Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 23, 2007, Kellogg Company (Kellogg or the Company) issued a press release announcing management changes intended to further broaden the experience of several of the Company s senior executive leaders, including Jeffrey W. Montie and John A. Bryant. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Montie was appointed executive vice president, Kellogg Company, president, Kellogg International and will assume the additional responsibilities for leading Kellogg s global innovation, marketing, consumer promotions, and sales teams. Previously, Mr. Montie was executive vice president, Kellogg Company, president, Kellogg North America.

Mr. Bryant was appointed executive vice president, Kellogg Company, president, Kellogg North America. Mr. Bryant will retain the role of chief financial officer. Previously, Mr. Bryant was executive vice president and chief financial officer, Kellogg Company, president, Kellogg International.

In connection with these changes, the Company entered into retention agreements with Mr. Montie and Mr. Bryant pursuant to which (a) if the executive is terminated by the Company without cause or leaves the Company for good reason prior to his retirement date under the Company s pension plans (June 2016 for Mr. Montie and November 2020 for Mr. Bryant), he would receive certain pension benefits under these plans; (b) Mr. Bryant s pension benefits would be calculated based on the same formula applicable to most other senior executives; and (c) each executive will be subject to non-compete and non-solicit obligations.

The above description of the retention agreements with Mr. Montie and Mr. Bryant is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of the agreements filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2, which agreements are incorporated herein by reference.
