp possess complementary skills and expertise and the potential advantages of a larger institution when pursuing, or seeking to retain, production and management talent;

the benefit and convenience to the combined company's customers resulting from the greater number of retail banking outlets spread over a broader geographic area that would become available to them for the conduct of their banking business, as well as the increased penetration of the northern, central and southwestern Illinois markets;

the opportunity to leverage UnionBancorp's recent success in centralization, standardization, and consolidation of non-sales related operations across Centru Financial's diverse operations platforms, thereby enhancing revenue-generating activities in all branch locations;

the complementary nature and similarities in the markets served by Centru Financial and UnionBancorp;

Centru Financial's community banking philosophy, and stated commitment to local decision-making, and involvement by its leaders in the communities that it serves;

the tax-free nature of the transaction due to the all-stock consideration to be utilized in the merger;

the competence, experience, and integrity of Centru Financial's senior officers;

the growing accounting, legal and regulatory compliance costs for publicly-traded institutions and the ability to spread such costs over a significantly larger revenue base;

the increasingly high costs of product development and technology and the probability that such costs are likely to continue to increase in the future;

the belief that, following the merger, the combined entity will be well-positioned to continue to grow through possible future acquisitions or expansions while at the same time increasing its attractiveness as a possible merger candidate; and correspondingly, the ability to make strategic divestitures from time-to-time which should have a reduced impact on a larger-sized institution;

the opinion of Sandler O'Neill that, as of June 30, 2006, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair from a financial point of view to UnionBancorp stockholders (see Fairness Opinion of UnionBancorp's Financial Advisor);

the anticipated increase in the liquidity of the combined company's stock resulting from a significantly expanded stockholder base and the potential increase in interest from institutional investors and securities analysis; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the appropriate regulatory authorities in a timely manner (see Regulatory Approvals).

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the UnionBancorp board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the UnionBancorp board. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger, the UnionBancorp board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the foregoing factors, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The UnionBancorp board is unanimous in its recommendation that UnionBancorp stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Centru Financial's Reasons for the Merger and Board Recommendation

The Centru Financial board of directors believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Centru Financial and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Centru Financial board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that its stockholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates.

Centrue Financial's board has concluded that the proposed merger offers stockholders an extremely attractive opportunity to achieve the board's strategic business objectives. These objectives included increasing stockholder value and growing the size of the business to one of the premier financial institutions in central Illinois.

In deciding to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates, Centrue Financial's board consulted with management, as well as its legal counsel and financial advisors, and considered numerous factors, including the following:

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of Centrue Financial and UnionBancorp, both individually and as a combined company; in particular, the Centrue Financial board focused on the strategic fit of the business lines and the operating philosophies of the two institutions;

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Centrue Financial's execution of its strategic growth plans as an independent banking organization, including the need to hire and retain management personnel, including a Chief Financial Officer, in order to support and enhance future growth;

the fact that the merger would combine two solid and emerging banking franchises to create a $1.3 billion bank that would have a top 50 deposit share in Illinois;

the consistency of the merger with Centrue Financial's long-term strategic vision to seek profitable future expansion in the far southern and southwestern Chicago suburbs, providing the foundation for advancement into both the Chicago metropolitan and St. Louis metropolitan areas, leading to continued growth in overall stockholder value;

the complementary nature of the businesses of Centrue Financial and UnionBancorp and the anticipated improved stability of the combined company's business and earnings in varying economic and market climates relative to Centrue Financial on a stand-alone basis;

the combination of the significant management talent of both organizations, which would provide for operational synergies and efficiencies;

the belief of Centrue Financial's senior management and the Centrue Financial board that the two companies share a common vision with respect to delivering financial performance and stockholder value and that their executive officers and employees possess complementary skills and expertise;

the advantages of a combination with an institution such as UnionBancorp that already has a significant market share in the northern central Illinois markets and the opportunities for increased efficiencies and significant cost savings resulting from a combination with UnionBancorp's current organization, resulting in increased profitability of the combined entity over time, as compared to a possible combination without a similar market presence;

the fact that the combined company would continue to be publicly held following the merger, providing the combined company's stockholders with continued access to a public trading market, and that stockholders would be expected to have increased liquidity for their shares as a result of the higher market capitalization of the combined company;

the fact that the market capitalization of the combined institution, as compared with Centrue Financial's market capitalization as a stand-alone entity, was expected to provide the company with increased access to capital markets to finance the combined company's capital requirements, and in addition would provide for enhanced market visibility;

the fact that the higher market capitalization of the combined company was expected to enhance the attractiveness of the company's stock going forward, which would make the stock more attractive as consideration to be used in future acquisition opportunities that may allow for increased stockholder value;

the current and prospective economic and competitive environments facing Centrue Financial and other financial institutions, characterized by intensifying competition from both banks and nonbank financial service organizations, and the growing costs associated with regulatory compliance in the industry;

the belief that the market value of UnionBancorp's common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement offered favorable prospects for future appreciation as a result of the proposed merger and other strategic initiatives that would be implemented by the combined company;

the belief that the merger would result in stockholders of Centrue Financial receiving stock in a high quality combined company that should benefit stockholders through enhanced operating efficiencies and better penetration of commercial and consumer banking markets in Illinois;

the belief that, while no assurances could be given, the business and financial advantages contemplated in connection with the merger were likely to be achieved within a reasonable time frame, particularly in light of the fact that the organizations have transition experience due to recent successfully completed acquisitions, divestitures, charter consolidations and/or data processing conversions;

the opinion of Keefe Bruyette that, as of June 30, 2006, the exchange ratio offered in the merger was fair from a financial point of view to Centrue Financial's stockholders (see Fairness Opinion of Centrue Financial's Financial Advisor); and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities (see Regulatory Approval).

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by the Centrue Financial board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors they considered. In arriving at its determination to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates, and recommend that the Centrue Financial stockholders vote to approve them, the Centrue Financial board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the above factors, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The Centrue Financial board unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the related transactions.

Fairness Opinion of UnionBancorp's Financial Advisor

By letter dated May 25, 2006, UnionBancorp retained Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination with Centrue Financial. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

At the June 30, 2006 meeting at which UnionBancorp's board considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the board its oral opinion, that, as of such date, the exchange ratio was fair to UnionBancorp and UnionBancorp's shareholders from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix B to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. In rendering its June 30, 2006 opinion, Sandler O Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Sandler O Neill, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O Neill's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to UnionBancorp or Centru Financial and no transaction is identical to those described in the registration statement. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of UnionBancorp, Centru Financial and Sandler O Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the UnionBancorp board at the board's

As illustrated in the following tables, this analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share for Centru Financial common stock of $20.95 to $32.50 when applying the price to earnings multiples to the matched financial projections, $17.18 to $36.82 when applying

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the following: (1) the merger closes on December 31, 2006; (2) 100.0% of Centru Financial shares are exchanged for Merger Sub common stock at a fixed exchange ratio of 1.20 and 100% of UnionBancorp shares are exchanged for Merger Sub common stock at a fixed exchange ratio of 1.00; (3) Centru Financial s 2006, 2007, and 2008 financial and growth projections; (4) UnionBancorp s 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009 financial projections; (6) purchase accounting adjustments, charges and transaction costs associated with the merger and cost savings determined by the senior managements of UnionBancorp and Centru Financial. The analyses indicated that for the year ending December 31, 2007 (the first full year of combined operations), the merger would be accretive to UnionBancorp s projected earnings per share and, at December 31, 2006 (the assumed closing date of the merger) the merger would be dilutive to UnionBancorp s tangible book value per share. The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and transactions examined.

Discounted Cash Flow and Terminal Value Analysis. Keefe Bruyette estimated the present value of Centru Financial's common stock based on continued independence and Centru Financial's stake in the combined entity by calculating the present value of Centru Financial's projected cash flows and the projected cash flows of the combined entity. Keefe Bruyette's analysis assumes that excess capital above a 6.0% tangible equity/tangible assets ratio represents free cash flow available for dividends. For purposes of this analysis, Keefe Bruyette applied a discount rate of 14.0%. Keefe Bruyette relied on financial projections provided by Centru Financial's management and UnionBancorp's management and assumed terminal values of 14 times projected forward earnings. The analysis resulted in an estimated standalone value of $51.0 million or $22.73 per share representing continued independence, and an estimated pro forma value of $68.1 million or $30.18 per share representing Centru Financial's portion of the combined entity.

Keefe Bruyette also ran sensitivity analysis on the discounted cash flows using terminal values of 12 to 16 times projected forward earnings. In the standalone scenario for Centru Financial the three other variables used were discount rates ranging from 13.0% to 15.0%, cost savings ranging from 0.0% to 4.0% and tangible equity/tangible asset targets ranging from 5.0% to 7.0%. The analysis resulted in the standalone values for Centru Financial ranging from $36.3 million to $69.4 million. In the pro forma scenario for the combined entity the three other variables used were discount rates ranging from 13.0% to 15.0%, cost savings ranging from 7.0% to 11.0% and tangible equity/tangible asset targets ranging from 5.5% to 7.5%. The analysis resulted in values for Centru Financial's portion of the combined entity ranging from $51.1 million to $78.6 million.

Keefe Bruyette stated that the discounted cash flow present value analysis is widely used valuation methodology, but noted that it relies on numerous assumptions including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Centru Financial common stock or the common stock of the combined entity.

Subject to the exceptions set forth in the merger agreement, UnionBancorp and Centru Financial must:

not issue any additional shares of stock;

confer with each other on material operational matters;

make loans only in accordance with sound credit practices and on arms-length terms and obtain the consent of the other before making any new loans greater than $3,000,000;

cause our respective allowances for loan and lease losses to be adequate in all material respects; file, on a timely basis, all required regulatory filings; and not take any action that would cause a breach of any of our representation and warranties.

We have also agreed to provide the other with certain documents before the closing date, including:
interim financial statements; and reasonable notice of any fact or condition creating a breach of the merger agreement.

Centru Financial has agreed that it will not encourage any third-party proposals to acquire Centru Financial and will not participate in negotiations regarding a proposal to acquire Centru Financial. However, Centru Financial may provide information and negotiate with a third party if Centru Financial's board of directors determines that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties. Centru Financial is required under the merger agreement to provide UnionBancorp notice of any proposal it receives to acquire Centru Financial.

Correspondingly, UnionBancorp has agreed that it will not encourage any third-party proposals to acquire UnionBancorp and will not participate in negotiations regarding a proposal to acquire UnionBancorp. However, UnionBancorp may provide information and negotiate with a third party if UnionBancorp's board of directors determines that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties. UnionBancorp is required under the merger agreement to provide Centru Financial notice of any proposal it receives to acquire UnionBancorp.

In addition, both parties have agreed:

to use all reasonable efforts and to cooperate in the preparation and filing of all applications, notices and documents required to obtain regulatory approval and/or consents from governmental authorities for the merger and the merger agreement;

to use reasonable and diligent good faith efforts to satisfy the conditions required to close the merger and to complete the merger as soon as practicable;

that neither will intentionally act in a manner that would cause a breach of the merger agreement or that would cause a representation made in the merger agreement to become untrue; to provide the other party with reasonable access to information under the condition that the information be kept confidential; and to coordinate publicity of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement with the media and their respective stockholders.

Centrue Financial has agreed to file all applications and notices to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of us has agreed to cooperate with the other in connection with obtaining the requisite regulatory and Securities and Exchange Commission approvals.

You should carefully review the entire agreement and in particular Articles 6, 7 and 8, containing the detailed covenants of the parties.

Neither party can be certain as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so. If the merger is not completed by March 1, 2007 or such later date as the parties may agree, either of our boards of directors may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger; provided, however, that the party responsible for a condition not being met prior to March 1, 2007 or such later date as the parties may agree, may not terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not completed by March 1, 2007 or such later date as the parties may agree. See Description of Transaction Waiver, Amendment and Termination.

The foregoing is an outline of the types of conditions precedent to the obligations of UnionBancorp and Centru e Financial contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is included at Appendix A. You should carefully review the entire agreement and in particular Articles 9 and 10, containing the detailed conditions to each party s obligation to close.

Termination and Termination Fees

Ability to Terminate the Merger Agreement. At any time before the merger becomes effective, the boards of directors of Centru e Financial and UnionBancorp may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement. In addition, the merger agreement may be terminated as follows:

by UnionBancorp, if any of the conditions to its obligation to complete the merger, as described above, has not been satisfied or has become impossible, and UnionBancorp has not waived the condition;

by Centru e Financial, if any of the conditions to its obligation to consummate the merger, as described above, has not been satisfied or has become impossible, and Centru e Financial has not waived the condition;

by either UnionBancorp or Centru e Financial, if the closing of the merger has not occurred, other than through the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform any of its required obligations under the merger agreement, by March 1, 2007 or such later date as the parties may agree, except that, in general, the termination date can be extended for up to ninety days if the sole reason that the closing has not occurred is due to the fact that the regulatory approvals have not been received;

by Centru e Financial, but subject to the special termination fee described below, if Centru e Financial receives an acquisition proposal that is determined by the Centru e Financial board of directors to be on terms that are more favorable to the stockholders of Centru e Financial than the merger, and prior written notice, together with a summary of the terms of, and the identity of the person making, the proposal are provided to UnionBancorp (a Superior Centru e Financial Proposal); and by UnionBancorp, but subject to the special termination fee described below, if UnionBancorp receives an acquisition proposal that is determined by the UnionBancorp board of directors to be on terms that are more favorable to the stockholders of UnionBancorp than the merger, and prior written notice, together with a summary of the terms of, and the identity of the person making, the proposal are provided to Centru e Financial (a Superior UnionBancorp Proposal).

Effect of Termination. If the merger is terminated, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect, except that certain provisions of the merger agreement, including those relating to the obligation to pay expenses and maintain the confidentiality of certain information obtained in connection with the merger and the merger agreement, will survive, and except that either party may be required to make certain payments upon termination as described below.

Centrue Financial Termination Payments.

If the merger agreement is terminated by UnionBancorp because Centrue Financial has not satisfied its conditions or the closing has not occurred by March 1, 2007 and, in either case, Centrue Financial knowingly breached its covenants, agreements, representations or warranties under the merger agreement (unless such breach is a result of the failure by UnionBancorp to perform and comply with any of its obligations) then, provided UnionBancorp is in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, Centrue Financial must pay $2,700,000 to UnionBancorp. (Notwithstanding the foregoing, the termination date can be extended for up to ninety days if the sole reason that the closing has not occurred is due to the fact that the regulatory approvals have not been received.)

If the merger agreement is terminated by Centrue Financial or UnionBancorp because Centrue Financial's stockholders fail to approve the merger (a Centrue Financial Stockholder Termination); then, provided UnionBancorp is in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, Centrue Financial must pay $500,000 to UnionBancorp.

In addition to the $500,000 payment described above (if any), if there is a Centrue Financial Stockholder Termination and, within twelve months after such Centrue Financial Stockholder Termination, Centrue Financial enters into an agreement with any party other than UnionBancorp providing for the acquisition of Centrue Financial, then, provided UnionBancorp was in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, Centrue Financial must pay $2,200,000 to UnionBancorp.

If Centrue Financial terminates the merger agreement as a result of a Superior Centrue Financial Proposal, then Centrue Financial must pay $2,700,000 to UnionBancorp.

UnionBancorp Termination Payments.

If the merger agreement is terminated by Centrue Financial because UnionBancorp has not satisfied its conditions or the closing has not occurred by March 1, 2007 and, in either case, UnionBancorp knowingly breached its covenants, agreements, representations or warranties under the merger agreement (unless such breach is a result of the failure by Centrue Financial to perform and comply with any of its obligations) then, provided Centrue Financial is in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, UnionBancorp must pay $2,700,000 to Centrue Financial. (Notwithstanding the foregoing, the termination date can be extended for up to ninety days if the sole reason that the closing has not occurred is due to the fact that the regulatory approvals have not been received.)

If the merger agreement is terminated by UnionBancorp or Centrue Financial because UnionBancorp's stockholders fail to approve the merger (a UnionBancorp Stockholder Termination); then, provided Centrue Financial is in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, UnionBancorp must pay $500,000 to Centrue Financial.

In addition to the $500,000 payment described above (if any), if there is a UnionBancorp Stockholder Termination and, within twelve months after such UnionBancorp Stockholder Termination, UnionBancorp enters into an agreement with any party other than Centrue Financial providing for the acquisition of UnionBancorp, then, provided Centrue Financial was in compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement, UnionBancorp must pay $2,200,000 to Centrue Financial.

If UnionBancorp terminates the merger agreement as a result of a Superior UnionBancorp Proposal, then UnionBancorp must pay $2,700,000 to Centrue Financial.

The foregoing is an outline of the termination provisions contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is included at Appendix A. You should carefully review the entire agreement and in particular Article 11, containing the detailed termination provisions.

Waiver and Amendment

To the extent permitted by law, our boards of directors may agree in writing to amend the merger agreement, whether before or after our stockholders have approved the merger agreement. However, no amendment agreed to after the merger agreement has been approved by our stockholders may materially and adversely affect the rights of UnionBancorp's or Centru Financial's stockholders. In addition, before or at the time the merger becomes effective, either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial, or both, may waive any default in the performance of any term of the merger agreement by the other or may waive or extend the time for the compliance or fulfillment by the other of any of its obligations under the merger agreement. Either of UnionBancorp or Centru Financial may also waive any of the conditions precedent to their respective obligations under the merger agreement, unless a violation of any law or governmental regulation would result. To be effective, a waiver must be in writing and signed by one of UnionBancorp's or Centru Financial's duly authorized officers.

Regulatory Approvals

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the parties receive all necessary regulatory approvals of the merger. Neither UnionBancorp nor Centru Financial is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required to complete the merger, except as described below. If any other approval or action is required, UnionBancorp will also seek this approval or action.

As a result of the merger, UnionBancorp will own directly all of the outstanding stock of Centru Bank. UnionBancorp intends to merge Centru Bank with and into UnionBank simultaneous with the merger between UnionBancorp and Centru Financial. The merger of Centru Financial into UnionBancorp is subject to the prior approval or waiver of such approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve (the "Federal Reserve") and the merger of Centru Bank with and into UnionBank is subject to the prior approval of the Federal Reserve and the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (the "DFPR").

On July 28, 2006, UnionBank filed applications with the Federal Reserve and the DFPR for prior approval of the merger of Centru Bank and UnionBank. It is expected that both the Federal Reserve and the DFPR will approve the merger of Centru Bank and UnionBank in the 4th calendar quarter of 2006. On August 31, 2006, UnionBancorp received a waiver of the requirement for filing an application for approval of the merger under the federal Bank Holding Company Act from the Federal Reserve.

The merger may not be completed until 30 days following the date of the Federal Reserve approval, although the U.S. Department of Justice may reduce that period to 15 days. During this period, the U.S. Department of Justice is given the opportunity to challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. The commencement of any antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the approval of the agencies, unless a court of competent jurisdiction specifically ordered otherwise.

We are not aware of any other regulatory approvals required for completion of the merger, and there can be no assurance that any approvals will be obtained. The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the consideration to be received by Centru Financial stockholders.

There can be no assurances that the requisite regulatory approvals or waivers will be received in a timely manner, in which event the consummation of the merger may be delayed. If the merger is not consummated on or before May 30, 2007, either UnionBancorp or Centru Financial may terminate the merger agreement. We can give you no assurance as to the receipt or timing of these approvals or waivers.

Executive Officers of Combined UnionBancorp/ Centrue

Thomas A. Daiber	President and Chief Executive Officer
Scott A. Yeoman	Chief Operating Officer
Kurt R. Stevenson	Chief Financial Officer

Thomas A. Daiber, 48, was named President and Chief Executive Officer of Centrue Financial and Chief Executive Officer of Centrue Bank in October of 2003. Prior to joining Centrue Financial, Mr. Daiber had served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Aviston Financial Corporation and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the State Bank of Aviston, headquartered in Aviston, Illinois, from October, 2002 to October, 2003. Mr. Daiber served as Allegiant Bancorp, Inc.'s Chief Financial Officer from May, 1999 until March, 2003. Mr. Daiber was employed by Allegiant Bancorp in St. Louis, Missouri beginning in March, 1997 and served as its Director of Internal Auditing prior to becoming Chief Financial Officer.

Scott A. Yeoman, 48, was named President and Chief Executive Officer of UnionBancorp in June of 2005. Prior to joining UnionBancorp, Mr. Yeoman served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Associated Bank Lakeshore, a subsidiary of Associated Banc Corp, in Manitowoc, Wisconsin from 1998 through 2004. Mr. Yeoman joined the organization with over 20 years of commercial banking experience.

Kurt R. Stevenson, 39, was promoted to Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in the first quarter of 2006. Prior to that, Mr. Stevenson served as UnionBancorp's Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since June of 2000. He first started employment with the Ottawa National Bank in 1987 and, subsequently, began work with UnionBancorp following the acquisition of Ottawa National Bank by UnionBancorp in 1991.

See Where You Can Find More Information. For additional information regarding the interests of certain persons in the merger, see Description of Transaction Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

General. Some members of our respective management and boards of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as stockholders generally. The board of directors of each of UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial were aware of these interests and considered them, together with the other matters described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus, in adopting the merger agreement and approving the merger.

Stay Bonuses. The merger agreement allows UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial to pay special stay bonuses to employees of UnionBancorp or Centrue Financial who enter into a Stay Bonus Agreement in a form that is mutually agreed upon by UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial. UnionBancorp may also make new grants of employee stock options to employees of UnionBancorp or Centrue Financial, as mutually agreed upon. UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial implemented this stay bonus program (a) to help maintain their respective franchises in the event the proposed merger is not completed, (b) to deliver value to the combined company and (c) to minimize the likelihood that valued employees would leave immediately prior to or shortly after the closing of the merger.

Existing UnionBancorp Employment Agreements. UnionBancorp has change of control agreements with a number of its senior officers, including Scott A. Yeoman, who serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of UnionBancorp and Kurt R. Stevenson, who serves as Chief Financial Officer of UnionBancorp. The agreements provide that if, within two years after a change of control occurs, the executive's employment is terminated without good cause or the executive voluntarily terminates employment with good reason, then the executive shall receive a cash payment equal to two times the executive's salary. In Mr. Yeoman's case, if, at any time during the two year period, he obtains employment, payments will be reduced by the amount of compensation being earned in the new position. The pending merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp would constitute a change of control for purposes of these agreements, which could entitle the respective executive to the severance amount in the event his employment later terminates. However, Mr. Yeoman and Mr. Stevenson have each entered into an employment agreement with UnionBancorp, which will become effective upon the completion of the merger, and the agreement contains a provision stating that the existing employment agreement with UnionBancorp will terminate when the new agreement becomes effective. These new employment agreements are described further below.

Existing Centru Financial Employment Agreements. Centru Financial has employment agreements with a number of its senior officers, including Thomas A. Daiber, who serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Centru Financial. The agreement provides that Mr. Daiber will receive a severance payment if his employment terminates under certain circumstances after a change of control of Centru Financial. The pending merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp would constitute a change of control for purposes of his agreement, which could result in his being entitled to the severance amount in the event his employment later terminates. Mr. Daiber has entered into an employment agreement with UnionBancorp, which will become effective upon the completion of the merger. The agreement contains a provision stating that the existing employment agreement with Centru Financial will terminate when the new agreement becomes effective. This new employment agreement is described further below.

New Employment Agreements with Thomas A. Daiber, Scott A. Yeoman and Kurt R. Stevenson. UnionBancorp has entered into employment agreements with Thomas A. Daiber, Scott A. Yeoman and Kurt R. Stevenson. These agreements will become effective as of the effective time of the merger. Except as described below, each agreement is substantially identical. Initially the agreements are effective for a three-year term. On the second anniversary of the agreements' effective date, the term will be extended an additional day so that the term is always one year, unless either party gives written notice of non-renewal to the other party. The agreements provide for annual base salary of not less than $290,000 for Mr. Daiber, $220,000 for Mr. Yeoman and $170,000 for Mr. Stevenson. The executives will have the opportunity to receive annual performance bonuses of up to 50% of base salary in the case of Mr. Daiber and Mr. Yeoman and up to 30% of base salary in the case of Mr. Stevenson. The agreements provide for the award of incentive stock options to each executive on July 7, 2006. Mr. Daiber is being awarded options to purchase 10,417 shares of Centru Financial stock, which will convert into the right to purchase 12,500 shares of UnionBancorp stock after the merger. Mr. Yeoman is being awarded options to purchase 10,000 shares of UnionBancorp stock and Mr. Stevenson is being awarded options to purchase 7,500 shares of UnionBancorp stock. One-fifth of the options will become exercisable on the first anniversary of the employment agreements and an additional one-fifth will become exercisable on each successive anniversary. The options shall become fully exercisable upon a change of control, other than the merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp, the executive's death, disability, termination of executive's employment by the employer without cause, or the executive's termination of employment due to a constructive discharge. Each executive will be entitled to not less than twenty-three days of paid time off as well as benefits at least as favorable to the benefits provided to all other employees of UnionBancorp and UnionBank.

Each agreement provides that in the event of a termination of the executive's employment by UnionBancorp without cause or by the executive due to constructive discharge prior to the end of the term of the agreement, the executive will be entitled to certain severance benefits including payments of the executive's annual compensation for the greater of twenty-four months or the remaining period left in the employment agreement's term. Annual compensation is the executive's base salary plus the performance bonus for the most recent performance period. The executive would also be entitled to receive reimbursement for premiums the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive's dependents. During the twelve months following a change of control of UnionBancorp other than the merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp, if the executive voluntarily terminates his employment due to constructive discharge or if UnionBancorp terminates the executive's employment for any reason other than cause, the executive will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times the executive's annual compensation, which is the sum of the executive's base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period, plus reimbursement for premiums the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive's dependents.

The employment agreements include customary provisions prohibiting the executive from competing with UnionBancorp and other activities that would be harmful to UnionBancorp. Payments under the employment agreements will be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent any portion of the payments from being treated as a nondeductible excess parachute payment under the federal tax laws.

New Employment Agreements with Senior Officers. UnionBancorp and Centru Financial are entering into additional employment agreements with up to twelve additional senior officers of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp. These agreements will become effective as of the effective time of the merger. Except as described below, each agreement is substantially identical. Initially the agreements are effective for a one-year term. On the first anniversary of the date the agreements become effective, the term will be extended an additional year, unless either party gives written notice of non-renewal to the other party. The agreements specify a minimum annual base salary for each senior officer ranging from $100,000 to $135,000. Each senior officer will have the opportunity to receive annual performance bonuses of up to 25% of base salary. The agreements provide for the award of incentive stock options to each senior officer on July 7, 2006. Taking into account the adjustment to the number of shares subject to stock options that will occur as a result of the merger of Centru Financial with UnionBancorp, a total 73,000 shares will be subject to options awarded to these senior officers. One-fifth of the options will become exercisable on the first anniversary of the effective date of the merger and an additional one-fifth will become exercisable on each successive anniversary. The options shall become fully exercisable upon a change of control of UnionBancorp other than the merger of Centru Financial with UnionBancorp, the senior officer's death, disability, termination of senior officer's employment by the employer without cause, or, during the first twelve months the agreements are effective, the senior officer's termination of employment due to a constructive discharge. Each senior officer will be entitled to not less than twenty-three days of paid time off as well as benefits at least as favorable to the benefits provided to all other employees of UnionBancorp and UnionBank.

Each agreement provides that in the event of a termination of the senior officer's employment by UnionBancorp without cause during such period, during the first twelve months of the agreement, or by the senior officer due to constructive discharge during such period, the senior officer will be entitled to certain severance benefits including payments of the senior officer's annual compensation for twelve months. Annual compensation is the senior officer's base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period. The senior officer would also be entitled to receive reimbursement for premiums the senior officer pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the senior officer and the senior officer's dependents. During the twelve months following a change of control of UnionBancorp, not including the merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp, if the senior officer voluntarily terminates his employment due to constructive discharge or if UnionBancorp terminates the senior officer's employment for any reason other than cause, the senior officer will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the senior officer's annual compensation, which is the sum of the senior officer's base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period, plus reimbursement for premiums the senior officer pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the senior officer and the senior officer's dependents.

The employment agreements include customary provisions prohibiting the senior officer from competing with UnionBancorp and other activities that would be harmful to UnionBancorp. Payments under the employment agreements will be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent any portion of the payments from being treated as a nondeductible excess parachute payment under the federal tax laws.

Treatment of Centru Financial Stock Options. The Centru Financial stock option plan and the stock option agreements with plan participants provide that all options that were not previously exercisable will become immediately exercisable upon a change of control. The merger of Centru Financial and UnionBancorp will constitute a change of control under the Centru Financial stock option plan. Accordingly, the options to purchase 88,700 shares of Centru Financial common stock which are currently not exercisable will become exercisable no later than the effective date of the merger. The options awarded to executives and senior officers pursuant to the employment agreements described above will not become exercisable as a result of the merger. Centru Financial stock options will be converted into UnionBancorp stock options in the merger, with the number of shares and exercise price adjusted for the exchange ratio.

Treatment of UnionBancorp Stock Options. The merger agreement provides that options to purchase UnionBancorp common stock will become immediately exercisable upon the merger becoming effective. Accordingly, the options to purchase 91,131 shares of UnionBancorp common stock which are currently not exercisable will become exercisable no later than the effective date of the merger. The options awarded to executives and senior officers pursuant to the employment agreements described above will not become exercisable as a result of the merger.

Director s Deferred Compensation Plan. Each of Centru Financial s independent directors participates in the Centru Financial Non-Employee Directors Deferred Compensation Plan pursuant to which such directors have been allocated shares of Centru Financial common stock in connection with their services. At the effective time of the merger, each director participant will become vested in all shares allocated to him under the plan, and these shares will be converted into shares of UnionBancorp common stock at the 1.2 exchange ratio. As of the date of this document, 15,990 shares of Centru Financial common stock have been allocated under the plan, and it is expected that an aggregate of 2,375 additional shares will be allocated per fiscal quarter to the director participants.

Indemnification for Directors and Officers; Insurance. UnionBancorp has agreed to honor for at least six years from the effective date of the merger all of Centru Financial s obligations with respect to indemnification currently provided by Centru Financial in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws in favor of the current and former officers and directors with respect to matters occurring prior to the effective time. In addition, UnionBancorp has agreed to acquire and maintain for a period of six years extended coverage of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time with respect to those persons who are currently covered by Centru Financial s director and officer liability policies of insurance on terms that are substantially similar to those contained in the director and officer liability policies in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

Consulting Agreement. Effective July 25, 2006, Centru Bank entered into a consulting agreement with UnionBank, whereby UnionBank has agreed to consult and advise Centru Bank with respect to the preparation and maintenance of certain of Centru Bank s accounting, tax and financial reports, including Centru Bank s general ledger system. UnionBank receives an hourly fee of $75.00 plus out of pocket expenses in connection with the engagement and has been indemnified by Centru Bank against any liabilities incurred by UnionBank as a result of the engagement.

Additional Agreements

UnionBancorp Voting Agreement. Each of the directors of Centru Financial has entered into a voting agreement with UnionBancorp. Under this agreement, these stockholders have agreed to vote their respective shares of Centru Financial common stock:

in favor of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

against any merger with Centru Financial by a party other than UnionBancorp;

against any action or agreement that would result in a material breach of any term or any other obligation of Centru Financial under the merger agreement; and against any action or agreement which would impede or interfere with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Furthermore, each of these stockholders has also agreed not to solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries or proposals for a merger or other business combination involving Centru Financial. The shares subject to the voting agreement represent approximately 9.5% of the outstanding shares of Centru Financial common stock on the record date. The voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Centrue Financial Voting Agreement. Each of the directors of UnionBancorp has entered into a voting agreement with Centrue Financial. Under this agreement, these stockholders have agreed to vote their respective shares of UnionBancorp common stock:

in favor of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

against any merger with UnionBancorp by a party other than Centrue Financial;

against any action or agreement that would result in a material breach of any term or any other obligation of UnionBancorp under the merger agreement; and

against any action or agreement which would impede or interfere with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Furthermore, each of these stockholders has also agreed not to solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries or proposals for a merger or other business combination involving UnionBancorp. The shares subject to the voting agreement represent approximately 17.6% of the outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock on the record date. The voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Under this method of accounting, UnionBancorp will record the assets acquired and liabilities assumed of Centrue Financial at their fair market values. Any difference between the purchase price and the fair market value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill, which, in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 142, will not be amortized for financial accounting purposes, but will be evaluated annually for impairment.

Expenses

Each of UnionBancorp and Centrue Financial will pay its own expenses in connection with the merger, including filing, registration and application fees, printing fees and fees and expenses of its own financial or other consultants, accountants and counsel. UnionBancorp is responsible for the payment of the expenses for the tax opinion to be rendered in connection with the merger.

Resales of UnionBancorp Common Stock

UnionBancorp common stock to be issued to Centrue Financial stockholders in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act. All shares of UnionBancorp common stock received by Centrue Financial stockholders in the merger will be freely transferable after the merger by persons who are not considered to be affiliates of either UnionBancorp or Centrue Financial. These affiliates would generally include any persons or entities who control, are controlled by or are under common control with either Centrue Financial or UnionBancorp at the time of the special meeting (generally, executive officers, directors and 10% or greater stockholders).

Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act restricts the sale of UnionBancorp common stock received in the merger by affiliates of Centrue Financial and certain of their family members and related entities. Under the rule, until the first anniversary of the effective date of the merger, affiliates of Centrue Financial may publicly resell the UnionBancorp common stock they receive in the merger, but only within certain limitations as to the amount of UnionBancorp common stock they can sell in any three-month period and as to the manner of sale. After this first anniversary, affiliates of Centrue Financial who are not affiliates of UnionBancorp may resell their shares without restriction. UnionBancorp must continue to satisfy its reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for affiliates to continue to be able to resell under Rule 145 the shares of UnionBancorp common stock they received in the merger.

Table of Contents

Affiliates would also be permitted to resell UnionBancorp common stock received in the merger pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an available exemption from the registration requirements. This joint proxy statement-prospectus does not cover any resales of UnionBancorp common stock received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Centru Financial.

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

General

UnionBancorp is a Delaware corporation governed by Delaware law and UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Centru Financial is a Delaware corporation governed by Delaware law and Centru Financial's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

In the merger, stockholders of Centru Financial will receive shares of UnionBancorp common stock that will include all rights attaching to shares of UnionBancorp common stock. By approving the merger, UnionBancorp stockholders are also approving the adoption of an amended and restated certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, the provisions of which are discussed below.

There are significant differences between the rights of UnionBancorp's stockholders and the rights of Centru Financial's stockholders. The following is a summary of the principal differences between those rights.

The following summary is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Delaware General Corporation Law, as well as UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and Centru Financial's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Anti-Takeover Provisions Generally

UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions designed to assist UnionBancorp's board of directors in playing a role in any attempt by a group or person to acquire control of UnionBancorp. These provisions are intended to enable UnionBancorp's board of directors to protect the interests of UnionBancorp and its stockholders under certain circumstances. Aided by these provisions, UnionBancorp may determine that a sale of control is in the best interests of UnionBancorp's stockholders or will enhance the board's ability to maximize the value to be received by the stockholders upon a sale of control of UnionBancorp.

Although UnionBancorp's management believes that these provisions are beneficial to UnionBancorp's stockholders, they may also tend to discourage some takeover bids. As a result, UnionBancorp's stockholders may be deprived of opportunities to sell some or all of their shares at prices that represent a premium over prevailing market prices. On the other hand, defeating undesirable acquisition offers can be a very expensive and time-consuming process. To the extent that these provisions discourage undesirable proposals, UnionBancorp may be able to avoid those expenditures of time and money.

These provisions may also discourage open market purchases of UnionBancorp common stock by a company that may desire to acquire UnionBancorp. Those purchases may increase the market price of UnionBancorp common stock temporarily and enable stockholders to sell their shares at a price higher than they might otherwise obtain. In addition, these provisions may decrease the market price of UnionBancorp common stock by making the stock less attractive to persons who invest in securities in anticipation of price increases from potential acquisition attempts. The provisions may also make it more difficult and time consuming for a potential acquirer to obtain control of UnionBancorp through replacing the board of directors and management. Furthermore, the provisions may make it more difficult for UnionBancorp's stockholders to replace the board of directors or management, even if a majority of the stockholders believe that replacing the board of directors or management is in the best interests of UnionBancorp. Because of these factors, these provisions may tend to perpetuate the incumbent board of directors and management.

Table of ContentsAuthorized Capital Stock

UnionBancorp. Under UnionBancorp's current certificate of incorporation, it is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, and 200,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value per share. As of September 22, 2006, 3,742,851 shares of UnionBancorp common stock were issued, including 955,142 shares that are held by UnionBancorp as treasury shares. 2,762.24 shares of UnionBancorp Series A convertible preferred stock and 831 shares of Series B preferred stock are issued and outstanding. If the merger is approved, as part of the merger, UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation will be amended and restated as more fully described below to, among other things and to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 10,000,000 up to 15,000,000. The increase in the number of authorized common shares will give the board of the combined company greater flexibility to declare common stock splits or stock dividends when considered desirable and still leave sufficient shares available for issuance in connection with future acquisitions, financings, and for other general corporate purposes.

The ability of the board to issue additional shares of common stock without additional stockholder approval may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect. The combined company could use the additional shares of common stock to oppose a hostile takeover attempt or to delay or prevent changes of control or changes in or removal of its management. Any issuance of additional shares also could have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share of the outstanding shares of the combined company's common stock as well as stock ownership and voting rights of stockholders.

Under UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation, UnionBancorp's board of directors is authorized to issue preferred stock from time to time in one or more series, subject to applicable provisions of law. The board of directors is authorized to fix the designations, voting powers, preferences and relative participating, optional and other special rights qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such shares. In the event of a proposed merger, tender offer or other attempt to gain control of UnionBancorp that the board of directors does not approve, it may be possible for the board of directors to authorize the issuance of a series of preferred stock with rights and preferences that would impede the completion of such a transaction. Under the current certificate of incorporation, UnionBancorp's board of directors designated 2,765 shares of UnionBancorp preferred stock as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (2,762.24 shares outstanding), 1,092 shares as Series B Preferred Stock (831 of which are outstanding), and 4,500 shares as Series C Junior Participating Preferred Stock (none of which are outstanding). The 2,762.24 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock that are outstanding, are currently convertible into 172,140 shares of UnionBancorp common stock.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial is authorized to issue 5,500,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, and 500,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share. As of September 22, 2006, 2,232,889 shares of Centrue Financial common stock were issued and outstanding, and 1,967,411 shares were held by Centrue Financial as treasury shares. No shares of Centrue Financial preferred stock are issued and outstanding.

Centrue Financial's board of directors has substantially the same powers with respect to the issuance of preferred stock as does UnionBancorp's board of directors. Under a certificate of designation, 3,500 shares of Centrue Financial preferred stock have been designated as Series A Junior Participating preferred stock. These shares are reserved for issuance under the Centrue Financial rights plan. See Rights Plan below.

Voting Rights

UnionBancorp. Generally, holders of UnionBancorp common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.

As stated above, UnionBancorp's board of directors is authorized to issue up to 200,000 shares of preferred stock and may designate various characteristics and rights of UnionBancorp preferred stock including, among other things, the voting powers of such series. UnionBancorp's board of directors may also authorize the conversion of shares of other classes of UnionBancorp preferred stock into any number of shares of UnionBancorp common stock and thus dilute the voting power of the outstanding shares of UnionBancorp common stock. Therefore, subject to the board's fiduciary duties, UnionBancorp could issue convertible preferred stock with the purpose or effect of deterring or preventing a takeover of UnionBancorp.

The holders of each share of Series A Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote, except as required by law or to approve the authorization or issuance of any shares of any class or series of stock ranking senior to or on parity with such Series A Preferred Stock in respect of dividends and distributions upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of UnionBancorp. Where the Series A Preferred Stockholders vote to approve such issuance or authorization of new shares, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall vote as a class. In addition, holders of Series A Preferred Stock have full voting rights (a) if two dividend payments on such shares have accrued but remain unpaid; (b) upon conversion of the preferred shares into shares of common stock; or (c) if the holders of common stock vote on a proposal to merge or otherwise enter a transaction with a third party where UnionBancorp is not the surviving entity.

The holder of each share of Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote except as required by law. Holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to vote, as a class, to approve the authorization or issuance of any shares of any class or series of stock ranking senior to, or on parity with the Series B Preferred Stock in respect of dividends and distribution upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of UnionBancorp.

UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Thus, the owners of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding may elect all of the directors up for election in any given year, if they choose to do so, and the owners of the balance of such shares would not be able to elect any directors.

Centrue Financial. Generally, holders of Centrue Financial common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. However, Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation provides that in no event will any record owner of any outstanding Centrue Financial common stock that is beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by any person who beneficially owns more than 10% of the then-outstanding shares of common stock, be entitled or permitted to any vote in respect of the shares held in excess of 10%. This limit does not inhibit any person from soliciting or voting proxies from other beneficial owners for more than 10% of the common stock. This provision may be enforced by Centrue Financial's board of directors to limit the voting rights of persons owning more than 10% of Centrue Financial's common stock, and thus could be used in a proxy contest or other solicitation to defeat a proposal that is desired by a majority of the stockholders.

As stated above, Centrue Financial's board of directors is authorized to issue up to 500,000 shares of preferred stock and may designate various characteristics and rights of Centrue Financial preferred stock, including voting and conversion rights. Centrue Financial's board of directors may also authorize the conversion of shares of other classes of Centrue Financial preferred stock into any number of shares of Centrue Financial common stock and thus dilute the voting power of the outstanding shares of Centrue Financial common stock. Therefore, subject to the board's fiduciary duties, Centrue Financial could issue convertible preferred stock with the purpose or effect of deterring or preventing a takeover of Centrue Financial.

Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation also does not provide for cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Classification of Board of Directors

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation provides for the division of its board of directors into three classes of approximately equal size. UnionBancorp's directors are elected for three-year terms, and the terms of office of approximately one-third of the members of the classified board of directors expire each year. This board classification may make it more difficult for a stockholder to acquire immediate control of UnionBancorp and remove management by means of a proxy contest. Because the terms of approximately one-third of the incumbent directors expire each year, at least two annual elections would be necessary for stockholders to replace a majority of UnionBancorp's directors, while a majority of directors of a non-classified board could be replaced in one annual meeting.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation also provides for a classified board, with the same effects.

Size of the Board of Directors; Vacancies; Removal

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation provide that the size of the board of directors shall consist of fifteen directors but may be increased or decreased by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 70% of all shares of UnionBancorp then entitled to vote in the election of directors, or by a two-thirds vote of the directors then in office. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws also provide that any vacancy occurring on the board of directors may be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a majority vote of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum of the board of directors.

As noted above, under the Delaware General Corporation Law, if a board is classified, a director may be removed only for cause unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that a director may be removed only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of at least 70% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of UnionBancorp entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, subject to the right of any holders of preferred stock to elect directors. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation does not contain a definition of "cause." The purpose of this provision is to prevent a majority stockholder from circumventing the classified board system by removing directors and filling the vacancies with new individuals selected by that stockholder. This provision may have the effect of impeding efforts to gain control of the board of directors by anyone who obtains a controlling interest in UnionBancorp's common stock.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions that may impede changes in majority control of the board of directors. Centrue Financial's bylaws provide that the size of the board of directors may be increased or decreased only by a majority vote of the whole board or by a vote of holders of at least 80% of the shares eligible to be voted at a duly constituted meeting of stockholders called for such purpose. The bylaws also provide that any vacancy occurring in the number of directors may be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a majority vote of the directors then in office.

As discussed above, under the Delaware General Corporation Law, members of a classified board of directors may only be removed for cause, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation provides that a director may only be removed for cause, and then only by the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the shares eligible to vote. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation does not include a definition of "cause." This provision has the same effect as the comparable provision in UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation.

Stockholder Nominations and Proposals

UnionBancorp. Under UnionBancorp's bylaws, the only business that may be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders is the business brought before the meeting by the board of directors or by any stockholder who is entitled to vote and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in UnionBancorp's bylaws. For business to be brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice in writing to the secretary of UnionBancorp. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be given to the secretary of UnionBancorp not less than 30 days prior to the anniversary date of the previous year's meeting.

UnionBancorp's bylaws provide that nominations for election to UnionBancorp's board of directors may be made only by a majority of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board, or if there is no such committee at the time, by a majority of the board, or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors who complies with the notice procedures set forth in the bylaws. The stockholder's notice must set forth, as to each person the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, such person's name, address, qualifications, beneficial ownership of UnionBancorp stock, any other information relating to such person required to be disclosed on Schedule 13D pursuant to Regulation 13D-G under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), in connection with the acquisition of stock, and pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, in connection with the solicitation of proxies with respect to nominees for election of directors and, as to the stockholder giving the notice, and any other beneficial stockholders known by such stockholder to support such nominees his or her name and address, and the class and number of shares of UnionBancorp's capital stock owned by such stockholder.

Centrue Financial. Under Centrue Financial's bylaws, the only business that may be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders is the business brought before the meeting by the board of directors or by any stockholder who is entitled to vote and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in Centrue Financial's bylaws. For business to be brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice in writing to the secretary of Centrue Financial. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of Centrue Financial not less than 30 days prior to the date of the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than 40 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the meeting date is given or made to stockholders, such notice by the stockholder to be timely must be delivered no later than 10 days after the earlier of the date of the notice of the meeting or public disclosure of the date of the meeting.

A stockholder's notice to the secretary must set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting:

a brief description of the matter the stockholder desires to present;

the name and record address of the stockholder who proposed the matter;

the class and number of shares of Centrue Financial's capital stock that are beneficially owned by the stockholder; and any material interest of the stockholder in the matter.

Centrue Financial's bylaws provide that nominations for election to Centrue Financial's board of directors may be made only by the board of directors or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors who complies with the notice procedures set forth in the bylaws and described above. The stockholder's notice must set forth, as to each person the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, such person's name and qualifications and, as to the stockholder giving the notice, his or her name and address, and the class and number of shares of Centrue Financial's capital stock owned by the nominated stockholder.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's bylaws provide that special meetings may be called at any time by at least ~~66~~63% of the board of directors then in office. Stockholders are not authorized to call special meetings.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that a special meeting of stockholders may be called only by a resolution of the board of directors adopted by a majority of the total number of directors Centrue Financial would have if there were no vacancies. Stockholders are not authorized to call special meetings.

Action by Written Consent

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation prohibits its stockholders from taking action by written consent. This prohibition could be used to delay the taking of any action requiring stockholder approval which is not approved by the board of directors, whether or not a majority of the stockholders believes such action may be desirable.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation also prohibits its stockholders from taking action by written consent.

Table of ContentsDividends

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's ability to pay dividends on its common stock is governed by Delaware corporate law. Under Delaware corporate law, unless there are restrictions in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, dividends may be declared from the corporation's surplus, or if there is no surplus, from its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and the preceding years. Dividends may not be declared, however, if the corporation's capital is less than the amount of all capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In addition, UnionBancorp's ability to pay dividends on its common stock is subject to the rights of holders of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to annual cumulative dividends of $75.00 per share and to the rights of holders of Series B Preferred Stock to annual cumulative dividends of $60.00 per share.

Centrue Financial. Generally, Centrue Financial's ability to pay dividends is also governed by Delaware corporate law. Centrue Financial stockholders are entitled to dividends as and when declared by the board of directors. In April of 2004, Centrue Financial's board of directors voted to eliminate its quarterly dividend. The reinstatement and declaration of dividends by the Centrue Financial board of directors is discretionary, and depends on Centrue Financial's earnings and financial condition, regulatory limitations, tax considerations and other factors, including limitations imposed by the terms of Centrue Financial's outstanding junior subordinated debentures.

Centrue Financial issued approximately $10.3 million of these debentures in April of 2002 to Kankakee Capital Trust I, which contemporaneously issued $10.0 million of preferred securities to MM Community Funding III, Ltd. in a private placement. In April of 2004, Centrue Financial issued approximately $10.3 million of additional debentures to Centrue Statutory Trust II, which contemporaneously issued $10.0 million of preferred securities to First Tennessee Bank National Association in a private placement. All of the common stock of Kankakee Capital Trust I and Centrue Statutory Trust II is owned by Centrue Financial and the debentures are the only assets of the trusts. When the debentures mature, the preferred securities must be redeemed. The debentures issued to Kankakee Capital Trust I mature on April 7, 2032, and the debenture issued to Centrue Statutory Trust II mature on April 22, 2034. The debentures and preferred securities pay interest and dividends, respectively, quarterly. Under the terms of the debentures, Centrue Financial may be prohibited, under certain circumstances, from paying dividends on shares of its common stock. None of these circumstances currently exist.

Evaluation of Proposals

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws do not include any provisions regarding the board of directors' evaluation of tender or exchange offers, business combinations or sales of the assets of UnionBancorp.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation provides that the board, when evaluating any offer by another person to: (a) make a tender or exchange offer for any equity security; (b) merge or consolidate Centrue Financial with another corporation or entity; or (c) purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the properties and assets of Centrue Financial, may, in connection with the exercise of its judgment in determining what is in the best interests of Centrue Financial and its stockholders, give consideration to all relevant factors, including the social and economic effect of acceptance of the offer on Centrue Financial's present and future employees and those of its subsidiaries, on the communities in which Centrue Financial and its subsidiaries operate or are located, on the ability of Centrue Financial to fulfill its corporate objectives and on the ability of its subsidiary financial institution to fulfill its objectives under applicable rules and regulations.

Special Voting Requirements; Business Combinations

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation requires that any merger or consolidation of UnionBancorp into another company, sale of all or substantially all of UnionBancorp's assets, or dissolution of UnionBancorp must be approved by the holders of at least 70% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, unless such merger, sale or dissolution is approved by a majority vote of outstanding shares and the action has been approved by two-thirds of all directors, or unless the provision is applicable to a merger or consolidation of UnionBancorp with another corporation of which UnionBancorp is the owner of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of each class of stock.

In addition, UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation expressly adopted Section 203(d) of the Delaware General Corporation Law which prohibits UnionBancorp from engaging in a business combination, as defined by the Delaware General Corporation Law, with an interested stockholder, defined as a person who owns, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of UnionBancorp voting stock, for a three year period from the date the person became an interested stockholder, referred to as the acquisition date, unless:

prior to the acquisition date the UnionBancorp board approved the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

upon completion of the transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the stockholder owns at least 85% of UnionBancorp's voting stock, excluding stock held by officers and directors and employee stock plans in which the participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held by the plan will be tendered in an exchange offer or a tender offer; or on or after the acquisition date, the business combination is approved by the UnionBancorp board and by the UnionBancorp stockholders, at a meeting duly called for that purpose, provided that stockholders owning at least two-thirds of UnionBancorp's voting stock approve the business combination. When determining whether this two-thirds vote requirement has been satisfied, voting stock held by the interested stockholder is not included.

Upon approval of the merger, UnionBancorp's amended and restated certificate of incorporation will no longer include a provision expressly adopting Section 203(d) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, however, such statute will nevertheless apply as provided therein.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial is also subject to Section 203(d) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation requires that certain business combinations between Centrue Financial (or any majority-owned subsidiary) and a 10% or more stockholder either:

be approved by holders of at least 80% of the total number of outstanding voting shares, voting as a single class, of Centrue; be approved by at least two-thirds of the continuing board of directors, meaning persons serving prior to the 10% stockholder becoming a 10% stockholder, and be approved by holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding voting shares; or meet certain price conditions, and be approved by holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding voting shares.

Amendment of Governing Documents

UnionBancorp. Generally, UnionBancorp may amend its certificate of incorporation in the manner permitted by Delaware law. The Delaware General Corporation law provides that amendments to a corporation's certificate must be approved by holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of a corporation's voting stock. However, amending certain provisions of UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation, relating to the powers and composition of the board of directors and the stockholder vote required to amend the certificate of incorporation or approve certain business combinations requires the affirmative vote of 70% of the outstanding shares, unless the amendment of such provision is approved by a majority vote of outstanding shares and the action has been approved by two-thirds of all directors, or unless the provision is applicable to a merger or consolidation of UnionBancorp with another corporation of which UnionBancorp is the owner at least 80% of the outstanding shares of each class of stock.

UnionBancorp's bylaws provide that they may be amended only in the manner provided for in the certificate of incorporation. Upon approval of the merger, UnionBancorp's amended and restated certificate of incorporation will authorize the amendment of UnionBancorp's bylaws by a majority of the board of directors. UnionBancorp's bylaws provide that the bylaws may be amended in either of the following ways:

by holders of 66²/₃% of the outstanding shares of stock of UnionBancorp; or by a vote of a majority of the board of directors.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation may be amended in the manner prescribed by the Delaware General Corporation Law unless a proposed amendment is approved by a resolution of less than two-thirds of the number of directors, in which case the amendment must be approved by holders of at least 80% of the then-outstanding shares.

Centrue Financial's bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the board of directors or the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the then-outstanding shares.

Limitations on Director Liability

UnionBancorp. The certificate of incorporation of UnionBancorp provides that no director will be liable to UnionBancorp or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to UnionBancorp or its stockholders; for acts or omissions not in good faith that involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law;

under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which relates to unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemption and expressly sets forth a negligence standard with respect to such liability; and for any transaction from which the director derived any improper benefit.

Centrue Financial. Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation provides that a director will not be personally liable to Centrue Financial or its stockholders for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty; for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which relates to unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemption and expressly sets forth a negligence standard with respect to such liability; and for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the Delaware General Corporation Law is amended to further limit or eliminate the personal liability of directors, then the liability of directors of Centrue Financial will be limited or eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as so amended.

Indemnification

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's bylaws provide indemnification generally consistent with Delaware Law. Under Delaware law, a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation provides that UnionBancorp must indemnify all persons who it may indemnify pursuant to Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law to the fullest extent permitted thereby.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling UnionBancorp under the provisions described above, UnionBancorp has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Centrue Financial. The certificate of incorporation of Centrue Financial provides that Centrue Financial must indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, but subject to the limits of federal law applicable to bank holding companies, any person made or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of Centrue Financial or is or was serving at Centrue Financial's request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other enterprise, against liabilities and expenses reasonably incurred or paid by such person in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding.

Centrue Financial may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of Centrue Financial or another corporation or enterprise against any expense or loss, whether or not Centrue Financial would have the power to indemnify such person under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Centrue Financial under the provisions described above, Centrue Financial has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Dissenters' Rights

UnionBancorp and Centrue. Under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, stockholders of a Delaware corporation generally are entitled to dissent from a merger or consolidation and receive payment in cash of the fair value of their stock, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. However, dissenters' rights are not granted under Delaware law with respect to any transaction involving the sale, lease or exchange of substantially all of the assets of a corporation. In addition, dissenters' rights are not available in certain circumstances with respect to shares of stock that are listed on a national securities exchange, such as the shares of UnionBancorp or Centrue Financial common stock. Neither UnionBancorp's nor Centrue Financial's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide for any additional dissenters' rights.

Rights Plan

UnionBancorp. UnionBancorp's Rights Agreement expired on August 4, 2006.

Centrue Financial. The board of directors of Centrue Financial adopted a Rights Plan in 1999 which created one preferred share purchase right that is attached to each share of Centrue Financial common stock. Each right entitles the holder, under certain limited circumstances, to purchase from Centrue Financial one one-thousandth of a share of Series A Junior Participating preferred stock of Centrue Financial at a price of $95.00.

Until the earlier to occur of: (a) 10 days following a public announcement that a person or group of affiliated persons (with certain exceptions, an acquiring person) has acquired beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of common stock; or (b) 10 business days (or such later date as may be determined by action of the board of directors prior to such time as any person or group of affiliated persons becomes an acquiring person) following the commencement of, or announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer the completion of which would result in the beneficial ownership by a person or group of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of common stock (the earlier of such dates being called the distribution date), the rights will be evidenced, with respect to any common stock certificate outstanding as of the record date, by that common stock certificate together with a summary of rights.

The rights are not exercisable until the distribution date. The rights will expire on May 11, 2009, unless the expiration date is advanced or extended or unless the rights are earlier redeemed or exchanged by Centru Financial.

Because of the nature of the preferred stock's dividend, liquidation and voting rights, the value of the one one-thousandth interest in a share of preferred stock purchasable upon exercise of each right should approximate the value of one share of common stock.

If any person or group of affiliated or associated persons becomes an acquiring person, each holder of a right, other than rights beneficially owned by the acquiring person (which will thereupon become void), will thereafter have the right to receive upon exercise of a right and the payment of $95.00 per right, that number of shares of common stock having a market value of $190.00.

If after a person or group has become an acquiring person Centru Financial is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or 50% or more of its consolidated assets or earning power are sold, proper provisions will be made so that each holder of a right (other than rights beneficially owned by an acquiring person, which will become void) will thereafter have the right to receive upon the exercise of a right and the payment of $95.00 per right, that number of shares of common stock of the person with whom Centru Financial has engaged in the foregoing transaction (or its parent) that at the time of such transaction have a market value of $190.00.

At any time after any person or group becomes an acquiring person and prior to the earlier of one of the events described in the previous paragraph or the acquisition by this acquiring person of 50% or more of the outstanding shares of common stock, the board of directors of Centru Financial may exchange the rights (other than rights owned by acquiring person, which will become void), in whole or in part, for shares of common stock or preferred stock (or a series of Centru Financial's preferred stock having equivalent rights, preferences and privileges), at an exchange ratio of one share of common stock, or a fractional share of preferred stock (or other preferred stock) equivalent in value thereto, per right.

With certain exceptions, no adjustment in the purchase price will be required until cumulative adjustments require an adjustment of at least 1% in the purchase price. No fractional shares of preferred stock or common stock will be issued (other than fractions of preferred stock that are integral multiples of one one-thousandth of a share of preferred stock, which may, at the election of Centru Financial, be evidenced by depositary receipts), and in lieu thereof an adjustment in cash will be made based on the current market price of the preferred stock or the common stock.

At any time prior to the time an acquiring person becomes such, the board of directors of Centru Financial may redeem the rights in whole, but not in part, at a price of $0.01 per right (the redemption price). Immediately upon any redemption of the rights, the right to exercise the rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of rights will be to receive the redemption price.

For so long as the rights are then redeemable, Centru Financial may, except with respect to the redemption price, amend the rights agreement in any manner. After the rights are no longer redeemable, Centru Financial may, except with respect to the redemption price, amend the rights agreement in any manner that does not adversely affect the interests of holders of the rights.

Until a right is exercised or exchanged, the holder thereof, as such, will have no rights as a stockholder of Centru Financial, including, without limitation, the right to vote or to receive dividends. Centru Financial amended its right agreement immediately prior to the execution of the merger agreement in order to specifically exclude the merger from the terms of Centru Financial's rights plan.

Summary of Amendments to UnionBancorp's Certificate of Incorporation

General. By approving the merger agreement, UnionBancorp stockholders will also be approving and adopting the certificate of incorporation attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement which provides for the following amendments to UnionBancorp's current certificate of incorporation:

a change in UnionBancorp's corporate name from UnionBancorp, Inc. to Centru Financial Corporation; an increase in the number of authorized shares of UnionBancorp common stock from 10 million to 15 million; elimination of subsection (ii) of Article VI's requirement that certain amendments to the bylaws be approved by a supermajority vote of the stockholders; and elimination of Article XV of the certificate of incorporation which expressly adopted Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law concerning business combinations with interested persons, which was described in detail above.

Change in Corporate Name. By approving the merger agreement, UnionBancorp's board of directors has approved a proposal to change UnionBancorp's corporate name to Centru Financial Corporation. Following the merger, the combined company will work on transforming the combined company (including its subsidiary bank) into the premier financial institution in the northern and central Illinois markets between Chicago and St. Louis. If the merger is approved and the name is changed, the combined company will also change the name of UnionBank to Centru Bank.

Increase in Authorized Common Stock. UnionBancorp is currently authorized to issue 10 million shares of common stock. As of September 22, 2006, the record date for the special meeting:

3,742,851 shares of UnionBancorp common stock were issued and outstanding;

385,214 shares of UnionBancorp common stock were reserved for issuance under UnionBancorp's stock incentive plans;

2,698,655 shares of UnionBancorp common stock were reserved for issuance to Centru Financial's stockholders upon completion of the merger; and 955,142 shares were held in the treasury of UnionBancorp.

Following the completion of the merger, 6,441,506 shares will be issued and outstanding, 385,214 shares will be reserved for issuance pursuant to UnionBancorp's stock incentive plans, and 955,142 shares will be held in treasury. UnionBancorp also intends to reserve a sufficient number of shares for issuance upon exercise of the 204,800 Centru Financial options currently outstanding. An increase in the number of authorized shares of UnionBancorp common stock is therefore not necessary so that UnionBancorp will have a sufficient number of shares available for issuance upon completion of the merger.

The UnionBancorp board believes that the authorization of additional shares of UnionBancorp common stock is advisable to provide the combined company with the flexibility to issue additional shares of common stock through stock splits and stock dividends in appropriate circumstances, and to take advantage of opportunities to issue stock to raise additional capital to fund possible acquisitions or for other purposes. Currently there are no plans, understandings, agreements or arrangement concerning the issuance of additional shares of common stock, except for the shares to be issued (1) as a result of the merger and (2) upon the exercise of stock options.

Uncommitted authorized but unissued shares of the combined company's common stock may be issued from time to time to those persons and for consideration as the board of directors as then-comprised may determine, and holders of then-outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company may or may not be given the opportunity to vote with respect to the issuance, depending upon the nature of any transaction, applicable law, NASDAQ's rules and regulations and the judgment of the combined company's board regarding the submission of the issuance to a vote of the stockholders of the combined company.

Elimination of Subsection (ii) of Article VI and Article XV. Currently, subsection (ii) of Article VI of UnionBancorp's certificate of incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least seventy percent of all shares of the corporation to amend Article II, Section 5 of the bylaws (referenced section does not exist), Sections 1, 2, and 3, of Article III (concerning Place of Meetings, Annual Meetings, and Notice, respectively), and Section 1 of Article VIII (concerning Records). The board believes that the provisions requiring a supermajority vote of the stockholders to amend these bylaws sections are not necessary.

Likewise, the UnionBancorp board has proposed the elimination of Article XV of the certificate of incorporation which expressly adopts Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which is described in detail above. Because UnionBancorp's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Market, by the terms of Section 203 itself, the statute applies to UnionBancorp. Therefore, the UnionBancorp board has determined that a provision expressly opting in to Section 203 is no longer necessary.

Management's Discussion and AnalysisComparison of Operating Results for the Years Ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003.

The following discussion provides an analysis of the results of operations and financial condition of UnionBancorp and subsidiary for the three years ended December 31, 2005. Management's discussion and analysis (MD&A) should be read in conjunction with Selected Consolidated Financial Data, the consolidated financial statements of UnionBancorp, and the accompanying notes thereto. Unless otherwise stated, all earnings per share data included in this section and throughout the remainder of this discussion are presented on a fully diluted basis. All financial information is in thousands (000's), except per share data.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates. Note 1 to our Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 contains a summary of our significant accounting policies. Various elements of our accounting policies, by their nature, are inherently subject to estimation techniques, valuation assumptions and other subjective assessments. Our policy with respect to the methodologies used to determine the allowance for loan losses is our most critical accounting policy. The policy is important to the presentation of our financial condition and results of operations, and it involves a higher degree of complexity and requires management to make difficult and subjective judgments, which often require assumptions or estimates about highly uncertain matters. The use of different judgments, assumptions and estimates could result in material differences in our results of operations or financial condition.

The following is a description of our critical accounting policy and an explanation of the methods and assumptions underlying its application.

Allowance for Loan Losses: The allowance for loan losses represents management's estimate of probable credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio. Estimating the amount of the allowance for loan losses requires significant judgment and the use of estimates related to the amount and timing of expected future cash flows on impaired loans, estimated losses on pools of homogeneous loans based on historical loss experience, and consideration of current economic trends and conditions, all of which may be susceptible to significant change. The loan portfolio also represents the largest asset type on the consolidated balance sheet. Loan losses are charged off against the allowance, while recoveries of amounts previously charged off are credited to the allowance. A provision for loan losses is charged to operations based on management's periodic evaluation of the factors previously mentioned, as well as other pertinent factors.

The allowance for loan losses is based on an estimation computed pursuant to the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies and FASB Statements Nos. 114 and 118, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, the analysis of the allowance for loan losses consists of three components: (i) specific credit allocation established for expected losses resulting from analysis developed through specific credit allocations on individual loans for which the recorded investment in the loan exceeds its fair value; (ii) general portfolio allocation based on historical loan loss experience for each loan category; and (iii) subjective reserves based on general economic conditions as well as specific economic factors in markets in which UnionBancorp operates.

The specific credit allocation component of the allowances for loan losses is based on an analysis of individual loans and historical loss experience for each loan category. The specific credit allocations are based on regular analysis of all loans over a fixed-dollar amount where the internal credit rating is at or below a predetermined classification. These analyses involve a high degree of judgment in estimating the amount of loss associated with specific loans, including estimating the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values.

The general portfolio allocation component of the allowance for loan losses is determined statistically using a loss analysis that examines historical loan loss experience. The loss analysis is performed quarterly and loss factors are updated regularly based on actual experience. The general portfolio allocation element of the allowance for loan losses also includes consideration of the amounts necessary for concentrations and changes in portfolio mix and volume.

There are many factors affecting the allowance for loan losses; some are quantitative while others require qualitative judgment. The process for determining the allowance (which management believes adequately considers all of the potential factors which might possibly result in credit losses) includes subjective elements and, therefore, may be susceptible to significant change. To the extent actual outcomes differs from management estimates, additional provision for credit losses could be required that could adversely affect Union's earnings or financial position in future periods.

Results of OperationsNet Income

2005 compared to 2004. Net income equaled $4,173 or $0.99 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2005 as compared to net income of $4,803 or $1.12 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2004. This represents a 13.1% decrease in net income and an 11.6% decrease in diluted per share earnings in the current fiscal year over fiscal 2004.

Union's annual results were lower in 2005 versus 2004 due to the $1,700 net gain on sale (after allocating a portion of the intangible assets and goodwill, taxes and applicable expenses) associated with Union's divestiture of five western Illinois sales and service center locations recorded in the third quarter of 2004. Also contributing to the change were volume related decreases in net interest income and other fee based revenue largely related to the sale of the West region. Positively impacted earnings were decreases in the provision for loan losses due to continued improvement in asset quality levels and volume related decreases in noninterest expense categories due to the sale of the West region.

Return on average assets was 0.63% for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to 0.65% for the same period in 2004. Return on average stockholders' equity was 6.06% for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to 7.06% for the same period in 2004.

2004 compared to 2003. Net income equaled $4,803 or $1.12 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2004 as compared to net income of $2,130 or $0.48 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2003. This represents a 125.5% increase in net income and a 133.3% increase in diluted per share earnings in the current fiscal year over fiscal 2003.

Union's annual results were positively impacted by the net gain on sale (after allocating a portion of the intangible assets and goodwill, taxes and applicable expenses) and volume related decreases in most noninterest expense categories as a result of the sale of the West region. Also contributing to the improvement in net income was a decrease in the provision for loan losses and gains taken in as a result of the sale of its credit card portfolio and one additional branch office. These positive variances were partially offset by decreases in mortgage banking revenue due to the slowdown in refinancing opportunities and volume related decreases in net interest income and other fee based revenue due to the sale of the West region's branches.

Return on average assets was 0.65% for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared to 0.28% for the same period in 2003. Return on average stockholders' equity was 7.06% for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared to 3.16% for the same period in 2003.

Net Interest Income/ Margin

Net interest income is the difference between income earned on interest-earning assets and the interest expense incurred for the funding sources used to finance these assets. Changes in net interest income generally occur due to fluctuations in the volume of earning assets and paying liabilities and rates earned and paid, respectively, on those assets and liabilities. The net yield on total interest-earning assets, also referred to as net interest margin, represents net interest income divided by average interest-earning assets. Net interest margin measures how efficiently UnionBancorp uses its earning assets and underlying capital. Union's long-term objective is to manage those assets and liabilities to provide the largest possible amount of income while balancing interest rate, credit, liquidity and capital risks. For purposes of this discussion, both net interest income and margin have been adjusted to a fully tax equivalent basis for certain tax-exempt securities and loans.

2005 compared to 2004. Net interest income, on a tax equivalent basis, was $21,587 for the year ended December 31, 2005, compared with $22,376 earned during the same period in 2004. This represented a decrease of $789 or 3.5%. The decrease in net interest income is attributable to the year-over-year reduction of income earned on interest earning assets totaling $328 combined with the year-over-year increase of interest expense paid on interest bearing liabilities totaling $461.

The $328 reduction in interest income resulted from a decrease of $3,748 related to volume partially offset by $3,420 improvement due to rates. The majority of the change in interest income was related to a decline in the average loan balance caused by the sale of the West region as well as the loan portfolio declining due to normal paydowns, softening of loan demand, and exiting of high-balance, high-risk credits from portfolio. This loss in volume overcame a 44 basis point increase in yields earned on average loans.

The $461 increase in interest expense resulted from an increase of $2,055 associated with rate partially offset by a $1,594 decrease due to volume. The majority of the change was attributable to a 34 basis point increase in rates paid on deposits due to the higher interest rate environment. This increase was slightly offset by the lower expense caused by a decline in average deposit balances related to the sale of the West region's branches.

The net interest margin increased 22 basis points to 3.56% for the year ended December 31, 2005 from 3.34% during the same period in 2004. The increase resulted primarily from the result of the overall rising interest rate environment and a more disciplined approach to pricing.

2004 compared to 2003. Net interest income, on a tax equivalent basis, was $22,376 for the year ended December 31, 2004, compared with $26,066 earned during the same period in 2003. This represented a decrease of $3,690 or 14.2%. The decrease in net interest income is attributable to the year-over-year reduction of income earned on interest earning assets totaling $6,336 exceeding the year-over-year reduction of interest expense paid on interest bearing liabilities totaling $2,646.

The $6,336 reduction in interest income resulted from decreases of $3,756 related to rate and $2,580 due to volume. The majority of the change in interest income was related to a 60 basis point decline in yields earned on average loans as competitive pricing on new and refinanced loans put downward pressure on loan yields. Also contributing to the decrease was a decline in average loan balances due to the sale of the West region.

The $2,646 reduction in interest expense resulted from decreases of $1,633 associated with rate and $1,013 associated with volume. The majority of the change was attributable to a reduction in rates paid on time deposits due to the repricing of maturing time deposits at a lower rate. Also contributing to the decrease was a decline in average loan balances due to the sale of the West region.

The net interest margin decreased 31 basis points to 3.34% for the year ended December 31, 2004 from 3.65% during the same period in 2003. The decline resulted primarily from a decrease in yields earned on average loans as competitive pricing on new and refinanced loans, as well as the repricing of variable rate loans in a relative lower interest rate environment, put downward pressure on loan yields.

The following table sets forth for each category of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities the average amounts outstanding, the interest earned or paid on such amounts, and the average rate paid during 2004, 2003 and 2002. The table also sets forth the average rate earned on all interest-earning assets, the average rate paid on all interest-bearing liabilities, and the net yield on average interest-earning assets for the same period. For purposes of this discussion, both net interest income and margin have been adjusted to a fully tax equivalent basis for certain tax-exempt securities and loans.

Union's net interest income is affected by changes in the amount and mix of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, referred to as volume change. It is also affected by changes in yields earned on interest-earning assets and rates paid on interest-bearing deposits and other borrowed funds referred to as rate change. The following table reflects the changes in net interest income stemming from changes in interest rates and from asset and liability volume, including mix. Any variance attributable jointly to volume and rate changes is allocated to the volume and rate variances in proportion to the relationship of the absolute dollar amount of the change in each.

Provision for Loan Losses. The amount of the provision for loan losses is based on management's evaluations of the loan portfolio, with particular attention directed toward nonperforming, impaired and other potential problem loans. During these evaluations, consideration is also given to such factors as management's evaluation of specific loans, the level and composition of impaired loans, other nonperforming loans, other identified potential problem loans, historical loss experience, results of examinations by regulatory agencies, results of the independent asset quality review process, the market value of collateral, the estimate of discounted cash flows, the strength and availability of guarantees, concentrations of credits, and various other factors, including concentration of credit risk in various industries and current economic conditions.

2005 compared to 2004. The 2005 provision for loan losses charged to operating expense totaled $250, a decrease of $1,674 in comparison to the $1,924 recorded during the same period for 2004. The decrease in the provision for loan losses was due to the continued improvement in the management of the nonperforming and action/watch list loans from year-end 2004 to year-end 2005, including improved problem asset identification. Furthermore, this was positively impacted by loan resolutions, either through charge-off of nonbankable assets or through successful workout strategies that were executed throughout 2005. Net charge-offs for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $1,620 compared with $1,029 in the same period of 2004. Annualized net charge-offs increased to 0.39% of average loans for 2005 compared to 0.23% in the same period in 2004.

Management remains watchful of credit quality issues. Should the economic climate deteriorate from current levels, borrowers may experience difficulty, and the level of nonperforming loans, charge-offs and delinquencies could rise and require further increases in the provision.

2004 compared to 2003. The 2004 provision for loan losses charged to operating expense totaled $1,924, a decrease of $6,312 in comparison to the $8,236 recorded during the same period for 2003. The decrease in the provision for loan losses was due to an improvement in nonperforming and action/watch list loans from year-end 2003 to year-end 2004, as well as resolutions, either through charge-off of nonbankable assets or through successful workout strategies that were executed throughout 2004. Union's 2003 provisions were largely attributable to the deterioration of two impaired commercial credits identified in Union's 10-Q report filed for the quarter ended June 20, 2003. As a result of the deterioration of these two loan relationships, UnionBancorp specifically provided $3,500 to its allowance for loan losses during the third quarter of 2003 for the losses incurred on these two credits. Net charge-offs for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $1,029 compared with $5,675 in the same period of 2003. Annualized net charge-offs decreased to 0.23% of average loans for 2004 compared to 1.18% in the same period in 2003.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income consists of a wide variety of fee-based revenues from bank-related service charges on deposits and mortgage revenues. Also included in this category are revenues generated by Union's insurance, brokerage, trust and asset management services as well as increases in cash surrender value on bank-owned life insurance. The following table summarizes Union's noninterest income:

2005 compared to 2004. Noninterest income totaled $7,602 for the year ended December 31, 2005, as compared to $14,102 for the same timeframe in 2004. This represented a decrease of $6,500 or 46.1% in 2005

over the prior period. Excluding net securities gains and the gains on sale of branches and Union's credit card portfolio, noninterest income shows a year-over-year decrease of $2,039 or 21.0%.

Excluding net securities gains and gains on sale of the branches and the credit card portfolio, the decrease in noninterest income was related to a $670 decline in mortgage banking income, an $870 decrease in service charges and $416 decline in insurance commissions. Decreases in service charges and other fee based revenue were largely due to volume associated with the sale of the West region's branches in 2004. The decrease in insurance commission fees was due to account retention issues and lower than anticipated new account production. The remaining categories remained relatively stable with only slight year-over-year changes.

Mortgage banking income, which includes gains generated from the sale of loans and net servicing revenue (after amortization of mortgage servicing rights), was lower in 2005 due to a decrease in mortgage origination volume slightly offset by an increase in revenue generated by the servicing rights portfolio due to the slowdown in refinancing activity.

2004 compared to 2003. Noninterest income totaled $14,102 for the year ended December 31, 2004, as compared to $13,719 for the same timeframe in 2003. This represented an increase of $383 or 2.8% in 2004 over the prior period. Excluding net securities gains and the gains on sale of the West region, Union's credit card portfolio and Blandinsville, noninterest income shows a year-over-year decrease of $3,722 or 27.7%.

Excluding net securities gains and gains on sale of the West region, Blandinsville and the credit card portfolio, the majority of the change to noninterest income was related to a $1,927 decline in mortgage banking income. Mortgage banking income, which includes gains generated from the sale of loans and net servicing revenue (after amortization of mortgage servicing rights), was lower in 2004 due to a decrease in mortgage origination volume partially offset by an increase in revenue generated by the servicing rights portfolio due to the slowdown in refinancing activity.

Also contributing to the change was a decrease in merchant fee income due to the sale of the credit card portfolio and volume related decreases in service charges, nsf fees, and other fee based revenue related to the sale of the West region. The remaining categories remained relatively stable with only slight year-over-year changes.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense is comprised primarily of compensation and employee benefits, occupancy and other operating expense. The following table summarizes Union's noninterest expense:

2005 compared to 2004. Noninterest expense totaled $22,965 for the year ended December 31, 2005, as compared to $26,981 for the same timeframe in 2004. This represented a decrease of $4,016 or 14.9% in 2005 from 2004. Approximately 40% of the improvement in noninterest expense levels was due to $1,621 in cost savings from salaries and employee benefits expense related to the sale of the West region's branches. Also contributing to the change were volume related decreases in occupancy expense of $890, furniture and equipment of $280 and other expense of $798 related to the branch sales in 2004.

2004 compared to 2003. Noninterest expense totaled $26,981 for the year ended December 31, 2004, as compared to $28,607 for the same timeframe in 2003. This represented a decrease of $1,626 or 5.7% in 2004 from 2003. A majority of the savings in noninterest expense was due to $724 in cost savings associated with the divestiture of the credit card portfolio (included in other expenses) and a $610 decline in salaries and employee benefits expense due to the sale of the West region and other reductions in staffing levels. Also contributing to the change were decreases in telephone costs related to the reduction of the number of data lines utilized in Union's infrastructure and savings in other real estate expense related to the resolution of certain other real estate properties.

These cost savings were partially offset by increases in occupancy and equipment expense related to a full year of expenses from our Yorkville branch that was opened in December of 2003 and the write-down of one of Union's sales and service center buildings in association with its anticipated closing. The remaining categories remained relatively stable with only slight year-over-year changes.

Applicable Income Taxes. Income tax expense for the periods included benefits for tax-exempt income, tax-advantaged investments and general business tax credits offset by the effect of nondeductible expenses. The following table shows Union's income before income taxes, as well as applicable income taxes and the effective tax rate for each of the past three years:

	Years Ended December 31,
	2005	2004	2003
Income before income taxes	$ 5,372	$ 6,859	$ 2,001
Applicable income taxes	1,199	2,056	(129)
Effective tax rates	22.3%	30.0%	(6.45)%

UnionBancorp recorded income tax expense of $1,199 and $2,056 for 2005 and 2004, respectively. Effective tax rates equaled 22.3% and 30.0% respectively, for such periods. During the second quarter of 2005, UnionBancorp recorded a $251 reduction in state income taxes due to the receipt of a tax refund related to amended tax returns outstanding from prior years. Excluding this refund, the effective tax rate would have been 27.0%.

Union's effective tax rate was lower than statutory rates due to several factors. First, UnionBancorp derives interest income from municipal securities and loans, which are exempt from federal tax and certain U.S. government agency securities, which are exempt from Illinois State tax. Second, the level of tax-exempt income has increased as a percentage of taxable income. Third, state income taxes were lower due to a refund from amended tax returns for prior years. Finally, UnionBancorp has reduced tax expense through various tax planning initiatives.

Preferred Stock Dividends. UnionBancorp paid $207 of preferred stock dividends in 2005, $207 of preferred stock dividends in 2004 and $193 of preferred stock dividends in 2003.

Interest Rate Sensitivity Management

The business of UnionBancorp and the composition of its balance sheet consist of investments in interest-earning assets (primarily loans and securities) which are primarily funded by interest-bearing liabilities (deposits and borrowings). All of the financial instruments of UnionBancorp are for other than trading purposes. Such financial instruments have varying levels of sensitivity to changes in market rates of interest. The operating income and net income of UnionBank depends, to a substantial extent, on rate differentials, i.e., the differences between the income UnionBank receives from loans, securities, and other earning assets and the interest expense they pay to obtain deposits and other liabilities. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors that are beyond the control of UnionBank, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory authorities.

Table of Contents

UnionBancorp measures its overall interest rate sensitivity through a net interest income analysis. The net interest income analysis measures the change in net interest income in the event of hypothetical changes in interest rates. This analysis assesses the risk of changes in net interest income in the event of a sudden and sustained 100 to 200 basis point increase in market interest rates or a 100 to 200 basis point decrease in market rates. The interest rates scenarios are used for analytical purposes and do not necessarily represent management's view of future market movements.

The tables below present Union's projected changes in net interest income for 2005 and 2004 for the various rate shock levels.

December 31, 2005	Net Interest Income
	Amount	Change	Change
	(Dollars in thousands)
+200 bp	$ 23,043	$ 959	4.34%
+100 bp	22,629	545	2.47

200 bp	19,744	(2,340)	(10.59)

Based on Union's model at December 31, 2005, the effect of an immediate 200 basis point increase in interest rates would increase Union's net interest income by 4.34% or approximately $959. The effect of an immediate 200 basis point decrease in rates would decrease Union's net interest income by $2,340 or 10.59%.

December 31, 2004	Net Interest Income
	Amount	Change	Change
	(Dollars in thousands)
+200 bp	$ 21,070	$ 996	4.96%
+100 bp	20,635	560	2.79
Base	20,074
200 bp	17,559	(2,516)	(12.53)

Based on Union's model at December 31, 2004, the effect of an immediate 200 basis point increase in interest rates would increase Union's net interest income by 4.96% or approximately $996. However, if this had been presented the impact of a 200 basis point reduction would have been a decrease of $2,516 or 12.53% to net interest income.

Total assets as of December 31, 2005 increased by $6,676 or 1.0% from year-end 2004. Total gross loans as of December 31, 2005 decreased $1,750 or 0.4% from year-end 2004. Nonperforming Assets. Union's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, including the recognition of interest income on its loan portfolio, unless a loan is placed on nonaccrual status. Loans are placed on nonaccrual status when there are serious doubts regarding the collectibility of all principal and interest due under the terms of the loans. Amounts received on nonaccrual loans generally are applied first to principal and then to interest after all principal has been collected. It is the policy of UnionBancorp not to renegotiate the terms of a loan because of a delinquent status. Rather, a loan is generally transferred to nonaccrual status if it is not in the process of collection and is delinquent in payment of either principal or interest beyond 90 days. Loans which are 90 days delinquent but are well secured and in the process of collection are not included in nonperforming assets. Other nonperforming assets consist of real estate acquired through loan foreclosures or other workout situations and other assets acquired through repossessions.

The classification of a loan as nonaccrual does not necessarily indicate that the principal is uncollectible, in whole or in part. UnionBank makes a determination as to collectibility on a case-by-case basis. UnionBank considers both the adequacy of the collateral and the other resources of the borrower in determining the steps to be taken to collect nonaccrual loans. The final determination as to the steps taken is made based upon the specific facts of each situation. Alternatives that are typically considered to collect nonaccrual loans are foreclosure, collection under guarantees, loan restructuring, or judicial collection actions.

Each of Union's loans is assigned a rating based upon an internally developed grading system. A separate credit administration department also reviews grade assignments on an ongoing basis. Management continuously monitors nonperforming, impaired, and past due loans to prevent further deterioration of these loans.

The level of nonperforming loans at December 31, 2005 decreased to $4,004 versus the $4,202 that existed as of December 31, 2004. The level of nonperforming loans to total end of period loans was 0.96% at December 31, 2005, as compared to 1.00% at December 31, 2004. The reserve coverage ratio (allowance to nonperforming loans) was reported at 208.84% as of December 31, 2005 as compared to 231.6% as of December 31, 2004.

Subsequent to December 31, 2005, a loan relationship that was classified as impaired as of year end paid off. The loan relationship had an outstanding balance of $4,400 and Union's allowance for loan loss calculation had a specific reserve allocation of $1,500 on this relationship as of year end.

Other Potential Problem Loans. UnionBancorp has other potential problem loans that are currently performing and do not meet the criteria for impairment, but where some concern exists. Excluding nonperforming loans and loans that management has classified as impaired, these other potential problem loans totaled $2,879 at December 31, 2005 as compared to $4,570 at December 31, 2004. The classification of these loans, however, does not imply that management expects losses on each of these loans. Rather, management believes that a higher level of scrutiny and close monitoring is prudent under the circumstances. Such classifications relate to specific concerns for each individual borrower and do not relate to any concentration risk common to all loans in this group.

Allowance for Loan Losses. At December 31, 2005, the allowance for loan losses was $8,362 or 2.00% of total loans as compared to $9,732 or 2.32% at December 31, 2004. In originating loans, UnionBancorp recognizes that credit losses will be experienced and the risk of loss will vary with, among other things: general economic conditions; the type of loan being made; the creditworthiness of the borrower over the term of the loan; and, in the case of a collateralized loan, the quality of the collateral for such a loan. The allowance for loan losses represents Union's estimate of the allowance necessary to provide for probable incurred losses in the loan portfolio. In making this determination, UnionBancorp analyzes the ultimate collectibility of the loans in its portfolio, feedback provided by internal loan staff, the independent loan review function, and information provided by examinations performed by regulatory agencies. UnionBancorp makes an ongoing evaluation as to the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses.

On a quarterly basis, management reviews the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Commercial credits are graded by the loan officers and the loan review function validates the officers' grades. In the event that the loan review function downgrades the loan, it is included in the allowance analysis at the lower grade. The grading system is in compliance with the regulatory classifications and the allowance is allocated to the loans based on the regulatory grading, except in instances where there are known differences (i.e., collateral value is nominal, etc.). To establish the appropriate level of the allowance, a sample of loans (including impaired and nonperforming loans) are reviewed and classified as to potential loss exposure.

Based on an estimation computed pursuant to the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, and FASB Statements Nos. 114 and 118, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, the analysis of the allowance for loan losses consists of three components: (i) specific credit allocation established for expected losses resulting from analysis developed through specific credit allocations on individual loans for which the recorded investment in the loan exceeds its fair value; (ii) general portfolio allocation based on historical loan loss experience for each loan category; and (iii) subjective reserves based on general economic conditions as well as specific economic factors in the markets in which UnionBancorp operates.

The specific credit allocation component of the allowance for loan losses is based on a regular analysis of loans over a fixed-dollar amount where the internal credit rating is at or below a predetermined classification. The fair value of the loan is determined based on either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, the market price of the loan, or, if the loan is collateral dependent, the fair value of the underlying collateral less cost of sale.

The general portfolio allocation component of the allowance for loan losses is determined statistically using a loss analysis that examines historical loan loss experience. The loss analysis is performed quarterly and loss factors are updated regularly based on actual experience. The general portfolio allocation element of the allowance for loan losses also includes consideration of the amounts necessary for concentrations and changes in portfolio mix and volume.

The allowance for loan losses is based on estimates, and ultimate losses will vary from current estimates. These estimates are reviewed quarterly, and as adjustments, either positive or negative, become necessary, a corresponding increase or decrease is made in the provision for loan losses. The composition of the loan portfolio has not significantly changed since year-end 2003. The methodology used to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is consistent with prior years, and there were no reallocations.

Management remains watchful of credit quality issues. Should the economic climate deteriorate from current levels, borrowers may experience difficulty, and the level of nonperforming loans, charge-offs and delinquencies could rise and require further increases in the provision.

In years prior to 2004, management considered the unallocated portion of the allowance necessary to allow for inherent subjective reserves that are needed based on general economic conditions and specific economic factors. Since 2004, management has included the subjective portion of the allowance as a part of the allocation process to the respective loan categories. Management does not deem this process to be a change in methodology, but rather a refinement in their loan loss calculation. Management believes that there would be no change in the balance of the allowance for loan losses if this approach was used in all of the years presented.

Securities Activities. Union's consolidated securities portfolio, which represented 31.4% of Union's average earning asset base as of December 31, 2005, as compared to 32.7% as of December 31, 2004, is managed to minimize interest rate risk, maintain sufficient liquidity, and maximize return. The portfolio includes several callable agency debentures, adjustable rate mortgage pass-throughs, and collateralized mortgage obligations. Corporate bonds consist of investment grade obligations of public corporations. Equity securities consist of Federal Reserve stock, Federal Home Loan Bank stock, and trust preferred stock. Union's financial planning anticipates income streams generated by the securities portfolio based on normal maturity and reinvestment. Securities classified as available-for-sale, carried at fair value, were $196,440 at December 31, 2005 compared to $191,661 at December 31, 2004. UnionBancorp does not have any securities classified as trading or held-to-maturity.

average balance of total deposits was $520,027 for 2005, representing a decrease of $56,082 or 9.7% compared with the average balance of total deposits for 2004.

As of December 31, 2005, average time deposits over $100,000 represented 28.5% of total average deposits, compared with 25.8% of total average deposits as of December 31, 2004. Union's large denomination time deposits are generally from customers within the local market areas of its subsidiary bank and provide a greater degree of stability than is typically associated with brokered deposit customers with limited business relationships.

Table of ContentsLiquidity

UnionBancorp manages its liquidity position with the objective of maintaining sufficient funds to respond to the needs of depositors and borrowers and to take advantage of earnings enhancement opportunities. In addition to the normal inflow of funds from core-deposit growth together with repayments and maturities of loans and investments, UnionBancorp utilizes other short-term funding sources such as brokered time deposits, securities sold under agreements to repurchase, overnight federal funds purchased from correspondent banks and the acceptance of short-term deposits from public entities, and Federal Home Loan Bank advances.

UnionBancorp monitors and manages its liquidity position on several bases, which vary depending upon the time period. As the time period is expanded, other data is factored in, including estimated loan funding requirements, estimated loan payoffs, investment portfolio maturities or calls, and anticipated depository buildups or runoffs.

UnionBancorp classifies all of its securities as available-for-sale, thereby maintaining significant liquidity. Union's liquidity position is further enhanced by structuring its loan portfolio interest payments as monthly and by the significant representation of retail credit and residential mortgage loans in Union's loan portfolio, resulting in a steady stream of loan repayments. In managing its investment portfolio, UnionBancorp provides for staggered maturities so that cash flows are provided as such investments mature.

Union's cash flows are comprised of three classifications: cash flows from operating activities, cash flows from investing activities, and cash flows from financing activities. Cash flows used in investing activities offset by those provided by operating activities and financing activities, resulted in a net increase in cash and cash equivalents of $1,556 from December 31, 2004 to December 31, 2005.

During 2005, UnionBancorp experienced net cash inflows of $3,104 in financing activities primarily due to an increase in deposits and $8,289 from operating activities due to proceeds from net loans sales and net income. In contrast, net cash outflows of $9,837 were used in investing activities due to purchases of securities.

UnionBank's securities portfolio, federal funds sold, and cash and due from bank deposit balances serve as the primary sources of liquidity for Union. At December 31, 2005, 33.4% of UnionBank's interest-bearing liabilities were in the form of time deposits of $100,000 and over. Management believes these deposits to be a stable source of funds. However, if a large number of these time deposits matured at approximately the same time and were not renewed, UnionBank's liquidity could be adversely affected. Currently, the maturities of UnionBank's large time deposits are spread throughout the year, with 37.1% maturing in the first quarter of 2006, 19.0% maturing in the second quarter of 2006, 22.7% maturing in the third and fourth quarters of 2006, and the remaining 21.2% maturing thereafter. UnionBank monitors those maturities in an effort to minimize any adverse effect on liquidity.

Union's borrowings included notes payable at December 31, 2005 in the principal amount of $9,200 payable to Union's principal correspondent bank and $268 payable to individuals related to the purchase of the Howard Marshall Agency. The note to Union's principal correspondent bank is renewable annually, requires quarterly interest payments, and is collateralized by Union's stock in the Bank. The note related to the purchase of the Howard Marshall Agency requires monthly principal and interest payments.

Union's principal source of funds for repayment of the indebtedness is dividends from UnionBank. At December 31, 2005, approximately $2,500 was available for dividends without regulatory approval.

Table of ContentsContractual Obligations, Commitments, Contingencies, and Off-Balance Sheet Financial Instruments

Capital Resources

Stockholders' Equity. UnionBancorp is committed to managing capital for maximum shareholder benefit and maintaining strong protection for depositors and creditors. Stockholders' equity at December 31, 2005 was $66,075, a decrease of $4,172 or 5.9%, from December 31, 2004. The stockholders' equity decrease was largely the result of the purchase of $5,739 in treasury stock and dividends paid to shareholders offset partially by 2005 net income. Average equity as a percentage of average assets was 10.39% at December 31, 2005, compared to 9.27% at December 31, 2004. Book value per common share equaled $17.23 at December 31, 2005, a decrease from $17.30 reported at the end of 2004.

Stock Repurchase Programs. On May 2, 2003, the Board of Directors approved a stock repurchase plan whereby UnionBancorp may repurchase from time to time up to 5% of its outstanding shares of common stock in the open market or in private transactions over an 18 month period. On September 23, 2004, the Board of Directors extended Union's stock repurchase program through May 2, 2006. On July 5, 2005, UnionBancorp announced the approval of a new program to commence at the conclusion of the previously authorized repurchase program. Under the terms of the plan, UnionBancorp is able to repurchase, from time to time, up to 5% of its outstanding shares of common stock in the open market or in private transactions. Purchases are dependent upon market conditions and the availability of shares. The extension of the repurchase program enables UnionBancorp to optimize its use of capital relative to other investment alternatives and benefits both UnionBancorp and the shareholders by enhancing earnings per share and return on equity. As of December 31, 2005, UnionBancorp has repurchased 268,754 shares at a weighted average cost of $21.35.

Capital Measurements. UnionBank is expected to meet a minimum risk-based capital to risk-weighted assets ratio of 8%, of which at least one-half (or 4%) must be in the form of Tier 1 (core) capital. The remaining one-half (or 4%) may be in the form of Tier 1 (core) or Tier 2 (supplementary) capital. The amount of loan loss allowance that may be included in capital is limited to 1.25% of risk-weighted assets. The ratio of Tier 1 (core) and the combined amount of Tier 1 (core) and Tier 2 (supplementary) capital to risk-weighted assets for UnionBancorp was 12.1% and 13.3%, respectively, at December 31, 2005. UnionBancorp is currently, and expects to continue to be, in compliance with these guidelines.

As of December 31, 2005, the Tier 2 risk-based capital was comprised of $6,266 in allowance for loan losses (limited to 1.25% of risk-weighted assets). The Series A Preferred Stock is convertible into common stock, subject to certain adjustments intended to offset the amount of losses incurred by UnionBancorp upon the post-closing sale of certain securities acquired in conjunction with the 1996 acquisition of Prairie.

The following table sets forth an analysis of Union's capital ratios:

Impact of Inflation, Changing Prices, and Monetary Policies

The financial statements and related financial data concerning UnionBancorp have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which require the measurement of financial position and operating results in terms of historical dollars without considering changes in the relative purchasing power of money over time due to inflation. The primary effect of inflation on the operations of UnionBancorp is reflected in increased operating costs. Unlike most industrial companies, virtually all of the assets and liabilities of a financial institution are monetary in nature. As a result, changes in interest rates have a more significant effect on the performance of a financial institution than do the effects of changes in the general rate of inflation and changes in prices. Interest rates do not necessarily move in the same direction or in the same magnitude as the prices of goods and services. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors which are beyond the control of Union, including the influence of domestic and foreign economic conditions and the monetary and fiscal policies of the United States government and federal agencies, particularly the FRB.

Comparison of Operating Results for the Three and Six Month Periods Ended June 30, 2006 and 2005.

The following discussion provides an analysis of the UnionBancorp and subsidiary results of operations and financial condition for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005. Management's discussion and analysis (MD&A) should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes presented elsewhere in this report as well as UnionBancorp's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Annualized results of operations during the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the full year of 2006. Unless otherwise stated, all earnings per share data included in this section and throughout the remainder of this discussion are presented on a diluted basis. All financial information is in thousands (000's), except per share data.

Second Quarter Highlights

Earnings per share were unchanged compared to the second quarter of 2005.

UnionBancorp's earnings were positively impacted by a $300 negative provision for loan losses largely based on continued improvements in the quality of the loan portfolio, which was partially offset by a loss on sale of securities of $88 in order to better position the securities portfolio. Excluding these items, net income for the quarter would have equaled $1,163 or $0.29 per diluted share.

The second quarter of 2005 results were positively impacted by a $251 reduction in state income taxes and $90 of interest received due to the receipt of a tax refund related to amended tax returns outstanding from prior years. Excluding these items, net income for the second quarter of 2005 would have equaled $1,076 or $0.25 per diluted share.

Due to the flat yield curve, the net interest margin decreased to 3.37% during the second quarter of 2006 as compared with 3.59% for the same period in 2005 and 3.50% in the first quarter of 2006.

The loan portfolio decreased to $403.5 million as compared to $417.5 million at December 31, 2005. Of this decrease in balances, approximately $7.7 million or 55% was related to the pay-off of action list credits refinanced with a competitor.

The level of nonperforming loans to end of period loans totaled 0.70% as of June 30, 2006 compared to 0.95% at June 30, 2005 and 0.96% on December 31, 2005.

Net charge-offs for the second quarter of 2006 were 0.09% of average loans as compared to 0.19% for the same period 2005.

UnionBancorp's Board of Directors approved the payment of a $0.12 quarterly cash dividend on UnionBancorp's common stock, marking the 85th consecutive quarter of dividends paid to stockholders.

Results of Operations

Net Income

Net income equaled $1,294 or $0.33 per diluted share for the three months ended June 30, 2006, versus $1,382 or $0.33 per diluted share for the same period in 2005. For the six months ended June 30, 2006 net income equaled $2,940 or $0.74 per diluted share compared to $2,346 or $0.55 per diluted share earned in the same period during 2005.

UnionBancorp's quarterly results were positively impacted by a negative provision of $300 to the allowance for loan losses. This action was largely based on continued improvements in the quality of the loan portfolio, favorable loan loss experience and management's beliefs regarding the probability and estimations of future losses inherent in the loan portfolio. Additionally, quarterly earnings were assisted by continued management of noninterest expense levels led to decreased expense levels, and fewer FTE's drove salary and benefit costs lower and lower accounting and professional fees. These items were partially offset by increased interest expense due to higher rates and an adverse shift in the deposit base from lower paying core deposit accounts to higher paying time deposit accounts. Also contributing to the change in earnings were decreases in revenue generated from the mortgage banking division and insurance and brokerage product lines due to lower production volumes.

Return on average assets was 0.79% for the second quarter of 2006 compared to 0.83% for the same period in 2005. Return on average assets was 0.89% for the six month period ended June 30, 2006 compared to 0.71% for the same period in 2005.

Return on average stockholders' equity was 7.93% for the second quarter of 2006 compared to 7.94% for the same period in 2005. Return on average stockholder's equity was 9.03% for the six month period ended June 30, 2006 compared to 6.73% for the same period in 2005.

Table of ContentsNet Interest Income/Margin

Net interest income is the difference between income earned on interest-earning assets and the interest expense incurred for the funding sources used to finance these assets. Changes in net interest income generally occur due to fluctuations in the volume of earning assets and paying liabilities and the rates earned and paid, respectively, on those assets and liabilities. The net yield on total interest-earning assets, also referred to as net interest margin, represents net interest income divided by average interest-earning assets. Net interest margin measures how efficiently UnionBancorp uses its earning assets and underlying capital. UnionBancorp's long-term objective is to manage those assets and liabilities to provide the largest possible amount of income while balancing interest rate, credit, liquidity and capital risks. For purposes of this discussion, both net interest income and margin have been adjusted to a fully tax equivalent basis for certain tax-exempt securities and loans.

Net interest income, on a tax equivalent basis, was $5,078 for the three months ended June 30, 2006, compared with $5,438 earned during the same three-month period in 2005. This represented a decrease of $360 or 6.6% from the prior year period. The change in net interest income is attributable to the increase in interest expense paid on interest bearing liabilities totaling $1,260 partially offset by an increase in interest income earned on interest earning assets totaling $900.

The $900 increase in interest income resulted from an increase of $976 due to rate partially offset by a decrease of $76 due to volume. The majority of the change in interest income was related to the increases in rates experienced from the loan and investment portfolios. Additionally, the volume within the security portfolio was $7,049 higher for the second quarter of 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005. These increases were slightly offset by lower volume in the loan portfolio.

The $1,260 increase in interest expense resulted from increases of $1,182 associated with rate and $78 associated with volume. The majority of the change was attributable to a 107 basis point increase in rates paid on time deposits, a 114 basis point increase in rates paid on money market accounts and a 68 basis point increase in rates paid on NOW accounts.

The net interest margin decreased 22 basis points to 3.37% in the second quarter 2006 as compared with 3.57% for the same period in 2005. The expectation of a flat yield curve is likely to maintain pressure on margins for the remainder of 2006.

Net interest income, on a tax equivalent basis, for the six months ended June 30, 2006 totaled $10,392, representing a decrease of $289 or 2.7% compared to the $10,681 earned during the same period in 2005. Net interest income decreased largely due to the increase in interest expense paid on interest bearing liabilities totaling $2,403 exceeding the increase in the interest income earned on interest-earning assets totaling $2,114. The net interest margin for the first six months of 2006 decreased 12 basis points to 3.44% compared to 3.56% for the same period in 2005.

UnionBancorp's net interest income is affected by changes in the amount and mix of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, referred to as volume change. It is also affected by changes in yields earned on interest-earning assets and rates paid on interest-bearing deposits and other borrowed funds referred to as rate change. The following table details each category of average amounts outstanding for interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, average rate earned on all interest-earning assets, average rate paid on all interest-bearing liabilities, and the net yield on average interest-earning assets. In addition, the table reflects the changes in net interest income stemming from changes in interest rates and from asset and liability volume, including mix. The change in interest attributable to both rate and volume has been allocated to the changes in the rate and the volume on a pro rata basis.

Provision for Loan Losses. UnionBancorp recorded a negative provision of $300 to the allowance for loan losses for the second quarter of 2006 which is a decrease of $300 from the $0 recorded during the same period a year ago. A negative $1,100 provision for the loan losses was charged to operation expense for the six months ended June 30, 2006 which was a decrease of $1,200 from $100 recorded during the same period a year ago. The decrease in the provision was largely based on continued improvements in the quality of the loan portfolio, favorable loan loss experience and management's beliefs regarding the probability and estimations of future losses inherent in the loan portfolio. Nonperforming loans decreased $1,029 from $3,835 as of June 30, 2005 to $2,806 as of June 30, 2006. In comparison to December 31, 2005, nonperforming loans decreased $1,198 from $4,004.

Net charge-offs for the second quarter of 2006 were $358 compared with $789 for the comparable period in 2005. Annualized net charge-offs were 0.09% of average loans for the second quarter of 2006 compared with 0.19% of average loans for same period in 2005. Net charge-off for the six months ended June 30, 2006 were $414 compared with $673 for the comparable period in 2005. Annualized net charge-offs also decreased to 0.10% of average loans for the six months ended June 30, 2006 compared to 0.16% in the same period in 2005. See Nonperforming Assets and Other Potential Problem Loans for further information.

The amount of the provision for loan losses is based on management's evaluations of the loan portfolio, with particular attention directed toward nonperforming, impaired and other potential problem loans. During these evaluations, consideration is also given to such factors as management's evaluation of specific loans, the level and composition of impaired loans, other nonperforming loans, other identified potential problem loans, historical loss experience, results of examinations by regulatory agencies, results of the independent asset quality review process, the market value of collateral, the estimate of discounted cash flows, the strength and availability of guarantees, concentrations of credits, and various other factors, including concentration of credit risk in various industries and current economic conditions.

Management remains watchful of credit quality issues. Should the economic climate deteriorate from current levels, borrowers may experience difficulty, and the level of nonperforming loans, charge-offs and delinquencies could rise and require further increases in the provision.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income consists of a wide variety of fee-based revenues from bank-related service charges on deposits and mortgage revenues. Also included in this category are revenues generated by UnionBancorp's insurance, brokerage, trust and asset management product lines as well as increases in cash surrender value on bank-owned life insurance.

The following table summarizes UnionBancorp's noninterest income:

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2006	2005	2006	2005
Service charges	$ 495	$ 525	$ 935	$ 1,008

Other income	268	347	604	602
	$ 1,697	$ 2,031	$ 3,457	$ 3,881

Noninterest income totaled $1,697 for the three months ended June 30, 2006, compared to $2,031 for the same period in 2005. Exclusive of the net gains on sale of assets and net securities gains for both periods, noninterest income equaled $1,794 for the three months ended June 30, 2006, compared to $2,030 for the same period in 2005. This represented a decrease of $236 or 11.6%. The quarter-over-quarter decrease was primarily attributable to a production level decrease in revenue generated from the mortgage banking division, lower brokerage and insurance revenue and losses related to investment activity.

Noninterest income totaled $3,457 for the six months ended June 30, 2006, compared to $3,881 for the same time frame in 2005. Excluding all net gains on sale of assets and net securities gains for both periods, noninterest income decreased $324 or 8.4%. The change was largely reflective of the same items discussed regarding the second quarter.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense is comprised primarily of compensation and employee benefits, occupancy and other operating expense. The following table summarizes UnionBancorp's noninterest expense:

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2006	2005	2006	2005
Salaries and employee benefits	$ 2,910	$ 3,366	$ 5,955	$ 6,842

Other expenses	1,026	1,023	1,985	1,946
	$ 5,129	$ 5,627	$ 10,463	$ 11,173

Noninterest expense totaled $5,129 for the three months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to $5,627 for the same period in 2005. This represented a decrease of $498 or 8.9%. This improvement in noninterest expense was primarily due to the reduction of salary and benefit costs, and lower accounting and professional fees. These savings were offset by a modest increase in furniture and fixture expense.

Noninterest expense totaled $10,463 for the six months ended June 30, 2006, decreasing by $710 or 6.4% from the same period in 2005. The change was largely reflective of the same items discussed regarding the second quarter.

Table of Contents

Applicable Income Taxes. Income tax expense for the periods included benefits for tax-exempt income, tax-advantaged investments and general business tax credits offset by the effect of nondeductible expenses. The following table shows UnionBancorp's income before income taxes, as well as applicable income taxes and the effective tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005.

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2006	2005	2006	2005
Income before income taxes	$ 1,819	$ 1,684	$ 4,228	$ 2,973
Applicable income taxes	525	302	1,288	627
Effective tax rates	28.9%	17.9%	30.5%	21.1%

UnionBancorp recorded an income tax expense of $525 and of $302 for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Effective tax rates equaled 28.9% and 17.9% respectively, for such periods. During the second quarter of 2005, UnionBancorp recorded a $251 reduction in state income taxes due to the receipt of a tax refund related to amended returns outstanding from prior years. Excluding this refund, the effective tax rate would have been 32.8% for that period.

Income tax expense for the periods included benefits for tax-exempt income, tax-advantaged investments and general business tax credits offset by the effect of nondeductible expenses. UnionBancorp's effective tax rate was lower than statutory rates due to UnionBancorp deriving interest income from municipal securities and loans, which are exempt from federal tax and certain U.S. government agency securities, which are exempt from Illinois State tax. Additionally, UnionBancorp has reduced tax expense through various tax planning initiatives.

UnionBancorp recorded income tax expense of $1,288 and $627 for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Effective tax rates equaled 30.5% and 21.1% respectively, for such periods.

Preferred Stock Dividends. UnionBancorp paid $52 in preferred stock dividends for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. UnionBancorp paid $104 in preferred stock dividends for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Interest Rate Sensitivity Management

The business of UnionBancorp and the composition of its balance sheet consist of investments in interest-earning assets (primarily loans and securities) which are primarily funded by interest-bearing liabilities (deposits and borrowings). All of the financial instruments of UnionBancorp are for other than trading purposes. Such financial instruments have varying levels of sensitivity to changes in market rates of interest. The operating income and net income of UnionBank depends, to a substantial extent, on rate differentials, i.e., the differences between the income UnionBank receives from loans, securities, and other earning assets and the interest expense they pay to obtain deposits and other liabilities. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors that are beyond the control of UnionBank, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory authorities.

Table of Contents

UnionBancorp measures its overall interest rate sensitivity through a net interest income analysis. The net interest income analysis measures the change in net interest income in the event of hypothetical changes in interest rates. This analysis assesses the risk of changes in net interest income in the event of a sudden and sustained 100 to 200 basis point increase in market interest rates or a 100 basis point decrease in market rates. The interest rates scenarios are used for analytical purposes and do not necessarily represent management's view of future market movements. The tables below present UnionBancorp's projected changes in net interest income for the various rate shock levels at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively:

June 30, 2006
Net Interest Income
	Amount	Change	Change
(Dollars in thousands)
+200 bp	$ 23,116	$ 347	1.52%
+100 bp	23,013	244	1.07

-200 bp	21,339	(1,430)	(6.28)

Based upon UnionBancorp's model at June 30, 2006, the effect of an immediate 200 basis point increase in interest rates would increase UnionBancorp's net interest income by $347 or 1.52%. The effect of an immediate 200 basis point decrease in rates would decrease UnionBancorp's net interest income by $1,430 or 6.28%.

Based upon UnionBancorp's model at December 31, 2005, the effect of an immediate 200 basis point increase in interest rates would increase UnionBancorp's net interest income by $959 or 4.34%. The effect of an immediate 200 basis point decrease in rates would decrease UnionBancorp's net interest income by $2,340 or 10.59%.

Financial Condition

General. As of June 30, 2006, UnionBancorp had total assets of $656,831, total gross loans of $403,455, total deposits of $522,695 and total stockholders' equity of $65,304. Total assets decreased by $19,391 or 2.9% from year-end 2005. Total gross loans decreased by $14,070 or 3.4% from year-end 2005. Total deposits declined by $21,146 or 3.9% from year-end 2005.

Nonperforming Assets. UnionBancorp's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, including the recognition of interest income on its loan portfolio, unless a loan is placed on nonaccrual status. Loans are placed on nonaccrual status when there are serious doubts regarding the collectibility of all principal and interest due under the terms of the loans. Amounts received on nonaccrual loans generally are applied first to principal and then to interest after all principal has been collected. It is the policy of UnionBancorp not to renegotiate the terms of a loan because of a delinquent status. Rather, a loan is generally transferred to nonaccrual status if it is not in the process of collection and is delinquent in payment of either principal or interest beyond 90 days. Loans that are 90 days delinquent but are well secured and in the process of collection are not included in nonperforming assets. Other nonperforming assets consist of real estate acquired through loan foreclosures or other workout situations and other assets acquired through repossessions.

The classification of a loan as nonaccrual does not necessarily indicate that the principal is uncollectible, in whole or in part. UnionBank makes a determination as to collectibility on a case-by-case basis. UnionBank considers both the adequacy of the collateral and the other resources of the borrower in determining the steps to be taken to collect nonaccrual loans. The final determination as to the steps taken is made based upon the specific facts of each situation. Alternatives that are typically considered to collect nonaccrual loans are foreclosure, collection under guarantees, loan restructuring, or judicial collection actions.

Each of UnionBancorp's loans is assigned a rating based upon an internally developed grading system. A separate credit administration department also reviews grade assignments on an ongoing basis. Management continuously monitors nonperforming, impaired, and past due loans to prevent further deterioration of these loans. UnionBancorp has an independent loan review function which is separate from the lending function and is responsible for the review of new and existing loans.

The following table summarizes nonperforming assets and loans past due 90 days or more and still accruing for the previous five quarters.

Nonperforming assets to total end of period assets	0.64	0.59	0.62	0.59	0.68

The level of nonperforming loans at June 30, 2006 decreased to $2,806 versus the $4,004 that existed as of December 31, 2005 and from $3,835 at June 30, 2005. The level of nonperforming loans to total end of period loans was 0.70% at June 30, 2006, as compared to 0.96% at December 31, 2005 and 0.95% at June 30, 2005. The reserve coverage ratio (allowance to nonperforming loans) was reported at 244.05% as of June 30, 2006 as compared to 208.84% as of December 31, 2005 and 238.83% as of June 30, 2005.

Other Potential Problem Loans. UnionBancorp has other potential problem loans that are currently performing, but where some concerns exist as to the ability of the borrower to comply with present loan repayment terms. Excluding nonperforming loans and loans that management has classified as impaired, these other potential problem loans totaled $1,218 at June 30, 2006, as compared to $6,857 at June 30, 2005 and $2,879 at December 31, 2005. The classification of these loans, however, does not imply that management expects losses on each of these loans, but believes that a higher level of scrutiny and close monitoring is prudent under the circumstances. Such classifications relate to specific concerns for each individual borrower and do not relate to any concentration risk common to all loans in this group.

Allowance for Loan Losses. At June 30, 2006, the allowance for loan losses was $6,848 or 1.70% of total loans as compared to $8,362 or 2.00% at December 31, 2005, and $9,159 or 2.26% at June 30, 2005. The decrease in the allowance was largely based on continued improvements in the quality of the loan portfolio, favorable loan loss experience and management's beliefs regarding the probability and estimations of future losses inherent in the loan portfolio. In originating loans, UnionBancorp recognizes that credit losses will be experienced and the risk of loss will vary with, among other things, general economic conditions; the type of loan being made; the creditworthiness of the borrower over the term of the loan; and, in the case of a collateralized loan, the quality of the collateral for such a loan. The allowance for loan losses represents UnionBancorp's estimate of the allowance necessary to provide for probable incurred losses in the loan portfolio. In making this determination, UnionBancorp analyzes the ultimate collectibility of the loans in its portfolio, incorporating feedback provided by internal loan staff, the independent loan review function, and information provided by examinations performed by regulatory agencies. UnionBancorp makes an ongoing evaluation as to the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses.

On a quarterly basis, management reviews the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Commercial credits are graded by the loan officers and the Loan Review function validates the officers' grades. In the event that the loan review function downgrades the loan, it is included in the allowance analysis at the lower grade. The grading system is in compliance with the regulatory classifications and the allowance is allocated to the loans based on the regulatory grading, except in instances where there are known differences (i.e., collateral value is nominal, etc.). To establish the appropriate level of the allowance, a sample of loans (including impaired and nonperforming loans) are reviewed and classified as to potential loss exposure.

Based on an estimation computed pursuant to the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, and FASB Statements Nos. 114 and 118, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, the analysis of the allowance for loan losses consists of three components: (i) specific credit allocation established for expected losses resulting from analysis developed through specific credit allocations on individual loans for which the recorded investment in the loan exceeds its fair value; (ii) general portfolio allocation based on historical loan loss experience for each loan category; and (iii) subjective reserves based on general economic conditions as well as specific economic factors in the markets in which UnionBancorp operates.

The specific credit allocation component of the allowance for loan losses is based on a regular analysis of loans over a fixed-dollar amount where the internal credit rating is at or below a predetermined classification. The fair value of the loan is determined based on either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, the market price of the loan, or, if the loan is collateral dependent, the fair value of the underlying collateral less cost of sale.

The general portfolio allocation component of the allowance for loan losses is determined statistically using a loss migration analysis that examines historical loan loss experience. The loss migration analysis is performed quarterly and loss factors are updated regularly based on actual experience. The general portfolio allocation element of the allowance for loan losses also includes consideration of the amounts necessary for concentrations and changes in portfolio mix and volume.

The allowance for loan losses is based on estimates, and ultimate losses will vary from current estimates. These estimates are reviewed monthly, and as adjustments, either positive or negative, become necessary, a corresponding increase or decrease is made in the provision for loan losses. The composition of the loan portfolio has not significantly changed since year-end 2004. The methodology used to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is consistent with prior years, and there were no reallocations.

Management remains watchful of credit quality issues. Should the economic climate deteriorate from current levels, borrowers may experience difficulty, and the level of nonperforming loans, charge-offs and delinquencies could rise and require further increases in the provision.

Liquidity

UnionBancorp manages its liquidity position with the objective of maintaining sufficient funds to respond to the needs of depositors and borrowers and to take advantage of earnings enhancement opportunities. In addition to the normal inflow of funds from core-deposit growth together with repayments and maturities of loans and investments, UnionBancorp utilizes other short-term funding sources such as brokered time deposits, securities sold under agreements to repurchase, overnight federal funds purchased from correspondent banks and the acceptance of short-term deposits from public entities, and Federal Home Loan Bank advances.

UnionBancorp monitors and manages its liquidity position on several bases, which vary depending upon the time period. As the time period is expanded, other data is factored in, including estimated loan funding requirements, estimated loan payoffs, investment portfolio maturities or calls, and anticipated depository buildups or runoffs.

UnionBancorp classifies all of its securities as available-for-sale, thereby maintaining significant liquidity. UnionBancorp's liquidity position is further enhanced by structuring its loan portfolio interest payments as monthly and by the significant representation of retail credit and residential mortgage loans in UnionBancorp's loan portfolio, resulting in a steady stream of loan repayments. In managing its investment portfolio, UnionBancorp provides for staggered maturities so that cash flows are provided as such investments mature.

UnionBancorp's cash flows are comprised of three classifications: cash flows from operating activities, cash flows from investing activities, and cash flows from financing activities. Cash flows provided by operating activities and investing activities offset by those used in financing activities, resulted in a net increase in cash and cash equivalents of $5,907 from December 31, 2005 to June 30, 2006.

During the first six months of 2006, UnionBancorp experienced net cash in flows of $3,931 in operating activities due to negative provision and net income and $16,854 in investing activities largely due to the decrease in net loans and securities. In contrast, net cash outflow of $14,878 in financing activities primarily due to a decrease in deposits and borrowed funds.

Capital Resources

Stockholders Equity. UnionBancorp is committed to managing capital for maximum shareholder benefit and maintaining strong protection for depositors and creditors. Stockholders equity at June 30, 2006 was $65,304, a decrease of $771 or 1.2%, from December 31, 2005. The decrease in stockholders equity was the result of the dividends paid to shareholders and a decrease in accumulated other comprehensive income partially offset by net income for the period. Average quarterly equity as a percentage of average quarterly assets was 9.94% at June 30, 2006, compared to 10.39% at December 31, 2005. Book value per common share equaled $17.31 at June 30, 2006 compared to $17.23 at December 31, 2005.

Stock Repurchase. On May 2, 2003, the Board of Directors approved a stock repurchase plan whereby UnionBancorp may repurchase from time to time up to 5% of its outstanding shares of common stock in the open market or in private transactions over an 18 month period. On September 23, 2004, the Board of Directors extended UnionBancorp's stock repurchase program through May 2, 2006. On June 16, 2005, the Board of Directors amended the repurchase plan to enable UnionBancorp to acquire an additional 5% of its outstanding shares of common stock in the open market or in private transactions. On March 16, 2006, the Board of Directors approved an additional 5% stock repurchase program that begins when the existing plan is completed. Under the revised plan, UnionBancorp can repurchase approximately 188,000 shares of its outstanding shares of common stock. Under the terms of the plan, UnionBancorp is able to repurchase, from time to time, up to 5% of its outstanding shares of common stock in the open market or in private transactions. Purchases are dependent upon market conditions and the availability of shares. The extension of the repurchase program enables UnionBancorp to optimize its use of capital relative to other investment alternatives and benefits both UnionBancorp and the shareholders by enhancing earnings per share and return on equity. During the quarter ending June 30, 2006, no shares were repurchased and to date, UnionBancorp has repurchased 364,879 shares at a weighted average cost of $21.16.

Capital Measurements. UnionBancorp is expected to meet a minimum risk-based capital to risk-weighted assets ratio of 8%, of which at least one-half (or 4%) must be in the form of Tier 1 (core) capital. The remaining one-half (or 4%) may be in the form of Tier 1 (core) or Tier 2 (supplementary) capital. The amount of loan loss allowance that may be included in capital is limited to 1.25% of risk-weighted assets. The ratio of Tier 1 (core) and the combined amount of Tier 1 (core) and Tier 2 (supplementary) capital to risk-weighted assets for UnionBancorp was 12.4% and 13.7%, respectively, at June 30, 2006. UnionBancorp is currently, and expects to continue to be, in compliance with these guidelines.

Impact of Inflation, Changing Prices, and Monetary Policies

The financial statements and related financial data concerning UnionBancorp have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles which require the measurement of financial position and operating results in terms of historical dollars without considering changes in the relative purchasing power of money over time due to inflation. The primary effect of inflation on the operations of UnionBancorp is reflected in increased operating costs. Unlike most industrial companies, virtually all of the assets and liabilities of a financial institution are monetary in nature. As a result, changes in interest rates have a more significant effect on the performance of a financial institution than do the effects of changes in the general rate of inflation and changes in prices. Interest rates do not necessarily move in the same direction or in the same magnitude as the prices of goods and services. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors which are beyond the control of Union, including the influence of domestic and foreign economic conditions and the monetary and fiscal policies of the United States government and federal agencies, particularly the Federal Reserve Board.

Recent Regulatory and Accounting Developments

In February, 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 155, Accounting for Certain Hybrid Financial Instruments - An Amendment of FASB Statement No. 133 and 140 (SFAS 155). SFAS 155 simplifies the accounting for certain hybrid financial instruments that contain an embedded derivative that otherwise would have required bifurcation. SFAS 155 also eliminates the interim guidance in FASB Statement No. 133, which provides that beneficial interest in securitized financial assets are not subject to the provisions of FASB Statement No. 133. SFAS 155 is effective for all financial instruments acquired or issued after the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006, which for UnionBancorp will be as of the beginning of fiscal 2007. UnionBancorp does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 155 will have a significant effect on its financial statements as UnionBancorp does not have any hybrid financial instruments at this time.

In March, 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 156, Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets - An Amendment of FASB Statement No. 140 (SFAS 156). SFAS 156 requires that all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities be initially measured at fair value, if practicable. The statement permits, but does not require, the subsequent measurement of servicing assets and servicing liabilities at fair value. SFAS 156 is effective as of the beginning of the entity's first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. UnionBancorp is currently evaluating any potential impact of the adoption of this SFAS.

In June, 2006, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - An interpretation of FASB No. 109 (FIN 48). FIN 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Interpretation is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. UnionBancorp is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of FIN 48, with respect to its results of operations, financial position and liquidity.

Transactions with Management

Several of UnionBancorp's directors and executive officers (including their affiliates, families and companies in which they are principal owners, officers or directors) were loan customers of, and had other transactions with, UnionBancorp and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business. These loans and lines of credit were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. During 2005, UnionBancorp paid approximately $94,579 to the law firm of Myers, Berry, O'Connor & Kuzma, Ltd. for legal services. Richard J. Berry, a director of UnionBancorp, is a principal of that firm.

Financial and other information relating to UnionBancorp is set forth in UnionBancorp's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006, UnionBancorp's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K, UnionBancorp's Proxy Statement for its 2006 annual meeting filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 24, 2006, and UnionBancorp's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed during 2006, copies of which may be obtained from UnionBancorp as indicated under "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 164.

On April 8, 2005, Centrue Financial acquired Illinois Community Bancorp, Inc., a bank holding company in Effingham, Illinois with approximately $30 million in total assets. Centrue Financial also opened a new branch in the growing Fairview Heights market in May 2005 and has announced plans to continue to open additional branches in and near its current markets over the next few years. In March 2006, Centrue Financial relocated its headquarters to Fairview Heights, Illinois.

Centrue Bank was initially chartered as an Illinois state savings and loan association in 1885. Centrue Bank converted to a federally chartered savings and loan association in 1937 and changed its name to Kankakee Federal Savings Bank in connection with its conversion to stock form in 1992. Centrue Bank changed its name to KFS Bank, F.S.B., as of December 1, 2002. Centrue Service Corp. and Centrue Insurance Agency, Inc. will be dissolved in connection with the merger of Centrue Bank and UnionBank.

Centrue Financial's focus is to serve residential and small businesses from south suburban Chicago, Illinois, to metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri with a wide array of financial services. Centrue Financial is principally engaged in originating commercial business, commercial real estate, mortgage, consumer, multi-family, and construction loans, and attracting deposits from the general public. Since 2003, Centrue Financial has recruited new management, strengthened its policies and procedures and worked to clean up inherited asset quality issues. In addition to the Aviston, Parish and Illinois Community Bank transactions, Centrue Financial has opened new branches in Bradley, Dwight and Fairview Heights, Illinois as well as a loan production office in Plainfield, Illinois to broaden its geographic presence. Centrue Financial has recruited experienced bankers to generate new business and add depth to the management team. Management continues to emphasize providing excellent customer service while striving to meet its growth objectives and profitability goals. Centrue Financial is organized into four geographic regions, each led by its own regional president and management team. Each regional president has responsibility for staffing, loans, deposits and pricing in his or her respective region. Also, certain operational and decision making activities have been transferred to the regional level in order to improve efficiency, competitiveness and overall customer service. Centralized operations, including accounting, remain at Centrue Financial's former headquarters in Kankakee. Management believes this organizational structure has allowed Centrue Financial to maintain its community focus, and improve customer service and efficiency, while growing Centrue Financial's asset base.

Centrue Financial's executive offices are located at 303 Fountains Parkway, Fairview Heights, Illinois 62208 and its telephone number at that address is (618) 624-1323.

Management's Discussion and AnalysisComparison of Operating Results for the Years Ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003Overview

Centrue Financial is the holding company for Centrue Bank. All references to Centrue Financial in the following discussion include Centrue Bank and Centrue Bank's wholly-owned service corporation, Centrue Service Corporation (CSC), unless indicated otherwise. In October 2003, Kankakee Bancorp, Inc. merged with Aviston Financial Corporation and subsequent to the merger, the remaining corporation changed its name to Centrue Financial Corporation. At the time of the merger, Aviston Financial had approximately $96.5 million in total assets. The subsidiary banks were merged to form Centrue Bank, a state-chartered commercial bank. On March 5, 2004, Centrue Financial acquired Parish Bank and Trust Co. located in Momence, Illinois. At the time of the acquisition, Parish had approximately $21 million in total assets. On April 8, 2005, Centrue Financial acquired Illinois Community Bancorp, Inc., located in Effingham, Illinois. At the time of the acquisition, Illinois Community had approximately $29.9 million in total assets. Centrue Financial also opened a new branch in the growing Fairview Heights market in May 2005 and has announced plans to open additional branches in the St. Louis Metro East area over the next few years.

Centrue Financial completed its second full year as Centrue Financial in 2005. Since the 2003 merger, a new experienced management team has been assembled by Thomas A. Daiber, who joined Centrue Financial as CEO during the merger. Virtually every senior officer position has been filled with a new executive. During 2005, Centrue Financial made significant progress in cleaning up the asset quality issues it inherited in 2003 and has reduced nonperforming loans by 66% from its peak in June 2004. Through the addition of a Chief Credit Officer and implementation of sound lending policies and practices, Centrue Financial's asset quality has continued to improve. Following the expected liquidation of two large nonperforming assets in 2006, management expects Centrue Financial's asset quality measurements to be at peer group levels.

While operating as one significant business unit, Centrue Financial has a regional president for each of its four operating regions that has responsibility for managing the daily activity within each respective market. Management believes that customer service is enhanced through its practice of empowering its employees to make decisions while serving the customer. Centrue Financial continues to work to improve its operational efficiency and profitability while continuing to implement its previously announced strategy to expand within its markets and surrounding communities. During 2005, Centrue Financial entered two new markets and significantly expanded its presence in a third. As a result, the staffing level of Centrue Financial increased by thirty four full time equivalents during the year primarily due to the addition of the staff at the acquired Effingham location and due to staffing of the new Fairview Heights branch as well as the new loan production office in Plainfield. We also added management depth during 2005 with the addition of an experienced Chief Operating Officer and new managers for the mortgage, consumer lending, operations and compliance departments.

Net income decreased 11.7% to $4.1 million in 2005 compared to record income of $4.6 million in 2004. The results for 2005 included costs associated with a data processing conversion, expenses related to stock options, the opening of the new Fairview Heights branch, the acquisition and integration of Illinois Community Bank in Effingham and other merger and acquisition activity. Assets grew 4.8% from $611.9 million at the end of 2004 to $641.5 million at the end of 2005.

Centrue Financial has had an aggressive capital management plan over the last four years. As part of this strategy, Centrue Financial made open market purchases of its own stock totaling 1,045,335 common shares of stock at a total cost of $23.8 million. Centrue Financial repurchased 167,224 common shares at a total cost of $3.2 million ($19.15 per share) in 2002, 466,540 shares of stock at a total cost of $9.3 million ($19.95 per share) in 2003, 232,706 shares of stock at a total cost of $6.5 million ($27.99 per share) in 2004 and an additional 178,865 shares of executed a 2 for 1 stock split in the form of a dividend during October of 2003. All references in this discussion to the prices and number of shares have been adjusted for this split. In addition, Centru Financial is continuously evaluating balance sheet opportunities to augment and leverage its capital base to maximize stockholders' return on equity. Centru Financial will continue to evaluate opportunities in 2006 in an effort to enhance earnings.

Centru Financial's results of operations are dependent primarily on net interest income, which is the difference, or spread, between the interest income earned on its loans and investments and its cost of funds, consisting of interest paid on its deposits and on borrowed funds. Centru Financial's operating expenses principally consist of employee compensation and benefits, occupancy, marketing and other general and administrative expenses. Centru Financial's results of operations are also significantly affected by general economic and competitive conditions, particularly changes in market interest rates, government policies and actions of regulatory authorities.

Mission and Goals

Centru Financial's mission is to be the premier bank serving the communities between Chicago, Illinois and St. Louis, Missouri with a return on equity within the upper quartile of our peer group. Our regional banking philosophy is to support and empower our employees to provide superior customer service.

In seeking to accomplish this mission, management has adopted a business strategy designed to accomplish a number of goals, including:

increase return on equity and increase stockholders' value;

maintain Centru Bank's capital at a level that exceeds regulatory requirements; attain a high level of asset quality;

manage Centru Financial's exposure to changes in market interest rates; maximize Centru Financial's net interest margin; and to the extent available, take advantage of loan and deposit growth opportunities in Centru Financial's principal market areas.

Centru Financial has attempted to achieve these goals by focusing on a number of areas, including:

management of Centru Financial's capital to enhance stockholders' value;

employment of experienced and dedicated officers and employees; enhancement of controls over asset quality by employment of a chief credit officer and credit administration staff; installation of an incentive compensation program for every employee based upon attainment of Company and individual objectives;

implementation of a sales management process to deepen existing customer relationships and to attract new customers from within our markets;

investment in new technology and item processing services to improve delivery of services to customers; establishment of regional banking centers with a local regional president; expansion of Centru Financial's geographic presence through strategic acquisitions and de novo branches;

the origination of commercial real estate, consumer, commercial business, and, multi-family and construction loans; forming strategic alliances for ancillary banking services such as trust, brokerage and credit card services designed to enhance product offerings for customers while increasing efficiency; providing high quality service to enhance customer loyalty; and offering a variety of financial products and services to serve as comprehensively as practicable the financial needs of families and community businesses in its market areas.

Critical Accounting Policies

In the ordinary course of business, Centru Financial has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of results of operations and financial condition in preparing its financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates under different assumptions and conditions. Centru Financial believes the following discussion, including the allowance for loan losses, goodwill, real estate held for sale, mortgage servicing rights and deferred taxes, addresses Centru Financial's most critical accounting policies, which are those that are most important to the portrayal of Centru Financial's financial condition and results and require management's most difficult, subjective and complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain.

Allowance for Loan Losses The allowance for loan losses is a material estimate that is particularly susceptible to significant changes in the near term and is established through a provision for loan losses. The allowance is based upon past loan experience and other factors which, in management's judgment, deserve current recognition in estimating loan losses. The evaluation includes a review of all loans on which full collectibility may not be reasonably assured. Other factors considered by management include the size and character of the loan portfolio, concentrations of loans to specific borrowers or industries, existing economic conditions and historical losses on each portfolio category. In connection with the determination of the allowance for loan losses, management obtains independent appraisals for significant properties, which collateralize loans. Management believes it uses the best information available to make such determinations. If circumstances differ substantially from the assumptions used in making determinations, future adjustments to the allowance for loan losses may be necessary and results of operations could be affected. While Centru Financial believes it has established its existing allowance for loan losses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, there can be no assurance that regulators, in reviewing Centru Bank's loan portfolio, will not request an increase in the allowance for loan losses. Because future events affecting borrowers and collateral cannot be predicted with certainty, there can be no assurance that increases to the allowance will be necessary if loan quality deteriorates.

Goodwill Costs in excess of the estimated fair value of identified net assets acquired through purchase transactions are recorded as an asset by Centru Financial. This amount was originally amortized into expense on a straight-line basis assuming a life of twenty years. Effective January 1, 2002, Centru Financial ceased amortization in accordance with newly adopted accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Centru Financial performed an initial impairment assessment as of January 1, 2002 and annual impairment assessments as of September 30. No impairment of goodwill was identified as a result of these tests. In making these impairment assessments, management must make subjective assumptions regarding the fair value of Centru Financial's assets and liabilities. It is possible that these judgments may change over time as market conditions or Company strategies change, and these changes may cause Centru Financial to record impairment charges to adjust the goodwill to its estimated fair value.

Real Estate Held for Sale Real estate held for sale is recorded at the property's fair value less estimated cost to sell at the date of foreclosure (cost). Initial valuation adjustments, if any, are charged against the allowance for loan losses. Property is evaluated to ensure the recorded amount is supported by its current fair value. Subsequent declines in estimated fair value are charged to expense when incurred.

Mortgage Servicing Rights Centru Financial recognizes as a separate asset the rights to service mortgage loans for others. The value of mortgage servicing rights is amortized in relation to the servicing revenue expected to be earned. Mortgage servicing rights are periodically evaluated for impairment based upon the fair value of those rights. Estimating the fair value of the mortgage servicing rights involves judgment, particularly of estimated prepayments speeds of the underlying mortgages serviced. Net income could be affected if management's assumptions and estimates differ from actual prepayments.

Deferred Income Taxes Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Deferred tax assets are also recognized for operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to an amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

The above listing is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all Centru Financial's accounting policies. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, with no need for management's judgment in their application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result.

Economic Climate

During 2005, interest rates continued to rise at a rapid pace. For the second straight year, the Federal Open Market Committee (the FOMC) increased the federal funds target 200 basis points from 2.25% at the beginning of the year, up to 4.25% at the end of the year. Additionally, the Wall Street Journal prime rate increased from 5.25% to 7.25% by the end of 2005. In January 2006, the FOMC increased the federal funds rate an additional 25 basis points, which in turn caused a 25 basis point increase in the prime rate. The federal funds rate is the rate at which financial institutions borrow from each other, while the prime rate is one of the rates at which banks lend money to their customers. Of Centru Financial's commercial loans at December 31, 2005, approximately 36.9% are tied to the prime rate and immediately reprice. The increase in rates should continue to have a positive impact on Centru Bank's ability to generate interest income on commercial loans, however, the increase in rates also places pressure on interest bearing liabilities. At the beginning of 2006, the slope of the U.S. Treasury yield curve has flattened and is slightly inverted. Centru Financial expects to continue to see net interest margin pressure due to the fact that long-term rates have remained largely unchanged while short-term rates have increased 200 basis points during 2005.

Results of Operations

Centru Financial's results of operations depend primarily on the level of its net interest and non-interest income and its control of operating expenses. Net interest income depends upon the volume of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities and the interest rate earned from or paid on them.

(2) Calculated on a tax-equivalent basis assuming a 35% tax rate.

Table of Contents

The following schedule presents the dollar amount of changes in interest income and interest expense for major components of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. It distinguishes between the increase related to higher outstanding balances and that due to the levels of interest rates. For each category of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, information is provided on changes attributable to: (i) changes in volume (i.e., changes in volume multiplied by old rate) and (ii) changes in rate (i.e., changes in rate multiplied by old volume).

For purposes of this table, changes attributable to both rate and volume, which cannot be segregated, have been allocated proportionately to the change due to volume and the change due to rate.

Comparison of Operating Results for 2005 to 2004

General. Net income was $4.1 million, or $1.73 per share (diluted), for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to $4.6 million, or $1.85 per share (diluted), for the year ended December 31, 2004. The 11.7% decrease in net income occurred primarily due to an increase in noninterest expenses of $2.9 million, partially offset by increases in net interest income of $285,000, noninterest income of $1.2 million, as well as decreases in the provision for loan losses of $549,000 and income tax expense of $337,000. The results for 2005 included costs associated with a data processing conversion, expenses related to stock options, the opening of the new Fairview Heights branch, the acquisition and integration of Illinois Community Bank in Effingham and other merger and acquisition activity.

Net Interest Income. Tax equivalent net interest income was $19.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, an increase of $346,000, or 1.5%, compared to 2004. Tax equivalent net interest income increased primarily due to an increase in interest income of $2.8 million or 9.2%, partially offset by an increase in interest expense of $2.4 million or 22.7%. The increase in interest income resulted from an increase in the average balance of interest-earning assets of $12.0 million as well as an increase of 37 basis points in the average rate of interest on interest earning assets. The increase in interest expense resulted primarily from an increase in the average rate of interest on interest-bearing liabilities of 41 basis points, as well as an increase in the average balance of interest-bearing liabilities of $13.1 million. During 2005 the FOMC increased interest rates by 200 basis points. This increase raised short-term interest rates as well as the prime rate which was the primary driving force in the increase in the rates for both the interest earning assets and the interest bearing liabilities.

Interest Income. Tax equivalent interest income totaled $32.5 million for 2005, an increase of $2.8 million or 9.3%, as compared to $29.7 million for 2004. This resulted from a $12.0 million increase in average interest-earning assets from $557.7 million during 2004 to $569.7 million during 2005, as well as an increase in the yield earned on interest-earning assets from 5.33% during 2004 to 5.70% during 2005.

Tax equivalent interest on loans was $26.9 million for 2005, an increase of $1.9 million, or 7.6%, as compared to 2004. This was primarily attributable to an increase in the yield on loans from 5.76% during 2004 to 6.18% during 2005, as well as an increase of $961,000 in average outstanding loans. The increase in yields on loans resulted from an increase in overall interest rates, including the prime rate which resulted in loans repricing to higher interest rates during 2005.

Tax equivalent interest earned on investment securities and other interest-earning assets and dividends on Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago (FHLB) stock totaled $5.6 million for 2005, compared to $4.8 million for 2004. This represented an increase of 18.0% during 2005. The increase was primarily due to a rise in average yield on these assets from 3.83% in 2004 to 4.15% in 2005, as well as an increase in the average balance of these assets from $124.3 million in 2004 to $135.4 million in 2005. The overall increase in average yields was primarily due to variable rate securities repricing due to increases in overall interest rates.

Interest Expense. Interest expense was $13.1 million for 2005, $2.4 million or 22.7% more than in 2004. This was due to an increase in average rates to 2.50% for 2005 from 2.09% for 2004, as well as an increase of $13.1 million in the average balance of interest-bearing liabilities to $521.8 million for 2005 compared to $508.7 million for 2004.

During 2005, average interest bearing deposits decreased by $2.8 million, to $442.0 million for 2005, compared to $444.8 million for 2004. The rate paid on interest bearing deposits increased 38 basis points to 2.14% from 1.76%. The increase in the average cost of deposits was due to the higher interest rate environment, partially offset by a continued focus by Centrue Financial to shift to lower yielding deposits. Certificate of deposit accounts decreased $7.6 million from 2004 to 2005 and the ratio of certificate of deposit accounts to total interest bearing deposits decreased from 58.8% in 2004 to 57.4% in 2005. The decrease in average balances was primarily due to the focus by Centrue Financial to reduce higher yielding deposits, partially offset by balances acquired in the Illinois Community acquisition that occurred in April of 2005.

Interest expense on borrowings was $3.6 million for 2005, $757,000 or 26.6% more than in 2004. The increase in interest expense on borrowings was primarily due to an increase in average balances of $15.8 million from $64.0 million in 2004 to $79.8 million in 2005, as well as an increase in the average rate of 7 basis points from 4.44% in 2004 to 4.51% in 2005. The increase in the average balance was primarily due to an increase in the average balance of customer repurchase agreements of $9.8 million.

Provision for Loan Losses. Centrue Financial recorded a $651,000 provision for loan losses during 2005 compared to a $1.2 million provision during 2004. Charge-offs during 2005 decreased to $2.7 million from $3.6 million during 2004. Recoveries during 2005 increased to $822,000 from $295,000 in 2004. The ratio of net charge-offs to average outstanding loans dropped to 0.44% in 2005 from 0.77% in 2004. The decrease in the provision for loan losses was primarily due to a decrease in nonperforming loans as well as lower net charge-offs. The new management team has worked diligently over the past two years to reduce the level of nonperforming loans. This effort has resulted in the reduction of net charge offs and nonperforming loans in 2005. Management has implemented a new asset quality program in an effort to ensure that Centrue Financial is adequately reserved for loan losses. In line with the improvements garnered as a result of the asset quality program, it was determined that Centrue Financial could lower the provision for loan losses for 2005.

The allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level believed adequate by management to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio. Management's methodology to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses considers specific credit reviews, past loan loss experience, current economic conditions and trends, and the volume, growth and composition of the loan portfolio. Based upon Centrue Financial's quarterly analysis of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses, considering remaining collateral of loans with more than a normal degree of risk, historical loan loss percentages and economic conditions, it is management's belief that the $4.5 million allowance for loan losses at December 31, 2005 was adequate.

However, there can be no assurance that the allowance for loan losses will be adequate to cover all future losses.

Each credit on Centrue Financial's internal loan watch list is evaluated periodically to estimate potential losses. In addition, minimum loss estimates for each category of watch list credits are provided for based on management's judgment which considers past loan loss experience and other factors. For installment and real estate mortgage loans, specific allocations are based on past loss experience adjusted for recent portfolio growth and economic trends. The total of the estimated loss exposure resulting from the analysis is considered the allocated portion of the allowance for loan losses. The amounts specifically provided for individual loans and pools of loans are supplemented by an unallocated portion of the allowance for loan losses. This unallocated amount is determined based on management's judgment which considers, among other things, the risk of error in the specific allocations, other potential exposure in the loan portfolio, economic conditions and trends, and other factors. Further information is included in the asset quality section of this disclosure.

The allowance for loan losses is charged when management determines that the prospects of recovery of the principal of a loan have significantly diminished. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance for loan losses. All installment loans that are 90 to 120 days past due are charged off monthly unless the loans are insured for credit loss or where scheduled payments are being received. Real estate mortgage loans are written down to fair value upon foreclosure. Commercial and other loan charge-offs are made based on management's on-going evaluation of non-performing loans.

Allowance for loan losses to nonperforming loans	117.34%	78.31%

The Company will continue to report and monitor the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses based on management's analysis of its loan portfolio and general economic conditions.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income increased $1.2 million for 2005 to $7.2 million, compared to $6.0 million for 2004. The 20.3% increase in noninterest income was the result of an increase of $1.5 million in fee income, offset by decreases of $283,000 in gain on sales of loans and a $127,000 decrease in gain on sale of real estate held for sale. The increase in fee income during 2005 was the result of the implementation of a new overdraft protection program that began in June of 2004. The decrease in the gain on sale of loans was primarily due to a lower volume of loan originations during 2005, including loans that the Company sold during 2004 in order to reduce interest rate risk in the mortgage loan portfolio. Additionally, the 2004 results included a gain on the sale of the credit card portfolio of $127,000. The gain on sale of loans for 2005 was primarily generated from new mortgage loan originations.

Noninterest Expenses. Noninterest expenses were $20.0 million for 2005, as compared to $17.1 million for 2004. This represented an increase of $2.9 million or 17.1%. The increase in noninterest expenses primarily resulted from increases in compensation and benefits of $1.9 million, occupancy expenses of $203,000, furniture and equipment of $381,000, legal and professional fees of $184,000 and other expenses of $268,000.

The acquisition of Illinois Community contributed increases of $411,000 in compensation and benefits, $93,000 in occupancy expense, $73,000 in furniture and equipment expense and $231,000 in other expense. The remaining $1.5 million increase in compensation and benefits was primarily due to the addition of key personnel, the addition of personnel upon the opening of the Fairview Heights location, as well as merit increases from 2004 to 2005. The remaining $110,000 increase in occupancy expense was primarily due to the opening of the Fairview Heights, Illinois office. The remaining $308,000 increase in furniture and equipment was primarily due to the write-down of $420,000 of fixed assets and prepaid expenses related to the Company's former data processing system which became obsolete after the conversion to Jack Henry and Associates' Silverlake system in June of 2005, partially offset by reduced furniture and equipment expenses for the remaining portion of the year. Legal and professional fees increased primarily due to the Company's merger and acquisition activity.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense was $1.5 million for 2005, as compared to $1.8 million for 2004. The Company's effective tax rate was 26.7% for 2005 and 28.3% for 2004. These decreases were the result of the decrease in pre-tax income, as well as an increase in non-taxable income resulting from an increase in municipal investment income. A summary of the significant tax components is provided in Note 12 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included with the historical financial statements of Centru Financial beginning on page F-46.

General. Net income was $4.6 million, or $1.85 per share (diluted), for 2004 compared to $1.0 million, or $0.49 per share (diluted), for 2003. The 346.9% increase in net income occurred primarily due to an increase in net interest income of $3.3 million, a decrease of $2.9 million in provision for loan losses, and an increase in noninterest income of $301,000 offset by an increase in noninterest expenses of $1.2 million, as well as an increase in income taxes of $1.7 million.

Net Interest Income. Net interest income was $18.7 million for 2004, an increase of $3.3 million, or 21.1%, during 2004 compared to 2003. Net interest income increased primarily due to an increase in interest income of $1.9 million or 7.0% as well as a decrease in interest expense of $1.3 million or 11.2%. The increase in interest income resulted from an increase in the average balance of interest-earning assets of $64.1 million, partially offset by a decrease of 26 basis points in the average rate of interest on interest earning assets. The decrease in interest expense resulted primarily from the decrease in the average rate of interest on interest-bearing liabilities of 48 basis points, which was partially offset by an increase in the average balance of interest-bearing liabilities of $41.5 million. During 2004, the interest rate environment shifted higher beginning at the end of the second quarter of the year and continued higher throughout the end of 2004. This increase raised short-term interest rates as well as the prime rate and had a positive effect on net interest income during the second half of 2004.

Interest Income. Tax equivalent interest income totaled $29.7 million for 2004, an increase of $2.1 million or 7.7%, as compared to $27.6 million for 2003. This resulted from a $64.1 million increase in average interest-earning assets from $493.6 million during 2003 to $557.7 million during 2004, partially offset by a decrease in the yield earned on interest-earning assets from 5.59% during 2003 to 5.33% during 2004.

Tax equivalent interest on loans was $25.0 million for 2004, an increase of $1.5 million, or 6.1%, as compared to 2003. This was primarily attributable to an increase of $67.1 million in average outstanding loans as well as a decrease in the yield on loans from 6.42% during 2003 to 5.76% during 2004. The decrease in yields on loans resulted from loans repricing to lower interest rates during 2003 and early 2004.

Tax equivalent interest earned on investment securities and other interest-earning assets and dividends on FHLB stock totaled $4.8 million for 2004, compared to $4.1 million for 2003. This represented an increase of 17.2% during 2004. This was primarily due to an increase in average yield on these assets from 3.19% in 2003 to 3.83% in 2004, which was partially offset by a decrease in the average balance of these assets from $127.3 million in 2003 to $124.3 million in 2004. The overall increase in average yields was primarily due to Centru Financial shifting lower yielding federal funds sold to higher yielding investment securities.

Interest Expense. Interest expense was $10.7 million for 2004, $1.3 million or 11.2% less than in 2003. This was due to a decrease in average rates to 2.09% for 2004 from 2.57% for 2003, which was partially offset by an increase of $41.5 million in the average balance of interest-bearing liabilities to $508.7 million for 2004 compared to $467.2 million for 2003.

During 2004, average interest bearing deposits increased by $39.7 million, to $444.8 million for 2004, compared to $405.1 million for 2003. The rate paid on interest bearing deposits decreased 52 basis points to 1.76% from 2.28%. The decrease in the average cost of deposits was due to the lower interest rate environment as well as a continued focus by Centru Financial to shift to lower yielding deposits. The increase in average balances was primarily due to the Aviston Financial merger that occurred in October of 2003 and the Parish acquisition that occurred in March of 2004.

During both 2004 and 2003, $2.8 million of Centru Financial's interest expense related to borrowings. While interest expense on borrowed funds remained constant, the average balance of borrowed funds increased $1.9 million from $62.1 million in 2003 to $64.0 million in 2004. The increase in the average balance was partially offset by a decrease of four basis points in the average interest rate on borrowed funds to 4.44% in 2004 from 4.48% in 2003.

Provision for Loan Losses. Centru Financial recorded a $1.2 million provision for loan losses during 2004 compared to a $4.1 million provision during 2003. Charge-offs during 2004 decreased to $3.6 million from $6.2 million during 2003. Recoveries during 2004 decreased to $295,000 from $632,000 in 2003. The ratio of net charge-offs to average outstanding loans was 0.77% in 2004 and 1.53% in 2003. The decrease in the provision for loan losses was primarily due to the higher amount of net charge-offs taken during 2003 compared to 2004. The majority of the charge-offs taken in 2004 had previously been reserved for during 2003 and prior years.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income increased $301,000 for 2004 to $6.0 million, compared to $5.7 million for 2003. The 5.3% increase in noninterest income was the result of an increase of $1.5 million in fee income, offset by decreases of $385,000 in gain on sales of loans, $478,000 in gain on sale of branch, and a $247,000 decrease in other income. The increase in fee income during 2004 was the result of an overall restructuring of fees to be more competitive with other local banks as well as the implementation of a new overdraft protection program that began in June of 2004. The decrease in the gain on sale of loans was primarily due to the large amount of mortgage refinancing that took place in 2003 as a result of the low interest rate environment. The gain on sale of loans for 2004 was primarily generated from new mortgage loan originations. The gain on sale of branch in 2003 was due to Centru Financial selling a branch in Hoopston, Illinois. The decrease in other income was due to several immaterial changes.

Noninterest Expenses. Noninterest expenses were $17.1 million for 2004, as compared to $15.9 million for 2003. This represented an increase of $1.2 million or 7.4%. The increase in noninterest expenses primarily resulted from increases in compensation and benefits of $645,000, furniture and equipment of $425,000, and other expenses of $201,000. These increases were partially offset by a decrease in legal and professional fees of $224,000. The increases in compensation and benefits, furniture and equipment, and other expenses were primarily due to additional personnel and locations resulting from the Aviston Financial merger which occurred in October 2003. Legal and professional fees decreased due to legal costs incurred in 2003 relating to Centru Financial's name change and fees relating to merger and acquisition activity which were not allowed to be capitalized.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense was $1.8 million for 2004, as compared to $106,000 for 2003. Centru Financial's effective tax rate was 28.3% for 2004 and 9.3% for 2003. These increases were the result of the increase in pre-tax income, partially offset by an increase in non-taxable income resulting from an increase in municipal investment income as well as the reduction in the valuation allowance for deferred taxes. The valuation allowance for deferred taxes was reduced due to the Companies belief that net operating losses for state income taxes will be realized prior to their expiration date.

Financial Condition. Total assets increased by $29.6 million or 4.8% to $641.5 million at December 31, 2005, from $611.9 million at December 31, 2004. The increase in total assets was due primarily to the acquisition of Illinois Community Bank with specific increases in cash and cash equivalents of $5.0 million, net loans of $9.6 million, loans held for sale of $8.0 million, office properties and equipment of $4.3 million and, goodwill of $2.0 million, offset by a decrease in real estate held for sale of $1.3 million.

Lending Activities

General. The principal lending activity of Centru Financial is to offer financial services to our commercial, consumer and residential customers located in our primary market areas. These financial services include 1-4 family residential, multi-family, commercial business, commercial real estate, consumer loans and all types of construction loans. In addition, to increase overall profitability and to diversify our portfolio, we continue to focus our loan growth rate on commercial and commercial real estate lending which will move us to be more in line with our commercial banking peers. From time to time, Centru Financial has also utilized loan purchases to supplement loan originations.

Net loans increased by $9.5 million or 2.3% to $428.5 million at December 31, 2005 from $419.0 million at December 31, 2004. Loans held for sale increased to $8.4 million at December 31, 2005 from $416,000 at December 31, 2004. The increase in net loans and loans held for sale was primarily attributable to the acquisition of Illinois Community as well as new loan originations, partially offset by paydowns on previously existing loans. During the last few years, Centru Financial has re-focused its loan efforts on the commercial portfolio and as a result experienced a high volume of commercial related loan originations. Centru Financial expects to continue to focus on increasing the commercial and commercial real estate loan portfolio during 2006.

Loan Composition. The following table provides information concerning the composition of Centru Financial's loan portfolio in dollar amounts and in percentages (before deductions for deferred fees and discounts and allowances for loan losses) as of the dates indicated. Loans held for sale are included in one-to-four family real estate loans.

As a state chartered commercial bank, the amount of loans Centrue Bank is permitted to make to any one borrower is generally limited to 25% of Centrue Bank's unimpaired capital and surplus. At December 31, 2005, Centrue Bank's regulatory loan-to-one borrower limit was $12.1 million. Additionally, as part of Centrue Bank's loan policy and strategic plan Centrue Bank sets guidelines on the percentage of each type of loan for the loan's portfolio. The concentrations of loans by type are regularly reviewed by the chief credit officer and by the loan committee. As of December 31, 2005, Centrue Bank did not have any concentrations in loan types that are not already disclosed.

Investment securities available-for-sale increased $427,000 to $125.2 million at December 31, 2005 compared to $124.8 million at December 31, 2004.

The composition and maturities of the investment securities portfolio at December 31, 2005, are indicated in the following table, at amortized cost which excludes unrealized gains (losses) on securities available for sale.

Office properties and equipment increased $4.3 million to $22.6 million at December 31, 2005 compared to $18.3 million at December 31, 2004. The increase was primarily attributable to the acquisition of Illinois Community as well as the completion of construction of a new branch office in Fairview Heights, Illinois, and various equipment upgrades.

Goodwill increased $2.0 million to $14.4 million at December 31, 2005 compared to $12.4 million at December 31, 2004. The increase in goodwill was a result of the purchase of Illinois Community and represented the full amount of goodwill created in the transaction. Accounting for goodwill and the measurement of impairment is discussed in more detail in Note 1 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included beginning on page F-46.

Real estate held for sale decreased $1.3 million to $1.7 million at December 31, 2005 compared to $3.0 million at December 31, 2004. The decrease in real estate held for sale was primarily attributable to the sale of a portion of Centru Financial's largest real estate owned property. Additionally, the amount of loans transferred to real estate held for sale decreased from $3.3 million in 2004 to $1.2 million in 2005.

Deposits

Deposits increased by $12.1 million or 2.4% to $507.9 million at December 31, 2005, from $495.8 million at December 31, 2004. During 2004, Centru Financial also began a sweep repurchase program which totaled $8.6 million at the end of 2004 and increased to $16.3 million at the end of 2005. While not considered deposits, the sweep repurchase program allows business customers to sweep their funds to interest bearing accounts while maintaining collateralized balances. The balances for the sweep repurchase program are included in short-term borrowings. During 2004 and 2005, Centru Financial attempted to reduce higher rate interest-bearing liabilities in the face of intense competition in the various markets in which Centru Financial operates and was able to increase checking and sweep accounts and decrease certificate of deposit accounts. In 2006, Centru Financial will continue to look for ways to reduce its overall cost of funds, including pursuing lower rate deposits.

The following table sets forth the composition of deposits and the percentage of each category to total deposits for the periods presented.

Borrowings

Centru Financial utilizes borrowings primarily for three purposes. The first is to leverage Centru Financial's capital in order to generate additional net interest income. The second is the management of short term cash requirements. The third is to assist in funding acquisitions of other financial institutions. The decision to borrow money to leverage capital is based on several factors, including the current asset/liability mix, the regulatory capital position of Centru Bank and the adequacy of available interest rate spreads subject to the limits established by Centru Financial. Borrowings for leveraging purposes are derived from securities sold under agreements to repurchase and advances from the FHLB. Borrowings related to short term cash management are in the form of advances from the FHLB, customer repurchase agreements, and as required, federal funds purchased. As a member of the FHLB, Centru Bank is authorized to apply for advances from the FHLB. Each FHLB credit program has its own interest rate, which may be fixed or variable, and range of maturities. The FHLB may prescribe the acceptable uses for these advances, as well as limitations on the size of the advances and repayment provisions. Borrowings related to funding acquisitions are in the form of notes payable from other financial institutions. Generally, these borrowings are short-term in nature.

Short-term borrowings increased $12.8 million from $14.2 million in 2004 to $27.0 million in 2005. Short-term borrowings consist of overnight advances from the FHLB, customer sweep repurchase agreements, and federal funds purchased. The increase was due to an increase of $7.8 million of customer repurchase agreements and an increase in short-term FHLB borrowings of $10.7 million, partially offset by a $3.5 million decrease of federal funds purchased.

Long-term borrowings increased $3.2 million from $55.5 million in 2004 to $58.7 million in 2005. Long-term borrowings consist of advances from the FHLB, notes payable, funds from securities sold under agreements to repurchase and junior subordinated debt owed to unconsolidated trusts (trust preferred securities). The increase in long-term borrowings was primarily due to an increase in borrowings from the FHLB of $12.6 million, partially offset by securities sold under agreements to repurchase which decreased $9.2 million.

Stockholders' equity on a per share basis increased by 4.7% from $18.19 at December 31, 2004, to $19.05 at December 31, 2005. Total stockholders' equity decreased by $203,000 or 0.5% to $43.1 million at December 31, 2005. The decrease in stockholders' equity was due mainly to common stock repurchases and a decrease in unrealized gains on available-for-sale securities. During 2005, Centru Financial repurchased 178,865 shares of common stock at a total cost of approximately $4.8 million.

Table of ContentsAsset Quality

Centrue Financial's asset quality management program, particularly with regard to loans, is designed to analyze potential risk elements and to support the growth of a profitable and high quality loan portfolio. The existing loan portfolio is monitored in a number of ways, including through Centrue Financial's loan rating system. The loan rating system is also used to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Centrue Financial's loan analysis process proactively identifies, monitors and works with borrowers for whom there are indications of future repayment difficulties.

Centrue Financial's lending philosophy is to invest in loans in the communities served by its banking offices so it can effectively monitor and control risk. The majority of the loan portfolio is comprised of retail loans and loans to small-to-midsize businesses. The loan portfolio does not include any loans to foreign countries.

Non-performing assets include foreclosed assets, loans that have been placed on non-accrual status, loans 90 days or more past due that continue to accrue interest and restructured troubled debt. During the year ended December 31, 2005, total non-performing assets decreased by $4.4 million, or 44.5%, to $5.6 million from $10.0 million at December 31, 2004. The decrease in nonperforming assets was mainly attributable to significant efforts over the past two years which resulted in the final resolution of several long-standing nonperforming loans.

The following table represents the amount of loans that were on non-accrual, past due 90 days and still accruing and foregone interest for each of the last five fiscal years.

Centrue Financial recognized large loan loss provisions of approximately 1% of total loans in both 2003 and 2002 on a group of commercial real estate and real estate development loans that were made in previous years. During 2003, Centrue Financial adopted a new loan policy and implemented new loan approval, documentation and monitoring processes. Centrue Financial also recruited and employed an experienced commercial lending team including three new regional presidents, each of whom is an experienced commercial lender, as well as three other seasoned commercial lenders. In 2004, Centrue Financial recruited a Chief Credit Officer to strengthen our monitoring of credit quality and the overall loan portfolio. His duties include responsibility for all credit administration activities and to oversee an independent review of new and existing loans in the portfolio. Centrue Financial management performs a quarterly analysis of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Management classifies problem loans into one of four categories: Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful, and Loss. During the year ended December 31, 2005, total adversely classified loans decreased by $8.8 million to $10.6 million from $19.4 million at December 31, 2004. This decrease was due in part to Centrue Financial's implementation of an ongoing comprehensive loan review, as well as the adoption and implementation of a new comprehensive loan policy that has identified problem loans in a more timely manner. The new program was designed to assist management in focusing collection efforts in problem areas and is expected to continue to result in lower charge-offs. Classified loans began decreasing in 2004 and decreased dramatically during 2005. Centru Financial will continue to work to reduce the volume of classified loans in 2006.

Certain loans may require frequent management attention and are reviewed on a monthly or more frequent basis. Although payments on these loans may be current or less than 90 days past due, the borrowers presently have or have had a history of financial difficulties and management has a concern as to the borrowers' ability to comply with the present loan payment terms. Management believes such loans present more than the normal risk of collectibility. As such, these loans may result in classification at some future point in time as nonperforming. At December 31, 2005, such loans amounted to approximately $9.7 million, as compared to $12.4 million at December 31, 2004.

The balance in the allowance for loan losses and the related amount charged to operations is based upon periodic evaluations of the loan portfolio by management. These evaluations consider several factors including, but not limited to, general economic conditions, loan portfolio composition, prior loan loss experience, and management's estimate of future potential losses.

Beginning in 2003, Centru Financial undertook a comprehensive review of its loan procedures and implemented a new comprehensive loan policy. This process indicated the need for additional allocations of commercial related loans during 2004. During 2005, Centru Financial again reviewed how it specifically allocated the allowance and made adjustments based upon its review of specific loans. The allowance for loan losses is a material estimate that is particularly susceptible to significant changes in the near term and is established through a provision for loan losses. The allowance is based upon past loan experience and other factors which, in management's judgment, deserve current recognition in estimating loan losses. The evaluation includes a review of all loans on which full collectibility may not be reasonably assured. Other factors considered by management include the size and character of the loan portfolio, concentrations of loans to specific borrowers or industries, existing economic conditions and historical losses on each portfolio category. In connection with the determination of the allowance for loan losses, management obtains independent appraisals for significant properties, which collateralize loans. Management establishes historical loss percentages and evaluates problem loans and adjusts allocations as necessary. Management believes it uses the best information available to make such determinations. If circumstances differ substantially from the assumptions used in making determinations, future adjustments to the allowance for loan losses may be necessary and results of operations could be affected. While Centru Financial believes it has established its existing allowance for loan losses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, there can be no assurance that regulators, in reviewing Centru Bank's loan portfolio, will not request an increase in the allowance for loan losses. Because future events affecting borrowers and collateral cannot be predicted with certainty, there can be no assurance that increases to the allowance will not be necessary if loan quality deteriorates. The following table represents the allocation of the allowance for loan losses by loan category.

Asset/ Liability Management

In an attempt to manage its exposure to changes in interest rates, management closely monitors Centru Financial's interest rate risk. Centru Bank has a funds management committee that consists of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, a Regional President, the Corporate Controller and Centru Bank Controller. The committee meets monthly and reviews Centru Bank's interest rate risk position and evaluates its current asset/liability pricing and strategies. The committee adjusts pricing and strategies as needed and makes recommendations to Centru Bank's board of directors regarding significant changes in strategy. In addition, on a quarterly basis, the board reviews the Bank's asset/liability position, including simulations of the effect on the Bank's capital of various interest rate scenarios.

Centrue Financial's exposure to market risk is reviewed on a regular basis by the funds management committee. Interest rate risk is the potential of economic losses due to future interest rate changes. These economic losses can be reflected as a loss of future net interest income and/or a loss of current fair market values. The Funds Management Committee generally uses three types of analysis in measuring and reviewing Centrue Financial's interest rate sensitivity. These are Static GAP analysis, Dynamic Gap Analysis and Economic Value of Equity (EVE).

The Static GAP analysis consists of examining the matching of assets and liabilities and the extent to which such assets and liabilities are interest rate sensitive and by monitoring an institution's interest rate sensitivity gap. An asset or liability is said to be interest rate sensitive within a specific time period if it will mature or reprice within that time period. The interest rate sensitivity gap is defined as the difference between the amount of interest-earning assets anticipated, based upon certain assumptions, to mature or reprice within a specific time period and the amount of interest-bearing liabilities anticipated, based upon certain assumptions, to mature or reprice within that same time period. A gap is considered positive when the amount of interest rate sensitive assets exceeds the amount of interest rate sensitive liabilities. A gap is considered negative when the amount of interest rate sensitive liabilities exceeds the amount of interest rate sensitive liabilities. During a period of rising interest rates, a positive gap would tend to result in an increase in net interest income while a negative gap would tend to adversely affect net interest income. During a period of falling interest rates, a positive gap would tend to adversely affect net interest income while a negative gap would tend to result in an increase in net interest income.

The following condensed GAP report summarizing Centru Financial's interest rate sensitivity sets forth the interest rate sensitivity of Centru Bank's assets and liabilities at December 31, 2005. Except as stated below, the amounts of assets and liabilities shown which reprice or mature during a particular period are determined in accordance with the earlier of the term to repricing or maturity of the asset or liability. Based on Centru Financial's historical trends, interest bearing demand deposits, money market deposits, and savings deposits have been proven to be a very stable source of funds, even through interest rate fluctuations. Accordingly, Centru Financial management believes these deposits are not 100% rate sensitive within the three months or less time frame. As a result, interest bearing demand and savings deposits have been allocated between the five repricing categories as follows: three months or less 20%, after three through twelve months 20%, after one through three years 20%, after three through five years 20%, and after five years 20%. Money market deposits have been allocated between the categories as follows: after three through twelve months 50% and after one through three years 50%. Certificate accounts are assumed to reprice at the date of contractual maturity.

Certain shortcomings are inherent in the method of analysis presented in the foregoing table. For example, although certain assets and liabilities may have similar maturities or periods to repricing, they may react in different degrees to changes in market interest rates. Also, the interest rates on certain types of assets and liabilities may fluctuate in advance of changes in market interest rates, while interest rates on other types may lag behind changes in market rates. Additionally, certain assets, such as ARMs, have features which restrict changes in interest rates on a short-term basis and over the life of the asset. Further, in the event of a change in interest rates, prepayment and early withdrawal levels could deviate significantly from those assumed in calculating the table. Finally, the ability of many borrowers to service their adjustable-rate debt may decrease in the event of an interest rate increase.

The dynamic interest rate risk analysis calculates risk to net interest income under three different scenarios, including flat, upward and downward rate shifts. The analysis assumes that rates change over a 12 month time frame. The analysis calculates net interest spread, net interest margin, loan to deposit, cost of funds, ratio of earning assets and capital. The model assumes that as principal runs off, principal is reinvested into the same category. Other assumptions which are varied include: loan rates, investment yields and growth rates. This is accomplished using a simulation model. Modeling techniques encompass contractual maturity, prepayment assumptions covering interest rate increases and decreases and index-driven repricing characteristics. The model projects changes in net interest income over a one-year period should interest rates rise, fall or remain constant. These effects are analyzed assuming interest rate increases or decreases of 100, 200 and 300 basis points. The model also incorporates key assumptions involving Centru Financial's ability to control and direct deposit rates, particularly on non-maturity categories. As of December 31, 2005, the simulation model indicated that over a twelve month horizon if interest rates were to increase 100 basis points, net income would increase $303,000. If interest rates were to decrease 100 basis points, net income would decrease $220,000.

The economic value of equity calculation uses information about Centru Financial's assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items, market interest rate levels and assumptions about the behavior of the assets and liabilities, to calculate Centru Financial's equity value. The economic value of equity is the market value of assets minus the market value of liabilities, adjusted for off-balance sheet items divided by the market value of assets. The economic value of equity is then subjected to immediate and permanent upward changes of 300 basis points in market interest rate levels, in 100 basis point increments, and a downward change of 100 basis points. The resulting changes in equity value and net interest income at each increment are measured against pre-determined, minimum EVE ratios for each incremental rate change, as approved by the board in the interest rate risk policy.

The following table presents Centru Bank's EVE ratios for the various rate change levels at December 31, 2005 and 2004:

Changes in Interest Rates	EVE Ratios
	2005	2004
300 basis point rise	7.60%	7.54%
200 basis point rise	7.43%	7.88%
100 basis point rise	7.33%	8.06%
Base rate scenario	6.86%	7.91%
100 basis point decline	5.24%	6.60%

The preceding table indicates that at December 31, 2005, in the event of an immediate and permanent 100 basis point increase in prevailing market interest rates, Centru Bank's EVE ratio, would be expected to increase and that in the event of an immediate and permanent decrease in prevailing market interest rates, Centru Bank's EVE ratio would be expected to decrease.

At December 31, 2005, the EVE increases in a rising rate scenario because Centru Financial is asset sensitive and would have more interest earning assets repricing than interest-bearing liabilities. This effect is increased by periodic and lifetime limits on changes in rate on most adjustable-rate, interest-earning assets. The EVE decreases in a falling rate scenario because of the limits on Centru Financial's ability to decrease rates on some of its deposit sources, such as money market accounts and NOW accounts, and by the ability of borrowers to repay loans ahead of schedule and refinance at lower rates.

The EVE ratio is calculated by Centru Financial's fixed income investment advisor, and reviewed by management, on a quarterly basis utilizing information about Centru Financial's assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items, which is provided by Centru Financial. The calculation is designed to estimate the effects of hypothetical rate changes on the EVE, utilizing projected cash flows, and is based on numerous assumptions, including relative levels of market interest rates, loan prepayments speeds and deposit decay rates. Actual changes in the EVE, in the event of market interest rate changes of the type and magnitude used in the calculation, could differ significantly. Additionally, the calculation does not account for possible actions taken by Funds Management to mitigate the adverse effects of changes in market interest rates.

In managing its asset/liability mix, Centru Financial, at times, depending on the relationship between long-term and short-term interest rates, market conditions and consumer preferences, may place somewhat greater emphasis on maximizing its net interest margin than on better matching the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities in an effort to improve its net income. While Centru Financial does have some exposure to changing interest rates, management believes that Centru Financial is positioned to protect earnings throughout changing interest rate environments and that Centru Financial's market risk is reasonable at this time.

Centru Financial currently does not enter into derivative financial instruments, including futures, forwards, interest rate risk swaps, option contracts, or other financial instruments with similar characteristics and Centru Financial has no market risk sensitive instruments held for trading purposes. However, Centru Financial is party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers such as commitments to extend credit and letters of credit. Commitments to extend credit and letters of credit are not recorded as an asset by Centru Financial until the commitment is accepted and funded or the letter of credit is exercised.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Centrue Financial's primary sources of funds are deposits, proceeds from principal and interest payments on loans and on investment securities. While maturities and scheduled amortization of loans and investment securities are a predictable source of funds, deposit flows and mortgage loan prepayments are greatly influenced by general interest rates, economic conditions and competition. In a period of declining interest rates, mortgage loan prepayments generally increase. As a result, the proceeds from mortgage loan prepayments are invested in lower yielding loans or other investments which have the effect of reducing interest income. In a period of rising interest rates, mortgage loan prepayments generally decrease and the proceeds from such prepayments are invested in higher yielding loans or investments which would have the effect of increasing interest income.

Centrue Financial's liquidity, represented by cash and cash equivalents, is a result of its operating, investing and financing activities. The primary investing activities of Centrue Financial are the origination of loans, the purchase of investment securities, and, to a lesser extent, the purchase of loans and loan participations. Centrue Financial manages the investing activities primarily by investing in or selling loans and investment securities. During 2005, Centrue Financial acquired Illinois Community. This transaction was an investing activity that was not part of the day to day operations of Centrue Financial. All other transactions such as the purchase of fixed assets and the reinvestment of investment security maturities are common activities of Centrue Financial.

Centrue Financial's investing activities have a direct correlation to the financing activities. Factors that influence Centrue Financial's financing activities involve the collection of deposits and advances and repayments of borrowings. Centrue Financial has the ability to borrow funds from the FHLB. Additionally, Centrue Financial has approximately $20 million available on a line of credit from a third party financial institution. The issuance or purchase of stock also has a direct effect on Centrue Financial's financing activities. Additional financing activities that Centrue Financial may engage in include the purchase and issuance of common stock, as well as, the payment of dividends on common stock. During 2005, Centrue Financial repurchased 178,865 shares of its common stock.

Centrue Financial maintains a certain level of cash and other liquid assets to fund normal volumes of loan commitments, deposit withdrawals and other obligations. The following table summarizes significant contractual obligations and other commitments at December 31, 2005 (in thousands):

Years Ended December 31,	Time Deposits	Long-Term Borrowings(1)	Total

- (1) Fixed rate callable borrowings are included in the period of their modified duration rather than in the period in which they are due. Borrowings include fixed rate callable advances of $5 million and $2 million maturing in 2008 and 2011 which are callable in 2006. Trust preferred debentures of $10 million mature in both 2032 and 2034, but are callable in 2007 and 2009.

Centrue Financial's most liquid assets are cash, cash in banks and highly liquid, short-term investments. The levels of these assets are dependent on Centrue Financial's operating, financing, lending and investing activities during any given period. Securities available-for-sale may also be utilized to meet liquidity needs. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, these liquid assets totaled $18.3 million and $13.3 million, respectively.

Liquidity management for Centru Financial is both a daily and long-term function of Centru Financial's management strategy. Excess funds are generally invested in short-term investments such as federal funds. In the event that Centru Financial should require funds beyond its ability to generate them internally, additional sources of funds are available, including FHLB advances. At December 31, 2005, Centru Financial had outstanding long-term borrowings totaling $58.7 million, of which $37.5 million were advances from the FHLB, $20.0 million were junior subordinated debt owed to unconsolidated trusts, and $1.2 million were funds from notes payable.

At December 31, 2005, Centru Financial had outstanding commitments to originate mortgage loans of $3.8 million, of which 95% were at fixed interest rates. These commitments provided that the loans would be secured by properties located, for the most part, in Centru Financial's primary market areas. Centru Financial anticipates that it will have sufficient funds available to meet its current loan commitments. Certificates of deposit that were scheduled to mature in one year or less from December 31, 2005, totaled $168.0 million. Based upon the historically stable nature of Centru Financial's deposit base, management believes that a significant portion of such deposits will remain with Centru Financial. Centru Financial also had unused lines of credit provided to customers of $56.9 million at December 31, 2005.

At December 31, 2005, Centru Financial and Bank met all capital requirements as set by federal and state regulatory agencies. See Note 13 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements and the discussion of Centru Financial's financial condition above.

Dividends

The Federal Reserve Board's policy is that a bank holding company should pay cash dividends only to the extent that its net income for the past year is sufficient to cover both the cash dividends and a rate of earnings retention that is consistent with the holding company's capital needs, asset quality and overall financial condition, and that it is inappropriate for a bank holding company experiencing serious financial problems to borrow funds to pay dividends. Furthermore, under certain circumstances, the Federal Reserve Board may prohibit a bank holding company from paying any dividends if a bank subsidiary of the holding company is classified under prompt corrective action as undercapitalized.

Centru Financial's primary source for cash dividends is the dividends received from our subsidiary bank. Centru Bank is subject to various regulatory policies and requirements relating to the payment of dividends, including requirements to maintain capital above regulatory minimums. Centru Bank, in general, may not pay dividends in excess of its net profits. Centru Bank declared and paid dividends totaling $10.4 million, $2.5 million and $1.9 million to Centru Financial, its sole stockholder, during 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Cash dividends in the total amount of $.075 and $.30 per share were paid by Centru Financial during 2004 and 2003, respectively. Centru Financial discontinued payment of its quarterly cash dividend in 2004 in an effort to focus on the repurchase of shares, as well as to strengthen the capital of Centru Financial for possible future acquisitions. The payment of future dividends, if any, will depend primarily upon Centru Financial's earnings, financial condition and need for funds, as well as restrictions imposed by regulatory authorities regarding dividend payments and net worth requirements.

Comparison of Operating Results for the Three and Six Months Periods Ended June 30, 2006 and 2005.Financial Condition

Centru Financial's total assets were $634.5 million at June 30, 2006, a decrease of $7.0 million or 1.1%, from $641.5 million at December 31, 2005. Fluctuations in asset accounts were represented by an increase in net loans of $6.7 million and decreases in cash and cash equivalents of $3.4 million, investment securities of $4.0 million, loans held for sale of $5.2 million and real estate held for sale of $1.7 million.

Net loans increased $6.7 million or 1.6% to $435.2 million from $428.5 million. Loan growth was partially offset by the payoff of a $4.0 million commercial credit which Centrue Financial decided not to renew under the previous terms of the note due to changes in the borrower's financial condition and strategic plans and a $2.6 million payoff of a purchased loan participation.

Cash and cash equivalents decreased $3.4 million and investment securities decreased $4.0 million, both of which were a result of meeting short-term liquidity needs. Loans held for sale declined $5.2 million as $4.8 million of loans were transferred to the regular mortgage loan portfolio. The decrease in real estate held for sale of $1.7 million was primarily due to the sale of Centrue Financial's largest real estate owned property.

Deposits decreased $45.6 million to $462.3 million from $507.9 million at December 31, 2005. The net decrease in deposits was primarily attributable to a $43.6 million reduction in certificates of deposit over $100,000 as a result of a strategy of not being as aggressive in bidding on the renewal of these deposits in light of the availability of lower wholesale funding rates from other funding sources.

Partially compensating for the deposit decline were increases in total borrowings of $39.4 million. This increase included gains in customer repurchase agreements, a deposit alternative, which increased $10.7 million and increases in total borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago (FHLB) of $26.2 million.

Stockholders' equity increased slightly from $43.1 million to $43.3 million. There were 2,232,889 shares of common stock outstanding at June 30, 2006, compared to 2,262,939 shares at December 31, 2005. Equity per share of common stock increased by $0.33 to $19.38 at June 30, 2006 from $19.05 at December 31, 2005.

Asset Quality

Centrue Financial's asset quality management program, particularly with regard to loans, is designed to analyze potential risk elements and to support the growth of a high quality loan portfolio. The existing loan portfolio is monitored via Centrue Financial's loan rating system. The loan rating system is used to assist in determining the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Centrue Financial's loan analysis process allows us to proactively identify, monitor and work with borrowers for whom there are indications of future repayment difficulties. Centrue Financial's lending philosophy is to invest in the communities served by its banking centers so that it can effectively monitor and control credit risk.

Nonperforming assets to total loans and foreclosed property	.71%	1.28%
Nonperforming assets to total assets	.49%	0.87%

Nonperforming loans decreased $775,000 from the end of 2005, while foreclosed assets decreased $1.7 million. The decline in the total nonperforming loans marks the 8th consecutive quarterly decline and it is attributable to Centru Financial's implementation of an ongoing comprehensive loan review as well as the adoption and implementation of a new loan policy that identifies problem loans in a timelier manner.

Table of Contents

Management is in various stages of workout or liquidation with the remaining nonperforming loans. The drop in foreclosed assets came primarily from the sale of Centrue Financial's largest real estate owned property.

One measure of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is the ratio of the allowance for loan losses to total loans. The ratio of the allowance for loan losses to total loans was .97% and 1.02% at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. The ratio of the allowance for loan losses to non-performing loans increased to 140.88% at June 30, 2006 compared to 117.33% at December 31, 2005. The increase in this ratio, which excludes foreclosed assets and restructured troubled debt, was the result of the $775,000 decrease in nonperforming loans.

Centrue Financial's Chief Credit Officer joined Centrue Financial in 2004 to strengthen the monitoring of credit quality and improve the credit quality of the overall loan portfolio. His duties include responsibility for all credit administration activities and to oversee an independent review of new and existing loans in the portfolio. Centrue Financial management performs a quarterly analysis of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Problem loans are classified into one of four categories: Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful, and Loss. Centrue Financial's implementation of an ongoing comprehensive loan review, as well as the adoption and implementation of a new comprehensive loan policy has assisted management in identifying problem loans in a timely manner. The new program was designed to facilitate the focus of collection efforts in problem areas which should result in lower charge-offs. Classified loans began decreasing in 2004 and decreased dramatically during 2005 and the first half of 2006. Centrue Financial will continue to work to reduce the volume of classified loans through the remainder of 2006.

Centrue Financial recognized charge offs in the amount of $298,000 and $626,000 during the second quarter and first six-months of 2006 and $797,000 and $874,000 for the second quarter and first six-months of 2005. Centrue Financial had recoveries of $84,000 and $284,000 for the second quarter and first six-months of 2006 and $187,000 and $379,000 for the second quarter and first six-months of 2005. The provision for loan losses was $75,000 and $150,000 for the second quarter and first six months of 2006, compared to $251,000 and $501,000 for the second quarter and first six months of 2005.

The allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level believed adequate by management to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio. Management's methodology to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses considers specific credit reviews, past loan loss experience, current economic conditions and trends, and the volume, growth and composition of the loan portfolio. Based upon Centrue Financial's quarterly analysis of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses, considering remaining collateral of loans with more than a normal degree of risk, historical loan loss percentages and economic conditions, it is management's belief that the allowance for loan losses at June 30, 2006 was adequate. However, there can be no assurance that the allowance for loan losses will be adequate to cover all losses.

Each credit on Centrue Financial's internal loan watch list is evaluated periodically to estimate potential losses. In addition, minimum loss estimates for each category of watch list credits are provided for based on management's judgment which considers past loan loss experience and other factors. For installment and real estate mortgage loans, specific allocations are based on past loss experience adjusted for recent portfolio growth and economic trends. The total of the estimated loss exposure resulting from the analysis is considered the allocated portion of the allowance for loan losses. The amounts specifically provided for individual loans and pools of loans are supplemented by an unallocated portion of the allowance for loan losses. This unallocated amount is determined based on management's judgment which considers, among other things, the risk of error in the specific allocations, other potential exposure in the loan portfolio, economic conditions and trends, and other factors.

The allowance for loan losses is charged when management determines that the prospects of recovery of the principal of a loan have significantly diminished. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance for loan losses. All installment loans that are 90 to 120 days past due are charged off monthly unless the loans are insured for credit loss or where scheduled payments are being received. Real estate mortgage loans are written down to fair value upon foreclosure. Commercial and other loan charge-offs are made based on management's on-going evaluation of non-performing loans.

Table of ContentsCritical Accounting Policies

In the ordinary course of business, Centru Financial has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of results of operations and financial condition in preparing its financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. See, Comparison of Operating Results for the Years Ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003-Critical Accounting Policies for a discussion of Centru Financial's most critical accounting policies.

Stock Compensation Plans. In January 2006, Centru Financial adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123R (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R) which amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. SFAS 123R requires new, modified and unvested share-based payment transactions with employees to be measured at fair value and recognized as compensation expense over the vesting period. The fair value of each option award is estimated using a Black-Scholes option valuation model that requires Centru Financial to develop estimates for assumptions used in the model. The Black-Scholes valuation model uses the following assumptions: expected volatility, expected term of option, risk-free interest rate and dividend yield. Expected volatility estimates are developed by Centru Financial based on historical volatility of Centru Financial's stock. Centru Financial uses historical data to estimate the expected term of the options. The risk-free interest rate for periods within the expected life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield in effect at the grant date. The dividend yield represents the expected dividends on Centru Financial stock.

Results of OperationsSecond Quarter and Six Months Ended June 30, 2006 and 2005

For the second quarter ended June 30, 2006, net income increased to $938,000 from $720,000 for the same period in 2005. Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2006 decreased to $1.6 million from $1.9 million for the same period in 2005. Return on average assets for the second quarter and first six months of 2006 was 0.60% and 0.51% compared to 0.45% and 0.60% for 2005. Return on average equity for the second quarter and first six months of 2006 was 8.73% and 7.55%, compared to 6.72% and 8.90% for 2005.

With the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R beginning in 2006, Centru Financial elected to use the modified retrospective method of application which requires the restatement of earnings for prior periods. Accordingly, the results for the second quarter and first six months of 2005 were restated to include additional compensation expense of $185,000 and $234,000, respectively. Net income for the second quarter and first six months of 2005 was decreased by $133,000 and $182,000, respectively as a result of this restatement.

The second quarter of 2005 operating results included non-recurring expenses of $666,000 ($0.22 per share, after tax). The non-recurring expenses included $464,000 of fixed asset and prepaid expense write downs and other conversion costs that were incurred from Centru Financial's core processing system conversion. Management converted its systems to Jack Henry & Associates' Silverlake data processing system which allowed Centru Financial to expand its products and improve delivery of services to its customer base. The non-recurring expenses also included $202,000 of professional fees due to a terminated transaction associated with Centru Financial's merger and acquisition activity.

Net interest income for the three month and six month periods decreased $553,000 and $544,000 from 2005. Interest income increased by $545,000 and $1.6 million for the three month and six month periods. The net interest margin for the second quarter of 2006 decreased to 3.15% compared to 3.49% on a tax equivalent basis for 2005. For the six month periods, the net interest margin decreased to 3.29% compared to 3.52% on a tax equivalent basis for 2005.

For the second quarter of 2006, tax equivalent interest income increased $557,000, to $8.6 million (see Table 2). The increase was primarily attributable to an increase in interest rates that was partially offset by a decrease in average earning assets. Average earning assets decreased $8.6 million to $564.4 million from $573.1 million in 2005. The average tax equivalent rate earned on earning assets increased 48 basis points to 6.13% from 5.65%. The decrease in the average balance of interest-earning assets was primarily due to a decline in average loans of $6.0 million. Influencing this decline was the payoff of a $4.0 million commercial credit which Centru Financial decided not to renew under the previous terms of the note due to changes in the borrower's financial condition and strategic plans and a $2.6 million payoff of a purchased loan participation. The increase in the yield earned on interest-earning assets was due to the rising interest rate environment which has seen multiple increases in the federal funds rate and prime lending rates over the past several months.

Interest expense in the second quarter increased $1.1 million to $4.2 million from $3.1 million in 2005. The increase was primarily attributable to a rising interest rate environment as the rates paid on deposits increased during the period. This increase was partially offset by a decline in average interest bearing liabilities of $10.1 million to $513.6 million from $523.7 for the second quarter of 2005. The rise in rates also led to a shift in deposits away from the Savings category to the Demand and NOW account categories as customers migrated their deposits to higher rate NOW accounts. As illustrated in Table 2, the rate paid on interest bearing liabilities increased 90 basis points to 3.27% from 2.37% in 2005.

The second quarter net interest margin dropped from 3.49% in 2005 to 3.15% in 2006. This compression occurred as the rates paid on interest bearing liabilities increased faster than the yield on loans and investments. Centru Financial's loan and investment rate increases tend to lag deposit and borrowing rates in an increasing rate environment. A flat yield curve has also contributed to this margin decline.

For the six months ended June 30, 2006, tax equivalent interest income increased $1.6 million, to $17.1 million (see Table 3). The increase was attributable to an increase in interest rates and volume. Average earning assets increased $8.1 million to $566.4 million from $558.3 million in 2005. The average tax equivalent rate earned on earning assets increased 48 basis points to 6.10% from 5.62%. The increase in the average balance of interest-earning assets was primarily due to the growth in loans. The increase in the yield earned on interest-earning assets was due to the rising interest rate environment which has seen multiple increases in the federal funds rate and prime lending rates over the past several months.

Interest expense during the first half of the year increased $2.1 million to $7.9 million from $5.8 million in 2005. The increase was a combination of higher rates being paid on virtually all funding sources combined with an increase of $5.7 million in the average interest-bearing liabilities. The rate paid on interest bearing liabilities increased 79 basis points to 3.09% from 2.30% in 2005. The $5.7 million increase in average interest-bearing liabilities was a combination of lower base line deposits being offset by growth in borrowings. The increase in the average rate on interest-bearing liabilities resulted from a generally rising interest rate environment and the need to remain competitive with local competition.

The provision for loan losses was $75,000 and $150,000 for the second quarter and first six months of 2006, compared to $251,000 and $501,000 for the second quarter and first six months of 2005.

Noninterest income was $2.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to $1.7 million for the same period in 2005. The increase in noninterest income was primarily driven by an increase in fee income of $302,000, net gains on the sale of loans of $166,000 and a net gain on the sale of real estate of $189,000. Fee income increased primarily from overdraft fee increases during the quarter while the gain on sale of real estate came from the disposition of a major real estate holding. The increase in the net gain on the sale of loans came from higher mortgage production in the quarter.

Total noninterest expenses decreased $149,000, from the comparable 2005 period. Compensation and benefits increased $48,000, primarily from normal merit increases offset by a decrease of FTEs from 199 in the second quarter of 2005 to 187 for the second quarter of 2006 and the restatement of compensation expense for 2005. Furniture and equipment expense in 2005 was unusually high as a result of a one-time write-down of $420,000 from fixed assets and prepaid expenses related to Centru Financial's former data processing system. The system became obsolete with the conversion to the Jack Henry & Associates Silverlake system in June of 2005. This change also drove the increase in data processing fees of $302,000 as the delivery of data processing services was converted from an in-house system to an outsourced system in June 2005. This new system has improved Centru Financial's efficient use of technology, along with providing improved service to customers. A portion of the increased data processing expense was offset by fewer FTEs in the operations area. Legal and professional fees in 2005 included $202,000 of fees from a terminated transaction associated with Centru Financial's merger and acquisition activity.

Noninterest income was $4.0 million for the six-months ended June 30, 2006, compared to $3.3 million for the same period in 2005. The increase in noninterest income was primarily driven by an increase in fee income, up $370,000, net gains on the sale of loans, up $142,000 and a net gain on the sale of real estate, up $163,000. These gains were somewhat offset by a decline in the sale of securities of $179,000. Fee income increased primarily from overdraft fee increases during the period while the gain on sale of real estate came from the disposition of a major real estate holding. The increase in the net gain on the sale of loans came from higher mortgage production in the period. Fewer securities sales led to the decline in gains on the sale of securities.

Noninterest expense was $10.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. This compares to $9.8 million for the same period in 2005. Major factors in this change were compensation and benefits which increased $844,000, occupancy expenses which increased $168,000, data processing which increased $488,000 and furniture and equipment expenses which decreased $589,000. Compensation and benefits increases can be tied to the opening of the new Fairview Heights office at the end of May 2005, as well as the addition of several new officers in the later half of 2005, including a new Chief Operating Officer and new managers for the mortgage, compliance, consumer lending and operations areas, all to add further depth to Centru Financial's management team.

Furniture and equipment decreased because 2005 included a write-down of $420,000 of fixed assets and prepaid expenses related to Centru Financial's former data processing system which became obsolete after the data processing conversion in June 2005 and a shift to an outsourced delivery of data processing services. That shift drove higher costs in the data processing expense category. Occupancy expenses increased primarily due to the opening of the new Fairview Heights branch, as well as a loan production office in Plainfield. Legal and professional fees in 2005 included $202,000 of fees from a terminated transaction associated with Centru Financial's merger and acquisition activity.

Income tax expense increased $174,000 for the second quarter ended June 30, 2006 while it declined by $94,000 for the six month period. The effective income tax rate for the second quarter increased to 27.2% in 2006 from 19.6% in 2005. The increased effective rate was a function of a higher portion of taxable income being taxed at the highest marginal tax rate. The decrease in income tax expense for the six month period was due to lower pretax income at a nearly even effective tax rate.

Capital Resources

Centru Financial and its subsidiary Centru Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal and state banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on Centru Financial and Centru Bank s financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, Centru Financial and Centru Bank subsidiary must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Centru Financial s and Centru Bank s capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require Centru Financial and Centru Bank subsidiary to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the table below) of Tier 1 capital (as defined by the regulations) to average assets (as defined) and Total and Tier I capital (as defined) to risk-weighted assets (as defined). Management believes, as of June 30, 2006, that Centru Financial and Centru Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

As of June 30, 2006, the most recent notification from Centru Bank's primary regulators, categorized Centru Bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized, Centru Bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the Table 8 below. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed Centru Bank's category.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Asset/ Liability Management. In an attempt to manage its exposure to changes in interest rates, management closely monitors Centru Financial s interest rate risk. Centru Bank has a funds management committee, which meet monthly and review interest rate risk positions and evaluate current asset/liability pricing and strategies. The committees adjust pricing and strategies as needed and make recommendations to Centru Bank's board of directors regarding significant changes in strategy. In addition, on a quarterly basis, the board reviews Centru Bank's asset/liability position, including simulations of the effect on Centru Bank's capital of various interest rate scenarios.

In managing its asset/liability mix, Centru Financial, at times, depending on the relationship between long-term and short-term interest rates, market conditions and consumer preferences, may place somewhat greater emphasis on maximizing its net interest margin than on better matching the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities in an effort to improve its net income. While Centru Financial does have some exposure to changing interest rates, management believes that Centru Financial is positioned to protect earnings throughout changing interest rate environments.

Centru Financial currently does not enter into derivative financial instruments, including futures, forwards, interest rate risk swaps, option contracts, or other financial instruments with similar characteristics. However, Centru Financial is party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers such as commitments to extend credit and letters of credit. Commitments to extend credit and letters of credit are not recorded as an asset by Centru Financial until the commitment is accepted and funded or the letter of credit is exercised.

Centru Financial's net income and economic value of equity (EVE), in the normal course of business, are exposed to interest rate risk, and can vary based on changes in the general level of interest rates. All financial products carry some amount of interest rate risk, and substantial portions of both Centru Financial's assets and liabilities are financial products. These include investment securities, loans, deposits and borrowed money. Off-balance sheet items, such as loan commitments, letters of credit, commitments to buy or sell loans or securities, and derivative financial instruments, also carry some amount of interest rate risk.

The Funds Management Committee generally uses three types of analysis in measuring and reviewing Centru Financial's interest rate sensitivity. These are Static GAP analysis, Dynamic Gap Analysis and EVE. The Static GAP analysis measures assets and liabilities as they reprice in various time periods.

The economic value of equity calculation uses information about Centru Financial's assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items, market interest rate levels and assumptions about the behavior of the assets and liabilities, to calculate Centru Financial's equity value. The economic value of equity is the market value of assets minus the market value of liabilities, adjusted for off-balance sheet items divided by the market value of assets. The economic value of equity is then subjected to immediate and permanent upward changes of 300 basis points in market interest rate levels and a downward change of 200 basis points, in 100 basis point increments. The resulting changes in equity value and net interest income at each increment are measured against pre-determined, minimum EVE ratios for each incremental rate change, as approved by the board in the interest rate risk policy.

Changes in Interest Rates	EVE Ratios
	June 30, 2006	December 31, 2005
300 basis point rise	7.92%	7.60%
200 basis point rise	8.07%	7.43%
100 basis point rise	7.99%	7.33%
Base rate scenario	7.41%	6.86%
100 basis point decline	6.04%	5.24%
200 basis point decline	4.48%	3.60%

The preceding table indicates that in the event of an immediate and permanent increase in prevailing market interest rates, Centru Bank's EVE ratio, would be expected to increase and that in the event of an immediate and permanent decrease in prevailing market interest rates, Centrue Bank's EVE ratio would be expected to decrease.

The EVE increases in a 100 and 200 basis point rise because Centrue Financial is asset sensitive and would have more interest earning assets repricing than interest-bearing liabilities. This effect is increased by periodic and lifetime limits on changes in rate on most adjustable-rate, interest-earning assets. The EVE decreases in the 300 basis point rise scenarios due to the extension of the duration on the various loan products which increase the price volatility. The EVE decreases in a falling rate scenario because of the limits on Centrue Financial's ability to decrease rates on some of its deposit sources, such as money market accounts and NOW accounts, and by the ability of borrowers to repay loans ahead of schedule and refinance at lower rates.

The EVE ratio is calculated by Centrue Financial's fixed income investment advisors, and reviewed by management, on a quarterly basis utilizing information about Centrue Financial's assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items, which is provided by Centrue Financial. The calculation is designed to estimate the effects of hypothetical rate changes on the EVE, utilizing projected cash flows, and is based on numerous assumptions, including relative levels of market interest rates, loan prepayment speeds and deposit decay rates. Actual changes in the EVE, in the event of market interest rate changes of the type and magnitude used in the calculation, could differ significantly. Additionally, the calculation does not account for possible actions taken by Funds Management to mitigate the adverse effects of changes in market interest rates.

401(k) Savings Plan

Centrue Bank sponsors a qualified, tax-exempt pension plan qualifying under section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Virtually all employees are eligible to participate after meeting certain age and service requirements. Eligible employees are permitted to contribute 1% to 50% of their compensation to the 401(k) plan. Pursuant to the plan, Centrue Bank matches 50% of a participant's deferral into the 401(k) plan limited up to 3% of each participant's salary. Participants can choose between several different investment options under the 401(k) plan, including shares of Centrue Financial common stock.

The total contributions under the 401(k) plan, including profit sharing contributions, by Centrue Financial to the named executive officers are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table above.

Stock Incentive Plans

1992 Stock Option Plan. In 1992, Centrue Financial adopted an incentive stock option plan for the benefit of directors, officers, and employees of Centrue Financial and Centrue Bank. The plan was approved by stockholders and provided for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and stock appreciation rights. The total number of shares reserved under the plan was 350,000, all of which have been granted, although some grants remain outstanding and have not yet been exercised.

2003 Stock Incentive Plan. In 2003, Centrue Financial adopted a new incentive stock option plan for the benefit of its directors, officers, and employees. This plan provides for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and stock appreciation rights. The stockholders approved the plan in 2003 and 233,000 shares were originally reserved for issuance under the plan. In 2004, the stockholders approved an increase in the amount to 400,000 shares. Centrue Financial's board believed this increase was necessary because of the board's increased emphasis on the use of equity based compensation for its employees and directors and also for use in conjunction with potential futures mergers and acquisitions.

In 2005, Centrue Financial awarded stock options to purchase an aggregate of 58,000 shares of Centrue Financial common stock to fifteen employees. Additionally, in 2005, each independent director received options to purchase 5,000 shares of Centrue Financial common stock. In 2005, Centrue Financial also awarded an aggregate of 2,200 shares of restricted shares, at a market price of $28.20 per share, to seven management level employees of the bank. The restricted shares in equal installments on April 8, 2005 and 2006. The stock options and restricted shares awarded to the named executive officers during 2005 are included in the tables above.

Daiber, as President and Chief Executive Officer of Centrue Financial and Centrue Bank. In December 2005, the Executive Committee reviewed Mr. Daiber's salary and overall compensation for 2005. Based upon the financial performance of Centrue Financial and a peer analysis, the committee increased Mr. Daiber's salary to $290,000 which may be maintained or increased during the terms of the agreement in accordance with Centrue Financial's established management compensation policies and plans. The agreement provides for a term of three years and will automatically be extended for one additional year on each anniversary of the effective date, unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal at least 30 days prior to such anniversary of the effective date.

The agreement also provides for an annual performance bonus (up to 50% of the base salary for the applicable year) and participation in all plans and benefits generally accorded to senior executives, including pension, profit-sharing, supplemental retirement, incentive compensation and group life medical, as well as other perquisites extended to similarly situated senior executives.

Under the agreement, if Mr. Daiber voluntarily terminates his employment with Centrue Financial, Centrue Financial will only be obligated to pay his salary and benefits accrued through the effective date of termination, plus any expense reimbursements incurred prior to termination and properly submitted in accordance with the agreement. If Centrue Financial terminates Mr. Daiber for cause, Centrue Financial's only obligation under the agreements is to pay his salary and benefits accrued through the effective date of termination.

If, during the one-year period following a change of control of Centrue Financial, Mr. Daiber voluntarily terminates his employment or if his employment is involuntarily terminated, then he will be entitled to the same cash payment and benefits he would be entitled to if terminated by Centrue Financial without cause.

Additionally, the agreement includes a covenant limiting Mr. Daiber's ability to compete with Centrue Financial, Centrue Bank or their subsidiaries within in an area encompassing a 25-mile radius of the counties in which they operate for a period of one year following termination of employment.

following termination of employment. In the event of a constructive discharge, as defined in the agreements, they will have the right to terminate their employment and receive the same severance as if they had been terminated without cause. In general, they will be deemed to be constructively discharged if: (i) they are removed from their positions; (ii) there is a substantial diminution in their responsibilities; (iii) they are relocated without their consent to a location more than 50 miles from: in Ms. Hoekstra's and Mr. O'Gorman's case Centvue Bank's Kankakee office, and, in Mr. Parks' case, its Fairview Heights office; or (iv) Centvue Bank commits a material breach of its obligations under the agreements.

Under the agreements, if the executives voluntarily terminate their employment with Centvue Bank, Centvue Bank will only be obligated to pay their salaries and benefits accrued through the effective date of termination, plus any expense reimbursements incurred prior to termination and properly submitted in accordance with the agreement. If Centvue Bank terminates them for cause, Centvue Bank's only obligation under the agreements is to pay their salaries and benefits accrued through the effective date of termination.

If the executives voluntarily terminate their employment during the six month period following a change of control of Centvue Bank or their employment is involuntarily terminated during the one-year period following a change of control of Centvue Bank, then they will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to their then-current annual base salary and health insurance for twelve months following termination.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(In Thousands, Except Per Share Data)

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of UnionBancorp, Inc. and subsidiary (Union) have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim financial reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all normal and recurring adjustments which are necessary to fairly present the results for the interim periods presented have been included. The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the recorded amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. For further information with respect to significant accounting policies followed by Union in the preparation of its consolidated financial statements, refer to Union's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. The annualized results of operations during the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the year ending December 31, 2006. All financial information is in thousands (000 s), except per share data.

Note 2. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 were computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 were computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding, adjusted for the dilutive effect of the stock options. Computations for basic and diluted earnings per share are provided below:

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2006	2005	2006	2005
Basic Earnings Per Common Share
Net income available to common shareholders	$ 1,242	$ 1,330	$ 2,836	$ 2,242
Weighted average common shares outstanding	3,743	3,993	3,765	4,021
Basic Earnings Per Common Share	$ 0.33	$ 0.33	$ 0.75	$ 0.56
Diluted Earnings Per Common Share
Weighted average common shares outstanding	3,743	3,993	3,765	4,021
Add: dilutive effect of assumed exercised stock options	44	62	45	62
Weighted average common and dilutive Potential shares outstanding	3,787	4,055	3,810	4,083
Diluted Earnings Per Common Share	$ 0.33	$ 0.33	$ 0.74	$ 0.55

There were approximately 60,000 and 40,000 options outstanding at June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively, that were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the options' exercise prices were greater than the average market price of the common stock and were, therefore, antidilutive.

Note 3. Securities

Union's consolidated securities portfolio, which represented 32.1% of Union's 2006 second quarter average earning asset base, is managed to minimize interest rate risk, maintain sufficient liquidity, and maximize return. The portfolio includes several callable agency debentures, adjustable rate mortgage pass-

Note 4. Loans and Allowance for Loan Losses

Union offers a broad range of products, including agribusiness, commercial, residential, and installment loans, designed to meet the credit needs of its borrowers. Union concentrates its lending activity in the geographic market areas that it serves, generally lending to consumers and small to mid-sized businesses from which deposits are garnered in the same market areas. As a result, Union strives to maintain a loan portfolio that is diverse in terms of loan type, industry, borrower and geographic concentrations. The following table describes the composition of loans by major categories outstanding as of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively:

In originating loans, Union recognizes that credit losses will be experienced and the risk of loss will vary with, among other things, current economic conditions; the type of loan being made; the creditworthiness of the borrower over the term of the loan; and in the case of a collateralized loan, the quality of the collateral for such loan. The allowance for loan losses represents Union's estimate of the allowance necessary to provide for probable incurred losses in the loan portfolio. In making this determination, Union analyzes the ultimate collectibility of the loans in its portfolio, incorporating feedback provided by internal loan staff, the independent loan review function and information provided by examinations performed by regulatory agencies. Union makes an ongoing evaluation as to the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. Transactions in the allowance for loan losses for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 are summarized below:

In 1999, Union adopted the UnionBancorp, Inc. Non-qualified Stock Option Plan (the 1999 Option Plan). Under the 1999 Option Plan, nonqualified options may be granted to employees and eligible directors of Union and its subsidiaries to purchase Union's common stock at 100% of the fair market value on the date the option is granted. Union has authorized 50,000 shares for issuance under the 1999 Option Plan. During 1999, 40,750 of these shares were granted and are 100% fully vested. The options have an exercise period of ten years from the date of grant. There are 9,250 shares available to grant under this plan.

In April 2003, Union adopted the UnionBancorp 2003 Stock Option Plan (the 2003 Option Plan). Under the 2003 Option Plan, nonqualified options, incentive stock options, and/or stock appreciation rights may be granted to employees and outside directors of Union and its subsidiaries to purchase Union's common stock at an exercise price to be determined by the 2003 Option Plan's administrative committee. Pursuant to the 2003 Option Plan, 200,000 shares of Union's unissued common stock have been reserved and are available for issuance upon the exercise of options and rights granted under the 2003 Option Plan. The options have an exercise period of ten years from the date of grant. There are 110,000 shares available to grant under this plan.

The intrinsic value for stock options is calculated based on the exercise price of the underlying awards and the market price of our common stock as of the reporting date. The intrinsic value of options exercised during the second quarter of 2006 and 2005 was $174 and $308. Union recorded $68 in stock compensation expense during the six months ended June 30, 2006 to salaries and employee benefits.

The fair value of each stock option granted is estimated using the Black-Scholes based stock option valuation model. This model requires the input of subjective assumptions that will usually have a significant impact on the fair value estimate. Expected volatilities are based on historical volatility of Union's stock, and other factors. Expected dividends are based on dividend trends and the market price of Union's stock price at grant. Union uses historical data to estimate option exercises and employee terminations within the valuation model. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the options is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curves in effect at the time of grant. There were no grants during the six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005.

Union elected to adopt the modified prospective application method as provided by SFAS 123R, and, accordingly Union recorded compensation costs as the requisite service rendered for the unvested portion of previously issued awards that remain outstanding at the initial date of adoption and any awards issued, modified, repurchased, or cancelled after the effective date of SFAS 123R.

Prior to January 1, 2006, Union accounted for share-based compensation to employees in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion (APB) No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Union also followed the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. No stock-based compensation was recognized on employee stock options in the consolidated statement of income before January 1, 2006. Accordingly, financial statement amounts for the prior periods presented in this Form 10-Q have not been restated to reflect the fair value method of expensing share-based compensation.

SFAS 123R requires the recognition of stock based compensation for the number of awards that are ultimately expected to vest. As a result, recognized stock option compensation expense was reduced for estimated forfeitures prior to vesting primarily based on historical annual forfeiture rates of approximately three percent. Estimated forfeitures will be reassessed in subsequent periods and may change based on new facts and circumstances. Prior to January 1, 2006, actual forfeitures were accounted for as they occurred for purposes of required pro forma stock compensation disclosures.

2008	47
2009	28
Total	$ 210

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if expense was measured using the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS 123R as of June 30, 2005:

Note 6. Contingent Liabilities And Other Matters

Neither Union nor any of its subsidiaries are involved in any pending legal proceedings other than routine legal proceedings occurring in the normal course of business, which, in the opinion of management, in the aggregate, are not material to Union's consolidated financial condition.

Note 7. Segment Information

The reportable segments are determined by the products and services offered, primarily distinguished between retail, commercial, treasury, financial services, and operations & other. Loans, and deposits generate the revenues in the commercial segments; deposits, loans, secondary mortgage sales and servicing generates the revenue in the retail segment; investment income generates the revenue in the treasury segment; insurance, brokerage, and trust services generate the revenue in the financial services segment; and holding company services generate the revenue in the operations & other segment.

The accounting policies used with respect to segment reporting are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies set forth in Note 1 on page 4. Segment performance is evaluated using net income. Information reported internally for performance assessment follows.

UNIONBANCORP, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(In Thousands, Except Share Data)

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

UnionBancorp, Inc. is a bank holding company organized under the laws of the state of Delaware. Union provides a full range of banking services to individual and corporate customers located in the north central and west central areas of Illinois. These services include demand, time, and savings deposits; lending; mortgage banking; insurance products; brokerage services; and trust services. Union is subject to competition from other financial institutions and nonfinancial institutions providing financial services. Additionally, UnionBancorp, Inc. and its subsidiary UnionBank (collectively referred to as Union) are subject to regulations of certain regulatory agencies and undergo periodic examinations by those regulatory agencies.

Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the UnionBancorp, Inc. and UnionBank. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and with general practice in the banking industry. In preparing the financial statements, management makes estimates and assumptions based on available information that affects the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period, and actual results could differ. The allowance for loan losses, value of mortgage servicing rights, deferred taxes, and fair values of financial instruments are particularly subject to change.

Assets held in an agency or fiduciary capacity, other than trust cash on deposit with UnionBank, are not assets of Union and, accordingly, are not included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash, deposits with other financial institutions under 90 days, and federal funds sold. Loan disbursements and collections, repurchase agreements, federal funds purchased, Federal Home Loan Bank advances, Bank owned life insurance and transactions in deposit accounts are reported, net.

Securities

Securities classified as available-for-sale are those securities that Union intends to hold for an indefinite period of time, but not necessarily to maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale would be based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of Union's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations, and other similar factors. Securities available-for-sale are carried at fair value with unrealized gains or losses, net of the related deferred income tax effect, reported in other comprehensive income. Securities such as Federal Home Loan Bank stock and Federal Reserve Bank stock are carried at cost. Declines in the fair value of securities below their cost that are other than temporary are reflected as realized losses. In estimating other-than-temporary losses, management considers: (1) the length of time and extent that fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near term prospects of the issuer, and (3) Union's ability and intent to hold the security for a period sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value.

Interest income is reported net of amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts. Gains or losses from the sale of securities are determined using the specific identification method. Securities are written down to fair value when a decline in fair value is not temporary.

UNIONBANCORP, INC.

Loan commitments and related financial instruments

Financial instruments include off-balance-sheet credit instruments such as commitments to make loans and commercial letters of credit, issued to meet customer financing needs. The face amount for these items represents the exposure to loss, before considering customer collateral or ability to repay. Such financial instruments are recorded when they are funded.

Loans

Loans that management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future or until maturity or payoff are reported at the principal balance outstanding, net of unearned interest, deferred loan fees and costs, and an allowance for loan losses. Interest income is accrued on the unpaid principal balance.

Interest income on mortgage and commercial loans is discontinued at the time the loan is 90 days delinquent unless the loan is well-secured and in the process of collection. Consumer and credit card loans are typically charged off no later than 120 days past due. Past due status is based on the contractual terms of the loan. In all cases, loans are placed on nonaccrual or charged-off at an earlier date if collection of principal or interest is considered doubtful.

All interest accrued but not received for loans placed on nonaccrual are reversed against interest income. Interest received on such loans is accounted for on the cash-basis or cost-recovery method, until qualifying for return to accrual. Loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured.

Mortgage loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of aggregate cost or market, as determined by outstanding commitments from investors. Net unrealized losses, if any, are recorded as a valuation allowance and charged to earnings.

Mortgage loans held for sale are generally sold with servicing rights retained. The carrying value of mortgage loans sold is reduced by the cost allocated to the servicing right. Gains and losses on sales of mortgage loans are based on the difference between the selling price and the carrying value of the related loan sold.

The allowance for loan losses is a valuation allowance for probable incurred credit losses. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes and confirms the loan balance to be uncollectible. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance. Management estimates the allowance balance required using past loan loss experience, the nature and volume of the portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors. Allocations of the allowance may be made for specific loans, but the entire allowance is available for any loan that, in management's judgment, should be charged-off.

The allowance consists of specific and general components. The specific component relates to loans that are individually classified as impaired or loans otherwise classified as substandard or doubtful. The general component covers non-classified loans and is based on historical loss experience adjusted for current factors.

A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that Union will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Loans that experience insignificant payment delays and payment shortfalls generally are not classified as impaired. Management determines the significance of payment delays and payment shortfalls on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding the loan and the borrower, including the length of delay, the reasons for the delay, the borrower's prior payment record, and the amount of the shortfall in relation to the principal and interest owed. Impairment is measured on a loan by loan basis for commercial and commercial real estate loans by either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, the loan's obtainable market price, or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent. Large groups of smaller balance homogeneous loans are collectively evaluated for impairment. Accordingly, Union does not separately identify individual consumer and residential loans for impairment disclosures.

Mortgage servicing rights

Servicing assets represent purchased rights and the allocated value of retained servicing rights on loans sold. Servicing assets are expensed in proportion to, and over the period of, estimated net servicing revenues. Impairment is evaluated based on the fair value of the assets, using groupings of the underlying loans as to interest rates and then, secondarily, as to geographic and prepayment characteristics. Fair value is determined using prices for similar assets with similar characteristics, when available, or based upon discounted cash flows using market-based assumptions. Any impairment of a grouping is reported as a valuation allowance, to the extent that fair value is less than the capitalized amount for a grouping.

Foreclosed assets

Assets acquired through or instead of loan foreclosure are initially recorded at fair value when acquired, establishing a new cost basis. If fair value declines, a valuation allowance is recorded through expense. Costs after acquisition are expensed.

Premises and equipment

Land is carried at cost. Premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Building and related components are depreciated using the straight-line method with useful lives ranging from 15 to 39 years. Furniture, fixtures, and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line (or accelerated) method with useful lives ranging from 3 to 10 years. The cost of maintenance and repairs is charged to income as incurred; significant improvements are capitalized.

Bank-owned life insurance

Union has invested in bank-owned life insurance policies, for which Union is also the beneficiary, on certain members of management. Bank-owned life insurance is recorded at its cash surrender value or the amount that can be realized. These policies have an aggregate face value of $36.2 million and $37.0 million with an approximate cash surrender value of $15.5 million and $15.0 million at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Goodwill and other intangible assets

Goodwill results from business acquisitions and represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of acquired tangible assets and liabilities and identifiable intangible assets. Goodwill is assessed at least annually for impairment and any such impairment will be recognized in the period identified.

Other intangible assets consist of core deposit and acquired customer relationship intangible assets arising from whole bank, branch, and insurance company acquisitions. They are initially measured at fair value and then are amortized over their estimated useful lives, which is ten years.

Long-term assets

Premises and equipment, core deposit, and other intangible assets, and other long-term assets are reviewed for impairment when events indicate their carrying amount may not be recoverable from future undiscounted cash flows. If impaired, the assets are recorded at fair value.

Repurchase agreements

Substantially all repurchase agreement liabilities represent amounts advanced by various customers. Securities are pledged to cover these liabilities, which are not covered by federal deposit insurance.

Income taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and the tax basis of Union's assets and liabilities. Deferred taxes are recognized for the estimated taxes ultimately payable or recoverable based on enacted tax laws. Changes in enacted tax rates and laws are reflected in the financial statements in the periods they occur.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is based on weighted-average common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share assumes the issuance of any dilutive potential common shares under stock options and Series A convertible preferred shares using the treasury stock method.

Stock compensation

Employee compensation expense under stock options is reported using the intrinsic value method. No stock-based compensation cost is reflected in net income, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to or greater than the market price of the underlying common stock at date of grant. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if expense was measured using the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation:

stock. Each share of Series C Preferred Stock will have 1,000 votes, voting together with the common stock. Finally, in the event of any merger, consolidation, or other transaction in which outstanding shares of common stock are converted or exchanged, each share of Series C Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive 1,000 times the amount received per share of common stock. These rights are protected by customary antidilution provisions.

Stockholder rights plan

On July 17, 1996, Union declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right (a Right) for each outstanding share of common stock. Each Right entitles the registered holder to purchase from Union one one-thousandth of a share of Series C Junior Participating Preferred Stock, no par value, of Union at a price of $50.00 per one one-thousandth of a share of preferred stock (the Purchase Price), subject to adjustment.

The Rights are not exercisable until the earlier to occur of: (i) 10 days after a person or group (Acquiring Person) has acquired beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of common stock or (ii) 10 business days (or such later date as determined by the Board of Directors) following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer (the Distribution Date). Unless extended, the Rights will expire on August 4, 2006. At any time prior to the time an Acquiring Person becomes such, the Board of Directors of Union may redeem the Rights in whole, but not in part, at a price of $.01 per Right.

Dividend restriction

Banking regulations require the maintenance of certain capital levels and may limit the amount of dividends that may be paid by the subsidiary bank to the holding company or by the holding company to stockholders.

Fair value of financial instruments

Fair values of financial instruments are estimated using relevant market information and other assumptions, as more fully disclosed in a separate note. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment regarding interest rates, credit risk, prepayments, and other factors, especially in the absence of broad markets for particular items. Changes in assumptions or in market conditions could significantly affect the estimates.

Loss contingencies

Loss contingencies, including claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. Management does not believe there now are such matters that will have a material effect on the financial statements.

Comprehensive income

Comprehensive income includes both net income and other comprehensive income elements, including the change in unrealized gains and losses on securities available-for-sale, net of tax.

Adoption of new accounting standards

SFAS 123R, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, Revised, requires all public companies to record compensation cost for stock options provided to employees in return for employee service. The cost is measured at the fair value of the options when granted, and this cost is expensed over the employee service period, which is normally the vesting period of the options. The Securities and Exchange Commission in April 2005 amended the compliance dates for SFAS 123R from periods beginning after September 15, 2005 to those beginning after January 1, 2006. Compensation cost will also be recorded for prior option grants that vest after the date of adoption. The effect of the results of operations will depend on the level of future option grants and the calculation of the fair value of the options granted at such future date, as well as the vesting periods provided, and so cannot currently be predicted. Existing options that will vest after adoption date are expected to result in additional compensation expense of approximately $83,000 during the balance of 2006, $41,000 in 2007, $29,000 in 2008, and $29,000 in 2009. There will be no significant effect on financial position as total equity will not change.

In June 2005, the FASB decided not to provide additional guidance on the meaning of other-than-temporary impairment, and issued FSP 115-1 with references to existing other-than-temporary impairment guidance, such as SFAS No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities, SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 59, Accounting for Noncurrent Marketable Equity Securities, and APB Opinion No. 18, The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock. FSP FAS 115-1 will codify the guidance set forth in EITF Topic D-44 and clarify that an investor should recognize an impairment loss no later than when the impairment is deemed other than temporary, even if a decision to sell has not been made. FSP FAS 115-1 will be effective for other-than-temporary impairment analysis conducted in periods beginning after December 15, 2005.

SOP 03-3 requires that valuation allowance for loans acquired in a transfer, including in a business combination, reflect only losses incurred after acquisition and should not be recorded at acquisition. It applies to any loan acquired in a transfer that showed evidence of credit quality deterioration since it was made. The effect of these other new standards on Union's financial position and results of operations is not expected to be material upon and after adoption.

Total temporarily impaired	$ 41,293	$ (299)	$ 13,934	$ (86)	$ 55,227	$ (385)

Union evaluates securities for other-than-temporary impairment at least on a quarterly basis, and more frequently when economic and market concerns warrant such evaluation. Consideration is given to the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and the intent and ability of Union to retain its investment in the issuer for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value. In analyzing an issuer's financial condition, Union may consider whether the securities are issued by the federal government or its agencies, whether downgrades by bond rating agencies have occurred, and the results of reviews of the issuer's financial condition. The unrealized losses on all securities have not been recognized into income because the securities are of high credit quality and management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future and the decline in fair value is largely due to increases in market interest rates.

Note 11. Benefit Plans

Union's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the Plan) covers all full-time employees who have completed six months of service and have attained the minimum age of twenty and one-half years. Vesting in the Plan is based on years of continuous service. A participant is fully vested after seven years of credited service. As of December 31, 2005, the Plan owned 308,250 shares of Union's common stock. All shares held by the Plan are allocated to plan participants. Union expenses all cash contributions made to the Plan. Contributions were $223, $269, and $262 for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003.

Effective January 1, 1999, Union established a 401(k) salary reduction plan (the 401(k) plan) covering substantially all employees. Eligible employees may elect to make tax deferred contributions within a specified range of their compensation as defined in the 401(k) plan. Union contributes at its discretion. Contributions to the 401(k) plan are expensed currently and approximated $415, $339, and $344 for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003.

Note 12. Stock Option Plans

In April 1993, Union adopted the UnionBancorp 1993 Stock Option Plan (the 1993 Option Plan). A total of 490,206 shares were issued pursuant to stock options issued to employees and outside directors under this plan. The 1993 Stock Option Plan was terminated on April 12, 2003.

In 1999, Union adopted the UnionBancorp, Inc. Non-qualified Stock Option Plan (the 1999 Option Plan). Under the 1999 Option Plan, nonqualified options may be granted to employees and eligible directors of Union and its subsidiaries to purchase Union's common stock at 100% of the fair market value on the date the option is granted. Union has authorized 50,000 shares for issuance under the 1999 Option Plan. During 1999, 40,750 of these shares were granted and are 100% fully vested. The options have an exercise period of ten years from the date of grant. There are 9,250 shares available to grant under this plan.

In April 2003, Union adopted the UnionBancorp 2003 Stock Option Plan (the 2003 Option Plan). Under the 2003 Option Plan, nonqualified options, incentive stock options, and/or stock appreciation rights may be granted to employees and outside directors of Union and its subsidiaries to purchase Union s common

Pursuant to the 2003 Option Plan, 200,000 shares of Union's unissued common stock have been reserved and are available for issuance upon the exercise of options and rights granted under the 2003 Option Plan. The options have an exercise period of ten years from the date of grant. There are 110,000 shares available to grant under this plan.

A summary of the status of the option plans as of December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and changes during the years ended on those dates is presented below.

Note 14. Regulatory Matters

Union is subject to regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, Union must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices.

Upon receiving regulatory approval, Union merged UnionBank and UnionBank/ Central in March of 2003, UnionBank and UnionBank/ West and UnionBank/ Northwest in March of 2004 and UnionBank and UnionFinancial Services & Trust Company in October of 2004.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require Union to maintain minimum amounts and ratios of total and Tier I capital to risk-weighted assets and of Tier I capital to average assets. Management believes, as of December 31, 2005, that Union meets all of the capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

As of December 31, 2005, the most recent notification from the corresponding regulatory agency categorized UnionBank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized, UnionBank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based, and

Union's ability to pay dividends is dependent on the subsidiary bank, which is restricted by various laws and regulations. These regulations pose no practical restrictions to paying dividends at historical levels. At December 31, 2005, UnionBank had $2.5 million of retained earnings available for dividends under these regulations.

Note 15. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The methods and assumptions used to estimate fair value are described as follows:

The carrying amount is the estimated fair value for cash and due from banks, federal funds sold, short-term borrowings, Federal Home Loan Bank stock, accrued interest receivable and payable, demand deposits, short-term debt, and variable rate loans or deposits that reprice frequently and fully. Security fair values are based on market prices or dealer quotes and, if no such information is available, on the rate and term of the security and information about the issuer. For fixed rate loans or deposits and for variable rate loans or deposits with infrequent repricing or repricing limits, the fair value is based on discounted cash flows using current market rates applied to the estimated life and credit risk. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analysis or underlying collateral values. The fair value of loans held for sale is based on market quotes. The fair value of debt and redeemable stock is based on current rates for similar financing. The fair value of off-balance-sheet items is based on the current fees or cost that would be charged to enter into or terminate such arrangements.

The estimated fair values of Union's financial instruments were as follows:

	December 31,
	2005		2004
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Financial assets
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 24,358	$ 24,358	$ 22,802	$ 22,802

Notes payable	9,468	9,468	6,629	6,629
Accrued interest payable	3,206	3,206	2,474	2,474

In addition, other assets and liabilities of Union that are not defined as financial instruments are not included in the above disclosures, such as property and equipment. Also, nonfinancial instruments typically not recognized in financial statements nevertheless may have value but are not included in the above disclosures. These include, among other items, the estimated earnings power of core deposit accounts, the earnings potential of loan servicing rights, the earnings potential of the trust operations, the trained work force, customer goodwill, and similar items.

Note 16. Commitments, Contingencies, and Credit Risk

In the normal course of business, there are various contingent liabilities outstanding, such as claims and legal actions, which are not reflected in the consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, no material losses are anticipated as a result of these actions or claims.

UnionBank is party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. These instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet.

The contractual amounts of these instruments reflect the extent of involvement in particular classes of financial instruments.

UnionBank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit written is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. UnionBank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments. Financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk are as follows:

	Standby Letters of Credit	Variable Rate Commitments	Fixed Rate Commitments	Total Commitments	Range of Rates on Fixed Rate Commitments
Commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit
December 31, 2005	$ 8,066	$ 58,667	$ 20,777	$ 87,510	2.25% - 18.00%
December 31, 2004	$ 4,331	$ 64,787	$ 25,228	$ 94,346	2.25% - 18.00%

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. For commitments to extend credit, UnionBank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer. Collateral held varies, but may include accounts receivable; inventory; property, plant, and equipment; and income producing commercial properties.

Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by UnionBank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. The credit risk involved in issuing standby letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan commitments to customers. The standby letters of credit are unsecured.

Union has employment agreements with certain executive officers and certain other management personnel. These agreements generally continue until terminated by the executive or Union and provide for continued salary and benefits to the executive under certain circumstances. The agreements provide the employees with additional rights after a change of control of Union occurs.

Union leases certain branch properties under operating leases. Rent expense was $190, $196, and $269 for 2005, 2004 and 2003. Rent commitments, before considering renewal options that generally are present, were as follows:

2008	107
2009	107
2010	65
Thereafter	13

Note 17. Condensed Financial Information - Parent Company Only

The primary source of funds for Union is dividends from its subsidiaries. By regulation, UnionBank is prohibited from paying dividends that would reduce regulatory capital below a specific percentage of assets without regulatory approval. As a practical matter, dividend payments are restricted to maintain prudent capital levels.

Note 19. Segment Information

The reportable segments are determined by the products and services offered, primarily distinguished between banking, mortgage banking, financial services, and other operations. - (A) The net income for the quarter was impacted by nonrecurring expenses primarily related to organizational restructuring. The impact to earnings was a decrease of approximately $0.05 per diluted share.
- (B) The net income for the quarter was impacted by a reduction in state income taxes related to the receipt of a tax refund related to amended returns outstanding from prior years. The impact to earnings was an increase of approximately $0.06 per diluted share.
- (C) The net income for the quarter was impacted by the sale of 5 branches in the western Illinois region with a pretax gain of $4.2 million.

- (D) A reclassification was made to the third quarter information to allocate a portion of the allowance for loan losses to the loans sold as part of the branch sales during the quarter. This reclassification had no impact on the balance sheet or income, as noninterest income was increased by $174 and the provision for loan losses was increased by $174.

CENTRUE FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

Note 1 Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of Centrue Financial Corporation (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The December 31, 2005 balance sheet has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. Operating results for the three and six-month periods ended June 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2006. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the annual report for the Company on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary Centrue Bank, an Illinois chartered commercial bank (the Bank). All material intercompany transactions and balances are eliminated. The Company is a financial holding company that engages in its business through its subsidiaries, in a single significant business segment.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated balance sheet and revenues and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses, valuation of mortgage servicing rights, goodwill, and real estate acquired in connection with foreclosures or in satisfaction of loans. In connection with the determination of the allowance for loan losses and the valuation of real estate acquired by foreclosure, management obtains independent appraisals for significant properties.

Certain 2005 amounts have been reclassified where appropriate to conform to the consolidated financial statement presentation used in 2006.

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment SFAS 123R which amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. The Company adopted SFAS 123R using the modified retrospective method. The modified retrospective method requires that compensation cost be recognized beginning with the effective date based on the requirements of SFAS 123R for all share-based payments granted after the effective date and based on the requirements of SFAS 123 for all awards granted to employees prior to the effective date of SFAS 123R. The modified retrospective method also allows companies to adjust prior year financials based on the amounts previously reported under the SFAS 123 pro forma disclosures for all prior periods for which SFAS 123 was effective. See Note 6 for a more detailed description of the Company's adoption of SFAS 123R.

Note 2 Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share of common stock have been determined by dividing net income for the period by the average number of shares of common stock outstanding. Diluted earnings per share of common stock have been determined by dividing net income for the period by the average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding. Average unearned restricted stock shares have been excluded from common shares outstanding for both basic and diluted earnings per share. Common stock equivalents assume exercise of stock options, and the purchase of treasury stock with the option proceeds at the average market price for the period (when dilutive). The Company has an incentive stock option plan for the benefit of directors, officers and employees. Diluted earnings per share have been determined considering the stock options granted, net of stock options which have been exercised.

Note 3 Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company maintains a certain level of cash and other liquid assets to fund normal volumes of loan commitments, deposit withdrawals and other obligations. The following table summarizes significant contractual obligations and other commitments at June 30, 2006 (in thousands):

- (1) Fixed rate callable borrowings are included in the period of their modified duration rather than in the period in which they are due. Borrowings include two fixed rate callable advances of $5 million each that mature in years 2008 and 2016 which are callable within the next 12 months and a variable rate, pre-payable advance of $20 million maturing in fiscal year 2008. Trust preferred debentures of $10 million mature in both 2032 and 2034, but are callable in 2007 and 2009.

Note 4 Investments

Continuous gross unrealized losses of investments in debt and equity securities as of June 30, 2006 (in thousands) which are classified as temporary were as follows:

Description of Securities	Continuous Unrealized Losses Existing for Less Than 12 Months		Continuous Unrealized Losses Existing Greater Than 12 Months		Total
	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses
U.S. government agencies	$ 16,415	$ 471	$ 57,748	$ 2,079	$ 74,163	$ 2,550
Municipals	2,857	63	19,017	772	21,874	835

Total temporarily impaired securities	$ 27,013	$ 698	$ 85,451	$ 3,338	$ 112,464	$ 4,036

The unrealized losses at June 30, 2006, relate principally to declines in interest rates since the investments were purchased. Based on management's review of the investment portfolio, investment securities that have been in a continuous loss position for more than 12 consecutive months are due to changes in interest rates and as such, and since management has the ability to hold investment securities until maturity, all declines are deemed to be temporary.

Note 5 Junior Subordinated Debt Owed to Unconsolidated Trusts

The Company issued $10.0 million in each of April 2002 and April 2004 in cumulative trust preferred securities through newly formed special-purpose trusts, Kankakee Capital Trust I (Trust I) and Centruue Statutory Trust II (Trust II). The proceeds of the offerings were invested by the trusts in junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures of Trust I and Trust II. Trust I and Trust II are wholly-owned unconsolidated subsidiaries of the Company, and their sole assets are the junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. Distributions are cumulative and are payable quarterly at a variable rate of 3.70% and 2.65% over the LIBOR rate, respectively, (at a rate of 9.10% and 8.05% at June 30, 2006) per annum of the stated liquidation amount of $1,000 per preferred security. Interest expense on the trust preferred securities was $442,000 and $334,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, and $839,000 and $633,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The obligations of the trusts are fully and unconditionally guaranteed, on a subordinated basis, by the Company. The trust preferred securities for Trust I are mandatorily redeemable upon the maturity of the debentures on April 7, 2032, or to the extent of any earlier redemption of any debentures by the Company, and are callable beginning April 7, 2007. The trust preferred securities for Trust II are mandatorily redeemable upon the maturity of the debentures on April 22, 2034, or to the extent of any earlier redemption of any debentures by the Company, and are callable beginning April 22, 2009. Holders of the capital securities have no voting rights, are unsecured, and rank junior in priority of payment to all of the Company's indebtedness and senior to the Company's capital stock. For regulatory purposes, the trust preferred securities qualify as Tier I capital subject to certain provisions.

Note 6 Stock Plans

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS 123R using the modified retrospective method to account for share-based payments to employees and the Company's Board of Directors. In accordance with the modified retrospective method, the Company has adjusted previously reported results to reflect the effect of expensing stock options granted during those periods.

The cumulative adjustment associated with the adoption of SFAS 123R increased the Company's deferred tax asset $182,000, surplus $1.1 million and decreased retained earnings $901,000 as of December 31, 2005. The results for the second quarter and first 6 months of 2005 were also restated to include additional compensation expense of $185,000 and $234,000, respectively. Net income after tax for the second quarter and first six months of 2005 was decreased by $133,000 and $182,000, respectively, as a result of the restatement.

The primary type of share-based payment utilized by the Company is stock options. Stock options are awards which allow the employee to purchase shares of the Company's stock at a fixed price. Stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the Company stock price at the date of grant. Stock options issued by the Company generally have a contractual term of seven to ten years and vest over five years for non-director options and immediately at the time of issuance for director options. Certain option and share awards provide for accelerated vesting if there is a change in control (as defined by the Plan).

	Shares	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Outstanding at January 1, 2006	223,800	$ 25.41
Granted	20,000	25.05
Exercised	(15,000)	23.19
Forfeited	(24,000)	27.29
Outstanding at June 30, 2006	204,800	$ 25.28	6.99	$ 1,607,239
Exercisable at June 30, 2006	116,900	$ 24.21	5.69	$ 853,201

The Company estimates the fair value of stock option grants using the Black-Scholes valuation model and the key input assumptions are described fully in the disclosure of its critical accounting policies in Item 2 of this report on Form 10-Q. The Company believes that the valuation technique and the approach utilized to develop the underlying assumptions are consistent with SFAS 123R and appropriately estimates the fair value of Centrue's stock option grants. Estimates of fair value are not intended to predict actual future events of the value ultimately realized by employees who receive share-based awards, and subsequent events are not indicative of the reasonableness of original estimates of fair value made by the Company under SFAS 123R. Key assumptions for the 2006 grants are shown below:

Note 7 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 155, Accounting for Certain Hybrid Financial Instruments – an amendment of FASB Statements No. 133 and 140 (FAS 155). FAS 155 permits fair value re-measurement for any hybrid financial instrument that contains an embedded derivative that otherwise would require bifurcation, clarifies which interest-only strips and principal-only strips are not subject to the requirements of Statement 133, establishes a requirement to evaluate interests in securitized financial assets to identify interests that are freestanding derivatives or that are hybrid financial instruments that contain an embedded derivative requiring bifurcation, clarifies that concentrations of credit risk in the form of subordination are not embedded derivatives, and amends Statement 140 to eliminate the prohibition on a qualifying special purpose entity from holding a derivative financial instrument that pertains to a beneficial interest other than another derivative financial instrument. FAS 155 is effective for all financial instruments acquired or issued after the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. The Company does not expect the adoption of FAS 155 to have a material effect on the results of operations or the statement of condition.

In March 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 156 Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets an amendment of FASB Statement No. 140 (FAS 140 and FAS 156). FAS 140 establishes, among other things, the accounting for all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities. This Statement amends FAS 140 to require that all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities be initially measured at fair value, if practicable. This Statement permits, but does not require, the subsequent measurement of separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities at fair value. Under this Statement, an entity can elect subsequent fair value measurement to account for its separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities. Adoption of this Statement is required as of the beginning of the first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. Upon adoption, the Company will apply the requirements for recognition and initial measurement of servicing assets and servicing liabilities prospectively to all transactions. The Company will adopt FAS 156 for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 2007 and currently has not determined if it will adopt FAS 156 using the fair value election.

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting and reporting for income taxes recognized in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. This Interpretation prescribes a comprehensive model for the financial statement recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in income tax returns. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of FIN 48 and is required to adopt this Interpretation in the first quarter of 2007.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting PoliciesNature of Operations

Through Centrue Bank (the Bank), Centrue Financial Corporation (the Company), provides a full range of banking services to individual and corporate customers through its twenty locations throughout Illinois. The Bank is subject to competition from other financial institutions and nonfinancial institutions providing financial products. Additionally, the Company and the Bank are subject to the regulations of certain regulatory agencies and undergo periodic examinations by those regulatory agencies.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bank and the Bank's wholly-owned subsidiary, Centrue Service Corporation. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and conform to predominate practice within the banking industry.

Industry Segment Information

The primary source of income for the Company is interest from the origination of consumer, commercial and real estate mortgage loans along with interest on the investment in securities portfolio. The Company accepts deposits from customers in the normal course of business and within their primary market areas. The Company operates primarily in the banking industry which accounts for more than 99% of its revenues, operating income and assets, with the remaining operations coming from activities of the Centrue Financial Corporation and Centrue Service Corporation. The Company uses the management approach for reporting information about segments in the annual and interim financial statements. The management approach is based on the way the chief operating decision-maker organizes segments within a Company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Reportable segments are based on products and services, geography, legal structure, management structure and any other manner in which management disaggregates a company. Based on the management approach model, the Company has determined that its business is comprised of a single operating segment.

Use of Estimates

In preparing the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management is required to make estimates and assumptions which significantly affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements. Significant estimates which are particularly susceptible to change in a short period of time include the determination of the allowance for loan losses and valuation of mortgage servicing rights, goodwill, deferred tax assets and real estate held for sale. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Comprehensive Income

Accounting principles generally require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains and losses be included in net income. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities, such as unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, are reported as a separate component of the equity section of the balance sheet, such items, along with net income, are components of comprehensive income.

Table of Contents

CENTRUE FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARY

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents represent highly liquid investments with maturities of 90 days or less at the time of purchase and includes cash on hand, due from bank accounts (including cash items in process of clearing), money market funds and federal funds sold. Cash flows from loans, deposits and short-term borrowings are reported net.

Securities

Securities classified as available-for-sale are those securities that the Company intends to hold for an indefinite period of time, but not necessarily to maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale would be based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of the Company's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations and other similar factors. Securities available-for-sale are carried at fair value. The difference between fair value and cost, adjusted for amortization of premium and accretion of discounts, results in an unrealized gain or loss. Unrealized gains or losses are reported as accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of the related deferred tax effect. Gains or losses on the sale of securities are determined on the basis of the specific security sold and are included in earnings. Premiums and discounts are recognized in interest income using the interest method over their contractual lives.

Declines in the fair value of available-for-sale securities below their cost that are deemed to be other than temporary are reflected in earnings as realized losses. In estimating other-than-temporary impairment losses, management considers (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and (3) the intent and ability of the Company to retain its investment in the issuer for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value.

Loans

Loans originated or purchased are identified as either held for sale or portfolio at origination or purchase. Loans held for portfolio are originated or purchased with the intent to hold them to maturity for the purpose of earning interest income. Since the Bank has the ability to hold such loans as intended, they are recorded at cost. Interest is credited to income as earned using the simple interest method applied to the daily balances of the principal outstanding.

The accrual of interest income on loans is discontinued at the time the loan is 90 days past due or earlier when, in the opinion of management, there is reasonable doubt as to the borrower's ability to meet payments of interest or principal when they become due. Interest income on these loans is recognized to the extent interest payments are received and the principal is considered fully collectible.

Loan origination fees and certain direct origination costs are being amortized as an adjustment of the yield over the contractual life of the related loan, adjusted for prepayments, using the interest method.

Loans Held for Sale

Loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of aggregate cost or fair value, as determined by aggregate outstanding commitments from investors or current investor yield requirements. Net unrealized losses are recognized through a valuation allowance by charges to income.

Mortgage loans held for sale are generally sold with the mortgage servicing rights retained by the Company. The carrying value of mortgage loans sold is reduced by the cost allocated to the associated mortgage servicing rights. Gains or losses on sales of mortgage loans are recognized based on the difference between the selling price and the carrying value of the related mortgage loans sold.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses (allowance) is established as losses are estimated to have occurred through a provision for loan losses charged to earnings. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes that the uncollectibility of a loan balance is confirmed. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance.

The allowance is evaluated on a regular basis by management and is based upon management's periodic review of the collectibility of the loans in light of historical experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated values of any underlying collateral and prevailing economic conditions. This evaluation is inherently subjective, as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available.

While management uses the best information available to make its evaluation, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if there are significant changes in economic conditions. In addition, various regulatory agencies periodically review the allowance. These agencies may require the Bank to make additions to the allowance based on their judgments of collectibility based on information available to them at the time of their examination.

A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Loans that experience insignificant payment delays and payment shortfalls generally are not classified as impaired. Management determines the significance of payment delays and payment shortfalls on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding the loan and the borrower, including the length of the delay, the reasons for the delay, the borrower's prior payment record and the amount of the shortfall in relation to the principal and interest owed. Impairment is measured on a loan-by-loan basis for commercial and construction loans by either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, the loan's obtainable market price or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent. Large groups of smaller balance homogenous loans are collectively evaluated for impairment. Accordingly, the Company does not separately identify individual consumer and residential loans for impairment disclosures.

Real Estate Held for Sale

Real estate acquired through foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure represents specific assets to which the Company has acquired legal title in satisfaction of indebtedness. Such real estate is recorded at the lower of property's fair value at the date of foreclosure or cost. Initial valuation adjustments, if any, are charged against the allowance for loan losses. Property is evaluated regularly to ensure the recorded amount is supported by its current fair value. Subsequent declines in estimated fair value are charged to expense when incurred. Revenues and expenses related to holding and operating these properties are included in operations.

Office Properties and Equipment

Office properties and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Estimated lives are 15 to 39 years for buildings and leasehold improvements and 3 to 15 years for furniture and equipment.

Non-Marketable Equity Securities

The Bank, as a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago (the FHLB), is required to maintain an investment in capital stock of the FHLB in an amount equal to 1% of its outstanding home loans.

No ready market exists for the FHLB stock, and it has no quoted market value. For disclosure purposes, such stock is assumed to have a market value which is equal to cost.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of core deposit intangibles from business acquisitions. This amount is amortized into other expense on a straight-line basis over periods of 10 to 15 years. On a periodic basis, the Company reviews the intangible assets for events or circumstances that may indicate a change in recoverability of the underlying basis.

Goodwill

Goodwill resulted from the acquisition of Coal City National Bank in 1998, Aviston Financial Corporation in 2003, Parish Bank & Trust Company in 2004 and Illinois Community Bancorp in 2005. The Coal City amount was originally amortized into expense on a straight-line basis assuming a life of twenty years. The Company performed an annual impairment assessment on all goodwill as of September 30th.

Loan Servicing

The cost of mortgage-servicing rights acquired is amortized in proportion to, and over the period of, estimated net servicing revenues. Impairment of mortgage-servicing rights is assessed based on the fair value of those rights. Fair values are estimated using discounted cash flows based on a current market interest rate. For purposes of measuring impairment, the rights are stratified based on the year of origination and original life and compared to current market interest rates, prepayment speeds and other relevant factors. The amount of impairment recognized is the amount by which the capitalized mortgage servicing rights for a stratum exceeds their fair value.

Income Taxes

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Deferred tax assets are also recognized for operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to an amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Earnings Per Share

Diluted earnings per share are determined by dividing net income for the year by the average number of shares of common stock and dilutive potential common shares outstanding. Dilutive potential common shares assume exercise of stock options and use of proceeds to purchase treasury stock at the average market price for the period.

Stock-Based Employee Compensation

The Company has two stock-based employee compensation plans which are more fully described in Note 14. The Company accounts for its equity awards in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R, Share-based payment (SFAS 123R). SFAS 123R requires public companies to recognize compensation expense related to stock-based equity awards in their income statement. Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment SFAS 123R which amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued Employees. The Company adopted SFAS 123R using the modified retrospective method. The modified retrospective method requires that compensation cost be recognized beginning with the effective date based on the requirements of SFAS 123R for all share-based payments granted after the effective date and based on the requirements of SFAS 123 for all awards granted to employees prior to the effective date of SFAS 123R. The modified retrospective method also allows companies to adjust prior year financials based on the amounts previously reported under the SFAS 123 pro forma disclosures for all prior periods for which SFAS 123 was effective.

Reclassification

Certain amounts in the 2004 and 2003 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2005 presentation. Such reclassifications have no effect on previously reported net income or stockholders' equity.

Note 2. Business Acquisitions

On April 8, 2005, the Company acquired for 50% cash and 50% common stock of the Company, all of the outstanding shares of Illinois Community Bancorp, Inc (ICBI) for a total cost of $4.1 million, including related expenses of $744,000. The acquisition was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. As such, the results of operations of the acquired entity are excluded from the consolidated financial statements of income for the periods prior to the acquisition date. The purchase price has been allocated based on the fair values at the date of acquisition. This allocation resulted in intangible assets of $424,000 and goodwill of $1.9 million. The intangible assets are being amortized over ten years. At closing, ICBI had assets of $29.9 million, including $17.7 million of loans, deposits of $27.8 million and stockholders' equity of $1.3 million. This acquisition was not considered material to the Company as a whole and therefore, proforma information is not included.

On March 5, 2004, the Company acquired for cash all of the outstanding shares of Parish Bank and Trust Company (Parish Bank) for a total cost of $4.5 million, including related expenses of $123,000. The acquisition was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. As such, the results of operations of the acquired entity are excluded from the consolidated financial statements of income for the periods prior to the acquisition date. The purchase price has been allocated based on the fair values at the date of acquisition. This allocation resulted in intangible assets of $774,000 and goodwill of $1.0 million. The intangible assets are being amortized over ten years. At closing, Parish Bank had assets of $21.5 million, including $7.3 million of loans, deposits of $18.5 million and stockholders' equity of $2.9 million. This acquisition was not considered material to the Company as a whole and therefore, proforma information is not included.

On October 9, 2003, the Company acquired for stock all of the outstanding shares of Aviston Financial Corporation (Aviston Financial) for a total cost of $14.1 million. The acquisition has been accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. As such, the results of operations of the acquired entity are excluded from the consolidated financial statements of income for the periods prior to the acquisition date. The purchase price has been allocated based on the fair values at the date of acquisition. This allocation resulted in intangible assets of $358,000 and goodwill of $8.4 million. The intangible assets are being amortized over ten years. At closing, Aviston Financial had assets of $96.5 million, deposits of $80.6 million and stockholders' equity of $9.3 million.

Management evaluates securities for other-than-temporary impairment at least on a quarterly basis, and more frequently when economic or market concerns warrant such evaluation. In estimating other-than-temporary impairment losses, management considers (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and (3) the intent and ability of the Company to retain its investment in the issuer for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value.

The unrealized losses on the Company's investment securities were caused by interest rate increases. The contractual cash flows of the municipal bonds, federal agency and federal agency mortgage backed securities are guaranteed by state agencies or an agency of the U.S. government. Accordingly, it is expected that the securities would not be settled at a price less than the amortized cost of the Company's investment. The Company's corporate bonds are all rated A1 or better by Moody's. Because the decline in market value is attributable to changes in interest rates and not credit quality and because the Company has the ability and intent to hold these investments until a recovery of fair value, which may be maturity, the Company does not consider these investments to be other-than-temporarily impaired at December 31, 2005.

Interest expense on the trust preferred securities was $1.4 million, $851,000 and $558,000 for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The obligations of the trusts are fully and unconditionally guaranteed, on a subordinated basis, by the Company. The trust preferred securities for Trust I are mandatorily redeemable upon the maturity of the debentures on April 7, 2032, or to the extent of any earlier redemption of any debentures by the Company, and are callable beginning April 7, 2007. The trust preferred securities for Trust II are mandatorily redeemable upon the maturity of the debentures on April 22, 2034, or to the extent of any earlier redemption of any debentures by the Company, and are callable beginning April 22, 2009. Holders of the capital securities have no voting rights, are unsecured, and rank junior in priority of payment to all of the Company's indebtedness and senior to the Company's capital stock. For regulatory purposes, the trust preferred securities qualify as Tier I capital subject to certain provisions.

We established statutory trusts for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities and related trust common securities. These trust preferred capital securities are included in our consolidated Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital at December 31, 2005. In December 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued a revised version of Interpretation No. 46 that required the deconsolidation of these statutory trusts by most public companies no later than March 31, 2004. We adopted the revised version of Interpretation No. 46 as of December 31, 2003. In March 2005, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System issued a final rule allowing bank holding companies to continue to include qualifying trust preferred capital securities in their Tier 1 Capital for regulatory capital purposes, subject to a 25% limitation to all core (Tier I) capital elements, net of goodwill less any associated deferred tax liability. The final rule provides a five-year transition period, ending March 31, 2009, for application of the aforementioned quantitative limitation. As of December 31, 2005, 100% of the trust preferred securities described in Note 13 of our audited consolidated financial statements qualified as Tier I capital under the final rule adopted in March 2005.

Junior subordinated debt owed to unconsolidated trusts are included in the period of their modified duration, rather than the period in which they are due. Subordinated debt of $10 million mature in both 2032 and 2034 but are callable in 2007 and 2009.

Retained earnings at December 31, 2005 and 2004 included approximately $9.0 million of the tax bad debt reserve which accumulated prior to 1988, for which no deferred income tax liability has been recognized. This amount represents an allocation of income to bad debt deductions for tax purposes only. Reduction of amounts so allocated for purposes other than tax bad debt losses or adjustments arising from carryback of net operating losses would create income for tax purposes only, which would be subject to the then-current corporate income tax rate. The unrecorded deferred income tax liability on the above amounts was approximately $3.1 million as of December 31, 2005 and 2004.

As of December 31, 2005, the Company had Illinois net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $8.1 million for income tax purposes. The difference between book and tax net operating income results from interest income from certain investments which is exempt from income tax for state income tax purposes. The net operating loss carryforwards expire through 2015.

At December 31, 2005, the Company also had Federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $2.8 million for income tax purposes which expire through 2024.

Due to limitations inherent in the tax laws regarding utilization of net operating losses and uncertainty as to the Company's ability to utilize the net operating losses before they expire, the Company has established valuation allowances of $963,000 and $229,000 against the federal and state net operating losses, respectively.

Note 13. Stockholders Equity and Regulatory Capital

The Company (on a consolidated basis) and the Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal and state banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company and the Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Company and the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The Company and the Bank's capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors. Prompt corrective action provisions are not applicable to bank holding companies.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the table below) of Tier 1 capital (as defined by the regulations) to average assets (as defined) and Total and Tier I capital (as defined) to risk-weighted assets (as defined). Management believes, as of December 31, 2005, that the Company and the Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which it is subject.

As of December 31, 2005, the most recent notification from the Bank's primary regulators, categorized the Bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized, the Bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the table below. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed the Bank's category.

A liquidation account in the amount of $17.7 million was established for the benefit of eligible deposit account holders who continue to maintain their deposit accounts in the Bank after the December 30, 1992 conversion from a mutual savings and loan association to a stock savings bank. In the unlikely event of a complete liquidation of the Bank, each eligible deposit account holder would be entitled to receive a liquidation distribution from the liquidation account, in the proportionate amount of the then-current adjusted balance for deposit accounts held, before any distribution may be made with respect to the Bank's capital stock. The Bank may not declare or pay a cash dividend to the Company on, or repurchase any of, its capital stock if the effect thereof would cause the net worth of the Bank to be reduced below the amount required for the liquidation account. Due to various natural events, such as death, relocation and general attrition of accounts, the balance in the liquidation account has been reduced to $861,000 as of

Federal and state banking regulations place certain restrictions on dividends paid by the Bank to the Company. At December 31, 2005, the Bank's retained earnings available for payment of dividends was $481,000. In addition, dividends paid by the Bank to the Company would be prohibited if the effect thereof would cause the Bank's capital to be reduced below applicable minimum capital requirements.

Note 14. Officer, Director and Employee Plans401(k) Savings Plan

The Bank sponsors a qualified, tax-exempt deferred contribution plan qualifying under section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code (the 401(k) Plan). Virtually all employees are eligible to participate after meeting certain age and service requirements. Eligible employees are permitted to contribute 1% to 50% of their compensation to the 401(k) Plan. The Company also has the option to contribute discretionary profit sharing contributions. Expense related to the 401(k) Plan, including plan administration, amounted to approximately $159,000, $108,000 and $309,000, for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The Company formerly had an Employee Stock Ownership (the ESOP) plan which during 2004, was merged into the Company's 401(k) Plan. All participant balances were considered 100% vested upon the merger. During 2003, the Company made a direct cash contribution totaling $120,000, to the ESOP. Costs related to the merger of the ESOP into the 401(k) during 2004 amounted to approximately $17,000.

Stock Option Plan

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted SFAS 123R using the modified retrospective method to account for share-based payments to employees and the Company's Board of Directors. In accordance with the modified retrospective method, the Company has adjusted previously reported results to reflect the effect of expensing stock options granted during those periods.

The following table summarizes the impact of modified retrospective application on the previously reported results for the period shown:

	2005	2004	2003

The primary type of share-based payment utilized by the Company is stock options. Stock options are awards which allow the employee to purchase shares of the Company's stock at a fixed price. Stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the Company's stock price at the date of grant. Stock options issued by the Company generally have a contractual term of seven to ten years and vest over five years for non-director options and immediately at the time of issuance for director options. Certain option and share awards provide for accelerated vesting if there is a change in control (as defined by the Plan).

Activity in the stock option plan was as follows:

The fair value of the stock options granted in 2005, 2004 and 2003 has been estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions. The Black-Scholes option-pricing model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions. In addition, such models require the use of subjective assumptions, including expected stock price volatility. In management's opinion, such valuation models may not necessarily provide the best single measure of option value.

A summary of the Company's nonvested option shares as of December 31, 2005, and changes during the year period ended December 31, 2005, is presented below:

	Shares	Weighted-Average Grant Date Fair Value
Nonvested at January 1, 2005	81,500	$ 24.72

As of December 31, 2005 there was $450,000 of unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested option-based compensation arrangements. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 4 years.

Stockholders Rights Plan

On May 14, 1999, the Company's Board of Directors adopted a Stockholders Rights Plan. The Plan provided for the distribution of one Right on June 15, 1999, for each share of the Company's outstanding common stock as of May 24, 1999. The Rights have no immediate economic value to stockholders because they cannot be exercised unless and until a person, group or entity acquires 15% or more of the Company's common stock or announces a tender offer. The Plan also permits the Company's Board of Directors to redeem each Right for one cent under various circumstances.

In general, the Rights Plan provides that if a person, group or entity acquires a 15% or larger stake in the Company or announces a tender offer, and the Company's Board chooses not to redeem the Rights, all holders of Rights, other than the 15% stockholder or the tender offeror, will be able to purchase a certain amount of the Company's common stock for half of its market price.

Restricted Stock Awards

During 2005 and 2004, the Company issued restricted stock awards to certain employees and directors. The shares vest from one to five-year periods. As the shares vest, they will be charged to compensation expense at the market price at date of grant.

	Number of Shares
	2005	2004	2003

Forfeited and reissuable	(750)	(5,050)
Under restriction, end of year	14,750	19,750	27,800

Compensation expense is recognized for financial statement purposes over the period of performance. Compensation expense of $209,000 and $225,000 was recognized for the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2004. No compensation expense was recognized for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company has a deferred compensation plan for nonemployee directors of the Company in which a participating director may defer directors' fees in the form of phantom stock units. For directors electing to participate in the plan, a deferred compensation account, included in other liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet, is credited with phantom stock units. Phantom stock units shall also be increased by any dividends or stock splits declared by the Company. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the liability for deferred compensation was $268,000 and $101,000 which represented approximately 10,149 and 3,585 phantom stock units, respectively.

Note 15. Commitments and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, there are outstanding various contingent liabilities such as claims and legal actions, which are not reflected in the consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of these matters is not expected to have a material effect on the financial position or on the results of operations of the Company and its subsidiary.

Note 16. Financial Instruments

The Bank is party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit, standby letters of credit, and financial guarantees. Those instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk. The contract or notional amounts of those instruments reflect the extent of involvement the Bank has in particular classes of financial instruments.

The Bank's exposure to credit loss, in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instruments for commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit, is represented by the contractual notional amount of those instruments. The Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments.

Financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk follows:

	December 31,
	2005	2004
	(In thousands)
Commitments to originate new loans	$ 3,787	$ 10,694
Commitments to extend credit	56,873	48,121
Standby letters of credit	4,508	2,750

Such commitments are recorded in the financial statements when they are funded or related fees are incurred or received. These commitments are principally at variable interest rates.

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements.

Standby letters of credit written are conditional commitments issued by the bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those guarantees are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements, including commercial paper, bond financing, and similar transactions. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. In the event the customer does not perform in accordance with the terms of the agreement with the third party, the Bank would be required to fund the commitment. The maximum potential amount of future payments the Bank could be required to make is represented by the contractual amount shown in the summary above. If the commitment is funded, the Bank would be entitled to seek recovery from the customer. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, no amounts have been recorded as liabilities for the Bank's potential obligations under these guarantees.

The Company and the Bank do not engage in the use of interest rate swaps, futures, forwards, or option contracts.

Accrued interest payable	2,035	2,035	568	568

The fair values utilized in the table were derived using the information described below for the group of instruments listed. It should be noted that the fair values disclosed in this table do not represent market values of all assets and liabilities of the Company and, thus, should not be interpreted to represent a market or liquidation value for the Company.

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating the fair value disclosures for financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents and certificates of deposit: The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for cash and short-term instruments approximate those assets' fair values.

Investment securities: Fair values for securities are based on quoted market prices, where available. If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on quoted market prices of comparable instruments. The carrying amounts of accrued interest approximate their fair values.

Nonmarketable equity securities: Those securities are carried at cost, as fair values are not readily determinable.

Loans: For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and with no significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. The fair values for fixed-rate loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality. The carrying amounts of accrued interest approximate their fair value.

Loans held for sale: Fair values are based on quoted market price.

Off-balance-sheet instruments: Fair values for the Bank's off-balance-sheet instruments (guarantees and loan commitments) are based on fees currently charged to enter into similar agreements, taking into account the remaining terms of the agreements and the counterparties' credit standing. The fair value for such commitments is nominal.

Deposits: The fair values disclosed for demand deposits are, by definition, equal to the amount payable on demand at the balance sheet date. The carrying amounts for variable-rate, fixed-term money market accounts approximate their fair values at the balance sheet date. Fair values for fixed-rate certificates of deposit are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered on certificates to a schedule of aggregated expected monthly maturities on time deposits. The carrying amounts of advance payments by borrowers for taxes and insurance approximate their fair value.

Short-term borrowings: The carrying amounts of federal funds purchased, securities sold under repurchase agreements, and other short-term borrowings maturing within ninety days approximate their fair values.

Long-term borrowings: Rates currently available to the Company for debt with similar terms and remaining maturities are used to estimate fair value of existing debt. The Trust Preferred Debentures are privately held; therefore the carrying amount approximates fair value.

Accrued interest payable: The carrying amounts of accrued interest payable approximate their fair value.

Note 18. Sale of Branch

On February 14, 2003, the Company sold its Hoopston bank branch at a premium resulting in a gain of $478,000. The branch had approximately $6.4 million in loans and $19.4 million in deposits.

(f) a copy of the charter of Centrue Bank certified by the Department and dated not more than ten Business Days prior to the Closing Date;

(g) a certificate of the Secretary of Centrue Bank dated the Closing Date certifying a copy of the bylaws of Centrue Bank and stating that there have been no further amendments to the charter of Centrue Bank delivered pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph of this Section;

(h) a certificate executed by Centrue dated the Closing Date stating that: (i) all of the representations and warranties of Centrue set forth in this Agreement, when read without regard to any qualification as to materiality or material Adverse Effect contained therein, are true and correct with the same force and effect as if all of such representations and warranties were made at the Closing Date (provided, however, that to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, such representations and warranties shall be true and correct on and as of such earlier date), except for any untrue or incorrect representations or warranties that individually or in the aggregate do not have a Material Adverse Effect on Centrue on a consolidated basis or on Union s or its stockholders rights or interests under this Agreement; and (ii) all of the covenants and obligations to be performed or complied with by Centrue under the terms of this Agreement on or prior to the Closing Date, when read without regard to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect contained therein, have been performed or complied with by Centrue, except where any non-performance or noncompliance would not have a Material Adverse Effect on Centrue on a consolidated basis or on Union s or its stockholders rights or interests under this Agreement; and

(i) a list of all holders of Centrue Common Stock as of the Closing Date and a list of all Persons as of the Closing Date who, to the Knowledge of Centrue, have the right at any time to acquire shares of Centrue Common Stock, certified in each case by the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary of Centrue;

(j) a copy of the tax opinion described in Section 10.10; and

(k) such other documents as Union may reasonably request.

All of such items shall be reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to Union and its counsel.

Section 2.10 Bank Merger. The parties understand that it is the present intention of Union at or after the Effective Time to effect the Bank Merger. Union and Centruce agree to cooperate and to take such steps as may be necessary to obtain all requisite regulatory, corporate and other approvals to effect the Bank Merger, subject to the consummation of, and to be effective concurrently with, the Merger or as soon as practicable thereafter. The resulting bank shall be Union, provided, however, that the name of the Resulting Bank will be Centrue Bank. In furtherance of such agreement, each of Centrue and Union agrees:

(a) respectively, to cause the board of directors of each of Centrue Bank and UnionBank to approve the Bank Merger and to submit the same to its respective sole stockholder for approval;

(b) respectively, to vote the shares of stock of Centrue Bank and UnionBank owned by them in favor of the Bank Merger; and

(c) to take, or cause to be taken, all steps necessary to consummate the Bank Merger at the Effective Time or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable.

The Bank Merger shall be accomplished pursuant to a merger agreement containing such terms and conditions as are ordinary and customary for affiliated bank merger transactions of such type. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary: (x) the Bank Merger will be effective no earlier than the Effective Time; and (y) none of Union's or Centrue's actions in connection with the Bank Merger will unreasonably interfere with any of the operations of Centrue, Centrue Bank, Union or UnionBank prior to the Effective Time.

Section 2.11 Absence of Control. Subject to any specific provisions of this Agreement, it is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that neither Union nor Centrue by reason of this Agreement shall be deemed (until consummation of the Contemplated Transactions) to control, directly or indirectly, the other party or any of its respective Subsidiaries and shall not exercise, or be deemed to exercise, directly or indirectly, a controlling influence over the management or policies of such other party or any of its respective Subsidiaries.

CONVERSION OF SECURITIES IN THE MERGER

Section 3.1 Manner of Merger.

(a) By virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Union, each share of Union Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be unaffected by the Merger and shall thereafter represent one share of stock of the Surviving Corporation. By virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Union, each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, no par value (the Series A Stock), and each share of Series B Preferred Stock, no par value (the Series B Stock), of Union issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be unaffected by the Merger and shall thereafter represent one share of Series A Stock or Series B Stock, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of this Article, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Union or Centrue, or the holder of any Centrue Common Stock, each share of Centrue Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, including each share of Centrue Common Stock that is to be paid out at the Effective Time under the Centrue Deferred Compensation Plan, shall become and automatically be converted into 1.2 shares of Union Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio), and shall thereafter represent the right to receive and be exchangeable for such number of shares, rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share of Union Common Stock (the Exchange Shares); provided, however, that all shares of Centrue Common Stock held by Centrue as treasury stock shall not be converted into shares of Union Common Stock, but instead shall be canceled as a result of the Merger.

(c) After the Effective Time, no holder of Centrue Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will have any rights in respect of such Centrue Common Stock except to receive shares of Union Common Stock for the shares of Centrue Common Stock converted as provided in this Section, plus an amount in cash, as provided below, for any fractional share of Union Common Stock that such holder would have been entitled to receive.

(d) If, subject to Section 7.15, Union declares a stock dividend, stock split or other general distribution of Union Common Stock to holders of Union Common Stock and the ex-dividend or ex-distribution date for such stock dividend, stock split or distribution occurs at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Closing, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted by multiplying it by a fraction: (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Union Common Stock outstanding immediately after such dividend, split or distribution; and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the total number of shares of Union Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such dividend, split, or distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to Section 7.15, no adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio: (A) in the event of the issuance of additional shares of Union Common Stock pursuant to the grant or sale of shares to, or for the account of, employees of Union pursuant to the Union Stock Option Plans, or Union's qualified and non-qualified retirement and dividend reinvestment plans; or (B) in the event of the issuance of additional shares of Union Common Stock or other securities pursuant to a public offering, private placement or an acquisition of one or more banks, corporations or business assets for consideration which the board of directors, or a duly authorized committee of the board of directors, of Union in its reasonable business judgment determines to be fair and reasonable.

(e) If, subject to Section 6.12, Centruce declares a stock dividend, stock split or other general distribution of Centruce Common Stock to holders of Centruce Common Stock and the ex-dividend or ex-distribution date for such stock dividend, stock split or distribution occurs at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Closing, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted by multiplying it by a fraction: (i) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Centruce Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such dividend, split or distribution; and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the total number of shares of Centruce Common Stock outstanding immediately after such dividend, split, or distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to Section 6.12, no adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio: (A) in the event of the issuance of additional shares of Centruce Common Stock pursuant to the grant or sale of shares to, or for the account of, employees of Centruce pursuant to the Centruce Stock Incentive Plan, or Centruce's qualified and non-qualified retirement and dividend reinvestment plans; or (B) in the event of the issuance of additional shares of Centruce Common Stock or other securities pursuant to a public offering, private placement or an acquisition of one or more banks, corporations or business assets for consideration which the board of directors, or a duly authorized committee of the board of directors, of Centruce in its reasonable business judgment determines to be fair and reasonable.

(a) The parties shall mutually select a Person to serve as exchange agent (the Exchange Agent) for the parties to effect the surrender of certificates representing outstanding shares of Centruce Common Stock (the Certificates) in exchange for Union Common Stock and/or cash in redemption of fractional shares. The Exchange Agent shall serve under the terms of an exchange agent agreement reasonably acceptable to both parties. No later than five Business Days after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail or cause to be mailed to each then current holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates a form of transmittal letter (the Letter of Transmittal) providing instructions for the transmittal of the Certificates and shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates (or a lost certificate affidavit and a bond in a form reasonably acceptable to the Surviving Corporation).

(b) The Surviving Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to deliver promptly to each holder of Centruce Common Stock who submits a properly completed Letter of Transmittal accompanied by the Certificates covered by such Letter of Transmittal: (i) certificates representing the number of whole shares of Union Common Stock into which the shares of Centruce Common Stock previously represented by the Certificates so surrendered were converted; plus (ii) an amount in cash, as provided below, for any fractional share of Union Common Stock that such holder would have been entitled to receive.

(c) Within sixty days after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to send to each holder of record of Centruce Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time who has not previously submitted his or her Certificates, an additional Letter of Transmittal for use in surrendering Certificates to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting such surrender in exchange for shares of Union Common Stock and cash for any fractional shares.

(d) No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to Union Common Stock and payable in respect of shares of Centru Common Stock held by any former stockholder of record of Centru shall be paid to a former stockholder of Centru who holds any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to Centru Common Stock until the stockholder shall surrender the Certificate. Until so surrendered and exchanged, each outstanding Certificate shall for all purposes, including the exercise of voting rights, but not including the payment of dividends or other distributions, if any, in respect of shares of Centru Common Stock held by former holders of record of shares of Centru Common Stock, represent the shares of Union Common Stock into and for which such shares have been so converted; provided, however, that upon surrender of a Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder or holders of the Certificate, the amount, without interest thereon, of such dividends and other distributions, if any, which previously have become payable with respect to the number of whole shares of Union Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

(e) No fractional shares of Union Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates; no dividend or distribution of Union shall relate to any fractional share interest; and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of Union. Instead, each holder of shares of Centru Common Stock having a fractional interest in shares of Union Common Stock arising upon the conversion of such shares of Centru Common Stock shall, at the time of surrender of the Certificates, be paid by the Surviving Corporation an amount in cash, without interest, determined by multiplying such fractional share of Union Common Stock by the average of the closing sale prices of Union Common Stock for the five trading days immediately following the Closing Date.

(f) All shares of Union Common Stock, and any required cash payments for fractional shares, into and for which shares of Centru Common Stock shall have been converted and exchanged pursuant to this Agreement, shall be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such converted and exchanged shares of Centru Common Stock.

(g) At the Effective Time, Centru shall deliver to the Exchange Agent a certified copy of a list of its stockholders, after which there shall be no further registration or transfers on the stock transfer books of Centru of the shares of Centru Common Stock, all of which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If after the Effective Time Certificates representing shares of Centru Common Stock are presented to the Exchange Agent or Union, they shall be canceled and converted into shares of Union Common Stock as provided in this Agreement.

(h) If a certificate representing shares of Union Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to Union any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of Union Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or otherwise required, or shall establish to the satisfaction of Union that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

Section 3.3 Tax Free Reorganization. The parties to this Agreement intend for the Merger to qualify as a nontaxable reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) and related sections of the Code and agree to cooperate and to take such actions as may be reasonably necessary to ensure such result and no party shall file any Tax Return or take any action or position inconsistent therewith, except as required pursuant to any Legal Requirement.

Section 3.4 Options: Restricted Stock.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, Centru shall take all action necessary (including causing the board of directors or any committee thereof to take such actions as are allowed by the Centru Stock Incentive Plan) to provide that each Centru Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than any Centru Stock Options that are granted as provided in the Daiber Employment Agreement or in Exhibit G, shall vest upon the Effective Time and become free of all restrictions. At and after the Effective Time, each Centru Stock Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior thereto shall cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Centruie Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into an option to acquire shares of Union Common Stock (the Centruie Converted Stock Options) in an amount and at an exercise price determined as provided below and otherwise subject to the terms of the agreements evidencing the grants of such options:

(i) the number of shares of Union Common Stock to be subject to each Centruie Converted Stock Option shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of Centruie Common Stock subject to the original option and the Exchange Ratio, provided that any fractional shares of Union Common Stock shall be rounded up to the next highest whole share; and

(ii) the exercise price per share of Union Common Stock under the Centruie Converted Stock Option shall be equal to the exercise price per share of Centruie Common Stock under the original option divided by the Exchange Ratio, provided that such exercise price shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent;

(b) The adjustment provided in this Section with respect to any options that are incentive stock options (as defined in Section 422 of the Code), shall be and is intended to be effected in a manner which is consistent with Section 424(a) of the Code. The duration and other terms of the Centruie Converted Stock Options shall be the same as the original option except that all references to Centruie shall be deemed to be references to the Surviving Corporation.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Centruie shall take all action necessary (including causing the board of directors or any committee thereof to take such actions as are allowed by the Centruie Stock Incentive Plan) to provide that each share of Centruie Restricted Stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall vest upon the Effective Time and become free of all restrictions. At the Effective Time, each share of Centruie Restricted Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive the Exchange Shares as provided in and in accordance with the terms set forth in Section 3.1.

(d) Prior to the Effective Time, Union shall take all action necessary (including causing the board of directors or any committee thereof to take such actions as are allowed by the Union Stock Option Plans) to provide that each Union Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than any Union Stock Options that are granted as provided in the Yeoman Employment Agreement, the Stevenson Employment Agreement or in Exhibit G, shall vest upon the Effective Time and become free of all restrictions. At and after the Effective Time, each Union Stock Option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior thereto shall otherwise be unaffected by the Merger and shall thereafter continue to represent a right to acquire shares of Union Common Stock subject to the terms of the agreements evidencing the grants of such options.

Section 4.2 Centrue Subsidiary Organization. Centrue Bank is an Illinois commercial bank duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Illinois. Each other Centrue Subsidiary is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing in its state or jurisdiction of organization. Each Centrue Subsidiary has full power and authority, corporate and otherwise, to own, operate and lease its properties as presently owned, operated and leased, and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, and is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted or the properties or assets owned or leased by it makes such qualification necessary. The copies of the charter (or similar organizational documents) and bylaws of each Centrue Subsidiary and all amendments thereto set forth on Schedule 4.2 are complete and correct.

Section 4.3 Authorization: Enforceability.

(a) Centrue has the requisite corporate power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Centrue, and the consummation by it of its obligations under this Agreement, have been authorized by all necessary corporate action, subject to stockholder approval, and this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Centrue enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws affecting creditors' right generally and subject to general principles of equity.

(b) Except for ordinary corporate requirements, no business combination, moratorium, control share or other state anti-takeover statute or regulation or any provisions contained in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Centrue or any Centrue Subsidiary: (i) prohibits or restricts Centrue's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, or its ability to consummate the Contemplated Transactions; (ii) would have the effect of invalidating or voiding this Agreement, or any provision hereof; or (iii) would subject Centrue to any material impediment or condition in connection with the exercise of any of its rights under this Agreement. The board of directors of Centrue has unanimously approved the execution of, and performance by Centrue of its obligations under, this Agreement.

(c) Centrue has taken all action that may be necessary (including amending the Centrue Rights Agreement, a complete and correct copy of which amendment has been delivered to Union) so that: (i) neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any agreements delivered in connection with this Agreement, nor any amendments thereto approved by the board of directors of Centrue prior to the termination of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, including the Merger, shall cause: (A) Union to become an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Centrue Rights Agreement); (B) the occurrence of a Distribution Date (as defined in the Centrue Rights Agreement); (C) the occurrence of a Flip-In Event (as defined in the Centrue Rights Agreement); or (D) the occurrence of a Stock Acquisition Date (as defined in the Centrue Rights Agreement); and (ii) the rights issuable under the Centrue Rights Plan shall expire upon the Effective Time.

Section 4.4 No Conflict. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.4, neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation or performance of any of the Contemplated Transactions will, directly or indirectly (with or without notice or lapse of time): (a) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation of any provision of the certificate of incorporation or charter (or similar organizational documents) or bylaws, each as in effect on the date hereof, or any currently effective resolution adopted by the board of directors or stockholders of, Centrue or any Centrue Subsidiary; (b) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation of, or give any Regulatory Authority or other Person the valid and enforceable right to challenge any of the Contemplated Transactions or to exercise any remedy or obtain any relief under, any Legal Requirement or any Order to which Centrue or any Centrue Subsidiary, or any of their respective assets that are owned or used by them, may be subject, except for any contravention, conflict or violation that is permissible by virtue of obtaining the regulatory approvals necessitated by the Contemplated Transactions, including any such approvals under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the FDI Act), the BHCA, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the DGCL, the laws of the State of Illinois (the Illinois Statutes), including the Illinois Banking Act (the Illinois Banking Act), and the listing rules of the Nasdaq National Market (the Nasdaq Rules); (c) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation or breach of any provision of, or give any Person the right to declare a default or exercise any remedy under, or to accelerate the maturity or performance of, or to cancel, terminate or modify any material Contract to which Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary is a party or by which any of their respective assets is bound; or (d) result in the creation of any material lien, charge or encumbrance upon or with respect to any of the assets owned or used by Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary. Except for the approvals referred to in Section 8.1 and the requisite approval of its stockholders, neither Centruie nor any Centruie Subsidiary is or will be required to give any notice to or obtain any consent from any Person in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation or performance of any of the Contemplated Transactions.

(b) None of the shares of Centruie Common Stock were issued in violation of any federal or state securities laws or any other Legal Requirement. To the Knowledge of Centruie and except as disclosed in this Agreement or on the Centruie Schedules, none of the shares of authorized capital stock of Centruie are, nor on the Closing Date will they be, subject to any claim of right inconsistent with this Agreement. Except as contemplated in this Agreement or as set forth on Schedule 4.5, there are, as of the date of this Agreement, no outstanding subscriptions, contracts, conversion privileges, options, warrants, calls or other rights obligating Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary to issue, sell or otherwise dispose of, or to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, any shares of capital stock of Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary, and Centruie is not a party to any Contract relating to the issuance, sale or transfer of any equity securities or other securities of Centruie. Since December 31, 2003, except as disclosed in or permitted by this Agreement or as provided on Schedule 4.5, no shares of Centruie capital stock have been purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired, directly or indirectly, by Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary and no dividends or other distributions payable in any equity securities of Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary have been declared, set aside, made or paid to the stockholders of Centruie.

Section 4.6 Centruie Subsidiary Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of Centruie Bank consists, and immediately prior to the Effective Time, will consist exclusively of 3,000 shares of capital stock, $100.00 par value per share (the Centruie Bank Shares), all of which shares are, and immediately prior to the Closing will be, duly authorized, validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.6, Centruie is, and will be on the Closing Date, the record and beneficial owner of 100% of the Centruie Bank Shares and all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of each other Centruie Subsidiary, free and clear of any lien or encumbrance whatsoever. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.6, the Centruie Bank Shares are, and will be on the Closing Date, freely transferable and are, and will be on the Closing Date, subject to no claim of right inconsistent with this Agreement. There are no unexpired or pending preemptive rights with respect to any shares of capital stock of any Centruie Subsidiary, except for such rights held exclusively by Centruie. There are no outstanding securities of any Centruie Subsidiary that are convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of such Centruie Subsidiary's capital stock, except for such rights held exclusively by Centruie, and no Centruie Subsidiary is a party to any Contract relating to the issuance, sale or transfer of any equity securities or other securities of such Centruie Subsidiary. Neither Centruie nor any Centruie Subsidiary owns or has any Contract to acquire any equity securities or other securities of any Person or any direct or indirect equity or ownership interest in any other business, except for the capital stock of Centruie Bank and as set forth on Schedule 4.6.

Section 4.7 Financial Statements and Reports. True, correct and complete copies of the following financial statements and reports are included on Schedule 4.7:

(c) Call Reports for Centru e Bank as of the close of business on December 31, 2003, 2004 and 2005, and on March 31, 2006.

The financial statements described in clause (a) have been prepared in conformity with GAAP and comply in all material respects with all applicable Legal Requirements. The reports described in clauses (b) and (c) above have been prepared on a basis consistent with past accounting practices and as required by applicable Legal Requirements and fairly present the consolidated financial condition and results of operations at the dates and for the periods presented. Taken together, the financial statements and reports described in clauses (a), (b) and (c) above (collectively, the Centru e Financial Statements) are complete and correct in all respects and fairly and accurately present the respective financial position, assets, liabilities and results of operations of Centru e and the Centru e Subsidiaries at the respective dates of and for the periods referred to in the Centru e Financial Statements, subject to normal year-end non-material audit adjustments in the case of unaudited Centru e Financial Statements. The Centru e Financial Statements do not include any material assets or omit to state any material liabilities, absolute or contingent, or other facts, which inclusion or omission would render the Centru e Financial Statements misleading in any material respect as of the respective dates and for the periods referred to in the respective Centru e Financial Statements.

Section 4.8 Books and Records. The books of account, minute books, stock record books and other records of Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary are complete and correct in all material respects and have been maintained in accordance with Centru e s business practices and all applicable Legal Requirements, including the maintenance of any adequate system of internal controls required by the Legal Requirements. The minute books of Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary contain accurate and complete records in all material respects of all meetings held of, and corporate action taken by, its respective stockholders, boards of directors and committees of the boards of directors. At the Closing, all of those books and records will be in the possession of Centru e and the Centru e Subsidiaries. Centru e has provided Union with full and complete access to unredacted copies of all finally approved minutes of the meetings of Centru e s board of directors held in 2005 and 2006.

Section 4.9 Title to Properties. Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary has good and marketable title to all assets and properties, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, that it purports to own, subject to no valid liens, mortgages, security interests, encumbrances or charges of any kind except: (a) as noted in the most recent Centru e Financial Statement or on Schedule 4.9; (b) statutory liens for Taxes not yet delinquent or being contested in good faith by appropriate Proceedings and for which appropriate reserves have been established and reflected on the Centru e Financial Statements; (c) pledges or liens required to be granted in connection with the acceptance of government deposits, granted in connection with repurchase or reverse repurchase agreements, pursuant to borrowings from Federal Home Loan Banks or otherwise incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business; and (d) minor defects and irregularities in title and encumbrances that do not materially impair the use thereof for the purposes for which they are held. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.9, Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary as lessee has the right under valid and existing leases to occupy, use, possess and control any and all of the respective property leased by it. Except where any failure would not be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Centru e on a consolidated basis, all buildings and structures owned by Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary lie wholly within the boundaries of the real property owned or validly leased by it, and do not encroach upon the property of, or otherwise conflict with the property rights of, any other Person

Section 4.10 Condition and Sufficiency of Assets. The buildings, structures and equipment of Centru e and each Centru e Subsidiary are structurally sound, are in good operating condition and repair, and are adequate for the uses to which they are being put, and none of such buildings, structures or equipment is in need of maintenance or repairs except for ordinary, routine maintenance and repairs that are not material in the aggregate in nature or in cost. Except where any failure would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Centruie on a consolidated basis, the real property, buildings, structures and equipment owned or leased by Centruie and each Centruie Subsidiary are in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and all other building and development codes and other restrictions, including subdivision regulations, building and construction regulations, drainage codes, health, fire and safety laws and regulations, utility tariffs and regulations, conservation laws and zoning laws and ordinances. The assets and properties, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, that Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary purport to own or lease are sufficient for the continued conduct of the business of Centruie and each Centruie Subsidiary after the Closing in substantially the same manner as conducted prior to the Closing.

Section 4.11 Loans; Loan Loss Reserve. All loans and loan commitments extended by Centruie Bank and any extensions, renewals or continuations of such loans and loan commitments (the Centruie Loans) were made materially in accordance with the lending policies of Centruie Bank in the Ordinary Course of Business. The Centruie Loans are evidenced by appropriate and sufficient documentation and constitute valid and binding obligations to Centruie Bank enforceable in accordance with their terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity. All such Centruie Loans are, and at the Closing will be, free and clear of any encumbrance or other charge, except for pledges or liens required to be granted pursuant to borrowings from Federal Home Loan Banks, and Centruie Bank has complied, and at the Closing will have complied with all Legal Requirements relating to such Centruie Loans, except where any such failure to comply would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Centruie on a consolidated basis. The allowance for loan and lease losses of Centruie Bank is and will be on the Closing Date adequate in all material respects to provide for possible or specific losses, net of recoveries relating to loans previously charged off, and contains and will contain an additional amount of unallocated reserves for unanticipated future losses at an adequate level. To the Knowledge of Centruie: (a) none of the Centruie Loans is subject to any material offset or claim of offset; and (b) the aggregate loan balances in excess of Centruie's consolidated allowance for loan and lease losses are, based on past loan loss experience, collectible in accordance with their terms and all uncollectible loans have been charged off.

Section 4.12 Undisclosed Liabilities; Adverse Changes. operations of Union and the Union Subsidiaries at the respective dates of and for the periods referred to in the Union Financial Statements, subject to normal year-end non-material audit adjustments in the case of unaudited Union Financial Statements. The Union Financial Statements do not include any material assets or omit to state any material liabilities, absolute or contingent, or other facts, which inclusion or omission would render the Union Financial Statements misleading in any material respect as of the respective dates and for the periods referred to in the respective Union Financial Statements.

Section 5.8 Books and Records. The books of account, minute books, stock record books and other records of Union and each Union Subsidiary are complete and correct in all material respects and have been maintained in accordance with Union's business practices and all applicable Legal Requirements, including the maintenance of any adequate system of internal controls required by the Legal Requirements. The minute books of Union and each Union Subsidiary contain accurate and complete records in all material respects of all meetings held of, and corporate action taken by, its respective stockholders, boards of directors and committees of the boards of directors. At the Closing, all of those books and records will be in the possession of Union and the Union Subsidiaries. Union has provided Centruw with full and complete access to unredacted copies of all finally approved minutes of the meetings of Union's board of directors held in 2005 and 2006.

Section 5.9 Title to Properties. Union and each Union Subsidiary has good and marketable title to all assets and properties, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, that it purports to own, subject to no valid liens, mortgages, security interests, encumbrances or charges of any kind except: (a) as noted in the most recent Union Financial Statement or on Schedule 5.9; (b) statutory liens for Taxes not yet delinquent or being contested in good faith by appropriate Proceedings and for which appropriate reserves have been established and reflected on the Union Financial Statements; (c) pledges or liens required to be granted in connection with the acceptance of government deposits, granted in connection with repurchase or reverse repurchase agreements, pursuant to borrowings from Federal Home Loan Banks or Federal Reserve Banks or otherwise incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business; and (d) minor defects and irregularities in title and encumbrances that do not materially impair the use thereof for the purposes for which they are held. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.9, Union and each Union Subsidiary as lessee has the right under valid and existing leases to occupy, use, possess and control any and all of the respective property leased by it. Except where any failure would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis, all buildings and structures owned by Union and each Union Subsidiary lie wholly within the boundaries of the real property owned or validly leased by it, and do not encroach upon the property of, or otherwise conflict with the property rights of, any other Person.

Section 5.10 Condition and Sufficiency of Assets. The buildings, structures and equipment of Union and each Union Subsidiary are structurally sound, are in good operating condition and repair, and are adequate for the uses to which they are being put, and none of such buildings, structures or equipment is in need of maintenance or repairs except for ordinary, routine maintenance and repairs that are not material in the aggregate in nature or in cost. Except where any failure would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis, the real property, buildings, structures and equipment owned or leased by Union and each Union Subsidiary are in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and all other building and development codes and other restrictions, including subdivision regulations, building and construction regulations, drainage codes, health, fire and safety laws and regulations, utility tariffs and regulations, conservation laws and zoning laws and ordinances. Section 5.11 Loan Loss Reserve. All loans and loan commitments extended by UnionBank and any extensions, renewals or continuations of such loans and loan commitments (the Union Loans) were made materially in accordance with the lending policies of UnionBank in the Ordinary Course of Business. The Union Loans are evidenced by appropriate and sufficient documentation and constitute valid and binding obligations to UnionBank enforceable in accordance with their terms, except as enforceability may be limited by any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject to general principles of equity. All such encumbrance or other charge, except for pledges or liens required to be granted pursuant to borrowings from Federal Home Loan Banks or Federal Reserve Banks, and UnionBank has complied, and at the Closing will have complied with, all Legal Requirements relating to such Union Loans, except where any such failure to comply would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis. The allowance for loan and lease losses of UnionBank is, and will be on the Closing Date, adequate in all material respects to provide for probable or specific losses, net of recoveries relating to loans previously charged off, and continuous and contains and will contain an additional amount of unallocated reserves for unanticipated future losses at an adequate level. To the Knowledge of Union: (a) none of the Union Loans is subject to any material offset or claim of offset; and (b) the aggregate loan balances in excess of Union's consolidated allowance for loan and lease losses are based on past loan loss experience, collectible in accordance with their terms (except as limited above) and all uncollectible loans have been charged off.

Section 5.12 Undisclosed Liabilities; Adverse Changes. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.12, neither Union nor any Union Subsidiary has any material liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise), except for liabilities or obligations reflected or reserved against in the Union Financial Statements, and current liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business since the respective dates thereof. Since the date of the latest Union Financial Statement, there has not been any change in the business, operations, properties, prospects, assets or condition of Union or any Union Subsidiary, and, to Union's Knowledge, no event has occurred or circumstance exists, that has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis.

Section 5.13 Taxes. Union and each Union Subsidiary has duly filed all material Tax Returns required to be filed by it, and each such Tax Return is complete and accurate in all material respects. Union and each Union Subsidiary has paid, or made adequate provision for the payment of, all Taxes (whether or not reflected in Tax Returns as filed or to be filed) due and payable by Union or any Union Subsidiary, or claimed to be due and payable by any Regulatory Authority, and is not delinquent in the payment of any Tax, except such Taxes as are being contested in good faith and as to which adequate reserves have been provided. There is no claim or assessment pending or, to the Knowledge of Union, Threatened against Union or any Union Subsidiary for any Taxes owed by any of them. No audit, examination or investigation related to Taxes paid or payable by Union or any Union Subsidiary is presently being conducted or, to the Knowledge of Union, Threatened by any Regulatory Authority. Union has delivered to Union true, correct and complete copies of all Tax Returns previously filed with respect to the last three fiscal years by Union and each Union Subsidiary and any Tax examination reports and statements of deficiencies assessed or agreed to for any of Union or any Union Subsidiary for any such time period.

Section 5.14 Compliance With ERISA. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.14, all employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) established or maintained by Union or any Union Subsidiary or to which Union or any Union Subsidiary contributes, are in compliance with all applicable requirements of ERISA, and are in compliance with all applicable requirements (including qualification and non-discrimination requirements in effect as of the Closing) of the Code for obtaining the Tax benefits the Code thereupon permits with respect to such employee benefit plans. No such employee benefit plan has any amount of unfunded benefit liabilities (as defined in Section 4001(a)(18) of ERISA) for which Union or any Union Subsidiary would be liable to any Person under Title IV of ERISA if any such employee benefit plan were terminated as of the Closing. Such employee benefit plans are funded in accordance with Section 412 of the Code (if applicable). There would be no obligations of Union or any Union Subsidiary under Title IV of ERISA relating to any such employee benefit plan that is a multi-employer plan if any such plan were terminated or if Union or such Union Subsidiary withdrew from any such plan as of the Closing. All contributions and premium payments due prior to the date hereof have been made, and all contributions and premium payments due prior to Closing will be made by Union or any Union Subsidiary, as applicable, on a timely basis.

Except as set forth on Schedule 5.15, neither Union nor any Union Subsidiary has received, at any time since January 1, 2003, any notice or other communication (whether oral or written) from any Regulatory Authority or any other Person, nor does Union have any Knowledge, regarding: (x) any actual, alleged, possible or potential violation of, or failure to comply with, any Legal Requirement; or (y) any actual, alleged, possible, or potential obligation on the part of Union or any Union Subsidiary to undertake, or to bear all or any portion of the cost of, any remedial action of any nature in connection with a failure to comply with any Legal Requirement, except where any such violation, failure or obligation would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis

(b) Union and, to Union's Knowledge, each of its executive officers and directors have complied in all material respects with (i) the applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as amended, and (ii) the applicable listing and corporate governance rules and regulations of The Nasdaq Stock Market.

None of UnionBank or any of its directors, officers or employees has committed any breach of trust with respect to any such fiduciary account, and the accountings for each such fiduciary account are true and correct in all material respects and accurately reflect the assets of such fiduciary account.

Section 5.24 Indemnification Claims. To Union's Knowledge, no action or failure to take action by any director, officer, employee or agent of Union or any Union Subsidiary has occurred that may give rise to a claim or a potential claim by any such Person for indemnification against Union or any Union Subsidiary under any agreement with, or the corporate indemnification provisions of, Union or any Union Subsidiary, or under any Legal Requirements.

Section 5.25 Insider Interests. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.25, no officer or director of Union or any Union Subsidiary, any member of the Family of any such Person, and no entity that any such Person controls within the meaning of Regulation O of the Federal Reserve, has any loan, deposit account or any other agreement with Union or any Union Subsidiary, any interest in any material property, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, used in or pertaining to the business of Union or any Union Subsidiary.

such records, properties and other matters; provided, however, that such access or investigation shall not interfere materially with the normal operations of Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary. Upon request, Centruie and each Centruie Subsidiary will furnish Union or its Representatives, attorneys' responses to auditors' requests for information regarding Centruie or such Centruie Subsidiary, as the case may be, and such financial and operating data and other information reasonably requested by Union (provided, with respect to attorneys, such disclosure would not result in the waiver by Centruie or any Centruie Subsidiary of any claim of attorney-client privilege), and will permit Union and its Representatives to discuss such information directly with any individual or firm performing auditing or accounting functions for Centruie or such Centruie Subsidiary, and such auditors and accountants shall be directed to furnish copies of any reports or financial information as developed to Union or its Representatives. No investigation by Union or any of its Representatives shall affect the representations and warranties made by Centruie. This Section shall not require the disclosure of any information the disclosure of which to Union would be prohibited by any Legal Requirement.

(b) Centruie shall allow a representative of Union reasonably acceptable to Centruie to attend as an observer: (i) all meetings of the board of directors of Centruie and each Centruie Subsidiary; and (ii) all meetings of the committees thereof, except for any such meeting if and to the extent that any amendment to this Agreement or the merits of any Acquisition Transaction described in Section 6.6 is discussed, or Centruie is advised by its counsel that the participation by such observer would result in a waiver of Centruie's attorney-client privilege. Centruie shall give reasonable notice to Union of any such meeting and, if known, the agenda for or business to be discussed at such meeting. Centruie shall provide to Union all information provided to the directors on all such boards and committees in connection with all such meetings or otherwise provided to the directors, except to the extent that such information relates to any amendment to this Agreement or the merits of any Acquisition Transaction is discussed, or Centruie is advised by its counsel that the participation by such observer would result in a waiver of Centruie's attorney-client privilege. It is understood by the parties that Union's representative will not have any voting rights with respect to matters discussed at these meetings and shall remain silent during all proceedings, and that Union is not managing the business or affairs of Centruie. All information obtained by Union at these meetings shall be treated in confidence as provided in that certain Confidentiality Agreement dated November 15, 2005, between Centruie and Union (the Confidentiality Agreement).

Section 6.2 Operation of Centruie and Centruie Subsidiaries. Except with the prior written consent of Union, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Centruie will, and will cause each Centruie Subsidiary, to

- (a) conduct its business only in the Ordinary Course of Business;
- (b) use its Best Efforts to preserve intact its current business organization, keep available the services of its current officers, employees and agents, and maintain the relations and goodwill with its suppliers, customers, landlords, creditors, employees, agents and others having business relationships with it;
- (c) confer with Union concerning operational matters of a material nature;
- (d) enter into loan and deposit transactions only in accordance with sound credit practices and only on terms and conditions that are not materially more favorable than those available to the borrower or depositor, as the case may be, from competitive sources in arm's-length transactions, and, in that connection, from the date hereof to the Closing Date, shall not enter into any new credit or new lending relationship in excess of $3,000,000 to any Person and any director or officer of, or any owner of a 10% or greater equity interest in, such Person; provided, however, that Centruie Bank shall be permitted to make any such loan with the prior written consent of Union, or if Centruie Bank has made a written request for permission to make an otherwise prohibited loan and has provided Union with all information necessary for Union to make an informed decision with respect to such request, and Union has failed to respond to such request within two Business Days after Union's receipt of such request;
- (e) consistent with past practice, maintain an allowance for possible loan and lease losses which is adequate in all material respects under the requirements of GAAP to provide for possible losses, net of recoveries relating to loans previously charged off, on loans outstanding (including accrued interest receivable);

(f) maintain all of its assets necessary for the conduct of its business in good operating condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or unavoidable casualty excepted, and maintain policies of insurance upon its assets and with respect to the conduct of its business in amounts and kinds comparable to that in effect on the date hereof and pay all premiums on such policies when due;

(g) file in a timely manner all required filings with all Regulatory Authorities and cause such filings to be true and correct in all material respects; and

(h) maintain its books, accounts and records in the usual, regular and ordinary manner, on a basis consistent with prior years and comply with all Legal Requirements.

Section 6.3 Negative Covenant. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, and as contemplated by Schedule 4.17, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Centru e will not, and will cause each Centru e Subsidiary not to, without the prior written consent of Union, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, take any affirmative action, or fail to take any reasonable action within its control, as a result of which any of the changes or events listed in Section 4.17 is likely to occur.

Section 6.4 Subsequent Centru e Financial Statements: SEC Reports. As soon as available after the date hereof, Centru e will furnish Union copies of (a) the quarterly unaudited consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of income, consolidated statements of cash flows and consolidated statements of stockholders' equity, of Centru e prepared for its internal use, (b) Centru e Bank's Call Reports for each quarterly period completed after March 31, 2006, (c) all monthly financial reports or statements submitted after the date hereof by Centru e or Centru e Bank to the board of directors of Centru e or Centru e Bank, and (d) all other financial reports or statements submitted after the date hereof by Centru e or Centru e Bank to Regulatory Authorities, to the extent permitted by law (collectively, the Subsequent Centru e Financial Statements). Without limitation of the foregoing, as soon as available, if at all, Centru e will deliver to Union complete copies of any reports filed with the SEC after March 31, 2006 (collectively, the Centru e SEC Filings). Except as may be required by changes in GAAP effective after the date hereof, the Subsequent Centru e Financial Statements shall be prepared on a basis consistent with past accounting practices and shall fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial condition and results of operations for the dates and periods presented. The Subsequent Centru e Financial Statements will not include any material assets or omit to state any material liabilities, absolute or contingent, or other facts, which inclusion or omission would render such Subsequent Centru e Financial Statements misleading in any material respect. The Centru e SEC Filings will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not misleading.

Section 6.5 Advice of Changes. Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Centru e will promptly notify Union in writing if Centru e or any Centru e Subsidiary becomes aware of any fact or condition that causes or constitutes a breach of any of Centru e's representations and warranties as of the date of this Agreement, or if Centru e or any Centru e Subsidiary becomes aware of the occurrence after the date of this Agreement of any fact or condition that would (except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement) cause or constitute a breach of any such representation or warranty had such representation or warranty been made as of the time of occurrence or discovery of such fact or condition. If any such fact or condition would require any change in the Centru e Schedules if such Centru e Schedules were dated the date of the occurrence or discovery of any such fact or condition, Centru e will promptly deliver to Union a supplement to the Centru e Schedules specifying such change. During the same period, Centru e will promptly notify Union of the occurrence of any breach of any covenant of Centru e in this Article or of the occurrence of any event that might reasonably be expected to make the satisfaction of the conditions in Article 9 impossible or unlikely.

Section 6.6 Other Offers. Until such time, if any, as this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article 11, Centru e will not, and will cause each Centru e Subsidiary and their respective Representatives not to, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries or proposals from, discuss or negotiate with, provide any non-public information to, or consider the merits of any unsolicited inquiries or proposals from, any Person (other than Union) relating to any Acquisition Transaction or a potential Acquisition Transaction involving Centru e or any Centru e Subsidiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Centru e may provide information at the request of, or enter into negotiations with, a third party with respect to an Acquisition Transaction if the board of directors of Centru e determines, in good faith, that the exercise of its fiduciary duties to Centru e's stockholders under applicable law, as advised by its counsel, requires it to take such action, and, provided further, that Centru e may not, in any event, provide to such third party any information which it has not provided to Union. Centru e shall promptly notify Union orally, confirmed in writing, in the event it receives any such inquiry or proposal and shall provide reasonable detail of all relevant facts relating to such inquiries.

Section 6.7 Voting Agreement. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Centru e shall deliver to Union a voting agreement in the form of Exhibit D, signed by all directors of Centru e and Centru e Bank who are holders of Centru e Common Stock.

Section 6.8 Stockholders Meeting. Centru e shall cause a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of acting upon this Agreement to be held at the earliest practicable date after the Registration Statement (as defined below) has been declared effective by the SEC. Centru e shall mail to its stockholders at least twenty Business Days prior to such meeting, notice of such meeting together with the Proxy Statement-Prospectus (as defined below), which shall include a copy of this Agreement. Subject to its fiduciary duties, Centru e and its board of directors shall recommend to stockholders the approval of this Agreement and shall solicit proxies voting only in favor thereof from the stockholders of Centru e. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge that the failure of Centru e to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held for the purposes set forth in the Agreement or otherwise to make the recommendations required by or to withdraw, modify or change such recommendation as provided in the provisions of this Section 6.8 shall be deemed to have a Material Adverse Effect on Centru e on a consolidated basis and on Union's and its stockholders' rights under this Agreement.

Section 6.9 Information Provided to Union. Centru e agrees that the information concerning Centru e or any Centru e Subsidiary that is provided or to be provided by Centru e to Union for inclusion or that is included in the Registration Statement or Proxy Statement-Prospectus and any other documents to be filed with any Regulatory Authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions will, at the respective times such documents are filed and, in the case of the Registration Statement, when it becomes effective and, with respect to the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, when mailed, will not be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not misleading or, in the case of the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, at the time of the meeting of Centru e's stockholders referred to above, be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of any proxy for the meeting in connection with which the Proxy Statement-Prospectus shall be mailed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Centru e shall have no responsibility for the truth or accuracy of any information with respect to Union or any Union Subsidiary or any of their Affiliates contained in the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement-Prospectus or in any document submitted to, or other communication with, any Regulatory Authority.

Section 6.10 Termination of Employee Benefit Plans. To the extent permitted by applicable Legal Requirements and except as otherwise agreed to pursuant to Section 7.11, upon the written request of Union, Centru e shall take such action as may be necessary to terminate any Centru e Employee Benefit Plan on or before the Closing on terms reasonably acceptable to Union; provided, however, that Centru e or Centru e Bank shall not be obligated to take any such requested action that is irrevocable until immediately prior to the Closing.

Section 6.11 Accounting and Other Adjustments. Centru e agrees that it shall, and shall cause each Centru e Subsidiary, to: (a) make any accounting adjustments or entries to its books of account and other financial records; (b) make additional provisions to any allowance for loan and lease losses; (c) sell or transfer any investment securities held by it; (d) charge-off any loan or lease; (e) create any new reserve account or make additional provisions to any other existing reserve account; (f) make changes in any accounting method; (g) accelerate, defer or accrue any anticipated obligation, expense or income item; and (h) make any other adjustments that would affect the financial reporting of Union, on a consolidated basis after the Effective Time, in any case as Union shall reasonably request, provided, however, that neither Centru e nor any Centru e Subsidiary shall be obligated to take any such requested action until immediately prior to the Closing and at such time as Centru e shall have received reasonable assurances that all conditions precedent to Centru e's obligations under this Agreement (except for the completion of actions to be taken at the Closing) have been satisfied.

Section 6.12 Capital Stock. Except as otherwise permitted in or contemplated by this Agreement, including in connection with the Daiber Employment Agreement and the employment agreements contemplated by Section 8.4, and without the prior written consent of Union, from the date of this Agreement to the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, Centru e shall not, and shall not enter into any agreement to, issue, sell or otherwise permit to become outstanding any additional shares of Centru e Common Stock or any other capital stock of Centru e, or any stock appreciation rights, or any option, warrant, conversion or other right to acquire any such stock, or any security convertible into any such stock, other than pursuant to (a) the Centru e Stock Incentive Plan, the aggregate number of shares of Centru e Common Stock covered by all existing grants (not taking into account the grants contemplated by the Daiber Employment Agreement and the employment agreements contemplated by Section 8.4) being no more than 204,800 shares, (b) the Centru e 401(k) Savings Plan or (c) the Centru e Deferred Compensation Plan. No additional shares of Centru e Common Stock shall become subject to new grants of employee stock options, stock appreciation rights or similar stock based employee compensation rights, except as otherwise provided in Section 8.7.

Section 6.13 Employment Agreement. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Centru e shall cause to be delivered to Union an employment agreement in the form of Exhibit F-1, signed by Thomas A. Daiber (the Daiber Employment Agreement) to be effective at the Effective Time.

ARTICLE 7

UNION'S COVENANTS

Section 7.1 Access and Investigation.

(a) Centru e and its Representatives shall, at all times during normal business hours and with reasonable advance notice prior to the Closing Date, have full and continuing access to the facilities, operations, records and properties of Union and each Union Subsidiary in accordance with the provisions of this Section. Centru e and its Representatives may, prior to the Closing Date, make or cause to be made such reasonable investigation of the operations, records and properties of Union and each Union Subsidiary and of their respective financial and legal conditions as Centru e shall deem necessary or advisable to familiarize itself with such records, properties and other matters, provided, however, that such access or investigation shall not interfere materially with the normal operations of Union or any Union Subsidiary. Upon request, Union and each Union Subsidiary will furnish Centru e or its Representatives, attorneys responses to auditors' requests for information regarding Union or such Union Subsidiary, as the case may be, and such financial and operating data and other information reasonably requested by Centru e (provided, with respect to attorneys, such disclosure would not result in the waiver by Union or UnionBank of any claim of attorney-client privilege), and will permit Centru e and its Representatives to discuss such information directly with any individual or firm performing auditing or accounting functions for Union or such Union Subsidiary, and such auditors and accountants shall be directed to furnish copies of any reports or financial information as developed to Centru e or its Representatives. This Section shall not require the disclosure of any information the disclosure of which to Centru e would be prohibited by any Legal Requirement.

(b) Union shall allow a representative of Centru e to attend as an observer: (i) all meetings of the board of directors of Union and each Union Subsidiary; and (ii) all meetings of the committees thereof, except for any such meeting if and to the extent that any of the Contemplated Transactions is discussed, or Union is advised by its counsel that the participation by such observer would result in a waiver of Union's attorney-

Union shall provide to Centrué all information provided to the directors on all such boards and committees in connection with all such meetings or otherwise provided to the directors, except to the extent that such information relates to any amendment to this Agreement or the merits of any Acquisition Transaction is discussed, or Union is advised by its counsel that the participation by such observer would result in a waiver of Union's attorney-client privilege. It is understood by the parties that Centrué's representative will not have any voting rights with respect to matters discussed at these meetings and shall remain silent during all proceedings, and that Centrué is not managing the business or affairs of Union. All information obtained by Centrué at these meetings shall be treated in confidence as provided in the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 7.2 Operation of Union and Union Subsidiaries. Except with the prior written consent of Centrué, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Union will, and will cause each Union Subsidiary, to

(a) conduct its business only in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(b) use its Best Efforts to preserve intact its current business organization, keep available the services of its current officers, employees and agents, and maintain the relations and goodwill with its suppliers, customers, landlords, creditors, employees, agents and others having business relationships with it;

(c) confer with Centrué concerning operational matters of a material nature;

(d) enter into loan and deposit transactions only in accordance with sound credit practices and only on terms and conditions that are not materially more favorable than those available to the borrower or depositor, as the case may be, from competitive sources in arm's-length transactions, and, in that connection, from the date hereof to the Closing Date, shall not enter into any new credit or new lending relationship in excess of $3,000,000 to any Person and any director or officer of, or any owner of a 10% or greater equity interest in, such Person; provided, however, that UnionBank shall be permitted to make any such loan with the prior written consent of Centrué, or if UnionBank has made a written request for permission to make an otherwise prohibited loan and has provided Centrué with all information necessary for Centrué to make an informed decision with respect to such request, and Centrué has failed to respond to such request within two Business Days after Centrué's receipt of such request;

(e) consistent with past practice, maintain an allowance for possible loan and lease losses which is adequate in all material respects under the requirements of GAAP to provide for possible losses, net of recoveries relating to loans previously charged off, on loans outstanding (including accrued interest receivable);

(f) maintain all of its assets necessary for the conduct of its business in good operating condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or unavoidable casualty excepted, and maintain policies of insurance upon its assets and with respect to the conduct of its business in amounts and kinds comparable to that in effect on the date hereof and pay all premiums on such policies when due;

(g) file in a timely manner all required filings with all Regulatory Authorities and cause such filings to be true and correct in all material respects; and

(h) maintain its books, accounts and records in the usual, regular and ordinary manner, on a basis consistent with prior years and comply with all Legal Requirements.

Section 7.3 Negative Covenant. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, and as contemplated by Schedule 5.17, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Union will not, and will cause each Union Subsidiary not to, without the prior written consent of Centrué, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, take any affirmative action, or fail to take any reasonable action within its control, as a result of which any of the changes or events listed in Section 5.17 is likely to occur.

Section 7.4 Subsequent Union Financial Statements; Securities Reports. As soon as available after the date hereof, Union will furnish Centrué copies of (a) the quarterly unaudited consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of income, consolidated statements of cash flows and consolidated statements of stockholders equity, of Union prepared for its internal use, (b) UnionBank's Call Reports for each quarterly period completed after March 31, 2006, (c) all monthly financial reports or statements submitted after the date hereof by Union or UnionBank to the board of directors of Union or UnionBank, and (d) all other financial reports or statements submitted after the date hereof by Union or UnionBank to Regulatory Authorities, to the extent permitted by law (collectively, the Subsequent Union Financial Statements). Without limitation of the foregoing, as soon as available, if at all, Union will deliver to Centrué complete copies of any reports filed with the SEC after March 31, 2006 (collectively, the Union SEC Filings). Except as may be required by changes in GAAP effective after the date hereof, the Subsequent Union Financial Statements shall be prepared on a basis consistent with past accounting practices and shall fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial condition and results of operations for the dates and periods presented. The Subsequent Union Financial Statements will not include any material assets or omit to state any material liabilities, absolute or contingent, or other facts, which inclusion or omission would render such Subsequent Union Financial Statements misleading in any material respect. The Union SEC Filings will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not misleading.

Section 7.5 Advice of Changes. Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Union will promptly notify Centrué in writing if Union or any Union Subsidiary becomes aware of any fact or condition that causes or constitutes a breach of any of Union's representations and warranties as of the date of this Agreement, or if Union or any Union Subsidiary becomes aware of the occurrence after the date of this Agreement of any fact or condition that would (except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement) cause or constitute a breach of any such representation or warranty had such representation or warranty been made as of the time of occurrence or discovery of such fact or condition. If any such fact or condition would require any change in the Union Schedules if such Union Schedules were dated the date of the occurrence or discovery of any such fact or condition, Union will promptly deliver to Centrué a supplement to the Union Schedules specifying such change. During the same period, Union will promptly notify Centrué of the occurrence of any breach of any covenant of Union in this Article or of the occurrence of any event that might reasonably be expected to make the satisfaction of the conditions in Article 10 impossible or unlikely.

Section 7.6 Other Offers. Until such time, if any, as this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article 11, Union will not, and will cause each Union Subsidiary and their respective Representatives not to, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiries or proposals from, discuss or negotiate with, provide any non-public information to, or consider the merits of any unsolicited inquiries or proposals from, any Person relating to any Acquisition Transaction or a potential Acquisition Transaction involving Union or any Union Subsidiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Union may provide information at the request of, or enter into negotiations with, a third party with respect to an Acquisition Transaction if the board of directors of Union determines, in good faith, that the exercise of its fiduciary duties to Union's stockholders under applicable law, as advised by its counsel, requires it to take such action, and, provided further, that Union may not, in any event, provide to such third party any information which it has not provided to Centrué. Union shall promptly notify Centrué orally, confirmed in writing, in the event it receives any such inquiry or proposal and shall provide reasonable detail of all relevant facts relating to such inquiries.

Section 7.7 Voting Agreement. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Union shall deliver to Centrué a voting agreement in the form of Exhibit E, signed by all directors of Union and UnionBank who are holders of Union Common Stock.

Section 7.8 Stockholders Meeting. Union shall cause a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of acting upon this Agreement, and, in Union's discretion, for the purpose of amending and restating its certificate of incorporation and bylaws as set forth herein, to be held at the earliest practicable date after the Registration Statement has been declared effective by the SEC. Union shall mail to its stockholders at least twenty Business Days prior to such meeting, notice of such meeting together with the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, which shall include a copy of this Agreement. Subject to its fiduciary duties, Union and its board of directors shall recommend to stockholders the approval of this Agreement and shall solicit proxies voting only in favor thereof from the stockholders of Union. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge that the failure of Union to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held for the purposes set forth in the Agreement or otherwise to make the recommendations required by or to withdraw, modify or change such recommendation as provided in the provisions of this Section 7.8 shall be deemed to have a Material Adverse Effect on Union on a consolidated basis and on Centru e s and its stockholders rights under this Agreement.

Section 7.9 Information Provided to Centru e. Union agrees that none of the information concerning Union or any Union Subsidiary that is provided or to be provided by Union to Centru e for inclusion or that is included in the Registration Statement or Proxy Statement-Prospectus and any other documents to be filed with any Regulatory Authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions will, at the respective times such documents are filed and, in the case of the Registration Statement, when it becomes effective and, with respect to the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, when mailed, be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not misleading or, in the case of the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, at the time of the meeting of Union s stockholders referred to above, be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or omit to state any material fact necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of any proxy for the meeting in connection with which the Proxy Statement-Prospectus shall be mailed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Union shall have no responsibility for the truth or accuracy of any information with respect to Centru e or any Centru e Subsidiary or any of their Affiliates contained in the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement-Prospectus or in any document submitted to, or other communication with, any Regulatory Authority.

Section 7.10 Indemnification. Except as may be limited by applicable Legal Requirements, Union shall honor any of Centru e s obligations in respect of indemnification and advancement of expenses currently provided by Centru e in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws in favor of the current and former directors and officers of Centru e and Centru e Bank for not less than six years from the Effective Time with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time. Notwithstanding any provision of Section 7.2, Union shall acquire and maintain for a period of six years extended insurance coverage of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with respect to those persons who are currently covered by Centru e s director and officer liability policies of insurance (commonly referred to as tail coverage) on terms with respect to such coverage and amount substantially similar to the terms and conditions of Centru e s director and officer liability policies of insurance in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, so long as such coverage is available on commercially reasonable terms, in the reasonable judgment of Centru e and Union.

Section 7.11 Employee Benefits. If Union does not declare and pay permitted dividends on its Union Common Stock in a particular calendar quarter because of Union's reasonable expectation that the Effective Time would occur in such quarter, and the Effective Time does not in fact occur in said calendar quarter, then, as a result thereof, Union shall be entitled to declare and pay a permitted dividend on said shares of Union Common Stock for said calendar quarter as soon as reasonably practicable.

Section 7.17 Employment Agreements. Section 11.3 Centruie Termination Payments.

(a) If this Agreement is terminated by Union in accordance with Section 11.1(b) or Section 11.1(d), and Centruie knowingly or willfully breached or committed an act (or failed to take any action) with the intent to breach, its covenants, agreements, representations or warranties under this Agreement, and such breach has caused or would cause the condition set forth in Section 9.1 or Section 9.2 not to be satisfied, unless such breach is a result of the failure by Union to perform and comply in all material respects with any of its material obligations under this Agreement that are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the date required hereunder, then, provided Union is in material compliance with all of its material obligations under this Agreement, Centrue shall pay to Union, upon its written demand, an amount equal to $2,700,000.

(f) All payments made pursuant to this Section shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account as Union shall designate. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement and every representation, warranty, covenant, agreement and provision hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement will be construed to give any Person other than the parties to this Agreement any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or with respect to this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement, other than Section 7.10, which is intended to be for the benefit of the individuals covered thereby.

Section 12.3 Waiver. Except as provided in Section 11.3 and Section 11.4, the rights and remedies of the parties to this Agreement are cumulative and not alternative. Neither the failure nor any delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement or the documents referred to in this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law: (a) no claim or right arising out of this Agreement or the documents referred to in this Agreement can be discharged by one party, in whole or in part, by a waiver or renunciation of the claim or right unless in writing signed by the other party; (b) no waiver that may be given by a party will be applicable except in the specific instance for which it is given; and (c) no notice to or demand on one party will be deemed to be a waiver of any obligation of such party or of the right of the party giving such notice or demand to take further action without notice or demand as provided in this Agreement or the documents referred to in this Agreement.

Section 12.4 Confidentiality. Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, each of Union and Centruie will maintain in confidence, and will cause each of its respective Representatives to maintain in confidence, and not use to the detriment of the other or its Subsidiaries any written, oral, or other information obtained in confidence from the other of any of its Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions, unless: (a) such information is already known to such party or to others not bound by a duty of confidentiality or such information becomes publicly available through no fault of such party; (b) the use of such information is necessary or appropriate in making any filing or obtaining any consent or approval required for the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions; or (c) the furnishing or use of such information is required by or necessary or appropriate in connection with any legal proceedings. If the Contemplated Transactions are not consummated, each party will return or destroy as much of such written information as the other party may reasonably request.

Section 12.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and any documents executed by the parties pursuant to this Agreement and referred to herein, and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitute the entire understanding and agreement of the parties hereto and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter between the parties.

Section 12.7 Modification. This Agreement may not be amended except by a written agreement signed by each of Centru e and Union. Without limiting the foregoing, Centru e and Union may by written agreement signed by each of them: (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the parties hereto; (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations or warranties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement; and (c) waive compliance with or modify, amend or supplement any of the conditions, covenants, agreements, representations or warranties contained in this Agreement or waive or modify performance of any of the obligations of any of the parties hereto, which are for the benefit of the waiving party; provided, however, that no such modification, amendment or supplement agreed to after authorization of this Agreement by the stockholders of Union and Centru e shall affect the rights of Union's or Centru e's stockholders, respectively, in any manner which is materially adverse to such Persons.

Section 12.8 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision will be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement unless the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions is adversely affected thereby.

Section 12.9 Further Assurances. The parties agree: (a) to furnish upon request to each other such further information; (b) to execute and deliver to each other such other documents; and (c) to do such other acts and things, all as the other party may reasonably request for the purpose of carrying out the intent of this Agreement and the documents referred to in this Agreement.

Section 12.10 Survival. Except for covenants that are expressly to be performed after the Closing, the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein shall not survive beyond the Closing.

Section 12.11 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendments thereto may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Exhibit A
Certificate of Incorporation of UnionBancorp, Inc.

The Restated Certificate of Incorporation for UnionBancorp, Inc. was duly filed on May 13, 1991, and was amended by a Certificate of Amendment filed on March 1, 1994, and further amended by a Certificate of Amendment filed on July 24, 1996. In accordance with Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, UnionBancorp, Inc. further amends its certificate of incorporation by adopting the following amended and restated certificate of incorporation.

The name of the Corporation is Centru Financial Corporation.

The address of its registered office in the State of Delaware is 32 Loockerman Square, Suite L-100, in the City of Dover, County of Kent. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Prentice-Hall Corporation System, Inc.

The nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, as amended from time to time.

The total number of shares of capital stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is 15,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 200,000 shares of Preferred Stock, no par value per share.

The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to adopt, from time to time, a resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of one or more series of Preferred Stock, with such voting powers, full or limited, or no voting powers, and with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors.

Any and all right, title, interest and claim in or to any dividends declared by the corporation, whether in cash, stock, or otherwise, which are unclaimed by the stockholder entitled thereto for a period of six years after the close of business on the payment date, shall be and be deemed to be extinguished and abandoned; and such unclaimed dividends in the possession of the corporation, its transfer agents or other agents or depositaries shall at such time become the absolute property of the corporation, free and clear of any and all claims of any persons whatsoever.

Intentionally omitted.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

to exercise all such powers and do all such acts as may be exercised or done by the corporation, subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware, this Certificate of Incorporation and the bylaws of the corporation, and to make, alter or repeal any bylaws of the corporation pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption)(the Whole Board).

A director of the corporation shall not in the absence of fraud be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation either as a vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor in the absence of fraud shall a director of the corporation be liable to account to the corporation for any profit realized by him from or through any transaction or contract of the corporation by reason of the fact that he, or any firm of which he is a member, or any corporation of which he is an officer, director or stockholder, was interested in such transaction or contract if such transaction or contract has been authorized, approved or ratified in the manner provided in the General Corporation Law of Delaware for authorization, approval or ratification of transactions or contracts between the corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest.

The corporation shall, to the full extent permitted by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, as amended from time to time, indemnify all persons who it may indemnify pursuant thereto.

Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of this corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provision of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors, or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all stockholders or class of stockholders of this corporation, as the case may be, and also on this corporation.

The number of directors of the corporation shall be fifteen, or such other number as may be determined from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least seventy percent (70%) of all shares of the corporation then entitled to vote in the election of directors, considered for this purpose as one class, or pursuant to a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the Whole Board (immediately prior to such proposed change).

Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the corporation so provide.

The directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of any class or series of stock having preference over the common stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, shall be classified, with respect to the time for which they severally hold office, into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, as shall have provided in the manner specified in the bylaws, each class to hold office initially for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders held in the third year following the year of their election, with the members of each class to hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. At each annual meeting of the stockholders of the corporation, the successors to the class of directors whose term expires at that meeting shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders held in the third year following the year of their election.

Newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors and any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, disqualification, removal or other cause shall be filled solely by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. Any director elected in accordance with the preceding sentence shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the new directorship was created or the vacancy occurred and until such director's successor shall have been elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Subject to the rights of any class or series of stock having preference over the common stock as to dividends or upon liquidation to elect directors under specified circumstances, a director may be removed from office only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of seventy percent (70%) of all shares of stock of the corporation then entitled to vote in the election of directors, considered for this purpose as a single class.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article XI, the affirmative vote of the holders of seventy percent (70%) of all shares of stock of the corporation then entitled to vote in the election of directors, considered for this purpose as one class, shall be required for any one of the following actions:

for the adoption of any amendment, alteration, change or repeal of Articles VI, X or XI of this Certificate of Incorporation; for the adoption of any agreement for the merger or consolidation of the corporation with or into any other corporation; to authorize any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation; or to authorize the dissolution of the corporation.

The above voting requirement shall not be applicable to any one of the foregoing actions and any such action shall only require the affirmative vote of the holders of a simple majority of all shares of stock of the corporation then entitled to vote in the election of directors, considered for this purpose as one class, if the action shall have been approved at any time prior to its consummation by resolution adopted by no less than two-thirds of the Whole Board.

The provisions of this Article XI shall not be applicable to any merger or consolidation of this corporation with or into any other corporation of which this corporation is the owner of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of each class of stock.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the holders of capital stock of the corporation must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of holders of capital stock of the corporation and may not be effected by any consent in writing by such holders.

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty by such directors as a director; provided, however, that this Article XIII shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director to the extent provided by applicable law (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment to or repeal of this Article XIII shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted to this reservation.

CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATION
SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK
UNIONBANCORP, INC.

1. ISSUANCE. The board of directors (the Board) of UnionBancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), has designated 2,765 shares of the Company's authorized and unissued preferred stock as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, has authorized such shares for issuance at a price of $1,000 per share (the Series A Preferred Stock) and has determined that no further shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be issued.

2. DIVIDENDS.

(a) The holders of record of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive when, as and if declared by the Board out of any funds legally available therefor, cumulative dividends at the annual rate of $75.00 per share payable in four equal cash payments on the 20th day (or if not a business day, as defined below, on the next business day thereafter) of April, July, October and January commencing October, 1996, provided, however, that any such quarterly cash payment shall be prorated with respect to any shares of Series A Preferred Stock that were outstanding less than the total number of days in the calendar quarter immediately preceding any such payment date. The amount of any such prorated cash payment shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days in any calendar quarter during which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock were outstanding. Each such dividend shall be payable to holders of record as they appear on the stock books of the Company on such record dates, not less than 10 and not more than 60 days preceding the dividend payment date, as shall be fixed by the Board. No dividends, other than those payable solely in the Company's common stock, $1.00 par value (Common Stock), shall be paid during any fiscal year of the Company with respect to shares of Common Stock or any other security issued by the Company, except for outstanding shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock (the Series B Preferred Stock), until dividends in the total amount of $75.00 per share on Series A Preferred Stock shall have been paid. Such dividends shall accrue on each share of Series A Preferred Stock from the date of issuance and from day to day thereafter, whether or not earned or declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such dividends shall be cumulative so that if such dividends in respect of any previous or current annual dividend period, at the annual rate specified above, shall not have been paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart, the deficiency for any prior year and the amount owed in the current year shall first be fully paid before any dividend or other distribution shall be paid on or declared and set apart for the shares of Common Stock. A business day shall be deemed to be any day when trading of securities occurs on the New York Stock Exchange.

(b) Unless full dividends on Series A Preferred Stock for all past dividend periods and the then current dividend period shall have been paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart: no dividend whatsoever whether in cash, securities or other property (other than a dividend payable solely in shares of Common Stock) shall be paid or declared and set aside for payment, and no distribution shall be made, on any shares of Common Stock or other class of preferred stock authorized after the date hereof except for the Series B Preferred Stock; and no shares of Common Stock or other class of preferred stock authorized after the date hereof, except the Series B Preferred Stock, shall be purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Company and no funds shall be paid into or set aside or made available for a sinking fund for the purchase, redemption or other acquisition thereof without the approval of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

(c) The Company shall not permit any subsidiary of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration any shares of stock of the Company unless the Company could, under paragraph (b) of this Section 2, purchase or otherwise acquire such shares at such time and such manner.

3. CONVERSION. The holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the following conversion rights (the Conversion Rights) and be subject to the following provisions with respect to the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock:

(a) RIGHT TO CONVERT. The shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible at the holder's option into the number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock that is calculated in accordance with the terms of this Section 3. Unless earlier permitted by the Company, the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock are convertible at the holder's option after the fourth anniversary of the date of issuance. The number of shares of Common Stock into which the outstanding Series A Preferred Stock is convertible shall be determined for all purposes on the first date such shares of Series A Preferred Stock become convertible (referred to as the Determination Date). Notwithstanding the occurrence of the Determination Date for any outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the holder of such shares may continue to hold these shares of Series A Preferred Stock and may at any time thereafter, subject to the provisions of this Section 3, convert those shares into Common Stock.

(b) CONVERSION PRICE. The Conversion Price shall be equal to 1.075 times the per share book value of Common Stock, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as of the end of the month immediately prior to the Determination Date. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible into the number of shares of Common Stock that results from dividing $1,000 by the Conversion Price.

(c) MECHANICS OF VOLUNTARY CONVERSION; UNPAID DIVIDENDS.

(i) Before any holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into shares of Common Stock, he shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Company or of any transfer agent of Series A Preferred Stock or Common Stock, with a written notice that he elects to convert the same and shall state therein the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock being converted and the name or names in which the certificate or certificates for shares of Common Stock are to be issued. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, the date the Company receives such surrendered certificates and written notice shall be deemed to be the Conversion Date. Thereupon the Company shall promptly issue and deliver at such office to such holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock or to the nominee or nominees of such holder a certificate or certificates representing: the number of shares of Common Stock to which he shall be entitled; and any shares of Series A Preferred Stock that were represented by any certificate surrendered as required by the provisions of this paragraph, but which were not converted and which he continues to own.

(ii) Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the Conversion Date and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock on such date. A holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock who surrenders shares of Series A Preferred Stock for conversion shall be entitled to receive from the Company on the date of such surrender an amount in cash equal to the accrued dividends on such surrendered shares of Series A Preferred Stock through such Conversion Date, less the aggregate amount of dividends which would have accrued since the last dividend payment date for Series A Preferred Stock on the number of shares of the Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted if dividends on such shares of Common Stock accrued at an annual rate based upon the dividends paid by the Company on the Common Stock for the most recently ended fiscal period for which Common Stock dividends were paid, but any future dividends with respect to the surrendered shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall cease to accrue after such surrender and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith after such surrender terminate.

(d) ADJUSTMENTS FOR OTHER DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS. In the event the Company at any time or from time to time after the Issuance Date shall make or issue, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive, a dividend or other

A-56

distribution payable in securities of the Company other than shares of Common Stock, then and in each such event provision shall be made so that the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall receive upon conversion thereof in addition to the number of shares of Common Stock receivable thereupon, the amount of securities of the Company that they would have received had their Series A Preferred Stock been converted into Common Stock on the date of such event and had thereafter, during the period from the date of such event to and including the conversion date, retained such securities receivable by them as aforesaid during such period giving application to all adjustments called for during such period under this paragraph 3 with respect to the rights of the holders of Series A Preferred Stock.

(e) ADJUSTMENT FOR RECLASSIFICATION, EXCHANGE OR SUBSTITUTION. If the shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of any class or classes of stock, whether by capital reorganization, reclassification or otherwise (other than an event provided for elsewhere in this paragraph 3), then and in each such event the holder of each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the right thereafter to convert such share into the kind and amounts of shares of stock and other securities and property receivable upon such reorganization, reclassification or other change, by holders of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock might have been converted immediately prior to such reorganization, reclassification or change, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein.

(f) REORGANIZATION, MERGERS, CONSOLIDATIONS OR SALES OF ASSETS. If at a any time or from time to time there shall be a capital reorganization of the Common Stock (other than an event provided for elsewhere in this paragraph 3) or a merger, consolidation or statutory exchange of securities of the Company with or into another corporation, or the sale of all or substantially all the Company's properties and assets to any other person, then, as a part of such reorganization, merger, consolidation or sale, provision shall be made so that the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall thereafter be entitled to receive upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the number of shares of stock or other securities or property of the Company, or of the successor corporation resulting from such merger or consolidation or sale, to which a holder of that number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock would have been entitled on such capital reorganization, merger, consolidation or sale. In any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this paragraph 3 with respect to the rights of the holders of Series A Preferred Stock after the reorganization, merger, consolidation or sale to the end that the provisions of this paragraph 3 (including, if necessary, adjustment of the Conversion Price then in effect and the number of shares purchasable upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock) shall be applicable after that event as nearly equivalent as may be practicable. The foregoing provisions shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, statutory exchanges, sales or conveyances.

(i) If at any time or from time to time after the Issuance Date, the Company shall issue or sell Additional Shares of Common Stock (as hereinafter defined), other than as a dividend as provided in paragraph 3(e) above, for a consideration per share less than the then existing Conversion Price for Series A Preferred Stock (or, if an adjusted Conversion Price shall be in effect by reason of a previous adjustment, then less than such adjusted Conversion Price), then and in each case the then applicable Conversion Price for Series A Preferred Stock shall be reduced, as of the opening of business on the date of such issue or sale, to a price determined by multiplying the Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the sum of: the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue or sale; plus the number of shares of Common Stock that the aggregate consideration received by the Company for the total number of Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued would purchase at the Conversion Price, and the denominator of which shall be the sum of: (X) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue or sale; plus (Y) the number of such Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued.

Table of Contents

(ii) For the purpose of making any adjustment in the Conversion Price or number of shares of Common Stock purchasable on the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock as provided above, the consideration received by the Company for any issue or sale of securities shall:

(A) to the extent it consists of cash, be computed at the net amount of cash received by the Company after deduction of any underwriting or similar commissions, concessions or compensation paid or allowed by the Company in connection with such issue or sale;

(B) to the extent it consists of services or property other than cash, be computed at the fair value of such services or property as determined in good faith by the Board; and

(C) if Additional Shares of Common Stock, Convertible Securities (as defined below), or rights or options to purchase either Additional Shares of Common Stock or Convertible Securities are issued or sold together with other stock or securities or other assets of the Company for a consideration that covers both, be computed as the portion of the consideration so received that may be reasonably determined in good faith by the Board to be allocable to such Additional Shares of Common Stock, Convertible Securities or rights or options.

(iii) For the purpose of the adjustment provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph 3(g), if at any time or from time to time after the Issuance Date the Company shall issue any rights or options for the purchase of, or stock or other securities convertible into, Additional Shares of Common Stock (such convertible stock or securities being referred to as Convertible Securities), then, in each case, if the Effective Price (as defined below) of such rights, options or Convertible Securities shall be less than the then existing Conversion Price for Series A Preferred Stock, the Company shall be deemed to have issued at the time of the issuance of such rights or options or Convertible Securities the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise or conversion thereof and to have received as consideration for the issuance of such shares an amount equal to the total amount of the consideration, if any, received by the Company for the rights or options or Convertible Securities, plus, in the case of such options or rights, the minimum amounts of consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon exercise or conversion of such options or rights. For purposes of the foregoing, Effective Price shall mean the quotient determined by dividing the total of all such consideration by such maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock. No further adjustment of the Conversion Price adjusted upon the issuance of such rights, options or Convertible Securities shall be made as a result of the actual issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock on the exercise of any such rights or options or the conversion of any such Convertible Securities. If any such rights or options or the conversion privilege represented by any such Convertible Securities shall expire without having been exercised, the Conversion Price adjusted upon the issuance of such rights, options or Convertible Securities shall be readjusted to the Conversion Price that would have been in effect had an adjustment been made on the basis that the only Additional Shares of Common Stock so issued were the Additional Shares of Common Stock, if any, actually issued or sold on the exercise of such rights or options or rights of conversion of such Convertible Securities, and such Additional Shares of Common Stock, if any, were issued or sold for the consideration actually received by the Company upon such exercise, plus the consideration, if any, actually received by the Company for the granting of all such rights or options, whether or not exercised, plus the consideration received for issuing or selling the Convertible Securities actually converted plus the consideration, if any, actually received by the Company on the conversion of such Convertible Securities.

(iv) For the purpose of the adjustment provided for in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph 3(g), if at any time or from time to time after the Issuance Date the Company shall issue any rights or options for the purchase of Convertible Securities, then, in each such case, if the Effective Price thereof is less than the current Conversion Price, the Company shall be deemed to have issued at the time of the issuance of such rights or options the maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the total amount of Convertible Securities covered by such rights or options and to have received as consideration for the issuance of such Additional

Shares of Common Stock an amount equal to the amount of consideration, if any, received by the Company for the issuance of such rights or options, plus the minimum amounts of consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the conversion of such Convertible Securities. For purposes of the foregoing, Effective Price shall mean the quotient determined by dividing the total amount of such consideration by such maximum number of Additional Shares of Common Stock. No further adjustment of such Conversion Price adjusted upon the issuance of such rights or options shall be made as a result of the actual issuance of the Convertible Securities upon the exercise of such rights or options or upon the actual issuance of Additional Shares of Common Stock upon the conversion of such Convertible Securities. The provisions of subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph 3(h) for the readjustment of such Conversion Price upon the expiration of rights or options or the rights of conversion of Convertible Securities, shall apply mutatis mutandis to the rights, options and Convertible Securities referred to in this subparagraph (iv).

(h) DEFINITION OF ADDITIONAL SHARES. The term Additional Shares of Common Stock as used herein shall mean all shares of Common Stock issued or deemed issued by the Company after the Issuance Date, whether or not subsequently reacquired or retired by the Company, other than: shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock; any shares of Common Stock (as adjusted for all stock dividends, stock splits, subdivisions and combinations) issued to employees, officers, directors, consultants or other persons performing services for the Company (if so issued solely because of any such person's status as an officer, director, employee, consultant or other person performing services for the Company and not as part of any general offering of the Company's securities) pursuant to any stock option plan, stock purchase plan or management incentive plan, agreement or arrangement approved by the Board; and (iii) any shares of Common Stock issued by the Company as full or partial consideration by the Company in connection with a merger, consolidation, purchase of assets or other transaction resulting in the acquisition by the Company of greater than 25% of the voting securities of any other corporation, financial institution or other entity, provided that the Common Stock used in such transaction is valued for purposes thereof at not less than its then book value.

(i) ACCOUNTANTS' CERTIFICATE OF ADJUSTMENT. In each case of an adjustment or readjustment of the Conversion Price for the number of shares of Common Stock or other securities issuable upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the Company, at its expense, shall cause independent certified public accountants of recognized standing selected by the Company (who may be the independent certified public accountants then auditing the books of the Company) to compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance herewith and prepare a certificate showing such adjustment or readjustment, and shall mail such certificate, by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each registered holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock at the holder's address as shown on the Company's books. The certificate shall set forth such adjustment or readjustment, showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based including a statement of: (i) the consideration received or to be received by the Company for any Additional Shares of Common Stock issued or sold or deemed to have been issued or sold; the Conversion Price at the time in effect for each series of Series A Preferred Stock; and the number of Additional Shares of Common Stock and the type and amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

(j) NOTICES OF RECORD DATE. In the event of any taking by the Company of a record of the holders of any class or series of securities for the purpose of determining the holders thereof who are entitled to receive any dividend or other distribution, or any reclassification or recapitalization of the capital stock of the Company, any merger, consolidation or share exchange involving the Company, or any transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the Company to any other corporation, entity or person, or any voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Company, the Company shall mail to each holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock (other than any such holder who is also a holder of record, or the affiliate of a holder of record, of shares of Common Stock, or is a director or executive officer, or an affiliate of a director or executive officer, of the Company) at least 30 days prior to the record date specified therein, a notice specifying: the date on which any such record is to be taken for the purpose of such dividend or distribution and a description of such dividend or distribution; the date on which any such reorganization, reclassification, transfer, consolidation, merger, dissolution, liquidation or winding up is expected to become effective; and the time, if any is to be fixed, as to when the holders of record of Common Stock (or other securities) shall be entitled to exchange their shares of Common Stock (or other securities) for securities or other property deliverable upon such reorganization, reclassification, transfer, consolidation, merger, dissolution, liquidation or winding up.

(k) FRACTIONAL SHARES. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional shares to which the holder would otherwise be entitled, the Company shall pay cash equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the Conversion Price on the Conversion Date. Whether or not the fractional shares are issuable upon such conversion shall be determined on the basis of the total number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock the holder is at the time converting into shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such aggregate conversion.

(l) RESERVATION OF STOCK ISSUABLE UPON CONVERSION. The Company shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock, such number of its shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock. As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would cause an adjustment to the Conversion Price, the Company will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient in order that it may validly and legally issue the shares of its Common Stock issuable based upon such adjusted Conversion Price.

(m) NOTICES. Any notice required or permitted by the provisions of this paragraph 3 to be given to the holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock or the Company, respectively, shall be deemed given when personally delivered to such holder or the Company or five business days after the same has been deposited in the United States mail, first class postage prepaid and addressed to each holder of record at his address appearing on the books of the Company or the Company's registered office in the state of Illinois, as the case may be, provided, however, that the written notice to be delivered to the Company by the holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock in connection with the conversion of such stock shall be effective only upon actual receipt by the Company.

(n) PAYMENT OF TAXES. The Company will pay all taxes and other governmental charges (other than taxes measured by the revenue or income of the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock) that may be imposed in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

(o) NO DILUTION OR IMPAIRMENT. The Company shall not amend its Certificate of Incorporation or participate in any reorganization, recapitalization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, share exchange, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, for the purpose of avoiding or seeking to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Company, but will at all times in good faith assist in carrying out all such action as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to protect the conversion rights of the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock against dilution or other impairment.

(p) DUTY TO MAKE FAIR ADJUSTMENTS IN CERTAIN CASES. If any event occurs as to which the other provisions of this paragraph 3 are not strictly applicable or if strictly applicable would not fairly protect the Conversion Rights of the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock in accordance with the essential intent and principles of such provisions, then the Board shall make an adjustment in the application of such provisions, in accordance with such essential intent and principles, so as adequately to protect such Conversion Rights.

4. VOTING RIGHTS. The holders of each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to vote, except: as required by law; to approve the authorization or issuance of any shares of any class or series of stock which ranks senior or on a parity with, the Series A Preferred Stock in respect of dividends and distributions upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company; and the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall have full voting rights in the following situations: during any period of time when two dividend payments on shares of Series A Preferred Stock have accrued but have remained unpaid; upon conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock; and if the holders of Common Stock vote on a proposal to merge or otherwise enter into a transaction with a third party pursuant to which Union is not the surviving entity. In such event, the holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to notice of any holders' meeting in accordance with the bylaws of the Company unless such holder is also a holder of record, or the affiliate of a holder of record, of shares of Common Stock, or is a director or executive officer, or an affiliate of a director or executive officer, of the Company, and shall be entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of full shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Preferred Stock are fully convertible pursuant to paragraph 3 above, at the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote on such matters or, if no such record date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of stockholders is solicited.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall vote as a separate class when required by law and to approve the matters set forth in Section 4(a)(ii). In such circumstances, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority (or such greater percentage as may be required by law or the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws) of the Common Stock and of the voting rights provided in this Section for the Series A Preferred Stock, with each voting separately as a class, shall be necessary to approve such proposed action. In all other circumstances described in Section 4(a), the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall vote with the holders of Common Stock and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority (or such greater percentage as may be required by law or the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws) of the Common Stock and of the voting rights provided in this Section for the Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a single group, shall be necessary to approve such proposed action.

5. LIQUIDATION. Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to stockholders, the amount of $1,000 per share, plus any dividends whether or not declared or due which have accrued thereon through the date of such distribution, but which remain unpaid, before any payment or distribution shall be made on shares of Common Stock or any other securities issued by the Company, except that holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall share pro rata in any such payment or distribution with the holders of Series B Preferred Stock. In the event the assets of the Company available for distribution to the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock upon any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company shall be insufficient to pay in full all amounts to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this paragraph, then all of the assets of the Company to be distributed shall be distributed ratably to the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock. After the payment to the holders of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock of the full amounts provided for in this paragraph, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock as such shall have no right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Company.

6. INFORMATION RIGHTS. The holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive audited annual financial statements of the Company, as soon as such statements become available.

UNIONBANCORP, INC.

1. DESIGNATION AND AMOUNT. The board of directors (the Board) of UnionBancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), has designated 1,092 shares of the Company s authorized and unissued preferred stock as Series B Preferred Stock, has authorized such shares for issuance at a price of $1,000 per share (the Series B Preferred Stock) and has determined that no further shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be issued.

2. DIVIDENDS.

(a) The holders of record of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive when, as and if declared by the Board out of any funds legally available therefor, cumulative dividends at the annual rate of $60.00 per share payable in four equal cash payments on the 20th day (or if not a business day, as defined below, on the next business day thereafter) of April, July, October and January commencing October, 1996, provided, however, that any such quarterly cash payment shall be prorated with respect to any shares of Series B Preferred Stock that were outstanding less than the total number of days in the calendar quarter immediately preceding any such payment date. The amount of any such prorated cash payment shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days in any calendar quarter during which such shares of Series B Preferred Stock were outstanding. Each such dividend shall be payable to holders of record as they appear on the stock books of the Company on such record dates, not less than 10 and not more than 60 days preceding the dividend payment date, as shall be fixed by the Board. No dividends, other than those payable solely in the Company s common stock, $1.00 par value (Common Stock), shall be paid during any fiscal year of the Company with respect to shares of Common Stock or any other security issued by the Company other than Series A until dividends in the total amount of $60.00 per share on Series B Preferred Stock shall have been paid. Such dividends shall accrue on each share of Series B Preferred Stock from the date of issuance and from day to day thereafter, whether or not earned or declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such dividends shall be cumulative so that if such dividends in respect of any previous or current annual dividend period, at the annual rate specified above, shall not have been paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart, the deficiency for any prior year and the amount owed in the current year shall first be fully paid before any dividend or other distribution shall be paid on or declared and set apart for the shares of Common Stock. A business day shall be deemed to be any day when trading of securities occurs on the New York Stock Exchange.

(b) Unless full dividends on Series B Preferred Stock for all past dividend periods and the then current dividend period shall have been paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart: (i) no dividend whatsoever whether in cash, securities or other property (other than a dividend payable solely in shares of Common Stock) shall be paid or declared and set aside for payment, and no distribution shall be made, on any shares of Common Stock or other class of preferred stock authorized after the date hereof except for the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A Preferred Stock); and (ii) no shares of Common Stock or other class of preferred stock authorized after the date hereof except the Series A Preferred Stock shall be purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Company and no funds shall be paid into or set aside or made available for a sinking fund for the purchase, redemption or other acquisition thereof without the approval of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

(c) The Company shall not permit any subsidiary of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration any shares of stock of the Company unless the Company could, under paragraph (b) of this Section 2, purchase or otherwise acquire such shares at such time and such manner.

3. REDEMPTION.

(a) Each issued and outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock may be redeemed at the option of the holder or his or her estate for cash as set forth below at any time after the first to occur of: (i) the death of the original holder of such share of Series B Preferred Stock; or (ii) the tenth anniversary of the original issuance of such share, in either case at a price of $1,000 per share, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon whether or not declared, through the Redemption Date, as defined below (collectively, the Redemption Price).

(b) Before any holder of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to redeem any such shares for cash, he shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Company or of any transfer agent of Series B Preferred Stock or Common Stock, with a written notice that he elects to redeem the same and shall state therein the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock being redeemed for cash and the name or names to whom such payment shall be made. The date the Company receives such surrendered certificates and written notice shall be deemed to be the Redemption Date. Thereupon the Redemption Price for such shares shall be payable to the order of the person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof, and each surrendered certificate shall be cancelled and retired.

(c) If on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price is paid, then the dividends with respect to the shares of Series B Preferred Stock redeemed shall cease to accrue after the Redemption Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph 3(c) to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated to redeem for cash any shares of Series B Preferred Stock if such redemption would cause the Company to be in violation of any statute, rule, order, regulation or agreement to which the Company is a party relating to minimum capital requirements. The Company shall use its best efforts promptly to remedy any such violation if the same has the effect of preventing the redemption of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, and shall promptly complete the redemption of shares after such violation has been cured.

4. VOTING RIGHTS.

(a) The holders of each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to vote, except: (i) as required by law; and (ii) to approve the authorization or issuance of any shares of any class or series of stock which ranks senior or on a parity with, the Series B Preferred Stock in respect of dividends and distributions upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall vote as a separate class when required by law and to approve the matters set forth in Section 4(a)(ii). In such circumstances, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority (or such greater percentage as may be required by law or the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws) of the voting rights provided in this Section for the Series B Preferred Stock, voting separately as a class, shall be necessary to approve such proposed action by the holders of Series B Preferred Stock.

5. LIQUIDATION. Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to stockholders, the amount of $1,000 per share, plus any dividends whether or not declared or due which have accrued thereon through the date of such distribution, but which remain unpaid, before any payment or distribution shall be made on shares of Common Stock or any other securities issued by the Company, except that holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall share pro rata in any such payment or distribution with the holders of Series A Preferred Stock. In the event the assets of the Company available for distribution to the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock upon any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company shall be insufficient to pay in full all amounts to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this paragraph, then all of the assets of the Company to be distributed shall be distributed ratably to the holders of Series B Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock. After the payment to the holders of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock of the full amounts provided for in this paragraph, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock as such shall have no right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Company.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

UnionBancorp, Inc. (Union) and Centru Financial Corporation (Centru) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 30, 2006 (the Agreement), pursuant to which Centru will be merged with and into Union (the Merger), with Union as the surviving entity. Under the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time and as a result of the Merger, each outstanding share of Centru common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Centru Common Stock), other than certain shares as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive 1.2 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Union common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Union Common Stock). Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to Union.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Union that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Centru that we deemed relevant; (iv) earnings per share estimates for Union for the years ending December 31, 2006 through 2009 as provided by, and reviewed with, senior management of Union; (v) internal financial projections for Centru for the years ending December 31, 2006 through 2008 provided by and reviewed with senior management of Centru and as reviewed with and adjusted by senior management of Union and estimated financial projections for the year ended December 31, 2009 as discussed with senior managements of Union; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Union, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings determined by the senior management of Union; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Union's and Centru's common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for Union and Centru and similar publicly available information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain recent merger of equals type business combinations in the commercial banking industry; (ix) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of Union the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Union and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Centru regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Centru.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources or that was provided to us by Union and Centru or their respective representatives and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of management of Union and Centru that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Union or Centruie or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Union and Centruie nor have we reviewed any individual credit files relating to Union and Centruie. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Union and Centruie are adequate to cover such losses.

With respect to the earnings estimates for Union and Centruie reviewed with the managements of Union and Centruie and used by us in our analyses, Union's and Centruie's managements confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of the respective future financial performances of Union and Centruie, respectively. With respect to the projections of transaction expenses and cost savings determined by and reviewed with the senior management of Union, management confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and we assumed that such performances would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in Union's and Centruie's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Union and Centruie will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements, that the conditions precedent in the agreements are not waived and that the Merger will be a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice Union has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as to what the value of Union's common stock will be when issued to Centruie's shareholders pursuant to the Agreement or the prices at which Union's and Centruie's common stock may trade at any time.

We have acted as Union's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services and for rendering this opinion, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. Union has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Union and Centruie and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity or debt securities of Union and Centruie or their affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Union in connection with its consideration of the Merger and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to Union and does not address the underlying business decision of Union to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Union or the effect of any other transaction in which Union might engage. Our opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purposes, without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Exchange Ratio is fair to Union from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Centrue Financial Corporation (TRUE) of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger (the Merger) between TRUE and UnionBancorp, Inc. (UBCD), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 30, 2006, between TRUE and UBCD (the Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of the common stock of TRUE (the Common Shares), $0.01 par value per share, shall be converted at the effective time of the Merger into the right to receive 1.2 shares of common stock of UBCD, $1.00 par value per share.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of the banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, TRUE and UBCD, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of TRUE and UBCD for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to TRUE. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of TRUE in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from TRUE for our services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of TRUE and UBCD and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2005 of TRUE and UBCD; (iii) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of TRUE and UBCD and certain other communications from TRUE and UBCD to their respective stockholders; (iv) earnings per share estimates for TRUE and UBCD for the years ending December 31, 2006, 2007 and 2008, as prepared by management and discussed with management; (v) historical stock prices and trading volumes of the common stock of TRUE and UBCD; and (vi) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of TRUE and UBCD furnished to us by TRUE and UBCD for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of TRUE and UBCD regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for TRUE and UBCD with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying the accuracy or completeness of any such information. We have relied upon the management of TRUE and UBCD as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefore) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for TRUE and UBCD are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property of TRUE or UBCD, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of TRUE and UBCD; (ii) the assets and liabilities of TRUE and UBCD; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and bank holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the exchange ratio in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares.

Very truly yours,

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (Section 145) authorizes a court to award, or a corporation s board of directors to grant, indemnification to directors and officers in terms that are sufficiently broad to permit indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933. UnionBancorp s certificate of incorporation contains a provision eliminating the personal liability of its directors to the company or its stockholders consistent with Section 145. UnionBancorp s bylaws provide for the mandatory indemnification of our directors, officers, employees and agents to the maximum extent permitted by Delaware law. UnionBancorp s bylaws require that, before any individual is indemnified, the corporation must determine that indemnification is proper under the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct. This determination is made (a) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to the action, proceeding or suit, or (b) if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel, or (c) by the stockholders.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) To file during any period in which offers and sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act);

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof), which individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(b) That for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the joint proxy statement-prospectus pursuant to items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in the documents filed subsequent to the effective date of this registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.
